

SLAYS MASS TROOPS FOR DEFENSE

Strikes Increase As CIO Calls for Added Walk-outs

Labor troubles in the plants of the nation's industrial giants, working at top speed on national defense contracts, increased today and brought these major developments:

1. CIO steel workers walked out at the big Cambria plant of Bethlehem Steel Corp., at Johnstown, Penn., in protest against setting up of ballot boxes for election of officers for an employee representation plan.
2. Settlement of a similar strike at the Bethlehem Corp. home plant in Pennsylvania was announced.
3. An estimated 2,000 United Automobile Workers (CIO) returned to work at the Allis-Chalmers manufacturing plant, closed 65 days by a strike, in compliance with a request from federal defense directors at Washington.
4. Threats of drastic action in Congress and in at least ten state legislatures to curtail disputes disrupting defense production.

The walkout at Johnstown followed a threat by the steel workers' organizing committee (CIO) that their workers would strike and disrupt production of heavy armor plating for warships if ERP ballot boxes were set up in the mill. Hundreds of CIO members poured out of the gates a short while after the morning shift had started. The mill employs 15,000.

Bethlehem Strike Settled

Settlement of the Bethlehem, Penn. strike was announced only a few hours earlier.

The strike was called at three days' notice by the CIO. It was a walkout of 15,000 workers and its object was to force the company to accept CIO representation.

The United States Steel Corporation and the steel workers' union announced that they had agreed to a settlement of the strike.

The settlement was announced at the home of the president of the United States Steel Corporation.

4 PLANTS TOLD TO REOPEN FOR DEFENSE ORDERS

WASHINGTON, March 28 (UP)—The new defense mediation board today asked management and striking workers in four vital defense corporations to resume production immediately and then to appear before the board in an attempt to work out permanent settlement of their controversies.

Within 24 hours after Secretary of Labor Frances Perkins certified the four disputes to the new board, Vice Chairman William H. Davis appointed panels to take up the cases.

These involve strikes at the International Harvester company and Western Electric at the Vandium Corporation of America and Universal Cylinders Co., both of which have been considered "essential" by the War Relocation Authority.

TWINS INCLUDED IN AREA'S QUOTA

Believed to be among the first twin brothers in the west inducted into the army under selective service, Russell S. Ormuth and Rex Eugene Ormuth, both of Twin Falls, will form the nucleus of the replacement quota which leaves here the evening of April 2.

The Ormuth twins, both volunteers, will go to Salt Lake City with Clifford R. Turley, Claude B. Maglaughlin and Fred L. Gonzalez, all of Twin Falls.

Names of the first group were announced today by Capt. J. H. Beaver, Jr., chief clerk of the draft board for Twin Falls county area No. 1, after the fifth man successfully passed medical examinations.

The five young men form area No. 1 replacements as provided because of four rejections at previous calls, and because one youth in the March quota was ill and unable to be sent. Area No. 1 quota for the regular April call is to be nine men.

Work Abandoned at Springs; Plaintiff Drops Court Action

District Judge J. W. Porter today, at request of counsel for the plaintiff, dismissed a suit against the Idaho Power company seeking a temporary—then permanent—injunction which would restrain that concern from developing the Niagara springs power site along the Snake river between Buhl and Huhl.

E. L. Rayborn, attorney for Harold E. Harvey, Buhl sportsman who started the case, asked that the case be dismissed on the grounds that officials of the company have caused equipment to be moved from the site and all work there has ceased.

Mr. Rayborn's statement to the court this morning said:

PROBE DISSOLVES MURDER THEORY

JEROME, March 28 (Special)—Fear that a woman found murdered near Spearman, Tex., might be Mrs. Rachel Hall Wade, missing Jerome resident, was dispelled today after Sheriff Lee S. Johnson received telegraphic word from the southern state.

Sheriff H. Wilbanks, who queried Sheriff Johnson said, "But the man on the grounds at the time this explosion" the theory that the slain woman was Mrs. Wade.

Not the Same

"Checkup shows they are not the same women," he said.

Chief factor dissolving the theory which had been current here is the fact that the woman found dead had a dental plate. Mrs. Wade did not.

"The women answered the same general description quite closely," Sheriff Johnson said. "But the man on the grounds at the time this explosion" the theory that the slain woman was Mrs. Wade.

COUNTRY TRAFFIC DEATHS INCREASE

CHICAGO, March 28 (UP)—Traffic deaths in rural areas soared 40 per cent during February, over those for February of last year, the national safety council reported today.

Statistics showed an average reduction of two per cent, the council said, but the rural figures swelled the total to 2,860 for the month, second highest for any February in the nation's history.

The total was only 20 under the all-time high of February, 1937, and was 22 per cent higher than figures for the month last year, despite decreases shown in 11 of the 44 states reporting.

German Threat Looms as Charges of "Insults" Are Reported in Nazi Papers

Jugoslavia massed an army of the toughest fighting men in the Balkans on her frontiers today to protect her newly proclaimed "independence" against threat from any quarter. That such a threat may come at any moment was hinted in dispatches from Berlin which indicated that an urgent demand for Jugoslavia to state her position toward the axis had gone unanswered despite a deadline fixed at noon.

The official German press agency, DNE, reported from Belgrade that Jugoslavia had made no statement of her foreign policy and that such a declaration should be made immediately. This report was confirmed by Leon Kay, United Press staff correspondent at Belgrade.

However, a statement by the late Jugoslav premier, Gen. Nikola Dusan Simovic, emphasized Jugoslavia's independence and her desire to live at peace with all her neighbors indicated clearly that the nation's position toward the axis was not one of hostility.

It seemed doubtful if this concept of neutrality could be reconciled with the axis pact which was signed at Vienna Tuesday by the Jugoslav premier, Gen. Dusan Simovic, in the early hours of yesterday morning.

The German press and Nazi spokesmen broke their silence at the nation's position toward the axis by reporting that the coup d'etat was accomplished by widespread "anti-German" propaganda.

