Late FLASHES

By JOE ALEX MORRIS
United Press Foreign News Editor
German armies led by picked "blitz men" pressed allied forces back to a new defense line in Greece today as Great Britain accepted the axis challenge to a finish fight in the air war over Europe's belligerent capitals.

The President said that he did not know more what means will be used to raise the money but that he will make a statement to the people on the tax problem soon. Presumably he will emphasize the need for sacrifices to help pay for defense.

The air ministry said: "A number of very powerful bombs were dropped in large numbers in the center of Berlin last night during the heaviest attack yet made on the city. The attack was broken off by the weather. Substantial damage certainly was done."

Germany repaired its Balkan war machine today for a final concentrated attack on the British-Greek line in Greece as hostilities with Yugoslavia, crushed in 11 days of fighting, ceased formally at noon.

PRESIDENT SAYS PUBLIC NOT AWARE OF U. S. DANGERS

AID PROGRAM TO CHINA INCREASED TO FIGHT JAPAN

WASHINGTON, April 18 (AP)—President Roosevelt declared today the American public does not appreciate the extreme seriousness of the European war and its implications concerning life in the United States.

Public awareness of the significance of the struggle is gradually increasing, but this far has been inadequate, the President said at a press conference.

He did not seek to answer a question as to whether Allied reverses in Greece made America's position more critical in the great struggle.

He did not say to answer a question whether the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor had increased the aid to China in its struggle with the Japanese empire. He said that specific authorizations for aid to China have been made, but he was not certain whether materials actually have been moving toward the far east.

The President increased public knowledge of the situation by opening at Singapore today among naval and diplomatic representatives of the United States, Great Britain, Australia and The Netherlands East Indies. Consultations with other countries on the far eastern situation have been going on intermittently since about 1939, he said.

The President refused to answer a question as to whether the army's organization of a civilian observation corps for airplane spotting might infer that there is danger of an air attack on this country.

He told the questioner that he knows as much on that subject as the President himself.

Family Tells of Lightning Blast Inside Home Here

Last night the family carefully had a story to tell Sam, the only one of his five sons at the time of the onslaught.

He also asked that $100,000 be made available for further surveys and soundings for a location of the dam.

Gov. Clark committee members said, emphasized that the state for 20 years has been attempting to carry out the project. There have been a number of devastating floods in the fertile valley, he said, while at other times the valley has been greatly in need of irrigation facilities during periods of extreme drought.

LOSSES TO FRUIT MINOR IN STORM

Snow, hail and cold weather which spread over this section of Idaho yesterday and continued today to a lesser degree, caused little if any damage to apple and peach orchards. A survey by the Times showed this afternoon.

Apple growers explained that if the weather suddenly turned clear and cold and there was no wind, then the buds would in all probability be damaged. As long as the weather stays overcast and the wind continues to blow, the mercury can go well below the freezing mark with no damage resulting.

Apple buds, for the most part, are still in a protective state and are not out far enough to be killed by the winter of today.

Peach buds, it was explained, would have probably been damaged last night had it not been for the moisture.

Other crops of the area were likewise not damaged by the combination of hail and snow stopped.

In Twin Falls the storm started out with light snow which soon turned to a heavy hail, covering the ground to a depth of more than two inches in some places. The hail later turned to snow which continued to fall until early evening.

At Pocatello it stopped but in an hour started to fall once more.

Snowy flakes were noted here at noon today. The storm of yesterday was general over the entire section of the state.

HUSBAND LOSES SENTENCE FIGHT

Bench warrant for arrest of Kenneth Duncan, to serve a 90-day sentence imposed last October, was today issued by District Judge J. W. Porter.

The jurist issued his order after hearing in court this morning. All plans accompanying Duncan promptly signed the order, which was turned over to Sheriff Warren W. Lowery for service this afternoon.

Duncan, who has been at liberty under bond, was sentenced to 90 days for withholding evidence from his wife, Mrs. Lorene Duncan. The sentence included provision that the county pay the wife $100 per day for the labor done by Mrs. Duncan as a county prisoner. But since affidavit has been filed by her attorneys, stating that financial settlement had been made between husband and wife, the county need not pay out any wages for work Duncan will do on county projects along with other male prisoners.

The defendant lost in appeal to the supreme court.

Announcement is now pending in district court, filed by the husband, Mrs. Lorene Duncan, who has entered default in that matter.

