FAILURE OF RADIO BEAM BLAMED IN AIRLINER CRASH

By DAVE DRYDEN SALT LAKE CITY, Nov. 5 (AP)—Civil aviation board authorities today investigated the failure of a radio beam, which apparently led a United Airlines plane to destruction and 10 persons to instant death on jagged Mountain peaks in the Wasatch mountains.

There apparently was little doubt that the failure of the beam was responsible for the accident, which stopped the big airliner's instrument board clock at 2:34 1/2 a. m. MST, yesterday, in the midst of a snowstorm. C. V. Hall, United Airlines vice-president, said that CAB technicians had tested the beam, found it working irregularly and warned pilots not to depend upon it—after Flight Engineer Fey had wandered off his course trying to pick up the signal to Salt Lake City and crashed.

Faulty Signal Hall admitted that Fey probably had been led by the faulty signal into the mountains, which have become a veritable graveyard for commercial aviation. Thirty-six persons have been killed in crashes in the vicinity during the last three years.

Searching parties reached the wreckage late yesterday afternoon, after it had been located from the air. Both motors of the plane had been driven through the wings and the wing was torn away, while the fuselage was broken half way back. The bodies of Fey and Thomas Bergman, co-pilot, were 100 feet from the wreckage and still strapped to the seats. The body of Stewardess Evelyn Sandino was bent at the waist over a seat indicating that she had been attending a passenger when she was killed. The other bodies were inside the cabin, and officials said they apparently had died without knowing they were in danger.

Bodies by Pack Horse The bodies will be brought down a tortuous mile-and-a-half trail on pack horses taken to Salt Lake City. Details make it necessary to delay removal of the victims.

The plane was on route from the west coast to New York, California, Sanderson, of Alameda, Calif.; Miss Sandino, of Alameda; Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Muir, of Detroit; E. Dybdahl, on Ferguson Falls, Minn.; Joe Caffero, of Oakland; Mr. and Mrs. L. Wilson, of Maywood, Ill., and O. L. Stevenson of Sacramento, Calif.

'SMEAR' CHARGED IN FINAL TALKS NEW YORK, Nov. 5 (AP)—Charges of "smearing" featured the last hours of the political campaign.

President Roosevelt issued a statement at Hyde Park, N. Y., last night charging "circulacra have been given to state and municipal employees, asking a bill pending in congress would deprive them of and endanger their pensions as state, municipal or county employees, or a school teacher."

Wendell L. Willkie said in a radio speech last night "the opposition... has attacked me with a smear campaign designed to make you question my record and my motives."

THE BLACK FLAG FLIES After references to air raids already made on Italy Churchill said: "Other forces in movement are designed to help to the utmost of our country."

Such help, it was presumed, referred to British aid to Greece.

Lewis Unable to Cast Own Ballot ALEXANDRIA, Va., Nov. 5 (AP)—John L. Lewis, who has announced that he would resign as President of the CIO if President Roosevelt is re-elected, was not eligible to cast his own ballot today.

After the election, Lewis had taken the precaution to pay the $1.50 Virginia poll tax but he had not registered the required month before the election.

DOUBLE CLOVIS, N. M., Nov. 5 (AP)—Two votes for Wendell L. Willkie were cast here today by Mary and Margaret Olib, Stanislaw twins of a circus family. The two girls cast absentee ballots which were mailed to Holyoke, Mass.

America Speaks-In a Rush!

Early turnout of voters at most Twin Falls precincts today was apparently bearing out predictions of an all-time record ballot. Many polling places were jammed throughout the morning, and all were thronged at least three-fourths of the time. Here's precinct No. 3 voting place, at McVey company, in late morning.

Churchill Claims England Has Won Great Victory in Halting Invasion

By FREDERICK KUH LONDON, Nov. 5 (AP)—Prime Minister Winston Churchill declared today Great Britain had won a historic victory over German invasion plans, had established Great bases for unlimited counter-blows against Italy and was preparing to fight on if necessary through 1941.

"It's a splendid day," Churchill barked confidently to the house of commons, "if we don't weaken."

The prime minister, while confident, sternly warned Britons of many hardships and dangers ahead. He said:

1. Britain must expect still heavier submarine attacks in the next year but "we are making extensive preparations" to combat them. Both Italian and German submarines have been reported in the Atlantic in increasing numbers recently but the official toll of ships sunk went down sharply late in October.

2. The British forces in the Mediterranean zone have been greatly strengthened and the R.A.F. will intensify bombing of objectives in southern Italy.