German press reports were filled with insinuations which German officials were warning that German troops were being sent to the border under full instructions to take the necessary steps to bring the nation's position toward the axis to a state of neutrality.

Jugoslav troops moved to the border under full instructions to take the necessary steps to bring the nation's position toward the axis to a state of neutrality.

REVOLVING FUND IS CREATED FOR TAX COLLECTION

BOISE, March 28 (UP)—The state board of exorbitants today took the first step in formulating a system for collection of Idaho's new 20 per cent tax on the wholesale price of liquor by authorizing creation of a $300,000 revolving fund out of which the tax will be paid.

Money for the revolving fund will be taken from the $50,000 reserve in the state liquor fund, State Auditor Calvin W. Wright said today.

Details of the tax-collecting plan were being worked out by state liquor dispensary auditors.

The board, however, has decided to abandon most of the tax-collecting scheme suggested by Attorney General Bert H. Miller after liquor companies balked at paying the tax under the present plan, which has not received final approval.

The state would discount the bills of liquor companies 20 per cent when they come up for payment, instead of paying the tax on state funds and losing the revenue.

Money derived from the discount would be used to pay the revolving fund, and the tax money taken from the revolving fund would be paid to the state treasurer in compliance with the newly-enacted law.

Wright indicated the board would maintain the revolving fund, the revolving fund, and the tax money taken from the revolving fund would be paid to the state treasurer in compliance with the newly-enacted law.

Autos Tossed in River at Bethlehem Steel

The face of these and other labor disturbances throughout the nation, congressmen in Washington discussed giving the administration power to take over and operate factories until their labor troubles could be settled; the Oklahoma senate passed a bill making it a felony punishable by three years imprisonment and a $10,000 fine to solicit defense project workers for union membership; and the Texas house passed a bill outlining violence against anyone trying to work at a legitimate job.

The Oklahoma bill went to the house; the Texas bill to the senate for final action. Oklahoma said their bill was designed to protect defense project workers.

AUTHOR DETAINED FOR DEPORTATION

WASHINGTON, March 28 (UP)—The justice department today announced that Richard Krebs, alias Jan Valtin, who wrote "Out of the Night," has been taken into custody in New York City on a warrant instituting deportation proceedings against him.

The department said that the German-born Krebs, who was deported from this country since 1933, would be taken to the Ellis Island immigration station, where $5,000 bond will be asked.

The department said that when questioned by officers of the immigration and naturalization service, Krebs admitted that he reentered the United States illegally March 6, 1938, by jumping the ship Ary Lenox at Norfolk, Va., after he had been ordered to remain on board by immigration inspectors.

RADIO STATIONS READY FOR SHIFT

WASHINGTON, March 28 (UP)—More than 800 of the nation's radio stations today made final engineering tests before shifting places on the dial in conformance with the North American radio broadcasting agreement to eliminate interference.

The agreement, signed by the United States, Canada, Mexico and Cuba, will become effective at 3 a. m. Saturday.

Engineers of the Federal communications commission specified the change to eliminate or minimize such radio interference now experienced. Powerful Mexican broadcast stations that interfere with reception in this country will be forced off the air.

The generally untuned shifts will affect all of the nation's broadcast stations in this country. Stations now received above the 70-degree line will be shifted to the lower band and heard at slightly different points.

FARM FUND BILL GIVEN APPROVAL

WASHINGTON, March 28 (UP)—The senate appropriations committee today approved a $100,000,000 agricultural supply bill for fiscal year 1942, carrying $450,000,000 for parity.

Of the $450,000,000 sum for parity, the committee approved bill makes $100,000,000 immediately available for the purchase of agricultural products and the balance would be used in advance to advance parity for farm products in 1942.

The committee's action was contrary to budget recommendations and the desire of administration leaders who wanted parity kept at $110,000,000 this year. Farm blocs, however, increased the parity funds on the last vote, and the appropriation bill the largest one in history.

Better Weather Booms U.S.

NEW YORK, March 28 (UP)—A forecast of a "boom" in the United States economy was made today by a group of economists.

The forecast was based on the expectation that better weather would lead to an increase in agricultural production and a corresponding increase in demand for farm products.

The economists predicted that the United States economy would experience a significant increase in growth over the next several months.

STIMSON URGES DEFENSE SPEED

WASHINGTON, March 28 (Special)—Secretary of War Henry L. Stimson today urged states to speed up the formation of home guard units which would be available for use in event of minor local disturbances or other civil conditions that might retard the defense program.

Many states may face a critical situation, Stimson told a press conference, because their national guard organizations now are in fiscal straits and are not available for such purposes.

His remarks "may be taken to mean" that the federal government is anxious to reduce delays on defense orders caused by strikes. He did not say specifically whether the government planned to follow up its "order" for resumption of work at the All-Chambers plant with similar action regarding other plants where defense work is being held up.

The All-Chambers case was regarded here as a supreme test of the government's ability to cut through mediation efforts and get work resumed on vital orders.

Discussions here in Twin Falls, Stimson noted the army has already supplied .30 caliber rifles, canteens, mauls, belts and ammunitions, and other equipment to some of the states, which he said are making "admirable plans and progress" to have the national guard at their disposal. Actually, he added, units have been set up in only 28 states.

Hitler Faces Tough Task in Settling Yugoslav Situation

By J. W. T. MASON, United Press War Expert

The anti-axis coup d'etat in Yugoslavia contains implications of grave concern for Germany and Italy. Hitler now is placed in a quandary more serious than any other he has faced since he took the decision to try to seize his power into the hands of the potentially inflammable Balkan states.

The Belgrade revolution is upheld by the Yugoslav peoples, as seems probable according to early reports, the future will have to decide whether to try to restore the old regime to power by quickly sending an army into Yugoslavia or whether to evade the existing ties and by awaiting future developments.

If Hitler holds to his new dictum that he would rather negotiate than fight, it can be expected he will not engage in precipitate action.

Signed Athens.

