ORCHARD MEETS PARDONS BOARD, NO ACTION TAKEN

BOISE, July 9 (U.P.)—Labor terrorist Harry Orchard appeared briefly before the Idaho pardons board today, but the board took no immediate action on his appeal for a pardon.

There were indications the board might not act on the appeal of the 70-year-old confessed murderer of Gov. Frank Steunenberg, and 30 others, until later in the week.

Board members had acted on less than half the 143 requests for freedom presented during the present session. They indicated they might not reach Orchard until most of the cases were exhausted.

Wearing striped prison garb, Orchard appeared in the board room, shook hands and was introduced to Gov. A. C. C. and other members of the board.

Offered Chicken Farm
Photographs were taken and Orchard was excused.

Orchard told reporters of his hope for freedom, and said he had been offered a chicken farm on which to live if the board should grant a pardon.

The board still had to act upon more than three score cases for clemency.

The board later yesterday freed two persons serving terms for murder, and a third obtained commutation of a 25-year-to-life sentence. Mary Crumroy, who has served 14 years and nine months, stands for life sentence for the poison killing of her husband was one of those released.

Another was Lovell Howard, who served six years of a life sentence for the knifing murder of 70-year-old George Hull in Blaine community. He was given a four-year conditional release.

Sentence Reduced
Gustaf Abrahamson had his sentence commuted to a straight 15 years. He was given a second degree murder in Benewah county.

English Troops To Be Retained On Tiny Island

By EDWARD W. BEATTIE, JR.
LONDON, July 9 (U.P.)—The British and United States navies will cooperate in "the most dangerous waters" of the North Atlantic to insure American supplies destined for ports on Iceland and protect British convoys to England, Prime Minister Winston Churchill hinted in the house of commons today.

Churchill announced at the same time the British forces at Iceland, estimated to number 80,000 men, would be retained there to cooperate closely with the United States forces stationed on the island.

Churchill pointed out that the United States forces at Iceland would require provisioning and re-supplying from time to time.

These commitments of American supplies for the American forces on duty overseas for the purpose of the United States will, of course, have to traverse the most dangerous waters and as we have a very large traffic constantly passing through these waters it may, I dare say, be found mutually advantageous in practice that the two navies involved should assist each other as far as convenient in that part of the waters," he said.

UNION PACIFIC TO END SLEEPER CAR SERVICE TO AREA

Effective Thursday, the Union Pacific Railroad company will discontinue Pullman car service in and out of Twin Falls, it was announced this afternoon by L. M. Beerup, traveling freight and passenger agent here.

Beerup said that decision to stop the Pullman service was made because of the small number of persons availing themselves of this service since it was inaugurated about two years ago.

The Pullman service has been available on the train leaving Twin Falls for the east at 7 p. m. and returning to this city the following morning at 6 a. m.

Records show that during the past 12 months only 166 passengers have used the service, and of this number only 67 came from Twin Falls, Buhl and other communities on the branch line.

Cost to the Union Pacific was approximately $100,000 in operating expenses to this city the following morning at 6 a. m.

The service was discontinued to maintain the service.

Russians Assert Germans Routed

HUNDREDS DEAD IN HEAVY FIGHT

By HENRY SHAPIRO
MOSCOW, July 9 (U.P.)—The Red army reported today the German forces driving toward Moscow on the central front had been hurled back in retreat, and the side army in the extreme south had been routed in the Pskov sector and driven back across the Pruth river into Rumania.

The Germans left "hundreds of dead" on the field as they retreated eastward in the Lepel sector, the war communiqué said. After Russian counter blows had smashed two enemy motorized regiments.

(The report of triumph in the Lepel sector was regarded as of greatest importance because the Nazi advance there had been one of the strongest of several drives toward Moscow.)

All along the front the war communiqué said, the Red army held up or turned back the German forces in severe fighting, especially in the Bobos direction near the Latvian border, while the Russian army pounded an enemy column, smashing and destroying 102 German planes and losing 10.

Germans Report Steady Gains Toward Leningrad

By ALEX DREIER
BERLIN, July 8 (U.P.)—German armed forces were reported by the official news agency today to have occupied the Russian town of Ostrov on the road to Leningrad and to have made "a large territorial gain" in Bessarabia on the southern sector of the eastern front.

A Russian attempt to establish new defense positions on the Latvian-Soviet frontier (in the Ostrov sector, 190 miles south of Leningrad) was smashed and Russian troops were hurled back by the advancing Germans, the agency reported. The dispatch added the Estonian towns of Pella and Pernau (Pernov) also were occupied. Pernau is on the coast, about 100 miles north of the Latvian capital of Riga.

The high command did not make any specific claims regarding the eastern front.

