CLARK ORDERS JOHNSTON PROBE RE-OPENED

Full Investigation Of Two 'Confession' Notes Is Demanded

BOISE, June 5 (UP)—Gov. Chase A. Clark announced today he has ordered the state department of law enforcement to revive its investigation into two anonymous notes "confessing" the murder of a Salt Lake City jewelry salesman for which Duncan McD. Johnston, former Twin Falls mayor, was twice convicted.

The governor said he has asked Law Enforcement Commissioner Jack L. Balderston for a report on investigations into the two unsigned messages—one which said Johnston was not guilty of the murder and had been "framed" and the other which stated Johnston hired the anonymous sender to kill George L. Olson in May, 1938.

The second message received by Clark came in a letter postmarked Klamath Falls, Ore., admitted the slaying of Olson and stated Olson had been the victim of a frame-up.

The anonymous note also said police would find a box of 25 caliber cartridges in the backyard of Johnston's home if they excavated.

ACTION NEAR FOR REMOVAL ORDER

Action to send Duncan McD. Johnston to the Idaho state penitentiary to start serving a life sentence for murder became imminent today with arrival of the supreme court remittitur affirming the Idaho trial verdict.

Babcock indicated he planned to file this by tomorrow, although he may postpone the action until the return of William L. Dunn, Johnston's counsel.

Dunn is expected back from Salt Lake City Saturday. He was attending the funeral of his son, Harold, today.

Babcock said he prefers to seek removal of Johnston at once but did not voice opposition to awaiting return of Dunn if friends of Johnston make the request.

ACTION

SANDPOINT, Ida., June 5 (UP)—Edson C. West of Sandpoint is a believer in the theory of direct action.

He has sent a telegram to President Roosevelt demanding the arrest and internment of Ben. Burton K. Wheeler of Montana, Col. Charles Lindbergh, Kathleen Norris and Norman Thomas.

In the message, West accused Twin Falls of being a hotbed of Fascism and national Socialism.

Deferment of Men 27 Years Old Is Asked

WASHINGTON, June 5 (UP)—The House today passed a bill to defer the selective service system today asked congress to enact legislation permitting group deferment of all men who had reached their 27th birthday by Oct. 16, 1940.

Hersey appeared before the senate military affairs committee to endorse a bill by Chairman Robert R. Reynolds, D. N. C., that would permit President Roosevelt to issue executive orders deferring men in special age groups.

Hersey testified at an executive session of the committee, but Reynolds said that according to the legislation would be to enable the deferment of men who had passed their 27th birthday anniversary before the first peacetime selective service registration day, last Oct. 16.

Reynolds said that according to Hersey the deferments would apply to men who had reached the required age and have been classified in group I-A (subject to immediate induction) but who have not already been inducted into the army.

Men of 27 or older who have not been classified also would be deferred.

MILITARY ORDERS HALTED AS HUGE FACTORY CLOSSES

INGLEWOOD, Calif., June 5 (UP)—United Automobile Workers (CIO) struck for higher wages today at North American aviation's huge Inglewood plant which produces one fifth of the nation's military planes.

The management almost immediately closed down the plant. About 8,000 workers were due to report for the day shift at 6:30 a. m. (EST) but did not enter the gates.

The strike came suddenly at 3 a. m. when the night shift left the plant, and while the national defense mediation board at Washington was seeking peace in the dispute.

Pilots Fly Ten Airplanes From Closed Factory

INGLEWOOD, Calif., June 5 (UP)—A. S. army air corps pilots entered the struck North American aviation plant today to fly away badly needed ships which had already been completed.

The C. I. O. picket lines of between 1,500 and 2,000 strikers were three taxicab loads of aviators who had been ordered to take delivery upon nine combat training planes and a twin-engine bomber.

Other crews of pilots have been called in, army officials said, and C. I. O. officials said they had no objections to flying out finished ships.

Stamp Chairman

A. W. McCONNEL—Twin Falls grocer named as chairman of the surplus foods committee which will handle local administration of the food stamp program.

The management almost immediately closed down the plant. About 8,000 workers were due to report for the day shift at 6:30 a. m. (EST) but did not enter the gates.

Hull Ponders U. S. Relation With France

WASHINGTON, June 5 (UP)—Secretary of State Cordell Hull said today developments in Franco-German collaboration may be forcing France into the aggressor camp and threatened seriously to alter her relations with the United States.

Hull issued a formal statement, in response to press inquiries. His wording left no doubt Hull regarded it as a final American plea which, if it goes unanswered, would certainly alter the present United States policy of cooperation with France in the matter of food shipments and perhaps eventual severance of diplomatic relations.

LONDON, June 5 (UP)—Diplomats who conferred with United States Ambassador John G. Winant before his departure for the United States reported tonight Winant planned to recommend to President Roosevelt that the United States sever relations with the Vichy government.

JAPANESE SERVE NEW ULTIMATUM ON DUTCH ISLES

By United Press—A possible Dutch-Japanese crisis in the far east arose today, apparently timed to coincide with preparations for new and intensive fighting on the middle eastern front.

Reports from Batavia disclosed the Japanese have served an ultimatum upon the Dutch in their long-drawn negotiations concerning economic concessions by The Netherlands East Indies.

The Japanese were said to have given the Dutch 24 hours to accept their demands and to have made plain that if the terms are not agreed to the Japanese negotiations will return to Tokyo and report to their government.

However, the far eastern tension came at a moment when it appeared Britain shortly will be occupied to the full extent of her fighting resources in the middle east.

The Tokyo newspaper, Nichi Nichi, charged in a dispatch from Shanghai that Britain, the United States and the United States military collaboration to place themselves in a position for possible war with Japan in the south Pacific.

Aircraft Production in U. S. Would Be Pushed to 40,000 With Huge Funds

Added Power

WASHINGTON, June 5 (UP)—The house appropriations committee today asked congress to appropriate $9,826,509,492 for the army for the year beginning July 1—the second largest single appropriation in history.

The bill was presented to congress simultaneously with the committee's report and recommendations, and the censored transcript of the subcommittee's hearings.

The bill would authorize the chief of staff, Gen. George C. Marshall, to purchase of whatever limits he thinks justified "by the state of world affairs," and recommends granting Marshall a $26,000,000 "blank check."

