"Cinderella Girl" Steals Spotlight From Movie Stars at Birthday Ball

By MERRIMAN SMITH
WASHINGTON, Jan. 31 (UP)—The "Cinderella" of the evening was the 14-year-old girl who stole the spotlight from the movie stars at a birthday ball in Washington today.

The ball was given by the 14-year-old girl who stole the spotlight from the movie stars at a birthday ball in Washington today.

Hoax That Came True

Move in little girl's case, Anna, Deanna, Durbin and Mrs. Roosevelt who were present at the birthday party.

But about that time Mrs. Roosevelt decided to shake hands again with Anna and the newswomen and she gave the girl a healthy dig in the ribs.

"Give over please," said Mrs. Roosevelt to Miss Skleповich.

Before the evening was over, Anna had received an invitation to give a toast at the next morning's breakfast.

Her biggest thrill came when Mrs. Roosevelt handed her a piece of the President's own birthday cake.

"The clock was struck 12 and the band was playing 'Happy Birthday' when Mrs. Roosevelt came in."

"I guess a girl never had as much fun as I had today," she said. "Just think, President Roosevelt—Deanna Durbin and people asking for my autograph."

Result of Frank Anna's visit here was the result of a prank played by her older brother, Steven. When the President answered a letter Anna had written him, wishing him a happy birthday because it was the same day as hers, Steve got the letter first and added the inscription, "I wish you to have you come to the White House and meet the President."

Anna was sent to the capital only to learn the invitation was not genuine. The President and members of the birthday celebration brought the news of her plight and brought the happy ending.

GOP WILL ENTER FULL BATTLE ON INSURANCE BILL

By LLOYD TURLING
BOISE, Jan. 31 (UP)—Republican members of the Idaho senate today prepared a unified protest against an administration bill, slated for consideration, which would abolish the state insurance fund commission.

By concerted attack minority strategists hoped to break down the administration's two-vote margin and defeat the measure which would return supervision of the state workmen's compensation business to single supervisor. The bill had already passed the house.

Meanwhile, the senate passed two bills—repealing the law which permitted contractors to deduct their license fees from income taxes, and another setting up a general ledger for the state.

Placed By 27-5 Vote

Sen. E. A. Owen, D., Bonnellville, urged the senate to revoke the tax-exemption clause on the grounds it was unfair. He said contractors generally figured their one-half per cent license fee into estimates for jobs, and that they did not actually pay the fee themselves they should be prohibited from deducting the fee.

The bill passed 31 to 5.

Without a dissenting vote the senate approved a bill to streamline the state's bookkeeping system. The measure included a $50,000 appropriation for setting up the new system under the state auditor. An inventory of state property will be required before the general ledger can be set up but when completed it will provide a day-by-day account of the state's financial system.

Asks Rate Reduction

The house moved through the morning calendar in rapid order, passing four minor bills. Rep. William Detweiler, R., Jerome, asked for and was granted permission to form a house committee to join with Gov. Clark in request for rate reduction from the Union Pacific railroad for potato shipments.

Detweiler told the house Idaho potato growers were faced with a serious price condition. He said the committee would ask the railroad to establish an emergency rate of about 55 cents on potatoes shipped from southern Idaho. The emergency rate would apply for 90 days until potato market conditions improve.

"If the farmers of Idaho go broke, the railroad will go broke," Detweiler declared. "I am sure the railroad will grant a rate reduction if the situation is called to their attention."

Fair Association Changes Leaders

Thomas Parks, Flier (right), retiring president of the Idaho State Fair association was probably thinking "Water, she's your baby," as he congratulated William Hendrix, Meridian, the new president, while Charles Lawrence, Caldwell, vice-president, looked on. The association, in annual meeting here, considered business this afternoon. The spring meeting will be held in Boise and the annual assembly in Pocatello.

DATES FOR FAIR SET SEPT. 9 TO 12

Twin Falls annual county fair and rodeo will be held at Pocatello Sept. 9 to 12, inclusive, it had been announced today.

The dates for the fair were among those tentatively set as members of the Idaho State Fair association concluded sessions at the Rogerston hotel this afternoon. Announcement of setting of fair dates was made at a banquet held last night and at which Thomas Parks, Flier, retiring president, presided.