3. A total of 14,000 civilians have been killed and 30,000 wounded seriously in air raids on Britain. Four-fifths of the casualties were in London and only about 300 soldiers have been killed and 800 wounded in air raids. Germany has lost 10 airplanes to British air.

4. Adolf Hitler's failure to launch an invasion attempt against the British Isles is an historic victory for Britain, but the nation must remember that the danger of invasion would continue indefinitely.

5. Italian casualties in north Africa are about 20 to one for the British.

6. Britain has established a naval air base on the Greek island of Crete "which will enable us to extend the activity of the navy and air force."

7. Amid fears of approval the prime minister said the bombing of military objectives in southern Italy would continue on an ever-growing scale.

After references to air raids already made on Italy Churchill said: "Other forces in movement are designed to help to the utmost of our country."

Largest Ballot in History Looms as Angry Battle Ends

NEW YORK, Nov. 5 (AP)—Scattered and unofficial returns from 12 states today gave President Roosevelt 8,232 votes to 8,414 for Wendell Willkie.

Returns were from New Hampshire, Massachusetts, North Carolina, Oklahoma, Alabama, Kansas, Missouri, Georgia, Michigan, Texas, West Virginia and Colorado.

By LYLE C. WILSON NEW YORK, Nov. 5 (AP)—The unprecedented issue of a third term went to the people today. They are choosing between Franklin D. Roosevelt and Wendell L. Willkie for President of the United States.

The national election day weather forecast was generally fair. Stirred by political dispute as it has not been since 1916, the nation has registered 60,000,000 voters and the largest poll in history is under way.

Republicans are battling not only to win the White House but the house of representatives. Some political forecasters believe the presidential election may go one way and the congressional choice another.

There are 36 United States senators to be elected, but it is a mathematical certainty—because of Democratic strength in southern states—that Republicans cannot win the upper house.

Thirty-five gubernatorial elections were called, but Maine and Louisiana already have made their choices, leaving 33 to be elected today.

The Presidential contest promises to be the closest in popular vote since 1916 when Woodrow Wilson defeated Charles Evans Hughes by a plurality of approximately 600,000 votes. But the electoral vote could be topped either way despite a close popular vote.

Polls and surveys have demonstrated as nearly as they can that the big industrial states of the middle east and lake regions are a battleground where the election will be won or lost.

The final betting odds favored Mr. Roosevelt, evidently because most voters believe he could drop one more of the big states—even New York with its 47 electoral votes—and still win with his backlog of sure things.

Observers believed he could drop one more of the big states—even New York with its 47 electoral votes—and still win with his backlog of sure things.

Willkie spoke during a midnight to 1 a. m. rally at the Ritz theater here. "I cannot say anything to you," he said, "about how well I have led this crusade. But I can say to you, that no man in history has ever felt a deeper sense of obligation to the cause he has led than I do at this time."

Willkie's final appeal for support, broadcast today, indicated a deeper sense of obligation to the cause he has led than I do at this time.

EXPECTS HEAVIER SUBMARINE FIGHT

Wintry Weather Fails to Curtail Twin Falls Vote

Although, figuratively speaking, "winter was in the air," voters of the Magic Valley at 1 p. m. today were going to the polls in unprecedented numbers.

In Twin Falls a slight drizzle earlier in the morning and overcast skies as well as "chill" air failed to keep voters at home and as a result a check by the Evening Times at 1 p. m. of the seven precincts here disclosed that 3,516 ballots had been placed in the metal cans up until that hour, five hours after the polls opened.

At the time of the check long lines of voters waited to get their ballots at all precincts excepting precinct number four, the Busch Motor company. Here, eight persons were in line at the time the check was made.

Showing the most votes cast at 1 p. m. was the Washington school, precinct seven, with 847. Next in line was the 401 houses, precinct number two, with 502.

Following are the first persons to vote in each of the seven Twin Falls precincts and also the total voted at 1 p. m.:

Precinct one, Chaney Auto company; Nellie Ostrom, 323; precinct two, court house; Bill Bates, 302; precinct three, McVey Implement company; J. H. Seaver, ar. 452; precinct four, Busch Motor company; Mrs. Clyde Ramsey, 388; precinct five, Dickel school; H. L. Cannon, 317; precinct six, Lincoln school; Harry J. Gilman, 431; precinct seven, Washington school; Hazel L. Osterlander, 647.

Many persons in the line waiting for their ballots, and also those in the booths, displayed lapel buttons.

