Youth of Magic Valley March to Register for Draft

Conscription Mark In Twin Falls City Hits 1,500 by 1 P. M.

Twenty-three years after an earlier generation marched to enroll for a wartime draft, young men of Twin Falls and Magic Valley thronged conscription registration offices today in a march even more historic.

They were enrolling for America's first conscription in time of peace—and Magic Valley's farms, businesses, public offices, schools, professions were all represented in the battalions that thronged registration quarters.

Exceeds Expectations
Throughout Twin Falls county the draft sign-up was exceeding early expectations almost unanimously. Additional supplies were rushed to every precinct in Bluff, to Kimberly, Murlough, Rock Creek, Ha sen, Piler, Castleford and to two precincts in Twin Falls. More calls were expected this afternoon and sheriff's officers and aides of County Clerk Walter C. Musgrave, conscription registration supervisor and draft board chairman, were ready to run out the supplies.

The enrollment continues officially until 9 p. m., but most precinct quarters will probably be registering men long after that. All men in line at that time will be accepted since the sign-up is mandatory for every male from 21 to 35 years, inclusive.

1:14 by 1 p. m. Here
At 1 p. m. today a check of the seven precincts in Twin Falls disclosed that 1,514 registrations had been made up until that hour, six hours after the doors opened.

Leading the list with the most registrations at that time was precinct three at McVey's Implement store, the total there being an even 400. Next came precinct two, with 320 and then came precinct one, the Chaney Motor company, with 180.

Other registration totals at precincts in Twin Falls at 1 p. m. followed:

Precinct four, Balch Motor company, 164; precinct five, Bickel school, 160; precinct seven, Washington school, 155; precinct six, Lincoln school, 160.

Jail Registration
Registration of the conscripts at county jail was to be carried out this afternoon either by sheriff's officers, or by Charles P. Larsen, clerk of the court and house registration quarters. Mr. Larsen also was scheduled to register any inmates at the jail.

General eligible men who were ill at home today were registered by a deputy sheriff who took the draft cards to them.

"No conscientious objections" had been reported by noon, Mr. Musgrave said.

Legion and Junior Chamber help
Legion and Junior Chamber help were ready this afternoon for assignment wherever needed during the hours of this evening and tonight.

Next Step
With some 4,000 to 5,000 registration cards expected to be handed tomorrow morning, Mr. Musgrave will take possession of the cards with respect to the draft board. He said the next step will be for the draft group to assemble tomorrow, remove the cards from out-of-town and out-of-county residences, and then shuffle all remaining cards.

Numbers will be stamped on these and the total is to be wired to selective service headquarters for use in the draft-drawing beginning next week at Washington.

The cards showing non-local residences will be sent to Gov. O. A. Bostford, according to the regulations.

Registering in Historic Defense Draft

McVey, making a campaign swing through Kansas, Oklahoma and Missouri, charged that the administration "has dodged the farm problem" since 1933, and that instead of helping farmers, it had "diverted and finally—wrote a check."

"The New Deal has tried to buy its way out of trouble," he said, adding: "I do know, and so charge, that the New Deal has trifled with the wheat problem instead of dealing with it manfully, the department of agriculture brain trust trying to dilly with production controls verging on state socialism. Then to gain your consent, they appeared you with money—part of it yours, part of which you must someday pay back."

McVey quoted his Democratic opponent, former Secretary of Agriculture Henry A. Wallace, as telling an audience at Wichita, Kan., recently that the New Deal had "built up the best program in the history of any nation ever had."

"Mr. Wallace, for the first time, is making a mistake," McVey said. "He is entitled to wide latitude, but I think he went too far."

Truckmen Face Federal Court
FAIRBANKS, Alaska, Oct. 16 (AP)—A year-long feud between Alaska truck operators and the Alaska road commission, with the government-owned Alaska railroad as a third party to the dispute, that saw the seizure of a deputy United States marshal by irate truckers, was headed for the federal courts again today.

Five truckers seized Deputy Marshal Dennis Doyle at the big Delta ferry across the Tanana river, 80 miles south of Fairbanks, dispersed him and held him prisoner for several hours when he sought to force them to pay ferry tolls of approximately $0 a ton.

"It's no child's play this time," said U. S. Marshall Joe McDonald, when informed of the seizure.

United States Attorney Ralph Rivers said he was undecided whether to arraign the truckers before a United States commissioner immediately on charges of assaulting a federal officer, or to await convening of the federal grand jury Oct. 24. The act is punishable by a three-year prison term and a $5,000 fine.

War
HONOLULU, Oct. 16 (AP)—Zionia Herald, 117-year-old Methodist weekly, called today for immediate reenactment of prohibition on grounds that "potentially we are in a very real and immediate danger of being overtaken by a foreign invader."

An editorial attributed the fall of the United States to "economic weakness" by French troops who became "dulled in mind and physically below par."

67½ Bushel Bean Yield Sets New High Record
Setting what several farm experts said is a new all-time record for Idaho and probably for the nation, Henry Champlin, rancher living here, has today set a new record for the yield of Twin Falls, achieved a white bean yield of 67½ bushels per acre.

The shattering yield was the average for 100 bushel test, certified by U. S. No. 122, according to Frank Reavescroft, certification deputy here.

Mr. Reavescroft said the 67½-bushel average is the highest "ever" he has seen.

The average was nine full acres by a three-way checkup, since the area has been nursered by the AAA, the best company and Mr. Champlin.

Youth of Nation Answers 1st Call To Shoulder Arms

First call, and millions answer. All day America's young manhood is marching. They're a little out of step, but not for long.

Zero hour moves westward with the sun and 16,404,000 strong they register for national service.

The machinery of national selective service is spinning coast-to-coast, gulf-to-Canada. The world around us is in fire.

This year the traditional American muster does to greater scale. But the muster, all the same, that enables us to hold the world for plains states and the New Englanders before them to meet the Indians' charge, and to hold the world for us.

JAPANESE CLAIM STALIN PLANS TO CALL CONFERENCE
BY H. O. THOMPSON
TOKYO, Oct. 16 (AP)—The influential newspaper Hochi said today that Japanese circles here believe they heard that Josef Stalin planned to sponsor a German-Italian-Japanese conference in Moscow probably early in November.

Hochi said Stalin would call the conference shortly after the arrival of Japan's new ambassador, Gen. Yeshihiro Tatekawa.

It said the conference would be called to decide Soviet diplomatic policy and to "meet the international situation."

