NAZIS RETURN BRITISH AIR BLOW

Roosevelt Will Outline Program for Aid in War

TALK IS SLATED SATURDAY OVER EVERY NETWORK

By JOHN R. BEAL
WASHINGTON, March 14 (UP)—President Roosevelt will outline the objectives and progress of the $7,000,000 war aid program in a radio address to the nation and the world from 7:30 to 8 p. m. MST, Saturday night.

It will be Mr. Roosevelt's first detailed presentation of his viewpoints on the lend-lease plan since he signed the bill and approved the first list of materials to be transferred to Great Britain and Greece.

Secretary of War Henry Stimson disclosed that shipments of the war materials released already had annual.

Mr. Roosevelt will speak from the annual dinner of the White House Correspondents association at which he will be the honor guest Saturday night. The address will be carried on nationwide networks of the National Broadcasting Co., the Columbia Broadcasting system and Mutual Broadcasting system, and will be sent abroad by short wave.

Mr. Stimson Incarcerated
Mr. Roosevelt disclosed at inaccurate stories that any specific numbers of types of naval vessels are considered for dispatch to Britain. He admitted there might be ship transfers in the future, but said it would be impossible for him to give a specific number of ships because he has not given consideration to the problem.

Other sources reported that the transfer of ships to Britain is being considered during the course of the year.

Stimson disclosed the shipment of materials at a press conference preceding Mr. Roosevelt's.

Shipment Started
They have been started from the places where they were deposited," he said.

Asked whether any of the materials had arrived in Britain, he replied with this question:
"How long do you think it takes to get across the Atlantic? Perhaps you would like me to tell you what ships they are going on?"

When it was suggested planes could be flown across the Atlantic, Stimson declined to discuss British aid matters further.

Wool Prices Show Gain of 7 Cents

BOISE, March 14 (UP)—Idaho wool growers received an average of seven cents per pound more for their wool last year than during the previous year, the agricultural marketing service reported today.

The average price was 28 cents per pound and total state production was estimated at 16,273,000 pounds, or 21,600 pounds more than in 1939.

Financier Admits He Gave Scotty His "Fabulous Gold"

LOS ANGELES, March 14 (UP)—Death Valley Scotty hasn't a fabulous gold mine in the desert to which he repairs when his money runs low.

The yellow-backed bird he has scattered like the dead leaves of autumn since 1906 have come from his partner, A. M. Johnson, a wealthy, retired Chicago insurance broker. Johnson has loaned him $500,000, and "He's" paid it back in laughs.

Scotty—Walter Scott—explored the legend of the desert gold mine yesterday, testifying in a suit in federal court brought against him by Julian S. Gerard, a New York financier and brother of the late ambassador to Germany. Gerard charges he "grubstaked" Scotty $100,000 in 1902, and is entitled to 25 per cent of his "wealth."

Scotty said there wasn't any

Clark Signs Bill Lifting Liquor Tax 20 Per Cent

BOISE, March 14 (UP)—A bill increasing liquor taxes 20 per cent was signed today by Gov. Chase A. Clark along with five other laws enacted by the 1941 Idaho legislature.

The liquor tax, only new revenue measure approved at the recent legislative session, was expected to raise $1,000,000 during the biennium.

Price of liquors sold by the state liquor dispensary was not expected to rise immediately, because the tax will be levied on wholesalers at the time beverages are delivered to the dispensary. Proponents of the bill said it would force liquor sellers to absorb the tax, although the bill placed no prohibitions against raising the wholesale price to absorb the tax and passing it on to consumers indirectly.

Since the bill contained an emergency clause, all liquor delivered to the state dispensary hereafter will be taxed an additional 20 per cent on its wholesale price. Other federal and state taxes on alcoholic beverages of more than four per cent alcohol by weight had amounted to about 40 per cent of the wholesale price.

The governor vetoed one bill which he said would permit a landlord to dispossess a tenant almost immediately upon filing a complaint against the tenant in an action of unlawful detainer.

SALE
HOLLYWOOD — Any aspiring candidate who wants to wear President Roosevelt's lucky hat, while carrying his victorious campaign, can have it for the price of the movie "The Great Dictator," which is running here.

The hat was given to Gen. Herholt by President Roosevelt and will be sold at the annual "Gambol of the Stars" Monday night. Proceeds of the sale will go to the motion picture relief fund.

CONCESSION

ADA, Okla. — Andrew Harden owned a two-room air-conditioned log cabin on a 10-acre tract in the center of the Rich Fitta oil field. He wouldn't lease it for drilling for all the money in the world. Yesterday, Harden, an 80-year-old Indian, died in the cabin he had built in 1898 for his bride. A couple of years ago, he had his clay-clinked log cabin air conditioned. It was almost his only concession to modern living standards despite the fact his health in all reached $1,000,000.