Burley Man Honored

Succeeding Parks as head of the state association will be William Hendrix, Meridian. Other officers are Charles Lawrence, Caldwell, vice-president, and Wendell Palmer, Burley, secretary.

Other fair and rodeo dates, aside from those for the Twin Falls event, follow. All are tentative at the present time:

Caldwell Homeowners' fair, 4-11 and rodeo, Aug. 7; Sun Valley rodeo, Aug. 10-12; Jerome county fair, Aug. 20 to 23; Gooding county fair, Aug. 20 to 23; Western state fair, Boise, Aug. 28 to 30; Cassia county, Burley, Sept. 2 to 5; Blaine county, Pocatello, Sept. 13 to 18; Jerome county fair, Sept. 16 to 18; Eastern Idaho fair, Pocatello, Sept. 16 to 20.

Other matters of business discussed included the establishment of a uniform system of classification which will be observed at all fairs in the state as regards livestock exhibited. Ivan H. Louhray, extension agent and E. F. Blinnhart, extension agent, husbandman, will outline the classifications.

For Filling Contests

Possibly also will be that a "dynamometer" would be purchased to be used in connection with pulling contests at the various fairs.

The opening session of the association will be held in Boise in April with the annual session in January of 1942 going to Pocatello.

Various bookkeeping and curatorial matters were present at sessions yesterday and today.

Boise's Parking Meters May Be Sold for Taxes

BOISE, Idaho, Jan. 31 (UP)—Ada county Sheriff Don Hendrick today reported to state officials that 575 parking meters would be sold for taxes unless $912.57 allegedly due the county was paid.

A warrant of distraint was turned over to Hendrick and he was instructed to "take into possession and property of the Dual Parking Meter company."

The warrant was signed by Roy D. Leonardson, Ada county assessor, who charged the parking meter company failed and refused to pay property taxes.

At the same time, two Boise merchants served notice they would appeal to the state supreme court a district court decision holding the meters meters legal.

Predicts German Isle Invasion in Next Ninety Days

By JOHN R. BEAL
WASHINGTON, Jan. 31 (UP)—Secretary of the Navy Frank Knox told the senate Foreign relations committee that information from "inside Germany" indicates a German attempt to invade the British isles may begin at any moment.

Knox said he had heard authoritatively German leaders are studying weather conditions "right now" to seize upon the first available spell of good weather to project their attack.

All signs point, he said, to a "very grave crisis" in the war within 60 or 90 days.

Knox told the committee, which is conducting open hearings on the administration's aid to a British bill, that recent Nazi successes, particularly in submarine warfare and in bombing British industrial centers, have caused "grave concern."

He said the Germans have obtained "effective" results in their bombing of industrial centers.

Replies to Lindbergh

Earlier Knox had replied directly to the recent testimony of Col. Charles A. Lindbergh, stating the Lindbergh proposal for a negotiated British-German peace at the present time "is a wild fancy."

MEDIATORS OPEN CONFERENCES TO SETTLE 6 STRIKES

By United Press
Mediators sought to arrange settlement of six strikes in defense industries today and conferences were begun on wage rates at the nation's largest steel corporation.

Negotiations resulted in settlements of a strike at the Wright Army aviation equipment center at Dayton, O.

The labor disputes affected only a few of the nation's vital industries engaged in national defense, however, and Alfred P. Sloan, Jr., head of General Motors Corp., said the defense emergency output of the United States was "the greatest productive effort the world ever saw."

Steel Negotiations

R. J. Thomas, president of the United Automobile Workers' (UAW) was scheduled to arrive at Milwaukee, Wis., to take part in negotiations between a spokesman of the UAW and the steel industry.

Another strike at the Harvesters Rock Falls, Ill., plant, where 250 are employed, was scheduled for Monday.

A conference to negotiate a dispute that resulted in a strike of 5,000 workers at the Chicago tractor plant of the International Harvester Co. was scheduled for Monday.

3 Accused Youths Shift Blame for Dad's Murder

SHOSHONE, Jan. 31 (Special)—Three youths, one of them a girl who said her father had, on several occasions, attempted to become intimate with her, today took the stand in their murder trial here and shifted blame of the desert torturing, slaying of their father, Chester Sanders, to the girl's husband, Chester Phillips, now in the Blackfoot mental hospital.