According to the newspaper, it is believed here that the opening of the four-power meeting Stalin would take the initiative and define Soviet intentions—a rare procedure for the present Russian regime.

"Britain in Contention"
Hochi said Stalin's purported intention to call a four-power conference "has put Britain into contention." It was alleged that Stalin reached his decision after consulting Premier-Foreign Commissioner Vichashev M. Molotov and other Russian government leaders.

Six hundred American residents in Korea have notified the consulate general here that they desire to return to the United States, it was learned.

Most of the prospective evacuees are missionaries. They had intended to leave for the United States state department advice to get out, but it was understood that increasing Japanese pressure to remove all foreign influence from the region had caused them to change their minds.

U. S. More Proactive
The U. S. State Department is taking part in the general newspaper campaign against the United States, said a source here.

"Recent words and gestures of the United States have become more and more provocative, and are drawing nearer to war. It is not about time that it watched its step."

It said that Japan had already taken measures to meet the American scrap iron embargo which became effective today, and commented that Russia had a good opportunity to effect a rapprochement with Japan because Japanese public opinion strongly favored it.

U. S. War Declaration
BANGKOK, Thailand (AP)—Oct. 16 (AP)—The Thai Daily News, important Thai newspaper, advocated today an immediate declaration of war on French Indo-China because of refusal of the French government to cede important Indo-China territories to Thailand.

SAILORS PASSED THROUGH PICKETS

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 26 (AP)—Party members of the AFL Sailors Union of the Pacific, some with rifles, passed through a picket line today through a booby trap picket line to work about the S. S. President Taft at pier 42 today. There was no incident at the picket line, which was broken up by the police yesterday.

Harry Lundeberg, BUF executive secretary whose jaw was broken in four places in the fighting yesterday, formally led his men to work. Police formed a lane through which they left, which was a white identification armband, marched.

The CIO union posted the pickets in a lane to the pier, while the sailors in maintenance work, including painting, aboard the American president liner's trans-Pacific liner, the Taft, which is to leave for America tomorrow to remove Americans from the danger zone and carry large amounts of supplies to American troops.

Beet Growers Asked To Slow up Harvest

Calling on beet growers of this area to slow up their harvest because sugar content of the 1940 beets has been beneath average thus far, Harry Elcock, Idaho manager of Amalgamated Sugar company, today urged farmers to contact their fieldmen to have beets tested.

Since the sugar content is the factor determining fund received by farmers, Elcock said that slowing up the harvest will not do financial benefit of the growers.

If left longer on the ground, the unharvested beets will mature further and the sugar content will be boosted, the Amalgamated chief pointed out.

He said that lack of sufficient frost in the mornings has prevented beets from maturing.

Most of the beets harvested thus far, however, come at all-time record, he indicated.

Mr. Elcock's statement said: "Good weather has helped the beet crop to reach a fast pace. The beets have been rolling into the receiving stations at a heavy rate of speed. Every effort is being made to try and relieve the speed of delivery some, while because the sugar content of the beets is below average.

"As the price of beets to the grower is determined by the sugar content, who are harvesting to try and relieve the speed of delivery some, while because the sugar content of the beets is below average.

James Stewart, Orson Welles, Gene Antry Register for Draft

By FREDERICK C. OTTMAN
HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 16 (AP)—The movie heroes or the surprisingly few young enough—joined the rest of America's young men today in registering for national service.

Most of the top-flight talent, including Clark Gable, Gary Cooper, Henry Tracy, Ronald Colman and Gary Gray, were too old. Even those who are of the proper age, Bill Boyd, Buck Jones, and George O'Brien, topped the 28-year-old mark.

Of the hundred or so actors who became registrars, most were married, many also were posing ably to their eyes.

Single men with a change of becoming soldiers included James Stewart, Orson Welles, Cesar Romero and Broderick Crawford. Virtually all of the others could list dependents.

CHINESE PREPARE TRUCKS FOR REOPENING BURMA ROAD

SUPPLIES TO BE TAKEN NORTH TO KAI-SHEK TROOPS

By GEORGE WANG
LASHO, Burma, Oct. 16 (AP)—Chinese technicians today overhauled an estimated 2,000 American-made trucks at this Burma town, northeast of Mandalay, preparatory to the reopening of the Burma road, the supply route to Kumaon, Yunnan province, and thence to the Chinese fighting troops.

Reopening of the road upon expiration of an Anglo-Japanese agreement under which it has been closed for the past three months, will be marked by simple ceremony.

British custom officials and authorities of the Chinese southwest transportation administration were conferring on procedure.

In order to avoid a traffic jam in the route to get supplies into China over a highway which the Japanese have threatened to bomb relentlessly, no munitions, arms or airplanes will be allowed to move towards Chungking until Saturday.

Some quarters estimated that 100,000 tons of goods were piled up in Lasho awaiting reopening of the road. Other quarters said that an additional 500,000 tons of material had been accumulated in Rangoon.

Full House Hears Attorneys Debate Third Term Question

OAKLEY, Oct. 16 (Special)—With a "full house" greeting the speakers, a Democrat and a Republican today discussed the relative issues of the third term campaign in a debate which was staged at the local theater last night.

The speakers were Marshall Chapman, Twin Falls attorney and a Democrat, and Clarence W. Thomas, Burley attorney who is a Republican. The question was "Resolved, that the third term is an attempt to divert the attention of the people from the issues of the country." Chapman upheld the negative and Thomas the affirmative.

In carrying out his argument, Mr. Chapman said that "no President in the history of the country has refused to run for a third term, except Jefferson, upon the matter of principle."

The so-called third term precedent was founded on George Washington's refusal to accept a third term, because of advanced years, and return to the republic which he had reluctantly been drawn.

The late Senator Borah expressed his opposition to the third term to the democratic principle of the third term, but which he had reluctantly been drawn.

"The late Senator Borah expressed his opposition to the third term to the democratic principle of the third term, but which he had reluctantly been drawn."

None Indispensable
Thomas said that "there is no indispensable man in America, and it is only in the gift of the people for a man to occupy, who believes himself indispensable. That no President has ever been elected for a third term, except in the case of the broken practice of 150 years in our government. No responsible public man has ever raised his voice against it except under circumstances which suggest the influence of personal or party advantage."

To the matter of the "indispensable man," Chapman replied: "There is no indispensable man in America, and it is only in the gift of the people for a man to occupy, who believes himself indispensable. That no President has ever been elected for a third term, except in the case of the broken practice of 150 years in our government. No responsible public man has ever raised his voice against it except under circumstances which suggest the influence of personal or party advantage."

