First Degree Murder Charge Presented in Shooting at Jerome

JEROME, April 21 (Special) — First degree murder charges were filed in probate court here this morning against James Roberts, 68, accusing him of slaying Stanley Henry Castro, 29.

Castro died at St. Valentine's hospital, Wendell, at 3 p. m. Saturday as a result of bullet wounds in the head and in the abdomen. The first degree murder complaint, following out the verdict of a coroner's jury today, charges that Roberts fired the shots.

The murder accusation against the elderly odd jobs worker and peddler was filed by Prosecutor Richard Seely and was signed by Sheriff Lee S. Johnson.

Arraigned Today

Roberts was arraigned this morning before Probate Judge William G. Connolly, and was granted time to obtain an attorney. He remained silent at the arraignment. Preliminary hearing was not set, but is expected to be held within a few days. Roberts was returned immediately to county jail.

Funeral services for Mr. Castro, a WPA employe, will be held at 3 p. m. Tuesday at the Jerome Nazarene church with Richard Magill officiating. Interment will be in Jerome cemetery under direction of the Wiley funeral home.

The alleged shooting, officers said, followed an argument between Castro and Roberts. Defense version of the argument, however, is not expected to be revealed until the matter reaches district court.

ALLIED TROOPERS TAKE NEW POSTS NORTH OF ATHENS

By HENRY T. GORRELL
ATHENS, April 21 (UP) — Allied troops supported by big guns battled tenaciously along another defense line in the mountains about 100 miles north of Athens today after bitter rear-guard fighting against German armies sweeping across the plains of Thessaly.

British headquarters said the British and Greek troops were established on the new and shorter line south of Larisa and just north of historic Thermopylae pass, with heavy artillery already in position. The new line is shorter and easier to defend, (apparently in the Othrys mountains), the British said.

FORESTS BLAZE IN EAST STATES

By United Press
Forest fires burning over thousands of acres and leaving hundreds of homes still were menacing in all eastern states today.

Forest service officials said the danger would remain so long as the eastern seaboard's unseasonal dry spell continues. Foresters held no hope for next New Jersey, where the destruction was greatest. Other blackened areas were in New York State, Massachusetts, West Virginia, Pennsylvania and Maryland.

Two deaths and 13 minor casualties were attributed indirectly to the fires. George Knight of Centralia, W. Va., was killed when working with a fire-fighting crew at the Stratton county game preserve. Yezzo Toole Glazoff, 52, a former Russian army officer, died of a heart attack induced by excitement over a fire at his home in Lakewood, N. J.

New Jersey officials said the fires yesterday, racing along carpets of dry leaves in timberlands, were the most disastrous in the state's history. They counted 46 outbreaks which destroyed 25,000 acres of prime woodland.

West Virginia had 150 fires, New York state 18 and Pennsylvania 31. In Maryland, flames swept along the eastern shore in Wicomico county.

THIRD WEEK OF TRIAL UNDERWAY

SAN FRANCISCO, April 21 (UP) — The second Harry Birtley deportation trial today entered its third week with the government nearly halfway through its panel of witnesses by which it seeks to prove Birtley is, or was, a Communist.

In two weeks, the government has presented 10 witnesses who either testified as to the activities of the Communist Party or tried to link Birtley with it.

Personnel Termed Key to Curing "Sick" Business

Most "sick" businesses could be cured in 30 days if "the boss" would only realize that proper selection, training and promotion of personnel form the key to successful business operation, William L. Bracy, Salt Lake City, told newspaper advertising officials of Utah and Idaho, and also Twin Falls businessmen, at a meeting here today.

The luncheon session, held at the Park hotel, marked the close of the two-day convention of the Utah-Idaho Newspaper Advertising Managers' association. Businessmen and advertising men were guests of the Times and News to hear Mr. Bracy, a management counselor and systems engineer known over the west. He is a member of Bracy-Blackhurst, associate of the Utah city.

