Democrats Sweep into Idaho Offices With FDR Flood

Late Returns Point To Clark Victory in Governorship Fight

BOISE, Nov. 6 (UP)—Gov. C. A. Bottolfsen, Republican incumbent, today conceded defeat for reelection. In a telegram to Chase A. Clark, mayor of Idaho Falls, Bottolfsen said: "We congratulate you in your victory and rejoice you will have full cooperation of all officials in behalf of a greater Idaho. We are at your service." The message was signed by Gov. and Mrs. C. A. Bottolfsen.

POCATELLO, Nov. 6 (UP)—Glen H. Taylor, cowboy campaigner from Pocatello who opposed Sen. John Thomas, Republican successor of the late William E. Borah, today conceded election to his opponent. Taylor and Thomas had run a nip and tuck election throughout the night and in returns today Thomas slowly forged ahead.

BOISE, Nov. 6 (UP)—A flood of Idaho votes for President Roosevelt carried all but two of the state's Democratic candidates into narrow leads over Republican nominees today, but returns continued to reflect a nip and tuck battle. Returns from 513 precincts gave Roosevelt 81,726, Willkie 68,829.

Idahoans appeared to have repudiated the campaign of song conducted by Glen H. Taylor, the cowboy entertainer and Democratic senate nominee. Returns indicated Sen. John Thomas, Republican interim appointee, would hold the vote which remains in the senate term of the late Sen. William E. Borah.

The count about Taylor, D., 48,424; Thomas, R., 76,236. Second District Congressman Henry Dworshak was the only other Republican to hold a lead. His vote over Ira H. Masters, D., 319, 274, 294, over 409 was 42,778 to 40,294.

Clark's Lead Increases As counting progressed, Mayor Chase A. Clark of Idaho Falls held and slightly expanded his lead over Gov. C. A. Bottolfsen. The tally gave Clark 74,729; Bottolfsen 72,671.

First District Congressman Compton I. White, Democratic incumbent, swept into his fourth consecutive term by a good margin. Edward Oaffrey, Oregon stage line operator, conceded defeat early last evening. The trend toward a Democratic state family—except for Sen. Thomas and Rep. Dworshak—was carried into minor state offices.

Results from throughout the state, received by state GOP and Democratic headquarters, indicated that the state legislature will be predominantly Democratic.

The Republicans had placed 17 candidates in the senate and 19 in the house of representatives. There were still other counties, however, where the races were close.

Refuses to Concede GOP State Chairman Thomas Heath, clinging doggedly to the possibility that there might be a mistake, said Gov. Bottolfsen will not concede the race until "the last vote is counted."

Meanwhile, Clark was at his home in Idaho Falls, sleeping after remaining up the entire night to watch the lead change to his favor. Democratic state headquarters were confident Clark would retain the lead he gained by midnight.

Robert Coulter, election board chairman, said "the trend has been for Clark and there is almost no chance that outlying precincts will make a great deal of difference."

Idaho Winners

CHASE A. CLARK

HENRY DWORSHAK

JOHN THOMAS

Idaho Democrats swept into office in yesterday's election on the lead of President Roosevelt and today Gov. C. A. Bottolfsen had conceded defeat by Chase A. Clark, Democratic nominee from Idaho Falls, in the gubernatorial race. However, Sen. John Thomas and Rep. Henry Dworshak, both Republicans, retained their offices by collecting good margins over Glen Taylor and Ira Masters.

MASTERS CONGRUOUS

BOISE, Nov. 6 (UP)—Ira H. Masters, Democratic nominee for second district congressman, today conceded the election to Rep. Henry Dworshak, incumbent Republican.

DEMOS INCREASE HOUSE MAJORITY BY 10 MEMBERS

BY JOHN R. BEAL NEW YORK, Nov. 6 (UP)—Democrats increased their house majority today by 10 seats, ousting incumbent Republicans while losing four seats to Republicans.

A Democratic majority somewhat larger than the present 259-167 division was indicated in tabulation of the congressional races showing that 201 Democrats, 91 Republicans, and two Wisconsin Progressives were definitely assured of election. However, some undecided contests may diminish New Deal gains.

A prominent Republican casualty in Ohio was Rep. Harry N. Routhon. He is a former American Federation of Labor attorney who served on the house committee which investigated the national labor relations board and sponsored legislation passed by the house but stalled in the senate to amend the Wagner act. Greg Hedbrook, Democrat, defeated him.

In Missouri Rep. Rembert T. Wood, Democrat, a four-term house veteran and president of the Missouri federation of labor, lost his seat to Phil A. Bennett, Republican.

Biggest Democratic coup was in New England where the administration captured four Republican seats in Connecticut and two in Rhode Island to make both house delegations completely Democratic.

The Democrats also took over two Republican seats in Pennsylvania and two in New York, but lost one in the Empire state, that held by Rep. James H. Fay, who "purged" John J. O'Connor for the New Deal in 1938.

GOP PARTY GAINS SEAT IN SENATE

BY RONALD G. VAN TINE NEW YORK, Nov. 6 (UP)—Republicans picked up a seat in the U. S. senate and zero in a neck-and-neck race for another Democratic scalp on the basis of incomplete election returns tabulated by the United Press today.