The three defendants, who all testified at this morning's session of court as the trial men to testify that it is expected to see the case go to the jury Saturday barring unforeseen delays, are Mrs. Phillipa Sanders, her two brothers, Joseph Sanders, 20, and George Sanders, 16.

In testimony, all three declared the trip into the desert during the latter part of June 1940 was the idea of Chester and that they—if torturing anything—were merely following his orders.

Yesterday afternoon, when Joe took the stand, he said that he had helped to tie his father's hands and feet. He declared, however, that he did it at the suggestion of his sister's husband, Chester Phillips, 22, and that then he did it only because he was assured by Phillips that the latter would return and release the bound man.

Shows No Emotion

Joe told his story without a show of emotion. His sentences, given answer to questions put to him by his attorney, were short and to the point. He wept no words.

He stated that the whole affair started when he took Phillips to his father had taken money from him. He quoted Phillips at that time as saying that "we've got to do something about the old man."

He testified that he and Phillips took Sanders from the house at 11 o'clock and forced him into the turtle-back of a small coupe. Although officers have had that when first arrested he said he rode the top of the turtle-back to "keep the old man from getting out," he denied on the witness stand.

Tied Hands and Feet

He said that while passing through Paul, on route to the desert, they stopped and opened the turtle-back to see the "old man" was not smothering. Finally, reaching the

TRUCE SIGNED IN ASIATIC BATTLE

SAIGON, French Indo-China, Jan. 31 (UP)—French and Thailand (Siam) delegates, acting under Japanese mediation, tonight signed an armistice ending hostilities in their territorial dispute.

Negotiations, conducted aboard the Japanese cruiser Natori, resulted in agreement to establish a 12-mile buffer zone between opposing French and Thailand forces under conclusion of a peace in negotiations slated to occur in Tokyo.

Withdrawals by French and Thailand troops will occur under the Armistice.

The Tokyo peace negotiations will consider Thailand's demands on Indo-China for territory in the Laos and Cambodia districts. They too will be conducted under the auspices of Japanese mediators.

Negotiations began aboard the Natori two days ago with arrival of a Thailand delegation by airplane from Bangkok.

U. S. Observer Hurt During London Raid

LONDON, Jan. 31 (UP)—Major Robert Williams, United States army air corps observer, was injured in today's German air attack on London.

Williams was out by flying glass when a bomb hit a balcony of a building across the street from where he was.

It was reported he might lose the sight of one eye for the country as a whole was estimated to be 13 per cent above the corresponding 1940 period, compared with a year-to-year gain of 8 to 14 per cent in the previous week.

WILLKIE VISITS "HELL'S CORNER"

DOVER, Jan. 31 (UP)—Wendell L. Willkie found out today why this section of the English coast has been nicknamed "Hell's Corner."

He came here to inspect Britain's coastal defenses and as he was looking over the harbor from the aircraft carrier's deck, he saw the German batteries blazed into action.

While Willkie got his first real "hell" experience in Britain the guns threw up a heavy barrage of shells attempting to hit a Dorchester flying pencil which flew over the channel.

The batteries were close to him and they sent up a heavy fire at the German raider flying in the cover of low clouds.

The Nazi planes dropped no bombs and Willkie continued his inspection of the port which has only 22 miles across the stormy English channel from the German base on the French coast.

As he watched, British rescuers dismantled a German rescue boat which had been driven away from the beach and was picked up by British forces.

To demonstrate effectiveness of the British defense system of the invasion barrier in the harbor five or six rounds for Willkie's benefit.

From Dover, Willkie returned to London by train to visit the Congress and Birmingham on Sunday.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31 (UP)—The house deficiency appropriations committee plans to start hearings today on President Roosevelt's request for an additional $270,000,000 for relief.

SECRETARY GUARDS BOISE AIR BASE

BOISE, Jan. 31 (UP)—The army air base at Boise air terminal took on the aspects of a closely-guarded military secret today as visitors were banned from construction operations.

Airplanes were also forbidden to fly over the base, and officials barred photographing of the air base work.

