21-Year-Olds to Get Numbers at Capital Drawing

WASHINGTON, July 17 (UP)—The nation's second peace-time draft lottery takes place tonight to determine the order in which 750,000 men 21 years of age will be called for military service.

Secretary of Navy Frank Knox draws the first melon-colored capsule from the "goldfish" bowl used in the World War and last fall. The new registrants had become 21 years old since last October when a lottery was held involving 16,500,000 men between 21 and 36 years.

First Draw

Eight hundred capsules, which have been under heavy guard since the order numbers were placed in them, will be drawn at the inter-departmental auditorium, starting at 9 p. m. (MST).

SECRETARY FRANK KNOX... makes first draw in second draft lottery for 21-year-olds at Washington today.

One Every Ten Selective service officials planned to integrate the new registrants in the list of men already classified by local boards. For example, if a local board with 200 new registrants, has classified 2,000 men who have not been called for service, one new registrant will be included in the list after every ten classified.

Despite the fact 800 numbers will be drawn, the highest number reported by registrants in Baltimore. The extra numbers will provide for late registrants.

Others who will draw numbers included Gen. C. Marshall, chief of staff; Rear Admiral Chester W. Nimitz, chief of the navy's bureau of navigating; and Chairman Robert R. Reynolds, D. N. C. of the senate military affairs committee.

MARSHALL SAYS U.S. PAYING FOR BRAZIL AIRPORTS

WASHINGTON, July 17 (UP)—Gen. George C. Marshall, army chief of staff, told the senate military affairs committee today that the United States is financing the expansion of aviation facilities in Brazil to surround this hemisphere with a ring of protection against a "ruthless foreign power."

Marshall at the same time reaffirmed his previous statements that the United States must strengthen the nation by extending the service of selected and national guardsmen beyond their scheduled one-year terms.

Marshall's reference to Brazil came in the midst of discussion of legislative control over operation of the armed services.

Two-Thirds for Army... Congress, he said, voted an emergency "blank check" of $100,000,000 in cash and an additional sum of equal size in contract authorizations.

The stipulation, he said, enmeshed the army in so much "red tape" that it was "pushed back three months in the development of essential air facilities."

Marshall made it plain repeatedly during his testimony that he considered the United States to be in a "grave emergency."

The United States, Marshall continued, must face the fact that it is concerned with the expansion of military force which was built up by the drastic training of young people in labor battalions.

9,000,000 REEDS, NAZIS FIGHT ON RUSSIA'S FRONT

By JOSEPH W. GRIGG, JR. BEILIG, July 17 (UP)—German troops have captured Smolensk and Chisinau, key towns on the Moscow and Bessarabia fronts, it was reported by Nazis today.

The official news agency claimed capture of Smolensk, important railroad junction 235 miles southwest of Moscow, and the high command claimed capture of Chisinau, capital of Bessarabia.

Informants said that from Chisinau German and Rumanian troops already were driving on toward the Dniester river.

Through employment of their "last reserves," the German high command said, the Soviet leadership is attempting to halt the forward storming of the German-armed forces and their allies.

On the entire eastern front a gigantic conflict for a decision is underway, it was said.

Approximately 9,000,000 soldiers confront each other here in a conflict whose size exceeds all imaginable.

On the southern wing German and Rumanian troops occupied "Tsimboul," capital of Bessarabia.

Smolensk Taken, 235 Miles From Russian Capital

German reports claimed today the capture of Smolensk, vital town on the route to Moscow 235 miles distant, Chisinau (Kishinev), capital of Bessarabia, and the last of the heavy fortifications protecting the Kiev area.

The pounding Nazi drive into Russian territory was accompanied by growing evidence that a new thrust to the Soviet is building up fast in the far east where Japan was reported to be preparing swiftly for action against Siberia.

On the main Russo-German front the Nazi command thrust its communications to sweeping assaults of a propaganda nature except for the claim to capture of Chisinau, 92 miles east of Smolensk.

However, the official DNB news agency and other Nazi sources stressed a steady stream of reports of German successes.