STIMSON BACKS PROPERTY DRAFT—WASHINGTON, June 5 (UP)—Secretary of War Henry L. Stimson said today congress should pass the draft property bill "as quickly as possible" to expedite defense.

BEET INDUSTRY'S ADVANCES CITED

With two vital problems successfully solved, the sugar beet industry is now concentrating on mechanizing its harvest procedure to cut its costly hand labor. Twin Falls Rotary club was told Wednesday by Harry Knook, Idaho district manager of the Admagnated Sugar Company.

Knook asserted that the industry has brought its processing methods and equipment to a high degree of efficiency. It has successfully combated the white fly menace by development of resistant seed. Current efforts to mechanize the harvest work are near success.

The sugar executive asserted that the University of California agricultural engineering department has climaxed three years of experiments by developing harvesting machines which "should be in the field by this fall."

Brief emphasis on reciprocal trade relations between Idaho and Los Angeles was offered by M. J. Brown, domestic trade commissioner of the Los Angeles county Chamber of Commerce.

Visiting Rotarians were Leroy Williams, Co. E. 1st Lt. H. B. Buhl; George Roseberry, Caldwell; James Crawford, Shoshone; Jay J. Brauer, Portland, Ore.; Ted Millington, Bishop; Bruce Easter, Portland, Ore.; Raymond Rees, Bury; Joseph H. Sims, Denver, Colo.; and M. E. Zivler, Fossilville.

EXPENSES FILED FOR SIX MONTHS

BOISE, June 5 (UP)—All departments of Idaho's state government this week were filing the expense of a new 1941 statute which provides that departmental expenditures must be divided into periods of six-months each.

With the first six months of the present biennium over last Monday, Allen Swanson, state budget director, asked each department to account for its expenditures.

In the past, appropriations have been allotted for the entire two-year period and the rate of expenditures were then left to the discretion of department heads.

Under the old system it was found that many departments were without operating funds at the end of the biennium and several had to operate the final months with a deficit.

This new system was designed to eliminate spending beyond appropriations, by dividing the sum into equal portions for expenditures during the six months.

The law has another effect, too. For instance if a department has been allocated $20,000 to operate on during the six months and only spends $10,000 the remaining $10,000 reverts to the state general fund. The returned amount can only be spent during subsequent six-month periods with permission of the state board of examiners.

EARLY 'EXAM' TO ASSIST DRAFTEES

BOISE, June 5 (Special)—Business men or those who hold key positions whose induction might entail serious financial injury to the business if they were rejected after receiving notice to report for induction, may now arrange for an advance examination at their army induction station. This new change in selective service procedure was announced in the latest report from Brig. Gen. M. C. McConnell, director of selective service in Idaho.

General McConnell said: "It has been brought to the attention of this headquarters that in some instances business men have disposed of their businesses at a sacrifice after being ordered to report for induction and were later rejected for military service at induction stations, thereby necessitating starting anew in business."

To secure an examination before induction, General McConnell pointed out that it must be given upon the request of the state director for selective service and is intended to cover only exceptional cases. It is Class I-A and that he report to an induction station at his own expense and upon arrangements through headquarters of the state.

It is imperative that any registrant who desires to secure this advance physical examination report to his local board for a letter setting forth the facts in the case, which must first be submitted to the state director, selective service headquarters, Boise, for approval. This approval must be returned to the local board. It is the sole authority for the registrant to proceed to the induction station for examination.

STATE OPERATES ON CASH BASIS

BOISE, June 5 (UP)—Idaho's state government was operating on a cash basis today for the first time in nearly two years.

Informed by State Treasurer Myrtle P. Enking that the state has no more revenue accruing in the next 30 days, the state board of examiners authorized Enking to report to the federal court.

Mrs. Enking estimated nearly all outstanding registered warrants would first be satisfied by the state by July 1. She has been issuing registered warrants since July, 1939, to pay current state operating expenses.

FRENCH CITIZENS PROTEST "COLLABORATION" WITH NAZIS

U.S. EMBASSY IN VICHY RECEIVES LETTER DELUGE

VICHY, June 5 (AP)—Hundreds of letters came to the United States embassy today from French citizens who placed on record their opposition to the "collaboration" between France and Germany.

The letters were inspired by an appeal in French daily newspapers from London to Frenchmen to display their opposition to the "collaboration" policy by writing letters to the United States Ambassador William D. Leahy.

Simultaneously, it was learned, supporters of Gen. Charles de Gaulle, Free French leader, were circulating in unoccupied France free letters inviting citizens to send their protests against "collaboration" to the United States embassy.

The deluge of letters to the American embassy coincided with intensification of the anti-American campaign in the official press, which now has spread from Paris to the newspapers of unoccupied France.

The appeals circulated by de Gaulle representatives repeated President Roosevelt's statement of May 10: "I refuse to believe the French people will accept collaboration with the power which crushed them economically, morally and politically."

It was reported that about 19 out of every 20 letters received at the embassy declared the writer's opposition to collaboration with the Germans.

Few Replies

The embassy, not having inspired the letters, has been sending replies only to those citizens who assumed the United States was backing the campaign.

The satirical weekly, Gringoire, appeared today with the front-page cartoon depicting a new statue of Uncle Sam with a scimitar nose and holding aloft a seven-branched Jewish candelabra.

SHEEPMAN FOUND DEAD NEAR CAMP

JARBIDGE, June 5 (Special)—Pedro A. Roe, sr., was found dead near his sheep camp on the Diamond A this week, according to report made to Lena Dougherty, justice of the peace and coroner for the Jarbridge district.

She left for the Diamond A to hold an inquest and details of the death have not been learned, though it is presumed to have been a heart attack as young Pete was in Jarbridge at the time and made no mention of his father being ill.

Mrs. Roe and several children survive and some brothers and a sister in Mexico City. The Roe family lived in Jarbridge for a number of years but moved to Owyhee, Wis., six or seven years ago and opened a store on the reservation there.

IDAHO MATERNAL DEATH RATE LOW

BOISE, June 5 (AP)—Dr. E. L. Berry, state director of public health, today reported Idaho has the lowest maternal death rate in the nation and its 1940 infant death rate was the lowest in history.