Heavy battles had been reported in progress in the Ostrov sector, that inside the pre-war Soviet frontier and an outpost of the main Stalin line defenses, for several days. Ostrov sits on the railroad leading north and slightly eastward toward the big Russian industrial center of Leningrad.

The news agency reported 329 Soviet planes, including an entire squadron of 27 that attacked a German airfield, were destroyed Monday and Tuesday.

The Russians were said to have suffered heavy losses in men and material in Bessarabia.

The Russians employed strong tank forces in an attempt to hold up the German offensive, the agency said. The Russians were repulsed after hard fighting, it was added, and the German and Rumanian troops "pursued" the Russians.

Numerous machine guns were among the large quantity of war materials captured, it was said.

Reprieve Set For Principal In Patricide

BOISE, July 9 (U.P.)—Gov. Chase A. Clark said today he would reprieve Mrs. Florence Phillips, 18, a principal in the desert slaying of her father, Charles Sanders, June 29, 1940.

Clark said David G. Hyde, an L. D. S. bishop at Shoshone, Idaho, near where the crime occurred, had requested the reprieve.

Mrs. Phillips, now an inmate of the Idaho state penitentiary, will be given into his custody, Clark said.

Mrs. Phillips and her two brothers, George Sanders, 18, and Joseph Sanders, 20, were arrested after their father's body was found in the desert north of Shoshone.

A coroner's jury said the father had been hog-tied and abandoned to die of thirst and starvation.

A fourth participant, Chester Phillips, 20-year-old husband of Mrs. Florence, is in the state mental hospital at Blackfoot.

2-10 Year Prison Sentence Decried In Jerome Killing

JEROME, July 9 (Special) — James J. Robertson, 69, charged with voluntary manslaughter, reduced from first degree murder, today was sentenced to serve from two to 10 years in the state prison.

The sentence was passed by District Judge T. Bailey Lee as Robertson, a fruit peddler and handy man, appeared before him this morning.

Robertson was charged with the shooting of Stanley Gasto, 28, a WPA worker last April 19 following a quarrel. Gasto died a few hours after he was shot twice.

During the trial, last week in district court, Robertson claimed self-defense. A jury of 12 farmers returned the verdict which reduced the first degree murder charge to voluntary manslaughter.

Robertson was on the stand in his own defense, Robertson denied that he shot Gasto but admitted it was premeditated.

Judge Lee in passing sentence agreed to give the elderly prisoner two days, under supervision of officials, to wind up his business affairs before he is taken to Boise and prison.

Two of the planes crashed and burned in the fire, farmhands around Madera after their occupants had bailed out. The third landed in a vineyard at Redkey, 50 miles southwest, and was damaged.

The ships, which had refueled late in the afternoon at Tucson, Ariz., had run out of gasoline while returning to Los Angeles.

Important Step

Emphasis on United States occupation of Iceland was one of the most important events of the Churchill speech in the United States house of commons today.

Churchill said that the United States forces at Iceland would require provisioning and re-supplying from time to time.

"Stab in Back," Cry Germans After U. S. Iceland Occupation

By JOSEPH W. GRIGG, JR.
BERLIN, July 9 (U.P.)—Germany complained today President Roosevelt has stabbed it in the back by occupying Iceland at the moment it was fighting to free the world from threat of Bolshevism, and emphasized he would have to bear responsibility for his action.

Nazi agencies said the President had brutally violated the sovereignty of a small nation but said the thoughts of all civilized persons would be with Germany in its struggle against Bolshevism in behalf of the world.

German comment on the occupation of Iceland was delayed but it came finally in a flood.

The first statement was that the American action was a purely aggressive move which indicated President Roosevelt's intention of establishing direct contact with the European war.

"Roosevelt will have to bear the consequences now that he has decided to enter the war zone," a spokesman said.

"Roosevelt has consciously entered a battle area where there is sharp fighting," said the German Telegram. "The responsibility lies with him."

A broadcaster said on the official radio in an English language program:

"At a time when Germany in the name of those whom it wished to liberate is engaged in war against Bolshevism, Roosevelt decides to strike at Europe from behind and so he violated the sovereignty of the Icelandic people, who are so anxious of remaining independent."

"Roosevelt has decided to enter the war zone where no quarrel is given. Germany considers his action an unheard-of interference and will not tolerate it."

"Roosevelt's policy is one of a con-

Airplane to Drop Fingerling Trout Into Sawtooth Lakes

Rainbow and eastern brook trout—300,000 of them—will find new homes today, taking with them the hopes of anglers throughout the state.

The fish will be dropped from an airplane today, Saturday, at Lionel A. Dean and Leonard Stevens, here, local commercial pilots, plan them in that area from the air.

Dean left by motor for Halley at 10 a. m. today, taking with him a carload of supplies for the hazardous flights. Stevens took off from the local field in Dean's ship, an Eagle, at 10 a. m. and will be in to meet Dean in Halley.

