Twin Falls Turns out for Annual County Fair 'Day'

Residents of Twin Falls turned out for their day at the county fair today and as a result Tom Parks, secretary manager, announced at 1:30 p. m. that "this is the best first day yet."

Unofficially then at that time showed that 1,816 persons had passed through the gates and the bulk was yet to come, with local merchants closing shop at 1 p. m. to permit their employees a trip to the fair.

Likewise school was out all day and councilmen last night approved a resolution advocated by Mayor Joe Koehler that all city employees could have the afternoon off to go to the fair if they desired to do so. Needless to say practically all of them took the opportunity to attend.

Wednesday will be Buhl and west end day at the show and another great crowd is expected. Each year Twin Falls and Buhl vie for the greatest number passing through the gates and last year all honors went to Buhl with one of the greatest crowds in history.

Youth Injured
First minor accident at the ground was recorded this morning when Dick Howard, 16, son of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Howard, Buhl, was injured when he fell from the top of the horse barn. Officials said that young Howard and another boy had been warned against wrestling on boards placed on the rafters. During a skirmish the Howard boy fell to the ground. His injuries were not believed to be of a serious nature.

Today first announcement of winners in 4-H girls' clothing one of the best of the past several seasons, those in charge say. In the mule barn one of the exhibits is a baby jacket, which is only seven days old. The tiny animal, about the size of a toy, is owned by Charles McNelly, Buhl, and received an

Probe Opens on Film Industry "Stake" in Allied War Victory

By LOUIS J. SCHARFLE
WASHINGTON, Sept. 9 (UP)—Sen. Gerald P. Nye, R., N. D., charged today that motion picture producers have a financial stake in a British victory and that this may be influencing them to put propaganda into their product designed to get the United States into war.

Nye, the first witness at an investigation into alleged propaganda in motion and radio, asserted the motion picture industry "has a very selfish interest" in the European war.

Nye said that without undertaking to name all the Hollywood pictures he considered to contain propaganda, he suggested the following would "bear investigation":

"Convoy," "Flight Command," "Escape," "I Married a Nazi," "The Hamilton Woman," "Man Hunt," "The Great Dictator," and "Sergeant York."

He urged a senate interleave committee to conduct a full-fledged inquiry into the situation. The results of hearings started today technically concerned a resolution by Nye and Sen. Bennett C. Clark, D. Mo., calling for such an investigation, a number of the leading motion picture companies would be wiped out.

Wendell L. Willkie, counsel for the movie interests, contended in a brief

CHURCHILL SEES GERMAN ATTACK IN U. S. WATERS

By EDWARD W. BEATTIE, JR.
LONDON, Sept. 9 (UP)—Prime Minister Winston Churchill today warned that Adolf Hitler might force naval warfare on the United States and called upon Americans for greater sacrifice to assure victory over Nazism.

The British prime minister told commonsense Americans that the tide of the still undecided battle of the Atlantic and that possibly 15,000,000 Red army men had certain Hitler would fight this winter on the long eastern front.

Churchill made what he called the "astounding" statement that three times as much sea tonnage had been sunk in the Atlantic as in the Pacific, and said German casualties on the eastern front had been greater than in any single year of the world war.

Need Greater U. S. Aid
But, he said, still greater United States naval aid would be helpful in the American war against Hitler's restricted civilian consumption if they are to "fulfill the task" of crushing Nazi tyranny set forth in the eight-point Atlantic charter.

The question of an American expeditionary force to aid in the war against Hitler was raised in common sense by Churchill's speech when Robert Cary, Conservative, pointed out that Gen. Sir Archibald Murray and other British generals may have to produce a larger army than we possessed in 1918.

Hitler's "Mein Kampf" Russia and then Britain before tackling the United States, Churchill said, but the "broad stream" of American opinion is against such a "betrayal" of countries may force the Nazi Fuehrer to carry the war into the United States.

Churchill said that Hitler's army comes into conflict with the American navy, Hitler, he said, now faces the speed of cutting off the American supply lines by sea.

He said the "most serious and sacrifices" to supply arms to the allies.

Essential to Victory
Greater production of war installations and decreased consumption on the part of America are essential to supply the British and

24 Men Missing After Attack in North Atlantic

British Warship Saves 20 From Red Sea Sinking

CAIRO, Sept. 9 (UP)—A British warship picked up survivors of the American freighter Steel Seafarer, it was disclosed today.

The Seafarer was sunk by air attack in the Red sea on Wednesday. There were approximately 20 persons aboard the Seafarer. The ship presumably was carrying American supplies to the Red sea for British use in the middle east.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9 (UP)—The state department was informed today that 24 men, including one American, were lost when a Panamanian ship operated by an American firm was torpedoed and sunk southeast of Iceland.