Charles Ernest, safety director and captain of the federal guards now on duty 24 hours daily, said "rules prevent any visitors on the site of a national defense project."

LEADER OF BUND DRAWS SENTENCE

NEWTON, N. J., Jan. 31 (UP)—Wilhelm Kuntze of New York, national leader of the German-American Bund, and eight others were sentenced to pay fines and serve jail terms today for violation of the New Jersey statute against inciting race hatred.

Kuntze was sentenced to 12 to 14 months in jail and fined $1,000. The sentences were based on indictments accusing the nine defendants of advocating "race hatred and hostility against people of the Jewish religion" at the Bund's Camp Norland, near Andover, N. J., on June 9, 1940.

In reply to questions by Sen. Claude Pepper, D., Fla., Knox said that "the present sorry state of world affairs has a clear beginning in 1933 when Britain failed to support us in sustaining the nine-power pact." The reference was to the Japanese invasion of Manchukuo, but he added it would be unwise to withhold aid from Britain now because of that earlier incident.

Pepper and Knox agreed a "peace dominated and dictated by the axis powers" would be worse than the Versailles treaty, and each added he

NEW TENSION DEVELOPS BETWEEN FRANCE, GERMANY

NAZIS ASK THAT PIERRE LAVAL BE PUT IN CABINET

By RALPH HINZON
VICHY, France, Jan. 31 (Special)—New tension was developing between France and Germany today. Relations had reached a complete deadlock and the German-dominated Paris press asserted there could be no further French-German collaboration unless Marshal Philippe Pétain restored pro-German Pierre Laval to power.

For nearly seven weeks France and Germany had walled for each other to make the first move toward bridging the rift caused by Pétain's summary dismissal of Laval.

It was believed here the German government had been convinced that a month-long Paris press campaign against the Vichy government would frighten Pétain into the would-be Laval back into the cabinet. It has been a quiet war of nerves in which Pétain, with soldier's calm, shows no disposition to yield.

More than a week ago Count Fernand de Brinon, French envoy to German occupation authorities at Paris, went to Berlin to present the Vichy reply to a note which Pétain had sent the German foreigner last 14, explaining why he dismissed Laval.

Brinon returned to Paris. Since then it has been a quiet war of nerves. He was on his way to Vichy with Hitler's reply. Not only has he not arrived but he is not coming, so far as it is known now, and who was awaiting him here, left last night to join him in Paris.

Awaited Reply
 Marshal Pétain waited patiently for Hitler's reply. It was regarded as certain he expected Hitler to demand, implicitly or not specifically, that he take Laval back into the cabinet. But such a demand would mean mixing deeply in France's domestic affairs and thus Germany has not voiced the demand.

(However, the Paris press has asserted that Pétain does not intend to take the initiative. The result has been the renewal and intensification of a Paris press campaign against "the men who have made France a laughing stock.")

Pétain continues to make plain his readiness to do business with Germany on the armistice terms and the agreement which he reached with Adolf Hitler. But he is understood to hold that the German government must do its best to do nothing by itself.

China Stronger and America Should Help, Says Missionary

In spite of the "long drawn out war of self defense," China daily is becoming stronger instead of weaker and America should stop helping Japan in any manner, shifting its aid, entirely to China's cause.

These were the observations received here today in a letter from Dr. Samuel H. Leger, who has been a teaching missionary under the American Board (Congregational) in China for the past 26 years. The communication was received by Roy Painter, who was a former classmate of Dr. Leger at Washburn college, Topeka, Kan.

Knows China Well
 Dr. Leger, a thorough student and linguist, translated the New Testament into the native Chinese dialect years ago and also compiled a dictionary of the language of Peking district, near Pootung, east coast of China. He has a personal acquaintance with Kagawa, the Japanese Christian leader and social worker, and is intimately familiar with the ideas of Mahatma Gandhi. His contacts with Chinese leaders give authority to his opinions, recognized by government officials, as to what should be done in China.

As to his opinion of the future of China, Dr. Leger wrote: "It was strongly of the opinion last year, while home, that the future is bright for China, and find that opinion reinforced by my travels through the neighboring country and by what I find here since my arrival. In spite of this long, drawn out war of self-defense, China daily is becoming stronger rather than weaker."