First plantings of the fish will be made immediately afterwards. The fish will be dropped from the air, four lakes near Mt. Hyndman, about 100 miles northeast of Halley, will be some of the first aerial plantings which will see 60 lakes visited before the trip is over Saturday evening.

Four Lakes Today
After planting the four lakes this evening, Stevens will fly on to the Idaho Rocky Mountain club landing strip at Halley, where the local base for operations until the job is completed.

The two men will take turns planting the various lakes and, because of the altitude at that point and the bad weather, will be able to fly only in the early morning hours and in the evening.

Before leaving here this afternoon, Dean said that the specially constructed runway at the Rocky Mountain club is about 78 feet wide and five-eighths of a mile long.

Needs It All
"With a full load we'll use about 100 gallons of fuel," Dean said, "at that altitude, which is 6,200 feet."

Dean said.

The planting is being sponsored by the Idaho fish and game department under the direction of Burton Ferrin, fish culturist.

Stevens said that Stevens made the first aerial planting in the Sawtooth mountain area and they proved entirely successful, although only a few thousand fish were dropped.

The initial test was made a few weeks earlier at Clear Lake near Buhl while state and national fish and game officials looked on. At that time about 200 fish were dropped in two tin pans. The plane was flown by Dean and the fish were thrown out from 100 and 300 feet

FDR TO REQUEST LEND-LEASE, NAVY AND ARMY FUNDS

WASHINGTON, July 9 (AP)—President Roosevelt disclosed today he will ask Congress for two supplemental lend-lease, army, navy, and maritime commission appropriations, which congressional sources indicate may approximate $5,000,000,000 or $6,000,000,000.

Through his secretary, Stephen T. Early, Mr. Roosevelt directed two separate appropriation requests will be made:

1. Supplemental funds expanding the lend-lease program.
2. Funds for the anticipated requests, but said he had been reading newspaper stories predicting the total would be as high as $5,000,000,000 for additional lend-lease funds.

"I think you can safely say the requests will go to Congress this week," Early said.

Mr. Roosevelt conferred with Budget director Harold G. Ickes, placed before him virtually complete figures for the dual request which will drive appropriations for this year to levels without precedent in American history.

The injured man was Sgt. C. G. Heron, who was ordered to bail out of the leading ship by Lieut. A. F. Sullivan, 2d Long Beach, Calif., when the gauge indicated the gas-line supply was exhausted. Heron landed eight miles north of Visalia, where he was picked up and treated.

Lieut. Sullivan stuck with his plane until the motor quit, then he, too, bailed out.

In the second ship was Lieut. J. R. Calles, 2d, Concordia, Kans., and Sgt. O. M. Thomas, 25, Knoxville, Tenn. They lost control of their plane at an altitude of 4,900 feet when the gasoline supply failed and look to their parachutes, landing a half mile from their flying ship.

20 Minutes Behind

The third bomber was 20 minutes behind the lead ship. It carried Lieut. H. E. Adams and Corp. G. L. Norwood. Their fuel supply failed and they bailed out. Lieut. Adams landed near the moonlight. He landed in a vineyard breaking a wing up and the pilot but both men escaped injury.

Lieut. Col. E. G. Friserson of the 28th army air corps depot came to the rescue and was close to Lieut. Sullivan, Lieut. Calles and Sgt. Thomas for several hours. Unious accusation of breaches of the law. His excuses for placing American troops in Iceland are totally untrue and are intended only to shield his own people. Because the way is not approving his stores, he has decided to scrap his election promises and seek the way, thus leaving up the Moscow Doctrine.

The commentator said Germany had never threatened Iceland and added that in no way could the President consider Iceland a part of the western hemisphere.

There was no indication what stop Germany might take in opposition to the United States action. Neutral observers expressed belief the high-command would try to increase the submarine and airplane forces which are attacking shipping in the far northern Atlantic.

RUSSIANS CLAIM GERMANS ROUTED

and fled back to Rumania. These were described as German and Rumanian troops.

In the far north, the Red army was reported fighting strongly against German- Finnish thrusts toward Leningrad on the Karelian isthmus and in the Arcut toward Murmansk. The enemy apparently had failed to make any appreciable advance through former Finnish territory toward the great industrial city of Leningrad.

Report Gains

There was heavy fighting last night at Polok and Lepel on the central front and in the Novograd-Volynsk sector of the southern or Ukraine front. The Germans had thrust several spearheads into each of these fronts and the Russian report of smashing the Lepel and Pruth river drives would not necessarily affect other forward stabs such as those at Novograd-Volynsk in the Ukraine and at Bobruisk on the Beresina river, where the Germans had been held up since last week.

The communique said that in the Ostrov direction, Russian troops were holding firmly in night patrol fighting and were consolidating their positions.