The state department identified the ship as the SS Sessa and said three surviving members of the crew had been rescued.

The rescue occurred Sept. 6. The survivors said the ship had been sunk by a torpedo on Aug. 17.

Neither the name of the lost American or the names of the survivors were available.

"The ship was a former Danish vessel taken over by the maritime commission and operated by an American firm of New York. It had been placed under Panamanian registry and was transporting to Iceland supplies owned by the government of Iceland."

The state department announcement follows: "The state department has been informed by the navy department that on Saturday morning, Sept. 6, the navy picked up three surviving members of the crew of the SS Sessa, about 800 miles southwest of Iceland."

"Twenty-four members of the crew are unreported and presumed lost."

"The state department was informed that the survivors stated the ship had been sunk by a torpedo on Aug. 17. There was one American citizen member of the crew. His name is lacking and he is not one of the survivors."

"The names of the three survivors have not been furnished to the department of state. The Sessa was a former Danish vessel which was acquired under Panamanian government under authority of the law permitting taking over the idle foreign flag ships in American waters. The vessel was under Panamanian registry and was supplying for the government of Iceland and owned by that government. The cargo consisted of foodstuffs, cereals, hulked and other goods and did not include arms, ammunition or implements of war."

"A state department spokesman is reported to have said that the Sessa was a Danish vessel which was taken over by the maritime commission and on its last voyage was operated by a New York firm."

PROBE REVEALS SPY RADIO PLOT

NEW YORK, Sept. 9 (UP)—A clandestine short-wave radio station through which the federal bureau of investigation sent the German Gestapo false messages about the state of the war in Europe, a national radio station was disclosed today at trial of 16 persons accused of being Nazi spies.

Existence of the station was disclosed by William C. Sebald, a nationalized American citizen who, in the face of threats from the Gestapo in 1939, was credited by the government with exposing the spy ring in which the 16 defendants belonged.

Agreed to Espionage
Sebald related that he had returned to Germany in 1938 and there was threatened with death by the Gestapo unless he agreed to engage in espionage in the United States. He said that he agreed to do so and was given a passport for the purpose.

The witness said he returned to New York in 1940 and was met on his arrival by an FBI agent and a representative of the radio station to whom he turned over $910, the balance of $1,000 which had been given him by the Gestapo.

The FBI later built the radio station on Long Island and from April, 1940, to the present sent from 200 to 300 messages to Berlin in Hamburg, many of them "phony."

Roosevelt May Blast U. S. Losses at Sea

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9 (UP)—Capitol observers today expected President Roosevelt, possibly in Thursday night speech on foreign affairs—to denounce the sinkings of the U. S. freighter Steel Seafarer and the Panamanian ship Sessa, being operated by an American company.

The President was expected to call the sinkings violations of American rights to freedom of the seas.

The torpedoing of the Sessa was expected to be called along with the alleged German submarine attack on the U. S. destroyer Greer, a charge which the American navy has undertaken to keep clear of raiders.

ROOSEVELT MOTHER OF FDR

HYDE PARK, N. Y., Sept. 9 (UP)—The President's mother was buried today amid the stately and beautiful ceremony in which she had spent most of her life.

In the 120-year-old cemetery of St. James Episcopal church, where she had lain in state since the death of her husband, James O'Neil, died 41 years ago.

Under last old trees, the President's mother and a few intimate friends from among the retainers on the Roosevelt estate declared today that the United States had pledged further naval aid to Britain following the Greer incident and that the nation had been asked to support the American fleet.

"Our ships are out to find that submarine and if they run across another one they might mistake it."

BRITAIN BOOSTS AXIS SHIP LOSSES

LONDON, Sept. 9 (UP)—The admiralty today said that British warships last night during the week ended Sept. 7, sank or captured 10 enemy ships in the English channel and in the Atlantic.

The communiqué said one enemy supply ship was sunk and another probably was sunk in the night.

A German E-boat, or motor torpedo craft, was probably sunk, and an Italian submarine was set afire, the statement added.

The communiqué was issued after an official statement had said the sinking of British and allied shipping in July and August totaled only a "little more than one-third of German shipping losses in the Atlantic."

It also was stated officially in this connection that there are now "considerable British and United States naval and air forces" based in Iceland, in addition to a strong force of British and United States troops.