Tourists Receive Samples of Beans

JEROME, April 18 (Special)—Gift bags of Jerome county beans have gone into every section of the United States. It was learned this week from reports from the service station operators in Jerome, distributors of the Great Northern.

This project was a part of the bean program sponsored jointly by the Jerome Granges and the Jerome Chamber of Commerce. Tourists from over half of the states in the union have been presented with two-pound bags of the Great Northern beans, packed in an attractive cellophane wrapper. Included in every bag was a printed four-page folder introducing the Idaho product and giving some information on the bean industry in Southern Idaho and several recipes for preparing bean dishes. The program was arranged by Jerome county's bean committee composed by H. S. Stockton, Frank Peterson, and Leon Adelt. This group solicited the assistance of the Jerome Chamber of Commerce which furnished the bags and the printed material, and in cooperation with the local Grange organizations prepared the attractive wrappers. This committee is now collecting the beans, by asking the Grange organizations to donate 50 pounds of beans, or the equivalent in cash. Approximately 1,000 pounds, or about one half of the original amount used, has already been pledged. The beans were originally supplied by R. G. Freeman, president of the Jerome Chamber of Commerce, during the activities of the program.

DELAYED DISPATCH SAYS ALLIES SLAUGHTERING NAZIS

GERMANY SENDS WAVES OF BOYS AGAINST BULLETS

By RICHARD D. McMillan
WITH THE BRITISH IMPERIAL ARMY AT THE GREEK FRONT (VIA ATHENS) NOON, April 17 (Delayed) (AP)—British and Greek troops have consolidated their defense lines and they now are slaughtering the elite of the German army as it rushes in with reckless, suicidal abandon.

The allied line, recaptured after the German thrust down the Beroia gap from Jugoslavia, now runs from south of Chalmara on the Adriatic coast, across Albania to a point south of Grevena, then back south-easterly to a point between Grevena and Kalabaka, then bends back north to the Servia region, east to Mount Olympus, and on to the coast.

On the Grevena-Kalabaka road, where the Germans have driven a bulge into the center of the 150-mile defense line, British tanks have been flung in to back up the Greeks. The fighting there has been ferocious and at last reports the Greeks, with British mechanized aid, had consolidated their position and stopped the German drive.

The Australians are said to be making up a brigade, his wife against almost overwhelming odds in the Servia sector, where German armored divisions are concentrated.

Supported by Artillery Australian and New Zealand units are supported by British artillery which is destroying German loads and bulldozers of German infantrymen. German shock troops, marching beside and sometimes ahead of the tanks, carrying sub-machine guns, are being moved down by allied machine guns in the valleys below snow-covered Mount Olympus, mythical abode of the ancient Greek gods whose sides echo the roar of the battle the noise of passing swarms of fighting and bombing planes.

The rugged roads and passes are almost clogged with the bodies of strong, bold, arrogant German youths who called themselves "hitlers," and the wreckage of the guns, tanks and trucks which supported them.

But the Germans keep coming in such masses, a British major told me, "that our troops find it humanly impossible to kill them quickly enough to stop them all."

Still Hold Passes
As I write this the British, Australian and New Zealand troops are still holding the passes and their front is firm, but a recalculation of the allied line is deemed necessary because of a German advance south of Grevena, near the center of the line.

(The German break-through near Grevena has not been explained, but this "dispatch would indicate it was either an out-flanking maneuver or a penetration of Greek-held territory.)

The battle is on a scale comparable to the blitzkrieg in France. Germany has thrown into it, head-lead of at least three armored divisions, picked Austrian Alpine troops and brigades of the youthful Hitlerian shock troops or "hitlers," many still in their teens, recruited from Hitler youth organizations and distinguished by lightning flash symbols and individual numbers on their sleeves.

New Tactics
Instead of using their dive bombers to do the work of artillery, as they did in France and the low countries, the German fliers here are spreading out in waves in what are called "Armada" tactics. The bombers range over the allied lines night and day in mass formations with the yellow-painted Messerschmitt fighters fly 50 feet in one direction, veer sharply in another direction, then reverse themselves again in a crisis-crowd. They keep it up far into the night. They keep it up, spurt of machine gun fire and flashes of tracer bullets being designed to wear down the soldiers' nerves and prevent their getting any rest.

"The bombing and machine-gunning are terrific, but we're holding them," an Aussie said.