Loaded Brick Truck Crushes Driver, 22

Crushed when a truck loaded with bricks smashed head-on into a farmyard tree, Dick White, about 22, Twin Falls, was instantly killed about 1:30 p. m. today one mile east of Kimberly.

White was crushed to death when the heavy load of bricks, pushed forward by the impact of the crash with the tree, shifted forward and smashed the truck cab.

State police and sheriff's officers said that young White attempted to pass an empty school truck driven by Fred McCoy, 19, on the highway. He was struck by a gravel truck and his passenger car Oct. 21.

Today's fatality was the third in Magic Valley since last Sept. 21, prior to the death of Miss Maxine Lucas Oct. 22 the Magic Valley area had gone 31 days without a traffic fatality. Miss Lucas died as result of injuries sustained in a head-on crash in Jerome county Oct. 20.

VOLUNTEERS ASK DRAFT SPEED-UP

Ten selective service registrants for area No. 1 of Twin Falls county have already applied as draft volunteers, for placement at the top of the list, Capt. J. H. Seaver, Jr., chief clerk of the board, said this afternoon.

Such volunteers must await mailing out of their questionnaires and classification of this area's 3,000 registrants. After the classification is completed—and if the volunteers are found to rank in class I-A, the "first choice" list, they will be placed at the head of the list.

When quotas are called, volunteers thus placed at the top of the rankings will be taken first. That will then "push back" the order of call for other draftees, giving them further time before their numbers are reached.

Master lists of the draft drawing have now arrived, and work was well underway today in placing the order numbers on the cards of all registrants. As soon as this task is completed, the mailing of questionnaires will start.

BIG VOTE LOOMS IN EMPIRE STATE

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 5 (AP)—Extremely heavy voting was reported today in Pennsylvania, regarded as one of the key states which may decide the presidential contest.

Early weather was reported in most counties during the morning, but a light drizzle began falling in western sections after the election.

There were minor disorders, most of them in Philadelphia.

Party leaders, on the basis of the early weather, reported in most counties, forecast a record vote of the state's 2,900,000 registered voters.

Republicans claimed the heavy loading was a favorable indication that Wendell L. Willkie would carry the state, while Democrats contended it meant victory for President Roosevelt.

Two persons were killed and five were wounded in the bombing of a building in Belgrade at a time when the Greeks were pressing into Albania from the northern front, reportedly to have met an Italian unit at the Greek town of Florina. The Italian count at Bitoli was reported to have said the bombing planes bore Greek markings.

The Yugoslav cabinet was reported to have announced in Belgrade as a result of the bombing. Italian planes returned and rained down bombs on the city, killing seven and wounding 30. It was reported, however, the Italian count had been told to remain at his post as having attacked the Italian base and no further bombardment of Yugoslav territory.

GUBERNATORIAL, SENATE RACES IN IDAHO SPOTLIGHT

By LLOYD TUPLING BOISE, Nov. 5 (AP)—Idaho voters went to the polls today to choose an almost complete slate of state office holders, decide which presidential candidate will receive the state's four electoral votes, and reject or adopt five special measures.

Despite unsettled weather conditions early turnout in major population centers forecast a record vote which some observers believed would reach 210,000. Polling places in 712 precincts opened at 7 a. m. and will remain open until 7 p. m.

Counting started in larger precincts early this morning. Last minute radio appeals and party rallies late night, interest among the estimated 210,000 voters was directed toward two state contests—the gubernatorial and senatorial races.

Voters will choose between Glenn E. Taylor the conservative center and Democratic nominee, and Sen. John Thomas, incumbent Republican, and Wendell L. Willkie, remaining in Board's seat.

Used Sound Truck Taylor has stumped throughout the state in a sound truck, aided by his wife, Doris, and five-year-old son, Arvid, in drawing prospective voters by opening and closing campaign appearances with a roundelay of hill billy ditties. He advanced an economic program which he called "cooperation and production for use."

Sen. Thomas campaigned on his (Continued on Page 2, Column 2)

9 JUGOSLAVIANS KILLED IN RAID

BITOLI, Yugoslavia, Nov. 5 (AP)—Italian planes raided this Yugoslav town today, killing nine and wounding 35 persons. Nineteen bombs were dropped in the attack and when the planes made a second raid this afternoon 100 large bombs fell.

Military experts said the Italian planes were killing nine and wounding 35 persons. They were killed and 30 wounded in the afternoon attack.

The raids caused panic. Bitoli was crowded for market day. In the second raid bombs fell on the center of town, including the railway station and a nearby Yugoslav army division headquarters, where a Capt. Vacko, adjutant to the division commander, was killed.