This picture of the front was given: Northern Front Northern sector—German troops sweeping up toward Leningrad but exact whereabouts not indicated.

Central sector—German troops reported capturing of Smolensk 235 miles from Moscow.

Southern sector—High command reported capture of Chisinau. DNB claimed that final heavy bunkers of Kiev defense system captured after 10 days of fighting.

However, it claimed, the Soviet defenders remained in underground passages, some of them down three stories into the earth.

The official DNB news agency asserted the final bunkers of the Kiev defense area were captured after advance German divisions had stormed past the bunkers to regions farther east.

Japan, it was further stated, claimed the Soviet bunkers had been "largely able to pieces" in previous days of fighting by the advance German divisions.

WASHINGTON, July 17 (UP)—President Roosevelt intensified economic warfare against the axis in the western hemisphere today with a proclamation blacklisting more than 1,800 persons and business concerns in Latin America as direct or indirect agents of Germany or Italy.

The blacklist was not immediately made public. It is intended to prevent trade relations with the persons and concerns listed.

PAUL CCC FIGHTS STRAW SHED FIRE

PAUL, July 17 (Special)—Flames fanned by a 40 mile wind, a burning straw shed 10 feet from 150 tons of hay, water supply 150 yards distant and pitch darkness immediately before dawn were the conditions encountered by enrollees of CCC Camp Paul, when they were called out to suppress a fire in the farm yard of N. L. Hansen, one mile from Camp Paul, early Friday morning.

A call for fire fighters reached camp at 2:15 a. m., and the fire alarm was sounded. A bucket brigade was en route to the fire within 10 minutes. Fire fighters found a straw cattle shed burning, with flames licking at 150 tons of hay and threatening destruction of the farm buildings, which were directly in the path of the fire and the wind behind it.

A bucket brigade was formed and water passed from a drainage ditch 150 yards away. Approximately 20 enrollees and members of the camp personnel were engaged in battling the flames for more than two hours, before the fire was brought under control.

POT SHOTS WITH The Gentleman in the Third Row VITAMINS (Five-Star Yarn)

In Midst of War—Peace Men are meeting in Washington who may hold the internal peace of the western hemisphere in their hands.

The average North American will do well to take no contemptuous tone toward this border dispute which has caused ill-feeling between Ecuador and Peru for 100 years.

That is the western hemisphere way, and while it is true that the United States and many other American countries have not always adhered to it, that is the direction, that is the goal.

Only last April Colombia and Venezuela adjusted border disputes as old as that which now shakes Ecuador and Peru, and did it amicably.

We hope that the United States and other American powers which have an interest in peace within the hemisphere will be able to devise formulas by which these two South American countries, both of which are on unusually friendly terms with the United States, will be able to adjust their dispute without shedding more blood in a world which is already saturated with the blood of unoffending men.

Those Liberties of Ours Many people are concerned, and rightly, at the prospect that in a war emergency, the United States might lose some of its liberties and never get them back again.

It is reassuring, then, to see the report of the American Civil Liberties union, which is professionally critical of any infringement on civil liberties. That is the union's business, yet it reports: There has been little interference with civil liberties thus far under pressure of the emergency and defense program.

That's encouraging for it means that the American people are more than ever alive to what their liberties mean to them. That is the best, and the only ultimate protection against losing them.

Strangling Culture What the "new order" in Europe means to the conquered: In Czechoslovakia, all Czech schools will be closed at the end of this year, the buildings confiscated.

Dear Potter: I get this from a lady who knows the lady who does it... and if you ask me, it's the story to end all other pot-shooting.

PROVING WHAT MARVELOUS FOLK ARE AMERICANS! Dear Pot Shooter: If you had not to end it at all the arguments over where shall we go for vacation, and all the debates over how much we should spend for vacation, and all the scurrying involved in getting ready for vacation, and all the griping that occurs while we're on vacation, and all the tired feelings that follow vacation, it would add up to the good old custom that cheerful Americans rarely think is essential to "real" vacation.