At a concluding business session which preceded the luncheon, Robert H. Warner, advertising manager for the Times and News, was elected presiding. George Morgan, Ogden, other officers elected were Amos Jenkins, Salt Lake City, vice-president; George Morgan, Ogden, secretary-treasurer.

In pointing out that personnel in any business is a big problem, Bracy declared that businessmen in smaller towns such as Twin Falls will have to furnish the inducement

ATHENS—Manuel Thodoros took the oath as premier of Greece today and, in a speech delivered between air raids, called upon the nation to "fight to victory."

CHUNGKING—The Chinese high command confirmed today that 3,000 Japanese troops have landed in the Min river estuary and are advancing toward the walled city of Fochow.

SOFIA—A communique today said that Bulgarian troops had occupied Yugoslav territory as far as Prib and Skopje, "according to plan."

ATHENS—German commanders are throwing terrific striking power against the allied lines in an attempt to "obtain a definite result," the Greek press reported today.

OTTAWA—The Canadian department of defense announced today that two of the 28 German prisoners of war who escaped from a northern Ontario internment camp had been killed and 26 others recaptured alive.

BUDAPEST, Hungary—All traffic across the Rumanian frontier into Hungary has been halted and Rumanian guards are shooting any persons who attempt to cross, dispatches from the border area said today.

Political quarters expressed belief that partly due to bitter enmity between the Rumanian government and the iron guard the regime of Gen. Ion Antonescu, the Rumanian dictator, was tottering and it might lose the support of Germany even if it had not already done so.

Government Control Of Plants Favored If Found Necessary

By GEORGE E. REEDY, JR.
WASHINGTON, April 21 (UP)—Associate Director Sidney Hillman of the office of production management said today he would favor government operation of strike-bound defense plants "as a last resort," but that such a move is not called for at the present time.

"I would favor such a move where there is no other way of operating the plant," Hillman told the senate committee investigating national defense.

"But I do not believe that additional legislation is required today."

Hillman's statement came when he was questioned by Sen. Tom Connally, D. Tex., on the current labor situation. Connally pointed out that Hillman had favored the action of the selective service act which permits the government, in certain instances, to take over industries that refuse to cooperate in the defense program.

Hillman predicted that a "no strike-no lockout" agreement would be reached within six months to cover the entire American ship building industry.

Hillman told the committee that labor is coming to an "increasing realization" of its stake in the defense program and the need for cooperation. He predicted there would be fewer strikes in defense industries.

"Labor has as much stake in the defense program, that it will suffer more if anything goes wrong, if it is possible, than anybody else in the country," Hillman declared.

He opposed proposed legislation which would prevent the government from compulsory "cooling-off" periods before strikes may be instituted in defense industries.

"What we are suffering from in the labor movement as well as throughout the country is that most people do not appreciate the urgency of the situation," Hillman said.

Gossett Will Get Salary for Work

BOISE, April 21 (UP)—Acting Governor C. O. Gossett today appeared assured of payment for taking Gov. Chase A. Clark's place while he was in Washington, D. C., but a legal question has arisen whether Clark will receive his salary during the trip.

When Clark left Boise last week, Gossett took over the governor's chair but a recent supreme court decision raised the question whether or not he would be entitled to salary.

It was found, however, the constitution provides a salary for the lieutenant governor when the governor is unable to fill his office.

Berg Studies 2 Reports on Power Sites

BOISE, April 21 (UP)—U. S. state reclamation commissioner today was working on a report regarding the application of the federal reclamation company to develop two power electric sites on the Snake river.

"Disappointed" in what "Berg" expected, the studies made by the U. S. reclamation company, the report said.

Pressure Applied To Get Spain to Join in Conflict

By JOE ALEX MORRIS
United Press Foreign News Editor
Adolf Hitler's armies and planes pounded unceasingly at a third—but still unbroken—allied defense line in Greece today while Great Britain intently watched increasing signs of new axis moves in Rumania, the near east and through Spain toward Gibraltar.

Brilliant rear-guard action by Australian and New Zealand troops in Greece inflicted tremendous casualties on the Germans, who appeared to be trying for a quick, knock-out blow against Greece, according to dispatches from Athens.