COLLEGE LEADER WILL TALK HERE

Dr. William W. Hall, Jr., president of the College of Idaho, and Mrs. Hall will address the young married couples of the Presbyterian church at 8 p. m. today in the church parlors at a special meeting.

The Hall's are here from Caldwell in the interests of the drive for the new college gymnasium.

The College of Idaho, headed by Dr. Hall, has occupied a unique place in Idaho since its founding in 1861. Its student body comes from 25 counties, 21 of which are in south Idaho and eastern Oregon, and it serves all denominations.

Said Dr. Hall today, "Attuned, as most of them are, to the stern realities of life, the students of the College of Idaho are alive with ambition and hope, and the urge to achieve."

The gymnasium, to be erected at a cost of $20,000, is already underway, and more than $50,000 of the total has already been raised.

He complains, however, that the benefits of the social security program and the farm program should be increased, and that the only criticism he has directed toward the New Deal program is that the tax burden falls too heavily upon the shoulders of big business, and does not advise us how he is going to rectify this situation, other than to let Hoover, to appoint a committee to investigate the matter. If the tax burden is shifted from big business, it must fall on the shoulders of the little man.

"Mr. Wilkie's second criticism is that big business has been neglected and restricted to a degree that it has interfered with its prosperity. In this connection, from the inception of the nation down to 1932, big business has had a free hand in America. They have had not only a free hand but have received from the government through tariff benefits and otherwise, special benefits and considerations."

"Notwithstanding this situation they led this country into the greatest economic crisis in its history. Yes, big business did not hesitate to call on the government to save their hides in 1933 and now, since their hides have been saved, they want the people to forget the same free hand coupled with every other consideration."

"It seems to me that if there has been a divorce between the New Deal and the Democratic party that Mr. Wilkie was attempting to commit bigamy by marriage to the New Deal himself."

Regarding Thomas' charge that office holders were greatly increased and were a part of Roosevelt's machine, Chapman said that this is the first administration ever to

DEATH TOLL FEARED HEAVY IN LONDON NIGHT BOMBING

SHELTER BLOWN TO BITS DURING HEAVIEST RAIDS

By WALLACE CARROLL
LONDON, Oct. 16 (Special)—A tragic death toll was feared today as rescue squads dug into the ruins of a two-story London school which had been blasted to bits by German bombs during the night in the heaviest raid of the war.

The school, used as a shelter by people all over the neighborhood, was leveled and rescuers found only a few steel pillars sticking up through the ruins.

Three London hospitals, three schools, a college and two churches, in addition to many houses and business premises, were wrecked by the Germans in mass attacks lasting for hours on 72 London and at least 23 provincial districts.

Not Greatest Raid
The air ministry admitted the raids were heavy and said a large number of bombs had been dropped on London and its suburbs, but damage was not as great as during one raid early last month.

Bombs were dropped indiscriminately, the ministry said, on many parts of the capital. Damage, however, was confined mainly to homes, industrial premises and utility services.

There was no tendency to underestimate the severity of the all night attack. For hours buildings rocked with the blast of bombs and anti-aircraft fire was so heavy that it was almost impossible to walk through the streets.

Terror Bombing
It was emphasized, however, that the Germans were indulging primarily in terror bombing directed mainly at the civilian population and that damage to military objectives was actually relatively slight.

Heavy damage to civilian property was inevitable, it was said, but it was estimated that aside from the bombed school, and two bombed schools in the provinces, civilian casualties were probably lighter than they were during early terror raids because people had now learned to go to shelters.

German claims that 1,000 planes had dropped more than 2,200,000 pounds of bombs on London were ridiculed. It was said that possibly 250 German planes had taken part in all attacks on London and the British Isles.

By United Press
Secretary of the Interior Harold I. Ickes, speaking in Akron, O., branded Wendell L. Willkie as "yes, but—" candidate, forecast a triumphant victory for President Roosevelt and called for reelection of a Democratic congress. He tagged Willkie's campaign promises to date "alibi," "blarney," "self-contradictory" and "impossible."

Alfred M. London, 1936 Presidential candidate, warns that the dictators are "making a very grave" error if they mistake the rivalry of the political campaign for disunity in the United States.

Lupe Velaz, Mexican film star and ex-wife of Johnny Weissmuller, surprised Hollywood with the disclosure she and Quinn "Big Boy" Williams, also a movie player, will be married soon.

President Roosevelt hopes to make defense inspection tours in five northeastern states—Massachusetts, Connecticut, New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania—but says he doesn't know if the trips will come before or after election day.

Pope Pius XII will broadcast a special message to the United States at 11:30 a.m. MDT, Saturday, commemorating American mission Sunday.

Democracy's ill may be cured by a quest for truth and a willingness to work dissolved by its members.

Franklin D. Roosevelt told a Portland audience. Her son, John, made his first speech of the 1940 campaign in Boston last night.

Secretary John D. M. Hamilton of the national Republican committee claims Willkie is gaining public favor rapidly in "the best upswing at the right time I've ever seen in politics."

James Stewart, movie actor, found a letter in his mail today from Judge Louis W. Kaufman—and it wasn't fan mail. It was a summons for Stewart to explain why he failed to answer a speeding citation.

His wife, divorced wife of sportsman John Hay "Rock" Whitney, is reported to have signed up to play a role in a western film.

In Murder Case

Ercil H. Clark, 20, Sandy, Utah, top photo, faces charge of murdering Willis B. Ferguson, his 29-year-old neighbor in the Utah community. Clark was held overnight in Twin Falls city jail as authorities brought him and Annie LaVita, 17, through south Idaho en route to Utah. The girl, arrested with Clark at LaGrande, Ore., is held as material witness.

It was emphasized, however, that the Germans were indulging primarily in terror bombing directed mainly at the civilian population and that damage to military objectives was actually relatively slight.

Final Honors Paid Tom Mix In Hollywood

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 16 (UP)—Hundreds of actor friends and former army buddies crowded into the little Church of the Flowers today to pay final tribute to Tom Mix, dashing cowboy, actor and showman.

A Masonic ritual was read by Monte Blue, film player and close friend of the greatest of all western horse and gun artists, and the service was conducted by the Rev. J. Whitcomb Brougher.

