FIVE LEVY MEASURES DESIGNED TO BOOST IDAHO REVENUE

DEMOS PROPOSE ADDED TAXES ON BEER, CIGARETTES

BOISE, Feb. 28 (UP)—Administration legislative leaders today gave the go ahead signal to five tax measures designed to raise additional state revenue requested by Gov. Chase A. Clark for marching with federal funds.

The house revenue committee today will report on technical details of the measures and expect to report them to the senate later today.

The measures include a 20 cent per gallon tax on beer; a two cent package cigarette tax; a three percent tax on dividends declared by foreign and domestic corporations; a 40 monthly license tax on coin-operated games and other devices; and a one and two cent stamp tax on cigars.

Drivers' Licenses Fee up The house, meantime, approved a bill increasing the fee for drivers' licenses from $5 to $7.50.

Rep. Arthur Murphy, D. Shoshone, estimated the increased driver's license fee would bring in $150,000 per year to the department of law enforcement.

Twenty other measures passed the house, four of which had already received senate approval. They included bills to abolish the non-functioning state board of public utility; designate the attorney general as legal counsel for the state liquor authority; create a board to license contractors operating in Idaho; amend the Lewiston city charter to permit street widening and operation of municipal parking.

There was no debate on the judges retirement bill. A motion to table it was passed by a voice vote. By a vote of 20 to 1, the senate passed a plan by which the state and industries would cooperate in rehabilitating workers afflicted with the debilitating disease of silicosis.

Other bills passed in the senate were a permit consolidation bill; a bill to amend the tax on mineral rights on patented lands at 80 per acre.

6,000 STEEL WORKERS THREATEN EASTERN WALK-OUT

ALLIS-CHALMERS STRIKE STAYS AS MEET ADJOURNS

By United Press
Labor disputes delayed production of national defense materials at 16 plants today and a strike of 60,000 steel workers was threatened in 100 mills.

Negotiations were adjourned in the strike of 7,900 United Automobile Workers (UAW) at the Milwaukee, Wis., plant of the Allis-Chalmers Manufacturing Co. after a union mass meeting voted to support the negotiating committee's demand for "union security" and paraded with a coffin labeled "here lies the Allis-Chalmers strike." The U. S. Commissioner James P. Holmes and Thomas Burns of the office of production management led the union-company conferences to report to OPM officials at Washington. Holmes said the negotiations would not be resumed until he receives further instructions from the government officials. The strike, involving defense contracts worth $4,000,000, has been in progress since Jan. 22.

The steel workers' organizing committee (CIO) threatened to call out of the 60,000 workers at Bethlehem Steel Corp. plants in Pennsylvania and New York unless the company agreed to recognize the union security. Union members at the Lackawanna, N. Y., Bethlehem plant have authorized the formation of a new committee to call a strike "whenever warranted."

Members of the UAW-AFL union at the Motor Wheel Corp. plant at Lansing, Mich., vote today on an agreement that would end a 12-day strike. The new contract would order for $4,000,000 worth of airplane propellers and shell casings. The 3,000 strikers had demanded a union shop.

Grange Gleanings

By A. HARVESTER

FAIRVIEW
Had a good crowd out over at Grange on Friday night. Fifty members and four visitors were present and all officers were present except one member of the executive committee, the business agent. This was the first meeting in which the program was put on by the birthday group. I, e., those folks having birthdays in February. Next month the folks having their natal day in March will perform the program with the nearest to Washington's birthday, the Grange sang "America" as an opening song. These were taken into the Grange by reinstatement. Master Roland Harding gave the first and second degrees to Mr. and Mrs. Albert Lewis and then we had a recess to allow the members to welcome the new members. After the recess we had a talk by Mr. Harding. He must have thought he was going to school, for after while he found out that the farmer is not a child and he was not on hand and he proceeded to give them the same treatment and then he declared that he was not a child just like school because we had two recesses and at about 12 we had lunch.

