House Committee Ponders Plan on Ceiling in Wages

WASHINGTON, Aug. 6 (AP)—Chairman Henry B. Steagall, D. Ala., of the house banking committee indicated today the group will study possibility of authorizing imposition of wage ceilings under the administration's pending price control bill.

Steagall advised Price Control Administrator Leon Henderson, testifying on the bill for the second successive day, that the committee desired further information on any proposed action on wages, utilities and farm products, in that order.

The wage question then was passed over temporarily.

Some members of the committee had indicated previously they believed a provision limiting wage increases should be written into the pending bill which would authorize the Federal Reserve to impose price ceilings on general commodities and on rents in defense areas.

U. S. SHIPMENT OF WAR SUPPLIES IS SENT TO RUSSIA

WASHINGTON, Aug. 6 (AP)—Authoritative sources revealed today that the United States already has sent the first shipment of war supplies to the Soviet Union to fulfill its pledge of immediate assistance against Germany.

The shipment included armaments and industrial machinery. The latter was ordered prior to the outbreak of the Russo-German hostilities but the United States had requisitioned the machinery to bolster American defense production.

Plan Defense

The Russians will install the machinery in munitions factories east of the Ural mountains, it was understood. Soviet officials have expressed this government they are prepared to defend that industry region even if the German invasion succeeds in virtually all of western Russia.

Henderson described for committee members detailed procedures to be followed by the War Relocation Authority in setting price schedules, using as an example the second-hand machine tool industry. The price setting activity of the office.

Henderson admitted no statutory authority now exists for forcing compliance with OPACS orders. He said his office had acted in connection with approximately 90 per cent of American business, computed on a dollar basis.

SOLONS OVERRIDE ROOSEVELT VETO

WASHINGTON, Aug. 6 (AP)—The senate today voted 57 to 19 to override President Roosevelt's veto of the act to amend the Espionage Act.

Mr. Roosevelt had refused to sign the bill on grounds the program for improvement of strategic bridges and highways would be appropriated among the states on the basis of population, as the senate bill provided.

A two-thirds majority was necessary to override the veto. The house must take similar action before the bill becomes law despite the President's objections.

Seven of Nine in Party Die Off First in Border Desert

YUMA, Ariz., Aug. 6 (AP)—A man and a girl, engaged, sun-baked, their tongues black and swollen, lay in hospital beds today, the man struggling against the sheets and mumbling in Spanish, the girl quietly sleeping.

The man, Francisco Flores, 23, was nearly dead and all he said was "aguas," "water, water."

His wife, Socorro Corralo, 19, was better, and she had told what happened along El Camino del Diablo—the highway of the devil—where a short cut through the desert along the border—after their truck broke down. Flores was dead, Socorro said.

"When we left (Yuma), Mexico we had a 50-gallon barrel of water in the back of the truck," Miss Corralo said.

Ram Sale Classic in Action—And Top-Price Suffolks

It was the annual ram sale classic of the Idaho Wool Growers' Association—and Filer fairgrounds were crowded today with sheep breeders from many parts of Idaho. Above, an action scene in the ring as the auction went forward on a price scale higher than last year.

Suffolk Stud Rams Sell For $400 Each at Filer

FILER, Aug. 6 (Special). With two sales of $400 each topping the list for single Suffolk stud rams, and a pen of five Suffolk yearling rams selling for $130 each or $650 for the pen, the 20th annual sale of the Idaho Wool Growers' Association was underway here today.

The annual ram auction concludes late this afternoon. The cream of Suffolk and Hampshire rams from Idaho's leading breeders was parading through the ring all morning, and sheepmen from all parts of Idaho plus some from adjoining states were on hand to make purchases for flock improvement.

The mimeographed invitations expressed Curry's belief "in spirit of fellowship will promote national unity."

U. S. KEEPS EYES ON JAPAN MOVES

WASHINGTON, Aug. 6 (AP)—Secretary of State Cordell Hull told his press conference today that any more of Japanese moves Thailand would be a matter of concern to the United States.

His statement was made in response to questions inspired by statements of British Foreign Minister Anthony Eden that anything involving Thailand was of great interest to Great Britain.

Hull said the United States many times had made clear its opposition to conquest by the Japanese. These statements, he said, had made clear the United States' interest and position.

He recalled that Undersecretary of State Sumner Welles had spoken strongly about recent Japanese aggressions only a few days ago. He endorsed this statement. When asked whether it was fair to assume that any Japanese move into Thailand might be followed by further action by the United States, he said it was fair to assume the United States would have increasing concern over any such step.

Germans Report Smolensk Taken In 21-Day Fight

MOSCOW, Aug. 6 (AP)—Private advice from Russian sources said today Soviet troops have thrown back strong German forces "a considerable distance" from the key city of Smolensk on the central front.