Returns from Ohio and Nebraska indicated the G. O. P. had elected Mayor Harold H. Burton of Cleveland and Hugh Butler, Omaha industrialist, to succeed Democratic incumbents. In a third state, Indiana, an assistant Democratic leader Sherman Minton was trailing Raymond E. Willis by 8,000 votes.

The Republican gain, however, was offset by the loss of Sen. John G. Townsend, R., Del., leader of the senate forces fighting the administration's silver purchase policy. He was defeated by James Miller Tunnell, 61-year-old lawyer.

All Democrats successful For the 36 contested yesterday, 23 Democrats and nine Republicans were successful, with four races still undecided. Counting of the Empire which was unchanged as the day wore on, would make the lineup in the incoming senate 68 Democrats, 30 Republicans, one Progressive and one Independent.

Early returns in Wisconsin showed that Robert H. La Follette, the upper chamber's lone Progressive, held a lead of 22,000 votes over Frederick H. Clausen, Republican.

Returns from Idaho and Indiana, however, were too incomplete to forecast definitely that the G. O. P. (Continued on Page 2, Column 2)

GREEKS, ITALIANS LOCK IN BATTLE

By JOE ALEX MORRIS United Press Foreign News Editor Greek and Italian armiers reported locked in a tremendous battle today as Great Britain and Germany clashed in big-scale sea and air operations.

A conflict of great importance is raging in Greece, the Italian official radio reported, asserting the Fascist troops are advancing in both northern and southern fronts after bitter fighting in which many Greek prisoners were taken.

FORMER MEDICAL GROUP'S LEADER DIES AT BURLEY

BURLEY, Nov. 6 (Special)—Patly injured shortly after 8 a. m. today when another machine skidded into the path of his car, Dr. Joseph Nelson Davis, 68, Twin Falls physician and surgeon who was formerly president of the Idaho State Medical association, died in an ambulance en route to the Cottage hospital.

Mrs. Davis, who was riding with her husband, was seriously injured. She was in Cottage hospital this afternoon suffering from severe injury to the right eye, multiple lacerations of face and nose, and a fractured right leg. She also sustained severe shock. Her attending physician said her condition was "just fair" at 1 p. m.

Sheriff P. D. Pace said that the accident occurred when an auto driven by Newell Allen, Tallahassee, Fla., en route from Detroit to Portland, skidded sideways on slippery U. S. 30 directly into the path of the oncoming Davis machine. Allen had applied his brakes to avoid hitting a wagon load of beet, the sheriff said, and his car swung broadside in front of Dr. Davis.

Allen escaped injury but Howard Hurst, youthful hitchhiker who was riding with the Florida man, suffered a broken right leg. He is also at Cottage hospital.

The accident occurred six and one-half miles east of Burley, Sheriff Pace said. A Burley rancher named Hurst was driving the wagon load of beet.

Dr. Davis, known throughout the state in medical, army reserve, Boy Scout, American Legion and Holy circles, was en route to Salt Lake City for physical examination. (Continued on Page 16, Column 1)

Republicans Sweep Twin Falls County

Final unofficial tabulations from all of the 26 precincts of Twin Falls county, received late this afternoon, showed that W. W. Lowery (D) had defeated Sheriff L. W. Hawkins for the sheriff's post with a vote of 4,128 to 2,684. The unofficial final results also showed that George Childs (R) was ahead of his opponent J. D. Barnhart (D) in the race for the assessor's post by 42 votes, the total being 8,140 for Childs and 8,098 for Barnhart. These figures show the result so close that the actual winner will probably not be known until after the commissioners make the canvass of the election books.

Republicans won a sweeping victory in Twin Falls county when at 2 p. m. today, with 26 complete precincts and one incomplete precinct reporting, all candidates on the GOP ticket except two were assured of victory.

The two Democratic candidates who appeared sure of winning were Cora Stevens, incumbent treasurer, and W. W. Lowery, candidate for sheriff.

One other Democrat, J. D. Barnhart, for assessor, had a narrow chance for possible victory if the incomplete precinct gives him the edge when completed. At the last tabulation he was trailing George Childs, present assessor, by only 45 votes, the count being 8,098 for Childs and 8,048 for Barnhart. Will (Continued on Page 2, Column 2)

Willkie Concedes Loss as America Sets Vote Record

NEW YORK, Nov. 6 (U.P.)—President Roosevelt's big electoral college lead over Wendell Willkie mounted steadily today and latest returns forecast increased New Deal strength in both houses of congress as the GOP nominee conceded defeat.

The popular vote was close. At 2 p. m. EST., United Press tabulations showed the popular vote divided: Roosevelt 22,527,302; Willkie, 18,842,340.

The returns conclusively gave Mr. Roosevelt 25 states with 348 electoral votes. He led in 15 others with 124 electoral votes. That would make a total of 472 electoral votes.

Willkie had clinched five states with 28 electoral votes and was ahead in three states with 31 electoral votes. That would give 59 electoral votes.

Democrats had made a net gain of 15 house seats from Republicans, but this may be whittled down some. The outlook was for Republicans to win one more senate seat but this will be offset by the retirement of two anti-New Deal Democrats—Sean Rush, Gov. of West Va., and William H. King of Utah—in favor of two party members more sympathetic to the New Deal.

