

None Killed as U-P Streamliner Jumps Rails With 187 Passengers

6 INJURED WHEN 11 CARS LEAVE BROKEN TRACKS

JULESBURG, Colo., Dec. 23 (AP)—Railroad crews today began clearing the tracks of 11 cars of the Union Pacific's crack streamliner "City of Los Angeles," derailed four miles west of here last night when a rail broke as it sped eastward with 187 holiday passengers.

No one was killed as 10 cars left the track and one overturned and no one was critically injured. Six persons received minor injuries.

Injured were: Mrs. Dolores Prickett, Jr., Long Beach, Calif.; Mrs. H. P. Ridgeway, Los Angeles; Mrs. Alderman, Los Angeles; Lester Albert, Los Angeles; Philip Helzman, Hollywood; and Alma L. Barnes, Monte Belle, Calif.

Passengers who did not require treatment were transferred to "The Columbine" which was en route from Denver to Chicago just ahead of the "City of Los Angeles."

The crack train was rounding a curve when the rail broke after the first two power units had passed the spot. The third power unit and 11 cars left the rails with one of the cars, a sleeper, overturning.

No one in the sleeping car was injured. Passengers of the car said the impact seemed to "roll them up in their blankets and dump them out in the aisle."

Most of the injured were in the club car.

The cars were tipped up and the roadbed badly damaged as the cars left the rails but railroad officials said it would require only 10 hours to clear the tracks.

The four rear cars did not leave the track and the shock was not severe. A passenger in one said a baby asleep was not awakened.

Railroad officials described the accident as "one of those breaks that happen once in a thousand years."

They said an automatic block signal would have halted the train if the rail had been broken previously. New 130-pound rails had been laid there last year.

Level Country

The luxury liner overturned just south of the Colorado-Nebraska line in level, rolling country.

The City of Los Angeles is a sister train of the City of San Francisco that was wrecked near Harney, Nev., on Aug. 12, 1929, killing 24 persons and injuring 110.

The interstate commerce commission's safety bureau later held the wreck was caused by "malicious tampering with the track."

The speeding train hit the spread rails and tumbled into the Humboldt river.

The City of Los Angeles is operated jointly by the Union Pacific and Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railroad. The City of San Francisco was operated jointly by those two lines and the Southern Pacific.

Driver Pays $103 After Accident

William E. McGovern, Twin Falls, today had paid a fine of $100 and costs of $3 after entering a guilty plea to charge of operating a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor, police records show.

The fine was assessed in the court of Municipal Judge J. O. Humphrey Saturday afternoon. The complaint against the man was filed after the car McGovern was driving was involved in a crash with another machine.

HOLIDAY ROUTES IN GOOD SHAPE

Major highways in Magic Valley are generally good as Christmas approaches, according to the latest bulletin of the Idaho bureau of highways to the Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce.

Automobiles making holiday trips of the heaviest-traveled routes, however, were urged to include chains and shovel because snow and slippery conditions exist in some areas. Sudden Christmas snows also would change the highway picture.

U. S. 30 is listed as "good" with some soft shoulders representing care. U. S. 82 is good from Nevada to Ketchikan and Sun Valley. Above Kelheim the gravel is fair but snow makes chains and a shovel a wise precaution.

Condition of state routes, including the Boise-Stampley highway, the Gooding-Fairfield route and the Roosevelt highway, is the same as a week ago. On the Idaho central highway, Boise to Hill City and Fairfield to Hatley are not recommended; rest of that route is fair with light snow.

The Ketchikan Trail creek road has construction areas and snow. Automobiles are advised to ask locally before seeking to negotiate it.

Elderly Rupert Residents Feted

RUPERT, Dec. 23 (Special)—Woman's council of the local Christian church entertained with dinner and a social afternoon Thursday at the church annex.