These advices were said to have been received direct from Smolensk, which was asserted to be still in Russian hands.

By JOSEPH W. BRIGG, Jr.

BERLIN, Aug. 6 (AP)—The three-week battle of Smolensk on the Moscow front has ended in German victory, the high command claimed today and indicated a great new Nazi offensive on the eastern front was about to begin.

The high command, in four special communiques claiming the annihilation of Soviet armies totaling several million men, placed German forces, after seven weeks of fighting, at gates of Kiev and at the main defenses of Leningrad.

The special communiques, however, revealed no details and did not already been claimed in the regular daily high command communiques or in the reports of DNB, the official news agency.

The communiques emphasized the obstinacy and savage resistance of the Russian armies and described

RAILWAY UNIONS SLATE VOTE ON WAGE WALKOUT

CHICAGO, Aug. 6 (AP)—Railway labor brotherhoods prepared today for a strike poll of their 1,150,000 members, and federal mediation to reopen dislocated wage negotiations appeared inevitable.

A statement between management and the 19 unions produced a 75-day truce of developments yesterday, 13 days after the huge bargaining conference opened.

The carriers' negotiating committee announced rejection of all wage demands. The 14 non-operating brotherhoods, which 800,000 members have demanded wage increases of 30 cents hourly, responded by offering a 5% wage increase.

The carriers' offer, which has asked a 30 cent raise for 350,000 employees, soon took similar action.

No Date Set

Neither labor group set a date for the proposed walkout, and their decision left a possible transportation stoppage still distant.

John W. Williams, chairman of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, said balloting among the operating unions was under way and that a vote would be taken in a few days.

Meanwhile, intervention by the three-man federal mediation board appeared certain through one of two avenues.

1. The board could offer its services to mediate the dispute. Both management and labor representatives have indicated they would accept an offer of the board.

2. The carriers could invoke the services of the board as they already have done twice when unions rejected management demands for changes in working rules.

If the mediation board should be unable to dislodge the deadlock, it could propose arbitration. It would report an "emergency" to the President if either the carriers or the unions failed to accept arbitration.

The President then may appoint a fact-finding commission. Such a commission would have 30 days to prepare a report, and the unions and railroads would have 30 days to act on its findings. Recommendations of previous commissions always have been accepted.

ENGLAND WARNS JAPAN IN SIAM

LONDON, Aug. 6 (AP)—Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden said today that the "threatening independence and integrity" of Thailand (Siam) will be regarded as a matter of immediate concern to British policy-makers since it would threaten security of Singapore.

Eden told common the Japanese newspaper campaign against Britain is carrying on intrigues in Thailand indicate someone in authority is attempting to manufacture a case for Japanese intervention there.

"If such a step is taken," he said, "it must inevitably give rise to the most serious situation between Britain and Japan."

GUARDS?

WASHINGTON, Aug. 6 (AP)—Price Control Administrator Leon Henderson today suggested that workers, despite their rush to buy up dwindling supplies of all stockpiles, would act as "local police forces" to guard against hoarding.

Henderson told the house banking committee there should be no need for "military" guards already in the hands of retailers.

"See no reason for us setting a price on existing retail stocks," he said, "but I hope purchasers will act as local police forces in reporting retail price rises."

RUMORS INCREASE THAT FDR, CHURCHILL MEET

By United Press

Rumors multiplied in London and Washington today that Prime Minister Winston Churchill and President Roosevelt were about to meet somewhere in the northwest Atlantic, but the only concrete thing to give them substance was inability of American and British officials to deny them.

If heads of the two English-speaking nations met or were about to meet, their governments had succeeded in cloaking their wish with secrecy.

British public had no hint of the whereabouts of the prime minister, President Roosevelt boarded the Queen Mary for the night of New London, Oct. 1, for what was said to be a vacation at sea. Correspondents did not accompany him on an evening destroyer, as has been the custom, but yesterday the navy released a bulletin that the Queen Mary was en route to the Potomac that he was in the west and quiet.

Washington correspondents today reported that Churchill had been transferred at sea which had taken to a newsboat and was en route to the Potomac. It could not be confirmed.

State Department spokesman said that neither Churchill nor Roosevelt had met in New London, Oct. 1, for what was heads are reported also to have been thrust deeply into the Ukraine between last October and January. The Black sea, where a bridgehead is said to have been thrown over the Dnieper and across Odessa.

Reason for Belief

The high command said numerous reports show the Russian high command has not been able to bring about developments on its own front and that consequently German forces have been able to bring about giving information to the enemy.