London Celebrates Lend-Lease Passage

Roosevelt Frees Arms Flood

WASHINGTON, March 14 (UP)—President Roosevelt said today he was seeking a formula to extend the social security program and to equalize benefits for aged persons eligible for aid under the federal-state system.

He predicted developments along this line might be anticipated this spring. He said he was confident the formula he seeks is one that can be worked out.

Mr. Roosevelt observed, however, that achievement of utopia cannot be expected in a year. He said his plan called for a little broadening of the program year by year with gradual equalization of benefits for aged persons.

His formula of plan program as now constituted is not sufficiently broad. There are several millions of Americans, now excluded, who should be brought under the program, he said.

The general idea, he said, is to revise the plan so the size of old age benefits will be not so entirely dependent on ability of states to match federal grants.

In some cases, he said, old age benefit recipients in rich states are receiving grants up to four or five times those available for similar persons in less prosperous states.

His formula, he said, would be the federal grants on the per capita wealth of any given state. That would not penalize richer states, said the President, but would call upon the federal government to add to its allocations for poorer states. At the same time, he said, the formula would not permit any state to escape its own rightful obligations. He added you cannot ask a state to contribute on a level beyond its taxable wealth and its per capita wealth. This would equalize existing difficulties.

Roosevelt Signs Aid Bill and Acts

WASHINGTON, March 14 (UP)—President Roosevelt today signed a bill authorizing the transfer of $100,000,000 to the War Relocation Authority.

The bill also authorized the transfer of $100,000,000 to the War Relocation Authority.

City Water Main Breaks—And Citizens Go Bathless

By O. A. KELLER
You never miss the water 'til the well runs dry.

And last night and this morning—even into the afternoon—thousands of local citizens took this old saying literally.

However, the well running dry had nothing to do with it. Rather it was a major break in the main 24-inch water line which runs from the filter plant and the clear well south of the city, into town.

Old Main Folds
The main "went out" between 8 and 8:30 p. m. yesterday, as soon as can be figured out, and cause today was laid to condition of the old wooden main. Water had been turned from the main about 7 p. m. in order that workmen might make a connection with another line on Washington south.

Officials this afternoon said that after the pressure was dropped, the old wooden main just "folded up."

In other words the pressure had apparently been holding it together, with aid of the steel hoops which bind the various sections of the pipe together.

Several years ago an effort was made to float a bond issue to install a new cast iron line to replace the "antique" wooden line but the citizens voted down the proposal.

By estimate, at least 11,000 of the 12,000 citizens of Twin Falls were affected by the lack of water until about noon today when repairs had been completed and the water started to pour—slowly at first—back into the main. The repairs worked from 8:30 p. m. yesterday until 10:30 a. m. today before the job was finished. Steel and cast iron pipe was used to bridge the gap between

Late FLASHES

CAIRO, March 14 (UP)—Britain's new thrust into western Ethiopia has been pushed as far as Asosa, 35 miles inside the frontier from the Anglo-Egyptian Sudan, and Ethiopian patriots have occupied positions near Debra Markos, only 115 miles from Addis Ababa, middle east headquarters said today.

LONDON, March 14 (UP)—The air ministry reported tonight that a record breaking total of 13 German night raiders was brought down in the course of the big Nazi night air attack upon Liverpool, Glasgow and other coastal areas.

NEW YORK, March 14 (UP)—A new type of diving scout-bomber designed for the United States navy, which can haul a heavier bomb load farther and faster than any dive-bomber ever built, was announced today by the Curtiss-Wright corporation.

The plane is known as the Curtiss XBR-1. It is a low-wing, all-metal, low-wing monoplane with a 1,700 horsepower Wright cyclone engine, designed to operate from aircraft carriers.

Liverpool, Other Food Centers in Path of Raiders

By NED RUSSELL
LONDON, March 14 (UP)—German planes, hundreds strong, bombed Liverpool, Glasgow and other coastal areas in almost unprecedented fury during the night, striking at ports, shipbuilding centers and food distribution points in reinforcement of the spring blitzkrieg submarine campaign. Retaliating for the smashing royal air force raids on Germany Wednesday night and seeking to cut the throat of Britain's ocean communications, the German planes struck mercilessly at harbor and stock facilities, ships and the great yards in which the new ships are being built day and night.

It was the second straight night of bombing for Liverpool, Glasgow and other coastal areas. The first raid on the northeast coast city struck its first raid of high intensity of the war. Other coastal points were bombed to lesser extent.

Berlin reported the German high command had issued special orders to squadrons commander to concentrate on food industries, food warehouses and public utilities.

Drop Secondary Bombs
Raids of German planes dropped first bombs on Liverpool, Glasgow and other coastal areas. The bombs were dropped on an important ship building district. They started fires, small and large, and caused considerable damage. New plans of planes were dropped explosive bombs.

Explosive bombs damaged and wrecked.

Liverpool and the Mersey estuary were hit by bombs, but escaped severely than it had done the previous night. But Glasgow and the Clyde estuary escaped the greatest damage yet.