Up to last night, fighting was developing in the Beber area, where enemy tanks and infantry endeavored to break through to the east.

In the Polotsk area, stubborn and intense fighting continued in the Borokovichi and Ulla sectors where the Red forces inflicted heavy casualties upon the enemy.

WHEELER SAYS PUBLIC SHOULD KNOW OF "STEPS TO WAR"

SENATOR CLARK RAPS OCCUPATION ICELAND BY U. S.

WASHINGTON, July 9 (AP)—Sen. Burton K. Wheeler, D. Mont., said today the American people have the "right to know every step that is being taken by the administration which tends to involve us in war."

This was his answer to a White House charge that he permitted a "leak" of military information regarding U. S. occupation of Iceland.

"A more Wheeler branded as an administration attempt to get us into a shooting war," Wheeler said last week. American forces would occupy Iceland beginning about July 21, White House Secretary Stephen T. Early yesterday criticized Wheeler for having revealed the move was imminent.

President Roosevelt said the Wheeler case speaks for itself.

"To Last Shooting War," Sen. C. Wayland Brooks, R. Ill., and D. Worth Clark, D. Iowa, joined Wheeler in opposing occupation of Iceland. Clark said "we are being pushed to the last outpost in the most clever way."

"The law of the land," he said, "bars the use of troops outside the western hemisphere, and we have sent them to Iceland which is a land we have never before considered to be in the western hemisphere. If we can rationalize our position that way, we can do anything, including the sending of troops to the last outpost."

"Want Shooting War?" Wheeler said he believed "the only reason the administration is taking over Iceland is because they want to get us into a shooting war, but they will have to have a hell of a series of incidents before the congress to vote a declaration of war."

He argued if public opinion would support such a move, the administration would take over the Cape Verde and Canary Islands "tomorrow."

"However, they can't get the Portuguese and the Spanish to invite them in," Mr. Roosevelt has explained American occupation of Iceland was arranged at the invitation of the Icelandic government.

Idaho's defense industries with special interest in the use of chemurgy by farm chemurgy will be discussed by O. J. Birke, president of the Idaho Power company, at the next meeting of Southern Idaho, Inc., regional booster group. The meeting will be held Monday, July 21, at 7 p. m. at the Trail Creek cabin at Sun Valley.

Other topics such as the current state of the promotion of Canyon of Ten Thousand Springs will also come before the meeting. It had been announced today by A. J. Slaughter, Jr., secretary of the organization. The meeting will be followed by an outdoor barbecue dinner for members and wives.

JAYCEES HEAR OF TOURIST PROGRAM

Robert H. Warner and Ray Robbins presented to the Junior Chamber of Commerce yesterday the Senior Chamber's plan to assist local employers and employes in their contacts with tourists so as to encourage trade throughout this section.

Mr. Warner pointed out that considerable money is now being made for pamphlets and billboards advertising to attract tourists to this area. He said it should be the duty of everyone coming in contact with tourists to treat them as courteously as possible.

Ed Bracken, who represents the General Motors "Previews of Progress" scientific show to be presented here "Thursday and Friday" at the county fair, said he would be present briefly on the event. The show is sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Reports were given on recent projects sponsored by the organization, viz the July 4th celebration and the "Travel and the Cowboy-Idaho Falls baseball series."

SOIL CONDITIONS IN REGION GOOD

Soil moisture conditions for this section of Idaho are normal or better for this season of the year, it was pointed out this afternoon in a report received by the U. S. department of commerce, weather bureau, and the U. S. department of agriculture.

Winter wheat is maturing under favorable conditions, and spring grains are making excellent growth.

Early potatoes are being shipped to market, the report points out. Second crop alfalfa is making good growth except in areas where weevil are serious. Pastures and lighter ranges are in excellent condition. Grasses on lower ranges are matured and there have been several extensive grass fires on these ranges.

Seed crops are good to excellent, though some insect damage to hay needs to be reported. Corn is making rapid growth with warmer weather. Some hay is spoiling in stacks in some areas and in some instances it has been necessary to open stacks in order to avoid complete loss.

Canadian Census

In the 1930 Canadian census every domesticated living creature down to the house cat and bees was counted. Town dwellers had to answer only 10 questions against 600 put to farmers.

CLARK CONSIDERS STAMP REQUEST

Request of the Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce to have a stamp dispensary in Twin Falls for the operation of the food stamp plan receiving the attention of Gov. Chase A. Clark.

In a letter the local Chamber of Commerce, Clark acknowledged receipt of the request and said: "I want to assure you that I am this day contacting the food stamp officials and will make every effort to work this out if regulations and appropriations will permit."