The high command gave this picture of the opening of German operations:

One German army group, under Field Marshal Ritter von Liebowitz, forced the Dnieper river between Drink and Riga after heavy fighting, mopped up Latvia and then moved forward to break the Russian defenses along the Latvian-Soviet frontier and simultaneously mop up Russian forces in Estonia.

German Army Moves Forward

Despite difficult roads and strong defenses, German forces moved forward between Lake Ciman and Lake Pelpus to a short distance from Narva on the Estonian-Soviet frontier, blocking the last German bridgehead between Lake Pelpus and the Gulf of Finland.

An army command under Col. Gen. Bueh succeeded in pushing through the strong Soviet positions south of Lake Pelpus with cooperation of German armored forces commanded by Col. Gen. Hoepner.

Ostrov, Porkhov and Pakov, said the high command, fell after a short battle, enabling the Germans to thrust northward and open an attack in the direction of Leningrad.

Also in the hospital is Dale Hanson, whose arm was broken by a bullet allegedly fired by Fincham. Motive behind the army draftsman's arrest, according to authorities, was the one-sided infatuation of Fincham for his friend's wife. The infatuation, according to Deputy Sheriff Clyde Craig, was "entirely" on Fincham's part and Mrs. Hanson did not encourage him and was not aware of his feelings.

RUSSIAN STAND TWISTS NAZI PLANS, BRITISH CLAIM

FIGHT REPORTED DRAWING NEARER AMERICAN COAST

LONDON, Aug. 6 (AP)—Lord Privy Seal Clement R. Attlee, speaking for Prime Minister Winston Churchill, told commons today Germany has been forced into a two-front war and that the plans of the Nazi high command have been twisted away from Russia's determined stand.

Speaking during the war progress debate in absence of Churchill, Attlee declared:

"That the battle of the Atlantic now extends 'far toward the coast of the United States' and that Britain is achieving satisfactory results in the sea war of recent weeks."

Tokyo Watched

That Britain and the United States are maintaining "utmost vigilance" against the Japanese in the east, he said. Tokyo's intentions toward Thailand appear to resemble her previous policy of the occupation of French Indo-China.

That supplies being received from the United States "far exceed" anything she has received in the past and have immeasurably strengthened Britain's position.

That Britain's confidence in her ability to repel any German invasion by sea or air is complete "but nothing must be left to chance."

Attlee warned the house against any excess of optimism.

"We are still fighting for our existence against a strong and ruthless enemy," he said.

He paid high tribute to Russia's stand "against the massed forces of Germany and the hangers-on of the Nazi regime" but said it would be foolish for anyone to attempt to forecast outcome of the struggle.

"I think it is abundantly clear," he said, "that the plans of the German high command for a rapid victory have not succeeded."

Deferment 'Guarantee' Probe Open

BOISE, Aug. 6 (AP)—The federal bureau of investigation today probed charges representatives of trade schools had guaranteed military deferment to selective service registrants who enrolled in courses.

Brig. Gen. M. G. McConnell, state director of selective service, said cases in Twin Falls and Lincoln counties have been brought to attention of state headquarters and turned over to the FBI for action.

"The men have been smart enough not to put the deferment clause in writing," Gen. McConnell reported. "If this fraud can be proved they may be charged with taking money under false pretenses and encouraging delinquency under the selective service act."

Gen. McConnell said there was no guarantee of deferment after the selective has been called to duty.

Normal Work Occupies Subs At Hawaii, Officer Asserts

By DORINE GOERTZEN

Normal training operations are the primary concern of the U. S. submarine squadron No. 2, now stationed at Pearl Harbor, Hawaii, according to Lieut.-Commander Charles B. Hart, who is now in Twin Falls on furlough visiting his mother, Mrs. Charles L. Hart, and his sister, Mrs. Kenneth C. Beach.

Commander Hart is assigned to the submarine Sculpin, which has as its mobile base the tender, Holland. This tender is named after John Holland, an Irish teacher who developed the first practical submarine, and has 12 submarines using her as a mother ship.

When the fleet was transferred from San Diego, Calif., in June of 1940, members of this sub-squadron also received their transfer. Commander Hart serves in the capacity of squadron engineer.

At Pearl Harbor, Hart for the first time since he was graduated from Annapolis naval academy in 1926 has had the pleasure of knowing and working with army fliers. Hart received his appointment to Annapolis while living in Twin Falls in 1922.

Most outstanding spectacle of the naval officer has witnessed since his transfer to Hawaii a year and a half ago was the eruption of Mauna Loa. This he viewed from an army plane last spring, during the volcano's 10-day eruption period. Although the volcanic activity was not of great proportions, he said that the fountains of flame, some two hundred feet in height, formed a striking picture at evening, at which time the observation flight was made.

