Eight Burned to Death in Dallas Flophouse Blaze

DALLAS, Tex., Feb. 8 (UP)—Eight men, trapped in a fire that made a blazing pyre of a Salvation Army flophouse where 50 men were sleeping, were burned to death today. Twenty-six others were taken to hospitals for treatment and several of them were in a critical condition. Three men were dead when firemen got to them late last night. A fourth died en route to a hospital and four others died early this morning.

Two of the dead were J. E. White and Thomas Cook, addresses unknown. Salvation Army officials said their books were destroyed and it was doubtful whether the others could be identified. Among those expected to die was Julius Benson, 45, assistant manager of the house. He went into the building three times to bring men out.

Some of the victims were burned, some fractured, and some were being treated in a hospital. Some suffered both burns and fractured limbs.

Fire Chief L. M. Funk said the fire started in a fumigator, at head of the stairs. Transients were sleeping on the floor. A fire broke out at 11:30 p. m. and the firemen were called in to "de-aerolize" and a gas flame was kept burning in the fumigator to vaporize chemicals that killed the vermin.

From the fumigator, a five-by-eight-foot room was being heated, calling the fire swept into the sleeping room, lined with double-decker bunks, and filled in the center.

Most of the men were asleep when the fire broke out. Many were sleeping on the floor. Some were sleeping on the floor. Some were sleeping on the floor.

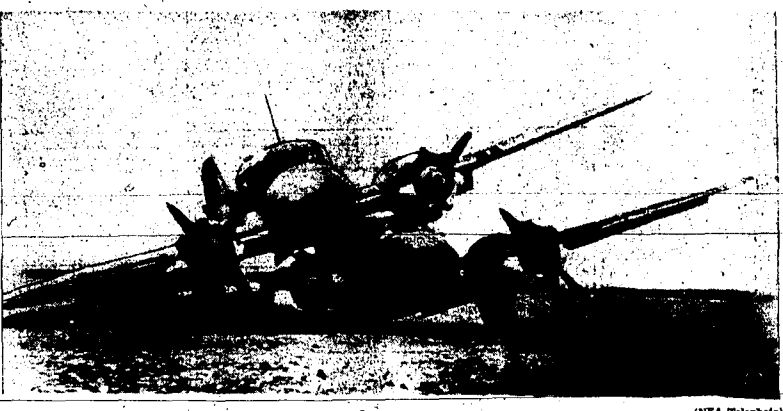

The man afraid to jump were panic-stricken and fought each other. Some were sleeping on the floor. Some were sleeping on the floor.

Paul Bastus, a taxi-driver, was eating in a restaurant beneath the flophouse when he heard a man screaming.

He rushed into the street and saw the place was a fire. He saw the place was a fire. He saw the place was a fire.

He helped to get down the stairs, but they collapsed behind him. He helped to get down the stairs, but they collapsed behind him.

Laval Demands Premier Post; Own Cabinet Choice

VICHY, France, Feb. 8 (UP)—Pierre Laval, rejecting a compromise offer, has held to his demand that he be made premier with a cabinet of his own choosing which would pick himself, it was disclosed today. As a result, a dangerous deadlock in French-German relations continued.

Laval's demand that he be given sole control of foreign affairs and thus of the government, was the subject of a long conference with German officials.

Returning from his second visit to Paris this morning after an all-night session through France's one-car special train, Admiral Francois Darlan, right hand man of Marshal Philippe Pétain, conferred with Gen. Charles Huntziger, war minister, and Marcel Peyronnet, interior minister.

Then he conferred with Pétain for an hour informing the aged marshal that his effort to compromise with Laval had failed.

Pétain, through Darlan, had proposed Laval become vice-premier with Darlan as premier.

There was a possibility the cabinet would submit its resignation to Pétain in a gesture intended to hasten solution of the cabinet problem which had derailed relations with Germany for nearly two months.

Laval was reported to have made only one concession—that Darlan, not he, might be designated Pétain's official heir as chief of state.

The Germans were believed to have made it plain to Darlan that unless Laval altered the government on terms satisfactory to him, there could be no resumption of relations.