The chamber requested the dispensary of the stamps to be used in the stamp plan for the distribution of surplus commodities because of difficulty that would arise from "mail order" distribution from Boise. Use of a more central office was viewed as reducing costs and delays. The bid for locating an office here was made with the provision that space, heat and light for such a unit will be provided by the county commissioners.

SLUGGING POWER WINS FOR AMERICAN LOOP

Williams Is Hero In Conquest of National Leaguers

By ANTHONY G. DE LORENZO

DETROIT, July 9 (UP)—It's true what they say about American league batting power.

Boston's Ted Williams proved it.

The slugged his way run with two men out and two on base in the last half of the ninth yesterday to give the American league a dramatic 7-5 victory over the Nationals in the ninth annual All-Star game.

The Nationals were ahead 5-4 because Pittsburgh's Arky Vaughan had hit home runs with a man on base in two consecutive times at bat.

On the mound in the ninth was Chicago's Clyde Passau, fourth righthander called upon by National league pilot Bill McKechnie, of Cincinnati.

The count was two balls, one strike on Williams. A crowd of 54,674 watched quietly.

The pitch came and Williams swung. The ball sailed onto the right field pavilion, bounded back on the playing field—one of the longest homers ever hit in Briggs stadium.

Expected Homer

It was all over but the shouting—and it was deafening as the 22-year-old outfielder circled the bases behind two Joe's—DIMAGGIO and Gordon.

"I had a feeling I might do it," said Ted.

Luck was primarily responsible for Williams' even getting to bat in the ninth.

Catcher Frank Hayes of Philadelphia opened the inning by popping to Brooklyn's Billy Herman. Third baseman Ken Keltner of Cleveland, batting for winning pitcher Edgar Smith of the White Sox, singled through short. Gordon singled to right and Washington's Cecil Travis walked, ending the bases.

Up came Joe DIMAGGIO, who had doubled in the eighth inning, stretching his consecutive game hitting streak to 40. He grounded a double-play ball to shortstop Eddie Miller, who threw to Herman, forcing Travis' error. A sacrifice by Travis' aide, Herman's throw to first drew McCormick off the bag. DIMAGGIO was safe, Keltner scoring and Gordon taking third. Then came Williams.

Williams' feat dwarfed into secondary importance:

Other Features

The hurling of starting pitchers Bob Feller of Cleveland and Whit Wyatt of Brooklyn. Feller worked three innings, fanned four batters with his blazing fast ball, gave only one hit; Wyatt pitched two hitless innings.

The game's five errors, a record for an all-star game.

Outfielder Bob Elliott's fall in the fourth inning just as he was about to field Williams' long drive. The blow went for a double, pushing Travis home with the American league's first run.

Jimmy Fowler's strikeout by Passau on three pitches in the eighth with two out, Dom DIMAGGIO and Lou Bourdau on base.

New all-star records; most runs batted in one game—Williams and Vaughan, four each; most homers in one game—Vaughan, two; most successive hits, Vaughan, three.

It was the American league's sixth victory out of nine in the all-star series. The American league outdid the Nationals 11-10.

CHERRY HILLS CLUB, DENVER, July 9 (UP)—This was the day of sudden death at Cherry Hills as 64 survivors of a series of eliminations began five days of match play for the Professional Golfers association championship held by Byron Nelson.

There will be two short rounds of 18 holes dreading by all who make their living from golf. The 64 will be 16 when the sun slants over the snow-capped Rockies at nightfall and on basis of early rounds, Nelson, himself, may be the first major casualty.

The champion, sadly off form because of lack of practice resulting from a smashed finger, meets little Bunny Torrey of Dodson, Mo., in his first match. Torrey qualified with 73-74-147 and was rated a dangerous opponent for a man who has lost his touch.

Ogden Club Makes 5 Errors, Beats Russets; Pilots Defeat Cards

The Ogden Reds are still going strong on the longest winning streak in the history of the Pioneer league. They made it 17 in a row last night by staggering to a 2 to 1 victory over Idaho Falls. At the same time, Salt Lake took both ends of a twin bill from Twin Falls, 12 to 0 and 9 to 4 and Boise trounced Pocatello 7 to 3.

Everybody wondered how Ogden was still able to win last night. The hits were even—seven each. And Ogden was guilty of five errors. But the Reds still won and enabled Clayton Lambert to hang up his 13th victory of the season.

Salt Lake had possibly no trouble with the Cowboys. In the first game, Al Tate gave Twin Falls only two hits while his teammates were collecting 16 of the combined offerings of two visiting hurlers. In the second, the Bees raked three Cowboy motes from the mound.

It was home runs—four of them—that gave the Boise Pilots their victory over Pocatello. The circuit's next goal was William H. Keeler's first home run in a major league maximum of 44—a trick he easily turned.

Padres Defeat Sacramento; Rainiers Win

By United Press

San Diego Padres hung a 9 to 3 beating on the Sacramento Cardinals last night.