One, Two, Three

Republicans had elected seven governors and paced Democrats in seven other gubernatorial contests. Fifteen Democratic gubernatorial candidates had won and four others were in the lead. Willkie, who probably will pile up the largest popular vote ever cast for a losing candidate, conceded defeat shortly after 10:30 a. m. (EST). He sent a congratulatory message to Mr. Roosevelt at Hyde Park, N. Y., in which he expressed gratification that such a large number of citizens had voted.

Later, in a radio address Willkie promised to continue "to work for the unity of our people, in the completion of our defense effort, in sending aid to Britain and in insistence upon removal of antagonisms in America."

"Sorry" to McNary He sent a message to his running mate, Sen. Charles L. McNary of Oregon, saying he was "sorry" about the outcome of their campaign, and assured reporters that he was not bitter in defeat.

Mr. Roosevelt, acknowledging Willkie's wire, reciprocated the leader's wishes for his continued health and happiness. McNary telegraphed the President "wishing you all success, and administration all prosperity."

Mr. Roosevelt replied: "Many thanks for your generous and therefore characteristic message and I know you and I will work together in the national interest." (Continued on Page 2, Column 3)

THE BLACK FLAG FLIES

The fourth failed presidential election in Idaho since 1891, 31,200,000 in 6 counties, occurred in Idaho today. The vote was: Roosevelt 81,726; Willkie 68,829; Thomas 76,236; Taylor 48,424; Clark 74,729; Bottolfsen 72,671; Dworshak 48,027; Painter 47,671; Miller 44,243; Reed Miller 38,021; Robert 44,740; Davis-Wilcox 3,943; Arthur Campbell 48,001; Stewart Campbell 27,600. Magic Valley Supports Willkie, Thomas, Dworshak, Bott

Running counter to the state and national endorsement of President Franklin D. Roosevelt, the eight counties of Magic Valley rolled up a plurality of 2,000 votes for Wendell L. Willkie, gave substantial margins to Sen. John Thomas and Cong. Henry C. Dworshak and reversed the state trend in the gubernatorial race by favoring Gov. C. A. Bottolfsen by 4,687 votes over Chase A. Clark, the up-petitioner.

While the general result revealed today in the Evening Times compilation including almost all precincts throughout Magic Valley, only a few scattered precincts were missing.

In total number of counties, Magic Valley was evenly divided between Roosevelt and Willkie—four counties for each. Cassia, Minidoka and Blaine counties listed in the Roosevelt column, with Blaine county's plurality for FDR being the largest. Jerome, Twin Falls, Good and Lincoln counties are in the Willkie column. Twin Falls county gave Willkie the largest advantage—2,907 to 1,208 with only one Burley precinct and the last half of the county in one Twin Falls city precinct still unreported.

No individual candidate among the "big eight" carried every one of the eight central counties, the Times compilation showed. Bottolfsen, Thomas and Dworshak all were victorious in six of the eight. Blaine and Camas results block- (Continued on Page 2, Column 4)

30 DEMOCRATS, 18 REPUBLICANS IN GOVERNOR POSTS

STASSEN WINNER IN MINNESOTA AS MICHIGAN SHIFTS

NEW YORK, Nov. 6 (AP)—The gubernatorial elections in 23 states apparently made no change in the ratio of state political control between the major political parties which will probably remain at 30 Democratic governors and 18 Republicans, incomplete returns indicated today.

In 16 states, Democratic candidates were elected or leading while Republicans had been elected or were leading in 16 states. Two of the Democrats, Spencer L. Hollister of Florida and Eugene Talmadge of Georgia, were unopposed. Republicans were leading or elected in four states which had Democratic governors. These were Delaware, Illinois, Montana and Nebraska.

Democrats, however, replaced Republican governors in Connecticut, Idaho, Rhode Island and Michigan.

Edison Is Winner

Former Assistant Secretary of the Navy Charles Edison won a hotly contested race in New Jersey. Robert C. Hendrickson, Hendrickson held a commanding lead until late returns from Frank Hague's Jersey City and Hudson county tipped the scale against him.

One of the sharpest upsets was the defeat of Republican Gov. William H. Vanderhill of Rhode Island by J. Howard McGrath, Democrat.

In Illinois, a New Deal stronghold under the late Gov. Henry Horner, Dwight D. Green, Chicago attorney, held a comfortable lead over his Democratic opponent Harry B. Hershey.

Michigan's crusading prohibition governor, Luren D. Dickinson, a Republican, was defeated by Murray D. Van Wagener.

Democratic governors apparently elected on the basis of incomplete returns:

Democratic Winners

Arizona, Osborn; Arkansas, Adkins; Connecticut, Harley; Florida, Holland; Georgia, Talmadge; Idaho, McGrath; Illinois, Green; Indiana, Daniel; New Jersey, Charles Edison; North Carolina, Brroughton; Rhode Island, McGrath; Tennessee, Cooper and Texas, O'Daniel.

Republican governors apparently elected:

Delaware, Bacon; Maine, Bennett; Massachusetts, Edmunds; Minnesota, Stassen; Nebraska, Griswold; New Hampshire, Blood and Vermont, White.

Missouri's Harold E. Stassen, keynoter at the Republican convention in July, assumed a commanding lead which he never relinquished. Julius P. Hill, Wisconsin's Republican governor who carried the state in five-to-three majority in 1938, trailed his Progressive rival, Orland B. Loomis, during early tabulations. However, he seemed well in the lead late this morning.

the border states by taking Rep. Phil Ferguson's Democratic seat in Oklahoma when Ross Riley was elected, and by threatening to increase Missouri's Republican representation by two or three seats. Republican Thomas Rolph picked up one for his party when he defeated Rep. Frank R. Haveman in California.