The German viewpoint if necessary can be that Yugoslavia already has signed the triple alliance agreement and it is not necessary for Germany to intervene in Yugoslav domestic affairs. If the new Yugoslav government formally repudiates the triple membership, even then the Führer might hesitate to strike a blow that would bring the Yugoslav army into the picture.

The Yugoslav parliament has not passed on the measure, as did the Bulgarian parliament, and a legal way out for Yugoslavia might conceivably be found by withholding legislative endorsement. As far as the published text of the agreement with Yugoslavia discloses, the Yugoslavs are not pledged, under the triple alliance, to any immediate activity that would give Hitler the right to insist on fulfillment.

Might Start Fire

If the Führer were to try to take command of the Yugoslav situation by military might, resistance of Yugoslavia's army, undoubtedly supported by British troops in Greece, might set the entire Balkan affairs.

Revolution has a way of spreading, and the German hold on the other Balkan countries that have bowed to him must remain precarious to end of the war.

Vote for City Officials Who WILL Cooperate

The Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce, in undertaking its annual activities fund drive, has chosen as its main objective a modern airport for the Magic City.

We should like to remind the people that a modern airport would be our main objective for Twin Falls should we be elected next Tuesday, and we would stand ready at all times to co-operate with the Chamber of Commerce and all other civic organizations to achieve this common goal.

After all, the people are principally interested in electing to city office those men who will best serve the community. It was during Mr. Chapin's administration, and with the co-operation of the Chamber of Commerce, that the land for our airport was purchased and the first budget was set up for preliminary improvements.

It was during his administration, and with the co-operation of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, that our Ball park was constructed.

Many other achievements were recorded during his administration and all were brought about as the result of co-operation with interested organizations. Working with Mr. Chapin throughout that time were Paul R. Taber and Leonard Avant, who now are running with him on his ticket as candidates for councilmen.

That should be sufficient evidence that Chapin, Taber and Avant stand ready, eager and willing to work with all civic organizations for the city's general good—a policy quite in contrast to that of the present mayor who has chosen repeatedly to criticize and minimize the efforts of the Chamber of Commerce and other organizations.

If elected these men will endeavor to secure every public improvement that's feasible and will do their best to avail the city of all possible federal aid, bearing in mind that such projects will be of great benefit to all who are dependent upon relief work.

If the voters elect Chapin, Taber and Avant, they will be assured of good city government—efficient, progressive, and reliable in every respect.

GERMANY PROTESTS JUGOSLAV TREATMENT OF NAZIS

FUEHRER AWAITS REPLY ON POLICY OF NEW LEADERS

By JOSEPH W. GRIGGS, Jr., BEELIN, March 28 (UP)—Reports that Jugoslavia was mobilizing rapidly and had called up several army classes during the night reached diplomatic quarters today as Germany protested to the new Yugoslav government against the alleged mistreatment of German citizens.

The German government had waited a day for a reply to a message which requested that the Yugoslav government make a statement of policy. It was understood that a reply had been asked by noon today (U. S. EST) and admittedly no such reply had been received.

Journalists said that no reply was likely for another 24 hours.

No Policy Declaration

DNS reported from Belgrade that no declaration of policy in foreign affairs has been announced by the Yugoslav government because the official Yugoslav statement still is in the course of preparation.

Troubled observers believed the German government would try to let the situation drift and would insist on quick clarification.

It was made known that reports of mobilization of Germans in Jugoslavia had been "unofficially confirmed" and that the German minister at Belgrade had protested.

An official news agency dispatch from Belgrade said that the most important city streets in Yugoslavia had been occupied by troops who surrounded the German legation "where German women and children were taken for safety."

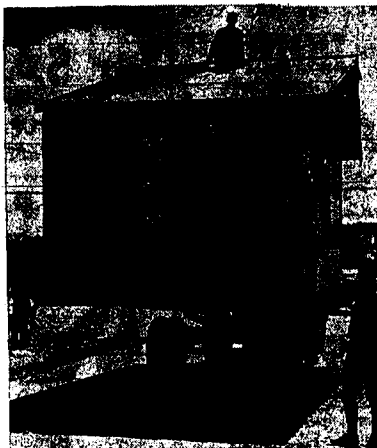

Nazis Confident

Wagely awaiting the answer to their protest, they stated they were confident "on the basis of information available" the answer would be favorable.

"What Adolf Hitler would do if the demand for a statement were ignored, or if the action of the defendant were repudiated, Nazis would not suggest."

Newspapers, as well as spokesmen, were asked to confine any remarks on the Yugoslav situation to generalities until the attitude of the new regime had been made plain.

Half a House Better Than None

Booze time in Milan, Tenn. (normal population: 1,100), brought by the arrival of British airmen, found the town with a housing shortage. So many workers saved their homes in half, loaded the parts on trucks and rolled off down the highway to Milan.

British Airmen Prepare For Flight to Germany

Editor's note: This is another in a series of parallel stories on England and Germany at war. Lyle C. Wilson's story on Germany is on page 10.

By JOE ALEX MORRIS (Copyright by United Press)

The royal air force officers' pointer circles across a big map on the wall of the bomber base briefing room and comes to rest on a German port.

"This," he says to half a hundred young flying officers, "is your target area and this thin line is your target."

The flying officers lean forward, peering up the details outlined in black and white on the chart. Most of them had seen that target port before; had seen it from an altitude of 10,000 feet on a clear night when moonlight brought out contrast between the sea and the land and the British bursts of gunfire dotted the winding coastline.

Outside the airframe briefing room, the low clouds swirling and in 18 hours, three boys will be heading for the German coast, seeking for a pin point on a thousand miles of shore line, carrying death and destruction and the hope of Great Britain for ultimate victory.

These youngsters in giant bombers must do the dirty work by carrying the conflict to the enemy.

Shows Target

The officer's pointer moves again. "These aerial photographs were taken yesterday," he explains. "Here you can see the harbor entrance. Here is the river and the line of docks. Here is your target. Each of you will carry six 500-pounders."