Under existing law the above appointment would be automatic unless congress acts by March 5.

States President Is Attempting to Throttle Senator

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8 (UP)—All-M. Landon, 1936 Republican presidential nominee, today denounced the administration's all-out British aid bill as a "guess and be damned policy" under which congress would abdicate and give President Roosevelt unlimited powers to police the world by force, using all U. S. resources and manpower.

Charging that President Roosevelt had made a "dastardly" attempt to gag Sen. Burton K. Wheeler, D., Mont., leader of the bill's opposition, Landon told the senate foreign relations committee that congress "should keep control of the aid we send England."

He advocated U. S. gifts of billions of dollars to help Britain's war effort, but said this nation's primary need now is:

"It is necessary—if it is essential to our national security—that we win this war—then let's stop fooling around with this loose-lead bill," Landon said.

Members of the board of directors of the Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce, in a special session here today, authorized the chamber to enter into an option to purchase patent rights in the Gano "dry-spuds" machine used for the manufacture of Gano's "dry-spuds."

The action was taken as the directors adopted a resolution to this effect and also passed another resolution authorizing preliminary investigation for the rights regarding patent rights of the invention, held by Orville Gano, Burley.

With approval this voted, the chamber's "dry-spuds" committee signed a 60-day option agreement with Gano. This gives the chamber a right to purchase the rights in the machine at a price to be determined at a later date.

The O. C. of directors today also took action authorizing the committee to have engineers and investigators into the possible cost of establishing a "dry-spud" manufacturing plant.

If the project goes through, several chamber leaders indicated the plant would be in full operation for the fall crop before the option expires.

Advancing his own proposal for an outright subsidy to Britain to be charged off as a part of the cost of U. S. national defense, Landon said:

Police Eject Youth Congress Leader From Senate Hearing

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7 (UP)—The policemen escorted from the crowded room Jack McMichael, chairman of the American Youth Congress, from the senate hearing room today when he refused to be heard in opposition to the bill.

After the incident, Chairman Walter F. George, D., Ga., ordered any "trouble-makers" to be ejected from the chamber.

McMichael shouted: "The youth of America wants to be heard of this bill. American youth has the right."

Substitute Measure For Welfare Set-up Mapped by Governor

BOISE, Feb. 8 (UP)—Introduction of a substitute bill to abolish the state department of public welfare highlighted sessions of the Idaho legislature today after a compromise temporarily averted battle on the controversial measure to create a four-year university.

The new measure, introduced by the ways and means committee, was drafted by Gov. Chase A. Clark to replace a measure abolishing the public welfare board and it was introduced in the senate this morning and corrected objections of federal relief officials.

Under existing law the above appointment would be automatic unless congress acts by March 5.

The bill rejected by the rules committee was sponsored by Rep. John E. Rankin, D., Miss. Chairman Adolph Sabath, D., Ill., said it was shelved by a "nearly unanimous vote."

HOUSE TO KEEP 435 MEMBERSHIP

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8 (UP)—The house rules committee today adopted a bill to increase the house membership to 435 on basis of population increase, and sent to the floor a bill to reappportion the present membership of 435.

The bill rejected by the rules committee was sponsored by Rep. John E. Rankin, D., Miss. Chairman Adolph Sabath, D., Ill., said it was shelved by a "nearly unanimous vote."

HOUSE CHANGES AID BILL LIMITS

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8 (UP)—The house today revised the British-aid bill to perfect an amendment limiting to $1,000,000 the value of "hand or on order" U. S. arms or any equipment which President Roosevelt could send abroad under the measure.

The amendment was changed to specify an exact $1,000,000 limit on such transfers, confining it to the original wording which fixed the amount at 10 per cent of the current fiscal year which totaled about $18,000,000.

The fixing of a precise limit was proposed by the committee leadership and was adopted by voice following a long parliamentary tangle.

The limit applies only to present stock of arms, or marine corps equipment, including that which has been contracted for during the current fiscal year. It does not limit the amount of arms which may be made directly under the British-aid bill or to equipment to be acquired by the army or navy.