Rep. Fish Wins

Despite personal efforts of President Roosevelt and Republican Willkie backers to defeat him, Rep. Hamilton Fish, R., N. Y., was re-elected. New York picked Kenneth S. Logan, former state education commissioner, to succeed to the post vacated by Bruce Barton when he ran for the senate. Rep. Wm. Merritt, sole American-born representative in congress, won reelection.

Walter Johnson, former big-league ball player who was making a Republican bid for congress from Maryland after a two-year warmup in county politics, was leading the Democratic incumbent, Rep. William D. Byron.

GREEKS, ITALIANS LOCK IN BATTLE

around the Kootenai road was reported by Greek mountain troops, which were engaged in a new line of hills on the north front.

Report Progress
The Greeks had been reporting successful progress since they captured the initial Passaic drive toward Elberta (which was heavily bombed by Italian planes again today) and Saberton on the north front. The Greek mountain troops also had advanced all the way to Kootenai after crossing the Kootenai river yesterday afternoon.

Fighting was described by both sides as severe in the Kootenai front. It appeared that the Passaic drive was about to have gained and that important gains in that section.

The southwestern front was being held by the Greeks today. The Greeks today had advanced toward the Italian mountain troops, probably 1,000 men, was reported still engaged by Greek forces northwest of Elberta.

Strike Heavily
In the air, both Italian and Greek forces were reported striking heavily. The Passaic planes continued to bombard the Greek lines, especially Elberta, but Rome denied that Italian planes had bombed Saberton or Elberta. A sharp fighter town which was attacked twice yesterday, apparently having been bombed for the first time. Such losses, apparently based in Greece, again attacked southern Italy. But Rome reported that the bombers were chased away from Naples.

Kills Destroyed
The axis air forces renewed heavy attacks on the Kootenai front. London was under the heaviest air raid since the last night. The sky was cloudy and the planes were in and out of the clouds in the Kootenai attacks.

The royal air force was said by the London and London to have engaged at Bremerhaven, Emden, Hamburg, Salsburg, Calais, Dunkirk, Antwerp, Flushing and other large German cities. The attacks were so far in the Kootenai area and bombing of air and ship building objectives at many points.

SUPPORTERS OF BOTH PARTIES PLEAD FOR NATIONAL UNITY

STRONG FRONT TO DICTATORS URGED TO ALL AMERICA

By JOHN H. PARRIS, Jr.
NEW YORK, Nov. 6 (AP)—Out of the bitterness a fiercely fought presidential battle came pleas for national unity today from supporters of both candidates.

The people were told it is their first duty now to foster and promote national unity and present to the totalitarian powers a solid, undivided front.

William Allen White, chairman of the committee to defend America by aiding the allies, announced "unity mass meetings" would be held throughout the nation within the next few days.

White proposed that all Democratic and Republican campaign literature and buttons be burned at public "unity" bon fires.

In Chicago, Frank Knox, secretary of the navy, asserted it now becomes the duty of every good American to foster and promote a national unity.

Bitterness Gone

Democratic National Committee Chairman Edward J. Flynn said "with the election there passes whatever bitterness there has been in this campaign." He asserted those who supported Wendell Willkie would join President Roosevelt in his efforts to keep "our nation out of war and carry on the program of economic progress that has brought us so far on the road to recovery."

Former Democratic National Committee Chairman James A. Farley also made a radio plea for unity.

Secretary of Labor Frances Perkins declared that "during such a time as the present there should be no accent on class or group distinctions such as social and labor, but rather on solid Democratic unity of the nation."

Must Be Forgotten

Differences and divisions must now be forgotten, Gov. Herbert H. Lehman of New York said.

"We must devote ourselves," he said, "to working for the good of the country and democracy."

Leading supporters of both major political parties will meet in New York's Carnegie hall tonight in an "American united rally."

Among the speakers will be Alfred M. Landon, Republican presidential nominee in 1936, and Attorney General Robert H. Jackson.

The rally will be broadcast over a nationwide hookup of the Columbia Broadcasting system for 8:15 p. m. MST until 9 p. m. EST.

ROME—Italians expressed pessimism today over the future of Italian and German relations with the United States as the result of the apparent victory of President Roosevelt.

MAJOR SURVEYS PREDICTED FOR

NEW YORK, Nov. 6 (AP)—Three major campaign surveys came closest to predicting President Roosevelt's reelection. It was indicated today on the basis of nearly two-thirds of the total expected vote.

The Fortune magazine survey, directed by Elmo Roper, was the most accurate. It predicted a 52.4 per cent popular majority for Mr. Roosevelt. On the basis of returns so far tabulated by the United Press, the President's majority was 54.46 per cent.

The American Institute of Public Opinion, directed by Dr. George Gallup, gave Mr. Roosevelt a 52 per cent popular majority, 19 sure states and the edge in 30. It made no prediction.

Emil Hurja's Pathfinder magazine and the Rogers Dunn survey appended least accurate. Both gave Wendell W. Willkie 23 states. The Pathfinder gave Mr. Roosevelt 19 states and the Dunn survey gave him 11 states.