When asked about the native population, Commander Hart explained that few true Hawaiians remain, perhaps because of the importation

2ND DIVISION CLUBS DUMP CARDS, YANKS

Solons Defeat Bombers, 4-3; Redbirds Lose

By GEORGE KIRKBY
NEW YORK, Aug. 6 (UP)—The league-leading Yankees and Cardinals had a few wounds to lick today after being ruffled up by a couple of second division clubs—the last-place Senators and the sixth-place Cubs.

The Yanks are in what for having a prolonged slump, having dropped three of their last four games, but they can afford to taper off a bit after setting a blistering pace for weeks. The loss of a single game to the Senators yesterday, 4-3, didn't matter a whole lot, but losing to a rival like Alejandro Carrasquel was a bitter pill for the Yanks.

Carrasquel, although winner in three relief roles and unbroken, has pitched a game, but he did not pitch the Yanks to wins. The Cardinals have to fret about getting to the Cubs, 6-2. It is a really good pitcher, Vern Ogi, who some predict is going to develop into the National league's top pitcher. The Cardinals' defeat trimmed the Cardinals to a single game over the Cubs.

The Pirates continued to loom up as a possible September pennant threat by trouncing the Reds, 3-0, in their 18th victory in their last 18 games. The victory narrowed the gap between them and the Cubs to one game.

Twice batting from behind the Braves wiped out four and five runs in the first and second innings, but they were able to come back and win, 4-3.

Slugging Sacs Triumph Over Angels, 9-8
Sacramento's Cardinals engaged in an old-fashioned slugfest today with Los Angeles yesterday and emerged with a 9 to 8 win, although they were twice forced to come from behind to keep the game.

Oakland shamed Seattle 5 to 0. The A's won their fourth straight game in the fourth inning on a home run by Al Simmons. Al Simmons' error, Al Simmons' error for Seattle with two on in the fifth.

Portland whitewashed Hollywood 4 to 0 behind Willey Eicher's seven-inning pitching and breaking Hiram Blanton's single-game winning streak for the Twins.

San Diego took an easy 7 to 2 win from San Francisco as Hank Terry chalked up his 18th win of the season.

SPORTS QUIZ

MEMORIES OF ALL-STAR GAME... PLAYED AT OGDEN MONDAY... REYNOLDS, OEHLEH, PISCOVICH SHINE IN EXTRAVAGANZA...

Back from the All-Star contest at Ogden—and lots of thrilling moments to recall.

First and foremost, Vern Reynolds, who ordinarily sports a batting average around the .375 mark, pitched these five hits at Ogden to the plate—and hitting the ball as hard on the other occasion it would not have been run.

And you'll overlook Vic Oehler, who pitched a strong fielding game, making four outs and four assists, starting one double play.

Then there was Paul Piscovich, who was the winning pitcher. He never looked faster than he did in this extravaganza—allowing one run in the three frames he worked.

White the north dropped doubles and triples all around the heads of Ted Katolik and Willie Beros in the south outfield, the south batters couldn't get a ball by the north pitcher.

Following the game, at a party put on by newspapermen in an Ogden hotel, the two sides were talking of possible news about any of the players for the north.

But that would be the example of mistakes. And here's one: "It had been getting the outfielders probably would have chosen more batting power. But the fans picked the perfect outfield for the game."

Following the game, at a party put on by newspapermen in an Ogden hotel, the two sides were talking of possible news about any of the players for the north.

Cowboys, Reds Play 2 Games Here Tonight

Twin Falls Cowboys, possibly rejuvenated by their sparkling performances in the Pioneer league all-star game at Ogden on Monday night, take the field tonight against the league-leading Ogden Reds.

And if the Reds perform the way they did in Ogden on all-star day, then they are in for a tough time of it from the cellar-dwelling Cowboys.

White Vern Reynolds, Paul Piscovich and Vic Oehler were shining at Ogden Monday night. They were booting the ball around and generally playing like amateurs.

This switch in performance may mean that the Twin Falls boys will have a chance tonight when the two teams tee off in the opening game of a double-header, slated to commence at 7 p. m. The first game will be the main event.

For the first game, Manager Andy Harrington will send either Hank Bushman or Gerry Bohlen to the mound to oppose Ryan, the Ogden right-handed fireballer whom the Cowboys pounded hard—and beat—in his last appearance.

The second tilt will see Hank Bushman, the Twin Falls ace, on the hill for the Wranglers. Bushman has pitched near-perfect ball in his late appearance. In his most recent try he hurled no-error run ball for eight innings after relieving Bohlen.

Bushman to start will be Ken Polivka, the Ogden lefty, who turned back the Cowboys in his last start here.

In the Twin Falls lineup tonight for the first time will be Fred Hult, hefty youngster out of the Baraboo league in Kansas. Playing with Manistash, Hult hit .322 for the season and connects for a long ball. This will be his first professional hit as a contact. Hult's home town is Parma, Ida.