Later that night they will go past the air raid shelters piled with sandbags, the wing commander's office with its two-inch thick steel shutters and the big hangars in which airplanes are seldom to be seen.

He stop in front of Pilot "Bill's" plane, a towering green and brown ship with black underparts for camouflage. A ground crew of five men, working in biting cold with bare hands, is loading bombs.

He climb up into the plane. It is about the size of a commercial air liner. The pilot's seat high up near the entrance is a plate of bare steel. The second crew member, the bomb aimer, has a small collapsible seat but he lies on his stomach on the padded floor to release bombs. Ahead of him, in a little transparent turret at the nose of the craft, is the forward machine gunner.

Full an Sweaters

Flying officers begin pulling on layers of sweaters, wind-breakers, long heavy stockings and overalls of tough, silk-like material. Fleece lined jackets and boots sometimes complete their costume.

They stumble out on the field, where the whir of motors is beginning to break out in distant directions.

"We stand there talking for a bit about unimportant things. We say 'It's cold as hell. But everybody really is thinking about that thin line three hours away on the German coast and wondering if the anti-aircraft fire will be heavy tonight. Then, suddenly, without saying a definite goodbye, Bill is gone into the darkness. We catch one glimpse of him holding himself up to the belly of the bomber before the hatch slams shut and there is only darkness again, and the noise of the mighty motors."

WHEELER, NYE TO SCHEDULE TOURS

WASHINGTON, March 28 (UP)—Two members of the senate opposition, to President Roosevelt's foreign policy prepared today for speaking tours which will carry their warnings against war to the Pacific coast and the agricultural Midwest.

Sen. Burton K. Wheeler, D. Mont., leader of the bloc which unsuccessfully fought passage of the lend-lease bill, said he would make four anti-war speeches during the next nine days in Ohio and Michigan.

Gerald P. Nye, R., N. D., leaves by plane tonight for a similar series of non-interventionist speeches in the far west.

Sen. and Wheeler will speak under the auspices of the America first committee, which will pay their traveling expenses. The committee is headed by Gen. Robert Wood, Chicago mail order executive.

LEVY VOTE WINS BY WIDE MARGIN

Repeating the overwhelming vote of approval given in 1940, voters of the Twin Falls school district have approved a 1941 special levy of four mills by a 241 to 16 ballot.

As expected, the margin of approval was impressive at both voting places. Bickel showed 128 for the levy and only 10 against it; Lincoln showed 113 to favor and six against.

The four-mill levy is needed to balance the district's budget. Total tax rate—including the four mills approved Thursday—will be 16.9 mills per $1 assessed valuation. That represents the lowest levied by any major Idaho school district.

The Public Forum

Praises Men Who Fight War-Making

Editor, Evening Times:

We regard the radio address by Sen. Wheeler a masterpiece in protest to the administration's foreign policy. D. Worth Clark, Hiram Johnson and many other of our noble statesmen in like manner criticized the President's war making. And because Senator Wheeler can see the peril to our beloved country and dares to raise his voice in protest, he is branded as a fifth-columnist, isolationist and pro-Nazi.

The President assures the country again, that no American boy will be sent to Europe. That he won't stand on his head: "Fine, but he will, if he thinks he can win a complete victory over Hitlerism without sending three million of our boys into Europe's slaughter-house. But he plainly promises to give Britain everything she needs. So let us hope that Britain won't need all we have got.

Yet, that all-out-aid stuff has an ominous ring to it. A military campaign, that means much more than "ship or gear, even more than "total defeat." Yes, it means that Europe will need bi-annual installments of seven billion of our dollars perhaps for years to come. O.K., we have plenty of gold to spare, but not a single American boy. Yes, says the President, "130 million of us must sacrifice, for we will save democracy." He should say "75 million of us, and leave the babies, the boys and girls and old people out of the picture, at least for a while. There seems to be no more danger of losing our democracy than there is in us losing our common sense: is there no way by which we can save both without

SIX WILL DIRECT SCOUTING CIRCUS

Six men today had been named to work out a program for the area-wide Boy Scout "circuit" which will be held in Twin Falls sometime in May. It had been announced here today.

Purpose of the various performances, consisting of exhibition acts and competition in various phases of Scoutwork, according to Gordon A. Day, executive, is to show the general public just what the program of Scouting does for a boy.

shoots at everybody in Europe? After all, we think we still have every right and duty to register our humble protest against this thing of pushing the nation into a war in Europe, 4,000 miles from home. But of what avail, this protest, when Mr. Roosevelt thinks that he is always right, and when the major part of the congress is sitting on his coat-tail? It is the Charles McCarthy technique that we see all over the world today. Wherever there was democracy in the world, or a semblance of it, it is being replaced by dictatorial powers, and the great mass of common people in the world will just have to take what is given them.

What we now may ask ourselves, will we ever go back to our horse-and-buggy government, when the war is over, or will we see a new and untried regime established for America, and perhaps the world over?

Gooding to Begin Easter Seal Sale

GOODING, March 28 (Special)—First annual sale of Easter seals to aid crippled children will be held in Gooding county from April 1 to 3, according to J. H. Crowwell, vice-president of Idaho Society for Crippled Children. Mrs. Pearl Kirkpatrick, Gooding county nurse, will have charge of the sale in Gooding county, assisted by a committee of representatives from the various communities.

The campaign is part of a nationwide drive conducted simultaneously in 30 other states throughout the country affiliated with the National Society for Crippled Children. Gooding county joins with other counties of Idaho in public support necessary to carry on and expand the work for crippled children on a local, state and national scale.

Through the sale of this work of the society, dedicated to the needs for corrective treatment, recreation, education, and vocational aid for crippled children, is financed. This work must go on and must expand to meet the needs for these services and the committee hopes that the citizens of the community will feel an equal share in the responsibility and satisfaction in helping to bring to a crippled child the opportunity of a better life.