Favorable declines in death rates for each sex under the age of 45 have also been recorded during the last two decades, he said. In 1939 the death rate among mothers was the lowest any state has ever recorded.

An improved school health program was cited as the reason for the decline of deaths in the infant and school age groups and its effects were also felt on the reduced death rate in the 35 to 44 year age group, the doctor said.

There was no decline in the death rate of the 45-55 year age group.

RICHEST RAILWAY MAGNATE PASSES

NEW YORK, June 5 (AP)—Arthur Hays Sulzberger, 74, railroad financier, and reputedly one of the 10 richest men in the United States, died last night of pneumonia.

His wife, Eddy Parsons James, died May 15 of a heart ailment. They had no children. The funeral will be Saturday.

James controlled 40,000 miles of American railroads and probably was the largest individual owner of railroad securities in the nation.

He completed one of the last transcontinental railroad trunk lines and was the dominant figure in the linking of the Great Northern railroad and the Western Pacific.

He went around the world several times in his private yachts and was said to have planned many of his financial coups aboard his 200-foot auxiliary bark "Aloha."

James cut off 170 miles of the transcontinental railroad route by building Moffat tunnel through the Colorado mountains. He then joined the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy, the Denver and Rio Grande and the Denver and North Pacific through the Colorado mountains. He was born in 1867, the son of a million-dollar, and was graduated from Amherst college in 1889 and worked for the Phelps-Telephonic corporation as a clerk.

AXIS ALREADY ENCIRCLING U. S., SAYS SEN. PEPPER

FLORIDA SOLON SEES NEED FOR BEATING HITLER

HELENA, Mont., June 8 (UP)—The totalitarian nations already are encircling the United States, Sen. Claude Pepper, D. Fla., said in an address here last night.

Pepper, Republican of Florida, said that Russia, Germany and Japan must be destroyed or he will destroy us; there is no alternative.

He charged disguised German troops already are moving into Mexico, west Africa; that Russian troops lie within sight of Alaska, and that Japan "stares at us from across the Pacific, hungry for land and conquest... lurking like an assassin with a knife to pull another Mussolini on us and strike us in the back as an unguarded moment."

Underlines Good Will

And to the south, Pepper declared, "We must determine our good will and trade in Latin America."

Speaking under the sponsorship of the committee to defend America by aiding the allies, Pepper said:

"If Hitler controls the factories of Europe, where shall we get our supplies of tin, tungsten, manganese, zinc and copper? ... Hitler has it in his power to stop our American workman, farmer and business man."

Needs for Support

Pepper pleaded for support of President Roosevelt's foreign policy. Only "unity in the face of the common danger" can save the nation, he said.

Although he warned against the "false prophets" of isolationism, Pepper mentioned no names. He referred to Wheeler only to recall he had offered to debate "the righteousness of the President's course with the Montana Democrat" — an offer Wheeler declined.

AUTO HITS COW AND SECOND CAR

SHOSHONE, June 8 (Special)—Apparently a Jerome auto suffered the chief damage in this encounter with a cow and another car.

The machine, owned by J. D. Nicholson, Jerome, and driven by a brother employed at Sun Valley, was damaged considerably when it struck a cow and an oncoming auto on U. S. 82, eight miles north of Shoshone.

Mr. Nicholson, the driver, couldn't avoid hitting either the cow or an approaching auto. Of the two machines, the Nicholson car sustained greater damage.

Returning to Shoshone early Friday morning from Buhl, a car belonging to Don Forbes and driven by Charles Jennings left the road near the Gooding-Lincoln county line, inflicting severe back injuries to Mr. Jennings and slight injuries to Don Forbes. Mr. Jennings was taken to the home of a brother at Jerome, where he is recovering from his injuries.

It appeared that the driver had fallen asleep, momentarily losing control of the car, which was somewhat damaged.

Heywood used the expression, "a brown sweeps clean," as early as 1846.

England Prepares Gibraltar For Any Surprise Nazi Attack

By United Press

While attention is focused on Syria, Cyprus and Libya in the expectation of a decisive campaign in the eastern Mediterranean, sudden British activity is noted at the other end of that sea.

British naval and air reinforcements have arrived at Gibraltar, guardian of the western entrance to the Mediterranean, and it is reported from La Lirion, Spain, that a transport sailed last night with 1,500 civilian evacuees.

Night defense units and heavy gun practice are being held. Spanish sources reported the aircraft carriers Ark Royal and Purvis, the battleship Benbow, a cruiser and flotillas of destroyers, and submarines were taking on munitions and supplies at Gibraltar.

May Expect Trouble

This activity might indicate the British are expecting an early assault on the fortress, or merely are recoubling their precautions against looting control of the Mediterranean at either end. Gibraltar is of vital importance as a naval base to prevent the Axis from attacking the north Africa and seizing such points as Dakar, over which the United States has expressed such concern.

In the present menacing situation in the east, Gibraltar also is essential to keeping transit and supply routes open to the west, especially if the Suez canal should be blocked by Axis bombers.

BUHL CLUB AIDS CANYON PROJECT

BUHL, June 5 (Special)—J. W. Buhl, director and member of the board for the Canyon of Ten Thousand Springs association, was held last night by the Buhl club.

At present the rock is mighty, but the old myth that it is "impenetrable" has long been dropped, since this war has shown nothing is insuperable to modern methods of attack. The rock lacks bases for defense planes, and could be heavily bombed by German planes operating from Spain. It also is within reach of heavy long-range artillery which the Germans are said to have set up in Spain and in Spanish Morocco, across the strait.

Well Prepared

Gibraltar has been well prepared against such attacks. It has been transformed into a subterranean city. Deep within the hard, calcareous rock are caverns and galleries, far beyond the reach of any bomb of shell. Some are below sea level. Hundreds of feet of rock shelter murens and stores, food, hospital and living quarters for a besieged garrison and population.

For defense, batteries of heavy guns and anti-aircraft guns are scattered over the rock. The gun ports are scattered and camouflaged. The anti-aircraft batteries are reported to be exceptionally strong.

The nature of the defenses makes it apparent that Gibraltar would have to be taken by a force moving overland from Spain. Against that, elaborate precautions have been taken.

