JEROME SCOUTERS DISCUSS FINANCE

"Growing Pains"
Chosen as Play

JEROME, Nov. 1 (Special)—A Jerome district Scouters' meeting, called for the purpose of organizing a district Boy Scout committee, was held Tuesday evening in Jerome. The following Scout officials will serve for the year 1941: W. C. Hart, chairman; L. C. Lloyd Smith, vice chairman; L. C. T. Burdick, commissioner; Bryan Henry, camping chairman; Dr. R. C. Matson, chairman of finance, with A. W. Tingwall being named as assistant.

Finance for the coming year was discussed, this being the time of year when funds are collected to carry on the program of Scouting for the coming year. Other business discussed pertained to Scoutmaster problems and Boy Scouts in general. The official announcement that Scouting program here is on sound footing, it is hoped by the executives that the community will give the support to this movement as it has in former years, officials said.

In the court of honor held prior to the business meeting of the executives, the following boys received awards and advancement:

Karl Harman, a merit badge, for book making and leather work; Jack Bishop, merit badge, leather work and basketry and leather craft; William Peters, merit badge, handicraft; advancement to Richard Turner, second class; William Peters, Star Scout advancement.

H. Maine Shoun, chairman of the court of honor, presided. Awards were presented by Owen Davis.

Filer Carnival Offers Novelty

FILER, Nov. 1 (Special)—A carnival will be in full swing at the Filer rural high school this evening, beginning at 7:30 p. m.

Fun for all is planned and especially for the parents.

Elingo stands, roulette wheels, target range and balloon dart throwing booths with prizes will show up one's skill and luck.

A kissing booth with real girls to kiss should attract the mates.

Even "Hitler" will have his place. An egg throwing contest at "Hitler" on a truck will be part of the fun.

A "full house" will be going "full blast," too.

Confetti, hot dogs and hamburgers are part of the carnival.

One of the four girls, Gertrude Coleman, senior; Josephine Jones, junior; Joan Gillilan, sophomore and Eleanor Johnson, freshman, will be crowned queen with a ceremony just before the first time in history at Fort Hamilton, inaugurated a series of dancing lessons for soldiers. Tossing their heads and rolling their hips, soldiers and teachers alike threw themselves into their duty.

"I am happy to do my bit for American defense," cried one teacher between conga lessons.

"The army is wonderful," a private commented.

"Dancing has obvious physical and social benefits," said Arthur Murray, who thought up the "join the army and learn the conga" program and made a gift to the army training camp of his teachers.

Famed Sculptress Talks at Moscow

UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO, Nov. 1 (Special)—Doris Eaton Mason, a 1925 Idaho graduate who has made a name for herself in sculpturing, presented an unusual lecture demonstration on portrait sculpturing Thursday evening.

Mrs. Mason is the wife of a former university editor and Idaho Journalism professor, Edward F. Mason, now at the University of Iowa.

She appears here as assisting in directing, collecting of properties, costuming, lighting and sound effects are arranged by students. Wynne Elysee, Irma Burkhalter, Donald Neumann, Marvin Syme, Clifford Nottmeyer, Jack Hart, Calvin Graybeal, Madelyn Lockhart, E. C. Keck, Harlan Miracle and Gladys Lockhart.

The play is directed by Robert Dierham.

Elliott McDermid is in general charge of lighting; Mrs. Paul Jones is in charge of costuming and Charles Webb is business manager.

Others who are assisting in directing, collecting of properties, costuming, lighting and sound effects are arranged by students: Wynne Elysee, Irma Burkhalter, Donald Neumann, Marvin Syme, Clifford Nottmeyer, Jack Hart, Calvin Graybeal, Madelyn Lockhart, E. C. Keck, Harlan Miracle and Gladys Lockhart.

DEMO HEAD RAPS TAX MISQUOTING

Alleging gross misstatement of facts and charging that Lois D. Painter, Republican candidate for state treasurer, had better get her figures from the treasurer's office rather than quoting canned stuff from her state headquarters, Edward Babcock, Democratic county committeeman, this afternoon flayed the Republican nominee.

Babcock had reference to statements made here by the Republican candidate during a visit the middle of this week.