Easter seal dollars buy transportation of crippled children and patients to and from clinics, hospitals and schools; purchase of appliances, wheel chairs, artificial limbs, special shoes and the like; assistance at and publishing crippled children clinics; hospitalization, where local funds are inadequate; and especially of "border-line" cases; providing recreation for crippled children; cooperation with local health, welfare, education and rehabilitation authorities to insure the highest standard of service; providing training in arts and crafts for home-bound cripples, thus enabling them to keep minds occupied and hands busy earning a few dollars toward self-support; assisting the family, the child, and the public to a better understanding of the medical and social problems and more sympathetic interest in meeting these problems by all concerned.

SLAVS CELEBRATE AS 'FULL INDEPENDENCE' IS PROCLAIMED

CHEERING GROUPS LINE STREETS AS AMERICANS PASS

By LEON KAY
BEAVERDALE, March 28 (UP)—Jugoslavs today proclaimed their full independence and sent fighting men under full mobilization orders streaming toward their borders to guard against threat from any quarter.

Premier Richard Dusan-Simovich declared the nation hoped to avoid any difficulties in its relations but that it would follow henceforth a policy of independence.

This proclamation was made after a midnight cabinet session and its enthusiastic support by the Yugoslav populace again was demonstrated today when troops King Peter II, ruling in his own right for the second day, went to the cathedral with his wife and children to attend services of thanksgiving.

Hundreds of thousands of citizens lined the street to watch the procession from the royal palace to the cathedral. They cheered themselves to hoarseness when Peter, riding in a closed limousine and followed by members of the government, appeared.

Crowds break lines through the lines of good-natured police and surrounded cars in which British and American diplomats rode.

They cheered for Britain, for the United States and for President Roosevelt.

At one point almost five minutes were required for police to clear the way for the cars which the Americans and British were riding.

Axis diplomats were in the procession too. Their cars passed in dignified silence as the populace carried out the government's instructions to behave with meticulous correctness.

But when the cars of the Polish, Turkish, Greek and Russian diplomats came into view they were greeted with cheers of "LONG live the Poles... LONG live the Turks... LONG live the Greeks... LONG live the Russians."

Special Prayer
 At the cathedral a special prayer of thanksgiving was read by Patriarch Gavril of the Serb Orthodox church, one of the prime movers in the coup d'etat.

King Peter met in his audience hall, acknowledging the achievements of the struggle. He wore the uniform of an army air force general and was surrounded by officers of "LONG live the Poles... LONG live the Turks... LONG live the Greeks... LONG live the Russians."

HIGHLIGHTS FROM LATEST BOOKS

KROEL'S NEW NOVEL
AS IT REALLY IS
 There have been many books written about the South; there will be more. But none can present a more accurate picture of actual conditions in the South than Harry Harrison Kroel does in his latest novel, "The Unrigger" (Doubleday, $2.50). Here is King Croel's look at the South between 1900 and 1940. It is a story of the South as it is today, with its plantations and its blooded shantytowns presented in a story that maintains a swift pace from first to last.

Kroel knows the South as it is, not as a novelist imagines it to be. He proves that in his autobiography "I Was a Share-Opener" and in his 1940 best-seller, "The Keepers of the House," he never wrote far from the truth in literary merit and sound story-telling.

Kroel's hero is Stan Butterworth, born "poor white" who entered his way to become Cottonown's most influential citizen. Stan had money—cash in the bank—and money was power.

Stan's wealth made him president of Cottonown's bank, bought him the best house in the city. It even made him chairman of the annual cotton festival. But it could not buy him the respect of the social standing among the planters' society.

While Stan occupies the center of the stage through the novel, the numerous others of Cottonown's high and low society who come to life in this tale. There is Lacey McFerrin, the woman who refused to marry Stan, but who turned to him for financial help on numerous occasions and considered it his privilege to lend to her. And her son, Hart, who steals cotton, considers an affair with the daughter just a passing lark, but is likeable, nevertheless.

And there is Lullie Belle. There are hundreds of Lullie Belles scattered on plantations in the South. Beautiful, willful girls who bettle for a chance of equality with more favored daughters.

COURT SUIT ASKS CITY PAY RETURN

Charging that the Twin Falls mayor and city council related their own salaries illegally, district court suit by H. L. Cannon, on behalf of the city and taxpayers, was on file today asking that the court order the five officials to repay an aggregate of $7,000.

Illegality of the pay book, the complaint asserts, rests in the fact that it was not submitted to the electorate.

Some Halted
 Cannon's action asks that the court order the following refunds: Mayor Joe Koehler—$200. Councilmen Paul R. Taber, Leonard F. Avanti, Lionel A. Dean and Carl E. Ritchey—$175 each.

The salary increase at issue was made automatically after the 1940 census showed Twin Falls had advanced upward in class of city by passing the 10,000 mark. The boost was from $600 up to $1,800 for the mayor; from $400 up to $800 for each councilman.

Commenting on the suit, Koehler said today that "it seems strange" that Cannon has instituted his suit "in the eve of the city election" and 10 months after the budget was advertised.

Background
 Members of the council pointed out that no increase in pay was accepted until the attorney-general had ruled that the "affirmative" sale of the city in 1940, and until census officials notified the city as to its population gain.

Cannon served notice on the council Monday night, March 17, that he would demand refund on behalf of taxpayers. City Attorney Harry Bennett promptly advised the commissioners and the mayor that they were within their statutory rights so far as he is concerned.

All members of the council, although rapping Cannon's move as political, have expressed willingness to wait the pay increase if the court reverses the city attorney's construction of the law.

Prices have advanced on many kinds of merchandise... in fact on all lines of merchandise. Some of which will not be available in the quantities they have been in the past... such as aluminum and stainless steel cooking utensils, pressure cookers and many kinds of pottery and chinaware.

We recommend that you fill your needs now on these items while our stocks are complete and while the old low prices are in effect.

Guns and ammunition have advanced in price with the indication that these two items will be hard to get later on. If you contemplate buying a new rifle or shot gun this fall it would be wise to select the one you want NOW... Make a deposit on it so that you will be sure of getting it when you want it.