The bill may be made directly under the British-aid bill or to equipment to be acquired by the army or navy.

CRASH IS BLAMED ON BEAM FAILURE

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8 (UP)—The civil aeronautics board today reported that the "malfunctioning" of radio guiding equipment at Salt Lake City was the probable cause of the crash of a Curtiss biplane at Centerville, Utah, Nov. 1940, in which seven passengers and a crew of three were killed.

The board said that a controlling factor probably was the failure of the communications operators at Salt Lake City and Centerville, Utah, whose duty it was to monitor the radio signals, to detect the malfunctioning of the radio equipment.

Failure of the transport's pilot to follow established procedures to the fullest extent was also given by the board as a probable cause. The board said that the plane's captain began his descent during a period of time when, because of heavy rain, he was unable to hear radio range-control signals from Salt Lake City radio range.

Advancing his own proposal for an outright subsidy to Britain to be charged off as a part of the cost of U. S. national defense, Landon said:

"The results of the probe, as revealed by Mr. Sweezy today, are better than I could have hoped for. It shows that the plane was not as safe as we thought it was."

"Those who without argument in accordance with the evidence presented by Mr. Sweezy today, are better than I could have hoped for."

Drop "Superiority" and Understand Latin Americans, Observer Exhorts

BY JEAN DINKELACHER

"Teach Spanish in all the schools of the United States; learn their language as a means of understanding the customs and philosophy of the people south of the equator, if you would save the Americas, North and South, from the Nazi forces that have changed the continent of Europe."

That is the practical way to strengthen our "good neighbor" policy with South America, Mrs. David Simms, Hastings, Neb., chairman of international relations for the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's clubs, told an attentive audience last evening at the Presbyterian church. In the past few months she has toured South and Central America.

"If we continue to be deluged with superior South American goods we cannot hope to have any unity between us. We must understand South America," she declared.

We Study Us

She continued, "South American know so much more about us than we do about them. In our newspapers in English versions, not translations into Portuguese and Spanish. They are interested and formed on current events, but they admit, 'we're never quite sure of you.'"

President Vargas of Brazil has done much to spread the study of English throughout the South American schools, she commented.

"Why does a German traveling man succeed in getting orders where an American business man may fail?" she asked. "Because he will speak the language of the South American merchant. He has a knowledge of music, art, and literature; will take time to sip a cup of coffee with him—and will eventually become his friend. An American doesn't take the time for that procedure," she added.

Expert Speaks

"Learn to speak Spanish" is Mrs. David Simms' message to United States citizens who want to be "good neighbors" of South America, she addressed an enthusiastic audience here last evening, under the sponsorship of the Twin Falls B. F. W. club.

She described the South American as being fundamentally poetic, and the North American being fundamentally "all business."

Object to Atoleza

Graduates score residents of the United States for taking them "too conscious." They object to North Americans coming down there, living in a room with them; sending their children to separate schools; making as much money as they can, and then going back home, she said.

Mrs. Simms was in Uruguay when the second attempt was made by Hitler to take over that country.

Hitler can get Uruguay, he has the rest of us."

She told how a professor discovered that a plan had been eventually evolved the government of the perit exclave. As a result of the discovery, Argentina came to the rescue and the Nazi nest was wiped out.

Ferris Stewart, accompanied by Mrs. Marion Peck, Mrs. W. H. Peck, and "Bivina," Mrs. Peck played a Russian number. Miss Genevieve Dwight sang "The Star-Spangled Banner" at the conclusion of the program.

Four Points of View Concerning Isolationism Studied by A. A. U. W.

A forum discussion on the subject, "Can America Isolate Herself in the World Today?" featured the meeting of the Twin Falls chapter, American Association of University Women, following the February luncheon this afternoon at the home of Mrs. L. B. Breckenridge, 137 Seventh avenue north. The question of America's ability to isolate herself completely within the western hemisphere was discussed from four separate viewpoints.

Group singing led by Mrs. Margaret Peck formed the musical part of the program. Mrs. Harry Ball was chairman of the hostess committee, assisted by Mrs. Edward Regel, Mrs. George Newborn, Miss Josephine Throckmorton and Mrs. Breckenridge.

