IDAHOANS TO STUDY CHEMURGY PLAN AT NAMPA MEET

STARCH MAKING OF CULL SPUDS TO BE PONDERED

BOISE, May 21 (UP)—Idahoans will meet next week to formulate a program for development of the state's productive agricultural capacities through use of chemistry.

A meeting has been called for Monday, May 26, in Nampa where national leaders of the farm chemurgy council will assist state industrial and farm leaders in forming an Idaho chemurgy committee.

Scheduled to arrive in Nampa to aid in forming the state committee were Arnold P. Yerkes, Chicago, member of the board of governors of the National Farm Chemurgy Council; Dr. H. K. Benson, Seattle, also a member of the board of governors of the national council, and Earl G. Reed, Omaha, supervisor of agriculture and industrial development for the Union Pacific railroad.

Idahoans to be invited to attend. Seventy members of the national council from Idaho, representing business and agriculture, from all parts of the state, will attend the meeting.

An attendance of persons interested in advancement of agriculture was also expected, Earl Murphy, secretary of the Idaho Chamber of Commerce, announced.

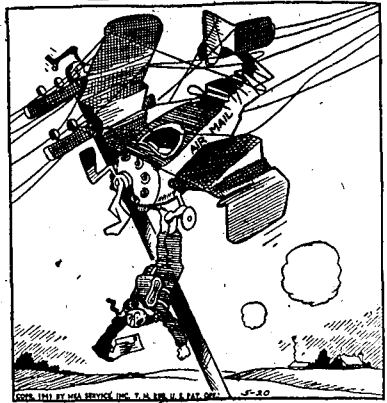

Part of a proposed plan for applying chemistry to agricultural products of Idaho was revealed recently by C. E. Strike, president of the Idaho Power company. He said plans were being made for establishment of factories to convert Idaho cull potatoes into starch.

Plan Plans

Proposals call for the first plants to be built in the Teton and Blackfoot areas. He estimated that four starch plants would be able to process about 130,000 tons of cull potatoes annually—producing 13,000 tons of starch.

Strike said there was a profitable market for starch derived from the culls which are now thrown away. He estimated that a half million pounds of starch were imported each year to meet domestic demands. He said plans for the starch plants were part of a program which the Idaho chemurgy council hoped to work out.

Crete Loss Would Be Termed Severe Blow to British Army

By United Press

The battle for Crete, only one of hundreds of islands in the Aegean sea, has importance out of all proportion to its size of the island. The battle is significant for three chief reasons:

1. Loss of Crete would be a severe blow to the British strategic position in the eastern Mediterranean, and to Britain's prestige among the Arabs of the near east, where she needs friends. If captured by the Germans, it would be of the greatest tactical advantage to the Axis for operations against north Africa and Asia Minor, not excluding Turkey.

2. Whether intended as such, the action gives the Germans a valuable test of the practicability of using gliders, transport planes and parachute troops for an attack on Britain. There is a striking similarity between the problem of invading Crete by air and the problem of its invading Britain.

3. It is a test of the royal navy's power to control Mediterranean positions under all circumstances. Without the navy, Britain would have little chance of holding Crete, because she is outnumbered in the air and will be on land if the Germans can drop enough men on the island, or can get mechanized units and artillery across the water from Greece.

Reports that a naval action is imminent probably are inspired by recognition of the necessity to the Germans of getting heavier equipment and supplies across the water, in the teeth of the British fleet.

The reports may be premature. They imply that the Italian fleet would be used, the German so far having little better than mosquito craft in the Mediterranean. The Italian navy, however, has shown time and again its disinclination to meet the British and suffer the loss of the only time the British got a crack at it.

ALLIES SET FOR 'CHUTIST ATTACK'

CAIRO, May 21 (UP)—British, New Zealand and Greek forces in Crete have been preparing for a German parachute attack for weeks and are confident they can repel one, a British informant newly arrived from the island, said today.

"We have picked the whole island," he said. "Every mountain crag has its sentinels. We are ready for them."

The informant said a comprehensive system of signaling between posts had been arranged.