Guests were the elderly folks of the community who have no family ties and no relatives in or near this vicinity. Mrs. D. L. Carlson, appointed by the council president, Mrs. N. K. Jensen, was in general charge of the dinner party. She was assisted by Mrs. Wendell T. Newcomb, Mrs. Paul A. French, Mrs. O. W. Paul, Mrs. Thomas P. Beech, Mrs. Roy F. Gillette, and Mrs. Fred Schenbach.

Following dinner a short program was given. This consisted of group singing with Mrs. Floyd Britt at the piano, a reading by Miss LeMay Player, and two vocal selections by Ole Olsen of Paul. The afternoon was spent socially. Each guest was presented with a gift by the hostesses.

Panhellenic Dance to Draw Many Collegians

Rendezvous of the college set this evening will be the American Legion Memorial hall, the annual Panhellenic holiday dance attracting them to one of the "brightest spots" of the holiday season.

Hobnobbing with the collegians will be alumni of former years, and fellow townsmen. It is anticipated that the dance will be one of the most largely attended of the week.

Instead of concentrating on an advance ticket sale, the committee announces that tickets will be sold at the door this year.

Dance Parties
Numerous buffet suppers and "open house" events are scheduled to precede the dance, which begins at 10 o'clock.

Among the pre-dance events will be the dinner this evening at the American Legion Memorial hall, the annual Panhellenic holiday dance attracting them to one of the "brightest spots" of the holiday season.

Ladies of G.A.R. Present Flag to Rural Federation

Highlight of the meeting of the Rural Federation of Women's clubs yesterday at the Y.W.C.A. rooms was the presentation of an American flag to place at Federation-lookout, overlooking the Snake river and Blue Lakes ranch, the gift coming from Dan McCook circle, Ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic.

Presentation speech was made by Mrs. J. M. Sweet, patriotic instructor of the G. A. R., and acceptance speech was given by Mrs. E. E. Commons, Federation president. Mrs. Hazel Gardner and Mrs. J. N. Clyde, members of the circle's flag committee, attended the meeting with Mrs. Sweet.

Raising of the flag will take place at a public ceremony, with members of the Federation, Dan McCook circle and American Legion post and auxiliary taking part. The American Legion post and auxiliary will present a standard for the flag to the Federation. Plans for the ceremony will be announced later.

During the business meeting, plans were discussed concerning the annual winter picnic dinner for members of all clubs affiliated with the Federation. Plans for the picnic will be reported by delegates of the member clubs, who were present at yesterday's session, at their respective group meetings and final plans will be drawn up at the next meeting of the Federation.

Members of the Federation are: Blue Lakes Boulevard club, Country Women's club, Emmonah club, Lend-A-Hand club, Mentor club, M. B. and S. club, Unity club and Wayside club.

BUHL

John Kral received word this week of the death of his mother at Cleveland, O. She died at the age of 90 after an illness of the flu and pneumonia.

Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Turpin left the middle of last week for Los Angeles to spend the vacation with Miss Elice Turpin, their young daughter, who is a student at Woodbury college.

Will Hawkins left Tuesday for Bellingham, Wash., to join Mrs. Hawkins, who has been visiting there for the past two weeks. They will return after the holidays.

Howard Gault and Herman Elbers have returned from Herford, Tex., to spend the vacation with their families. The Gault family will move to Texas the first of the year.

Mrs. E. E. Hays and daughter, Ruth, returned last week from a month's visit with relatives in Los Angeles and Orange, Calif. Mrs. Eugene Parker, Black Forest, Nev., accompanied them.

Miss Mary Jane Wall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Enoch Wall, will spend the vacation with her parents. Miss Wall was pledged last week to "T" club, a social society at the University of Idaho, southern branch.

WATANDA

Watanda group of the Camp Fire Girls were entertained with a Christmas party at the home of Miss Betty Ann Housell. A gift exchange was held around a huge lighted Christmas tree. Games were played and refreshments were served by the chairman, Mrs. Berry, assisted by Mrs. Russell and Mrs. U. E. Conberry.