Favor Wheat Quota

BOND CANCELING ASKED BY CLARK

BOISE, June 8 (UP)—The Idaho board of examiners today had under consideration a request of Gov. Chase A. Clark to cancel many fidelity and personal bonds for state employees.

The board questioned whether the state should continue paying premiums on bonds which were not required by law.

Gov. Clark said scores of employees in various departments were covered by the bonds "and none of them mean much."

"Bonding everyone regardless of their position is becoming a racket," the governor declared.

President Asks $285,000,000 for Development of St. Lawrence

HARD BATTLE IN CONGRESS LOOMS TO GET PASSAGE

By T. REYNOLDS
WASHINGTON, June 5 (AP)—President Roosevelt, declaring America's emergency may last more than four years, urgently called for Congress today to authorize $285,000,000 for completion of the Great Lakes-St. Lawrence seaway and power project.

In a special message to the legislators, Mr. Roosevelt said approval of the undertaking would serve notice on America's enemies that "we intend to outstrip them in the race of production."
Mr. Roosevelt pointed out that development of the vast project would permit ocean-going vessels to reach the Great Lakes and make available an additional 2,200,000 horsepower of electric energy for defense.

The President's special message placed the full force of his administration and the contingencies of the defense emergency upon the project upon which he was defeated in the Senate.
"That defeat resulted when the senate refused to give the necessary two-thirds vote to ratify a St. Lawrence treaty between this government and Canada. In the present case, Mr. Roosevelt has entered into an agreement with Canada, which does not require congressional sanction except by simple majority vote to provide funds and authorization. Even so, the project faces a hard fight."

Pointing out that the St. Lawrence project will take about four years to complete, Mr. Roosevelt said:
"I should like to agree with the people who say that the country's danger will be over sooner than that (four years). But the course of world events gives no such assurance; and we have no right to take chances with our national safety."
"I know of no single project of this nature more important to this country's future in peace or war. Its authorization will demonstrate to the enemies of democracy that however long the effort, we intend to outstrip them in the race of production. In the modern world, this race determines the rise and fall of nations."

Asking Congress whether it was willing to allow America to be outstripped by the axis in the world production race, he said:
"The enemies of democracy are developing every hydro-electric project and every waterway from Norway to the Dardanelles. Are we to allow this continent to be outstripped because of the development of one of our greatest resources?"
The message requests authorization for the actual appropriations which will launch the project. Hearings on such a bill are scheduled to open in the house on June 16.

Here's what real vacations are made of

It's fun to travel with Dad
My Dad's First Class—he takes mother and us children to hotels on our vacations. We think that's half of fun traveling. When I get big I'm going to stay at hotels too—everytime.

Somebody else waits on me
To me a real vacation means two whole weeks free from worry about beds and meals. My husband says I deserve a taste of the service I give at home all year.

A lot more for your money
To me a hotel is a place to entertain our friends, a forwarding address for mail, having the car worked on while we get a real rest in a comfortable bed, in quiet, safe surroundings.

WALK-OUT SHUTS DOWN BIG PLANT

bombers, parked planes and combat trainers for American and British armed forces. "We're tired of the stalling around in Washington. The plan to get action is here on the picket line."
Apparent strategy of union leaders was to have workers leave their cars parked in the company lots to block any attempt of workers to drive inside later.

William F. Goodman, head of the plant's C. I. O. union admitted the negotiators in Washington had not approved the walkout but he added they had not disapproved.
Forced to Call Strike
"We were forced to call the strike because of the stalling," he said. "First on the part of the company and later on the part of the mediation board."
The strike had not been called, the men would have gone out of department by department in wildcat strikes.

In Washington, however, L. C. Michener, Pacific coast regional director of the UAW and leader of the union delegation, said the strike would be retroactive to May 1, that no stoppage of work or interference with production would be permitted during mediation, and for three days after the board's recommendations were made, and that neither side would make statements to the press.
The Ingwood plant last year produced more planes than any other American company. In February, 1941, it produced 230 planes of all types, a figure that represented 22 per cent of the total U. S. military aircraft production for that month, according to an announcement of the office of production management.

TENT-HOUSE FIRE FATAL TO INFANT

Edward Dale Laib, three-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Laib, died yesterday from the effects of burns sustained when a fire of unknown origin broke out in the tent-covered house in which the baby and his parents were living near Winnemucca.
The death was learned upon the arrival here last night of the father, Mrs. Laib, who rescued the child from the home, in a critical condition at the hospital at Winnemucca. She sustained severe burns about the face and arms.
Mrs. and Norma Jean, other occupants of the house, were uninjured. The mother had gone for water from a nearby spring when the screams of Norma brought her back to the house.

Mr. Laib was at work with a Hoops Construction company crew of men near Cochrane, 20 miles west of Winnemucca, when the fire broke out. It was not known whether the blaze was caused from the kerosene stove, or from the sun's rays on the canvas roof.
Theo Aslett, Twin Falls, also employed at the camp, entered the burning house behind the mother and aided in bringing the boy outside. Aslett was uninjured.
Funeral arrangements had not been completed today.

What's a Vacation? Ask These Camp Fire Girls

By JEAN DINKELACKER

What's a vacation? It's something you're willing to work for and save for, to plan for and dream about, for a couple of years.

And then have it turn out more successfully in reality than in your dreams.

That's what 11 Kimberly Camp Fire girls will tell you. If asked to define a vacation, and three other girls, special guests, will back them up.

The group, accompanied by Mrs. Clyde Urban; Mrs. Jim Barr, a former guardian; Mrs. W. F. Zilkey, counselor, and Bill Blundon, driver of the specialty chartered bus, returned to Kimberly Tuesday, after a week's tour of Oregon.

During the outing was more excitement and fun than an ocean voyage—for didn't they see the ocean, and didn't they get some first-hand knowledge of boats, some of them for the first time in their lives?

They Earned Trip

Plans for the "grandest of vacations" were begun two years ago. The girls cooked food and sponsored a bazaar, and even operated a concession at the Twin Falls county fair to raise funds.

To the girls, the vacation meant last summer, to make summer, 1941 the more memorable. Then each girl earned her share of the vacation worth of food, such as canned goods.