The Archibald M. Crossley survey gave Mr. Roosevelt a 51 per cent popular majority. The American Opinion Forecast, Inc., directed by Edward J. Wall, gave the President a 52 per cent majority.

Edward J. Flynn, chairman of the Democratic national committee, predicted Mr. Roosevelt would get 427 electoral votes and carry all but nine states. Joseph W. Martin, chairman of the Republican national committee, predicted Willkie would get 324 electoral votes.

CRASH IS TERMED AS 'UNAVOIDABLE'

SALT LAKE CITY, Nov. 6 (AP)—The crash Monday of a United Air Lines liner into a Bountiful peak near here today was termed "unavoidable" by a coroner's jury that was investigating the death of the 10 persons who were riding the airliner when it thundered into the snow-covered hillside.

Death of the occupants was said to have been instantaneous.

Definite cause of the crash itself will be fixed by civil aeronautics board investigators, who today were still at the wreck scene, examining what was left of the plane.

Death of the occupants was said to have been instantaneous.

As given to the jury, were a snowstorm that was raging at the time of the accident and the improper functioning of a radio navigation beam. Airline officials said the instrument landing being made by the plane when it hit the hill was a routine maneuver.

SONG

NEW YORK, Nov. 6 (AP)—The Democrats had a hit song on their hands today—"Martin, Barton and Fish."

Composed by an unemployed song writer, Sid Green, the ditty was introduced at campaign headquarters last night and was taken up by the celebrating Democrats who changed it whenever the band struck up.

Taken from President Roosevelt's reference to the Republican representatives in his Madison Square Garden speech last week, it goes:

Martin, Barton and Fish
Now there's a political dish
Of these charming fellows,
You've heard before
They vote against what the people are for
Martin, Barton and Fish.

I just hope I get my wish
On November the sixth,
Whenever they are,
And hear of the victory of F. D. R.

And eat Commonweal Southern with their caviar
Martin, Barton and Fish.

MINIDOKA SPLITS BALLOT SUPPORT

RUPERT, Nov. 6 (Special)—President Roosevelt gained a narrow 14-vote edge over Wendell L. Willkie in Minidoka county balloting but Sen. John Thomas and Cong. Henry C. Dworshak reversed that trend to outdistance their Democratic rivals, complete results from the nine precincts showed today.

Roosevelt's total was 1,866. Willkie's 2,170. Thomas captured Glen Taylor 1,910 to 1,589 and Dworshak led Ira H. Masters 2,280 to 1,760.

Evidencing plenty of "scratched" ballots, the Minidoka county vote showed that elections after favoring Gov. C. A. Bottelstein and Lieut. Gov. Don Whitehead—then switched and endorsed the Democratic candidates on the entire remainder of the state ticket. State Auditor Calvin Wright, a Minidoka neighbor, swamped the Republican ticket with 2,530 to 1,432. Mr. Wright led the election list in total votes received.

Minidoka county split its legislative posts, giving the senatorship to a Democrat and the representative job to a Republican. Sheriff W. F. Mansfield, Democrat, received 2,187 lead over Republican L. H. Johnson, 2,052 to 2,029.

Complete results from the nine precincts—Willkie, R., 1,972; Roosevelt, D., 1,866; U. DEFEATED CANDIDATE ASKS FOR ELECTION RALLY

Editor, Times:

In the days of our Father's the custom of participating special events was established, and the passing years have transformed this custom into a tradition, so it seems altogether fitting and proper that some suitable ceremony be observed as an aftermath to our recent election.

As one of the defeated candidates I shall say that I am "ticked pink" with the results and the victors should be pleased too, as everybody should be happy. Now let's unite—Republicans and Democrats—and have a real get-together rally.

The electorate has spoken. As Americans all, we are united in a common cause, the welfare of us, the greatest country under God's grand canopy of heaven. Let's all forget our petty differences and take care of our job in the real "American way."

How about a rally Saturday night? The electorate has spoken. As Americans all, we are united in a common cause, the welfare of us, the greatest country under God's grand canopy of heaven. Let's all forget our petty differences and take care of our job in the real "American way."

FOR TOPS CASSIA IN DIVIDED VOTE

BURLEY, Nov. 6 (Special)—State Auditor Calvin Wright, passive of Burley, topped the ballot in Cassia county divided its endorsement in state races, gave Roosevelt narrow over Willkie and supported both Sen. John Thomas and Cong. Henry C. Dworshak in the senate and congress battles.

Cassia county gave Gov. C. A. Bottelstein almost a 400-vote advantage over Chase A. Clark, who is apparently elected on statewide returns.

The Roosevelt edge over Willkie was 1,778 to 2,054. Complete results today from 19 out of 23 precincts in Cassia county. Results from Almo and Jackson precincts, now on the ballot, are included in that numerical total. Hager and Sublet precincts are still unreported but since the Almo and Jackson reports did not change results on any offices, the other two probably will not affect the final outcome materially.

SPORTS 'MOST VALUABLE' AWARD

GREENBERG

Detroit Star Gets 292 Votes in Poll of Writers

NEW YORK, Nov. 6 (U.P.)—The baseball writers today confirmed what everyone in the trade already recognized as known fact—that Hank Greenberg was the guy who made the Detroit Tigers go.