I saw some of the German planes on their way to put the finishing touches to Larisa, a rail center 30 miles south of Mount Olympus. That city of 24,000, wrecked by an earthquake and by Italian bombers before the German attack started, has been bombed, burned and machine-gunned night and day by the Germans. It has been destroyed. It looks like Louvain, Belgium, did during the World war. All civilians have fled.

The battle is going on in every kind of weather—snowstorms, summer heat and rain—a m. d thunder storms, all on a 150-mile front.

ARMY TECHNICAL STUDY OUTLINED

With technical study offered in a wide variety of lines, the United States army provides training especially valuable to youths unable to undertake a college education, Sgt. Frank Morris, U. S. army recruiter here, told the Twin Falls Kiwanis club Thursday afternoon.

Sergeant Morris outlined the scope of such training, and told of specific vocational work available to young enlistees.

Air Corps
Turning to the rapidly expanding army air corps, the recruiter sketched the gigantic aviation program by which the army will graduate a total of 30,000 qualified pilots.

Details of transportation for the Kiwanis invited meeting at Pocatello next Tuesday were announced at Thursday's luncheon. Kiwanians and their wives from Buhl, Twin Falls and Piler will board a special train for the trip. At Pocatello they will join Gate City and Idaho Falls Kiwanis for the meeting, which will include both business and social features.

The special train is to return later the same night.

No Luncheon Next Week
No Kiwanis luncheon is planned for next Thursday. Committee chairman, however, will hold a special meeting and members who cannot attend will be invited to make up their attendance in this manner.

T. Koster was program chairman. Local presentations were offered by Shirley Ann Morland, Piler, and Milo Pearson, Twin Falls, accompanied by Mrs. C. E. Durall, Earl Greenwall, Pocatello; Herb Clark, Boise; Jack Thomas and R. Hoffmann, Twin Falls, were guests.

LINDY SAYS ENGLAND CAN'T WIN WAR EVEN WITH U. S. AID

ASSERTS BRITISH POSITION IS NOW REAL HINDRANCE

CHICAGO, April 18 (AP) — Col Charles A. Lindbergh said last night "it is not within our power in America today to win the war for England, even though we throw the entire resources of our nation into the conflict."

England and France, Lindbergh said at a midwest meeting of the America First committee, lost the war "even before it was declared."

He urged "an independent destiny" for the United States.

"War is not inevitable for this country," Lindbergh said. "We claim that our participation is inevitable is simply propaganda by those who want to get us in."

"We are simply experiencing the hysteria and propaganda that comes with a major war. We must recognize the fact that along with perfectly sincere people, there are groups in this country whose prime objective is to get us into war."

"These groups are our real enemies. These are the people who, under the guise of 'steps short of war' have led us to the very brink of war itself."

Sending arms to Europe was a mistake, Lindbergh contended. It has weakened our position in America, added to bloodshed in European countries, and "has not changed the trend of the war," he added.

"The United States, he said, is strong enough to defend itself against foreign powers "if only our government will devote its attention to our defense."

"Must Face Fact"

Of Great Britain, he said: "We must face the fact that England is in a desperate position. Up to date she has lost every major campaign in which she had participated. Her geographical and economic position is as great a disadvantage in this age of aircraft and submarines, as it was an advantage to her in the era of sailing ships."

Lindbergh, speaking for the first time as a member of the America First committee, said "we have all the necessary elements in this country to build a civilization that is as strong and permanent, and progressive as the world has ever known."

IF YOU, as a voter on Apr. 22, will consider these points, your vote will help ELECT CHAPIN for Mayor

TABER for Councilman

AVANT for Councilman

- These men have proven themselves, by performance, to be honest, fearless and of the highest integrity. They have not veiled their actions behind insinuations or "big" talk.
 - Consider the reason why Koehler has done an "about-face" in his endorsement of Gillette — and the balance of the opposition have acknowledged the wisdom of the appointments which Chapin, Taber and Avant have carried out.
 - Ask yourself why Koehler hasn't accomplished something with his program of "animation" of the airport — a project on which he has had much to say — but on which he has actually accomplished little.
 - Ask yourself what the "newcomers" on the opposition ticket promise to do that is not already being done in an efficient manner by the councilman who are now in office.
 - Ask yourself what civic improvements have been made under Koehler's administration — and then remember the responsiveness that came to our city with Chapin at the helm.
 - Ask yourself if four elected men could be so consistently wrong as the present Mayor would be here. Here, harmony, progress and betterment would not be ours with your election of these three men.