Eight runs in the third on seven hits, two walks and a couple of errors was sufficient to humble the Cardinals in proper fashion, and sent George (Red) Mungler to the showers. Bill Caplinger thereafter says the Padres eight hits.

Joe Toole led out only three hits to Hollywood while the Angels were dusting the Twinks for a 3 to 1 win. Seattle nooded out Portland 4 to 2 with a three-run attack on Whitely Hatcher in the third inning on four hits and a walk. Les Scarcella homered from the other run in the fourth.

Six-hit pitching by Ralph Brunton gave Oakland a 4 to 3 win over San Francisco.

THE SCOREBOARD

By HARRY GRAYSON
NEA Service Sports Editor

NEW YORK—Eclipsing George Siders' record of 40 consecutive-game hitting record of 41, Joe DIMAGGIO's next goal was William H. Keeler's first home run in a major league maximum of 44—a trick he easily turned.

Old-timers consider Willie Keeler the most admitted batter who ever belted a baseball. The story of how his string was broken is interesting.

Frank Kiliten, a highly excitable left-hander with an uncontrollable temper and rabbit ears, performed the feat.

Combie Mack relates how the year previous, while he was managing Pittsburgh, he stuffed Kiliten's ear with beeswax and cotton and then covered them with tape so the susceptible southpaw couldn't hear bean checkers.

Baltimore Orioles, led by Ned Hanlon and egged on by John J. McGraw, were a hard hitting chip-on-the-shoulder outfit the members of which were not at all choosy about their language. Against them it was a case of protecting yourself at all times. The devil took the hindmost.

Knowing Kiliten's weakness, the immortal Orioles called him all the vile names in the book and some that were never included, but the crooked arm couldn't be annoyed. He could have pitched in a boiler works with ratters double timing.

So it was that Keeler was hitted June 17, 1887, after hitting safely in 44 straight engagements. He batted .432 that year.

There are pitchers and players today who could use that plugging the ears cue to advantage. It wouldn't have hurt Duster Mays, who came on in time to help Cleveland to its only pennant in 20.

While it is difficult to picture him more formidable at the plate, Ted Williams of the Red Sox no doubt would be better off were he cut off from the enemy's dugout. Luck Newsum of the Tigers, Vernon Kennedy of the Senators and Bill Dietrich of the White Sox, are pitchers easily distracted by the opposition's libel.

Keeler, a left-handed hitter, slung only 6 feet 4 1/2 inches, weighing no more than 140 pounds, and weighed in at 120.

Cowboys Open Series Here Against Cards

Back on their home lot, which they hope will be more favorable, the Twin Falls Cowboys open a three-game home stand here tonight against the sluggers of the league—the Pocatello Cardinals.

Defeated in four games in three days at Salt Lake City, despite the presence of added infield hitting punch, the Wranglers again hope for a rejuvenation in the friendly confines of Jaycee park. They lost a double-leader to the Bees yesterday, 12-0 and 6-4.

Play Tonight

Tonight against the Cardinals either Paul Piscovich or Art Carpenter will start on the mound. Piscovich was pounded from the hill in less than two innings last night at Salt Lake City and may return to the hill tonight against the Cards. Peters is Manager Bill Delaney's choice for the victory.

In two games yesterday the Cowboy defense came up with eight errors. However, the pitching was off-form and the hitting wasn't enough to win games, at any rate.

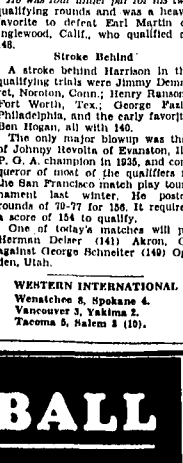

In the first tilt, Big Tate set the Wranglers down with two hits in a seven-inning affair—one each by Harlow Burton and Earl Kuper. Three base hits—Lighthorn, Heiler, and Piscovich—were the only ones to help the Wranglers escape with 10 safe hits.

Second tilt saw the Cowboys get

Conversation: Ball Player vs. Capitalist

NEW YORK—Alva Bradley bumped into the capitalist Alva Berg, his old-time enemy, and a group of Red Sox in Manhattan.

"What are you doing here?" he inquired.

"I fell," says Alva Berg, "that if the president of the Cleveland club didn't know why the Red Sox were in New York, I had a perfect right to be here. That brought him to the big city."

Owner Bradley advised Berg that he was in New York to sell a railroad. Alva Berg was very interested.

"How about Bradley if he had ever heard of the Yankees," Berg asked.

"That's a different story," agreed Bradley. "But now that he has located the plate, you'll have to see what good it will do him. He'll have to get the ball by the belt."