Well, anyhow, I've seldom if ever seen a new master put on the degree in a better form, without the use of the manuals. We've a good bunch of conscientious officers and I believe if we don't have a good year in the Grange work, it won't be their fault.

Mayor's Talk Fails to Irk Calm Council

City councilmen, last night in regular session, discussed just about everything but the one thing they were expected to discuss—politics.

The session started some 30 minutes after Mayor Joe Koehler had concluded a paid political radio talk in which he stated, among many other things, that he was not a candidate in the coming election, he wanted it so that the "mayor would be mayor and not that in name only."

He was speaking of a bill which he is sponsoring in the legislature which, if passed and signed by the governor, would cause the local form of government to change from the commission to the mayor-council type. He pointed out that Twin Falls is the only city in the state still operating under the state's "black law" which permits a setup of the commission type.

But no mention of his speech was made around the council table. The session moved along smoothly and was over shortly before 9 p. m.

During the session Mayor Koehler showed a letter in which Dean Miller, state WPA head, asked regional officials to approve the Twin Falls airport project as a national defense job. Koehler said that the regional office had given such approval and that the matter was up to Washington.

Two members of the Twin Falls Garden club, Mrs. F. R. Lawson and Mrs. Hanley Payne, outlined further plans for beautification of the city by proper planting of trees on the various streets, especially in the sections of the city where none have been planted to date. The city council members expressed themselves in favor of the setup as proposed.

After bids were opened, the Ostrander Lumber company was awarded a contract for $2,070.30 for lumber and doors at the new city barn now under construction. Other contractors bidding were the Keel-Kim-Stron company, the Twin Falls Lumber company and O. A. Lowe, Ogden, Utah.

C. OF C. URGED TO SEEK ROAD CASH

By A. HARVESTER

Backus $27,000,000 has been recommended for defense highway work, the Twin Falls member of Commerce and other groups affiliated with the Mountain States association of the Public Ownership League urged today to "follow up closely" in efforts to secure appropriations for the inter-mountain area.

Earl T. Cheney, Salt Lake City, secretary of the association, sent word of the Washington action to the C. of C. today. He said that John F. Carmody, federal works administrator, made the $27,000,000 recommendation to President Roosevelt.

Vigorous efforts by all association units, Cheney said, may be able to secure some of these funds "in the near future to permit an expanded highway construction program during 1942."

Cheney said that the federal funds are recommended as follows: $150,000,000 for access roads to serve military and national reservations and defense industries; $100,000,000 for immediate strengthening of weak sections in the national highway system, designated as strategic network; $25,000,000 for construction and repair of special tactical roads; $12,000,000 for defense planning of possible emergency improvements.

Improvement of U. S. 30 as a defense highway—a goal sought by south side Magic Valley communities—would probably come under these appropriations, local C. of C. leaders indicated.

Backus $27,000,000 has been recommended for defense highway work, the Twin Falls member of Commerce and other groups affiliated with the Mountain States association of the Public Ownership League urged today to "follow up closely" in efforts to secure appropriations for the inter-mountain area.

Earl T. Cheney, Salt Lake City, secretary of the association, sent word of the Washington action to the C. of C. today. He said that John F. Carmody, federal works administrator, made the $27,000,000 recommendation to President Roosevelt.

Vigorous efforts by all association units, Cheney said, may be able to secure some of these funds "in the near future to permit an expanded highway construction program during 1942."

Cheney said that the federal funds are recommended as follows: $150,000,000 for access roads to serve military and national reservations and defense industries; $100,000,000 for immediate strengthening of weak sections in the national highway system, designated as strategic network; $25,000,000 for construction and repair of special tactical roads; $12,000,000 for defense planning of possible emergency improvements.

Improvement of U. S. 30 as a defense highway—a goal sought by south side Magic Valley communities—would probably come under these appropriations, local C. of C. leaders indicated.

City councilmen, last night in regular session, discussed just about everything but the one thing they were expected to discuss—politics.