The ceremony for Mix, killed last Saturday when his custom-built speedster overturned at 80 miles an hour near Florence, Ariz., was in true, but restrained, Hollywood fashion, with orchestra leader Rudy Vallee singing Mix's favorite song, "Empty Saddles."

For 12 hours yesterday, the actor's body lay in state in the chapel of Pierce Brothers mortuary, while legions of friends and fans filed by for a last look. Maj. John Church, who fought at Ordeal Hill with Mix during the Spanish American war, collapsed as he left the crowded chapel.

Like his speedy automobiles, the silver-fitted saddle and diamond studded belt, the actor's coffin was extravagantly appointed. Of silver, it bore his initials, T. M., in block engraving. The cowboy, intimated virtually everything he owned.

The prehistoric bird, Archaeopteryx, had no bill. It had a reptilian snout, and had claws on its wings.

SCHOOLS ATTAIN ALL TIME HIGH

Enrollment in Twin Falls public schools—including the four-room school at the farm camp—climbed near 4,000 today to set an all-time record high.

Registration figures announced at offices of Supr. Homer M. Davis showed that the total is 3,211, with inclusion of the 169 farm camp pupils. Exclusive of the farm camp pupils, enrollment is 3,042 or approximately the same as a year ago.

Junior high tops the five schools in the city. That unit has 806 students. Highest school has 486; Lincoln has 472; Bickel 446; Washington 438.

Largest single class is ninth grade in junior high, with 338 pupils. First graders are next with 336 enrollment.

At the farm camp school, breakdown of registration by grades shows the primary department leading with 29 youngsters.

Supr. Davis said the average room load is better balanced this year than at any time in the past several years. Grade school rooms range from 35 to 36 students in the city and 38 at the camp.

"Our average load in grade schools is balanced perfectly," Mr. Davis said, "and is about the right size for efficient work."

Clark Robertson, chairman of the program, gave an explanation of the work of the Junior Red Cross.

An original skit was given in costumes of foreign lands. Marjorie Ginn, Ruth Davis, Barbara Lawrence and Barbara Price were in the cast. Another skit, "The Angel of the Battlefield," dealing with the life and part Clara Barton played in the Red Cross movement also presented. Those in the cast were Betty Herrall, Louis Leiser, Lois Ramsey, Kathryn Graves, Bill Glese, Jack Goodhue, Kenneth Johnson, Wesley James, Keith Bryant, Ivan Stone, Leland Davidson, Roger Wagner and Teddy Turner.

Schools Here Earn Mention In Magazines

Nationwide publicity is given the Twin Falls school system this month in two educational magazines circulated through the United States.

"School Review," another national educational magazine, and the article is devoted to the Twin Falls high school curriculum. Special emphasis is given the fact that provision is made in English work for the needs of girls and boys who will not be able to attend colleges.

DWORSNAK CITES
DICTATOR PERIL

BHOSSONE, Oct. 16 (Special)—Declaring that the past five or six years was toward dictatorial power in one man and that only three steps remained to be taken — namely, the reorganization of labor, industry and agriculture — Henry C. Dworsnak, Republican candidate for U. S. representative, consistently fired at the New Deal before a large crowd in the Lincoln auditorium Monday.

Mr. Dworsnak agriculture today as comparable with the 11 years preceding the present administration. Quoting data given out by the department of agriculture he stated that the average price paid for commodities from 1921 to 1929 was greater than from 1931 to 1939. Average price of wheat during 12 Republican years was $1.02 compared with 12 cents during eight Democratic years. American industry, he said, fared comparatively better; during 12 Republican years industrial income was two billion dollars more than during the past eight years.

Against Trade Facts
Mr. Dworsnak presented himself as determined against such New Deal policies as the reciprocal trade agreements and the export-import bank. Giving voice to his feelings on a third term he said: "The President of the United States, who has served two terms and is seeking a third, instead of discussing the problems confronting the people of this country is hiding behind the cloak of patriotism and national defense."

As to national defense, Congressman Dworsnak stated that all that can be done is to increase the internal strength there are two significant developments. First, he said, is the investigations of the Dies committee and second, the conclusion on the part of federal employees with subversive allies. Enlarging on his theme he stated that the Dies committee and the chairman, Mark Dies and his committee, but condemned the attitude of Madame Secretary Perkins as related to aliens in this country, stating that she had refused to deport 700 aliens who had flagrantly violated the laws.

He emphasized the point that the time had come for Americans to decide whether they wanted security under the constitution or regimentation under a dictatorship.

Tells Draft Stand
In answer to a query from the audience concerning his reasons for voting against the bill, Dworsnak stated that he was in favor of drafting the manpower of the nation in time of war, but that the country is still at peace. He further mentioned that army officers had stated that they would not draft the 429 day men of the country, they were "essential" to national defense but would get their enrollees from the agricultural section of the nation.

"To me," he asserted, "this is not universal conscription."

Germans May Await Result of Japan-Red Pact Before Drive

By J. W. T. MASON
United Press Wire Report
While heavy concentrations of German troops in Rumania increasingly threaten Russia's position on the Danube and in the Baltic, General Takaoka, newly-appointed Japanese ambassador to Russia, is en route to Moscow to try to bring about a pact between Japan and the Russians. It is probable that no major action will be taken by Japan until General Takaoka has had an opportunity of determining Russia's basic reactions to the new treaty.

Japan's dispatch of a high ranking army commander as ambassador to Russia, immediately after making the military alliance with Germany and Italy, carries the implication of offering Stalin a pact greater than from 1931 to 1939. If the Russians accept, it will be under a Duresse and with reservations secreted in their minds.

Under more normal conditions a Russo-Japanese non-aggression agreement advantageous to both nations might be negotiated. While Russia and Japan are rivals in the Far East, their mutual sense of realism has acknowledged that were between them would be too costly.

Now, however, with the triple alliance of the Baltic Russia with powerful enemies in Europe and the Orient, the situation has changed fundamentally. A Russo-Japanese non-aggression treaty has become a practical impossibility because Japan already has pledged herself to assist Germany if any country now at peace joins the war against the Germans. Should Stalin conclude that her "vicious" demand a hostile attempt to check Germany in southeastern Europe, no Russo-Japanese pact would be operative.

The general Takaoka mission must necessarily be limited to scope. He cannot agree that Japan will not molest Russia if Stalin goes to war against the axis. If the Russians were to consent in good faith to a non-aggression understanding with Japan, it could only mean that Stalin has definitely decided to remain at peace with the Germans for the duration of the present war, regardless of future developments.