After being credited with three decisions over Giants in as many days, Ernie Wilke, young left-hander, returned to host for St. Louis Cardinals after one day's rest to let Braves down with seven hits and make six victories in 17 days.

C. of C. Backs Drive to Boost Baseball Attendance

Organized support of the Twin Falls Cowboys for the remainder of this season—a move aimed to guarantee retention of the Wrangler franchise in Magic Valley—was underway today, following a meeting of baseball men and senior Chamber of Commerce directors here yesterday.

Pleading for a way to increase attendance at Jaycee park for the remainder of the season, Business Manager Carl N. Anderson of the Cowboys, asked that the chamber make some move to help stimulate turnout at games.

The result was that President Harry Block of the Chamber appointed Ed Wood, Evening Times sports editor, as chairman of a committee to work out a program to be followed for the remainder of the year aimed at reducing financial losses that are slated to occur. Also named on the committee were John Gardner of the radio station and Joe Landford, attorney. This trio will work with three from the Junior Chamber of Commerce, today appointed by President Leroy Perry.

Charles Name Trio Perry named from his organization, James Sieber as chairman with Pete Bonin and Dale Wakem as the other members.

Wood called a meeting of the six for this afternoon at 4 o'clock in the Chamber of Commerce rooms to map plans for the remainder of the baseball season.