Help Constructive
 "At least half of her energy right now is going into constructive work looking to the long range future—educational, cultural, industrial, economic and agricultural."

Mrs. Kate Folkman and Mrs. George Karren, shut-ins through illness for a number of years, and who have been members of the church all their lives, were each sent flowers.

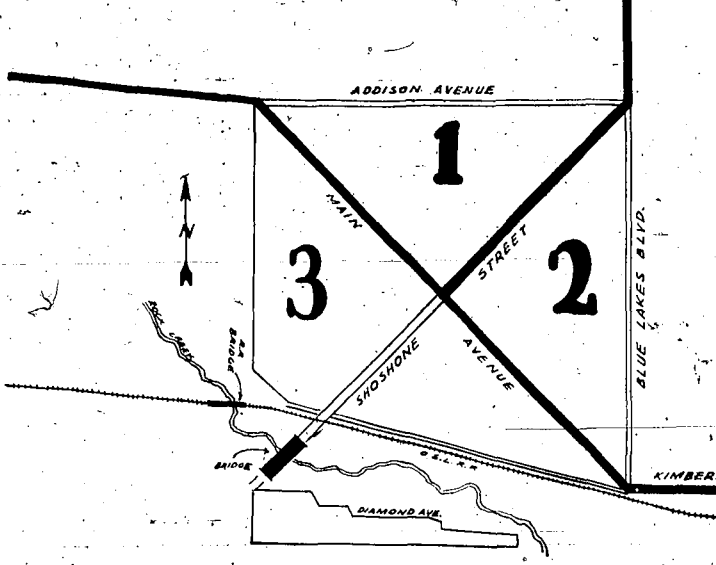

The literary lesson was given by Mrs. Lloyd Smith.

Mrs. Eva M. Pugmire, new Jerome county public health nurse, gave an informative talk on the importance of cleanliness to avoid disease.

Mrs. Lynn Burnham and Mrs. George Prentice sang a duet accompanied by Mrs. Willford Thompson. Mrs. A. Leo Olsen gave a humorous reading and Mrs. John Webster and Mrs. Willford Thompson sang a duet, accompanied by Mrs. Ida Walker.

Ultimately self-destructive, so in time we must learn or perish."

Dr. Leger has visited in Twin Falls. At the present time, according to his letter, he is stationed at the Pukien Christian University, Shantung, Fukien, China.

"New transportation which exists at the present time from China to the United States is shown by the fact the communication to 'Twin Falls' was mailed from 'China' on Nov. 21, 1940."

SCHOOL MOTIF IN PLAY BY JUNIORS

Typical every day happenings in a high school office will be the setting for the junior class play for Twin Falls high school, according to Miss Florence M. Rice, high school dramatics instructor.

The play is Clifford Goldsmith's "What a Life" and will be presented in the high school auditorium Thursday and Friday, Feb. 13 and 14.

The play deals with the antics of Henry Aldrich, popular radio star, portrayed over the air by Ezra Stone. Playing the part of Henry, one on Thursday night and one on Friday night will be Bob Barnett and Sherman Olson. The two have been practicing and are perfecting the mannerisms and the voice of the radio star in order to present a vivid interpretation of the amusing story.

The entire play takes place in the office of the high school principal. Henry attends and the curtains will not be drawn between scenes.

Cast for the play is made up entirely of junior class students. The junior presentation is an annual affair at the high school.

GLENN'S FERRY MARTIN TO QUIT AS G. O. P. CHIEF

Mr. and Mrs. Reed Thompson and daughter left Thursday morning for San Francisco where Reed will consult a brain specialist. He has been quite ill for several months and has been told that a vertebrae in the neck of the skull is slightly dislocated and indications are that there is an abscess at the base of the brain.

Maxine said that the executive committee of the Republican national organization would meet at a luncheon in Washington March 24 and that the full committee would meet that afternoon.

Asked whether he intended his resignation as chairman of the Republican national committee at a meeting March 24, Martin refused to predict who might be his successor, but said he had heard 10 or 12 names mentioned.

"That is up to the committee. I want to be relieved as early as possible."