The RAF reported a record bag of 16 Nazi airplanes in fighting Luftwaffe attacks on British communications and ships in Greek ports. The Germans claimed to have brought down 11 British planes and sunk 5,000 tons of ships.

While the British and Greeks hung to their allied defense line in the mountains some 110 miles north of Athens, not far from historic Thermopylae, there were stronger indications of early action on other fronts.

London heard that Germany was bringing new pressure on Spain to enter formally into the axis line, presumably as a prelude to an attack on Gibraltar by an effort to cut off the British supply line to the Mediterranean.

Other German troops, it asserted, are pursuing beaten allied forces far south of Larisa.

Italian troops were reported to have been ordered to advance on Spanish territory, especially in the vicinity of the Strait of Gibraltar, where the Nazis have been active.

On the war front, the British and Greeks were under increasing pressure as the Germans surged down across the plains of Thessaly and, according to Athens dispatches, brought up huge reinforcements to a drive to "obtain definite results."

"People heroic resistance by the allies and heavy losses inflicted upon the German attackers, the Nazis nevertheless pushed forward."

The Germans were said to be pouring across the flat plains of Thessaly in "mechanized" numbers, having forced the British to yield their strong positions around Mount Olympus.

In the central sector they had moved past Trifkalia and presumably were approaching Karditsa. Farther west the Nazi high command reported that the important Mesoovo pass of the Pindus range had been forced. This brought an end to the German advance to the 20 miles to the southwest. The Greeks are understood to be retiring along the road from Ioannina to Arta, 35 miles.

110 Miles From Athens

When the Germans reach the new Greek mountain defense line, they will be about 110 miles from Athens, by air, and about 130 miles by road.

This far the German advance has been a bloody, battering process with the attackers paying heavily for every foot of ground. There has been no break through of the allied lines despite the pressure, and a continuing front exists. To split the odds—probably 10 to 1 in man power and possibly more in fire power—the Germans have been unable to achieve any of their classic flanking movements, such as employed in France and Jugoslavia.

GERMANS MOVE ON BRITISH LINE IN ATHENS AREA

By JOSEPH W. BRIGGS, JR.
BERLIN, April 21 (UP)—German troops, advancing westward through the Pindus mountains in a flanking movement, against the British-Greek line have stormed and captured a 4,875 foot pass near Mesoovo, the high command said today.

Other German troops, it asserted, are pursuing beaten allied forces far south of Larisa.

Italian troops were reported to have been ordered to advance on Spanish territory, especially in the vicinity of the Strait of Gibraltar, where the Nazis have been active.

On the war front, the British and Greeks were under increasing pressure as the Germans surged down across the plains of Thessaly and, according to Athens dispatches, brought up huge reinforcements to a drive to "obtain definite results."

Attack Harbor

The communique said German and Italian bombers effectively attacked the harbor of Valsetta at Malta and that on Saturday five British bombers and one fighter plane were shot down by the Germans without loss.

The high command said German fighter planes downed four British Hurricanes in an air battle over North Africa and a British bomber was brought down by anti-aircraft.

Off the British east coast, it added, a 3,000-ton merchantman was hit by a bomb and was regarded as a total loss.

WISCRACK OF THE WEEK

THE WHO-IS-IT SCRAPBOOK

One Hundred Fateful Days When Napoleon landed at Cannes, one hundred days stretched before him during which the whole future of Europe trembled in the balance.

Such a summer may lie before Europe this year. John D. Biggers, production chief of the office of production management, was very much in earnest when he told the house military affairs committee that for the United States, too, the next hundred days are vitally important.

Work, sacrifice, unselfishness, genuine national unity, "I believe," he said, "that if everyone really understood the importance of national defense, selfishness would disappear, and selfishness is the basis of most of our problems."

That common sense view will, we are sure, at length govern employers who may have "hoarded" defense materials beyond need, who may have resisted social trends, who may have undertaken tardily their defense assignments.