RED CROSS HELP
GOES TO BRITAIN

GOODING, Oct. 16 (Special)—Gooding chapter of the National Red Cross is actively carrying on its share of the Red Cross program. Last week a box of clothing was sent to Britain for shipment to the British to aid war refugees. This box contained five men's sweaters, four men's shirts, three women's sweaters, two women's blouses, five women's wool flannel dresses and two complete layettes.

The National Red Cross furnished the yarn, the local chapter the material used. Women of Gooding county donated their services in making up this material and the community may feel proud of the fine workmanship and lovely garments that were sent.

Another Dec. 31
On Dec. 31 another year will be sent. In the future National Red Cross will furnish yarn and also dress materials.

Among other activities this year the Red Cross chapter has sponsored first aid classes which were conducted by Frank Johns. These were held in Hagerman, Bliss and Gooding and several first aid stations were established along the highways.

Since Oct. 1, 1939, the following amounts have been expended by the local chapter for relief in the county: $25.84 for food and new clothing; $22.50 for toilet necessities; $8 for glasses; $5 for cot for Bliss school; $4 for nursing and the funds expended for tornado disaster consisted of $200 from the local chapter funds, $1,097.68 from National Red Cross funds, and $1,599.74 from local contributions making a total expended for tornado disaster of $2,897.46.

A great number of articles of clothing has been dispersed, in each case personally investigated so that clothes are donated to the best possible use. Fern Caruth, home service chairman, has been assisted by Bill Fran in handling the clothing.

BOARD ENFORCES
LOAD LIMITATION

JEROME, Oct. 16 (Special)—Board of commissioners of Jerome highway district voted recently to enforce the load limit laws throughout the district for the preservation and maintenance of good roads.

It has been pointed out that trucks with excessive loads and school buses or other trucks which have been equipped with single rear tires are causing excessive damage to the roads of the district, particularly during wet weather and in the early spring and winter.

The board has subsequently ordered the preparation of a load limit regulation drawn which will place the limit load under normal road conditions based on the per inch size of the tires.

Under state statutes, the highway boards are empowered to reduce these loads as much as necessary in order to protect the highways. This will be carried out early this fall, during the winter and early next spring. Roads on which reduced loads may be carried will be posted at appropriate points.

Prosecution of violators will be made whenever reported or apprehended.

No truck carrying in excess of 10,000 gross weight, which weight includes the vehicle, may operate with single rear tires. Dual tires of sufficient size will be required to be used when the vehicle together with the load it carries is over 10,000 pounds gross weight.

This will be the first of three stage productions to be offered during the coming year by the "Little Theater."

NAZIS THREATEN 'TIDAL WAVE' OF BOMBERS TO COME

RAID LAST NIGHT TERMED AS ONLY 'A MERE RIPPLE'

By FREDERICK C. OCHSNER
 BERTON, Oct. 16 (AP)—Night raids by the Nazis on London were continuing on London on a "very large" scale in favorable weather after all-night attacks headed off the entire war, which left the city in a state of "unparalleled chaos."

During the night Nazis said 1,000 German planes dropped 2,200,000 pounds of bombs on London in what they called repeated raids for the latest bombing of German civilians by the royal air force.

Informants said a large percentage of the bombs were dropped in the London-Thames, southeast of London, and that reconnaissance planes, flying over the area this morning, saw the ruins of factories and supply centers. German reconnaissance planes saw also, along the lower Thames, the ruins of an air-drome and the smoking wreckage of a factory.

Worst in History
 Informants indicated that their all-night attack had been one of the most terrible in aerial history.

They made it plain, however, that worse was to come.

Informants said that the beginning of German raids on London might be described as a ripple, with the final attacks to be of tidal wave proportions. They said that now the raids were about one-third of the way along the course from a ripple to a tidal wave.

They quoted Nazi witnesses as describing scenes of "utter horror" with great fires—"one fiery hell"—disclosing great bomb craters, torn up streets and crumbling buildings.

A high command commander described the raid with more reserve: "After the British had still not been freed from choosing defensive German civilians and non-military objectives as the targets of their aerial bombardment, the German air force on the night of the 16th-18th October applied stronger forces in attacks on military objectives in London, which cause extensive damage."

British Raided

"British planes, flying in over western Germany, reached the Brandenburg. An alarm was sounded in Berlin as a precaution. All British raiders were turned back usually early without inflicting appreciable damage."

Bombing squadrons of the command of Field Marshal Albert Kesselring conducted the bombardment of London, Nazis said.

"Often enough the example of Warsaw, Rotterdam and Dunkirk has been cited as a warning. How long will it be before London needs the same fate?"

Woman Slightly Injured in Crash
 Minor laceration of the head was sustained by one passenger in a Buick machine last night as the auto and a truck sped two miles south of the west end community, state police said.

Mrs. John Chapman, route two, Buell, riding in a car driven by her daughter, Mary Ellen Chapman, 23, suffered the minor hurt.

Geo. Conrad, 19, Castletford, was driving the truck involved in the crash. His vehicle was slightly damaged. The Chapman car, however, sustained damages estimated at $100.

Officers said they believe lights of an approaching machine temporarily blinded Mrs. Chapman.

CAMP FIRE GIRLS
 FORGET-ME-NOT
 Forget-Me-Not group of Camp Fire Girls enjoyed a hike to the fish hatchery in Rock creek canyon yesterday. A winner rosal was held. Clubs included Turin, Paulson, Chiswick, Hart, Barbara, Gileley and Bernice Mondragon. Officers present were Mrs. Bert Harris, Mrs. A. P. Russell and Mrs. J. I. Berry.

Dworshak Attacks FDR Refusal To Discuss Issues of Campaign

Relaxing on Strenuous Tour

Declaring he cannot see that President Roosevelt is justified in saying he's too busy to campaign, or to discuss for the nation the vital issues of the 1940 campaign in addition to the foreign war threat, Cong. Henry C. Dworshak spoke last night to almost 400 at a Republican rally in American Legion hall.

The candidate, making a tour of a second congressional district at the present time, was introduced by Mrs. Emma Clouchak, national committee member, who spoke briefly on the qualifications of Wendell L. Wilkie. L. H. Van Riper, county chairman, presided and introduced the county candidate.

Risks FDR Attitude
 In making the attitude of the President in not campaigning, Dworshak attacked the FDR attitude.

"Because of national defense, we are denied the right and the privilege of the President discussing the issues at hand and the economic conditions and aims of his administration," he then turned immediately to the foreign policy of the nation, saying that "war may come sooner than we expect" because of the "meddling foreign policy and the provocative attitude of the officials at Washington."