Invitation Discussed

Mrs. J. O. Rasmussen opened the discussion with the question of America's vulnerability to an invasion by an unfriendly power; thus approaching the question of isolation from a physical, political or military point of view.

From this followed the second viewpoint, that of the isolation of an isolated America. Mrs. Russell Miller pointed out the two schools of thought of economic isolationism, the one of total isolation and the other of partial isolation. She illustrated that this last viewpoint is closely related to those preceding.

The third viewpoint, that of America's ability to preserve her democratic form of government in a world of totalitarianism.

Idaho Hunting License No Good Outside State

HELENA, Mont., Feb. 8 (U.P.) — An Idaho hunting license is no good outside the state of Idaho. Atty. Gen. John W. Bonner ruled today. — Rep. Walter T. Ballard, D. Silver Bow, posed the question as to whether he, as holder of an Idaho non-resident bird license, and a Montana resident license, could have 10 Chinese pheasants in his possession at one time. He pointed out the Idaho game law permitted possession of personal transportation of four pheasants, while Montana law permitted a bag limit of six male pheasants. Ballard wanted to know what could happen if a Montana game warden caught him on the way back from a hunting trip in Idaho and Montana with 10 pheasants in his bag. Atty. Gen. Bonner ruled the game warden could—and probably would—arrest him. —

AT MY EXPERIMENTAL LABORATORY, FOR EXAMPLE, I HAVE CASES AFTER CASES OF POOR, SICK ANIMALS, WHICH, IF PERMITTED TO GO FREE, CAPABLE OF STARTING AN EPIDEMIC.

AND HERE, HUNDREDS OF BOTTLES... EACH CONTAIN CULTURE OF SUCH INFECTIOUS ORGANISMS AS CHINESE RUBER FEVER, MALARIA, TYPHUS, DYSENTERY, TUBERCULOSIS, AND BUBONIC PLAGUE. BUT ONLY A FEW WOULD BE ABLE TO IDENTIFY THESE ON MARKING SINI ONLY!

WELL, THEN, HOW DOES THIS GOVERNMENT GET THESE TOGETHER?

COMMITTEE NAMED TO PROBE 4-YEAR UNIVERSITY BILL

ACTION DELAYED FOR HOUSE VOTE ON U. S. B. BOOST

BOISE, Feb. 8 (UP)—The four-year university at Pocatello today named a committee to investigate the 4-year university bill, which the House passed today.

The committee, headed by Rep. Victor Morris, R., Idaho, will meet Monday and Tuesday at Pocatello to hear from members of the Idaho home of representatives and headed by a leader of forces which oppose the expansion.

Sponsors of the four-year university bill, faced by the prospect of a major setback, decided to delay house action on the measure and brought about creation of the committee headed by Rep. Victor Morris, R., Idaho.

The measure, which would make the University of Idaho branch at Pocatello a full-fledged university, had been scheduled for action early yesterday afternoon. However, after the bill had passed, supporters decided to hold up action until later in the session. Lack of votes makes the bill's passage through the measure and disagreement among the sponsors themselves over some points reportedly prompted the delay.

Retained on Calendar

After delaying opening of the session for an hour, the House today retained on the calendar, and introduced a motion to call an investigation into the educational situation in Idaho by a committee of 10 men—five from northern counties, and five from the south.

Members of the committee will include, besides Morris, Rep. Arthur Shaw, R., Idaho; A. R. McCabe, D., Benewah; J. R. Meeker, D., Boundary, and Allen Hoffman, D., Nez Perce. Members from the south will be Rep. F. M. Mattine, D., Bannock; Arnold Williams, D., Madison; Milton Henry, R., Blaine; H. C. Jones, R., Ada; and William Dewelzer, R., Jerome.

Rep. Morley said the committee will be formed because of controversy concerning the matter of higher educational institutions has existed in the state of Idaho for several years regarding the status of the university.