Preview of Easter Fashions to Highlight Episcopal Guild Tea

If what the stylists say is true—that the hats this spring are definitely going to interest men—then they should be more interesting than ever to the women.

That is why the Afternoon guild of Ascension Episcopal church will introduce an innovation at the annual Valentine benefit bridge tea Monday, Feb. 10, at the home of Mrs. John E. Hayes, 691 Shoshone street north.

A spring style show will be the novel feature of the tea hour when a forecast of Easter apparel—its April 1941 style—will be presented for the pleasure and information of the guests.

Spring Ensembles

Not only millinery, but entire ensembles will be modeled. Mrs. Elizabeth Smith is cooperating with the committee in charge, in arranging for this special feature of the benefit.

Mrs. Chapman, chairman; Mrs. J. H. Blanford and Mrs. Ralph Palmer, the style show committee, met this morning with Mrs. A. L. Norton, president of the Afternoon guild, to outline plans for the event. Several members of the guild met yesterday at the home of Mrs. F. J. Meekle on Seventh avenue east for an all-day sewing session, making garments for St. Luke's Episcopal hospital in Boise.

Present were Mrs. J. W. Newman, Mrs. Palmer, Mrs. D. D. Alford, Mrs. Charles B. Beymer, Mrs. George P. Sprague, Mrs. George Truett, Mrs. Frank J. McAttee, Mrs. Garver, Mrs. Blanford, Mrs. Norton and Mrs. F. J. Meekle.

Talk Scheduled

Luncheon was served at noon, and tea was served in the late afternoon.

Next meeting of the group will be Feb. 6 at the home of Mrs. Blanford, when Mrs. R. B. Botham will discuss famous cathedral windows.

PILOT'S PRAYER

I used to fly when I could fly
For fear of wings; for fear of sky
My soul would soar, my appetite race
With joy of climbing through blue space.

To beat wings near eternity
Was life and breath and food for me.
Come is the joy, the exaltation—
I fly now for a war-mad nation.

That I might drop my death-bombs down
On every scarred and naked town.
Please understand, it's not my will
To fly that I-flight mania and kill.

I feel God's written on the air—
"Keep Out"—I sin to trespass there.
They call it duty now, you see—
God in your mercy, pardon me.

—HARRIOT HITT

(For how many men, of how many nations, has Miss Hitt turned speaker in this poem, "Pilot's Prayer," wonders the editor of "Views in Verse." The author, aged 18, now a student at Albion State Normal school, is a contributor to this column. Her offerings should be more frequent.)

THREE TEAMS FAVORED IN GOODING TOURNEY

Louis 10-1 Favorite to Knock out Red Burman by End of Fourth

Burley, Shoshone, Jerome Win in Opening Contests

(Morning Results on Page Two)
By Hal Wood
Evening Times Sports Editor

GOODING, Jan. 31 (Special)—You could take your pick of any one of three teams today—and feel reasonably sure that you could name the champion of the 16th annual Gooding Outlaw basketball tournament.

The three clubs favored to climb into the money were the Shoshone Redskins, Burley Elks and Jerome Jayces.

All three of these clubs showed power in chalking up wins in the tournament yesterday and neither had yet been lowered in the standings since today's fireworks started.

Best Performance

The Shoshone Redskins turned in the best performance in edging the strong Gooding Jayces club last night by a score of 37-33. The battle was a nip-and-tuck affair, with the Redskins holding a two-point edge all the way through the second half.

They were in front 10-12 at the half but the Jayces pulled into the game immediately after the intermission and stayed right on the Shoshone trail—but never quite able to overcome the lead.

Ed Oliver was another to watch.

He led the competitive contest record of 64 here a year ago in winning the Phoenix cup.

Marvin (Bud) Ward headed the amateur brigade. Other top amateurs were William Wehrle, Racine, Wis.; John Barron, Houston, and Elwyn Vines, former tennis champion.

Babe Fights Galleto

NEW YORK, Jan. 31 (AP)—Promoter Mike Jacobs announced today that he had signed Tony Galento and Buddy Bieri for a 10-round fight at Madison Square Garden in March, probably the 26th.

Gooding Jayces were scheduled to meet in another elimination contest.