He cited the fact that since the preparedness program has started, many of the "stop-gaps" have been taken away and that at the present time there is no competitive bidding and no profit limitations of any kind on war materials.

Fears Profiteering
 "I'm not saying that we have profiteering but I'm fearful of it," Cong. Dworshak said. "I seriously hope that the industrial leaders of America will be fair and patriotic and aid the program without attempting to gather in the spoils."

He pointed out, regarding the trend toward government employment, that there are now 1,233,000 federal employes in the executive branches of the government, a side from those in the army and the navy, being an increase of nearly half a million since 1933.

"Is that great efficiency or economy as declared under the reorganization bill which was passed?" the speaker asked his listeners.

He added that he voted no on the reorganization bill because the houses of congress were denied the right to veto any proposal. It provided that both houses of congress veto and such veto power was practically impossible to obtain with only 23 Republican senators in the upper house.

Answers Masters
 He spent much time during his lecture answering Ira H. Masters, his opponent in the Democratic ticket, who Tuesday night at Buell accused Dworshak of not having the interests of the people of Idaho at heart.

The congressman used an Evening Times article concerning Masters' remarks during this part of his talk and told why he voted no on the reorganization measure, the south fork reservoir measure and other proposals.

Concerning south fork of the Snake river reservoir Dworshak said that Masters must have had in mind the spend-fund bill which he (Dworshak) voted against.

A candidate relaxes while on a strenuous campaign tour and reads the latest political and war news in the Idaho Evening Times. Cong. Henry Dworshak is the candidate and the picture above was snapped as he rested in his hotel room prior to his address last night at a Republican rally at the American Legion hall. and find they are getting 30 cents a hundred for the potatoes. I wish to place the case of agriculture in the hands of the American farmers and whatever their judgment is, that is fine with me, because I feel that they are perfectly capable of judging for themselves."

Opposes FDR Powers
 Regarding the giving of many new powers to President Roosevelt Dworshak said:

"The time has not yet come when we can justify this country the delegating of all these powers to one man. The trend to dictatorship is menacing and the people must be aroused to their individual responsibilities."

The tall, hard-hitting congressman cited federal statistics which he asserted show that both the farmer and industry were better off under the 12 years of Republican rule than under the past seven years of the New Deal. The figures reflected those presented Monday night to a Lincoln county G.O.P. audience at Shoshone (see page five of today's Evening Times).

Dworshak also warned solemnly that the burden of maintaining American democracy as it now exists must be shouldered "by every American."

ESCAPE
 BUFFALO, N. Y., Oct. 16 (AP)—John S. Greig, 32, was disappointed today because he had only six months to serve in Erie county Jail. He courted the "stretch" to escape military service.

After being sentenced by Judge Christie J. Buscaglia for malicious mischief, Greig grumbled: "Is that all you can give me? I wanted a year."

He threw a no-parking sign through a plate glass window.

ENGLAND HALTS RUMANIA TRADE
 LONDON, Oct. 16 (AP)—Great Britain has ceased normal trade relations with Rumania since it became apparent that the Balkan state was under economic domination of Germany. R. A. Butler, parliamentary secretary for foreign affairs, told the house of commons today.

Butler's statement was in reply to a suggestion that Rumania should be included in the British blockade of European countries under German domination.

AL YOUNG HEADS JUNIOR CHAMBER

Alton Young had been elected president of the Twin Falls Junior Chamber of Commerce today, and seven other officers had been named to executive posts for 1940-41.

Young was named at the annual balloting last night as members of the chamber gathered at the Park Hotel. Perry was chosen first vice-president; Charles Sieber, second vice-president; Henry Sturgeon, secretary; Jimmy Sinclair, treasurer; Roy Babbel, R. E. (Bud) Kimes and Wilbur McKay, directors.

Prior to leaving office, President Robert H. Warner named R. D. Werner and Max Phillips as a committee to study the feasibility of a college football game in Twin Falls this season between University of Idaho, southern branch, and Boise Junior college.

Looking toward a Christmas holiday basketball game in Twin Falls, the J.C. board has named a board of directors to investigate proposals for a University of Idaho appearance on the Vandal basketball tour. The board is to name a committee.

The basketball proposal, as aired last night, consisted in efforts to have the Vandals play southern branch in Twin Falls, or possibly match the Vandals against an all-star college team from Idaho.

Fingerprint Committee
 Charles Sieber and Bill McRoberts were named as committee members to look into feasibility of a fingerprinting project which would follow out the similar campaign by Jaycees several years ago.

Sieber, general chairman of arrangements for the teachers' dance during the South Central Idaho Educational Institute meeting in Twin Falls last week-end, selected as committee men Tom Sine, Walter Craig, George DeWitt, Bill McRoberts and Clark Max Miller. Bus Kimes and Louis Leopold. The dance will be held Friday night, Oct. 25, at the Elks club.

Mr. Warner summarized achievements of the Jaycees during the past 13 months, stressing the "envisable" results of their organization. He gained in Idaho since it was organized in Twin Falls. He asked full cooperation of the community in plans originated and carried out next year by the new officers and board.

Student Council Seeks New Yells And More Songs
 In order to learn more school songs and yells, it was decided at a student council meeting Monday to place a box on a table in the main hall of Twin Falls high school in which students may place contributions.

The new yells and songs will then be used in future programs and athletic games.

Reports of student body ticket sales and eligibility, adoption of the student body budget and a discussion of student body finances were also given at the meeting.

BANNED
 PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 16 (AP)—Two Portland churches used regularly as polling places today directed their registrars to close where and displayed signs reading "buildings of the church are dedicated to worship purposes and shall not be used for the promotion of war." They were the Mt. Zion Methodist church and the University Park Methodist church.

PENN COLLEGE RANKS OF GRID POWERHOUSES

Team Rates With Boston College, Cornell, Fordham

NEW YORK, Oct. 16 (UP)—Frichi Xavier Reagan, who actually outscored the great Tom Harmon of Michigan in a man-to-man duel last year, had Penn's football stock booming and today the Red and Blue must be ranked close to Cornell, Boston college and Fordham in eastern standings.

In handling Yale its worst last week and causing an announcement of football de-emphasis by the Ell athletic director, Penn's big gun was Reagan.