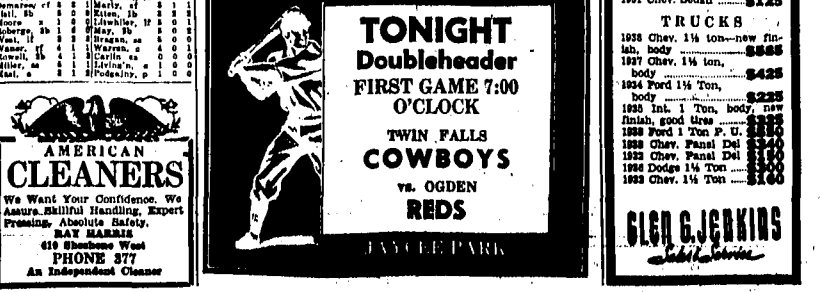

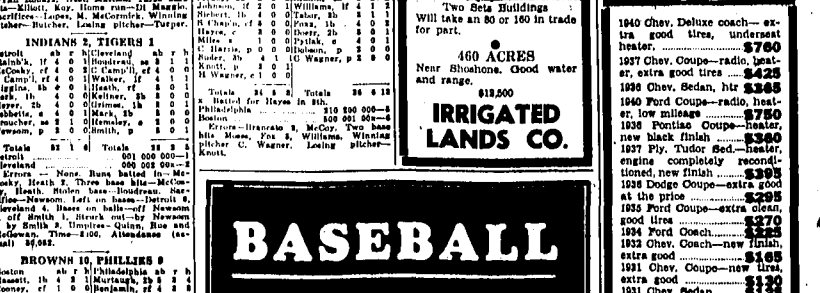

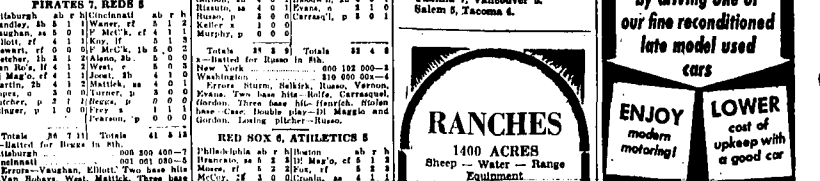

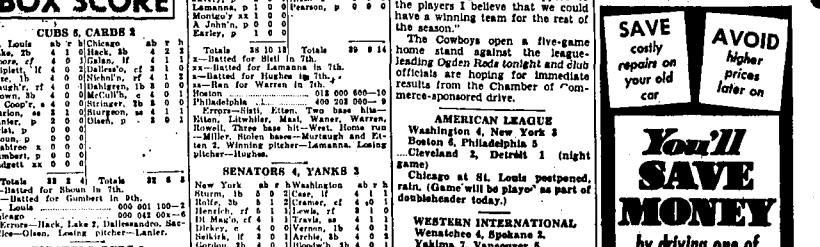

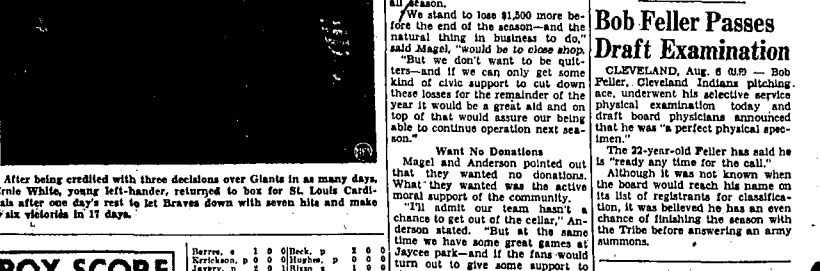

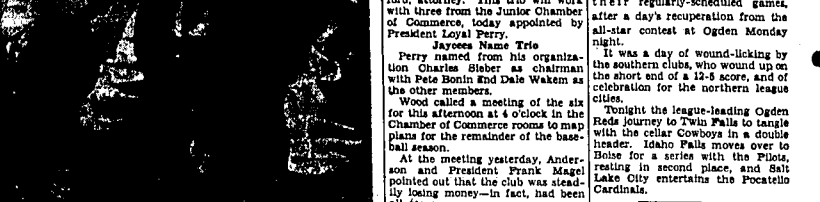

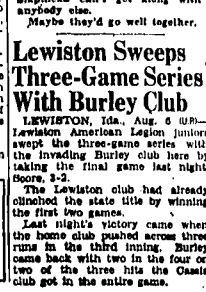

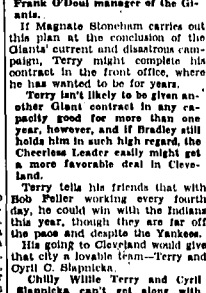

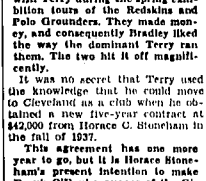

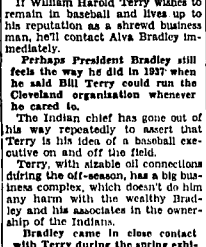

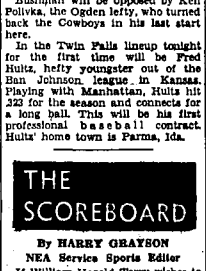

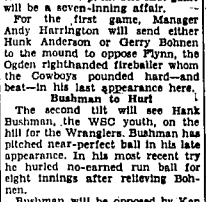

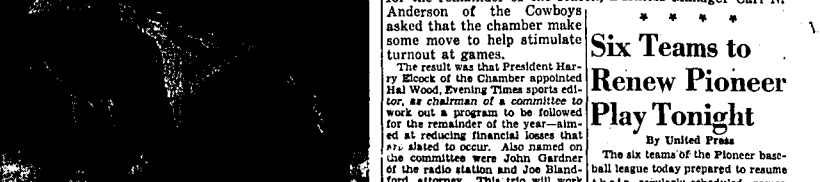

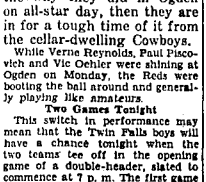

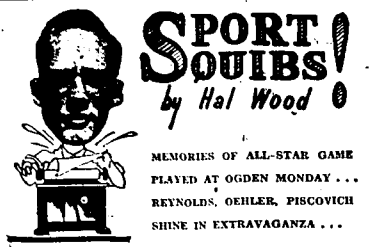

At the meeting yesterday, Anderson and President Frank Magel pointed out that the club was steadily losing money—in fact, had lost all season.

"We stand to lose $1,500 more before the end of the season—and the natural thing in business to do," said Magel, "would be to close shop."

"But we don't want to be quiet—and if we can only get some kind of civic support to cut down these losses for the remainder of the year it would be a great aid and on top of that would assure our being able to continue operation next season."

Want No Donations Magel and Anderson pointed out that they wanted no donations. "What they wanted was the active moral support of the community."

They called for a meeting of the six for this afternoon at 4 o'clock in the Chamber of Commerce rooms to map plans for the remainder of the baseball season.

THE SCOREBOARD

By HARRY GRAYSON
NBA Service Sports Editor
The following are the scores of the games played today in the National Basketball Association.

Perhaps President Bradley still feels the way he did in 1937 when he said Bill Terry could run the baseball organization whenever he cared to.

It was no secret that Terry used the word "whenever" in his contract to Cleveland as a club when he obtained a new five-year contract at $42,000 a year from the Indians in 1937.

This agreement has one more year to go, but it is Horace Branson, the Indians' general manager, who is expected to be in charge of the club when Terry's contract expires.

Six Teams to Renew Pioneer Play Tonight

The six teams of the Pioneer baseball league today prepared to resume their regularly-scheduled games after a day's recuperation from the all-star contest at Ogden Monday night.

It was a day of wound-linking by the southern clubs, who wound up on the short end of a 12-8 score, and of celebration for the northern league clubs.

Tonight the league-leading Ogden Reds journey to Twin Falls to tangle with the local Cowboys in a double header. Idaho Falls moves over to Boise for a series with the Pilots, resting in second place, and Salt Lake City entertains the Pocatello Cardinals.