The session started some 30 minutes after Mayor Joe Koehler had concluded a paid political radio talk in which he stated, among many other things, that he was not a candidate in the coming election, he wanted it so that the "mayor would be mayor and not that in name only."

He was speaking of a bill which he is sponsoring in the legislature which, if passed and signed by the governor, would cause the local form of government to change from the commission to the mayor-council type. He pointed out that Twin Falls is the only city in the state still operating under the state's "black law" which permits a setup of the commission type.

But no mention of his speech was made around the council table. The session moved along smoothly and was over shortly before 9 p. m.

Cather and Sandburg Appraised for Group

Qualities of greatness as found in the writings of Willa Cather and Carl Sandburg, were presented by Mrs. John E. Hayes at the February meeting of the Twin Falls chapter, Idaho Writers' League, last evening at the home of Miss Jean Dinkelacker, Colonial apartments.

Miss Cather's women characters assume the proportions of heroes rather than of heroines, as she, in her rich, vigorous style of writing, elects them to struggle and to outgrow the restrictions laid upon them in life, according to Mrs. Hayes, who used Carl Van Doren as the authority for her appraisal of Miss Cather's place in American literature. Miss Cather's theme is congenial to her interests.

Mrs. Hayes quoted Sandburg as declaring that any writer, to be successful, "must have experience and some—my cause is the social well-being of America."

Combined Culture

Sandburg has not discarded the horse culture of his ancestors, but has rather allied it with his American experience. Mrs. Hayes pointed out. His infinite variety of jobs has been a cumulative factor in his philosophy and his continuous search for picture words has sharpened his writing through the years; his optimism, was Mrs. Hayes' summary.

Writing assignments of the evening were "Imaginary Love Letters of Famous Persons."

Mrs. Robert Benson, president of the chapter, presented a letter which might have been written by Mrs. John Taylor to John Stewart Millie. There's was called "the big romance of the 19th century."

Mrs. Dorine Goertzen addressed the "front page love" of Elaine Barry and John Barrymore in a series of letters and telegrams.

Mrs. Juanita Hull, a guest of the group, advancing the premise that married lovers as well as single lovers are wont to express themselves in written missives, read a tender message which Mrs. Eugene Field might have written to her husband.

Date of the annual "open house," to which all interested writers of southern Idaho are invited, was tentatively set for Wednesday evening, April 23, at a place to be announced later. Mrs. Hayes is general chairman.

Prizes Awarded

Mrs. Benson received the prize for an original epigram concerning the woman "letter." Mrs. Martina Yeller, Buhl, state president, received the award for a contest on Presidents' wives. Members were present from Twin Falls, Kimberly, Gooding and Buhl.

Mrs. Benson and Mrs. Yeller told of attending a recent meeting of the Burley chapter, Idaho Writers' League. Publications were reported by Mrs. Juanita Panicher, Buhl; Sude Hager, Kimberly; Mrs. Ruth Knight and Mrs. Letha Webb Tester, Gooding, and Mrs. Goertzen, Twin Falls.

Refreshments in the St. Patrick's theme were served. March meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Benson, with humorous writings to be featured.

essions will follow. Mrs. Howard Larsen, district auxiliary president, and John Day, district region commander, will preside at the respective sessions.

Teachers of rural schools in the county, their husbands and wives and several former county teachers were entertained by Mrs. Doris Stradley, Twin Falls county superintendent of schools, recently at her home, 227 Walnut street, following a no-heat dinner at the Methodist church.

Sixty guests were seated at tables decorated in the patriotic theme. Howard Manning and Mrs. Lela Cochrill sang solos and Miss Jean Parker, accompanied by Richard Smith, played a violin solo, during the dinner hour. Following card games and other diversions at the home of Mrs. Stradley, refreshments were served.

Mrs. Iceland Miller presided at the silver service. The table was centered with pastel flowers, flanked by white and red crystal holders.

This was the third annual event arranged by Mrs. Stradley for county teachers.