Three planes conducted the first raid, killing two and wounding five persons. They were killed and 30 wounded in the afternoon attack.

REPUBLICANS EXPECT TO WIN 4 TO 10 SEATS IN SENATE

FAMILIAR NAMES WILL BE MISSING AT NEXT SESSION

BY RONALD G. VAN TINE
NEW YORK, Nov. 5 (AP)—Republicans expect to win from four to ten seats in the senate today.

The Democrats can't lose their majority though one-third of the seats are at stake.

No matter what the result, some familiar names will be missing when the senate reconvenes. Primaries eliminated Sen. Henry F. Ashurst, D. Ariz., Walter H. King, D. Utah, Hugh D. Holt, D. W. V., Lynn J. Frazier, R. N. D., and Edward R. Burke, D. Neb.

Three defeated, Hiale, R. M. Ernest, W. Gibson, R. W. and Vic Donahay, D. O.—are retiring. One—New Dealer Lewis B. Schwendler, D. Wash., has been appointed to a federal court post.

Republican leaders rate their best in Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, Wisconsin, Illinois and Washington.

Old Line Republicans

In Indiana, Sen. Sherman Minton, an ardent New Dealer, is opposed by Raymond E. Willis, a Republican and a Pulitzer.

In Ohio, Mayor Harold H. Burton of Cleveland, a popular Republican campaigner, is fighting John McSweeney, Democrat, for Donahay's seat.

Seeking Schwendler's seat in Washington are Stephen P. Chadwick, Democrat, a Republican, a former Senator and former national commander of the American Legion, and Rep. Men O. Wallgren, Democrat.

In Illinois, Sen. James M. Slattery, Democrat, who succeeded the late Sen. James Hamilton Lewis is opposed by C. Wayland Brooks.

The Wisconsin race is a neck-and-neck affair, with the political future of Sen. Robert M. La Follette, "Progressive," at stake. The Roosevelt administration has come out for "Young Bob," thus upsetting the state Democratic organization. His chief opponent is Republican Frederick H. Clausen, industrialist, banker and president of the board of regents of the University of Wisconsin, though the Democrats also have a candidate.

Baron vs. Mead

The senate is customary, will send its Democrats back to the senate—Andrews, Fla., Bilbo, Miss., Ely, Tenn., McNair, Okla., Tamm, and Chavez, N. M.—Democrats expect to win in Missouri, Nevada, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Utah, Wyoming, Montana, Maryland and Connecticut.

Republicans claim more than an even chance in California, Delaware, Michigan, North Dakota and Minnesota.

In Idaho, where the contested seat is between a Democrat and a Republican, GOP in public pronouncements has forecast a victory for the incumbent, John Thomas. Privately, however, Republican leaders figure it may be a close race because the bizarre campaigning tactics of Democrats, Glen Taylor, "Newberry" candidate, might prove more dangerous than old-line campaigners think.

WILLKIE CASTS VOTE IN GOTHAM

BY WILLIAM H. LAWRENCE
NEW YORK, Nov. 5 (AP)—Republican Presidential Nominee Wendell L. Willkie cast his own ballot in the election here today, and called upon all other Americans to vote before the polls close.

Willkie entered the polling booth amid cheers from a crowd of about 200 and cast his ballot at 9:42 a. m. EST, one minute after Mrs. Willkie had voted.

As he walked from the red brick public school No. 6 he turned to reporters and said:

"I urge every citizen to vote irrespective of how he votes. The right to vote is both a duty and a privilege and should be exercised by every American. I want to express my thanks to all the people of the country for the generous reception given me wherever I have been in this crusade."

Accompanied by son Phillip Willkie's 20-year-old son and mother to the polling place. He stood on a bench with reporters and watched the proceedings as his father and mother were photographed for motion picture.

As Willkie stepped into the voting booth and jerked the lever which controls the curtain, the string of the curtain broke and it had to be pushed across the front of the booth by two policemen.

After he voted, Willkie returned to his headquarters in the Hotel Commodore.

In his final appeal, before a Ritz theater crowd and a nation-wide radio audience last night, Willkie said a "free way of life can be preserved in America only if we become a united people."

"For 75 years we have had discord, and we are having discord a time when we look across the seas and see that it was discord and weakness from within that caused the democracies of Europe to collapse before totalitarianism," he continued.

"We Must Win"

"I can't say anything to you about how well I can or have led this crusade, but I can say this to you: I am no man in all the history of time has ever felt a deeper dedication or sense of obligation to the cause that

MISSING

Sheriff's officers had received no word today as to whereabouts of Bill Bond, 38-year-old Castleford ranch laborer missing since last Thursday.