Bill Blundon proved himself a real "find" for he not only drove the specialty chartered bus, but also acted as a guide to the points of interest along the way and kept a careful check on equipment. The bus was arranged in such a way that the girls could rest on the baggage while riding. And some of the girls did their share of sleeping.

Thrills began to happen for the girls before they ever got out of their own state. They got to shake hands with Governor Clark at Boise, and to sit in the chair of the chief executive.

Who were these lucky girls? Gale Bowyer, Alice Emerson, Regina Ur-

Lovelace-Hall Wedding Scene

Addressing the bride for the first time as "Mrs. Guilford J. Lovelace" is Claude E. Milligan, who assumed best man duties at the wedding of Miss Wayve Hall and Mr. Lovelace, Susanville, Calif., this morning at the O. C. Hall home. Standing in the receiving line with the bride and bridesmaid at the reception are, left to right, Mrs. Paul Galloway, Twin Falls; Mrs. Oliver J. Meigs, Oakland, Calif.; and Mrs. Claude E. Milligan, who were in the roles of bridesmaids. (Times Photo and Engraving.)

Wayve Hall, Guilford Lovelace Pledge Vows at Morning Rites

Similarly styled gowns of mousseline de soie and lace were worn by both the bride and the bridesmaids for the early morning wedding today of Miss Wayve Hall and Guilford J. Lovelace, Susanville, Calif.

The single ring ceremony was read at 9 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Hall, 921 Seventh avenue north, parents of the bride, by Bishop Claude C. Brown.

Mr. Lovelace is the son of Mr. and Mrs. DeWitt Lovelace, Susanville. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Nuptial Music

The bride and groom played the Lohengrin Wedding march, by Wagner. Miss Hall descended the broad staircase to an improvised altar in front of the bride, where she was met by the bishop, the bridegroom and his best man, Claude E. Milligan, brother-in-law of the bride.

She was preceded by three bridesmaids, her sisters, Mrs. Claude E. Milligan, Twin Falls, and Mrs. Oliver J. Meigs, Oakland, Calif., and Mrs. Paul Galloway, Twin Falls, a former classmate.

Following the ceremony, Mrs. Galloway, Mrs. J. M. Kirkman and Mrs. E. W. Henderson sang "Love Came Calling," "Zamboni," and "The Wedding Song." "I Love You Truly," Carrie Jacobs-Bond.

Following the rites, an informal reception was held, attended by 80 relatives and friends of the bride.

Honeymoon Jewelry

The bride's wedding gown was designed with a bouffant skirt, fitted bodice and lace gauslet sleeves. Her finger tip veil of white tulle was held in place with a coronet of white rosebuds.

The bride's wedding gown was an heirloom silver and pearl pendant belonging to her mother. The bride wore a shower arrangement of pale pink rosebuds with blue; Mrs. Galloway's of mustard yellow, and Mrs. Meigs' of pink. They carried quiet Colonial nosegays and minute arrangements of match-cakes, the bride wore worn in their hair.

Mrs. Hall wore a black marquisette frock with a collar of sweet pea and white roses.

Dress of White Peonies

The standards of white peonies marked either side of the fireplace, and the unit was centered with an arrangement of the same flowers. The currier of the staircase was marked by a tall bouquet of flowers.

The three-tiered wedding cake was bracketed at the base by pink rosebuds and fern, and four ivory tapers in crystal holders marked the sides of the reception table.

Miss Winifred Potee, who has a talent for floral arrangements, supervised the decorations. She is here from Los Angeles for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Potee. Assisting in serving at the reception were:

Satire Featured at Achievement Event

Four hundred persons who attended the first Twin Falls stake L. D. S. Relief society achievement program Tuesday evening at the L. D. S. stake recreation hall here, were unanimous in their pronouncement of a special skit as being "the most hilarious comedy I have seen."

Fifty men from every town in the stake took part in the "most hilarious comedy" during a union meeting of the Relief society organization from a man's point of view, and inspired by the Robert Burns quotation, "O wad some power the giftie gie us To see ourselves as ithers see us."

Impersonators

Mrs. Afton W. Hunt, president, was impersonated by Mel Carter; Mrs. Pearl Allenback, first councilor, by Mrs. Maude Hutchinson, second councilor, by Mitchell W. Hunt; members of the board, Mrs. Hertha Lawrence, by Arland Hutchinson; Mrs. Elizabeth Shirley, by Jack Fredrickson; Mrs. Eva Adamson by J. E. Alred; Mrs. Eva Smith, by Mrs. Mable Schenk; by Bill Lusk; Mrs. Nettie Jenkins by Louie Hayes; Mrs. Mary Wright by Golden Barlow, and Mrs. Ina Smith by Wesley Glenn.

Wearing the clothes of the women impersonated, they conducted a cartoon version of a union meeting of the group, followed by a union meeting, attended by numerous men dressed as "typical women" from every ward in the stake.

Highlight of the union meeting program were the musical numbers by the Bull Singing Mothers group, impersonated by "Pop" Papenfuse, Charles Stalling, Edson Wood, Paul Bowen and Seth Dunn, all of Huhli; a "young man" chosen from the second ward, and young men dressed in popular modes of the day, including Farrell McOllie, Bob Kirkman, Douglas and Claude Brown, Jr., Wyland Lind, Herman Christensen, Louie Hends, Doyle Clark, Ute Hollander.

Other parts of the program were: "Report on the Relief Society Magazine Drive," Mitchell Hunt; "Do and Don'ts for Relief Society Teachers," Jack Fredrickson; "Report on a Welfare Project," P. L. Lawrence. The songs and script for this skit were written by Mrs. Hunt with the entire stake board assisting in its production.

The comedy was presented by a ceremony honoring the ward leaders and especially welcoming into the organization the 80 new members who have joined the group this year. Background music was furnished by Charles Shirely, violinist, and Mrs. Mable Schenk, piano.

Mrs. Mable Schenk read a tribute and explanation of the ceremony in unity with the action which was presented by the Relief Society and authority in the organization.

Candlelighting Rites

Stake President J. W. Richins and other ward leaders and singing elders, the Relief society ward president and the ward coordinators took part in an effective candlelighting ceremony. The singing candles held by new members burnt into golden flame from their lead.