American Loop Magnates Revoke No-Trading Rule for Champions

By HARRY FERGUSON
United Press Sports Editor
NEW YORK, July 9 (AP)—But-tressing from a severe and sudden attack of common sense, the American league magnates have repealed the rule which says the pennant-winning team cannot make a trade with any other club in the circuit.

It is a rare occasion when an epidemic of this allment breaks out among the magnates.
Occasionally one of them is stricken with common sense, but he usually is rushed off to the hospital ward so the rest of them won't catch it. The last epidemic occurred when they decided to repeal night baseball because some sensible convinced them millions of people who have to work in the day time might want to see a ball game.

Previous to that, the worst outbreak occurred when the magnates caught common sense in one and agreed to put numbers on the shirts of players so speculators could identify them.

The no-trade rule was passed about two years ago and was designed to hamstring handout and otherwise impede the New York Yankees, who were winning pen-nants regularly. It promptly boomeranged against the Detroit

Tigers who won the pennant last year and could make a few trades to great advantage right now.
The Tigers' boss Hank Greenberg in the draft and then were beset by injuries which almost wrecked the club.

By this time the attack of common sense probably has passed and the magnates are back in their normal condition, which I shall not describe because the family lawyer tipped me off to existence of a new-ganged set of statutes called the law of libel.
But in the hope there is some lingering vestige of the allment, I would like to make a motion they consider the matter of putting hit and error signs in all ball parks when the customers can see them.

It is a revolutionary theory to say that the man who pays his money at the turnstile is entitled to know whether the official scorer rules his error on a close one.
The customers at Yankee stadium, for instance, have been in the dark several times on whether Joe DiMaggio's streak was broken because they didn't have any idea how the scorer had ruled.

The argument against recording hits and errors is that it might make the ball players nervous and they saw their good deeds and misdeeds put up for all the world to see.

You know how delicate baseball players are. Any little thing up-sets them and it would be cruelly of the worst order to expose them to minor criticisms. They wear such a terribly hard life already that it would be unfair to burden them with having to sleep in berths instead of drawing rooms.
For three months out of the year the clubs cut them loose, refuse to pay them, and then they have to live during the season; they are rushed into the best hotels and told to stay there or else. When they travel, they have to work two hours every day in the summer sun and it's high time the national labor relations board acted on this gruesome form of peonage.

They have to leave their comfortable homes every February and go all the way to Florida and

LETTER WRITING TO TROOPS SEEN

Correspondence between soldiers and various local residents may take place because of the campaign now being pressed by the Twin Falls 20-30 club to collect magazines and books for distribution in various army camps.

The plan, which may result in "letter-friends" being contacted was announced today by Joe Donahue, chairman in charge of the magazine-aluminum drive which the club is now sponsoring.

Donahue suggested that persons wishing to write to a soldier should put their names and addresses in one of the magazines which they will donate and which are now being collected at the local fire station.

Correspondence Starts
"In this way, when a soldier picks up your magazine or book to read, he will see your name and address and the fact that you want to correspond with him," Donahue said. "It is started between residents of widely scattered areas and the soldiers. Some of the boys in camp receive few letters and a letter-friend would be most welcome."

At the same time Donahue announced that Mayor Joe Koehler will stage a special "aluminum show" at the Roney theater at 10 a. m. on Wednesday, July 15. Planned especially for children, admittance will be granted each person donating a piece of aluminum at the theater door.

Bin's Collection Grows
Meanwhile the bin to the downtown section continues to attract more and more pieces of aluminum. The bin has been placed in such a manner that a motorist may toss old aluminum from his or her car as he drives by.

On Friday Camp Fire Girls and Boy Scouts will canvass the business and wholesale districts in the quest for aluminum which will be used in the national defense operations, and next Sunday a door-to-door canvass will be made of the residential section.

VEGETABLES PUT ON STAMP PLAN

During July all fresh vegetables available on local markets can be purchased with blue stamps by families taking part in the federal food stamp plan. It was announced this afternoon by A. W. McConnell, Twin Falls county stamp plan chairman.

McConnell made the announcement after receipt of word to this effect from Willard F. Walker, area supervisor of the surplus marketing administration.

More than 24,500 public assistance families in Idaho participate in the plan, and by placing all fresh vegetables on the blue stamp list, it is expected that considerable increase in the consumption of reasonable local surplus of perishable truck crops will result.

In addition to all fresh vegetables, which include all varieties of potatoes, other commodities available to blue stamp users during July follow: Shell eggs, fresh oranges, fresh peaches, pork lard, pork meats (except cooked, or packed in glass or metal containers), corn meal, hominy (corn) grits, dry edible beans, prunes, wheat flour and whole wheat (granular) flour, and raisins.

Blends and Oranges
Families taking part in the food stamp plan use blue stamps to secure any of the commodities listed from their certified neighborhood markets. McConnell pointed out, however, that blue stamps for vegetables purchase through their welfare agency, are exchangeable at local certified markets for any and all food or human consumption.