The principal target on the night raid was the ship building district. The bombs were dropped on an important ship building district. They started fires, small and large, and caused considerable damage. New plans of planes were dropped explosive bombs.

Army to Call 3,900 Youths April 7 to 11

SAN FRANCISCO, March 14 (UP)—Headquarters of the ninth army corps announced today 3,900 youths would be inducted into army service in the fifth draft quota between April 7 and 11 in the ninth area.

The number was the smallest since the first draft quota last November.

The state assignments for the fifth quota were: California 2,742; Washington 421; Oregon 207; Montana 187; Utah 109; Idaho 140; and Nevada 43.

Idaho Divided
Major General Ernest D. Peck, commander of the corps area, announced the following assignments for the area quota: Post MacArthur, 1,371 men from southern California; Presidio of Monterey, 1,371 men from northern California; Fort Lewis, Wash., all the men from Washington, Oregon and Montana and 88 of the Idaho contingent; Fort Douglas, Utah, all the men from Utah and Nevada and the remaining 102 of the Idaho draft.

These stations are induction centers where the men will be received, classified, and assigned to training units.

Follows Plan
The reduction in the draft quota was in line with a recent announcement from Washington, indicating a drop in the number of boys called into service for one-year training.

The first draft took approximately 1,800 youths, most of them volunteers, into the army from the ninth area.

The second draft, Jan. 20 to Feb. 3, drew in 7,722; the third, Feb. 17 to March 14, drew 17,700; and the fourth, which begins March 17 and runs to March 31, called for 10,000 men in the ninth area.

SALES REGISTER SLIGHT ADVANCE

NEW YORK, March 14 (UP)—Retail trade scored a further moderate rise this week despite "the setback to spring buying occasioned by the wintry weather," Dun and Bradstreet, Inc. reported today.

Dollar volume of retail sales was estimated 8 to 10 per cent above the corresponding 1940 period, compared with a year-to-year gain of 7 to 12 per cent in the previous week. The comparison with a year ago were somewhat distorted because of the early Easter in 1940.

Meanwhile, a steady stream of orders for current and future needs was reported at wholesale.

CHAMBER URGES POWER HEARINGS

Directors of the Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce today passed a resolution urging that further hearings on the proposed of the Idaho Power company to develop water power stations at several points along the Snake river be held in Twin Falls.

The vote on the resolution was unanimous and it was pointed out that it was "no expression" of opinion of the Chamber of Commerce on the question but simply an appeal which would permit the opposition to express "its side of the case."

It was pointed out in the resolution that "inasmuch as approximately 1,500 to 2,000 citizens have expressed opposition to this matter, and numerous citizens are favorable—they be not required to travel to the capital city, but that the hearing be held in Twin Falls or some other suitable place in this vicinity."

The resolution also explained that because of a misunderstanding over previous hearings, so previous work was great.

"All citizens of Idaho who are interested should be given an opportunity to attend such a hearing," the proposal said.

Action was also taken to have the state highway be widened and the Twin Falls area.

Carl Anderson, president of the Chamber, urged that the Chamber should be given an opportunity to attend such a hearing.

It's Difficult Time When Modern City Has No Water!

Here's the "trouble spot" which caused suspension of water delivery in Twin Falls last night and this morning. Shows above in the section of the old wooden line which workmen got in to take the place of the old wooden line which collapsed last night. On the left is Bob Walsh, in charge of sewer and water main work in Twin Falls. The workmen labored all night to get the water break fixed.

Tom Costell, safe worker, looks a little dejected as he waits for the water to come back on so that he can continue his job of washing dishes. Finally, the other restaurant workers, he brought water from wells so the "bleeding" tank could continue. Some restaurants used paper cups for water and coffee in order that dirty dishes could be held at a minimum. Some cafes brought water from the wells in new garbage cans, purchased for just that purpose.

Cecil Walker, a bellhop at the Fortine hotel, comes to be earlier "coming right up" in the above picture. You guessed it—he's carrying a bucket of heated water up to a guest. The water was from wells. It was the only water available. He says he's been working all night. "We can expect guests to wash in cold water," he says.

NEA Service, Inc.

All characters, incidents and organizations in this serial are entirely fictitious.

YESTERDAY, Beatrice Huntington Davenport, rich, bored, heiress to a fortune of millions, in her stately mansion in Twin Falls, Idaho, sat at a table in the dining room, waiting for her breakfast. She had just received a letter from her mother, Mrs. Huntington, who had written her to come to the city and see her. Beatrice had never before seen her mother, and she was curious to know what she was like. She had heard that her mother was a very beautiful woman, and she was sure that she would be just like the women she had seen in the movies. She had been told that her mother was a very kind and generous woman, and she was sure that she would be just like the women she had seen in the movies. She had been told that her mother was a very kind and generous woman, and she was sure that she would be just like the women she had seen in the movies.