Following the candlelighting, the organization sang "The Song of the Stars" and also accented in corage bouquets presented to each new member during the ceremony.

Each ward president received an "achievement corage" from the Relief Society. The audience was in social darkness, save for the candle-

FIRING FRED HANEY TERMED
FOOR ALIBI FOR FLIGHT OF
ST. LOUIS BROWNS... NEW COWBOY HURLER CHECKS IN

The poor managers always take it on the chin.

Today's bad news dispatches announced that Fred Haney has been ousted as boss of the St. Louis Browns—and his place taken over by the veteran catcher, Luke Sewell.

Now, Mr. Donald C. Barnes, president of the Browns, has the right to hire and fire any man he wants connected with the club—by laying the blame on a manager for the poor showing of the Browns is like saying the Nationals are the cause of any of the American industrial plants.

It just isn't so.

Year-out and year-out, the Browns have been in or near the cellar—and the reason for their debacle can't be laid to the manager, because there aren't that many good big-league managers.

Haney has been rated a sound boss in the years he has been skip of the Browns—but Mr. Barnes has to have some way to satisfy the customers, so he lays the blame on Haney by giving him the sack.

The real trouble is that the St. Louis Browns haven't the financial backing to put a winning team in the field. If they develop a good player, then they have to sell him to meet expenses.

And if their system might remedy the situation.

But firing managers won't.

Firing Haney, incidentally, is just about as sensible a trick as the Twin Falls management would make. It's the same old story because the team certainly can't be blamed on the manager.

And it is acknowledged to be a bad series of breaks and failure of the outfielders that has caused the team to get the Twin Falls club in the hole.

Short shot: The American Forestry association of Washington, D. C., will stage one of its two quarter million acres of the Sawtooth wilderness. The party is scheduled for the week ending July 13, ending the jaunt Aug. 3. The group is limited to 15 to 25 men and women, with reservations being made in advance. A reminder to "wilderness" seekers in Idaho: The forest fire season in Idaho hasn't even started, but an acre or two have been burned—fires being caused mostly by careless outfielders and vacationers.

Sewell haven't heard if any of the Vandal alumni have contacted Ted Lake to get the Browns herding cats to attend the University of Idaho.

Of course, maybe the Idaho backers are looking for football money, but if they are they're making a sad mistake. And if anybody is overloading Ted Lake with over-the-hill players, it's another excellent mistake being made.

Because, if Ted would come through for the university he could get more publicity in one spring than a 30-0 football team would in three seasons.

Big Gene Bohnen, the Kittitas, Wash. high school boy, pulled in to town today and will get his first major league tryout tonight.

A regular string-bender, he won't do the Wrangler mound staff any harm—stands six feet, two inches, weighs in at 130 pounds. And just graduated from high school.

Long Mike Budnik, former Twin Falls hurler, checked up his sixth in a row for Spokane's other night and may get recalled to Seattle in the near future—unless the Rubber City manager picks up in very quick time.

Earl Kupper, the Cowboy outfielder and catcher, who is regarded by one and all as a very fine player, is being collected a bit or so in every game recently and when he starts getting those rifle-throwing binges through the infield it will be a tough old-time for opposing pitchers.

We doubt that the night baseball will ever see electricity for defense production, will ever go into effect in the intercontinentals territory, or right now there is more electric power in this territory than could be used with addition of a dozen major defense industries.

The ballyhoo for the Billy Conroy Joe Louie, champion ship fight the 18th of this month goes merrily along—and the promoters already have many of the writers figuring that No-Hit Billy has a chance.

But with a boxer the type of Count Flynnter, Louie knows that he can't be hurt, should be a slaughter-keep because Sheriff Joe will just keep beating in advance that there won't be any defense.

And then—SOCK!—and the fight over.

Easy wasn't it?

| Idaho Falls | 14 | 17 | .452 |
| Twin Falls | 10 | 19 | .344 |

Back from Idaho Falls, where they won two out of four contests, the Twin Falls Cowboy take the field here tonight at 8:30 against the tough Ogden Reds in the first tilt of a four-game series.

Manager Andy Harrington will make his first appearance in the home dugout in over two weeks to direct the activities of the Cowboys and an added attraction may be Ed Heffernan, the big outfielder, who arrived yesterday from St. Mary's college in California.

Harrington announces that his pitching choice tonight will be either Merrill Reed, the left-hander or veteran Bob Fitzke, who hasn't won a game this year, but who has turned in some fine relief performances.

Last night the Wranglers absorbed their worst shelling of the year in a 1-4 defeat by the Russels. The spudmen of the north pounded on Dick Maas and Art Carpenter for a total of 21 safe blows—only three of them singles and 17 singles—as they evaded the series at 'em.

A big eight-run uprising in the second frame tugged the game away for the Idaho Falls club.

However, a bright light in the Cowboy work was the old infield (with only Frankie Pacheco and Andy Harrington missing) click that saw the Wranglers turn in three more double plays to take a wide lead over all other teams in the Pioneer loop in that department.

Polvina for Reds

For tonight's encounter here, Manager Bill McCorry of the Reds has picked Ken Polvina to do the double play duty.

The Cowboy-Russet game was the only one played in the Pioneer league last night. Boise at Salt Lake and Pocatello at Ogden being rained out.

Other games tonight send Salt Lake to Pocatello and Idaho Falls to Boise.

Turpin Shuts Out Sacs for 2-0 Victory

By United Press

Sacramento suffered its first shut-out of the season last night when Hal Turpin, Seattle right-hander, blanketed the league-leading Solons with 10 scattered hits for a 2 to 0 victory.

The win was the more remarkable because Norbert Kleinke, on the mound for the Senators, handed out only four hits.

Turpin's Braves scored their second straight over San Diego by a 6 to 4 score. Ad Liska was credited with the victory.

Los Angeles wrapped last place with Oakland by scoring a 6 to 1 victory over the Acons when Julio Bonilla set the Oaks down with six hits. Jack Salveson allowed 15 hits and four runs before he retired.

Hollywood scored its second straight over San Francisco, 5 to 3. Frankie Dasso gave the Seals only seven hits. In the third, successive doubles by Bob Kralie, Harry Rosenberg, and Joe Hoover, a walk to Babe Herman and Cliff Dapper's triple led the game.