Orders were that the moment an enemy parachutist had been sighted signals would be flashed through all picket posts and defense forces all over the island would be on the alert.

Royal air force planes patrol over and over Crete at all times, the informant said, and German bombing planes escorted by fighters often have been intercepted miles off at sea.

NEW U. S. BOMBER IS GIVEN TESTS

SAN DIEGO, Calif., May 21 (UP)—A huge four-motored bomber, asperched to fly more than 300 miles an hour in the stratosphere, is being tested secretly by Consolidated Aircraft company, Maj. Robert Fleet, president, disclosed today.

The plane is the B-24 land bomber built by Consolidated for both the United States and England. Equipped with superchargers, it is able to reach an altitude of seven miles, Fleet said.

The plane has a wing span of 110 feet, is 19 feet high and 64 feet long. It is driven by four 1,200 horsepower Pratt-Whitney motors, supercharged to develop much more than the rated power. With four tons of bombs it is able to fly 3,000 miles.

Thomas Sees One Incident Bringing War

BOISE, Ida., May 21 (UP)—The force of "one serious incident" would be sufficient to push the United States into war at present, Sen. John Thomas, R., Id., declared yesterday during a brief visit here.

"The situation is very acute," the isolationist senator declared. "We are on the brink of war and any incident might throw us in. Recently, however, I have noticed a tremendous protest from the American people against our entry."

"I have been consistently opposed to any measure which may lead us into war. At the same time, I realize we must help England."

Sen. Thomas said he believed the issue of convoying war implements to Britain will not come up in congress until President Roosevelt has made his speech the latter part of this month.

He predicted the "tremendous bill" for the defense program will be "paid through the heaviest tax program the American people have ever known."

"It will probably be necessary to double the tax in most brackets and relieve most of the nuisance taxes to pay the bill," he declared.

Thomas will leave tomorrow by plane to return to Washington.

At one time, baseball teams had a fight shortstop who played between first and second bases.

83,000 FORD WORKERS TO VOTE ON UNION DECISION

BALLOTING OPENS UNDER U. S. BOARD AT HUGE FACTORY

DETROIT, May 21 (UP)—More than 83,000 workers of the Ford Motor Co. today are voting on whether they want a labor union to bargain for them with Henry Ford, and, if so, which one.

Starting at 4 a. m. in the vast River Rouge plant, the workers were participating in a national labor relations board election to determine the outcome of Ford's bitter four-year fight against labor unions. The Lincoln plant workers began voting at 7 a. m.

Late tonight the ballot boxes from both plants will be sealed and put under careful guard until the counting starts Thursday noon. Results will be announced about four or five hours later.

For the 80,374 men eligible to vote in the election, the factory's choice was: 1. The United Automobile Workers (CIO); 2. Federal Labor Union No. 22551 (AFL); 3. Neither.

The River Rouge election was the largest ever conducted in a single plant by the labor board. It is the largest industrial unit in the world. The largest employe poll conducted in one corporation was by General Motors corporation April, 1940, when 125,000 workers voted in 59 plants.

Edson Writes His Washington Column for Folks Back Home

Peter Edson, Washington correspondent for the Evening Times and the more than 700 other leading newspapers which are clients of NEA service, largest newspaper feature service in the world, writes a Washington column for the folks back home.

Says Edson: "The thousands of tourists pouring into Washington indicate that the people want to get the feel of the place, and the readers back home would like to do that too, if they could." That is why he digs far beyond the routine to get out the color, the humor and the human interest of the nation's capital for an entirely different kind of Washington column.

Wide experience is a necessary background for a good newspaperman, then Edson certainly is qualified to cover Washington. Upon graduation from a Post Wayne, Ind. high school, he became a reporter on the Post Wayne News-Sentinel. A year later he entered Washington college, Crawfordsville, Ind., earning part of his tuition as spare-time reporter in the national interest of the district journal, Jean Taylor, first division for vocal solo at the district festival; Hans Wright, who received high rating in first division at both the district and regional music festivals for her mezzo soprano solo, receiving 100 per cent at Odgen, and Marjorie King for two years' service in the pep band.