POT SHOTS

WITH
The Gentleman in the Third Row

In Which the City Faces Some Litigation

Dear Pot Shots:

I'm not only registered, but I have a dirty taste in my mouth over the whole thing.

"I was a wonderful sleep I had last night. Then I opened my eyes this morning (partially closed with the usual stuff) and closed for the bathroom.

"You guessed it. No water, because of something that happened to the main. A telephone call to the city hall and a cheerful voice told me that it would be on again about 10:30. I got to work before 7:30.

"Here's the point I intend to use this city on:

"—Being of the poorer class, I couldn't shave because I use a safety razor and it's no fun without water. —A bad of toothpaste in your mouth has been had night.

"I didn't wash my teeth.

"—I had to have coffee for breakfast instead of coffee. Thank something or other we did have a bottle of milk in the ice box.

"I've had a sore throat and, because of the lack of water, I couldn't wash away the grime I had on my face last night.

"—And there's several other things which I couldn't do.

"This suit will be entered by my attorney I find that the wife washes with cold cream or something else. . . and I used to think she was crazy. —E. E. Ellington

IT'S ILL WIND THAT ETC.

—A number of loutish little boys heading for school today with suspiciously cheerful grins on their faces.

—The water in the city is so temporary lack of city water, we think there can be only one answer—no ear scrubbing could be perpetrated on many little boys this morning.

CANDOR, VERY CANDID

There's nothing like downright candor to provide variety in the world in which candor is too often shackled.

—The case of Pocatello folks climbed aboard Mac's elevator and said they wanted to go to the office at which machine licenses are sold. One thing led to another until the lady (who will never see 38 again) remarked laughingly: "Don't make me blush."

—This was also said by the lady of the calm master-of-ack statement: "You're too old to blush."

—This, we're advised, stopped the lady.

—(Pot's note: Our sleuth, we regret to report, was reminiscence in not displaying his usual activity was under way.)

—Somebody suddenly noticed something drastically wrong.

—Water was pouring down the post it came spouting through the ceiling. This was called by the boys in the city main. Rivulets formed on the floor.

—The cops dashed the frantic management.

—And found some small boy had left the water faucet merrily running wide open but the boys in the theory, we mean, that there ain't got enjoy hearing of them as has got.

—That night at the bowling alley the usual cheerful activity was under way.

WANTED: HUBBIES WHO STAY AT HOME

Dear Third Row Man:

Some of us women marry because we hate to be alone all the time. And then some of us get divorces for the same reason. —Isidore Galt

MR. REYNOLDS (ALLEGEDLY)

Dear Pot's:

So help me, a button! says this is true.

—As though Jim Reynolds started bowing last fall. Well, one afternoon this week he visited the long-ailing in company of John Carey and what they were doing he rolled a game of 245, which you know is nothing to sneeze at.

—The other day when Jim came into the former's cafe to bring a little. He ordered coffee and drank it. When he was all through he came to the coffee, and went "down the hatch" when Jim drank the same. —Empty Mouthpiece

FAMOUS LAST LINE

THE GENTLEMAN IN THE THIRD ROW

Dear Pot Shots:

I'm not only registered, but I have a dirty taste in my mouth over the whole thing.

"I was a wonderful sleep I had last night. Then I opened my eyes this morning (partially closed with the usual stuff) and closed for the bathroom.

"You guessed it. No water, because of something that happened to the main. A telephone call to the city hall and a cheerful voice told me that it would be on again about 10:30. I got to work before 7:30.

"Here's the point I intend to use this city on:

"—Being of the poorer class, I couldn't shave because I use a safety razor and it's no fun without water. —A bad of toothpaste in your mouth has been had night.

"I didn't wash my teeth.

"—I had to have coffee for breakfast instead of coffee. Thank something or other we did have a bottle of milk in the ice box.

"I've had a sore throat and, because of the lack of water, I couldn't wash away the grime I had on my face last night.

"—And there's several other things which I couldn't do.

"This suit will be entered by my attorney I find that the wife washes with cold cream or something else. . . and I used to think she was crazy. —E. E. Ellington

Cave Men of 1941

Back in the dim past, people who study these things tell us, primitive men lived in caves. Unable to build habitations above ground which would be safe from wild beasts, they chose natural caves as their homes, and lived in them as the beasts.

Untold thousands of years have passed, and today the people of one of the most progressive countries in the world are forced to live in a manner that is all too much like that. Stories from England, horrible stories, tell of children in provincial cities who have not emerged from their air-rail shelters in a month; one shelter was found in which aged and infirm people have remained for four months.

Write that down, too, historians of mankind, when you come to tell later generations about 1941!

We Are All on Trial

It is not too much to say that today every human institution as we have known it is on trial for its life. We're not being panicky or radical when we say that, for it is only an extension of remarks made before the eastern regional conference of the American bankers' association by ABA President P. D. Houston. Said he:

"We live in a dynamic world in which no institution has a right to public support or can continue in business for long unless it renders a constructive service designed to meet the changing conditions of a dynamic Society. That is the basic challenge of the social and economic order."