Halting the Exodus Many cities are worried because so many taxpayers are leaving the city to settle in suburban areas, cutting down the city's tax income, and speeding up the tendency of the less desirable city areas to degenerate into real slums.

Alaska Defense Moves Before next winter enough of six new Alaska airports to be usable will be in operation. You may hear more of the rather picturesque names they bear: Junction, Cordova, Boundary, Big Delta, West Ruby and Nome.

PRESIDENT CALLS FOR MOBILIZATION OF RED CROSS

GREAT INCREASE IN ROLL CALL IS ASKED FOR U.S.

WASHINGTON, April 21 (AP)—Chairman Norman H. Davis of the American Red Cross called today for a "greatly increased" annual roll call to meet the increased demands placed on the organization by the "vast mobilization of America's defense power."

In the keynote address of the annual Red Cross convention, Davis said many more than last year's 8,700,000 members would be needed to shoulder the "heavier responsibilities" of today. He said the probable Red Cross services to American armed forces alone "must be extended at a minimum cost of more than $5,000,000."

Davis opened the convention with a message from President Roosevelt who asked all Red Cross workers "to prepare right now to carry out all Red Cross charter obligations."

"In matters of welfare and morale," the President told the convention, "we recognize the Red Cross as the official link between the men in our armed forces and their families at home. They should not minimize the importance of this. Neither should they overlook the development of your many other services of which have a bearing, directly or indirectly, upon our preparations for the defense of our country."

Davis reported Red Cross relief to Britain now amounts to more than $15,000,000,000 and that total relief to all countries, extended through the American Red Cross, amounts to almost $27,000,000.

LAVAL POST IN CABINET ASKED

VICHY, April 21 (AP)—A reported German offer of concessions to France if Pierre Laval is taken back into the government is awaited chief of State Henri Philippe Petain and Vice-Premier Jean Francois Darlan on their return today from a tour of the Pyrenees.

Adolf Hitler was said authoritatively to have indicated a willingness to end the four-month impasse in France-German relations, provided that Laval, deposed as vice-premier last Dec. 13, should be returned to the French cabinet.

High Vichy authorities said they had no knowledge of the reported offer and added there had been no direct negotiations for Laval's return.

Time Limits Arranged for South Idaho Music Event

JEROME, April 21 (Special)—Time limits as announced for each event in the south central Idaho music festival to be staged in Jerome, April 24-26 are as follows, and will be of interest to competing students of the high schools who will participate in this three-day festival.

Concert bands and sight reading bands will be given 25 minutes each; solo vocal groups, 10 minutes; orchestras, 30 minutes; instrumental ensembles, each five; marching bands and piano solos, each 10 minutes.

Sight Reading

Immediately after completing concert playing, each band in turn will go immediately to the Morse hall building, across the street south of the high school, for a sight reading contest. The general public is not admitted to the contest, and no one except the judges and the performing bands are to be admitted.

Each contestant in the contest must have his own identification tag in order to be admitted to the contest. The identification tag will not be used for admission to the marching band events and the Saturday evening concert. All spectators, including visiting students, will be expected to pay admission prices as indicated in the leaflet which will be given out before the festival.

Students are cautioned not to play in the hall. A separate room will be provided for each band where the band members may dress and leave their instrument cases and tune their instruments. These rooms will be under the supervision of Jerome students and teachers. Assignment of registration rooms will be made at the registration desk just inside the main entrance of the high school. The high school office staff and any students will be glad to assist in giving any such information.

Must Be Ready

All schools not ready for their performances as scheduled will be left out until the end of the schedule.

Instrumental solos are required to number their measures of their solo for the judges' benefit.

Rules for the marching bands:

Marching bands are to assemble at the west gate of the bleachers at 10 a. m. and to be in the field one at a time, as their turn arrives for inspection. Each band will be inspected just before their field maneuvers. A third band will be admitted and held in readiness for inspection while a fourth will assemble just outside the west gate. No one is to be permitted on the field except the band performing and the judges.