This isn't a thought to scare you into buying merchandise... it is simply to help you get the many things which are sure to advance in price or which will not be available later on.

At the cathedral a special prayer of thanksgiving was read by Patriarch Gavril of the Serb Orthodox church, one of the prime movers in the coup d'etat.

King Peter met in his audience hall, acknowledging the achievements of the struggle. He wore the uniform of an army air force general and was surrounded by officers of "LONG live the Poles... LONG live the Turks... LONG live the Greeks... LONG live the Russians."

The crowds had seen a dramatic and historic overthrow of the regime which had been the main support of the axis. They knew their little nation might soon be recognized as a free and open democracy.

But they knew that their army, which had been quietly mobilizing, was ready to approach its peak strength. Tens of thousands of them had been called to the colors yesterday. They had the strongest cabinet in memory and they seemed ready for anything which might come.

Prince Paul Leaves
 Swiftly consolidating its control, the new government permitted Prince Paul, head of the ousted regime, to leave for Greece by special train at his own request last night.

Former Premier Dragisha Cvetkovich and former Minister Alexander Cincar-Markovitch had been released from arrest and permitted to go to their homes.

Germany who for weeks had crowded the capital's leading hotels was packing up, ready to leave en masse.

The government's confidence in the spirit of the people, and of their undivided support, was shown by the fact that as soon as it had effected the overthrow of the old regime, it removed the restrictions which had been clamped down so suddenly Wednesday night.

Soldiers were recalled from all key points of the capital except government buildings. Those soldiers who remained on duty had garlands of flowers on their rifles. The city was in carnival mood. Songs and cheer schools thronged the streets and flags hung from houses and buildings. Reports from the province said in Croat and Slovene as well as Serb areas the spirit was the same, and that enthusiastic manifestations had been held in support of the king and the army.

Two K. O.s Feature Opening Card of State Tournament

By HAL WOOD
Evening Times Sports Editor

FILBER, March 28 (Special)—Gloves flew thick and fast here last night—as they did again this morning and will tonight—as battlers from 13 schools in Idaho threw punches that they hoped would bring their individual state championships.

And when the smoke cleared away after the first session, the results showed that the tough Jerome Tigers were going to be the "team to beat" for the state championship trophy.

Cosch Tommy Robinson sent four men into the ring last night and they came back with four victories for the Tiger school. However, the 14 bouts performed at the opening session made only a dent in the amount that had to be run before the champions could be crowned Saturday night.

Two Knockouts

For the opening performance some 900 spectators watched the 28 young battlers score two knockouts and win 12 decisions.

During the morning a total of 87 rounds was scheduled for 16 bouts starting at 10 a. m. and probably finishing at 10 p. m. The first round starts at 8 p. m. and 33 rounds are slated. When the firing ceases for the day's activities, the winners will be qualified to battle for the 11 championships on Saturday night.

Outstanding battle from the opening session was that between Glen Pliska of Kimberly and William Higginbotham of Woodlawn in a two-round fight in the 134-pound division, which they fought with the best of ten and a boy did. They slugged and slugged to tie in the first round with the Wendell lad having a slight edge. Higginbotham, standing three feet and with a three-inch reach advantage over Pliska, was on the defensive in the second round as Pliska turned sideways and tossed over-hand punches at Hig's jaw that left the northside boy staggering all over the ring.

Both in the third frame, the tall youngster came back with the same tactics and he slugged Pliska to win the decision.

There were two officially-recorded technical knockouts during the evening—but both were really K. O.'s. The first was that between Alex Kinshofer of Jerome and Dallas Robinson, Ashton, hard enough to make the latter retire in the second round. Frayne Shouse, Piler, youngster, turned in the surprise performance of the evening when he knocked out Jim Humphries, Dietrich youth, for a kayo in the first round. Humphries won the state championship in the division last year and appeared to be getting the better of a slug-fest with Shouse until midway in the round. Frayne and the Dietrich boy down for a count of nine. He got up and another long-swinging punch to the jaw put on the finishing touch.

Complete results of the first session follow:

88-POUND DIVISION
George Quansell, Kimberly, defeated Laurel Richards, St. Anthony, Alex Kinshofer, Jerome, scored knockouts in second round over Dallas Robinson, Ashton.

118-POUND DIVISION
Otis Hughes, Kimberly, defeated Fred Whitehall, Idaho Falls. Elmer Johnson, Jerome, defeated Bob Nell, Riggin.

140-POUND DIVISION
Vernon Hall, Jerome, defeated Armond Nelson, Shelby.

William Higginbotham, Wendell, defeated Glen Pliska, Kimberly.

165-POUND DIVISION
Darrall Henderson, Idaho Falls, defeated Warren Olson, Riggin.

Irvin Scott, Shelby, defeated Burton Swanson, Ashton.

Lyzan Holloway, Jerome, defeated Richard Quansell, Kimberly.

HEAVYWEIGHT DIVISION

We offer you the case of two Sugar City youngsters—Verl Henderson and Butch Grady.

They were slated to compete in the state tournament—but on route here their car stalled at Pocatello. They waited for awhile and got fixed. It stalled again at Burley—so there the pair gave up the vehicle—which also included the Sugar City coach—and hitch-hiked to Piler.

They arrived in time for the drawing of names in that same place, one was billed for the night session, with both making first appearances today.

A word for the promoters of the tournament. They are doing a top-notch job in the balance and are offered to all participating, including boys' boxing, the coaches, the sponsoring for the public, prize making, etc.

Baseball Will Be Hard Hit By Draft, Officials Believe

By HENRY McLEMORE
DAYTONA BEACH, Fla., March 28 (AP)—The chances are that Uncle Sam is going to have baseball yelling "Uncle!" by the time August or September rolls around.

Not only yelling "uncle!" but "Uncle, lay off us—please."

You know why, of course—the draft.