This home-grown product of Northeast Catholic high in Philadelphia can hit the line, sweep the ends, catch passes and catch 'em. He scored three touchdowns against hapless Yale — one after snagging a punt and scattering the Texas down the sideline, another after returning a punt 45 yards to the five, then pounding over on fourth down, and a third with a 15-yard, off-tackle reverse.

Outscored Harmon Although Michigan nooted out the Quakers 10-17 last year, Penn rooters never will let you forget that Reagan was a better man than Harmon. He rolled up 356 yards for Penn from scrimmage, punt returns, kickoff returns and passing yards. Harmon totaled 229.

With Cornell still the top club of the east, the Penn-Cornell meeting on Nov. 23, final game of the season, shapes up now as a fitting climax to settle any questions of superiority between the two.

Fast Seven Tests Pitt and Columbia face the most severe tests this week. Fordham meets a rejuvenated Princeton Oct. 21. U. Boston college is too tough for Idaho and Penn a topheavy choice over the floundering Princeton outfit that lost to Navy. The Middies have a pushover in Drake. Remainder of the eastern program includes Georgetown-Virginia Tech; Franklin and Marshall-Muhlenberg; La Fayette-Gettysburg; Penn State-Schuyler; Manhattan-Boston; Temple-Michigan State; Boston U.-Cincinnati; Yale-Dartmouth; N. Y. U.-Holy Cross; Harvard-Army; and Brown-Tufts.

Junior Girls Trip Seniors in Softball Tourney

After being decorated by the sophomore girls Monday afternoon, the Twin Falls junior girls' softball squad came back yesterday to defend the senior girls' 10-13 in the inter-class softball tournament.

A last inning rally by the senior girls failed to catch the hard hitting juniors. The juniors seemed to have the game on ice when the seniors came to bat. The seniors, heavily loaded Violet Bell, senior outfielder, pounded out a home run that momentarily put the seniors back in the lead game. However, the attack was soon squelched and the side was retired, leaving the juniors in the lead.

The junior barrage was led by Lucy Millhill, second baseman, who connected for two homers, both with no one on base.

Atherton Will Visit Idaho

Love Is Wonderful Thing—But It Won't Make Race Horses Win

BY HENRY McLEMORE
NEW YORK, Oct. 16 (UP)—Love is a beautiful thing, but it won't pay off on its at the race track.

They still go by the numbers that flash on the board.

If love conquered all, as the poets would have us believe, Utah Arcaro would be so rich that his husband, Eddie, never would have to slip into silks again, never would have to lift his whip to a thoroughbred in a drive for the wire.

Ruth has a bet on Eddie whenever he goes to the post, and that's quite often since he is one of the country's great jockeys. It doesn't matter what his riding style is, Eddie never would have to slip into silks again, never would have to lift his whip to a thoroughbred in a drive for the wire.

I bet with Mrs. Arcaro at Jamaica Plain and she is a pleasure to sit with her, too, because she's as pretty as a 10 to 1 shot.

When she turned to a pleasure to sit with her, too, because she's as pretty as a 10 to 1 shot.

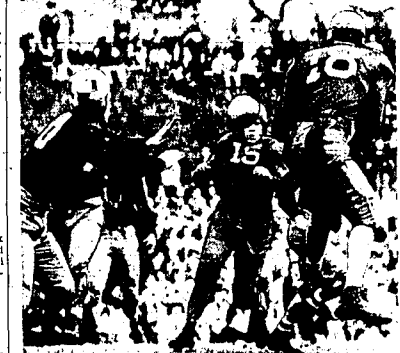

When she turned to a pleasure to sit with her, too, because she's as pretty as a 10 to 1 shot.

Washington State Upsets Golden Bears

Washington State's Cougars scored the Golden Bear by the tall left half, being stopped by McQuinn (43) after an eight-yard run. Reinhard, (45), ready to tackle.

Huskies Outpass Oregon, Win

University of Washington passed right over the heads of the Oregon Ducks to win a hard-fought 10-0 battle. Here's one pass that went wrong, right into the hands of Dick Oreon, Oregon end, who ran it back ten yards. No. 15 is Haskil, Oregon quarterback.

Baugh Leads Gridders In Three Departments

By PAUL SCHEFFELS
NEW YORK, Oct. 16 (UP)—Sammy Baugh, the Washington Redskins' arch-apostle of the forward pass, drum-majored the National League in three different passing departments today in the closest race for individual honors the professional circuit has ever had.

In four games so far this season, Baugh has been successful in 40 out of 67 pass attempts for a total of 556 yards and a phenomenal efficiency mark of 70 per cent.

He has averaged 10 completions good for 120 yards a game, which is one completion and 10 yards better than the record set by Cleveland's Parker Hall and Philadelphia's Davey O'Brien last fall.

The race in other departments, while not as sensational, was just as close.

A three-way tie exists for scoring honors among Jimmy Johnston of Washington, Don Looney of Philadelphia and Carl Mullenback of Green Bay. There is a two-way tie in field goal kicking between Clark Hinkle of Green Bay and Armand Nicolet of Pittsburgh.

Drinks McFadden, long-legged halfback from Little Cinema college, led the ground-gainers with 239 yards in 46 attempts for an average of 5.1 yards per smash.

Mr. Araro doesn't watch the race through binoculars. "That brings them too close," she doesn't like to see her husband slip through brittle openings or weave his way to the rail. "Beats her too much."

Another field went to the post and was away.

"Come on honey, come on honey, come on honey,"

Shoshone Battles Glenns Ferry in Top Grid Clash

The "top" football classic for south central Idaho this week-end will not be a South Idaho conference engagement—and it won't be a Big Seven club.

For the first time in years, the really No. 1 grid clash of the week-end is a Class B encounter and brings together two of the finest small school teams in the state in Glenns Ferry and Shoshone on the Shoshone field.

Shoshone, under L. T. Dolphin, has one of the better teams that veteran manager has turned out there in years. While the club last heart-breaker to Jerome of the Big Seven and was crushed by the Nampa Bulldogs last week, the Indians are still to be rated as one of the Class B powerhouses.

Expect Big Crowd Glenns Ferry again continues to rank in the top class for schools of that size, with Coach Kenneth Barrett getting surprising results after graduation of many from last year's fine club. The game figures to draw a big crowd to the Lincoln county grid field.

However, there are other good games on the menu, and first and foremost among these will be the Twin Falls vs. Nampa affair at Nampa—a game in which the Bulldogs will attempt to get revenge for the drubbing handed them by the Bruins in the championship game here last year.