All bands, concert and marching bands, should play "The Star Spangled Banner" from memory, as the lights will be turned off at this time.

Announcement is also made that students who will be eating lunch on Friday or Saturday are asked wherever possible, to obtain lunch either before 12 or after 1 so that students may be taken care of during the time they are not performing.

LIQUOR STORES TO BE CLOSED EARLY

BOISE, April 21 (AP)—Idaho liquor stores will close one hour earlier starting May 1, it was announced today.

Fred B. Davis, liquor dispensary supervisor and head of the state-controlled monopoly, said working hours of the 240 employees will be reduced one hour per day beginning May 1 and as a result one hour will be trimmed from the time during which liquor may be purchased.

Under the new working schedule, stores will be open on weekdays from 10 a. m. to 9 p. m. and from 10 a. m. to 10 p. m. Saturdays and on days preceding holidays.

There will be no reduction in wages to liquor store employees as a result of the shorter hours, Davis said.

LABORER and BUSINESSMAN

Profited in Chapin's Administration

These men brought—under Chapin—progress and added opportunities to laborer and businessman alike through structural developments in Twin Falls

$300,000 in WORK PROJECTS*

The evidence speaks for itself. During Chapin's administration more than $300,000 in work relief projects were secured for the general benefit of Twin Falls. These projects were secured in a business-like manner — without any play of showmanship, conversation or anything of the kind. Nor were any excuses necessary at the close of Mr. Chapin's administration to explain why work of this kind had not been done.

*Koehler in a similar period brought only $70,000 of such relief work projects to benefit Twin Falls labor and business

Here's a Record of Achievement that Can't Be Denied!

During Lem Chapin's administration these projects were either completed or construction had been started:

- 5,000,000 gallon storage reservoir
- Jaycee baseball park
- Public library
- Airport site purchase
- New flush line from filter plant
- 90 city blocks of street oiled.

WATCH OUT FOR KOEHLER'S "ABOUT FACE"!

During his present campaign for re-election, Mayor Koehler has attempted to insulate it appear that the members of his city council have been responsible for his lack of accomplishments. Not only does he thus attempt to excuse his own shortcomings, but he endeavors to create false issues and make himself the hero in each instance. For instance, the spokesman for the Koehler ticket would like to have the people believe that he is heartily in favor of Police Chief Howard Gillette — that he never opposed the latter's appointment. When Gillette's appointment came before the city council on May 1, 1939, why did Mayor Koehler vote "no"?

Mayor Koehler now attempts to criticize our tax levy as being excessive. When the resolution making the levy for that year was passed unanimously by the city council on June 5, 1939, why did Mayor Koehler also vote "yes"? Why did he vote likewise on June 14, 1940 when a similar resolution came up for the following year?

Mayor Koehler has attempted to discredit Commissioner Taber in the matter of city insurance. When the city council took action on June 21, 1939, for placing insurance on the city fleet, why did Mayor Koehler join in a unanimous vote? When the matter came up for action on June 17, 1940, why did the mayor again join in a unanimous vote, with the exception of Commissioner Taber who was out of town?

In the mayor's most recent radio address he criticized city purchase of a truck for the park department. Why did the mayor himself make the motion that Commissioner Deah be authorized to purchase this truck?

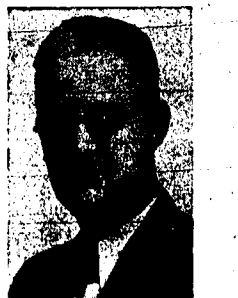

There need be no question in the people's minds regarding all of these matters. The records are available at the city office and will speak for themselves.

Furthermore, these same records will show that on no occasion did the mayor ever present any recommendation for any WPA project, which should be proof sufficient that "opposition" was not the cause of the mayor's lack of accomplishments, because he has offered no program to oppose.