Miss Nordhoff's stay here will be anything but a rest cure, what with all the Christmas dinners arranged for the younger set, special parties and the Sun Valley jaunt.

But this thing of never having been in real snow was what interested this writer, a fellow who had waded in the midst of his life.

"It sure rocks man, you've never been in snow before?"

"Yes, that's right. I've never been in real snow," Miss Nordhoff said, "but I've seen it, though."

"And you skip?"

"No, but I'll learn at Sun Valley," she answered.

Noted Dad

Miss Nordhoff's father is one of America's noted writers. In collaboration with James Normal Hall he wrote, in addition to "Mutiny on the Bounty," such hits as "Hurricane," "Men Against the Sea," "Pitcairn's Island," "No More Gas," "Pitcairn's Island," "The Dark Rover."

His daughter would follow in her father's footsteps and be a writer. But first, her father told her, she must be a journalist.

"So I'm going to be one," she said confidently as the interview ended and as she and Miss Bacon made ready to pose for a picture.

BOB FELLER RECORD RATED "BEST OF YEAR"

Cleveland Hurler On Way to Being Pitching "Great"

NEW YORK, Dec. 23 (UP)—Robert William Andrew Feller, or just plain Bob Feller, who can rear back and throw a baseball with more speed than any other moundman in the game, is the player of the year—and maybe the player of the era if it comes to that.

Officially, however, the New York chapter of the Baseball Writers' association of America has voted the "player of the year" award for 1940 to the Cleveland fireballer and will present a plaque to him at their annual banquet Sunday, Feb. 2.

Feller was voted the award over the year's two most valuable players—Hank Greenberg in the American league and Frank McClellan in the National league and the veteran of the year, Freddy Fitzsimmons, Dodgers' grand old pitcher who recorded 16 victories and two defeats.

Greatest Pitcher
Having added poise, control and savvy to his blazing fast ball, Feller has developed into the game's greatest pitcher. Although he's been pitching in organized baseball only five seasons, all of them with the Cleveland Indians, Feller already is beginning to draw comparisons with Walter Johnson, Grover Cleveland Alexander, Christy Mathewson and other pitching immortals. "Wildcats may shudder and say 'Tommyrot... there'll never be another Johnson or Mathewson.' When they do they ignore Feller's record achieved with a lively ball, Feller's record for years follows:

Year	W.	L.	Pct.	E. R.
1938	5	3	.625	324
1937	7	7	.500	228
1936	17	11	.607	408
1935	24	9	.727	283
1934	21	11	.656	263
Totals	74	42	.637	1,506

Feller's victories outnumber his defeats exactly 2 to 1, which is a pretty fair gait for a youngster who didn't reach his 22nd birthday until Nov. 3. For instance, Walter Johnson, in his first five years in the American league, was able to win only half of his game, winning 40 and losing 40.

Strikes Out 913
In five seasons Feller has struck out 913, 63 more than Johnson did over a like period. Bull Hall has led the American league in strikeouts for the past three years, notching 281 last season. He was easily the dominant pitcher last season, leading his league in strikeouts, earned runs, earned runs, strikeouts, most innings pitched, most complete games and most shutouts.

He shared one of the other two titles—most shutouts, with two others, and failed only to win the percentage crown, finishing third to Schoolboy Rowe and Buck Newsum.

The only black mark on Feller's 1940 record was the fact that he didn't improve one win all year. He pitched a no-hit, no-run game in the opener against the White Sox, and never allowed a run to go that good again. However, he pitched a one-hitter, a two-hitter, three three-hitters and two four-hitters.

Utah Cagers Rest Before Big Schedule

SALT LAKE CITY, Dec. 23 (UP)—Utah's Big Seven conference basketball teams were resting today, preparing to play an Christmas around their home fireplaces, before taking off for some more holiday barmaloring.