DUCHESS' AGAIN GIVEN REPRIEVE

SACRAMENTO, Calif., July 17 (U.P.)—Mrs. Juanita Spinelli, named gang-leader called "The Duchess," again has been reprieved from death.

Mrs. Spinelli was to have died in San Quentin prison's gas chamber at 10 a. m. tomorrow. Had she gone to her death, she would have been the first woman legally to be executed in California.

Gov. Culbert Olson intervened for the second time last night when he ordered a 30-day stay from the extreme penalty. He likewise postponed execution of Mike Simmon, the duchess' common-law husband, and Gordon Hawkins, who were to have died July 25.

All three had been convicted of the murder of Robert Sherman, 19, a member of their small-time gang of bandits.

Olson gave no indication he might extend executive clemency to the duchess. Through his executive secretary, the governor declared he had been so pressed by routine duties during the legislative bill-signing period that he had not ample opportunity to study the case.

The man wanted on a burglary charge, had escaped from Gooding county officers late Tuesday night as he managed to get his hand out of a set of handcuffs while he sat in the officers' car at Bliss. Officers from this entire section joined in the search for him.

The Great Yoo-Hoo Issue

Extra! War Averted: Indians Call off Conflict With U. S.

SALT LAKE CITY, July 17 (U.P.)—An Indian war with the United States was averted today when the accusation was unfair, that his violation was involuntary—one of his mares gave birth to a colt.

Around him rallied 300 Navajos who heard his story and massed at a great protest meeting, they agreed that the white man's jail which the official Navajo tribal council had upheld—had been unjustly administered.

By a show of hands they voted to take the warpath against the United States government.

Actually, their leaders admitted, their uprising was not an armed one but simply was a "reversal of relations" until the Beloso affair was settled.

Judge Johnson lit the pipe of peace yesterday when he said Beloso would be held only until he rid himself of one of his horses and thus complied with the grazing law.

Beloso said "that was fair enough and that he would ask his lawyer to call off their war. From his jail cell today he began negotiations to sell a horse."

The Navajo tribal council assured government authorities here that Beloso's Braves did not represent the attitude of the majority of the 30,000 Navajos.

Germans Face Major Conflict On 2 Fronts; Must Beat Reds

By United Press
Germany, it appears, may have taken on a large and costly war which is likely to leave her vulnerable and exposed in the west. It is now the middle of the fourth week of the campaign and the German forces have made no more than a dent in Russia proper. Unless they begin to make more rapid progress, the expenditure in men, planes, tanks and equipment is bound to tell and perhaps weaken the entire German war machine on both fronts.

When Hitler and the high command disregarded Blomberg's tenets and embarked on the Russian adventure while Britain remained as a powerful foe in the west, it is hard to assume they did not actually count on having a two-front war.

The high command probably reasoned Russia would be a push-over for a German blitzkrieg attack, just as the rest of Europe was. They counted on putting Russia definitely out of action within about six weeks, after which, with the added resources gained, they would be able to devote undivided attention to Britain, without fear of attack from the east.

It is impossible to appraise the exact military situation from the information, or lack of it, made available in the obscure and conflicting communiques. However, it is clear that the German general staff miscalculated Russia's power and will to resist.

ROTARIANS HEAR ORATORY WINNER

JEROME, July 17 (Special) — "What Uncle Sam Means to Me" was the subject of an interesting and timely talk given at the Rotary club luncheon Tuesday by Bob Allan, Twin Falls, who recently won the state oratory contest, sponsored by the Elks lodge organization. Young Allan was introduced by Joe Shibley of Jerome, who had charge of the program.

Visiting Rotarians at Tuesday's meeting were W. R. Edridge, R. W. Carpenter, G. Martin Warren and Stan King, all of Twin Falls; Douglas Shepherd and Harry Pustler of Shoshone; Dr. E. H. Larsen, extension specialist in soil, was a guest of the club president, county agent Eugene W. Whitman.

There now is a chance that the lull may be over-long. It is London's conviction that Germany now has to win the Russian campaign or be in danger of losing the entire war.