But before any rush develops, Chamber of Commerce officials—still slightly amazed after checking records of the window-sopping contest prize list—announced that the four children must be the quartet that hasn't yet come in to pick up honorable mention awards.

The records show that the following youngsters are either too affluent or too forgetful to collect their half-dollars: LeVerne Canelok, 401 Third avenue west; Dorothy Gerder, 382 Third avenue west; Robert J. Hill, 201 Third avenue south; Shirl Knight, 793 Main avenue south.

Just Plain Guts

By NORMAN CHANDLER
Chairman, Newspaper Publishers' Committee

THIS earth is crowded with cowards. And if you'll pardon the inelegance of the headline above, I would like to say that, to my way of thinking, "guts" is the thing which distinguishes a hundred million or so of us in America from the rest of the world.

I know we have courage. We are softened to a fault. We are emotional and easily excited. We make our share of foolish mistakes. But way down underneath all these surface faults is something we call the "pioneer spirit." It is the heritage of a young country.

Those of us whose ancestors came over on the Mayflower and those who came as refugees only last week will know what I mean. In our very blood is the belief that tomorrow can be brighter than today.

Furthermore, in our hearts there is the resolve to make tomorrow brighter. That is where the courage comes in.

Did you ever think how much courage it takes to let another man speak his mind? His ideas may sound wrong to you; his proposals and his actions may make you angry or resentful. But the sheer courage to say "speak—speak freely, and go in

33 STATES ELECTING GOVERNORS TODAY

Selective Service Questionnaire, Page 1

STASSEN FACES OPPOSITION FOR MINNESOTA POST

By GEORGE E. REEDY, Jr.
NEW YORK, Nov. 5 (AP)—Thirty-three states select governors today. Republicans have put on a furious campaign to increase the number of states which the governors are Republican.

Voters of 17 states choose between gubernatorial incumbents and challengers. Five of the incumbents are Democratic, 12 Republican.

In 12 states, Democratic gubernatorial candidates are practically unopposed. Spearhead L. Holland, of Florida, has no opposition and Georgia's Eugene "Limbo" Slaton's opponents are small party candidates who have no chance.

In Minnesota, youthful Harold E. Stassen, the Republican incumbent, is opposed by Hjalmar Peterson, Farmer-Laborer, and Ed Murray, Democrat. Stassen, keynote at the Republican convention in July, is considered a shoo-in for re-election in 1944 but he must win today.

Party Weakened

The Farmer-Labor party, for many years dominant, has been weakened. Sen. Ernest Lundeen, its leading member, was killed recently in an airplane accident and Sen. Henrik Christopherson, its former leader, has become a Republican.

Wisconsin is the scene of a desperate battle by the incumbent, Governor Frank D. Rowley, and challenger, Orland B. Loomis is his choice for re-election. Loomis is seeking re-election against the Republican incumbent, a five-to-one majority. The Democratic candidate is Francis E. McGovern.

Will Choose Between Republican and Democratic Challenger

Electing Today

Two states, Louisiana and Maine, held their gubernatorial elections in April and September respectively. The former elected Sam Houston Jones, Democrat who fought the remnants of the Huey Long machine at the latter Summer Sewall, a Republican.

Other states electing governors today are:

U. S. SHIPS NEAR FRENCH ISLANDS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5 (AP)—American naval forces hovered near the French possessions in the Caribbean today, ready for instant action should any attempt be made to effect a change of sovereignty during election day distraction in the United States.

Administration officials doubted such an attempt would be made but were prepared for any eventuality.

At least two American warships were known to be patrolling close to the islands of Martinique and Guadeloupe and Rear Admiral Hayne Ellis, commanding the U. S. Atlantic patrol force in the Caribbean, and a half dozen additional surface ships and a number of patrol boats in the neutral area of the islands.

ATHENS, Nov. 5 (AP)—Hard fighting Greek soldiers have stormed and captured another dominant position on the Albanian side of the Bitolj-Kotor front, and have captured prisoners, howitzers, machine guns and other war material. The high command asserted today.

It was asserted in reliable quarters that at one part of the front Greek mountain scouts had isolated a complete Italian column of more than 5,000 men, which had been sent into a treacherous mountain area to surprise the Greek rear guard.

The Greek scouts almost completely encircled the Italians, it was asserted, and so effectively cut them off that they were out of communication with the main Italian army.