British Troops Occupy Islands in Arctic Area

By JOHN A. PARRIS, JR.
LONDON, Sept. 9 (UP)—British occupation forces are remaining in the Arctic islands of Spitzbergen, it was indicated officially today in comment on a swift raid that eliminated possibility of Germany receiving coal from the strategic islands.

Indications that some of the occupation forces, including Canadians and Norwegians, were remaining was given in an official statement which said the allied front now stretches in an immense crescent from Spitzbergen to the north African coast of Tobruk. The statement was not clarified.

In sending an expeditionary force to the Spitzbergen group, comprising four main islands and several smaller ones, the British were assumed to have concentrated on West Spitzbergen, the largest island of the group, which is a valuable source of coal for Norway, which the island, and for Germany which occupies Norway.

Strategic Position
The island group, although frozen for months in the year, occupies a strategically important position about equidistant from Greenland, the Arctic coast of Norway, and the Russian island groups of Franz Josef land and Norway, Zyrenya, on which Russia has maintained Arctic airbases and important military and logistical stations.

A war communiqué which gave the first news of the British expedition said:

"For various purposes it was recently decided to send a military force to the Arctic. In course of the operations, which were carried out

A BAD ONE DOES TURN UP ONCE IN A WHILE!

Good weather and a bumper crop! Even then one finds a poor stalk once in a while.

The retelling of beer is something like that. Most beer retailers operate respectable law-abiding establishments. Occasionally one finds an exception—a man who tries to beat the law or who permits anti-social conditions.

The beer industry wants this type of undesirable retailer stamped out. Your cooperation will help us in our cleanup efforts.

The beer industry brings important benefits to the community. Here in Idaho, beer provides employment for 5,276 persons, supports an annual payroll of $5,665,101 and contributed $249,041 last year in state taxes.

Idaho, too, has an important stake in the beer industry's purchases—for materials, equipment, and services—from over 100 other industries.

You can help us protect these benefits in two ways. First—patronize only the reputable places where beer is sold. Second—report to the proper authorities any law violation you may observe.

JAGELS, SPEEDY SPEAK TO F. F. A.

By EDNA CHILDS
DAIRY PALACE, Piler, Sept. 9 (Special)—Pully 100 P. F. A. boys, their advisers, parents and friends attended the dairy demonstration at the fairgrounds Saturday evening.

Tom Speedy, field manager for the Cooperative Creamery, and A. H. Jagels, prominent Buhl dairyman, shared honors in speaking.

Mr. Speedy, in introducing the cows taking part in the demonstration, told several interesting facts about the cows as individuals and as a group. He mentioned one Hoffman cow exhibition in that it was possible to collect her milk production for her lifetime, would produce 8,000 pounds of milk, or enough to take care of the eight calves which are used at the Cooperative Creamery each day. If all the milk of these cows for their lifetime could be collected, it would take care of the city of Twin Falls for 38 days. This group of cows averages more than twice as much butterfat as the average number of cows in Idaho.

Milk Inspection
Mr. Speedy explained the care of the machines used in the demonstration and stressed that it is very important to cool milk as quickly as possible to remove animal heat in order to have the best quality. He mentioned the fair board, in appointing several men to select the cows, had required the following qualifications: The cows must be free of disease, have good appearance and have a production record.

During the month of August, the cows, while on the display program, were tested and averaged 41 pounds of butterfat per cow.

A. H. Jagels spoke on the responsibility each boy must assume when taking over a project. He asked that the parents provide the boy with an animal that the boy may find acceptable for competition. He mentioned that too often a boy is given a cripple or undesirable animal which may destroy his ambition to complete his project.

Henry Schodde, Piler F. F. A. instructor, announced the annual P. F. A. rat stock sale will be held at the fairgrounds Friday, Sept. 12.

Students Ballot On Class Posts

TREES

Gift of 100 "gingko" trees to the city for planting in Shoshone falls park will be made by Frederick J. Adams, retired Omaha businessman who gave the 86 acres of land included in the park.

Mr. and Mrs. Adams visited here over the week-end. They donated the land near the falls Dec. 29, 1932. The tree gift, according to the donors, will assist in improving the recreational area by making more shade available.

Rev. Griffith, Nampa, Nazarene district superintendent, who is assisting Rev. Earl Williams, Kimberly, in conducting revival services at Kimberly Church of the Nazarene this week.

F. F. A. He quoted, "If we would make America strong by making Americans strong" and added "we must have clean barns, clean utensils and clean cows so that the babies of America may be furnished pure milk."

Stanley Trenhille, agricultural instructor of Jerome, announced that there is a considerable amount of premium money which the P. F. A. boys may win if they care to enter livestock at the Jerome county fair, which opens the week following the week following the Twin Falls county fair.