Descendant Inspired by Famous Portrait Painter

By JEAN DINKELACKER
Her illustrious ancestor, Sir Joshua Reynolds, painted portraits of the English great in the 18th century. Miss Mary Lovell Reynolds has been concerned in design and advertising illustration as her medium of expression in the 20th century. Miss Reynolds resides in Va. is one of Twin Falls' most charming vacation guests. She is spending the summer with her grandmother, Mrs. Marshall Jeffrey, and her aunt, Mrs. Richard Smith.

Talent inherited
"I began my art major a long time ago, when I was a child," Miss Reynolds said yesterday. She is studying commercial art and allied subjects at George Washington University, Washington, D. C.

"My father paints; my sister, Janet, paints, and I paint," she laughed. Her father, Esch, and her brother, Albert W. Reynolds, an attorney in the lands division of the federal government, Washington, has made art his hobby, a distraction from the concentration that the law profession demands.

Dr. Senator and Mrs. Reynolds and their two daughters spent part of last summer here, and have a large circle of friends in Twin Falls. While Miss Reynolds does not aspire to the recognition won by her portrait-painting ancestor, who was highly and appreciated portrait painter by King George III, she is ambitious to progress in her chosen field.

presented the following year to Mary Lovell Rite, the "First Mary Lovell" of the family.

Miss Reynolds is Mary Lovell the fifth, being named for her grandmother, Anne, and her mother, Mary Lovell Jeffrey. She is a direct descendant of Baron Jost Heydt—it later became Americanized to Hill—whose story and that of his descendants, is told with vivid pageantry in the book, "Long Meadows," by Minnie Hill Moore, which was published this spring by the Macmillan company.

The history of this American family is an absorbing one, and the first Mary Lovell is a figure in the book. Left an orphan, she was adopted by her uncle, Isaac Hill, and married him and his wife, who was President Madison's sister.

Her aunt was one of the famous hostesses of the Shenandoah valley of Virginia. In the bedroom of Mrs. Jeffrey hangs a picture of the mansion, Belle Grove, at Winchester, Va., where the first Mary Lovell grew up, surrounded by the advantage of the southern aristocracy of that period.

An American Family
Fasted at intervals in the leather-bound prayer book, she has originally hers, are newspaper clippings, marriages, births and obituaries, and favorite poems, that have been saved by the other Mary Lovells of this typical American family.

A reviewer, commenting on the novel, "Long Meadows," says: "This particular kind of history and genealogy is in itself far more absorbing than anything a novelist might have invented."

"No doubt any American family so large and well documented as the Hills, could offer a similarly exciting chronicle. It is the strangeness of truth that Mrs. Moore has evoked the good fortune to be able to save here."

The book is on the shelves of the Twin Falls public library.

Co-Eds Admire Ancestral Book

Books are the last things co-eds on vacation usually talk about—not when the volume's as interesting as the Church of England prayer book, printed in 1814, which Miss Mary Lovell Reynolds, George Washington University, shows to Miss Margaret Bacon, Pomona college, and Miss Ann Ferrine, University of Idaho, southern branch. GARDEN CLUB SAYS HILLS GAY WITH WILD FLOWERS

Wild delphinium, monk's hood and penstemon, the clear blue flowers from which Camp Penstemon derives its name, are now blooming in extravagant abundance near Magic Mountain in the Minidoka preserve, according to members of the Twin Falls Garden club.

There were but a few of the many varieties of wild flowers identified by the group while on an all-day

East Gets Black 'X' on Courtesy From Traveler

Westerners not only have more hospitality—they have more courtesy.

That's the opinion of Miss Mary Ellen Orive, who just returned from a circle tour of the United States, traveling by bus to all sections of this country.

"The United States now seems smaller—the east not so far away," was her observation today.

"But in the far east, people seem to have so little time for courtesy," she commented.

The tour left June 1 and returned July 5, going east to Boston, New York and Washington, D. C., south to Florida and Louisiana; west to the Colorado canyons; then to Los Angeles, and ended in Portland, Ore.