The naked fact that such a statement can be made by a leading banker to bankers is startling evidence, in itself, of how dynamic the world has become. Such statements were not being made by bankers to bankers in 1925. By an odd chance, almost at the same moment, President W. M. Martin of the New York Stock Exchange, paused on his way to enter the army to tell members of the exchange almost exactly the same thing—that their institution will die unless it adjusts itself to the times.

Such challenges are made today in nearly every group which bears social responsibility. Educators are raking over the school system fore and aft to determine whether it is adjusted to present-day conditions. New plans for medical and dental care, and for public health are being canvassed by physicians themselves. The law steps down from its grand pedestal at every gathering of lawyers and judges, and looks itself in the eye.

It is no different with newspapers, radio, book publishers, builders, merchandisers, insurance men, and—yes—labor leaders. The more progressive of all these and many other groups are looking hard at themselves and their institutions.

Use Local Labor First

There is not yet anything like a general shortage of labor, in spite of the demands of the defense program. Yet there have been some fields, usually fields of highly-specialized skills, in which some shortages have cropped up locally.

Some employers have therupon "gone scouting" for the needed help, by advertising in out-of-town newspapers and by other means.

This is wrong, Defense Commissioner Knudsen avers. It causes unnecessary migration of labor, disturbances of established labor standards in local areas, high rates of turnover, and other wasteful and inefficient practices.

Use the public employment offices first, Knudsen urges. Only after consultation with the local public employment office should employers begin to beat the bushes for help, Knudsen believes. That is coming from a man not only in present high public employment, but of past experience in high private business. It ought not to be disregarded lightly.

BUILDERS OF BRAIN POWER

DR. PAUL HANLY PURIFY
BY DONALD A. LAIRD
Author of "Increasing Personal Efficiency"

This morning Dr. Paul Hanly Purify did a half day's work before you or I were out of bed.

By getting up at 1:30 in the morning, he can save four hours without a single interruption or distraction—no interruptions for those doing creative, original work. His office is at the Catholic University of America, in Washington.

Although city bred himself—the boy was born in Cambridge, Mass.—he has been a farmer and city boy. He is an authority on those youths of his parents' generation who are being reared in the city. He has found that the city boy is not a creature of his parents' creation, as he is often supposed to be.

He suddenly became assertive and rebels at being told what to do or how to do it. He may show a sudden interest in the things that his parents do not understand.

The sudden assertiveness and independence often cause parents to worry because the son seems to care little for them or the home.

Dr. Purify has a boy's own talk program for amateur photographers and artists. One of his hobbies has been the study of the Chinese language, which he has mastered well. Recently he studied Chinese, largely teaching it to himself. To make each minute count, he writes out lists of the Chinese words and keeps these beside his telephone. While he is talking over the telephone, he would study these words.

In somewhat similar fashion, he has mastered Russian and several other languages. He says that the boy of the world today is a creature of his parents' creation, as he is often supposed to be. He has found that the city boy is not a creature of his parents' creation, as he is often supposed to be.

RAF PLAINES STAGE 63RD BOMBING RAID ON HAMBURG

TARGETS HEAVILY BLASTED DURING NIGHT OF FIRING

LONDON, March 14 (AP)—Royal Air Force planes made their greatest attack of the war during the night on Hamburg, most bombed of German cities, and attacked targets in other areas of Germany, Holland and the North sea, the air ministry said today.

Great fires were reported burning in the Hamburg area and along the shores of the Elbe river at its mouth. Bremen and Emden were attacked. Oil storage plants were bombed at Rotterdam, two Netherlands airfields were bombed, a coastal command plane torpedoed a German supply ship and other supply ships were bombed and machine gunned. Ship building yards, dock yards and warehouses were attacked at Hamburg, the air ministry said.

"Many heavy bombs fell on ship building and dock yards and warehouses nearby," the ministry said. "The damage done to these objectives already severely bombed 24 hours before, must have been considerable."

It was the first bombing of Hamburg and the second in succeeding nights.

A coastal command ship, it was reported, torpedoed and sank a German supply ship off the Frisian islands during the night.

In one of the many flights by the coastal command yesterday and tonight, the ministry said, a direct hit was obtained on a German supply ship off the Norwegian coast and others were machine gunned.

Six aircraft were missing from all operations, the ministry said.

BERLIN, March 14 (AP)—British planes damaged factories and port works in "a number of towns in northwest Germany," particularly Hamburg, last night, the German high command said today. It is rare the high command admits military damage in British attacks.