Musical Selections

Musical selections given were a clarinet solo by Roger Vincent, "The Dark Town Strutters' Ball" with Philip Cory at the piano, and a vocal solo by J. R. Crawford, Buhl. Ice cream was furnished by the Jerome Cooperative Creamery and, with cup cakes and individual bottles of milk, was served as refreshments.

Yale Holland, Twin Falls, P. F. A. advisor, and Worthy Olds, president of the Twin Falls county fair board, were present.

It is estimated that fully 4,000 people have viewed the dairy demonstration during the month.

LET-DOWN

The result of the investigation came as a let-down for members of the police department.

At 12:35 a. m. Sunday a report reached the station that there was a "big light" on at the rear of a local dance hall.

PINK REELECTED TRUSTEES' CHIEF

With Ralph Pink reelected as chairman for his second year, the Twin Falls school board had squared away today for another year of activity after awarding to two trustees the job of looking the oath were Ernest F. Stettler, reelected, and John Breckenridge, elected to succeed John Sothen.

Re-elected Clerk
Mr. Stettler was retained as clerk at the board reorganization and Edgar H. Olmstead was named as treasurer to occupy the post vacated by Mr. Sothen.

Only standing committee appointed last night saw Breckenridge and Pink named to inspect the district's securities.

Re-election of Mr. Stettler as clerk marks the fifth successive year he has served in that capacity. The clerk was authorized by the board to make arrangements for taking of the annual school district census of youths included in the school-age bracket.

Part of Project Done
Supt. A. W. Morgan reported that the Lincoln school unit of a $10,000 WPA program has now been completed. That phase of the work included flooring repairs in the boys' labatory and minor work on the grounds. Major portion of the project, Mr. Morgan said, is expected to get underway in November. It includes work at other buildings and grounds as well as two concrete tennis courts near Bickel school.

Although the matter was not brought to a vote, informal discussion last night found most board members opposed to a government proposal to install a vocational work coordinator in the school system. The coordinator would be contact man between students and downtown employers who would pay for part time vocational work. Although federal funds would pay the salary 100 per cent the first year, a progressively smaller amount.

NEW YORK—Billy Conn predicts that Lou Nova will be Joe Louis' easiest touch at the Polo Grounds, Sept. 29, softer than Mike Schmeling was the second time.
Conn calls Nova's comic punch his drug store punch.
"I saw it in the movies," laughs the Pittsburgh Kid. "Nova can't fight. He can't fight as well as Jimmy Smith, my father-in-law, who is always threatening to lick me."
While it's poor showmanship at the moment, Louis says Conn would beat Nova with his speed. Fighters always boost those they beat. It makes them look better.
And it's not so sure that Papa-Phoe Smith couldn't lick Nova and son and Louis, too.
You see, I remember when Greenfield Jimmy Smith played infield in the National league.

RED ARMY TAKES OFFENSIVE IN DRIVE ON SMOLENSK

SOVIETS REPORT 8 NAZI DIVISIONS LOSE EFFECTIVES

By HENRY SHAPIRO
MOSCOW, Sept. 9 (UP)—The Red army has smashed Nazi preparations for an attack on Moscow, driving back a virtually encircled German field army in disorderly flight toward Smolensk, it was reported officially today.

The Russian force is now less than 40 miles from Smolensk, Russian correspondents reported, and is rolling forward at an average rate of eight miles per day through a maze of smashed German blockhouses and heavy fire fortifications, hastily thrown up by the Wehrmacht.

Eight German divisions have been smashed, the reports said, and more than 30 Soviet villages recaptured in the last 48 hours.

The Soviet attack is directed west from the town of Velizh, 50 miles from Smolensk and has now advanced 11 miles beyond this intermediate base, the Soviet reports said.

Odesa Casualties
At the same time the Soviet high command reported the Red army forces in Black sea marines proceeding Odesa have inflicted 20,000 casualties on the Rumanian force attacking that Black sea port and have captured quantities of war materials.

The central front operations of Trenchenko, it was evident from Russian reports, is the most extensive Russian offensive undertaking of the war.

Russian forces were said to have captured at least 100 cannon, 200 machine guns and hundreds of thousands of shells.

The correspondent of the Communist party newspaper, Pravda, reported-Timoshenko's troops have fought their way through a German fortified region of built permanent blockhouses, elaborate trenches and barbed wire entanglements.

Nazi in Flight
The Russian attack was said to be proceeding both frontally and both from the flanks, and a newly encircled Nazi army which was described as "in disorderly flight."

The offensive was started 27 days ago, Russian reports said, and advanced steadily until September 5 when by "storming operations" the German positions were almost surrounded.