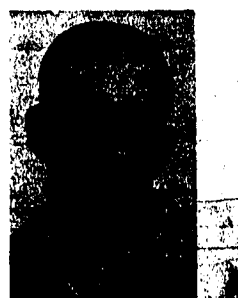

Why is Mayor Koehler "discovering" at the last minute all these things which he is attempting to criticize? Why didn't he make his protests during the regular meetings of the city council? Why has he resorted to his "About Face"?

ONE SOUR NOTE...
but it's a great orchestra nevertheless

Even a great orchestra will make a musical mistake once in a while. And once in a while... out of the thousands of decent, law-abiding beer retailers in Idaho... you'll come across one or two who operate disreputable establishments.

These "black sheep" retailers constitute a tiny minority. Yet they tend to drag down the good name of beer.

By arousing public indignation, such undesirable retailers endanger your right to enjoy good beer. They also endanger the benefits to the public that beer has made possible.

For example, in Idaho beer has created 8,276 new jobs with an annual payroll of $3,665,101 and paid $249,021.00 in taxes last year.

The brewing industry wants "black sheep" retailers eliminated entirely. You can help us by patronizing only the reputable, legal places where beer is sold. And by reporting irregularities to the duly constituted law enforcement authorities.

I WON'T WASH MY EARS ANYMORE

There's rebellion in the air! Want to know where it's in the home that doesn't have automatic hot water service? And no wonder—who wants to get up in the morning and wash their cars in ice-water? For that matter, who wants to get up in the morning and light the water heater, or fire the furnace, in order to get some hot water?

When you install an automatic electric water heater in your home you avoid all this and bring yourself the comforts and joys of a constant supply of piping hot water, always on hand day and night. Install one in your home now. Little Willie will be glad to wash his ears if you do! See your nearest electric dealer for complete details.

A Maypole theme was featured at the spring breakfast, arranged by the Beta Gamma club of the Y. W. C. A. yesterday morning at the Idaho Power company auditorium.

The single large table was centered with a pastel Maypole, and miniature arrangements of the principal theme marked each cover. Twenty-five guests attended.

Mrs. Florence Schureman, sponsor of the club, and Mrs. Helen Henderson, secretary of the Y.W.C.A. were special guests at the affair.

A program in keeping with the spring motif was presented. Miss Belle Hart was general chairman of arrangements, and Miss Charlotte Ruthhart and Miss Betty Hansen supervised the decorations.

We--The Women

By RUTH MILLETT (NEA Service)

With world history being made so fast that the newspaper reader and the radio listener are breathless trying to keep pace, what are thousands of average, American women throughout the country thinking and talking about?

Well, so to a bridge party, or to 50 bridge parties—and you'll find their interests run about like this, and in this order:

HOUSECLEANING. The season is on, and for the woman who is in the middle of housecleaning—the world holds no other problems.

TROUBLE WITH THE CHILDREN. This usually is a discussion of their physical ailments. This is a topic of conversation that is almost as satisfying as housecleaning, and it has the advantage of being a year round topic.

Beldom Constructive WHAT TO HAVE FOR DINNER. This is really constructive when a woman says she has just found a foolproof recipe for hot rolls, and passes the recipe along. But it is all too often a person-by-person discussion of "my family likes..." and "my family just won't touch..."

NAIL POLISH SHADES. Now is the time when the dark winter shades begin to look heavy, and the search for a nice, light shade, becomes a major feminine problem.

THE LAUNDRY. It seems there is no satisfactory solution to this problem. Women can't bring themselves to accept the fact for once and all that the best they can do is choose between the boiler and the tub of having the washing done at home, and the trouble of fighting over lost handkerchiefs and occasional torn shirts.

What about the war news, that may be even now changing the course of their own lives? Don't they spend any time discussing it? No. "It's so depressing, that I just try not to read or talk or think about it."