Correct Data Available

The county chairman pointed out that she "purported to allege the Democratic campaigners are saving that the 1939 figures in Twin Falls county for 1939 were $99,821.10 over 1938, when the truth and fact of the matter is that any Democratic candidate, had dispensed that particular item they certainly would have shown the correct figures which are available to all persons simply by asking at the county treasurer's or auditor's office." He continued:

"A check by myself at the treasurer's office showed that the actual taxes paid to the state of Idaho in 1939 were $106,544.05 over 1938.

"In statements made here the Republican candidate said that records show that the Republicans actually made a net saving in Twin Falls county $778.02.

"Urges Comparison

"In answer to this part of her statements I merely ask every taxpayer to get out his 1938 and 1939 tax receipts and lay them side by side and see how much it cost him for the Republicans to save Twin Falls county $778.02, as the Republicans claim they did.

"In practically all cases the taxes were higher last year than they were in 1938. For instance, a 160-acre farm assessed to Roy L. Shearer.

SLUG

DENVER, Nov. 1 (Special)—John Mikowski, 37, of Buffalo, N. Y., was sitting in the Arcade beer parlor listening to 14-year-old Mrs. Meriel Norman sing for a late crowd. He didn't like the song and told her to try another. "But I don't know it," Mrs. Norman protested.

In a manner reminiscent of the old days, Mikowski whipped out his six shooter and put a slug between her feet.

The judge let him take 125 days in jail instead of a $250 fine he didn't have.

JEROME, Nov. 1 (Special)—A heavily-loaded truck being driven by D. E. Hallowell, Fairfield, overtook here Monday evening at the railroad tracks near the city when Hallowell attempted to avert a head-on collision with a stopped freight train which was engaged in switching operations on the track near the depot.

Hallowell swerved his truck loaded with a cargo of heavy timbers and corrugated iron sheeting, and the vehicle overturned at the side of the road. Hallowell and his brother, an occupant in the truck, were not injured.

Conductor of the train was M. C. Brockley. The truck was damaged approximately $75 or $100, a report from the office of Sheriff L. O. S. Johnson, who investigated, showed.

Rules and regulations of the national election will be carried out with explanations for the students being given by the teachers. Registration deadline is set for Monday, Nov. 4, and any student who does not register will be denied the right to vote, as in real elections. Each room will have two clerks to call the names and check the voters to ascertain whether they have registered. Eleven Types of Promotion Used to Boost Idaho Spuds

BOISE, Nov. 1.—The potato advertising dollar is spread over 11 mediums of promotion. It was announced today by E. N. Pettigrove, chairman of the Idaho advertising commission.

After setting aside 10 per cent for possible research projects and a small amount for administrative costs, slightly more than a third of the dollar is spent for newspaper advertising and almost one-fourth of it for dealer service work.

Eliminating a 32 per cent reserve for contingencies and 42 per cent needed for carrying display material, the dollar is divided among the 11 mediums as follows:

Newspaper space, 36.55 per cent; newspaper production, two per cent; dealer service work, 22.1 per cent; display material, 8.5 per cent; restaurant promotion, 8.5 per cent; trade paper advertising, two per cent; tie-up mats two tenths of one per cent; publicity, 8.97 per cent; broadsides and bulletins, 1.5 per cent; cooking schools, seven-tenths of one per cent; recipe folders, 1.2 per cent.

Total money available for the advertising work is estimated at $69,000 annually. The money is raised by the imposition of a one-half-cent-per-hundred-pound tax on potatoes and onions shipped from the state.

Pajama Strut Adds Fun for Homecoming

UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO, Nov. (Special) — Pajamas were in vogue on the Idaho campus today, when an old custom, the pajama parade, was revived as part of this year's homecoming celebration.

Tradition dictates that men who do not participate in the pajama parade shall be ducted in Paradise creek, according to Milton Evershed, Melba, entertainment committee chairman.

Featured entertainment for the homecoming game will be the annual "man chase" at the half-time of the Nevada-Idaho football game. Every woman's house on the campus will select two women to represent "Daisy Mae," and each man's house, one man to be his "Lil Abner," famous hill-billy character.

The 17 men will be given a five-year head start on the "Daisy Mae" at the "chase." Prizes will be awarded for the best costumes, and $5 will go to the man ending the field of pursuing women.

Five dollars will also be awarded to the woman to catch the first "Lil Abner." Cardinal Key, national upperclasswomen's service honorary, headed by Norma Lou McMurray, Oakley, is sponsoring the affair.