Greenberg, who risked his career by shifting from first base to left field for the good of the Tigers, was named the most valuable player in the American league for the second time by a committee of 24 baseball writers, three from each of the eight cities in the circuit. Driving in 130 runs and cracking out 41 home runs, Greenberg led the league in both these departments. He had a .340, highest mark of his career.

The big Tigers slugger, who first won the most valuable player award in 1935, repeated this year with 292 points. Bob Feller, who won 27 games for the Cleveland Indians, was second with 272 points. Joe E. Judge, Yankees' center fielder who won the award in 1939, was third with 151 points. Buck Newsum, Tigers' pitching ace who won 21 games, came fourth with 120 points, noting out Lou Boudreau, Cleveland's brilliant young shortstop.

Anyone who would have predicted last winter that Greenberg would be crowned the most valuable player in the league at the end of the 1940 season would have been ridiculed as wacky. Things were far from bright for the tall, lanky Bronx boy when the Tigers' front office called him to Detroit for a chat. The Detroit officials offered Greenberg the choice of taking a sharp salary slash or shifting from first base to the outfield in order to make a place for the miffed Rudy York.

After playing first base for seven years and establishing himself as a star at that position, Greenberg had a tough decision to make. York had failed as an outfielder, a third baseman and a catcher and it was either one or two things, play him first at first or trade him. Greenberg agreed to make the switch and no player in Florida worked longer or more earnestly than did Hank to learn how to play his new position. He not only developed as a first baseman but an outfielder, but he did so without allowing his batting to suffer.

Vandals Ready For Annual Montana Tilt

MOSCOW, Nov. 6 (Special)—Fur and mythical horned helmets are set for a vigorous tipping at Saturday when the Idaho Vandals cross the Bitterroots for the annual battle with the Montana Vandals. The game will be played at the Bitterroot field in Missoula.

Also on the block for a year's possession is the Brown Stein presented as an annual trophy to the winner of the game. Idaho topped possession of the Stein in 1938 by defeating Montana 19 to 6, but the coveted silverware went to the Grizzlies the next year in 1939 when Montana defeated Idaho on the home spot, 13-6-6.

Though the Idaho club has been kicked and bumped around during the current season, outlook for the coming Montana affair is encouraging. As the Vandals square their gridding power toward Missoula, Down and up inside and out, Coach Tommie Banks is trading along the improvement trail as they learn the game of football the hard way.

From the Washington State game walked the Vandal squad with few noblesome hurts, and they will be clad in their silver and gold uniforms of last year for the Grizzly battle. Ken Cox, sophomore left halfback with the rosy schoolboy cheeks, may be lined up in his half-back department for the classic. He has missed the grunts and groans of the Utah State and Washington State games while the Grizzlies have a review of the 1939 game shows Montana clocking 10 first downs and traveling 122 yards via scrimmage while the Vandals registered 15 first downs and 136 yards driving and punting on the field. Scores arrived for the Grizzlies on the wings of the wind. The Grizzlies' star, Roy Gustafson for 13-yards, in the second period, and Frank Nugent intercepted an Idaho pass in the last play for a 25-yard winning touch.

C. of I. Ready For Gala Homecoming

CALDWELL, Nov. 6 (Special)—Plans are nearing completion for the annual homecoming of the Caldwell High School football team.

That doesn't mean get at the College of Idaho this week. It means instead that Coach Mildred Healey is directing his football players in their opening practice of the season. In bright slacks and jackets, in warm sweaters over open shirts, 24 coaches turned out for the beginning of the Women's Athletic Association field hockey season. They began their six weeks' season Tuesday and Thursday, and the accompaniment of clacking hockey sticks and the staccato blasts of the coach's whistle.

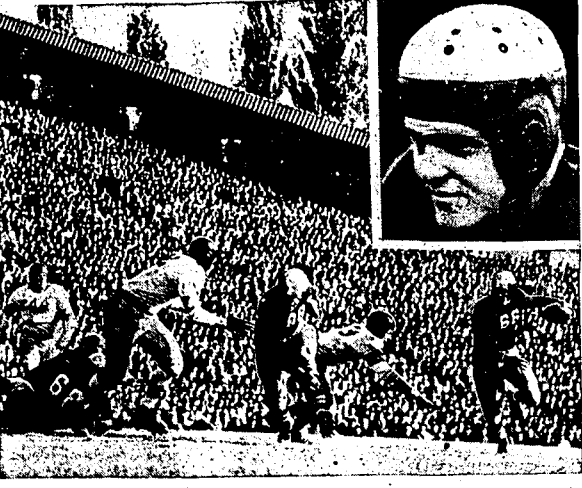

The players are having a lot of fun even if they do lack a slim concentration. Mr. Healey said. Under their direction they are learning the fundamentals of the game before forming teams for the six weeks' season.

Lawson Little, Jimmy Demaret Test "Proper" Way to Play Golf

BY HENRY MCKEON
ENROUTE TO TEXAS Nov. 6 (U.P.)—Lawson Little doesn't look much like a golfer, but he is one. It is just that they are going to double for when they start their 72-hole challenge match at Houston next Sunday.