With each dollar's worth of orange stamps purchased, the participant receives from a certain amount of blue stamps which are restricted to purchasing only the commodities listed in this story. Neither type of stamp can be used to procure beer, wine, liquor, tobacco or household items.

PAROLEE BREAKS FROM JAIL CELL

John H. Riggs, 19, a youth who was admitted to parole in the district court here last March, is being hunted today throughout southern Idaho after he escaped from the Caribou county jail in Snake Springs. Riggs and Ernest W. Blinnham, 16, were involved in automobile thefts at Castletown last February.

Charles T. McCracken, Caribou county sheriff, reports that Riggs escaped from the jail while awaiting trial on another automobile theft charge. He was arrested in Snake Springs June 15.

Riggs, the only prisoner in the jail, apparently was able to slip out of a pocket knife blade to cut the bars in the jail. He then made his escape from his bed, clothes and lowered himself to the ground, according to McCracken. Riggs is believed to have escaped in a 1935 Dodge coupe with the license DP-30.

In the district court here last spring, Riggs and Blinnham pleaded guilty to the Castletown car theft. Blinnham also was released on parole May 2. Within a month he was found guilty of violating the parole and is now serving a 14 day sentence in the state penitentiary.

Summer Amusement—3

A piece of string, a bent pin and a willow pole spell fishing for those who like it for the sport. Expensive equipment isn't necessary to follow the streams in Idaho as evidenced by the picture above, number three in a series of what to do to pass away the summer. From the experience of the two "lib" fishing wasn't as good as this picture shows. But then you best can't hold all the time. The models: Norman Hines, 16, and Shibley Lawrence, 17. (Photo by O. A. Talking Flashlight—That's Part of Preview of Progress

A flashlight that talks... musically... an invisible beam... these are only two of the many startling experiments to be presented by the Electrical Motor Preview of Progress stage exposition at Lincoln field tomorrow and Friday at 8 p. m. There is no charge for admittance.

The photo-electric cell of electric eye has become known to almost all of us. The electrical eye is completely unable to detect any change in vibrations of light. But the electric eye is far more sensitive. Consequently when the light is pointed at one it immediately retransmits the human eye for the photo-electric cell.

That sounds rather like an inconsequential experiment but actually it is a totally new means of optical communication. For it completely does away with the danger of "tapping." Consequently the navy is today experimenting with this device. It has been used successfully by dirigibles in the air to their landing stations and by ships to bases on shore.

Marine Recruiter Delays Trip Here

The anticipated visit of a U. S. marine official to Twin Falls has been indefinitely postponed. It had been announced here today by Sgt. Lester L. Troask, who yesterday recruited five youths at the Wood River OOC camp.

Sgt. Troask is en route to Salt Lake City where they will be enlisted. Sgt. Troask will return to this area. The youths tentatively accepted are Ralph Ellis Gillespie, Lewis Harry Humphrey, John Edward Blev, Roy J. Brozman and Marshall L. Hinkle, all of Ohio.

Young men between the ages of 17 and 20 who are interested in the marine corps can receive information on that branch of the service at the Twin Falls postoffice.

The End: NO MORE OIL AND NO MORE ENGINE!

Ruthless Death-Test proves this New oil good for more than Twice the mileage averaged by 5 other big brands

In Gery Death Valley the dry heat hits extremes. And there's where 5 identical everyday cars, using 5 different big-name oils, were burned out on purpose to give you fair and square mileage comparisons on CONOCO

CONOCO N4 MOTOR OIL
Now making Sales Records right there Death-Test cars—new—same make, same model—were taken apart for the Referee, to check uniformity; then were broken-in alike. Each got one 5-quart fill of some one big brand—bought retail by Referee. He kept engine under lock—no oil could be added. Cars held the same 67-mile speed, over the same desert, getting the same handling (by alternating the drivers). And there wasn't any end (till there wasn't any lubrication... till engine after engine became a 5-bank junk.

CONOCO N4 oil kept on 6,663 miles longer than any other oil in the Death-Test... Certified. And all five competing Death-Test oils didn't average half the mileage of CONOCO N4 oil. Certified.

Man-Made new Life-Giver does it
Now think a moment of Vaccination—putting protective substance on guard to keep a trouble from starting. And the trouble arising to start on motor oils lurks in every engine's normal drip. Fifth forms that can spoil one drop; then two drops "catch it"—then four—then NINE—... faster, faster, FASTER. As the whole life weakens, the oil-level slips too fast... but not when the start of this oil-fouling trouble is inhibited—held back—by life-giving Phosphors

CERTIFIED I hereby certify that the Death Valley Test and related work were thoroughly and fully conducted. Engine Destruction occurred in each case on the mileage stated.