Italian Prestige Declines as Greek Drive Shows Weakness

By J. W. T. MASON
United Press War Expert

First indication of Balkan reaction to the Italian invasion of Greece is contained in today's announcement from Belgrade that the Yugoslav government has taken action against the pro-Fascist Zbor organization. This association is anti-Yugoslavia and advocates reliance on Italian protection for Balkan states against internal aggression, hoping for extension of Italian influences southward.

Jugoslavia is in a delicate and somewhat dangerous situation at the present critical time in the Balkans and has been looking toward Germany for advice. It seems improbable the Belgrade authorities would take into custody leaders of a well-known pro-Italian organization at this time if it were believed such action would offend Germany.

Nor would Belgrade be inclined to antagonize Italy by such a move if the Yugoslav general staff considered Mussolini's offensive in Greece were destined to attain blitzkrieg success. Jugoslavia now is looking to preserving as much of her freedom as possible and every step being taken must be based on realistic judgments.

SCOUTS AID CLUB BALLOT REMINDER

Launching a last-minute push to get the highest possible percentage of voters at the polls before balloting closes at 7 p. m. today, the Twin Falls 20-30 club enlisted the aid of 13 Boy Scouts today in distributing reminder posters.

Scouts from five Twin Falls troops were "covering" every section of the city today, leaving the posters at the front doors of every residence not numbered among those reached last night. The posters bear the legend: "Vote—Do It Now Before You Forget."

The Scouts are distributing 3,500 of these, according to Joe Donahue, chairman of the 20-30 club's "Increase the vote" committee. Downtown stores today were distributing 1,500 more with each purchase. The stores ran out 2,000 last Saturday.

Scout troops furnishing volunteers, according to Executive Gordon Day, are troop 64, three boys; troop 68, three boys; troop 70, two; troop 69, two; troop 66, three.

20-30 Wives Aid in Final Ballot Boost

The "twenty-thirties" went to work today to help make sure the 20-30 club's election turnout in Twin Falls is the largest in history.

Wives of several 20-30 club members were enlisted by the club to make last-minute telephone reminders. The women, starting this morning, were phoning to every registered Twin Falls voter listed in the directory. They asked each voter, answering the telephone number or not, he had voted; if he hadn't, they urged him to do so before 7 p. m. today.

Slavs Reject Axis Demands

LONDON, Nov. 5.—Foreign Secretary Viccount Halifax today indicated that Yugoslavia had rejected demands of the axis powers and appealed to the government of defeated France to avoid betrayal of Great Britain.

Lord Halifax said British repeatedly had rejected German offers for an agreement at the expense of France.

He also pointedly warned the Vichy government, headed by Premier Marshal Henri Philippe Petain, that any French action which would increase British difficulties would be met with "whatever counter action" might prove necessary.

Council Eyes Building for Fire Station

City councilmen last night discussed preliminary plans for construction of a $25,000 new fire station building, probably on property on which the present station is now located.

The building would be erected under a WPA grant which will be applied for. During the construction, the fire equipment would be housed at some other central location, probably a public garage building.

The councilmen also discussed the construction of the machinery and equipment structure which is to be erected here. It was decided, after much discussion and examination of various materials, to use lava rock in construction of the foundation and walls.

Reports for October were also approved and included those of Plumbing Inspector F. J. Healy which showed collections amounting to $151, and Electrical Inspector C. W. Kelly, collections of $141.34.

Five congresswomen are trying for reelection and two women are trying to regain congressional seats they once held. The remainder are looking for their first official trip to Washington.

The term of Sen. Hattie Caraway, D. Ark., the only woman senator, does not expire until 1945.

The house now has eight women representatives, although only five are seeking another term. They are Mrs. Mary T. Norton, D. N. J., chairman of the house labor committee; Mrs. Edith Nourse Rogers, R. Mass.; Mrs. Caroline O'Day, D. N. Y.; Miss Jessie Sumners, R. Ill.; and Mrs. Frances P. Bolton, R. O.

Two of the women house incumbents—Rep. Clara G. McMillan, D. S. C., and Rep. Florence R. Glavin, D. Ga., are not candidates for reelection. The eighth, Mrs. Margaret Chase Smith, R., was reelected in Maine's 3rd S. election. Mrs. John E. Messervy is a candidate to succeed Mrs. McMillan in South Carolina.

Miss Jeanette Rankin, a Republican who voted against American entry into the World War—she was then the only congresswoman—is making another campaign in Montana. Nan Wood Hanesman, Democrat, is a candidate for the seat which she formerly held.