Their meeting will not be so much a test of skill as it will be a demonstration of how a golfer can be learned concerning the proper mental attitude with which to approach the game of golf. During the course of a laboratory, and the national open champion and one of the chief stars as a golfer in a match with Lawson Little and Jimmy Demaret. They are both and day, evening and weekend, practice their swing, push and scratch, swing and ground, and make and straighten. You could search every sandtrap, bunker, hazard, rough and 35th hole in the world without finding two other golfers who owe their lives to each other as much as Lawson Little and Jimmy Demaret. Football Men Brand Ohio State Signal-Calling Charge Against Snively of Cornell as "Absurd"

Walt Matuszszak, inset, calls plays for Cornell and makes key blocks. There he is, No. 88, about to take out an Ohio State defender as Leo Butlins swings wide on end run.

Buhl-Jerome Grid Tilt May Decide Big Seven Winner

Man Winter closes in on the football season during the next 10 days and with the exception with Thanksgiving contests on Nov. 21, most of the south central Idaho schools will tuck the grid uniforms away by next Tuesday.

On Friday and Armistice day (Monday) there are nine games scheduled involving south central teams. And of these the Buhl-Jerome conflict holds top billing because it may decide the conference championship of the Big Seven.

Coach Bill Wheeler has brought a surprising band of Indians along to the place where they are the only team in the Big Seven to seriously challenge the defending championship club—Jerome Tigers. Buhl has won two games and led one in conference play, compared with three victories and a lone tie for Jerome.

Jerome Hold Edge
However, on the basis of a seasonal play, the Tigers must be considered the favorite to retain their title—because they have the edge on experience and all-around reserves. At the same time they have a strong line in the backfield in south Idaho football in Louis Canine and Charles Plinston.

Both Buhl should win, then there would be a chance for the Buhl Wildcats to get into the scramble, because the Wildcats and Indians have added 100,000 acres of timber lands to its protected areas in the past 18 months. The division now protects 9,000,000 of the state's 20,000,000 acres of forests.

On the same day, Nampa Bulldogs should stay in the race for the conference title by downing Caldwell. On Friday the Pocatello Indians have a chance to tie up the championship by downing Idaho.

BY HARRY GRAYSON
NEW YORK—Football men laugh at the charge made by Athletic Director W. S. Lyon and Coach Francis Schmidt of Ohio State that Carl Snively directed the Cornell team against the Buckeyes from the bench.

One reason is that any coach repeatedly wigwagging his players would have his team penalized every second or third play.

Another is that such methods would only result in confusing the team.

A team looking for a signal from the bench couldn't pick it up, skip one, it would be ridiculous for him, or anybody else, to call plays for Matuszszak or the other Cornell signal-caller, Walt Schulz.

Snively rates their choices of play the finest he has ever seen in the college game.

Matuszszak called another perfect game for Cornell against Ohio State, and carried out his own blocking assignments flawlessly.

When the Buckeyes stubbornly stuck to their diamond defense deep in their own territory, Matuszszak called for a mid-sley pass that scored with the aid of his own magnificent block.

When Ohio State switched to the orthodox seven line in the second half, Matuszszak blasted ball-carriers through it.

Snively prefers to have a blocking back call plays provided he is well enough versed in football. He reasons that the blocking back is more likely to make the key block if for no other reason than to make the play be called.

Cornell gets away from making an outstanding ball-carrier a signal-caller because too frequently, in an effort to make a backfield team look good, he calls on an inferior ball-carrier at a time when it team needs to take its best shot.

Snively and most other coaches would like to say they have never communicated with players illegally. Snively and practically all other coaches readily will admit they have pointed to their safety man when he is playing too deeply or too close up, or in some other way have given instructions from the bench.

Last games on the regular season will be played on Friday at Fairfield to Idaho, Shoshone to Wendell and Okley Ferry to Hagerman.

Both Idaho and Idaho Falls are favored to perform.

But it is absurd to say that Carl Snively or any other coach called play after play from the bench for team as highly general as the veteran 1940 Cornell varsity and with a field general as competent as Walter Matuszszak.

MONTANA VOTES FOR CONFIDENCE

BUTTE, Mont., Nov. 6 (AP)—Montana today gave President Roosevelt a thumping vote of confidence, but was in the unique position of possibly electing a Republican governor and one Republican representative. Returns tabulated from 412 of the state's 1195 precincts gave Roosevelt 74,809, William 48,219. Sen. C. Fred Helms, Republican, on the basis of these returns, was leading Gov. Roy E. Ayers, Democrat, 57,524 votes to 51,553 for Ayers. However, many back-country precincts, where Ayers' strength lay, had not yet reported.

Former Congressman Jeannette Rankin, a Republican, was leading Former Congressman Jerry J. O'Connor in the first district by 30,728 votes to 28,108 for O'Connor. Sen. B. K. Wheeler was elected to a fourth term by an overwhelming majority over E. K. Chandle, Jr., a Shelby Republican, and Lieutenant Colonel in the national guard.

In the second congressional district, Rep. J. F. O'Connor led an apparently safe lead over Melvin Haines, Billings Republican.

PUBLICIST SPEAKS FOR HIGH SCHOOL

At a pay assembly, Frank Preston Johnson, well known publicist, newspaperman and scientist, will be presented to Twin Falls high school students Thursday.

Mr. Johnson will answer several current important questions on industry, agriculture and science. Topic for the discussion is "New Wealth From Old Sources." He has consulted several prominent leaders in the town on his topics.