No wonder we're staging a SPRING JUBILEE

Built Special Convertible Coupe with Press-A-Button Automatic Top, $1138*

WHAT you see here is something more than the very picture of bright and thrilling action and trim fresh styling.

It is something even more than the most talked-about automobile in America — it is the most outstanding Buick in all our long history.

It is selling at record pace — making valued new friends among people heretofore unacquainted with Buick — and it not only holds fourth place in the country as a whole, but in the nation's No. 1 automobile market it holds second place.

topped only by one of the lowest-priced cars.

Such a record, when made by a car of Buick's size, power and price, really calls for jubilee, so we're staging one.

In all Buick showrooms, starting April 19, you'll find special displays in fittingly springlike surroundings where you can see, admire, sit in and probe into the year's unquestioned Biggest Hit.

Here you can get the whole story about Buick's design that squeezes more good and more mileage out of gasoline — here you can get all the facts (and straight) about Compound Carburetion,* and how it ups mileage as much as 10% to 15% over last year's engines of the same size.

Here you'll see and can try out the very newest Buicks, the four new, more compact Buick Specials that wrap up Buick's straight-eight life and ginger in an easy-handling package that is actually roomier inside than some sizes that cost you more.

In a word, here you see the package that set the standard by which all cars are being judged today.

Why not drop in and browse around? The latch strings' out — you will be very welcome.

*Optional at extra cost on the Buick Special, standard equipment on all other cars.

REDS AND DODGERS TIED FOR LAST PLACE

Cardinals, Giants Win 3 in Row From Favorites

By GEORGE KIRKEY
NEW YORK, April 18 (UP)—Don't mention "home, sweet home" to any member of the world champion Cincinnati Reds or the million dollar Brooklyn Dodgers today. If you do, duck.

After three straight killings before 48,085 home town fans at Crosley field, the Reds were happy today to change scenery. And the Dodgers were even more grateful to be away from Ebbets field, where the Wolves are not as milk fed as the Cincinnati variety. Exactly 63,346 fans saw the Dodgers lose three straight to the Giants, and the sentiments of most of them were echoed by the time-honored flatbush battle cry: "Hit the road, bum!"

Cardinals Can Beat
In smacking the Reds three times, the St. Louis Cardinals lived up to advance notice that they can score and when they get good pitching and infield play they'll be tough indeed. After getting two workmanlike jobs from Warnack and Cooper, the Cards had to scramble through six pitchers yesterday. Frank Crosetz triple in the ninth and supplied the run by which St. Louis won, 7-6.

PIONEER LEAGUE STARS DO ALL RIGHT IN PACIFIC COAST LOOP... HARRINGTON WORKS ON TWO "VETERAN" HURLERS

That Carpenter needed to make him a stand-out hurler, so the Cowboy management will probably find him just as good a gamble as any boy they could lay hands on.

Our correspondent asserts that no "dope" has been received on Arnerich—other than he is not reporting.

It usually takes from three to five years of seasoning for a beginner to become a prospect for a major league club—so it will prove hard on two or three more seasons before any of the Pioneer stars climb the ladder to the big leagues.

They are Paul Pischich, the Salt Lake Bee pitcher, and Art Carpenter, once highly touted as the best prospect in California, who was with the Cowboys.

Sixth Entry Joins New Western Loop

BOULDER, Colo., April 18 (UP)—The Western baseball league was assured of six teams last night, J. R. Carter, president, announced, when Pueblo, Colo., re-entered the Class D loop.

Three boys who probably won't see action are Al Love, first base candidate; Earl Fallon, infielder; and George Kempton, infielder.

THE SCOREBOARD

Speaker has seen too many foul He is a Texan, but wasn't tough enough to stand for or watch that one so Ticker Skipper Jacobs peddled his postcard in St. Louis with great acal.

Monopolist Jacobs can't be criticized, he can't help it, the same that many sadists and curiosity seekers in the world.

Ad Wolgast in the old Vernon fight three years ago, and watching his promoter in a four-rounder, he's "tired," remarked someone as the younger Wolgast became weary with the fight.

But other promoters cannot now live without Jacobs or with him. Speaker and Cleveland will not conduct a prizefight of the Bum-of-the-Month club.