DAIRYING DISCUSSED
At Kiwanis Session
BUIH, March 14 (Special)—Curtis J. Lovelace, Burley, Idaho state dairy inspector, was guest speaker at the Kiwanis luncheon Wednesday noon. Mr. Lovelace, who has been in Buih the past several weeks, has been working in cooperation with the Egg milk plant in educating the farmers and dairy producers in new sanitary methods of handling milk.

In his talk he told of the 20 years progress that had been made in dairying in Idaho—at the present time, five plants in southern Idaho produce more dairy products than did the entire state in 1920. He also said that two plants in this district produce more than all of the state of Idaho north of Welser.

Southern Idaho's largest industry is dairying and the highest yielding herds for the state are in this territory, he declared. He stated that Idaho ranks fourth in average production per cow and ranks first in the stud-bull association. Our principal market is California and the coast and he was of the opinion that a better quality product would tend to increase that market. Program was in charge of Dr. V. H. Anderson.

Mr. and Mrs. Ferrell Black entertained at bridge with a pot-luck dinner. Prizes were awarded to Mr. and Mrs. Leo Hendrickson, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Goodin and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Strasser.

HIGHLIGHTS FROM LATEST BOOKS

HOW WE MAY LOSE LIBERTY IF WE GO ON TO U. S.
Morris A. Halperin, "Landscapes of Freedom" (Hovell, Beakins: $3.50) is a good book to read now when the liberty of the world is being and perhaps America—hangs in the balance. Mr. Halperin has written the story of personal liberty in the United States from the colonial days to the present, from whitecraft trials to 1940's labor laws. It is a stimulating and shocking to see how far we've come in the matter of freedom and how often we've abused it. Just a hint of what may happen here again if war comes is given in the following bit from the chapter on the "Holy World War for Liberty."

Unhappily, though Europe was momentarily saved from the Hun, freedom was almost lost at home. Conscription was followed by a procession of other laws designed in the name of liberty to smother the age act was aimed not alone at Prussian spies, but at American citizens. The explosion of the great crusade to save the world for democracy.

Some months later the President asked and received from congress a still more severe measure, the sedition act of May, 1918, a statute which in effect made any criticism of the Wilson administration illegal. Though this measure survived in violation of the sedition law of 1798, so hotly denounced by Thomas Jefferson, it was enacted without difficulty. The press was gagged by administrative decree, the communications and transportation systems were taken over by the government, and the president was clothed with arbitrary power to set up an absolute dictatorship over the national economy.

It was not enough that the citizen be deprived of many of his rights; he had also to be aroused against his own government. The job was left mainly to the committee on public information, which under the direction of George Creel, its chairman, flooded the country with propaganda. . . . told the people precisely what they must believe.

MARTIN TO STAY AS GOP LEADER

WASHINGTON, March 14 (AP)—House-Republican Leader Joseph W. Martin, Jr., of Massachusetts, seeking to ease a bitter intra-party row over foreign policy, has agreed to remain as national Republican committee chairman for an indefinite period. It was learned today.

Martin will present his resignation to a committee meeting March 24, but will acquiesce when it is turned down.

The Republican party is split wide open by the battle over President Roosevelt's war-aid bill. Party leaders here appeared to Martin to remain for the sake of unity. They feared if he quit, the choice of his successor would only aggravate the split between isolationists and Republican supporters of Roosevelt foreign policy.

Mr. Hansen urges all enrolled members to attend the next session March 20 in order to guarantee the holding of classes in the future. Other interested persons are also invited, according to Mr. Hansen.

Ann Sheridan Goes Back to Job in Films

HOLLYWOOD, March 14 (AP)—Ann Sheridan—remember her? Oomph?—Went back to work in the movies today at $600 a week, after a six-month slowdown strike which cost her $15,000 in payoffs.

The Warner brothers took down their Annie—doesn't live here—any more sign, everybody kissed and had a good cry, and red-haired Annie of Denton, Tex., returned to the job at exactly what she was getting in the first place.

Forgotten were her accusations that the Warners were trying to starve her to death. Brushed aside were their charges that she was trying to hold them up. The brothers even refused to give her what seemed to be a clear-cut victory over their most curvaceous star. They said merely that they were delighted to have her back.

She goes immediately into a movie called "Navy Blue" and after 40 weeks at that, old $50 per, her agent, Myron Selznick, will try to talk the boss into booting her pay.

Few purchases man makes in life cannot be improved when ensuing years have raised his fortunes. One of these is the diamond solitaire you buy for her today. Regardless of success in later years, no other gem you ever give can take its place in her affections.

Let us help make your present choice a worthy one. Even the modest stone you buy today can, if chosen wisely, shine on unshamed in company of the costlier gems which may come with later years. Let us show you all the qualities which make a diamond precious—its color, cutting, degree of perfection and carat-weight.

BOCK IS BACK!

Bock Beer, annual harbinger of Spring, is here again with all the pomp and ceremony that becomes a century-old tradition.

In pre-refrigeration days, winter was the only season when beer could be given full lagering. The brew was placed in cellars or caves, not to be disturbed until Spring. Thus Bock became known as a toast to the end of winter.