Following the trip, Miss Orive visited two weeks in Portland with friends before returning to Twin Falls. She will return to Midvale next year as a member of the teaching staff.

Grange Gleanings

By A. HARVESTER

HOLLISTER

Well, I guess we are getting the highlights of Grange meetings in a straightforward order after the Independence day disturbance and will run along as usual from now on.

Grange met Wednesday night with only a fair attendance. After the usual routine of business had been taken care of, the worthy secretary gave a report on the Grange party held June 27. The report showed the proceeds of the evening to be $12.50. Also Mrs. Pierce's 4-H club, a group of young folks organized by the Hollister Grange, reported the receipt of $2.00 from the sale of candy. Several communications were read and discussed but no action was taken and no important business was brought up.

Due to the absence of some of the members that should have been on the program, the lecturer's hour was cut short, but the program as rendered follows: Betty Pastor gave very good Grange reading. Pomona Master Eric Jones gave a very interesting discussion of many points of Grange work that many of the Grangers knew very little about; a contest was conducted by the lecturer, asking questions concerning the Grange to see if the members knew their Grange. Doubtless many of these questions would be posed to many of the Grangers, for Mr. and Mrs. Guy Peters, Julia and Jean Kunkel. That's another one that I missed.

FAIRVIEW

Everybody says a fine meeting at Fairview last Friday night as the Fairview Grange entertained the graduates and many of the members. There was a present and enjoyed cards and dancing after the big feast at 8 o'clock. Around the large table were seated the graduates as guests of honor and the officers and their families. So many officers were present that it was difficult to find a seat at tables, but the food was abundant and all hands deployed their forces in an effort to take care of the surplus. "Isn't this a funny world? Just a short time ago we were hearing about the terrible surplus and farm crops, and now we are asked to cut down on consumption of some of these same crops so we can send them to Europe. Got my wheat, partly payment today and they will cut me down on my payment because I am not raising and selling more than any of my neighbors is going to get out of a acre so he will play about $30 more money. It won't be more than a little more to figure that out. Anyway they were unable to get rid of much of the surplus. The graduate home at the Pomona, Leith, Harriet Wilson, John Jensen, Phyllis Howard, Jack Frichard, Tommy Larson, Virginia Peterson, Stanley Harger, Stanley Harger, Naomi Morrison and Doris Ruland, Roland Harding, master of the Grange was in charge of the ceremonies and introduced each of the graduates with a brief outline of the activities of his or her group. He responded briefly, thanking the Grange for the party.

Many of the members signified their intention of going to Kansas to get the travelling gavel tonight (July 17). And Grangers of Fairview are you making any plans to go with the gang? Get up a crowd for each car that goes and let's have a fine time with Hanson Grange. Ask any of your neighbors and try to get him to go with you.

WEST POINT

Well, it sure do pay to advertise. You will recall that I have just casually mentioned that if any Grange had lost cream that was going to waste, and they indicated, I would come over and help them out. Well, one of my neighbors, who has a creamery, has lost cream every meeting and that I am welcome. I won't mention any names, but West Point Grange met July 14 with 15 members present and a good meeting. They discussed getting a table for the National Secretary and some new chairs. The table has been purchased but the chairs are still on the way. The National Secretary said that the Grangers were not cultivating Owen Bolan's corn, while Mr. Bolan was ill in the hospital. Just another of the things that Grangers may do to be of service. The men were to have put on the pants but like last time, some were caught unprepared and had nothing to offer, but some of the faithful came through for the lecturer. Mr. McQuinn recited a poem. Mr. Gill gave a talk on his 4-H club and announced that the Grange will go to the fair on Sunday night for a wicker rosette. Ray Smith gave the recipe for being a good Granger. Ervin Heat played a good record. The program was the harmonica, and to complete the program Mr. Heat gave several short readings. But that is on turning the page, I find that Mr. Sullivan talked on how bad the roads are, though not as bad as they could have been told as much. The program was much enjoyed as also was the lunch and ice cream, cookies and punch. To keep the date of West Point Grange meetings in mind, and thank.