Dietrich eliminated the Gooding Moochers 33-23. The winning club was in front 18-10 at the half.

Lead name of the opening day saw the Elks quiet play up a big 23-12 advantage at the half and then hold over the last half to win 33-21.

Arizona topped the losers with 17 points, while Christian won 30 for the winners.

Thrills for the Spectators at Gooding Outlaw Meet

While the opening day games at the Gooding Outlaw tourney were a general rule below par when it came to close battles, there was still plenty of thrills for the spectators. At the left here is Blonko Pavkov, the professional football player with the Pittsburgh Steelers in the National League. He's playing with the strong Gooding Jayces tonight in the tourney and that jump in the air you see there is a prodigious feat—because 14 1/2 pounds of really solid beef off the floor some two feet—and the basket was good. That's Paul Graham of the winning Shoshone Redskin team in the background.

Maryland Slugger Is Termed Best Opponent To Meet Shufflin' Joe

NEW YORK, Jan. 31 (AP)—Red Burman of Baltimore, who used to chauffeur for Jack Dempsey, tries tonight to wrest the world heavyweight championship from Joe Louis, who once worked on the assembly line of a Detroit auto factory.

The betting is 10 to 1 that Burman is not man enough to turn the trick.

Promoter Mike Jacobs anticipates a crowd of at least 17,000 in Madison Square Garden and a gate of $70,000.

Best Opponent

Yet Burman, a red-headed Maryland Irishman, is making the most determined assault on Bomber Joe's laurels since Louis copped the crown from Jim Braddock in 1937.

As Louis makes the 13th defense of the title, we discover these reasons why Burman will meet his most determined assailant:

(1) Burman is 25. He has been training for nearly three months. Virtually all of the Bomber's previous 12 challengers were washed-up veterans of notice.

(2) Burman, a natural croucher, has been schooled thoroughly in the Dempsey box and wears a style most bothersome to Shufflin' Joe—his right hand.

(3) Burman is not only the most fearless opponent Louis ever tackled, but he also is the best body puncher in the heavyweight division.

(4) Burman may try to win by fair means or foul, because he represents a faction of the fight game that is bitterly opposed to the joint regime of Louis and Promoter Mike Jacobs.

HIGHLIGHTS—AND LOW—ON THE 16TH ANNUAL GOODING OUTLAW TOURNAMENT . . . OLD-TIMERS FROM MEET ARE AMONG MISSING

GOODING, Jan. 31—Idaho's "round at the outlet of all Idaho outlaw tournaments."

First man spent on entering the first new Gooding junior high school is John Cooper, (Gooding coach and an official of the tournament) and one who is talking about the "new feat" his boys got when having King Hill's boxer fight night—and he says he's got the proof.

Well, the old tournament ain't what she used to be. (One) for the first time in all the 15 years—after playing in the first 15 meets, Late was "rewarded" this year by the gymnasium floor itself. (Two) a referee's job. And (three) a new reference as manager of the Burley Elks.

However, there's one old-timer still staying in there. It's Johnny Nelson of King Hill who participated in his 15th tourney—to tie with Judewine and Lyon for the record of continuous service—and celebrated by serving 10 points against the Burley Elks.

"And that isn't the half of it," says Nelson. "I'll be in there on the court for another 15 years."

Agreed sitting quietly on the side-line: Frank Morris, former All-Rock Mountain conference leader of the Utah State college club—now a traveling salesman for a sporting goods firm.

Another "missing" from the tournament—and one that the veteran fans could not believe—was the American Danaher. With a club entered in the meet every year since 34 was started, the Danahers were as familiar a sight at a meet here as the gymnasium floor itself. (Four) a pair of wire-wired yesterday that they wouldn't be able to compete this season—due to illness.

Somebody always pops up with something new—and the Fairfield girls had it this year—basketball shirts with Roman numerals for the letters on 'em.