Bohemian Club Bock Beer is a treat for Spring-thrifty throats and a delight to people who prefer a dark, full-bodied, palatable potation.

No expense has been spared in brewing Bohemian Bock. Special high grade Bock malts and the exclusive Bohemian process have produced as tasty Bock as ever greeted robins and rosebuds.

BOB CATS WELCOME STATE TOURNAMENT

Burely Cage Club Trims Bruins in Play-off Contest

A cool-headed band of Burely Bobcats today prepared to enter the state tournament at Boise next week after trouncing the Twin Falls Bruins for the third straight time here last night in a long delayed play-off. The final score was 27-18 in a game that was a nip-and-tuck affair until the last quarter.

The Bobcats go to the state meet as the No. 2 team from this district—with Oakley Hornets holding the No. 1 spot.

In their opening games of the tournament at Coeur d'Alene, St. Maries and Burely tackled the host Bobcats.

Ends Tournament
Last night's play put the end on the cage season here and also completed a tournament that took eight nights to play and was started on March 8. An argument over whether there should be a play-off game on the second play-off in the game being held up for two days after it had originally been scheduled for Thursday night. Burely had protested having to play Twin Falls for a third time after beating them twice in one day during the meet.

But the Coeur d'Alene made no bones about their ability to handle any team that might be sent to them. After Pat Wallace had scored the first point of the game for the Bruins on a gift shot, Burely took the lead on a field goal and was never headed thereafter. Led by Roberts and Seede and Acacurri, each of whom got a basket in the first three quarters, the Bobcats held an 8-3 advantage at the quarter.

Second half play saw the Bruins get back into the ball game. Glenn Olson made it 8-8, but Acacurri got his second basket and the count was 10-8 for the Bobcats. He then tipped one in from under the basket to make it 10-7, but Roberts got a free throw and there came right back to make it 10-8. Olson got it 13-7 with three minutes to go to the half.

Bruins Recover
Then the Twin Falls club put on a little fireworks of its own. Tommy Cartney fired a medium-long one that was good and a minute later Ben York scored under the basket for another. Burely took three out with eight seconds to go. Chuck Thomas and another field goal after a Burely fumble and Chuck Thomas dribbled to the center of the floor and looped a lone one in, but the count at 13-11 just as the half ended.

The two teams played an even game through the third frame also—with Burely always got a free throw and Jones his field goal. The Bruins' Ben Seede counted again for Twin Falls. Seede got a gift shot and another field goal to run the count to 19-16 in the third frame. Seede still in favor of the Bobcats.

Offense Clicks
After playing through three minutes with no change in the score, the Burely offense finally started to click and in 30 seconds the Coeur d'Alene basketball team started to practically took the game away. All Twin Falls could do during the final minutes of play was send a pair of free throws as all field goals rolled off the rim. However, the tight Bobcat defense was holding the Bruins to a 19-16 score at the close-in shots were held off.

In the last four minutes of play Burely ran in seven points of the Twin Falls defense, which had collapsed, combining with fair scores, was followed.

Awards Made
Following the game presentation of awards was made by Tournament Manager Ed Ross. Ross presented a trophy to Oakley and was accepted by Co-Captains Monroe Rogers and Keith Elliott, Captain

Lovell out of M-Meet; Rupert Loses

SALT LAKE CITY, March 14 (UP)—For the first time in three years, Lovell, Wyo., will not be represented in tomorrow night's finals of the Mormon M-Men all church basketball tournament.

The Lovell squad, 1940 champion and 1939 runner-up, was eliminated last night by the Arlington quintet from Hollywood, Calif.—a quintet that is better known as the Jones boys.

Of the five players on the Arlington squad that beat Lovell, 41 to 35, last night, three are named Jones—Harold Jones, Collins Jones and Talmage Jones, all brothers. A fourth player is Bernie Johnson.

Johnson was the star of the tourney's major upset. He scored 25 points—including 10 in the last quarter.

In the semi-finals tonight, Arlington will play Sixth-Seventh from Salt Lake City, Sixth-seventh down to eighth from 50 to 35 in the quarter-final round.

In the other bracket, the favored Manly squad from Provo, winner over Garland, Utah, last night, 25 to 24, will take on Grandview, Utah, conquerer of Ephraim, Utah, north west tonight.

In consolation round games last night the scores were: Iona, 37, Gridley 34; St. John 40, Salt Lake first 34; Beaver east 44, Logan fifth 41; and Magna 50, Rupert second 41.

Consolation games tonight will be Garland vs. Ephraim north; Iona vs. St. John; Beaver east vs. Magna, and the left-handed All-Murray team will be defeated twice before it is eliminated from the tournament.

Cuban Dancer Beaten up By Van Mungo

HAVANA, March 14 (UP)—Francisco Callada Carreno, Cuban dancer known as Gonzalo, showed police a number of black and blue marks which he said he suffered in a fight with Van Mungo, Brooklyn Dodger pitcher.