The rest of the women candidates include a number of Communists, members of the National Prohibition party, Democrats and Republicans. One, Frances Somers of Pascale, N. J., is running on the "free beauty clinics" ticket.

THE SPIRIT OF 76

by JOHN CLINTON

The fellow at Cal Tech who p r e d i c t s weather on the long distance basis says this winter's going to be a dilly.

Seems he flagged down a couple of southbound ducks or birds of some kind and got the rest of the slide down from them. Also he says the bunny rabbits are wearing extra heavy fur coats.

Well I'm going to hunt up my red herring and see what I can do. I'm going to take the Hispano Plymouth around the corner to the Union Oil station and have 'em give her a few influenza shots!

I'm going to have em drain the oil and I'll have 'em crank and re-fill with the correct winter grade of oil.

Trick, of course (something with a neat fur neckpiece, I think).

And I know they'll check up on the battery, and maybe put some anti-freeze stuff in the radiator. And after that they'll check the water level in the sheer luxury of spending a whole dime on it, I'm going to have a new windshield wiper blade installed. The one I have now is about as effective as a post-office letter.

And speaking of winter, water and red flannels, you might keep in mind this winter that Union's Minute Man Windshield Service will keep those pesky little beads of water from forming on the windshield—it'll actually let you see right through the glass! It's for free—so keep it in mind.

So now get a pick up Mrs. Clinton. She's doing her Christmas shopping early. And I figure she'll be so broke she can't pay for her hair and I can't have her thumbing rides.

APARTMENT FIRE FLARES IN FILER

A three-room apartment occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bean and called at the rear of the Marquis cafe in Filer, was destroyed by fire of undetermined origin Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Bean operate the cafe behind which the apartment was located. The freezer of the Filer Meat and Grocery company located near the apartment, was not damaged by fire. Smoke filled both the cafe and the meat concern but damage was slight.

EDUCATION WEEK PARADE PLANNED

Observing American Education week, which will begin next week, a parade will be staged in downtown Twin Falls next Tuesday by students of Twin Falls junior high school.

With 75 members, the junior band will march and play in the parade and the remainder of the student body will be divided into groups.

Groups will represent pioneers, American educational themes, book week, Idaho history, colonial period, Junior Red Cross, conservation and various classes of the junior high. Decorated bicycles and clowns will also appear in the parade.

UNITED CRASH IS 1ST IN 3 YEARS

SALT LAKE CITY, Nov. 5 (UP)—United Air Lines officials announced yesterday's crash of a Mainliner into Bonifant peak, 18 miles northeast of here, was the first U. A. L. accident in 36,500,000 flying miles.

The last previous United Airlines crash was in 1937 near Knight, Wyo. Since then, the firm's planes had flown 500,000,000 passenger miles without a fatality.

Today's accident was the second on a United States airline in 10 weeks. On Aug. 31, a Pennsylvania Central Airways plane crashed near Lovettsville, Va., killing 23 persons, including Ben. Street, governor of Minnesota. A lightning storm was given as its cause. Previous to that, this nation's airlines had gone more than a year and a half without a fatal accident.

Victim of Crash Was Rushing to Dad's Bed-side

SACRAMENTO, Calif., Nov. 5 (UP)—O. L. Stevenson, 45, assistant manager of a Sacramento finance company, killed in the United Airlines crash in Utah, was rushing to the bedside of his ill father in Salt Lake City.

Stevenson worked for the finance company in Salt Lake City for 12 years prior to coming here this week on Aug. 31. He was with his sister, wife and daughter all live in Salt Lake City. He was notified yesterday of his father's sudden illness and boarded the plane last night.

Hot Lunch Food Stuffs Donated

JEROME, Nov. 5 (Special)—Vegetable and fruit shower was given by the members of the Catholic Ladies league last Thursday when the group met at the home of Mrs. John Hoaman. Assistant hostess was Mrs. C. E. Gunning. The shower of food commodities will go to assist with the hot lunch program which will soon get underway in the Jerome schools.

Miss Colgate Hawley and Miss Mamie Ayler, Lincoln grade school, presented a group of their pupils in musical numbers.

Announcement was made of the card party at the parish house Nov. 7. Hostesses will be officers of the league Mrs. W. B. Churchman, Mrs. J. P. Eising, Mrs. Wallace Johnson, Mrs. Charles Marshall and Mrs. Anton Hof.

Chiroprapist Will Open Office Here

Dr. Gordon R. Tobin, chiroprapist and orthopedic foot specialist, who recently concluded his internship at the Chiroprapist clinic, San Francisco, will open Twin Falls office at 144 Main north on Wednesday. It was announced today.