Rebekahs Sponsor First Aid Class

GOODING, Feb. 25 (Special)—Rebekah club members held a covered dish luncheon at the home of Mrs. D. W. McCombs Friday. Patriotic decorations were used in the rooms and for table appointments.

Instructor for the course of 10 two-hour classes to be held two class periods a week will be Frank Johnson of the state school faculty. Other interested persons than members of the Rebekah club are invited to join the class, which will probably begin about April 1.

Plans were made for a nickel party, which will be open to the public, to be early in March. The district meeting to be held in Wendell Feb. 27 was announced; sessions will be at 8:30 p. m. Games were played with prizes awarded to Mrs. H. C. Byram, Mrs. D. W. Tester, Mrs. Nina Kelly and Mrs. R. F. Blais.

Montana's Sen. Murray Calls for Support of British Aid Measure

SOLON ASSERTS BILL WILL KEEP U. S. OUT OF WAR

BY WILLIAM H. LAWRENCE
WASHINGTON, Feb. 25 (Special).—Sen. James E. Murray, D. Mont., called for prompt enactment of the British aid bill today, asserting a Hitler victory would mean end of free enterprise and lead to establishment of totalitarianism, Communism or Socialism in the United States.

"There can be no peace for our own country if Hitler wins, because his system is at odds with ours and we will eventually clash," he said.

Murray was joined by Sen. W. Francis Borah, R. N. D., in urging everything possible be done to help British survive.

"The speaker of the first this week by supporters of the bill—because as opposition leaders conceded they could not defeat the bill as administered—was prepared to discuss with President Roosevelt attempts that will be made to amend it."

Different Systems
"Under our economy, American trade is private enterprise," Murray said. "Under Hitler's system, industry, trade, agriculture, labor and finance are state-controlled and controlled by a central planning system with him. We could not meet his bargaining power under our Democratic system and high taxes."

"If we defeat Britain, he will compel the permanent militarization of the United States, which means total complicity."

"Victory for Hitler would mean the end of our American system of free enterprise. We would be brought by necessity to reorganize under totalitarian principles, or go into Communism or Socialism."

"In speaking with his Montana colleague, Burton K. Wheeler, told the senate that the bill undertakes to ensure us against terrorism in the war by empowering the President to give material and effective aid to those countries whose defense is necessary to our defense."

"Keeps Us out of War"
"I think the bill provides the most effective method to keep this country out of war," he said. "It will contribute to ending the war in Europe by keeping it away from our country."

Appealing for farm state support, Murray said that the bill would keep the farmer as the linchpin of the nation as well as the symbol of democracy. Murray said that the bill would keep the farmer as the linchpin of the nation as well as the symbol of democracy.

Hitler Points to German Sea Superiority to Win Conflict

By J. W. T. MASON
United Press Wire Report
Uncertainties in Hitler's mind regarding a new air blitzkrieg or an attempted invasion of Britain are suggested by speech yesterday telling the German people what to expect during the coming months.

The speaker's emphasis fell on submarine activities and on the superiority of Germany's economic system based on production of gold, as his present means of winning the war. If a repetition of last summer's offensive and an attempt to land an army in Britain were Germany's next offensive steps, the speaker would have followed his previous prophetic methods in intimating that was coming, as long as he was aware of the results. Last year's unfortunate date fixing for his arrival in London, however, has had some reparative results on Hitler's methods of advance announcements.

See No Invasion
It seems safe to assume at least that the German general staff is uncertain about the advantages of challenging the British in the air again on the basis of the success with the efforts of last August and September. If Germany has abandoned hope of air mastery over Britain, then an invasion likewise must have been written off, unless the British relax their vigilance.

To Start Depreciations
The speaker tells the German people about great numbers of new submarines with a new crew, waiting to start their deprecations next month. But, there must be many German who remember last year's assurance from the same source of the fatherland's vast superiority in the air and sea to bring victory, just as you it is superiority at sea.