Bob Feller Passes Draft Examination

CLEVELAND, Aug. 6 (UP)—Bob Feller, Cleveland Indians pitcher, passed his selective service physical examination today and draft board physicians announced that he was "a perfect physical specimen."

The 22-year-old Feller has said he is "brady any time for the call." Although it was not known when the board would reach his name on its list of registrants for classification, it was believed he has an even chance of finishing the season with the Tribe before answering an army summons.

Ballyhoo Gets Underway to Pick Site for Louis' Title Defense

By HARRY FERGUSON
NEW YORK, Aug. 6 (AP)—A quick survey showed today that there are three places inside the boundaries of continental United States which have not been mentioned as possible sites for the forthcoming fight between Joe Louis and Lou Nova:

1. The Grand canyon.
2. Shelly, Mont.
3. A raft in the middle of the Great Salt lake.

And that means, fellow citizens, that the build-up really has started for what may turn out to be a million dollar game next month. The first step in getting the ballyhoo under way for a heavy-weight championship fight is to set the country speculating on where the Brown Bomber will do his bombing.

It's a two-way proposition. Many towns cannot resist the temptation to cut themselves a slice of the publicity by putting in a bid for the fight. Eliminating all the podiums that are out for a piece of pie and now they haven't a chance to get the fight. Promoter Mike Jacobs has four bona fide propositions under consideration.

The automobile industry in Detroit has offered to underwrite $200,000 worth of tickets and points out there is plenty of money in that city because of the national defense boom.

A group of apartment men in Boston has offered a $250,000 guarantee.

Chicago is trying to get the fight merely by pointing out the city always supports a heavyweight championship bout. New York is always in the running for a heavyweight title because of the immense population from which a promoter can draw.

The agitation over the site will last for about another week or 10 days and then the ballyhoo will veer off on another angle. In fact, some of that has started already.

Louis announced in the midst of the other day that he was getting tired of playing golf and putting his horse through their paces in shows. He said he was "itching for some action," meaning he wanted to get back to his trade of trouncing people on the noggin until they dropped. That tends to abolish the idea Louis is ring wary and getting ready to retire; it pains him as a hungry, thirsty tiger, ready for the kill.

Next week Nova will emerge from the Maine woods, and leave it to him to come up with something that will help the ballyhoo. It probably will be recalled Gene Tunney built himself into a title shot against Jack Dempsey by retiring to the woods and chopping trees. In addition, Nova probably will have some variation on his "cosmic punch"—a mysterious blow that has been explained to your agent three times and still eludes him.

The Louis-Nova game will be helped by the fact the Impression seems to will help the ballyhoo. It is about to be taken. Hundreds, perhaps thousands, of persons will want to attend so, when they are approached, they can whisper the grandchildren around them and—"Now the night Louis got ticked..."

40,000 to See Hambletonian Race in Goshen

GOSHEN, N. Y., Aug. 6 (AP)—The sleepy hamlet of Goshen for 364 days of the year was broken today as 40,000 clattered into town to watch the brawny standard-bred horses trot it out in that Kentucky derby of the rural regions—the $40,000 Hambletonian stake.

The somewhat dubious honor of favoritism was bestowed upon Bill Mallon, a heavily muscled colt owned by R. H. Johnson of Charlotte, N. C., but the race appeared open.

Tall "Woofing" Livens Army Jargon to Jabberwacky Level

HAMILTON FIELD, Calif., Aug. 6 (AP)—The building up of the aviation branch of the national defense program is gradually resulting in the creation of a jargon that promises to make future war birds unintelligible to more earthy branches of the service.

This new aeronautical language is developed through long sessions of "bunk flying" (talking around quarters and discussing the ins and outs of aviation, past, present and future).

A sample of the conversation:

"Everything would have been fine if this dodo hadn't landed over and started woofing to my date about taking her out in a sea shooter. This put me in a storm and the worst of it was he was the captain and I had to highball him."

What was meant by this gem of the new aerial oratory, taken down verbatim from an aviation lieutenant, was that he was having a pleasant social engagement with a debutante from Marin county when an infantry captain came over and offered to take his companion for a ride in a pursuit plane. This so flustered the flying cadet that he lost his social bearings and what made the situation worse was that the instructor, being a captain, the lieutenant was obliged to salute him.

"Dodo" Fast on Ground

In this new, loftier development of the English language, a "dodo" is anybody who cannot fly but who is known as a "fast one on the ground."

"A lone tramp on the ramp" is the name of a punishment for a minor offense and consists of taking a long walking tour about the post.