The potential baseball soldiers you have heard about so far comprise only a handful of those who really are in danger of having to lay down the flannel and the bat for the khaki and the gun. Only the prominent draft numbers have been given headline space—Greenberg, Rikato and top notchers like that. But scattered through the major and minor league rosters are scores, if not hundreds, of players under the scrutiny of draft board officials.

Baseball is going to be hit, and hit hard," a prominent major league official told me.

"Right now it would appear that only a scattered few of the players are in danger of being shipped off to camp but that doesn't mean anything. The players with low draft numbers are keeping it secret. And, naturally, when they get their contracts they don't write back and say they didn't think they'd better sign them, being as they were likely to be called into service within a few months. They slipped up and kept mum. They were gunning for a few months pay. Better to come south and get in May, than to wait and get checks than none at all."

This official, and he is in a position to know who the owners and managers are, says that certain baseball will be stripped of scores of players and that before the year is out games will be between various army camps, with major and minor league stars in the lineup, will be attracting more attention.

There is another angle to consider—the draft questionnaire itself. It is a long and tedious one to fill out, and it is not a part-time job. Baseball players would be able to sandwich in games between sessions.

East Women Again Triumph In Ski Meet

SUN VALLEY, March 28 (AP)—A team of eastern women skiers out-ran western entrants yesterday to win the annual east-west giant slalom race for a second time.

Individual honors went to blond Charita Heath of Pasadena, Calif., who flashed down the mile and one-half course Baldy mountain course in two minutes and 18 seconds.

Rebecca Fraser, Woodstock, Vt., placed second; Nancy Reynolds, Montclair, N. J., captain of the eastern team, was third and Marilyn Shaw, Stone, Vt., fourth.

The western team, captained by Gretchen Fraser, Denver, national women's combined champion, took 600.4 seconds to run the course, compared with a total of 643 seconds for the eastern team. Miss Fraser fell at the last gate on the 1,000-foot descent, losing 28 seconds.

Match Champions Take 1st Place At ABC Tourney

ST. PAUL, Minn., March 28 (AP)—The Hermann Underkachers of the 1941 national match champions, last night took over the lead of the 10th annual American Bowling Congress with a score of 3,019.

After a mediocre start of 80, they rolled the sixth highest game ever recorded in A. B. C. competition—1,131. Their third game, 897, was 21 points more than needed to pass the Schmeling Ice Creams of Cincinnati, who held first place since Saturday.

Vandal Boxers Win 3 Bouts At U. S. Meet

STATE COLLEGE, Penn., March 28 (AP)—Southwestern Louisiana led the way into the final and final rounds of the seventh annual National Collegiate Athletic Association boxing tournament today, placing five of its eight men in preliminary rounds yesterday.

Runners-up in the mythical team championship race were Wisconsin, Idaho, Penn State and Louisiana State, each with three men, and the University of Florida, North Carolina, Miami and San Jose State of California, each with two.

Score Knockouts

All three Idaho winners scored technical knockouts. In one of the 120-pound class, with a technical knockout after 210 of the second round and Laune Erickson, defending titleholder in the 165-pound class, Kayced Lester Ochoa of Penn State after 1:42 of the second round.

Thrills For Crowds

Thrills for the crowd of more than 1,000, however, were hard-punching exhibitions by heavyweight Herb Kendrick and Lou Campbell of Southwestern Louisiana, that earned them second round knockouts. Kendrick floored Don Campbell of Lock Haven, Penn. Teachers with a right to the solar plexus while Southwestern Louisiana fighter dropped Stanley Mintz, City college of New York, with a right to the jaw and Referee Joe McGuigan halted the bout a few seconds later at 1:19.

Aside from the knockouts, the best bouts were those in which Bob Wilson of San Jose declared Jack Gibbons of Wisconsin in the 120-pound class and the 118-pound bout between Fenton Somerville, eastern champion from Virginia, and Howard Briggs of the California Aggies, in which Somerville showed a fast left hand and a hard punch in defeating Joe Costello of Michigan State in another 165-pound bout.

WBC Star Wins

One 1940 champion was among the losers tonight. Fred Spiegelberg of Washington State gaining a close decision over Nick Lee of Wisconsin in a 175-pound bout.

Oscar Vitt Memory Still Remains in Indians' Camp

By GEORGE KIRKPATRICK
FORT MYERS, Fla., March 23 (AP)—Oscar Vitt is gone but his memory lingers on in the camp of the Cleveland Indians. On the bulletin board in the Tribe's clubhouse, there's a newspaper picture of Vitt captioned, "back to the bushes."

Roger Peckinpugh, new leader of the Indians, is reluctant to talk about the players' rebellion of last June against Vitt.

At last as the naked eye can discern, the Indians are all one happy family—hustling to gain a fighting edge and coping with pennants they should have won a year ago. But there still are echoes of last summer's revolt against Vitt. "I don't know how people have suffered more in the public eye than any other player," says Vitt's brother, Fred Vitt, who came down from the Yankees this year, got three hits in six at-bats.

Fall in Union. Peckinpugh apparently has the players willing in Union. But there's one big job Peck hasn't solved yet—instilling some punch in the Cleveland hitting line.

The Indians have championship pitching and defense but lack hitting strength. In their first 11 games, they scored 10 runs in 13 innings. The Indians averaged only two runs per game.

The Indians' main problem is to put some fire in the Cleveland attack. Gerald Walker, who drove in 26 runs for Washington, has been traded to Boston. The Tribe's attack somewhat and a comeback by Jeff Heath would help tremendously.

SOUTH BEND, Ind., March 26 (AP)—Football did a half million dollar business for Notre Dame university in 1940.

The Rev. John J. Cavanaugh, S. C. O. vice-president of Notre Dame and chairman of the faculty athletic control board, broke a precedent today by giving a report on athletics in answer to a formal notice that Notre Dame makes a million dollars a year out of football.

Actually, his report showed, net athletic revenues for his academic schedule totaled $12,868.30. Income from other sports before and of the school year will be another $40,000 or $50,000.