But the Bruins won't be as weak as they appeared when the season opened and the tough western club, rated the class of state grid negotiations, will probably have its hands full, despite the fact Twin Falls dropped a 13-12 decision to the Pocatello Indians last week.

Else in Idaho Falls In the other South Idaho conference game of the day, Boise invades Idaho Falls and is the choice to win. Pocatello plays a non-conference engagement against Montpelier, while Caldwell is idle.

In Big Seven play, Gooding at Fairfield will be a toss-up with the Bruins probably giving a little edge. Rupert invades Bull in another close battle, while Jerome will take on Oakley and should have no trouble doubling the Hornets, who have yet to win a conference engagement.

Other Class B encounters send Halley to Richfield, Kimberly to Fairfield, and Wendell to Hagerman.

Squad vacation has cut into schedules in the six-man team race, with only two games scheduled for the day. In these Hazelton plays King Hill and Bruneau meets Dietrich.

Comiskey Starts Comeback Trail

NEW YORK, Oct. 16 (UP)—Pat Comiskey, Patterson, N. J., heavy-weight took the first step along the comeback trail last night, by pounding out an easy, 10-round decision over Henry Cooper of New York in the 14th bout at the Bronx Coliseum.

Pepper Martin New Manager Of Sacramento

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 16 (UP)—Sam Bradon, president of the St. Louis Cardinals of the National league, announces that John Leonard (Pepper) Martin, veteran outfielder and third baseman, had signed a contract to manage the Sacramento, Calif., club of the Pacific Coast league next season.

The Sacramento club is a part of the Cardinal fan system, Martin, one of the most colorful players in baseball, will be a "player-manager," the Cardinal announcement said.

The "pepper pot," or the "wild horse of the Osage," as Martin was variously known, came to the Red birds in 1930 from the Texas league. He returned to the minors that year but came back in the spring of 1931 and remained a Cardinal regular. For a time he alternated between third base and right field.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 16 (UP)—Pepper Martin, former member of the St. Louis Cardinals' famous gas house gang and new manager of the Sacramento Solons of the Pacific league said today that he'd teach his boys "to hit the ball and run like hell."

Martin, who starred in the Cardinals' 1931 World series victory over the Philadelphia Athletics, signed a one-year contract yesterday to manage the club.

Lynn Waldorf Chosen as Coach of Week

BY HARRY GRAYSON NEA Service Sports Editor Although little has been said about it in recent weeks, James A. Parley's deal for the Yankees has not fallen through. The old Haverstraw first baseman will take over the New York club any day now, Parley associates say. The $1,500,000 down payment in a bank. The Ruppert estate has to sell, which is why the franchise, and the Yankees, are in Newark, Kansas City and other minor league outfits are a steal at $4,000,000. George Weiss, director of the Yankees, says the club and talent is worth $10,000,000. The American league gets another fine executive in Parley, who as chairman of the board will not interfere with baseball's abject organization. Ed Barrow, who built it under the late Col. Jacob Ruppert's ownership, will continue as president. Another major league club expected to change hands is the Boston Nationals. Charlie Francis Adams wanted to get out even before his racing affiliates made him persona non grata insofar as the so-called national pastime is concerned. Adams has been in the money since 1923, but Bob Quinn, who has fronted for Adams and the league since Emil Fuchs dumped a sorry mess back in their laps in 1939, has done such a splendid job of reconstruction that baseball men now say National league rights in Boston are worth upward of $400,000. The undebatedly could be obtained for $275,000, and a handful of Beas—the second basing combination of Eddie Miller and "Bum" Howell and Sibby Sisti, Chet Ross and Max West... to name five—would come close to bringing that amount. The proposition is so good that Fay Murray, the wealthy Nashville manager, and others can't help being third sound baseball investment would be a sizable share in the lovely Phillies, which could be acquired cheaply. The Philadelphia club is in such dire financial straits that Gerry Nugent again has to dispose of a performer to keep the thing going. This time it will be one of the right-hand pitchers, Kirby Higbe or Hugh Mulcahy. The Phillies have been down so long that the owners would only have to make the slightest attempt to build to fire up permanent winning fever among patient patrons.

(By United Press) His publicized team was the worst of his career last year so this season he hauled out the crying towels and the world wept with him. The United Press presents him today as its football coach of the week—Lynn Waldorf of Northwestern. Waldorf, son of a Methodist Episcopal minister, has had some bad teams in his years of coaching Oklahoma City university, Oklahoma Aggies, Kansas State and Northwestern. But the one at Northwestern a year ago was his worst. On his squad he had the famed Bill deCorrevont, his tackles were big and his end swift. But somehow that team failed to click and won only three games, lost four and tied one. When the season started, Waldorf's walling could be heard in points as far west as Siam and Malin. But last Saturday, this "acute" situation settled down to a point where Northwestern's line was able to hold the Ohio State powerhouse to six yards gained by rushing. The answer to Waldorf's success this season, according to experts in the Big Ten, is that this year a bunch of boys is determined to make up for last year's failures—and that Northwestern's good backs finally are getting some help from a line that feels like playing football. And deCorrevont, the all-American star of 1939, finally has found his stride and is running with more experience and deception than he did a year ago.

JEROME MARKET ROUTE PROMISED

JEROME, Oct. 16 (Special)—According to S. L. "Vern" Thompson of the Jerome highway district, officials here have received definite assurance from the department of public works that a contract will be let in the near future for the construction of a "J" cooler farm-to-market road. First unit of this road was completed early this spring, having been started about a year ago, and this extension, which will give the farmers of northeast Jerome a true farm to market road which has long been needed. When completed the total distance of this improved thoroughfare is about six miles.

Surveying crews are busy making necessary surveys and maps and getting cost figures.

This section of the Jerome highway district is composed of heavy soil and when wet, it makes roads all but impassable with deep mud and ruts. The road when completed will give the farmers of northeast Jerome a true farm to market road which has long been needed. When completed the total distance of this improved thoroughfare is about six miles.

The son of the former President declared that the President is seeking reelection on the plea that he is the indispensable man.

"Such a doctrine is directly opposed to all our traditions," Col. Roosevelt stated. "The doctrine of the indispensable man has always been inscribed on the banners of any group that moves toward a dictatorship."

A steam heating plant will provide warm water for car washing and provisions will be made for two stalls, one for washing and the other for lubrication.

The oil company has owned the property for 14 years and, until construction started, it was leased by the Cook drive-in confectionery. That store has moved two doors south.