Soon after the alleged fight, Mungo departed by plane for Miami when he was suspended and fined $100 by Dodger President Larry MacPhail for "breaching discipline."

The Latin dancer threatened to sue Mungo for $100,000.

Belleose Favored To Win Over Tami Mauriello

NEW YORK, March 14 (UP)—Steve Belleose is a 2-1 favorite to whip Tami Mauriello tonight in his 10-round neighborhood brawl at Madison Square Garden.

This battle will settle, at least, the middleweight championship of the Bronx, since both fighters are from that hitherto.

Mauriello will weigh about 161 pounds to Belleose's 155.

Cleveland Again Talks Pennant Prospects As Stars Work out Under Peckinpough

By HARRY GRAYSON
(NEA Service Sports Editor)

PT. MYERS, Fla., March 12—As exclusively predicted by Cleveland supporters 20 years ago and virtually every spring since, the Indians will win the American league pennant this season.

To a greater degree than ever, the Tribe's front office and Cleveland sports writers start with the assumption that they have the best club.

Maybe they have, but if there is a slip-up somewhere along the line, which there has been for two decades, the good people of the lakefront are again built up for a terrific letdown.

This is particularly unfortunate in this instance because Roger Peckinpough is back as a major league form for the first time since he was removed in mid-season 1933 with Alva Bradley's famous remark: "The only thing that the manager, the public fires him."

Last season the Redskins said their only hope was Oscar Vail, who gave them the jitters.

Now, with what they contended was the principal reason for their failure removed, they are different on the spot, and Peckinpough is right there with them.

Mel Harder Looks Better
This easily could be Cleveland's year. They've taken to being and Bob Feller is insurance against losing streak. Mel Harder's arm appears to be way ahead of schedule, and if the left-handed Al—Murray and Smith—repeat their performance of 1940, there'll be loud cheering in Cuyahoga county.

James Baggett, Jr. and Harry Eisenstat should be of some help, and the old blokes, Clint Brown and Al Stewart are standing in Dewey Adkins and Millard Howell, strapping right-handers.

Adkins, in his first year out, struck out 50 in bagging 15 while losing 8 for the last-place Pine Bluff array of the Cotton States league and he topped 7 of 8 for Oklahoma City.

Dixie Howell, recalled from Wilkes-Barre, looked more than all right in a couple of relief appearances last night.

Much excitement on Jeff Heath
Rollie Hemery only has to carry on to give Cleveland speed catching, and the club's relief pitcher, Gene Dandridge, Young Jim Hegan's batting improved under Rogers Hornsby in Oklahoma City.

Bob Foster, who teamed with Conrad Hal Trosky, Ray Mack, Lou Bourgeois and Ken Keltner, and few specialists rated as accomplished O.C. Grimes and better posted Russ Peters.

If it is true that John Geoffrey Heath's two poor years were the personal

Dempsy Asks Firpo to Come To America
NEW YORK, March 14 (UP)—Jack Dempsy awaited a reply today to a cabled proposal that Luis Angel Firpo bring his Argentine profe, the United States for a heavyweight campaign.

The young "bull" is Abel Costac—a 220-pound Argentine cowboy long being groomed as a white hope by shaggy-haired Firpo, who belted Dempsy out of the ring back in 1923.

Mac Gets His Pants Patched for Trip to Nassau—Call on Duke

By HENRY McLEHON
DAYTONA BEACH, Fla., March 14 (UP)—Thank goodness I had the foresight to have my flannel pants let out and get some half-soles on those brown and white sport shoes. Now, all I need to do is get that dog-bite tear in my Norfolk jacket fixed up, and I'll be ready to take off for Nassau with the other fellows Saturday.

Their note forgot to say they hoped to see the sheriff again soon.

Band Boosters To Give Benefit

HANSEN, March 14 (Special)—At the Monday evening meeting of the Band Mothers' Booster club, plans were made for a benefit card party to be held at the high school auditorium Friday evening, March 21.

Arrangements were made for a special section at the games to be allotted to high school students. Funds will go toward the 30 band suits which have recently been ordered.

The order was placed with the De Moelein Brothers company, Chicago, for uniforms of wool serge. A drum major's suit, and boots and shoes for three twirlers were also ordered, with the dresses of the twirlers to be made by the home economics class.

Troy Smith has been chosen drum major, while Dorothy Tysor, Barbara Pennington and Thelma Farnsworth will lead the marching band as twirlers.

Now Rocking Chair brings you flavor that challenges "wave-rocked" whiskeys of old

These canny skippers who took their whiskeys "down to the sea in ships" taught Mr. Boston the importance of "rocking" whiskey.

So today—through controlled application in his special blending process—he recaptures in Rocking Chair the matchless flavor and rich mellowness of whiskeys "rocked in the keg."