Another missing—Chick Dog

Most of the spectators had left the gymnasium last night when the Blus Town team scored its second victory of the tourney—a knockout over the Hagerman CCC club. The Blus boys showed lots of power as they staved off a determined CCC rally to win. Here Christensen, leading scorer for the winning club, goes high in the air to add another two points to his collection. No. 54 running under him is Abbott of the CCC club and standing at back is Hagerman, CCC star forward. (Times Photos and Daggraves)

FORD REJECTS ALL CONTRACTS WITH LABOR CLAUSES

COMPANY RATE AS LOW BID FOR CARS IS REFUSED

DETROIT, Jan. 31 (AP)—Decision of the Ford Motor company to accept no national defense contracts during its attempt to change federal and state labor laws, was seen today as closing its factories to orders placed directly by the national defense commission.

A Ford Motor company spokesman indicated the decision was irrevocable and a statement to a change of attitude by the company, would be one by the defense commission and other government agencies. Sidney Hillman, associate director of the new office of production management, and labor defense chief, was seen to have won a victory in the decision to include the labor clause in defense contracts and in Washington it was believed it might be there to stay.

Two Defense Orders

The company already has two defense orders—one for "midget" army trucks, another for a change of contract and bring suit. In view of the apparent feeling of labor against the company it was felt that risk labor seems to have an ear in Washington.

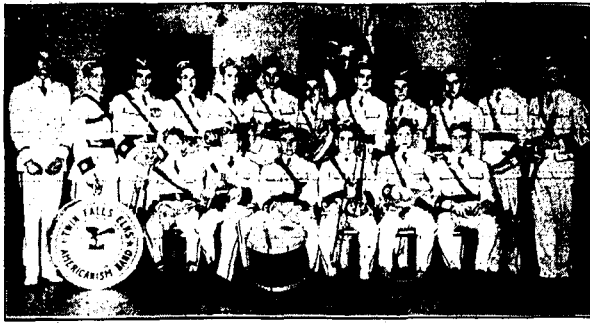

"Stop to Labor"

Capitol said the Ford bid was $250,000 lower than that of a competitor, "but the government evidently thought it more important to give a bid to labor than to save $250,000 and time in the future."

The contract was for one-hundred trucks, command-reconnaissance cars, radio trucks, ambulances, "carry-all" and pick-up trucks. Invitations to bid were extended to 155 manufacturers.

The war department announced that the $400,000 contract had been awarded to the Fargo Motor corporation, a subsidiary of Chrysler Motors.

ELKS' NEW BAND EARNS APPLAUSE

The Twin Falls Elks Americanism band, directed by Bert Christanson, made its initial concert appearance last night as a special feature of the past card rulers' initiation at the local lodge.

Arranged by a committee headed by J. H. Blandford, chairman of the national defense committee, feature of the program came as the band played the Star Spangled Banner as the closing number. All lights in the hall were turned out and as the band started to play a spotlight illuminated a large American flag in the balcony at the end of the hall. It fluttered in wind created by an electric fan.

All the numbers played by the youthful members of the band the "Tiger Rag" was best received and an encore was necessary before the more than 150 Elks present would let the program continue.

Aiding in program arrangement was, aside from Blandford, W. W. Thomas, H. R. Grant, J. J. Winterholer and Elmer Hollingsworth.

Mrs. FDR Visits Idaho Display on Indian Art Work

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31 (AP)—Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt visited the house committee on Indian affairs late Thursday to inspect an exhibit of Indian handicraft arranged by Sister Proviencia of the Sacred Heart mission, DoNest, Ida.

The display included woccasin, belts, dolls, gloves, bags and other leather goods produced by Indians of nine different tribes in cooperatives organized by Sister Proviencia, who is the daughter of Rep. John H. Tolan, D. Calif.

"I think it is fine that you have been able to preserve the skill of the old Indian art," Mrs. Roosevelt said, "and at the same time modernize the design and color so you can adapt the articles to modern use."

John Garry, grandson of Chief Spokane Garry of the Coeur d'Alene tribe, explained the various articles to Mrs. Roosevelt.

U.S. MIGHT SHIP GRAIN TO MEXICO

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31 (AP)—Agriculture department officials had under consideration today a proposal to subsidize the export of "excess" million bushels of wheat to Mexico. A decision is expected within a few days.

The wheat would be taken from stocks acquired by the department under a government loan program which would be sold to exporters at the competitive world price, and the government would take a loss equal to the difference between that price and its higher loan investment.