LITTLE DREAMER
Dreamy-eyed she sits in school
Chained by walls, tradition, rule.
A lad behind her pulls her hair.
She does not notice, does not care.
Her mind is far, unharmed, free;
How deep a young child's thoughts can be.
"Mary, your attention please,
The teacher cries, and her words freeze
The magic dreams in Mary's heart.
She turns her thoughts to spelling, art,
Arithmetic—to me it seems
A child should be allowed her dreams."
—HARRIOT HITT
(Along about this time of year, that time-without-end between spring vacation and the final day of school, this is probably the sentiment of hundreds of Twin Falls school children. The poem was written by Miss Harriot Hitt, who is enrolled this year at Albion State Normal school.)

Man of Destiny? 'Our Boots' Is New Favorite To Cop Derby

Things are looking up for Lou Nava, who demands chance he has earned. The California collegian firmly believes he will beat Joe Louis. Even the stars say so, he contends.

NEW YORK, April 21 (AP)—The nation's future book operators, who don't deal in either sentiment or hunches, disclosed rather pointedly today that "Our Boots" is the horse to beat in the Kentucky derby and that betting on him to finish in the money is just about the safest investment in racing.

Revamping his line after the odd-odd week-end of the spring, J. J. Carroll of St. Louis moved the Ohio-owned colt back into his original position as favorite for the run of the race by shifting his odds to 3-1 and dropping his odds to place and show down to 5-5 and 4-1.

While "Our Boots" dropped, King Ranch's "Oliver"—the horse which temporarily replaced him as the favorite—moved back up. A sure disappointment when he ran last to three illegals at Jamaica Saturday, Oliver went from 4-1 to 6-1 and the only reason he didn't go higher was that his last performance was so bad the commissions don't believe it.

Bracketed behind "Our Boots" are C. S. Howard's Porter's Cap, which won the $10,000 Chesapeake over the week-end, and the 1939 Kentucky colt, and Ogden Philip's King Cole.

OFFICIALS ACT IN JEROME SLAYING

said. He then turned and walked into his home. In a matter of seconds, Smith said, he emerged and it was noted that he held a gun (38 revolver) in his hand.
Says No Warning
Without warning, according to Smith, Roberts fired at Casato and the latter grabbed his abdomen. He turned and staggered toward his home. Roberts fired a second time and this time the bullet struck Casato in the back of the head and he fell to the ground.
Smith then, according to the story by the officers, grabbed up an iron slab which was nearby and struck Roberts in the head several times. They grappled and both fell into a small irrigation ditch. Roberts is a much larger man than Smith.
With the aid of W. C. Casato, about 70 father of the victim, Smith succeeded in getting the gun from Roberts. The elder Casato picked it up and later the remaining of the air into the air in order that Roberts could not continue his shooting should he get the gun again.

Here is the scene of the Jerome shooting which proved fatal Saturday to Stanley Casato, 23. James Roberts, 68, is held in Jerome county jail as the man who fired two shots at Casato. In above picture-diagram, A marks the spot where the shooting took place. (L. C. Casato, father of the slain man, stands at the spot and points toward the course along which his fatally wounded son staggered). B is the spot at which Stanley Casato fell, after staggering along the line indicated in the picture. Mrs. Casato, his wife, points to the place at which her husband collapsed. C is the spot near a small ditch at which W. H. Smith, a spectator, struggled with Roberts. Both fell into the ditch near the tree. D is the tent house occupied by Roberts and from which he emerged with the gun. (Times Photo and Engraving)

Roberts staggered out of the ditch and started to walk down the street. Blood was streaming from the wounds on his head which had been inflicted by the iron slab held by Smith. At a point about two blocks away he was placed under arrest by City Marshal Brockle Hannon who immediately took him to the county jail. His injured head was treated by a physician.
Roberts made his living sharpening saws and knives. In season, he sold berries of various kinds. Casato was a WPA worker. Roberts is believed to have a daughter residing in Texas.

Casato is survived by his wife, Mrs. Mabel Casato, and a young son, Ronald. Other survivors include four stepchildren, Robert, Leonard, Alvin and Fred; and three brothers, Jack, David and Reed Casato, all of Jerome; Floyd and Emory Casato, Shelton, Wash.; Ivan Casato, with the Army at Ft. Lewis, Wash.; Jerome Casato, with the army at San Diego, Calif.; four sisters, Mrs. Olive and Mrs. Jerome; Mrs. Alice Hilton, Shelton, Wash.; and Verla and Barney Casato, both of Jerome.
Casato died at St. Valentine's hospital at Wendell at 3 p. m. His body was taken to the Wiley funeral home at Jerome.