Pete Borden's show home, was chosen by the Intercollegiate Knights, sophomore service honorary, to be general chairman for the traditional homecoming dance.

MASTERS TALKS ON CRIME COST

CASTLEFORD, Nov. 1 (Special)—Ira H. Masters talked on crime and what it costs the government, before a large audience at the Baptist church Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Masters thinks there should be improvements in the penal institutions and that first offenders should be segregated and not put in same cells with hardened criminals.

He said that if a person had some sort of employment when released from prison it would do much toward assuring of that person becoming a useful member of society.

Mr. Masters told of some of his experiences when a member of the pardon board. He said he attended the prison church many Sunday afternoons as it afforded him an opportunity to study the inmates.

He quoted statistics on the cost of crime and mentioned briefly the federal prison camp in the northern part of the state.

The Baptist congregation enjoyed a fellowship basket dinner following morning worship and preceding Mr. Masters' talk to which the public was invited.

Other out-of-town guests at the dinner and meeting were Mrs. Frankie K. Alworth, Mrs. Art Parker and Mrs. Cora Stevens, all of Twin Falls.

Pacific Intermountain Express company announced today, that it has acquired and commenced operation of the motor truck lines formerly owned by Coyotes Freight lines, Pacific Intermountain Express (Calif.) and the Pacific Intermountain Express of Colorado, Inc. As a result of this merger, Twin Falls representatives said, the company will operate over the highways between San Francisco and Denver via Salt Lake City, and between Los Angeles, Salt Lake City, Boise, Pocatello and numerous other points in southwestern Idaho.

R. M. Conyers, formerly president and general manager of Coyotes

Freight lines, is retiring from the common carrier business although he is retaining Coyotes Tank Lines, one of the largest haulers of petroleum products in California.

The new company is thus at the outset one of the largest motor trucking concerns in the western states. Its rights cover some 5,000 miles of highway located in California, Arizona, Nevada, Utah, Idaho, Wyoming, and Colorado. Approximately 100 vehicles are required for the carriage of freight which consists of practically all goods except livestock and petroleum. If You Favor a Return to Sane Government

VOTE FOR WILLKIE AND IDAHO REPRESENTATIVES WHO WILL HELP HIM

In the forthcoming election there is no middle course for the American people to follow. The lines are too closely drawn, there's too much at stake, for compromises of any kind. There's but one decision to make.

Either the American voters will endorse a continuation of the NEW DEAL, whose policies already are firmly entrenched and whose future intentions are clearly visible in the hand-writing on the wall — or they will repudiate the NEW DEALERS and their dictatorial theories in the firm belief that the fundamental principles of a free American government should survive.

Under the NEW DEAL, government has shown a fabulous growth both in power and numbers, and the people's voice in that government has diminished proportionately. There has been a political regimentation that spreads its tentacles into practically every phase of American life—an obvious attempt to make the people more dependent upon their government instead of making the government more dependent upon the people.

So flagrantly has this power been abused that class hatreds are encouraged without thought or fear of consequences. Our courts have been intimidated, our traditions scrapped, and our markets demoralized. Private expansion has been curtailed, business continues on a decline, and we still have our millions of unemployed. Meantime we are being plunged into debt by billions of dollars to support an artificial prosperity which gives us neither happiness nor security. And yet, the one responsible for all these conditions tells us that he is the ONLY MAN in the United States we can depend upon as a leader!

There is only one immediate escape from this ominous trend... the election of a president who will lead us back to American fundamentals, who will work for a return of American stability, who will attempt to make labor self-supporting on a standard of living that's impossible through government relief. Above all, a president who will endeavor to encourage a better understanding among the American people themselves, rather than encouraging them to work one group against another.

Wendell L. Willkie, Republican candidate for president, has promised the American people just that. He assures us an American government that will follow the American pattern. He will respect the American Constitution, uphold the American courts, and honor the free rights of the American people.

He and those fundamentalists who agree with his American ideals constitute the direct challenge to all this so-called NEW DEALISM. If he is elected and given proper support in congress, it is not too late to write the chapter that will be an overhauling credit to the United States.

Congressman Henry Dworshak and United States Senator John Thomas are the representatives we can send to congress to support Wendell L. Willkie at this crucial moment. Both of these men are real Americans, capable and conscientious, and not the type to be "steam-rolled". They agree with Wendell L. Willkie that this reign of phobias must come to an end, that it's time for America to get back on her feet.