HERD AT GOODING SETS HIGH MARK

GOODING, May 21 (Special)—A production index of 562 pounds of butterfat has been calculated for a registered Holstein-Friesian sire herd owned by Archie Allison, Gooding, Idaho.

Many of the records used in the proving of this sire were made in the herd owned by Archie Allison, Gooding, Idaho.

The index is one part of a complete sire analysis chart prepared on Mr. Massey's bull by the Holstein-Friesian association of America. The analysis includes detailed production figures of the daughters of this sire, Batzels Tientje Homestead, and their dams, together with averages, graphs, charts, and computed production indexes.

The six tested daughters which had aged dams averaged 562 pounds of butterfat from 1740 pounds of milk. Their dams averaged 568 pounds of butterfat from 1740 pounds of milk. On the basis of the milk of mature cows on three milkings daily, the production index is calculated to be 562 pounds of butterfat.

NEW ROAD WILL DIVERT TRAFFIC

BOISE, Ida., May 21 (UP)—WPA crews were working today on a military highway between the Boise air base and highway 30 which will permit traffic to pass between Mountain Home and Nampa without going through Boise.

The by-pass link is part of a $2,000,000 federal road building project to provide access routes to the new air base.

Designed primarily as a truck route, the new road will run directly east about six miles to connect with U. S. highway 30, several miles before it enters Boise. The new road will skirt the southern border of the air base and re-join highway 30 at Meridian to the west.

The route will cut off several miles between Nampa and Mountain Home and will eliminate necessity of passing through Boise city traffic in order to reach the two points.

Six Run Rally in Last Frame Gives Cincinnati Victory

By GEORGE KIRKREY
NEW YORK, May 21 (UP)—There was some evidence today to indicate that the world's champion Cincinnati Reds, who courted like something out of a circus sideshow during the first month of the season, finally have untraced themselves. Scoring six runs in the ninth inning, the Reds overcame a three run deficit yesterday to trim the Boston Braves, 9-6.

It was the Reds' third straight win, and gave them undisputed possession of fifth place. In their last three games, the Reds have made 20 runs, exactly the number they made in nine games previous to their current streak. The Dodgers' nosebleed continued with their fourth straight loss, a 9-1 setback by the Chicago Cubs. Kirby Hulse was the loser and for the fourth time in his last five starts failed to finish.

Pittsburgh moved into sixth place by beating the Giants, 7-5. Arky Vaughan's first homer of the season story was seen in days came out of Seattle... the announcement that Smedley Jolley would be added to the major league team, his place being taken in the Indian outfit by Pete Hughes, from an 1940 Washington club.

There is some talk in Twin Falls that really wants to undertake a project in this city that would be a tennis court program. All the cities in south central Idaho, Twin Falls has probably less tennis court space per capita than any you can mention—and that, but about includes those hamlets without any... It has been suggested that the courts be placed in various spots around the city (for convenience) and that NO lights be installed, to avoid disturbing sleepers who would like to sleep, come it dark.

See where Ty Cobb has settled his $150,000 suit out of court. A parking lot operator filed when Ty Cobb refused to admit that he had claimed he didn't know that the man who tried to collect had anything to do with the late Red Sox. Cobb's attorney: Twin Falls has played 9,000 games in nine games at home this year—compared with 8,200 in the first seven years on the road. No a bad record for all you. And in the first 16 games the Wranglers have completed 18 double plays, a department that makes the Twin Falls team a permanent threat.

One of the most important items to sportsmen: In each magpie nest raided by youngsters of this area, there have been found from one to five PHEASANT eggs. Some of these eggs were found in the area of Idaho upland game production. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Crowley, Twin Falls, football players in the United States, are now in California, for a year of study, according to word received here. Crowley, a first lieutenant, will be given a 10th century outfit, receives his 19th century outfit, receives his 19th century outfit.

Mr. and Mrs. Crowley now have two commissioned officers in the United States Army. Lt. Jerry N. Crowley is now serving as instructor at Randolph Field, Tex.