"Bird dog" is anyone who tries to cut in on a social engagement. A "washing machine" is the commander's plane. The practice is to take a cadet who is falling in his course on one last elimination ride before "washing him out."

The commander usually conducts the last test personally to see if the "wash-out" can be avoided.

"Sound-off" is to report to a senior officer.

"Six and Twenty Tootle" is any girl who keeps an officer or a cadet after hours thereby getting him in trouble with the corporal of the guard.

"Holy Flaw" is an explanation about almost any emergency.

"Under the hood" is flying blind or just not knowing what it's all about.

"Jep" is a link trainer for instrument flying.

"Brace"—Ramrod Back

"Brace" is an exaggerated position for attention.

"Gun" is to ask for more food or a mess.

"Ole" is to assign a demerit to a cadet for carelessness or infraction of rules.

"Cadet Widow" is usually a pretty girl who lives near a training field and has been escorted by students of all ranks.

"Sweat it down" is to anxiously watch a plane coming in for a landing.

"Hot pilot," is sometimes a good pilot and sometimes a flier who likes to show off while in the air.

"Wring it out" is to stunt a plane fast a landing.

Any cadet is "Mister." To "taxi over" is to join the party.

"Woofing" is telling tales, and "dawn patrolling" is up and being about the field before reveille.

A flier is in a "storm" when he becomes flustered or confused.

FAMILY AFFAIR

COEUR D'ALENE, Ida., Aug. 6 (AP)—The Coeur d'Alene Country club title appears to be a family matter.

When defending titleholder Mahlon Rucker was unable to appear in the 1941 tournament, his son, Bob, stepped in and took the championship by defeating the club's former professional, Walter Wilson, 4 and 2.

Gooding Woman Rides Plane on Birthday No. 93

GOODING, Aug. 6 (Special)—Mrs. Nettie Harper Metcalf, Gooding, celebrated her 93rd birthday Sunday by taking a 15-minute airplane ride along the city and nearby country. The trip, which was Mrs. Metcalf's first experience in the air, was taken in the Taylorcraft plane owned by Bob Whipple, who was at the controls.

Mrs. Metcalf was born Aug. 5, 1848, in Jamestown, N. Y. Since 1925 she has made her home with her daughter, Mrs. H. J. Leyson, in Gooding.

Two California Boys Held for Holdup - Murder of Grocer In a stolen car and later hopped a freight train.

Police Chief Taylor said while the boys were on route to Salt Lake, they picked up a stolen car and were out of the city two days before the shooting occurred.

The boys, Walter Lee, 15, and Kenneth Taylor, 16, were reportedly admitted to police they shot William Hennis, 64, because he was telephoning the sheriff to come and get them.

"But we didn't know we had killed him," Washburn said to have told Taylor that he had shot Hennis in his confession.

When asked why they attempted the holdup, the boys told police they needed the money to buy a new car. They said they had about $500 in the car.

"When we went in and stuck him up," Washburn said, "I saw the money and I was in the car. I didn't want to get caught, and while we were holding off the lady in the back of the story, I shot the man in the back."

Pork Problem Gets Solution In Stamp Plan

It had begun to loom as a problem in some areas of Magic Valley—but today the worry over pork credit slips was solved for West market operators and users of the food stamp plan.

Pork was on the blue stamp list of surplus commodities for July—but was removed as of Aug. 1. Prior to that time stamp users who bought pork with their blue stamps received a credit slip instead of cash change when the price of the pork was less than the 25-cent face value of the blue stamp.

For Future Purchase

The credit stamps were to be used in future purchases of pork meats and lard.

With pork and lard removed from the surplus list, last Friday, stamp users and market proportionists didn't know what to do with those outstanding credit slips.

Tom Paulson, Twin Falls county member of the surplus foods committee received word from Willard F. Walter, area supervisor for the surplus marketing administration, that the outstanding blue stamp credit slips issued before Aug. 1 can be returned to the plan in exchange for pork products as listed each month.

Orange Stamps Different

A. W. McConnell, county chairman, pointed out that the orange stamps—which are purchased in order to participate in the plan—can be secured the free blue stamps—can always be exchanged for pork or any other meat products, in other words, have no relation to surplus foods.

PRODUCER LOANS HELPING DEFENSE

Bacon for Britain is going to be produced with the help of the two billion dollar loaned by the production credit system, according to A. L. Hanks, Burley, president of the Southern Idaho Production Credit association.

The two billion dollar was loaned this month to Martin Paulson, corn-hog farmer of route two, Orinda, Ia., a member of the Newton, Ia., Production Credit association. "This particular dollar—a million in the early part of the history of the production credit system—was included in a loan for the purchase of three brood sows. With them Mr. Paulson is going to step up his pork production, an important phase of the national defense program and the Norwegian port of Kirkenes, it was officially announced today.