NATIONS PONDER JUGOSLAVIA FATE

BERLIN, April 21 (AP) — Count Galeazzo Ciano, Italian foreign minister, has arrived in German territory to discuss with German leaders the future of Yugoslav territory. It was said today in reliable quarters.
Barlier, Nads had made it known that King Boris of Bulgaria had visited Adolf Hitler Saturday at the Nazi Führer's headquarters in the Balkans, and had returned to Sofia yesterday.
It was assumed Boris had discussed the future of Yugoslav territory.
There have been reports of a conference, probably at Vienna, in which Yugoslavia would be carved up and divided among its neighbors. Hungary and Bulgaria already have occupied parts of it and a Croat separatist regime has been formed.

The U. S. government has distributed 5,000,000 pamphlets and other publicity warning against counterfeiting currency.

NON-CANDIDATE ANSWERS FOR HIMSELF

Editor, Times:
To the people of Twin Falls—
I am not running for election, but the mayor has so many times made the statement that every member of the city council has opposed him in his efforts to secure federal aid for city projects, that I believe that I am justified in making an answer in fairness to myself and my friends.
Not once has the mayor pointed out a specific instance where this has occurred. Such statements from the mayor seem unfair, and the records do not bear him out. Especially has he attempted to lead the citizens of Twin Falls to believe that the council has opposed him in his efforts to secure an airport. I am as interested as any person in the city to have a fine airport. Not one thing has been brought up in that connection but what every member of the council has given his fullest support. Time and again the mayor in the council meetings had letters or telegrams that he had received and talked about conferences that he had had and where he had done and was going to do about the airport—and yet for what he has failed to accomplish in connection with the airport, he cannot blame the members of the council.
I like to get along with people. I like harmony and I believe my friends will agree when I say that I am not difficult to get along with. And yet, unfortunately, from the very beginning, the mayor's attitude toward every member of the council has been one of antagonism.
My observation is that the mayor alone is responsible for any lack of harmony in the council.
However, in any event, regardless of who is elected mayor or elected to the city council, I will continue to faithfully perform the duties of my office to the best of my ability, as I have the past two years.

Coffee Fires
You can always smell the odor of burnt coffee off Rio de Janeiro and Sao Paulo, Brazil, where manufactured fires of coffee beans burn perpetually. The fires are destroying the surplus.

SCHOOL RECEIVES DINOSAUR TRACK

MOSCOW, April 21 (Special)—A fossilized dinosaur track two feet wide and a little longer from heel to top of its three mighty toes, was presented last week to the University of Idaho school of mines for its geological museum.
The 80-pound fossil came from the roof of a coal seam in the Spring Canyon mine at Helper, Utah. Its donor is John Mihelich, a foreman in the mine, and a brother of Mig Mihelich, Mullian, senior in the school of mines.
Dr. J. D. Forrester, head of the geology department, said the footprint is an unusually large one, roughly equivalent in area to six or seven elephant footprints. Distance between tracks found in the mine is about 30 feet. This Italian and comparisons with measurements of complete skeletons, indicate that the dinosaur or terrible lizard which made the track might have been as large as 45 feet long and 20 to 25 feet high.

The track was found in Cretaceous rocks which extend into parts of southern Idaho. The Cretaceous period, semi-tropical and swampy, saw Utah and other western states part of a great plain, long before the Rocky mountains made their appearance. The dinosaur whose footprint the school of mines now owns probably was ambling through a peat bog. Mud then filled the track, and subsequently was buried to great depth by further deposition, compressing the peat into coal. Uplift brought the vein to a zone where man can mine it, and exposed the fossil track as a cast in the solid rock which forms the roof over the coal seam.