Larry Jansen was the victim of the big inning.

Youngster, 15, Plays In National Open

BY HARRY FERGUSON
FORT WORTH, Tex., June 5 (UP)—It's true a little child shall lead them. The youngster who is to watch today as the field starts out in the National Open golf championship.

Tyrell Garth, Jr., of Beaumont, Tex.

He is 15 years old, has a face that looks like it never had been touched by a razor and is the youngest person ever to shoot for the biggest prize in golf. Even in the days when Bobby Jones was considered the "boy wizard of golf," he did not get into the open until he was 16.

It is going to be quite a sight when Tyrell tees off this afternoon. There will be no big gallery following him because the crowd will be behind the Nelson, Hogans, Littles and McSpedens—the big shots of the game. But Tyrell will have a gallery of two, and it will be a gallery that will be ducking behind trees, taking cover in bushes and using every known device of the old Indian warriors to keep the youngster from seeing them.

His fans

It will be his father and mother.

Tyrell says it makes him nervous for his parents to follow him around the course, so they try to sit quietly on the clubhouse lawn and wait until he comes in, then Garth, Jr., soon begins to dig, and then he and Mrs. Garth slip out on the course and take up the trail of their son. They're not ducking behind trees, but watching him all afternoon, Tyrell said, "but I don't mind that. I've had 'em' when they walk along beside me all afternoon. I get nervous."

With a little luck, Garth, Jr., would have been in this tournament himself. He and his son tried to qualify for the open, but Garth,

Whirly' Near Solid Choice For Belmont

NEW YORK, June 5 (UP)—The solid rush towards Calumet farm's Whirlyway in Saturday's running of the Belmont stake continued today as the railbirds buzzed about the diminutive chestnut's sensational performance of a mile and a quarter in 2:02 2/5.

"It's better right now than at any time in his career," exulted Trainer Ben Jones as he gave his horse a few final touches before winding up training for the race that can make him the fifth horse in history to capture the three-year-old triple crown. "He should just breeze in Saturday."

Most observers believe Jones is right. With only Robert Morris, Itabo, Yankee Chance, and Lord Klitchner to beat, Whirlyway is expected to drop as low as 17/10 in the betting.

The Belmont field will be drawn tomorrow. Only Robert Morris is a certain starter against the Calumet colt. The chances of the others will be reckoned once the condition of the track is known. The footing was muddy today and the forecast was for more rain.

Little

Churned in 60 in practice; Dick Turner, ex amateur champion; Marvin Elud Ward of Spokane and Wilfred Wehrle were the only ones conceded a chance.

He is 15 years old, has a face that looks like it never had been touched by a razor and is the youngest person ever to shoot for the biggest prize in golf. Even in the days when Bobby Jones was considered the "boy wizard of golf," he did not get into the open until he was 16.

It is going to be quite a sight when Tyrell tees off this afternoon. There will be no big gallery following him because the crowd will be behind the Nelson, Hogans, Littles and McSpedens—the big shots of the game. But Tyrell will have a gallery of two, and it will be a gallery that will be ducking behind trees, taking cover in bushes and using every known device of the old Indian warriors to keep the youngster from seeing them.

His fans

It will be his father and mother.

Tyrell says it makes him nervous for his parents to follow him around the course, so they try to sit quietly on the clubhouse lawn and wait until he comes in, then Garth, Jr., soon begins to dig, and then he and Mrs. Garth slip out on the course and take up the trail of their son. They're not ducking behind trees, but watching him all afternoon, Tyrell said, "but I don't mind that. I've had 'em' when they walk along beside me all afternoon. I get nervous."

With a little luck, Garth, Jr., would have been in this tournament himself. He and his son tried to qualify for the open, but Garth,

Old Dog Learns New Tricks And Top Trainer Tells How

By TOM WOLF
(NEA Staff)

That old saw about it being impossible to teach an old dog new tricks is all wrong.

An old dog is the best kind to teach new tricks.

You have this from C. T. Tryon, who has probably trained more pooches than any other man in show business.

"Dogs are like children," says Tryon, "the human component of the 'Hector & Fala' vaudeville act. Youngsters can be taught many things, but they learn more quickly when they are old enough to understand what they are doing.

"There are," points out Tryon, "four things every dog should learn, exclusive of tricks. He must be housebroken. He must come when called, sit at command. He should be taught to heel.

"A definite age cannot be set as the proper one for housebreaking a dog, but six months is a good average. Take the dog out as frequently as possible. The compliment and pat him."

Teaching a dog to answer a call, Tryon ties a string to his collar, treads away from the dog and pulls gently on the string when he calls him.

Teaching a dog to sit, he pushes him into a sitting position when he orders him down.

Tryon believes dogs understand more when they think and reason. But they must be shown several times before they catch on.

Most important of all, especially for city people, is teaching a dog to heel.

"Walk with your dog on a very loose lead, keeping him at your heel," advises Tryon. "Keep telling him to heel. When he's in the right position, encourage and compliment him. A dog should be made to heel every time you cross the street.

"At the far side he should be made to sit for a moment. Otherwise he'll start anticipating a romp when he reaches the far curb, and he'll run before he reaches it."

Adapted to tricks

After dogs have learned the basic rules of canine etiquette, training is no longer a mystery. Tryon doesn't consider any breed smarter than another, but each is adapted naturally to special tricks. Bull dogs, for example, easily learn to retrieve, pose and sit. They're not adapted to somersaults or walking on their hind legs—at which terriers excel.

How should a recalcitrant pup be punished?

"That," explains Tryon, "depends on the individual dog. A timid dog would be cowed by a slap—on the nose or rump.

"Never hit a dog when you're training him. If you do, he'll associate your words with the blow and stop listening to you."

"For the same reason, don't feed a dog every time he carries out a command. If you do, he'll be thinking of the food not listening."

Melita Not Smarter

Tryon does not believe the popular adage that mutts are smarter than thoroughbreds.

Tryon has trained some 350 dogs of all kinds. He has 40 of all varieties in his Los Angeles kennel. The stage name, Hector, came from a little white poodle with which he started.

Tryon never gives a dog away or sells one, even if the dog turns out to be useless for his age.