DEEP CREEK

Ambled over to Deep Creek last Friday night and met with the good folks of that Grange. The meeting of friend Luke Williams again and it seemed just like State Grange to meet and talk with him. A communication from National Master Taylor said that the west had receded in gains in membership for the last six years and we are proud of this record over here. He called attention to the program of the Grange, the National Secretary. Also asked for the largest seventh degree class in the history of the Grange.

Northview Grange met last Friday night with a fair attendance and a lively meeting. John Paul a wicker rosette at West Point. Mr. and Mrs. John Kaloupek recited cinnamon rolls and punch at the close of the meeting.

Magazine Uses Leo Anderson's Picture Study

Leo Anderson, amateur photographer of Twin Falls, has a photograph he took in Death valley reproduced in the August issue of the national magazine, Popular Photography, as one of the outstanding pictures submitted to the magazine's editors during the month. It was learned here today.

Officials of the magazine said that "all the desolate stillness of Death valley" is caught in the photograph, which shows an old abandoned coach standing against a background of distant mountains and a hot summer sky. Anderson used a yellow filter to bring out the cloud effects and to bring out the detail in the wagon.

CURB ASKED ON CIVILIAN NEEDS

WASHINGTON, July 17 (UP)—Secretary of the Treasury Henry Morgenthau Jr. said today non-defense manufacturing must be sharply restricted immediately if defense production is to reach desired levels.

Morgenthau said industries engaged in the manufacture of articles for civilian consumption must curtail such operations at once to prevent a lag in defense production. He told a press conference today that the total government expenditures this fiscal year would not be much over $19,000,000,000 unless immediate steps are taken to curb the production of factory-made articles for civilians.

The bureau of the budget has estimated the 1942 fiscal year expenditures at $22,000,000,000, including $10,500,000,000 for national defense. He cited the automobile industry as "a glaring example" of production facilities that should be diverted gradually to defense production instead of continuing to be used to build large numbers of motor cars for civilian use.

YANKS STEADY TO SIX FULL GAMES

CLARK SHOOT 6 TO STAY IN RACE FOR PUBLINKS TITLE

Joe DiMaggio Gets Three Hits; Cards Win Over Dodgers

NEW YORK, July 17 (AP)—One school of baseball thought contends a good ball club runs itself and that all the manager has to do is sit tight and look smart. Don't you believe it. When a good ball club is winning the pilot is making some smart guesses. Take the New York Yankees. Joe McCarthy is doing the best job of masterminding in the majors with a run of the mine pitching staff. That's one of the big reasons why the Yanks are six games on top and making it an old-time Yankee runaway of the American league race.

Second Milestone
That's the second time McCarthy has reached way down and brought up Donald to the consolation of it, mostly the Indians. The first time was back in June when Aliey, who had won only one game, was traded to the Indians. He pitched a 3-hitter as the Yanks won, 4-1. Since then Donald has failed to finish against the Tigers, a double letter, but McCarthy sent him to the firing line yesterday instead of Mariano Russo, the expected starter, and he came through with an 8-hitter.

In winning their eighth game in 11 starts against the Yankees, the Yanks pounded Milan to cover. Joe DiMaggio hit two singles and a double, running his consecutive game hitting streak to 11.

Billy Southworth, St. Louis manager, has been coming in for some criticism as to his method of handling the Cardinals' pitching staff, but the second-guessers took a back seat following his wily strategy in last night's victory over the Brooklyn Dodgers.

The Dodgers shelled Southworth's ace, Max Baer, for six hits and a 4-0 lead in three innings but Billy came up with his leading runner, eighth-inning Len Warlick, in the fourth. Warlick took over with two on, none out and two in and retired the side, allowing only one more run. He blasted the Dodgers with three hits for the last six frames for his 11th victory. The Cards scored five runs in the sixth. For support, Bucky Walters came clearly and the Giants beat the Reds, 7-4.