The Redskins were the only team of the Utah big three to act on this week-end and they easily trounced University of Omaha, 43 to 28, before a slim crowd in the fieldhouse at Salt Lake City. Deb Smith was the shining star for Utah, scoring 12 points.

Thursday or Friday both the Utes and the Utah State Aggies will head for California. Saturday and next morning they will participate in a pair of double-headers at Berkeley with California and St. Mary's.

Later, the Aggies will meet Stanford and San Jose, while the Utes will wander up the coast to tangle with Oregon and Oregon State.

The Brigham Young university Cougars plan to leave early Thursday for Montana, where they play Montana university at Bozeman, Livingston and Dec. 25 at Billings. The Cougars have just returned from a five-game swing in which they defeated Idaho Southern, Idaho and Santa Barbara once but lost a pair to San Diego, Calif., State.

UISB Wins Game For First Victory of Year

FOCATTELLO, Dec. 23 (UP)—The score for Idaho Southern's six December basketball games today stood at one win and five losses. The lone win came Saturday night when the Pocatello quintet posed off Willamette 22 to 20.

Southern went into an early 8-1 lead but at the half Willamette was ahead 17 to 14. In the second half Willamette led 27 to 21. In the closing minutes big Ed Bradley put in a two-pointer that brought Southern's victory.

Golden Age of Skiing Ended With War, Says Noted Olympic Rider

SUN VALLEY, Dec. 23 (Special)—"The Golden Age of downhill skiing probably ended on Sept. 3, 1939," Alfred D. Lingley of Minneapolis, famed American Olympic skier, said here.

Expressing doubt whether the charm of the life in European ski resorts could ever be recaptured, Lingley, however, pointed out that Sun Valley, nestled in the rugged, Alpi-like Sawtooth mountains of Idaho, has played "a pre-eminent role in continuing on this continent the great traditions of free and easy companionship and wonderful sport that characterized the decade of skiing that has just closed in Europe."

Not the least of those intangible elements, which when pieced together make up Sun Valley's role of which Lingley speaks, are the world's "best ski kures" and beautiful scenery of those European boys who today form the backbone of the teaching staff of Sun Valley's excellent ski school.

Field Heads School
Some non-American citizens, who sell on their way, these are the very instructors who helped to establish the world-famous reputation enjoyed by the renowned Arlington school, the premier institution of downhill skiing.

Heading the Sun Valley School is United States champion champion Fred Pfeiffer, a sturdy, smiling wizard of the alpine bounds who has more than 80 cups and 100 medals to show for his 15 years as a competitive skier.

S. women's international team for three years, from 1936 to 1939, was climaxed last spring when he set the famed Dick Durance tied in the national championships at Sun Valley for combined national honors with 208 points apiece.

Prize Offered In Naming of Ski Mountain

A contest was opened here today to pick a name for the newly developed ski hill south of Twin Falls that is expected to attract hundreds of riders during the coming winter season.

The contest is sponsored by the Twin Falls Ski club and entries should be mailed to Box 39, in care of the Idaho Evening Times and Twin Falls News. The choices must be submitted on or before Wednesday evening, Dec. 23, 1940.

30 Miles South
The new mountain, which has been undergoing changes to meet with skiing requirements all summer, is located about 30 miles south of Twin Falls. Skiers from here drive to Hansen, then up through the Rock Creek CCC camp, after which a winding road is followed to the playground center.

The slide is located directly opposite the mountain used by skiers of southern Idaho last year. Under the direction of forest service and with the aid of CCC labor, six runs have been cleared in this area for skiing from this hill. One is for beginners, three for intermediate skiers and two for the advanced. The lift carries 2,000 feet, with a rise of 450 feet in that distance.

New Lift Installed
The new lift is being installed, and will be operated by John Weaver and the aid of CCC labor. It is a private enterprise and all riders are eligible to use it.

This is the second season the new playground has been open to the public. Last year was the first time that the roads to the area had been kept open.