The day before the big attack, it was said, the Red air fleet carried out its first bombing operations in which 85 German planes were smashed on the ground.

German divisions were said to have lost 70 per cent of their effectiveness.

BRITISH INCREASE TEMPO OF RAIDS

LONDON, Sept. 9 (UP)—British long range bombing planes spread destruction and death through western Germany during the night after their great Sunday night raid on Berlin.

Nearly 100 planes bombed Cassel, in west central Germany, alone, it was said authoritatively, it was added the great majority of planes reached their objectives in the city after their great Sunday night raid on Berlin.

At Cassel, the British planes continued the great Henschel locomotive workshops.

British bombing operations within the last 24 hours, in addition to the Berlin raid and last night's raid on western industrial Germany, had extended from Norway to Bielefeld, and Russian planes had made a heavy raid on Bucharest, capital of Rumania.

Scale of the British raids was indicated by the admission 20 bombing planes had been lost in the Sunday night raids, that two American bombers had been shot down in raids on Norway and that three planes of the American Eagle squadron were missing after a swap over northern France Sunday.

German long range guns on the French coast fired across the Dover strait last night in their first bombardment in several weeks.

Bids Called for Dairy Building

The 1941 state legislature allocated $60,000 for the new college of agriculture structure.

FLEAS

MCKEESPORT, Pa., Sept. 9 (UP)—City trash collectors were on a "sit down" strike today. But none of the usual labor issues was involved.

The trouble was fleas. The garage is next door to the city dog pound.

"Have you ever tried to use a monkey wrench and slap fleas at the same time?" inquired a harassed striker as he rubbed a red welt on his elbow. If you think were juggling about nothing, come over and listen to these dogs. This situation is intolerable.

NAZIS ENCIRCLE LENINGRAD CITY

BERLIN, Sept. 9 (UP)—Masses of German tanks motored, artillery and infantry, pressed by the Luftwaffe which the high command said struck at Leningrad in day and night raids, were reported today to be closing in on the former czarist capital, now cut off from all land communication.

German bombers struck at armaments factories and supply depots in Leningrad by day and night, the high command said, and attacked Moscow. The Russians were reported to have lost 80 planes yesterday, 81 of them in combat.

Regarding land operations, the high command reiterated last night's special communique claiming that hard driving, speedy troops had stormed the Leningrad suburb of Schlessburg, 21 miles to the east, to complete the encirclement of the Soviet second city.

Nazi informants said that with German forces striking heavily at both ends of the 1,800-mile eastern front, both Leningrad and Odessa, besieged Black sea ports, might fall "before the first snow falls" next month.

SHEEP PRICES IN WEST STAY FIRM

OGDEN, Utah, Sept. 9 (UP)—Prices were firm to higher for feeder lambs and breeding ewes in western range areas last week and country contracting was fairly active, the U. S. agricultural marketing service reported today.

A few desirable bands, the service said, reached $10.50 and $10.75 in southeastern Wyoming and eastern Idaho, southwestern Wyoming choice whitefaced ewe lambs ranged $12, and numerous sizable bands in other sections of the west ranged from $10 to $11.

SCHOOL HIRES 4; ONE POST VACANT

Contracts of four new faculty members had been approved today by the Twin Falls school board, and Supt. A. W. Morgan announced that he is accepting applications for the only position still unfilled—that of high school physics and mathematics instructor combined.

Two elementary instructors, one at junior high school and the high school librarian were approved last night. They are Miss Maxine Lance, junior high apt., Lowell D. Bird, high school sixth grade, Miss Rhoda May Fohlman, Washington school first grade, and Miss Isabel Goodrich, high school librarian.

CITY POSTPONES BIDS ON HEATING

Consideration of bids for the proposed boiler and heating plant at the new city shop was put off until next Monday night, as councilmen met last night and found the three bids received "so different" that no justifiable comparison could be made.

Frank Healy, city plumbing inspector, was appointed to study the three bids and to report to the council next Monday. Possibility exists that new specifications might be drawn and bids asked again.

Only other business to come before the session was a report by George Paulson, city attorney, on a recent session of the Idaho State Municipal Officers' association at Boise which he and Truman Greenhill, councilman, attended.

Discussion at the Boise meeting, Paulson said, centered around aid available for the Idaho association to "get going" with a full time secretary. Thomas McCoy, secretary of the Utah association spoke on the plan and will attend a council session here in the near future to explain the set-up to the other councilmen.

Through the American Municipal association the Rockefeller foundation would aid the Idaho unit with cash donations.