Whirlaway Wins 3rd in Row -- Triumphs in $2,500 Event

NEW YORK, May 21 (UP)—The little horse was up there all alone today—the master of all America. The name is Whirlaway and he has accomplished every leap placed before him. First he won the Kentucky derby. Then he won the Preakness. Yesterday he won this sensational stretch run again and overtook every other thing he had done in his previous races.

At least running throughout in the land. He did it by the half length in a $2,500 race and as the Henry of Navarre, he did it in a manner that stamped him as the probable "horse of the year." Whirlaway was a great sprinter and he left such one-horned veterans as D. Widen's Yearling, Your Quavate Ring's Ringler and behind in the mile and one-sixteenth race that was run in 1:48 3/4. The time wasn't impressive, but it was fast enough.

Cowboys' Trim Ogden Reds By 8-1 Score

ODDEN, May 21 (Special)—Still tied for the bottom rung of the league, but only two and one-half games out of the top spot, the Twin Falls Cowboys tackled the leading Ogden Reds again tonight in the second tilt of a three-game series.

The Cowboys showed their Sunday batting punch yesterday by a score of 8-1 for Pitcher Paul Piscovich. Tonight, Rubie Sandstrom, who has won two and lost two for the Wranglers, takes the mound against Clayton Lambert, Ogden hunk who is undefeated in competition this year—with two victories.

Last night Piscovich held the Reds scoreless until the final inning as he chalked up his fourth win in five starts. He allowed only five runs, two of which were triples.

Meanwhile, the Cowboys were trying the game on ice in the fourth frame when they counted four times. Verne Reynolds started off the inning by whiffing, but Catcher Hofstra dropped the ball and Reynolds was safe at first. Then Vic Randall and Bill Thompson singled in succession to send in the four runners.

All the anchors pounced on Kolkmeier, Ogden hurler, for 13 hits, including three each by Reynolds and Hofstra. Verne Reynolds included a triple in his collection. Frankie Pacheco also hit a three-bagger for the Cowboys.

To complete their scoring, the Cowboys added one run in the seventh and three in the ninth just to secure the victory for Piscovich.

Because there was a total lack of evidence, all the boys testified how well the baby Bear could fight.

But the prok was struck when Steve Cochran, bear's best at Chisley, Md., let the world in on a deep, dark secret.

"Bear, disguised as a farmer with overalls and a beard, took out Washington to see Louis work at Riverdale stadium," related Cochran. "He looked like a regular hillbilly."

Buddy Bear—all 8 feet, 6 and 277 pounds of him—couldn't hide his identity in armor, a sheet, burr cork, Napoleon's hat or tiger's mask.

Another bout from the steam department was that George Nichelson, chief sparring partner, who has boxed 1,000 rounds with Louis without taking the count.

Literally breathing fire and brimstone, a red, white, sheet, burr cork, Napoleon's hat and tiger's mask takes the champion's best punches with amazing nonchalance and three back with a two-fisted attack that frequently amazes onlookers.

That practically is making application to the Assignedmaster Order of the Red House Lions, that was a few new names, by the way. The collapse corps dug up by William Duffie for Verne Bert Carrner on his Great American Buckler Tours of 1930-31 has vanished altogether.

With several holdovers from the Jack Dempsey era as a nucleus, Duffie assembled the first collection of holdovers that ever stacked on their heels at one time.

CHARLEY YATES

Charley Yates Hangs up Clubs To Enter Army

ATLANTA, Ga., May 21 (UP)—British amateur champion Charley Yates today hung his golf bag in the closet and reported to Pulmon county draft board No. 1 for a year's tussle with the rough and bunkers of army life.

Beyond his induction at the Ft. McPherson center near here, Yates had no idea what the next year held for him but he was ready for whatever Uncle Sam had in store.

Yates, 28, unmarried, tall and bronzed, took the draft in stride. His order number was in the hundreds and he had known for several months that he would be called.

His last day in civilian life was just like any other. He worked during the morning at the First National bank, where he is an assistant vice-president, and played a round of golf in the afternoon.