New Bill Laid

It appears that some effort will be made to investigate the situation with regard to the Pocatello branch of the University of Idaho, a vote before the legislature, he declared.

It was reported the present university bill would be withdrawn and a substitute measure introduced later. However, the bill could be introduced to the calendar to await the committee report.

The committee will have full power to bring in a report and call witnesses and "to take such advisory steps as it deems advisable for solving the problem."

Formation of the committee was planned by southern Idaho proponents as a means of delaying action while support was being gathered for the four-year proposal.

FARM LOAN UNITS WILL MEET MONDAY, TUESDAY

Buhl Session

Stockholders of the Buhl and Cattaraugus land banks will meet at the I. O. O. F. hall in Buhl Tuesday, this session also starting at 10 a. m. Following a free lunch, this meeting will be held in the afternoon at 2 p. m. J. W. RUPERT THRONGS HONOR TEACHER

RUPERT, Feb. 8 (Special)—Last night's school convocation for the 1940-41 year was conducted Wednesday at the Methodist church in what is said to have been the largest funeral ever held in Rupert.

The main auditorium, balcony, lecture room, class rooms and vestibule were filled to overflowing by every man, woman and child in a town the size of Twin Falls with a population of more than 100. Mrs. J. W. McDowell, secretary-treasurer of the unit, said today that 1,000 to 1,500 persons are expected to attend one or both of the sessions.

Schools Closed

City schools closed for the afternoon. Teachers and high school students attended the funeral. The high school Torch honor society, of which Miss Margaret Scholer is president, attended in a body and sat in a section reserved for them.

Sixteen night clubs and organizations, under the direction of Miss Avis Bowditch and Miss Helen Hill, high school teachers, served as flower bearers during the funeral. Offerings formed a solid wall of flowers at the front of the church, where the funeral service was held.

The funeral director was Dr. P. H. Kenyon and the casket was in charge of Rev. Albert P. Parrett, pastor of the church, which delivered the funeral address. He was assisted by Rev. J. H. Roseberry, a former pastor of the local church, now pastor of the Methodist church in Frigidia, and a personal friend of the Scholer family.

Music was in charge of Mrs. Homer Bell, who presided at the organ and accompanied George Catrull, head of the high school music department, who sang "God Bless My Home," and "The Old to Thee." He was accompanied at the organ by Mrs. Floyd Britt.

Falliers was Dr. D. Armstrong, principal of the local high school; O. W. Paul, Raymond Dowd, former high school principal; and George Brock.

Interment, under the direction of the Goodman mortuary, was in Rupert cemetery.

Born in Washington

Miss Scholer was born in Spokane, Wash., Dec. 21, 1904. She came to Rupert with her parents in September, 1919, and graduated from the Rupert high school in 1922. She then attended the University of the Albion State Normal school. Later she was an honored student at the University of Idaho and received from which she graduated with honors June 10, 1929.

In addition to being director of the Methodist church and of the Epworth league, and adviser to the Torch society, she was a member of the Alpha Xi chapter of Kappa Phi and Kappa Delta (tri-city units of the American Association of University Women) and the Woman's auxiliary of the George E. Marshall post, American Legion, where she was an accomplished pianist and gave freely of her time and talent.

She is survived by her mother, Mrs. O. A. Scholer; father, Mrs. Mildred Scholer and Mrs. Arthur W. Trer, Rupert; and two brothers, Raymond Scholer, Postland, and Dr. J. Myron Scholer, Idaho Falls.

In addition to the visiting pastors, her out-of-town friends and relatives here for the funeral were: Mrs. Herman Scholer, Mrs. J. Myron Scholer and children, Myron and Dorothy, Dr. and Mrs. George P. Scholer, Twin Falls; Mr. and Mrs. George H. Scholer, Burley; Mrs. Vernon Wilson, Burley; Mrs. George O. Roseberry, Caldwell; Mrs. James K. Allen, Fruitland; Mrs. Burns Anderson and daughter, Miss Elisabeth Anderson, Pocatello.