Pittsburgh broke even with Boston by winning the second game of a twin bill, 13-5, after dropping the opener to the Braves, 4-1. The Cubs walloped the Phillies 4-0.

In the other two American league games the Red Sox noosed out the White Sox, 2-1, with Tex Hogeon winning his third straight game and the Browns slugged out an 11-2 victory over the Athletics.

Pitcher Hurls No-Hitter—But Loses, 1 to 0

ST. LOUIS CITY, Ia., July 17 (AP)—Jimmy O'Donoghue pitched no-hit ball for the Denver Bears last night but lost a crucial battle against the St. Louis Cardinals, 1 to 0, when the Bears made their only error of the game.

POCATELLO, July 17 (Special)—Twin Falls Cowboys have finally reached the point where they are being talked about as well as most of the teams in the Pioneer League. And their fielding is on a par with other clubs, too.

Get 12 Hits
Last night the cowboys got 12 hits, compared with eight by the Cards, but lost, 5-3. Tuesday night the Cowboys got best 5-2, despite the fact they got the same number of hits (7) as the Cards, plus seven gift tickets to first base. In that game they hit into five double plays. Last night they hit into only one double play, but they let men stranded on the sacks in every inning, adding six bases on balls to their 12 hits, plus one hit batsman, making a total of 19 men that reached first base, only three of which crossed home plate. That's nearly set a record for Pioneer league.

Big Fourth Inning
In the big fourth, successive singles by Irvin Peterson, Benny Benntiller, Ted Kalkris and Steve Andrade, an infield out and a passed ball combined to give the Cardinals a 4-3 lead.

For tonight's game, Rube Sandstrom, with 11 losses against three Ogdens, takes the mound for the Cowboys to his opponent, Aliey, the ace of last year's Cardinal mound staff, Orl Archuletta, recently returned to the Pocatello field.

Two Former Titleholders Lose Matches

INDIAN CANYON COURSE, Spokane, Wash., July 17 (AP)—Sixteen survivors of the first two "sudden death" rounds went out today to battle for semi-final positions in the 30th annual National Public Links golf tournament, and Jimmy Clark, the Long Beach winner, and Walter Boy, who was still among those present.

Three former champions dropped out in yesterday's two rounds, leaving only Dave Atchley of Atlanta, Ga., with a chance to repeat. Charlie Ferrera of San Francisco, twice a winner, fell in the second round before Leo Ferguson, Honolulu roadworker, 3 and 2. Bob Clark of St. Paul, defending champion, lost in the second round to young Billy Korn, University of Utah freshman, one up, when Korn birdied the 18th. Andy Bzewick of Pittsburgh winner in 1933, dropped his match to Pete Doll of Louisville, 2 and 1.

IRISH TAYLOR DUBBED
OAKLAND, July 17 (AP)—Jackie Wilson of Los Angeles successfully defended his title in a re-winded championship here last night by giving Irish Johnny Taylor of Oakland a terrific shelling to win by a technical knockout in the eighth round.

Jerome Jaycees Accept Date to Play Local Club

If the Twin Falls Jaycees are recovered from their breaks and bruises suffered in the Senior Chamber baseball game some weeks ago, they can start acting all over again. Because a fellow named "Rubberlip," a prominent member of the Jaycees, got out a challenge to take on the Jerome Jaycees in an exhibition here on Friday night as a pre-game feature of the Twin Falls Cowboys-Salt Lake Bees contest. And, of course, the challenge was accepted—in full, by the Jerome club, with Owen Davis, north-side Jaycees president, personally handling the details. Davis stated in his acceptance that while the Jerome club has had no organization practice and may not pull as many double plays as the Twin Falls boys, at the same time individual brilliance will take care of all details and the Twin Falls boys could look for a hot battle. "And in the future," says Mr. Davis, "guys named 'Rubberlip' won't be hanging around offering such wild challenges—we hope." As a result of the challenge being accepted, the Twin Falls Jaycees got down to their old conditioning grind—that of absolutely NO practice, under any condition—except for fear someone will "bluffen up."