Prize for naming the mountain playground is $250 in cash from the Twin Falls Ski club and a full day's free ride on the ski lift. Bud Kimes is chairman of the special committee handling the selection of the name for the mountain peak.

The western squad, coached by Babe Hollingbery and Matty Bell, was down at Stanford drilling in the downpour that didn't hamper the passing of Missouri's Paul Christmas one bit. In fact the boys who saw him work with a soggy ball promptly pulled down the odds that favored the east 21 to 1 to a straight 2 to 1.

Slammin' Sam Downs Island Favorite in Driving Rain Storm

HAVANA, Dec. 23 (UP)—Cubans paid off their bets today but they still were not convinced Sam Snead is five strokes better than their own Rufino Gonzalez. They were ready to back their champion against the North American again—if the match is played on a clear, dry day.

There was applause for Snead's terrific drives and his sure putting stroke as he posted a 137 to Gonzalez's 142 over 36 holes at the Havana Country club yesterday, but the natives felt their man was handicapped by the first rain storm of Cuba's dry winter.

All-Star Clubs Practice in Mud and Rain

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 23 (UP)—Come wind or high water the East and West all-star teams that meet New Year's day in Scarat stadium have only 10 days to get in shape for Shrine benefit football game and share their chances with cold feet and noses.

Co-Coaches Andy Kerr and Bernie Bierman took their eastern squad to the University of California camp yesterday after two two-hour drills in the mud of the old field in Golden Gate park.

The western squad, coached by Babe Hollingbery and Matty Bell, was down at Stanford drilling in the downpour that didn't hamper the passing of Missouri's Paul Christmas one bit. In fact the boys who saw him work with a soggy ball promptly pulled down the odds that favored the east 21 to 1 to a straight 2 to 1.

Golden Age of Skiing Ended With War, Says Noted Olympic Rider

SUN VALLEY, Dec. 23 (Special)—"The Golden Age of downhill skiing probably ended on Sept. 3, 1939," Alfred D. Lingley of Minneapolis, famed American Olympic skier, said here.

Expressing doubt whether the charm of the life in European ski resorts could ever be recaptured, Lingley, however, pointed out that Sun Valley, nestled in the rugged, Alpi-like Sawtooth mountains of Idaho, has played "a pre-eminent role in continuing on this continent the great traditions of free and easy companionship and wonderful sport that characterized the decade of skiing that has just closed in Europe."

Not the least of those intangible elements, which when pieced together make up Sun Valley's role of which Lingley speaks, are the world's "best ski kures" and beautiful scenery of those European boys who today form the backbone of the teaching staff of Sun Valley's excellent ski school.

Field Heads School
Some non-American citizens, who sell on their way, these are the very instructors who helped to establish the world-famous reputation enjoyed by the renowned Arlington school, the premier institution of downhill skiing.

Heading the Sun Valley School is United States champion champion Fred Pfeiffer, a sturdy, smiling wizard of the alpine bounds who has more than 80 cups and 100 medals to show for his 15 years as a competitive skier.

Arberg Principles
Born in the mountains of Arberg, Sweden, Pfeiffer became an instructor at the famous school when he was but 14. A long career, in which he not only won six of the world's greatest races, but also trained the American Olympic team in 1935 and 1938 and the U. S. women's international team for three years, from 1936 to 1939, was climaxed last spring when he set the famed Dick Durance tied in the national championships at Sun Valley for combined national honors with 208 points apiece.

MANY KILLED AS BOMBER SCORES HIT ON SHELTER

MANCHESTER, Dec. 23 (AP)—A high explosive bomb hit a shelter where 450 persons had taken refuge last night during a long and severe German bombing of this industrial city and it was feared a number had been killed.

A pall of smoke hung over the city as rescue squads, hours after the raid began, sifted through debris in various parts of the city in an effort to free persons trapped in buildings, including another shelter where, however, there were fewer people.