Gooding Farmer Sets High Mark With Dairy Herd

PORTLAND, Ore., Feb. 8 (Special)—V. W. Carlson, Gooding, Idaho, with a herd of 16 registered Holsteins, produced enough butter fat from them in 1940 to sell 139,313 eggs Idaho potatoes with a half slice of butter, with enough left over to spread a number of waffles. Carlson's cows gave enough milk during the year to supply every man, woman and child in a town the size of Twin Falls with a monthly supply of milk for more than 100 people.

The Carlson herd, under the supervision of the dairy extension department of the University of Idaho, produced 12,851 pounds of fat, 44,844 pounds of milk, and 1,814 gallons of milk. They have a lot of pickurich, too. Given a type rating by Prof. J. C. Knott, of Washington State college, recently they scored above 80 points—far above the average of the other four-legged beauties the country over. Mr. Carlson owned and exhibited the grand champion cow at the western Idaho fair at Boise and the Twin Falls county fair in 1940.

The foundation animals in the herd comes from the Lester Roenigh herd of Clay Center, Kan. Mr. Roenigh's herd, with an average of 517 pounds of fat in 1928 and 538 pounds in 1929, was the highest group in establishment in Kansas for these two years.

The Carlson herd is being placed on Holstein herd list, sponsored by the Holstein-Friesian association of America and the University of Idaho.

MACDONALD NEW CANADIAN CHIEF

LONDON, Feb. 8 (UP)—Minister of Health Malcolm MacDonald has been appointed British high commissioner in Canada. It was announced officially today.

Ernest Brown, secretary for Scotland, succeeds MacDonald as health minister and Thomas Johnston succeeds Brown as secretary for Scotland.

MacDonald-40 is a son of the late Ramsey MacDonald, one-time Labour prime minister. He was appointed minister of health last year to cope with a difficult health problem created by crowded public air raid shelters.

Previously he had served as secretary of state for colonies and secretary of state for dominion affairs.

It was believed that his long interest in dominion affairs brought his appointment to the high post in Canada. From 1931 to 1933 he was parliamentary undersecretary of the dominions office and he served as dominions secretary from 1935 to 1938.

An official statement said the suspension was ordered to permit movements and replacements of Bulgarian troops.

TOKYO—A bill for drastic control of industries under the general management act was approved by the lower house of parliament today and sent to the house of peers.

YOUTH CONGRESS RAPS BRITISH AID

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8 (UP)—The American Youth Congress was on record today as vigorously opposed to the administration's British-aid bill as a "prlude to war."

Speakers at the congress "loud meeting of youth" last night declared the bill would "invariably lead the United States into the European conflict" and would result in "an American dictatorship." Its leaders urged nation-wide opposition to the bill "before the end of the nation's youth is again applied on the battlefields of Europe."

"This bill," Michael J. Quill, president of the Transport Workers Union (CIO), said "is an attempt by President Roosevelt to force a shotgun wedding of the United States and Britain."

New Deal officials who welcomed the youths warmly in previous years have been anything but cordial this year. Mrs. Roosevelt declined an invitation to speak and all except one congressman—Rep. Vito Marcantonio, American Laborite, N. Y.—also declined. Marcantonio will address a mass meeting tonight.

TRANSFUSION

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Feb. 8 (UP)—Veterinarians gave Laddie the Alredale, a blood transfusion yesterday.

The drastic step was decided upon in an effort to revitalize the broken-hearted canine sufficiently so that he can be flown to the west coast for a reunion with his master, Private Everett Scott in Fort Ord, Calif.

The 10-year-old Alredale stopped eating and lost all interest in life when Scott joined the army four months ago.

He was shipped here by train and was to have been flown to California today by Transcontinental and Western Air, Inc. but veterinarians decided he was too weak to travel.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 8 (UP)—Three weeks ago Raymond L. Yerton was paroled from a federal prison camp in Idaho. He came to San Francisco in search of work. He found none and he was hungry. Yerton stole a letter containing a government check, gave the name of Charles Upton, federal probation officer, as reference when he cashed it.

He told his story to Federal Judge Martin I. Welch who sentenced him to seven years in prison. Yerton beamed. "Thank you, Judge," he said.