Debate Decision Favors 3rd Term

Two students representing the Bernice Babcock American government classes held a debate on the third term issue yesterday at Twin Falls high school.

Judges gave their decision in favor of the debate upholding the third term.

Speaking against the third term was Bob Allen while arguing on the side of the third term was John Day.

Alpha Zeta Pledges

UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO, Nov. 5 (Special)—Four southern Idaho agriculture students were among the 14 pledges to Alpha Zeta, a new organization devoted to scholarship and service activities.

Members of the organization were: Fred Johnson, Jerome; Bob Corbett, Pocatello; and Fred Johnson, Pocatello.

Cardinal, Blue Key Neophytes Named at U. of I.

UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO, Nov. 5 (Special)—Seven junior women and 18 junior and senior men took the spotlight at the start of the homecoming celebration last week. They were pledged to Cardinal Key and Blue Key, upperclassmen's national service honoraries.

Pledged to Cardinal Key was Vera Nell James, Gooding. Receiving the blue sash ribbon of Blue Key were Ed Benoit, Twin Falls, and Kenneth Webb, Gooding.

Others to be honored by the women's group were Bonnie Jean Jennings and Elizabeth Bracken, Boise; Mabel Ayres, Clapper, Wyo.; Jean Cummins, Moscow; Helen Campbell, Orofino; and Mary Ellen Dunkle, Kellogg. Conducting the pledging ceremony was Norma Lou McMurray, Oakley, president of Cardinal Key.

Men pledged to Blue Key were Hudson Nieman, Sandpoint; Neil Ghendinger, Wallace; Ken Kofnelli and Bill Norton, Spokane; Charles Donaldson, Bonanza; Kirby Christen and Bernard Rudolph, Boise; Emory Howard, Emmett; Howard Langland, Huron; S. D. Milton Eberhard, Melba; Wayne H. King and Ed Mueller, St. Maries; and Frank Pories, Oiden, Utah.

U. OF I. STUDENTS VOTE THURSDAY

UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO, Nov. 5 (Special)—Idaho students will go to the polls Thursday to elect class officers, an ASUI executive board member, and to decide the fate of two amendments. Factional rivalry between fraternity and sorority students against the independents will probably be at a minimum this election as only the independents have nominated a ticket.

Final date for filing for candidacy has past and the United Students party, composed of fraternity and sorority students, failed to nominate a ticket. Party chieftains say that they did not have time to organize effectively.

Nominated by the Independents were: Kirk Rush, Rupert, president; Emory Howard, Emmett, vice-president; Margaret Montgomery, Eden, secretary; Franklin Edridge, Payette, treasurer.

Juniors: Bob Bonomi, Wallace, president; Walt Gignoni, New York City, vice-president; Norman Christian, Coeur d'Alene, secretary; Don Robertson, Parma, treasurer.

Charles "Chick" Atkinson, Vandal athlete from Idaho Falls, was nominated by the independents to fill the executive board vacancy.

Last Rites Honor Hagerman Pioneer

BOISE, Nov. 5 (Special)—Large and colorful funeral offerings and the gathering of many friends and relatives marked the services Friday for Hagerman pioneer, John Henry Hagerman, who died last week.

One of the earliest residents of the valley, John Henry Condit, Rites were in charge of John Condit, Meridian, with prayer offered by Bishop Emmerich Pugnare, Hagerman.

Miss Gay Kell sang "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere" and S. E. Chapman sang "One Sweetly Solemn Thought." Accompaniments were played by Mrs. S. E. Chapman, who also played the organ prelude.

Funeral services were conducted by Mr. Condit, Leonard, Sheldon, and Condit Condit, Elgin Drive, 1310 Gilmore and Dana Gilmore.

At the age of 93 years and after a eventful pioneering life, Mr. Condit died Wednesday while sleeping in his chair. He came through this section of Idaho over the old Oregon trail in 1851 with his brother, Leonard. They proved up on a farm on Raitt river near Malin and established and operated one of the first flour mills in the state. He moved with his family to Hagerman in 1895 where he has since resided.

Interment was made in the Hagerman cemetery under the direction of the Albertson funeral home.

South Idahoans on U. of I. Committees

UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO, Nov. 5 (Special)—Three southern Idaho students were named on permanent committees last week by ASUI president Leslie McCarthy. Vernon Rav-Francis, Twin Falls, was chosen chairman of the examining committee to pick election judges.

Also appointed on the examining committee was Labadie Jensen, Burley. Keith Harsh, Paul, was named to the assembly committee.