Prizes Offered Anglers for Biggest Fish

Anglers of south central Idaho may get the added thrill of winning prizes to go with the trout catches. It was announced today as Twin Falls merchants banded together to offer special awards for the biggest trout landed in the first two days of the 1941 open fishing season.

For the biggest trout caught on May 23 or 24, the Idaho Evening and Twin Falls News are offering a $4 cash prize. For the second largest, Newton's Grey Phantom double-lapured fly line, by Sav-Modr drug store; third, one dozen Duerig hand-tied flies, by Glen Duerig; fourth, level fly line, Reed's Flyline.

Only application for entry in the contest is to make a purchase at one of the following stores: Duerig's Peter Pan, H. G. Reed's, Reed's Flyline stores, Sav-Modr, Diamond Hardware, Van Emclens, the Idaho Department store, or Falk's Sears, Roebuck.

The trout are not to be dressed and must be brought to the Independent Meat company store in Twin Falls for registry and weighing, before Tuesday noon, May 27. Fish entered in the contest will be displayed in the meat store's windows.

Complete information on the contest will be found on Page 8 of today's Idaho Evening Times.

Whirlaway Heads Entries for Hollywood Cup

INGLEWOOD, Calif., May 21 (UP)—Nominations for the $25,000 Hollywood derby close today with Whirlaway, winner of the Kentucky Derby and Preakness, heading a list of 28 thoroughbreds.

Old leading eligibles for the July 8 classic at Hollywood park are H. S. Nebitt's Starlet, second in the Kentucky derby, and Copperpan, Woodvale farm's Our Oubé, third in the Preakness; C. S. Howard's Porter's Cup; King Ranch's Dispose, and Mrs. Anthony Pefferer's Bull Reigh.

The releases cut the squad to 14, but addition of Frank Lamanack, left-handed pitcher, will bring the club to 15 players.

Pocatello Closes in On Fading Ogden Reds

The Pocatello Cardinals moved back within breathing distance of the Pioneer league leadership today with a 15-4 victory over the Salt Lake Bees. At the same time, the Ogden Reds bowed to Twin Falls, by a score of 8 to 1.

The two games left the Reds ahead by 15 percentage points. In the other loop contest, the cellar Idaho Falls Russets wacked Boles 8 to 7.

The Salt Lake defeat again demoralized the Bees, need for dependable pitching staff. Tom Robello's crew led until the fifth, when the Cardinal bats began clicking out basehits. From that point on, the game became a rout.

Tiny Ben Hogan Made Favorite To Capture Goodall Tourney

By HARRY FEAGUION
United Press Sports Editor

NEW YORK, May 21 (UP)—The Goodall round robin tournament, one of golf's sterner tests, opens at Fresh Meadows tomorrow and the favorite is Little Ben Hogan, who is just a wee bit taller and wider than the driver he swigs.

Bookmaker's odds are as high as some price of 5 to 1 in a field of 18 of the best professionals in the game. Most of his opponents will be big guys with halfback shoulders and heavyweight arms, but the bookies still think Hogan will win. Hogan barely weighs 140 lbs. and has a heavy sand wedge in his hand, is the man to beat.

Hogan is something out of Horatio Alger—the poor boy who made good, the little fellow who put in weary hours of work and sacrifice to come his lack of size, the lad who made a promise to his mother years ago and saw that promise come true.

Just because golf does not involve bodily contact, don't get the idea that it's going to be a test of brawn and strength. The National Open championship—a grind of 72 holes—finds many of the boys rugged and fit, but they are tired and exhausted. But the Goodall is almost twice as bad. The 18 players will play 120 holes and it's almost all the way with never a chance to relax the strain of nerve and muscle.

Hogan finds himself pitted against such husky citizens as Craig Wood, Vic Ghezzi, Jimmy Thomson, Lawson Little, Clayton Hearner, Jimmy Hines and Ed Oliver. Any one of them probably could pick him up with one hand, but Little Benny will stand on a tee and, on the average, belt a golf ball as far as they can.