If you favor a return to sane government, VOTE FOR WILLKIE and for those Idaho representatives who will give him their support — support for the rehabilitation of our country!

STANFORD FEARS UCLA IN COASTAL CLASH

Oregon Favored To Win Over California Bears

By JAMES A. SULLIVAN
 SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 1 (UP)—Maybe it's the Halloween influence but the coaches of leading and favored Pacific Coast conference football teams are seeing more "spooks" than usual lurking around the goal posts for games being played tomorrow.

Shaughnessy of Stanford, Lou Stiner of Oregon State, and Tex Oliver of Oregon seem to be seeing more specters than their fellows.

Shaughnessy's Stanford team meets victorious U. C. L. A. tomorrow and a team which has won five straight games certainly doesn't seem to have anything to worry about from one that has lost five straight.

But Shaughnessy professes to see in the U. C. L. A. defense a definite threat to Stanford's record.

In our book it will win for Stanford by a score but there might be a tie, especially if a real, live two-legged ghost, Jackie Robinson, the midnight express, gets a chance to run for U. C. L. A.

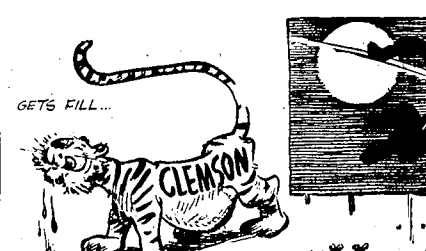

Stiner and his Oregon State team and themselves favored to beat California and that's what's worrying Stiner.

Overlin 9-5 Favorite to Win Over Steve Belloise

Pheasant Slaughter in Idaho Gets Underway

A gun barrage that would do credit to the warring nations the opposite sides of both the Pacific and Atlantic oceans could be heard in Twin Falls today—but there was no loss of human life recorded up to noon.

Because the barrage was aimed at the biggest pheasant population in the history of Idaho and shortly after daylight sportsmen from throughout the region were returning with the bag limit of four birds—many of them shot just on the outskirts of the city.

State game officials point out that the pheasant population is the greatest on record and that the birds this year will be in better condition than ever before, due to the two weeks' fattening period they have had—courtesy of the change of the opening date.

In this area the season opened this morning and lasts until Nov. 20, including 10 days shorter than in 1939 but regarded as sufficient to thin the population considerably.

In two or three days it is expected that a large portion of the pheasants will be taking to the sedgebrush, where it will be harder for hunters to slaughter them.

Bunsten returning early from the country report a heavy crop of pheasants still feeding in the corn and hay fields.

The limit this year is four birds—the same as last year. However, it is now limited to two hens in any band of four.

Annually one of the biggest sports attractions for Idaho, the opening of the season had brought in hunters from throughout the nation and hotels in Twin Falls, Jerome, Gooding and other points were packed with out-of-state visitors. California, New York, Utah, Wyoming, Pennsylvania and other states were represented on hotel registers early today.

'Conga Dancer' Trains in Night Clubs

By HARRY FERGUSON
 NEW YORK, Nov. 1 (UP)—Despite the handicap of having spent several days in the freezing grip of rural training camp, Ken Overlin, who works at being middleweight champion between Congo dances, is a 9 to 5 favorite to retain his title to-night against Steve Belloise.

The distance is 15 rounds and the fact the fight is being held in Madison Square Garden, is in Overlin's favor. Put 12,000 persons in the Garden, get the cigar smoke thick enough to let the noise makers do the worst and you have a fairly close approximation to a night club. Overlin never has lost the decision in a night club. Let it be elbow bender or dancing until closing time—Overlin is the champ.

"I can't stand all night out," he said today when asked for comment on the evening's brawl. "By taking a quick shower I ought to be in the store club bar by 11:15."

However, Belloise is a tough, hungry youngster who wallops hard with either hand and fights from a strange, bewildering stance. He comes at you with both hands held high and then slams home punches with a neat wrist action. Try to avoid his left and he will get you with a right. Even old timers have found him a hard man to stay with.

Against that power and speed Overlin has little to offer except a slightly better boxing experience he has accumulated in rings all around the world. The middleweight king is a cunning guy who knows how to cut his opponents around the face and to stay out of trouble while he is doing it.

"I can't punch much with either hand, although his right is slightly more effective because of the long work-out he has taken at jarring highball places.