In his search for encouraging news Mr. Johnson has visited scores of industrial plants, agricultural colleges and experimental laboratories and has studied first hand the forces that are creating new industries and building new markets for surplus and waste products.

A large platform display accompanies the talk to prove the points brought forth.

WILLKIE LAUDS WORK OF AIDES

NEW YORK, Nov. 6 (AP)—Republican Presidential Nominee Wendell L. Willkie told followers today "the principles for which we have fought will prevail." He counseled them to be unafraid and "never quit."

I congratulate you on being a part of the greatest crusade of the century. The principles for which we have fought will prevail as sure as that the truth will prevail. I hope that one of you is either afraid or disheartened, because I am not in the slightest," he said.

"I want to thank you so much for being my fellow fighters in this struggle."

Willkie's plans for the future, in politics or in private life, were uncertain. He has been in politics less than seven months. His last job was president of Commonwealth & Southern corporation, an utility holding company, whose struggle with the Tennessee valley authority brought Willkie into the national prominence that culminated June 28 in his selection as the Republican nominee. He got $75,000 a year.

President Promises He Will Be Same Roosevelt

By T. F. REYNOLDS

HYDE PARK, N. Y., Nov. 6 (AP)—President Roosevelt today promised undeviating support to principles of his New Deal in the harsh years in which he fears the new world is heading.

"I think you will find me in the future just exactly the same Franklin Roosevelt as you have known for a great many years," he said in a victory speech to his Hyde Park neighbors.

That was the first public utterance of the President after the trend of Tuesday's voting had been established. It implied a promise that after his third inauguration on next Jun. 20, the administration will meet the problems of a world at war on the same basis which guided the New Deal since March 4, 1933.

"I don't need to tell you that we face difficult days in this country," Mr. Roosevelt said.

Informal Talk

His words, however, were informal and extempore. He spoke shortly after midnight to a crowd of his mid-Hudson valley neighbors while the story of his reelection was still incomplete.

Juliant supporters of the New Deal from Hyde Park village, carrying red fire, banners and led by a band, came to the Roosevelt home at midnight.

Standing in the glare of newswear cameramen's torches, Mr. Roosevelt acknowledged the salute of victory. Twenty-four hours earlier, in his final summation to America of his career for a third term, he had appealed for national unity after the "real rulers of this country (the voters) have had their say."

The enthusiasm of the partisan crowd bubbled over when he was presented by Elmer Van Wagner, who broke the Republican tradition in Hyde Park village in winning election as township supervisor.

"You have heard of Washington, Lincoln, Jefferson, Jackson and Wilson," Van Wagner told the crowd. "But here is the greatest American of them all."

Refuses Partisan Talk

"And if you don't believe me, ask John L. Lewis or Wendell L. Willkie," Mr. Roosevelt, however, refused to accept the challenge for a partisan address implied in Van Wagner's introduction.

The election brought two demonstrations to Hyde Park house. After his brief address, Mr. Roosevelt returned to his study. He had returned to the portico half an hour later when new crowds streamed over the fence and through the trees to demand a word from the President.

The second demonstration brought from Mr. Roosevelt a direct shot at a man who bitterly has contested his foreign programs—Rep. Hamilton Fish, R. New York, ranking Republican leader of the house foreign affairs committee.

Raps at Fish

Fish, who represents the 28th congressional district in which Mr. Roosevelt resides, had just been rejected, defeating Judge Harry Steeholm, the Democrat whom the President endorsed. Steeholm's defeat, Mr. Roosevelt said, represented a moral victory for the voters who reside in Putnam, Dutchess and Orange counties which comprise Fish's district.

"May I say that I am awfully proud of this district of ours—of what Harry Steeholm has done for me and when there are floors or we want to see a movie and can't get a date."

FIND BROTHERS ARE HANDY

LIVINGSTON, Ala. (AP)—Livingston State has done for its brothers and sisters in attendance this year. The girls say the brothers are "handy" when there are floors or we want to see a movie and can't get a date."

JEROME HOST TO SCHOOLMASTERS

Schoolmasters' club of south central Idaho will meet in Jerome this evening. The program will consist of a discussion of questions that will be brought up at the state I. E. A. delegate assembly to be held at Boise Nov. 15 and 16.

Addresses will be given by John O. Warner, Albion, on teacher certification and Earl Ramney, superintendent of Filer schools, on the district representation in the state educational association.

Largest number will be arranged by H. Maine Shown, Jerome superintendent.

Largest planned to have reports given by Gerald Wallace and Homer Davis, Twin Falls, on legislative matters.

President of the organization is Lawrence E. Turner, Murtaugh superintendent.

Student Vote Endorses GOP

Twin Falls high school "went Republican" yesterday in the election held by the student body. The election was held as an educational project to teach the students the proper method of voting.

Wendell Willkie held a small margin over President Franklin Roosevelt with 343 votes against 317 in the election for President. In the governorship race Republican O. A. Botolfson led Democrat Chase A. Clark, 399 to 353.

Largest margin of victory was gained by John Thomas for United States senator over his Democratic opponent, Glen Taylor, 452 to 198. Henry Dvorak also made a large majority of student votes over his opponent, Ira H. Masters, 410 to 235 and L. W. Hawkins led, 361 to 290, over W. W. Lowery for the office of sheriff.

The election was carried out with the aid of the national election being followed. Only students who had registered were allowed to vote. Registration deadline was last Monday.