They hope Publisher Jacobs saves Billy Green in the light-heavyweight division, where he belongs for another year.

Boating Club Slates Regatta

The annual Southern Idaho Boating club regatta will be held at Owlsey bridge some time during the month of May, it was decided at a meeting of the organization last night.

With President Howard Bird of Jerome presiding, the club met at the Gem Trailer building and formulated plans for the coming season.

It was announced that the Snake river between Thousand Springs and Banbury's would be marked to hold in safety and convenience for boaters and that work will start on this project in the next few days.

The club reported considerable interest in boating in the Twin Falls area and as a result donations will be asked for the construction of locking facilities at that point.

Ground will be leveled to form a beach and a ramp and dock constructed, according to club plans.

Miler Trains for Three Months—Found Ineligible

Bob Eyston, who had hopes of running up some points for the Bruin track and field team this spring, today discarded his hopes for the remainder of his high school career and decided he might as well study or attend a trade school.

Because Bob has just found out, after going through three rigorous months of training, that he is ineligible for inter-scholastic competition this season. A transfer, he has found that he has completed eight semesters in high school and therefore cannot play further.

He won the inter-class meet last week in good time, leaving opponents far in the rear. His place on the distance squad will be filled by Frank Hampton and Bruce Stansbury, young milers. Half-milers are Otto Florence and Dick Brize.

AUTO RUNS INTO PAYETTE MAN, 34

Jacob Langley, 34-year-old Payette resident, was in the county general hospital today receiving treatment for major injuries received last night when struck by an automobile on highway 30 four miles southeast of Murtaugh.

Records at records of the local sheriff's office, the car which struck Langley's was operated by Wayne Mink. The Quincey, Idaho, driver, Langley is suffering a fractured left arm and left leg as well as cuts and bruises. X-rays taken this morning to determine if there were other injuries.

Mink told the officers that he was traveling west at the time and that he was knowing Langley's car, a pick-up pulling a trailer, was parked on the highway near the crossing. Mink said that as he went to pass the machine, Langley walked across the road and was struck. Mink stopped immediately.

A passing motorist, Dr. Paul A. Jenkins, Missoula, placed the injured man in his car and rushed him to the hospital. Mink telephoned ahead to Twin Falls and the city police reporting the mercy car through the city.

Records at the sheriff's office show that the trailer which was attached to Langley's truck was not equipped with a tail light.

Hospital attendants this morning termed the injured man's condition as being "good."

HAGGARDT SEEKS DISTRICT MERGER

Because Haggardt school district (No. 47) has become too small for recognition under the state apportionment program in the last four years, petitions asking for a merger of Haggardt with the Berger district (No. 30) had been filed today with the county superintendent of public instruction.

The permanent consolidation would climax a temporary merger which has been in effect for eight years.

Mrs. Doris Stradley, county superintendent, turned the petitions over to the board of commissioners today. Hearing, followed by an election, are the next steps in the procedure. Fifty-three signers of the petitions are Berger district residents and 22 are from Haggardt.

Both common districts are part of rural high school district No. 2, Hollister. No bonds are outstanding against either.

VARIED EVENTS ATTEND EASTER

JEROME, April 18 (Special)—Easter was a successful day for the members and guests of the Jerome Christian church this year.

Forty young people were served a breakfast at the church following sunrise services at the canyon rim, and the Sunday school classes broke all records, by having an attendance of 168.

Little Bonnie Jeanette Petty, five weeks old, the newest baby in the church, was placed in a cradle with four of the primary department girls rocking the cradle, and holding ribbons from each corner of the bed. Miss Juanita Smith accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Dorothy Smith, sang, "Sleep, Baby, Sleep." Many other children also appeared on the primary and junior program.

The church was filled to capacity during the church services, with Rev. Walter Harman giving the sermon on "The Burning Heart." Special Easter music was sung by the double quartet, and Lilla Mae Calson accompanied the group at the piano. Harold D. Cook sang the solos.

Poly-Octane "77" is a decidedly better gasoline from start to finish. It is refined from higher grade crudes and is blended with specialized stocks to add quicker starting, more power and greater mileage. Tetraethyl lead is then added to increase anti-knock rating plus certain ingredients usually found only in Ethyl gasoline which steps-up the octane far above minimum requirements. Poly-Octane "77" is designed for weather, altitude and driving condition of the intermountain west. It is a specialized gasoline that you can buy for less.