Hogan won the last year's Goodall and he's expected to do it again. He's caddyding down in Texas, his mother suggested it might be a good idea for him to get a summer job instead of spending his time juggling clubs around the course.

Here Are Favorite Stories On New Coach Dizzy Dean

NEW YORK, May 21 (UP)—A coach gets plenty of chance to talk and plenty of chance to tell other people what to do on a baseball field. Dizzy Dean ought to be no exception.

It's comforting to know that the Cubs are going to keep Old Diz on the roster as a coach even if he is a slugger. The Cubs are the galaxy of nations and the color of the game at a time when there are too many drab, routine ball players.

What's your favorite story about Old Diz? The time he tried the catch the new of the Cardinals scored above 100? Or the time he threatened to sue the Cardinals for $150,000 because they allegedly made him pitch too soon after an injury? The idea of that or that he would refund to Owner Phil Wrigley of the Cubs the $183,000 that Chicago paid for him.

Or the time he said he hurt his arm reaching for a telephone in a New York hotel? Or that time in the fourth game of the world series between the Cardinals and the Tigers when Dean, without consulting Manager Frankie Frisco, sent him in as a pinch runner for Virgil Davis? Frisco promptly got caught between the lines and his head and eye was knocked out.

Many a Laugh

Yes, Old Diz was good for many a laugh and it's a pity he couldn't have left his oddball pitching career with a smile yesterday. But the odd thing about the funny guy is that not only do you remember long as what he did and what they said in some moment of sorrow and surrender, but the thing I will remember longest about Old Diz was a little while he took through the club's attention Oct. 15, 1935. It was the second game of the world series between the New York Yankees and the Chicago Cubs. Dean's arm was good but his lungs still were excellent and before he started the game he issued one of his customary good statements: "I'll blow them guys down."

And he almost did. He couldn't

U. S. NAVY PLANE TOTAL AT 3,476
 WASHINGTON, May 21 (UP)—Rear Admiral John H. Towers, chief of the naval bureau, announced today that the navy had ordered the production of 3,476 new U. S. Navy planes by the end of May 1, 1941, compared with 2,172 on hand in 1940.
 Progress report to Secretary of Navy Frank Knox, Towers said there was an existing shortage of pilots which would be overcome in the program of pilot training. Towers said that 196 planes were delivered to the navy and marine corps in the first four months of this calendar year, as compared with 79 in the corresponding period of 1940. Towers said the present pilot output is 200 a month, but that after January, 1942, the expanded training program will supply a reserve in advance of requirements for an eventual navy goal of 15,000 planes.

EXPANSION SEEN IN BEAN OUTPUT

Increased number of inquiries regarding credit for bean production indicated here today that southern Idaho bean growers are responding to the appeal of Secretary of Agriculture Claude R. Wickard, who asked a 25 per cent boost in dry white bean output. That was the assertion made here today by C. Haynie, secretary-treasurer of the Southern Idaho Production Credit association. Mr. Haynie said the statement by the department will act to support the market for peas and small white beans, on an eastern seaboard basis of approximately 45 per hundredweight until May 1. He pointed out that this should net Idaho growers about $3.50 per hundred bushels (about 100 bushels) variations in grades. Future supply and price situations, too, might alter the situation. Haynie quoted figures to show that last year about 6,200,000 bushels of white beans (cleaned basis) were produced in the state. The 1941 estimate that 35 per cent more is needed to handle domestic, commercial, school lunches and relief needs as well as export requirements. Increase shipping and Red Cross needs.

NAMES in the NEWS

By United Press The conservative Saturday Evening Post, after following an isolationist policy, today supported the administration in the "American crusade" against totalitarianism. An editorial in the May 24 issue said everything that was said on the leading side we still believe, but it is the reality we accept. In Washington, Secretary of Treasury Henry Morgenthau announced that the first 17 day's sale of the new defense savings bonds netted $22,846,000. Sixteen-year-old Thomas Dewey Cameron, Jr., of Family Va., confessed today he shot and killed three members of a family while robbing their store, because they recognized him as a neighbor living five miles down the road. The young mountaineer said he "wanted some money bad."