Graduating from the University of Michigan as an engineer, C. J. Tryon went to work surveying. He liked dogs... kept several as pets... taught them tricks in his spare time. One thing led to another and another to show business.

New Cowboys Report to Harrington

Two new additions to the Cowboy baseball club will take the field at Jaycee park tonight for workouts before the game with the Ogden Reds—although probably neither will see action until they get acclimated to the high altitude.

The new boys, who arrived in town last night and early today, are Ed Hefferman, St. Mary's college athlete from California, and Gerold Bohman, Kittitas, Wash., high school star.

Playing for Earl Sheeley at St. Mary's, Hefferman batted .320 in the tough Con conference league baseball league, in which the Gaels tied with Clint Evans' California club for the championship. Included in Ed's collection were two home runs and several other extra-base blows.

Bohman has pitched high school baseball this year and has a record of four victories and one loss for his school club. In 15 innings he allowed only 18 safe hits.

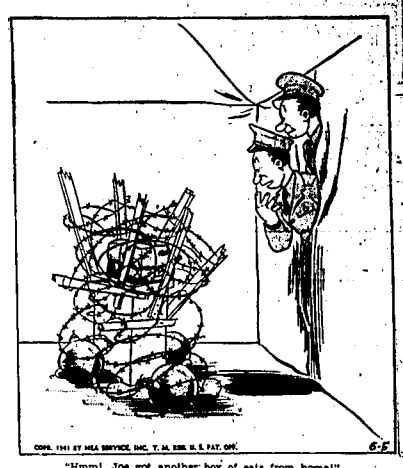

Hefferman has been an all-around athlete at St. Mary's for three years, being a regular half-back with the Gaels and touring with that club all over the country.

Cardinals Use Three Shortstops in Infield

By PAUL SCHEFFELS
(NEA Staff)

NEW YORK, June 5 (U.P.)—Back of Billy Southworth's spring success story with the St. Louis Cardinals stands a "so many" story that's pointing at the National League pennant and at the book of all-time baseball records.

Manager Southworth has so many shortstops that a man with less acumen might be stumped. But he solved the problem neatly and now the Cardinals, who became the pride of the west before the 1941 season was a month old, have three shortstops feeding throws to Johnny Mizal at first base. Only one of them, however, Martin Marion, wears "next to his name in the daily box scores."

Frank (Creepy) Crepal was a shortstop at Shelby, N. C., in 1937; at Springfield, Mo., in 1938; and at Rochester, one of the past two years. Jimmy Brown shortstopped in the minors and two years with the Cards before becoming a convertible infielder when Marion took over shortstop permanently in the spring of 1940.

Infield Has Class

This spring Crepal and Brown plus second and third basemen and three-shortstop ring which is the talk of the National League and lauded by many experts as one of the greatest grinder-grabbing line-ups in baseball.

In the Cardinals' first 25 games of the current race the team totalled 394 assists, an average of 15.8 assists per game fielding averages by a wide margin. At that rate their total assists in 151 games will be 2,427. In the book the record is 2,203, a mark that has stood since 1917 when another Cardinal team posted there.

Team totals in assists mean mostly infield throws, more than three-fourths of the total. Crepal last season the infielders were responsible for about 78 per cent of the 1,483 assists chalked up in National League box scores. Pitchers threw to the right base 2,135 times. Catchers' throws totaled 617. Outfielders accounted for only 10 of the ball-handling moves totalled in 1940.

Speed Begins to Tell

The 11,310 throws, mostly to first base, represent the infielders' share of the aggregate assisting. The runaway pileup of assists by the Cardinals in fielding averages this spring—they were ahead of the next best club, more than 100 ahead of most of their rivals—is due mainly to their fast, stop-manned infield lineup. The new record, if they make it, will write an important chapter in the Southworth-succasa-story in the all-time book.

Most pitchers are just that—just pitchers—but these bolter the pitching situation. When you have three shortstops walloping off the outfield, it's worth three, four or sometimes as many as a dozen singles on any given day to the man on the mound.

Miller Stiggins' 1917 infield put his team's name in the book for at least 25 years but finished third in the pennant race. Stiggins didn't have Johnny Mize, Snow Blaught and a basking order whose average topped the league in the first five weeks of play.

Of course, the shortstop area's the widest and Bird's disease story; but they go to make part of one of the greatest-looking Cardinals' outfields in several years.

McCarthy had to bench Rizzuto and Priddy because the Yankees were not winning. If either made an error or failed to come through at the plate in a pinch and the outfit lost, he felt it was his fault.

Joe McCarthy had to protect Phil Rizzuto and Gerry Priddy against this pressure.

When they get back, George Weiss is confident they'll protect themselves.

THE SCOREBOARD

By HARRY GRAYSON
(NEA Staff)

Yankees have not given up on Phil Rizzuto and Gerry Priddy, but the Kansas City club no longer are a second base combination.

Priddy returns to the lineup, Gerry Priddy is expected to replace Bob Rolfe at third.

As one veteran New York observer puts it, Red Rolfe looks like a man 99 years old.

Joe McCarthy is beginning to suspect that the Detroit slugger no longer gets a good break on balls hit to either side of him.

His batting slumped with his fielding.

Priddy is working out at the farm.

Priddy moved to his left satisfactorily at second, but left something to be desired in going to his right. Going to the right is not so important at third, where again Priddy is protected by the foul line.

George Weiss, director of the Yankees' farm system, points out that if Rizzuto and Priddy flop, they will be the first to come out of the chain with a slick-walk-the-bank label who failed to make the grade. Rolfe, Charley Keller, Marius Russo and Buddy Hoen came from subsidaries this designated.

Rizzuto showed enough at shortstop during his brief whirl with the Cardinals to make it evident that Little Scooter will be capable of filling in when—and if—the hot weather accounts for a gaffe in the sphere makes it advisable to again remove the veteran Frank Crosetti.

Weiss insists that when they get back to the farm, Rizzuto will play as well or better for the Yankees than they did for the Browns.

Weiss traces the youngsters' trouble to the tremendous ballpunch given them during the winter and spring.

It wasn't fair to compare them to Lou Boudreau and Ray Mack of Cleveland. The Indians duo had time to get acclimated with the fact that the whole key to the situation rested on their shoulders.