Just how much the training camp has taken out of Overlin is a question his trainer will be answered until they get into the ring.

Ray Freis Takes Lead In Kegler Averages

Ray Freis, ace kegler with Halle's Conoco in the Commercial Bowling league, took over leadership for all competition in Twin Falls this week as his average of 186 zoomed into first place when Rolly Jones of the News-Times club took a drop from 191 to 185.

Averages released today by Fred Stone, Bowling association secretary, showed that only three men in Twin Falls are over the 180-mark on the alleys. The third is Corky Carlson of the Twin Falls Coca Cola team of the Commercial league with a mark of 182.

In individual league competition, however, Jones' 185 was good enough to top the City League, Freis topped the Commercial, and Lloyd Hayes of the C. C. Anderson team, with 167, led the Mercantiles' loop.

Undeclared Teams Risk Perfect Records Saturday

By LESLIE AVERY
 NEW YORK, Nov. 1 (UP)—Fifteen of the 16 undeclared until major football teams risk their perfect records this week-end and the list is bound to be trimmed by at least one in the meeting between the Big Ten titans, Minnesota and Northwestern, at Evanston.

This is the only game in the country sending two teams with unblemished records together. Michigan is idle and one of the 13 remaining perfect records, 10 are favored to be preserved and the other three have at least an even chance.

Minnesota, a gradually developing eleven that has hurdled four major obstacles — Washington, Nebraska, Ohio State and Iowa—is a slight choice to knock Northwestern from the select circle, but if Bill DeCovont is recovered from his injured ankle, it promises to be close from start to finish.

Face Hard Fights
 Navy, Detroit and Clemson seem to be the ones who will have the hardest fights to maintain their standing. Although the Midstates are favored slightly over Penn, there is a big difference of opinion and several selectors feel if the Quakers were not too badly crippled in the Michigan game last week, they will bounce back to defeat Navy from the undefeated, untied team.

Eastern pickers are sticking with Detroit to beat Tulsa, but if the Oklahoma rise to the heights as they did to acclimate T. C. I. last week, Detroit will have to be real good to win.

Clemson Favored
 Clemson, with five straight wins, gets the call over Tulane and the Greenies were slow in getting started and are improving each Saturday. While comparative scores are often misleading, it might be surmised that Clemson whalloped Wake Forest 35-0 and Wake Forest previously had beaten North Carolina, 12-0. Last week Tulane scored a one-point victory over North Carolina.

Undeclared, untied club favored to maintain the pace include Boston College over Manhattan, Cornell over Columbia, Penn State over South Carolina, Georgetown over Syracuse, Notre Dame over Army, Tennessee over Louisiana State, Texas A&M over Arkansas, Haverford over UCLA, Franklin and Marshall over Albright and Lafayette over Washington and Jefferson.

Paul CCC Club Loses to Wyoming Team

PAUL, Nov. 1 (Special)—The Paul CCC football team played the Big Five, Wyo., team at Pocatello Sunday. The so-called championship of the Pocatello district. This was one of the best games of the season, with a score of 10 to 9 in favor of Big Five. Both teams were in the sixth corps area, and both coached by boys from Illinois. They were scheduled to play Saturday, but due to rain, the game was postponed until Sunday.

Toughest Coach in Business? Mac Says It's Northwestern Band Leader

By HENRY McENMORE
 CHICAGO, Nov. 1 (UP)—Who is the toughest man connected with football today?

Hold a national poll on that question and you'd get votes for such names as Hank Anderson, Carl Sawyer, Lou Little, Francis Schmidt, Wallace Wade, Frank Thomas and Bill Dwyer, to mention a few of the better slave drivers.

But these gentlemen, and others you might not even hear of in the running for the title, understand 100 per cent roughness, toughness and all-around alertness. They are half-wild, because of the endless miles-of-the-valley compared with my candidate. And who is he? Well, I'll tell you.

It's Glenn Cliff Balmain who coaches the Northwestern band.

Men, this Balmain is the best coach Paul of Paul Plocco, the Chairman of the Council, the Caesar of the Clarinet, the Villa of the Violins and the Atlas of the Oboe.

To play in the Northwestern band you have to be able to take it all. Northwestern, with Balmain as coach, has a record of 20 wins and 10 losses in the past five years. The band has won the national championship, and the national title, and the national title, and the national title.