Athletic receipts represent only about half of the $70,000,000 spent for additions to and improvements in the physical plant of the school, he said. "They would not even pay the cost of maintaining our present plant. They would meet less than half of our faculty payroll."

READY FOR PLAY-OFF. The March 26 AP—The Wisconsin basketball team which won the eastern N. O. A. A. championship arrived today and scheduled a brief workout in the Municipal auditorium where tomorrow night the Badgers will play Washington State for the N. O. A. A. championship.

Power Hitters Favored in Golf Tourney

ASHVILLE, N. C., March 23 (AP)—The Power Hitters were spotlighted today as a field of 100 set out across a waterlogged course in the $3,000 land of the sky open golf tournament.

A hard rain fell all day yesterday forcing postponement of the first round of the tournament over the Dillmore Forest country club.

Instead of four rounds of 18 holes a day there will be 18 today, 18 to-morrow and 18 to-day.

Lawson Little, national open champion who is rated the best handicap in the group, was the favorite. A broad shouldered guy who can hit 'em a mile, Little has a great record of winning tournaments when the rains come and the greens and fairways get wet.

Others who are rated as a good handicap for the $3,000 first money and a share of the $3,000 for the other top runner are Sammy Sneed, Clayton Headner, Jug McSpoden and Craty Wood.

Grid Income $500,000 for Notre Dame

SOUTH BEND, Ind., March 26 (AP)—Football did a half million dollar business for Notre Dame university in 1940.

The Rev. John J. Cavanaugh, S. C. O. vice-president of Notre Dame and chairman of the faculty athletic control board, broke a precedent today by giving a report on athletics in answer to a formal notice that Notre Dame makes a million dollars a year out of football.

Actually, his report showed, net athletic revenues for his academic schedule totaled $12,868.30. Income from other sports before and of the school year will be another $40,000 or $50,000.

Athletic receipts represent only about half of the $70,000,000 spent for additions to and improvements in the physical plant of the school, he said. "They would not even pay the cost of maintaining our present plant. They would meet less than half of our faculty payroll."

REDFURY

"I'M NOT CLUE- ME. YOU SQUAM YOU SQUAM!"

"WE GOT 'EM, VICKY! ANOTHER SAVOAGE CASE IS SHRED! HAUGCOLAR'S BEHIND THE BARS AND THE POLICE ARE RAIDING HIS APARTMENT THIS VERY MINUTE."

"HOW WONDERFUL!"

"WELL, JUST IN TIME, TOO. THE CREW CALLED LONG DISTANCE FROM WASHINGTON. HE WANTS YOU TO CATCH THE FIRST FLAME WHICH LEAVES IN HALF AN HOUR."

"WHAT'S UP?"

"I'M ALREADY TOLD YOU YOU'RE THE ONLY MAN WITH PLEASURE. ALSO, I MADE IT PLAIN TO YOU THAT I WASN'T INTERESTED IN YOU. BUT YOU'VE BEEN PLAGUE-ING ME ABOUT IT FOR THE LAST FEW DAYS."

"VICKY, YOU'RE AN ANGEL. I'M SURE YOU'VE BEEN THINKING ABOUT ME."

BOOTS

"YOU KNOW, OOP I SURE HATE TO HEAD BACK TO THE TUBS. WHY TIL HECK! CENTURY-EMPTY-HANDED!"

"YEAH, BUT TIL HECK! BOOM IS DEAD. LAINT HE?"

"IT'S A SHOE PRINT."

"OSCAR BOOM!"

"GOSH A BLIND MAN COULD FOLLOW THAT TRAIL. OL OSCAR MUST NOT HAVE BEEN LAUNDED OFF IN THAT CRASH AFTER ALL!"

"WELL, I'VE NEVER HEARD OF A SHOEY'S NEVER HEARD OF A SHOEY'S!"

FRECKLES

"SO, IN THE QUIET HUSH OF EARLY MORN, I WENT OUT TO STAMPER'S MEADOW AND SAT TO WORK WITH A MONKEY WRENCH!"

"YOU SURE FIXED OUR PLANE SO IT WOULDN'T FLY?"

"I ONLY MADE SURE IT WOULDN'T FLY. THAT'S BETTER THAN GETTING HIT BY THE GRIND AND HAVING DOUBTS?"

"WAND YOU DO IT, DAD?"

"FOR SEVERAL REASONS. FIRST, YOU HAD NO IDEA HOW TO CONSIDER MYSELF A FINAL BACKUP ON THE VENTURE—"

"—AND FOR THAT REASON I WANTED TO SEE IF YOU WOULD WISPLY LEAVE ME ALONE IN THAT WHIRLED PLACE. I DON'T WANT MY NECK IN THE FIRST PLACE!"

OUTBOARD

"I HEARD MR. CODD'S COUGH WAS A PUS, AND THAT HE THREATENED TO CLIP THE STAVES OFF YOUR NECK AND TAKE YOU APART LIKE A BARREL!"

"THAT MUST BE KILLER GOOD! I CAN'T SAY GORILLA SPRAY WOULD BE BETTER ON BATTLES BUNNY TEN GAVE LESSONS ON THE TECHNIQUE OF OCCUPYING A STRETCHER!"

"FAW!—IF THAT MOUNTAIN BANK WOULD NERT ME GRECO-ROMAN STYLE, I WOULD TIE HIM INTO SMALL LINKS LIKE GAUGAGES!"

"THAT IS IF IT WERE NOT FOR MY OLD WIFE WHO WOULD GUINTEED IN THE BOER WAR!—FAD!"

"AT LAST HE'S GOT WISE—HE PREFERRED TO CLIP WOODMAN ON HIS BACK FOR YEARS. IT TOOK HIM OVER A MONTH TO FIND OUT IT WAS POOLISH ROLLERBY PEOPLE!"

"YEH, I THINK ME A LIFETIME TO GET TO YOU. I WAS FOLLOWING THE WRONG GAME, THE WRONG GAME. I DON'T FOLLOW I DON'T BAY!"