Stores Destroyed

Scores of buildings along the effects of the "blitz" raid. Direct hits struck two buildings of well-known commercial firms and considerable damage was done to stores. One heavy bomb struck a motion picture theater on the main road.

The raid began suddenly last night as this city of 750,000 people, Britain's fourth largest city, was completing its Christmas preparations. Hundreds of German planes roared over the city, first dropping incendiary bombs and following up with high explosives.

Killed in Streets

The attack caught thousands in the streets and many were killed as they stood there.

The German planes concentrated their attack on the center of the city, and admitted Manchester escaped the fate of ruined Coventry only because there was a much larger area to bear the crushing weight of the Nazi bombing.

German planes also attacked London, Liverpool, the Mersey river valley generally, the west and east midlands and southern England.

In HOLLYWOOD Today

HOLLYWOOD—Grace Allen denounced Santa Claus today as an inefficient old man and charged that he couldn't fill a stocking half as well as she.

She wants to be Santa Claus, herself, and she has a new dress, designed by Marie Miller, one of Hollywood's leading fashion experts.

"All Santa Claus does is fill stockings," Miss Allen said. "They're lumpy looking. Now I can fill out a stocking better than he can—or hadn't you noticed?"

Deanna Durbin was making plans today to treat Hollywood to an old-fashioned wedding "with a veil, rice, and even old shoes tied to our automobile. I hope."

The blue-eyed young songster set her marriage to young associate producer Vaughn Paul for June, thus completely reversing the Hollywood mode of unconventional elopements. They will be married in a church here, she said.

On the screen Dagwood and Blondie quarrel and always make up, but that wasn't the way it ended today for Penny Singleton, the actress who plays the wife's role in "The Blondie" film series.

She had her final decree of divorce from her real life Dagwood—Dr. L. Scroggs Singleton, dentist. She went into court on Dec. 13, 1939, for her interlocutory decree but had to wait a year under California law before making it final. She is a former Broadway musical comedy actress.

Twentieth Century-Fox studio played Santa Claus early and gave new long term contracts today to eight young starlets.

The actresses were announced as Leta Stetter, Dallas, Tex.; Gene Tierney, who came here from Broadway and made good in "Tabacco Road"; Colina Wright, Jr., New York City socialite; Mary Beth Hughes, Alton, Ill.; Lynn Bari, Roanoke, Va.; Marjorie Weaver, Crossville, Tenn.; and Sheila Ryan and Lynn Roberts of Los Angeles.

Anxious Troopers, Eager to Arrive, Beat Train Home!

The soldier boys were home today—but they were so anxious to get here that they didn't wait for the troop train to make its swing around Minidoka to Twin Falls and Buhl.

Approximately 150 soldiers, former members of the national guard, filtered into Twin Falls and Buhl Sunday afternoon and early evening after pling off the troop train at Shoshone. They jammed the regular Sun Valley stage line bus and scores of them who couldn't find room on that vehicle hitchhiked their way from the railroad center.

Several dozens were met at Shoshone by relatives and friends in private autos.

When the troop train finally pulled into Twin Falls and later into Buhl, it was devoid of uniforms.

"The soldiers started getting off the train at Mountain Home," said one railroad official, "and by the time the train got here there wasn't any soldiers aboard."

The troop cars brought the youths from Camp Murray for a holiday furlough which ends New Year's day.

ANNEXATION PLAN BEFORE COUNCIL

A proposed ordinance, which would annex a 26-acre plot of ground to the city on the eastern side, will come up for second reading as members of the city council meet in regular session tonight.

The ground is that purchased by the Twin Falls housing authority for erection of some 80 modern low-income group dwellings and previously belonged to Carl Fitzche. The property is located between Harmon park and Second avenue east.

At a special council session Saturday night the ordinance was placed on first reading only after protests to the annexation had been made by two property owners living in the section nearby. They claimed that the building of low-rent houses there would depreciate the value of their property.

Under the authority law, a substandard home will be razed for each new house built in the new section.
