

DEFENSE STICKER SUPPLY ARRIVES

A supply of national defense stickers, for use on windshields of automobiles, was received here today as the drive for sale of defense stamps and bonds in this country approaches its second year.

The stickers, 1 1/2 inches long and two inches wide, will be distributed through the service stations at stations, it was announced by R. S. Toffelmire, executive chairman of the drive. They are being received by Postmaster M. A. Brown and sent from the government printing office.

The stickers feature the red-white-blue theme and wording says "Buy Defense Bonds, Stamps."

Meanwhile sale of defense stamps went ahead steadily in local stores. Many stores have special booths where the stamps can be purchased by shoppers. They are also being offered at the Fidelity National bank, the Twin Falls Bank and Trust company, the First Federal Savings and Loan association and the postoffice.

In most instances merchants reported that their sale of the stamps was "progressing at a good clip."

A defense speaker will be named to speak at the picnic for Twin Falls city employees and their families which will be held at the fairgrounds at 1 p. m. until late this afternoon. Selection had not yet been made.

Firemen Busy With 3 Calls For Half Day

Firemen had a workout today—in fact they had several of them.

At 8:30 a. m. they answered an alarm at the city hall where a fire in the roof was on fire, the blaze believed caused by a spark from a chimney. Damage was done to the roof.

At 9:30 a. m. they extinguished a slight blaze at 106 Fifth street north where a stove pipe had set fire to the house. The house is owned by Mrs. J. W. Whinnell and owned Dr. Q. W. Rasmussen.

At 10:30 a. m. and another alarm came in, this time from 1121 Tenth avenue east where another roof was on fire. This time considerable damage resulted to the roof of the house before the blaze could be extinguished. The house is occupied by Mrs. Louise Clark, records show.

The three fires this morning totaled just half as many as were noted here during the entire month of August.

Chief L. E. (Zack) Bartlett urged people to be sure stoves are in good working order before fires are built in either furnaces or stoves. He pointed out that such conditions are the most common cause of today's fires but that with colder weather starting "it would be safer to have the fires checked."

REDS WILL GET AIRPLANE HELP

war goods for Russia and some cargo of these stocks have reached Soviet ports.

The monthly quota of British and American planes to be provided in 1942 was not revised, it was said it would include both fighters and bombers.

It was evident, will be a major route for supplies with the British undertaking improvement of the Trans-Iran railway and Iran highway. Hundreds of planes will be sent to Iran to transport war stocks to Russia and British engineers and that the United States will replace the ousted German technicians.

U. S. Share on Paper
These moves were said to have given Russia confidence that American aid will not be confined strictly to promises. However, it was admitted the U. S. share of the program still is mostly on paper, and American aid for the next three months probably will be skimpy.

Russian dissatisfaction at U. S. British aid, it was said, was largely dispelled at a conference of Prime Minister Winston Churchill and Soviet Ambassador Ivan Malsky Sept. 15 at which Churchill was thought to have outlined British plans in detail.

Although Harriman reported a "definite let-down" among the American people, he said the British government still was doing its utmost to win the battle of production.

"Perseverance of Effort"
Harriman contrasted the vital concern of the British people over the reported German break-through on the Ukraine front in Russia with the "let down" among Americans, but he agreed "self-criticism going on in the United States is the forerunner of greater effort."

The British ambassador said the whole problem of British aid to Russia would include technicians and mechanics to aid in assembly and maintenance of American war materials.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson were married Sept. 11, 1933, at Wray, Colo., and have a daughter, 6, and sons, 4 and 3. O. C. Hall is attorney for the petitioners.

STUDENT TICKET SELLING CHARTED

At its first meeting of the year the student council of Twin Falls high school voted to start the sale of student body tickets at fourth period classes tomorrow afternoon. Sales will continue during that period each day during the following week and will close on Wednesday.

At the end of that time, the class having the largest percentage of its students in the sale of student activity tickets will receive 100 points toward winning the citizenship cup, which is awarded at the close of the school year.

Tickets will be sold to grade school and junior high school students at the regular price of $1.25, but will sell to students of the high school for $2.00, a 50-cent raise over last year's price. "We hope for a 100 per cent sale of these tickets," said Edward B. Rogel, principal of the high school, who added that in order to participate in school activities, every student must possess a student body ticket. Tickets will be transferable and will be confiscated if found in use of anyone but the owner. Tickets will include this year admission to all athletic activities sponsored by the Twin Falls high school and to the school plays. The paper of the "Bryn" high school paper, as was the policy last year, will be sold to students. Madron sought the damages to reimburse him because of smashup of his truck and loss of car.

The suit was an outgrowth of a crash involving Madron's vehicle and a Carstens truck driven by McCoy. Driver of the complainant machine, Richard White, was killed.

Busy Prisoner Tears up Mattresses, Unhooks Bunks, Builds Fire in Cell

Police had a little "house cleaning" at the station late yesterday afternoon, but the officers didn't do the "cleaning."

The ambitious gentleman in this case was Vincent O'Connor, 42, who hailed from somewhere in Montana. He was arrested yesterday afternoon and charged with being intoxicated and police records show that the beverage he consumed was nothing other than bay rum, usually used for the hair.

O'Connor took a dislike for cell three, where he was lodged, and started by tearing up the mattress on the bunks, took down the springs, took off the heavy chains which hold him down and threw them against the wall and cell door and then, as if not satisfied with his work thus far, he built a fire in the middle of the cell, using old magazines and newspapers.

O'Connor was a little better today but he was decidedly alone in cell three. Police had removed everything but O'Connor.

Officials said that he would be allowed to "cool off" until tomorrow at which time he would be given a hearing on the intoxication charge.

Judge Overrules New Trial Plea

New trial in a truck damage action was overruled and denied in district court today by Judge J. W. Porter.

The new trial had been asked by Richard Madron, Twin Falls truck owner, who failed to win requested damages in his action against Lee McCoy and the Carstens Packing company. Kimberly, Madron sought the damages to reimburse him because of smashup of his truck and loss of car.

The suit was an outgrowth of a crash involving Madron's vehicle and a Carstens truck driven by McCoy. Driver of the complainant machine, Richard White, was killed.

Town Hall Gets Swift Results

Although the membership drive of the Twin Falls Town Hall had barely gotten underway in earnest this afternoon, 20 enrollments were already in the hands of Secretary Vivian Carlson.

Bulk of the 20 memberships represented persons who were not in Town Hall last season.

President Loyd L. Parry announced that one third of the hall already were awarded. That goes to Miss Vera Goodman, Twin Falls high school senior—the first student in Magic Valley to earn a ticket by selling three memberships. Any south central Idaho student who can raise the same amount of money for the hall will be to persons not enrolled in Town Hall for the past season.

GERMANS CLAIM DESTRUCTION OF 18 RED DIVISIONS

BRIDGEHEADS ON DNIPIR FRONTS MOVED FORWARD

By FREDERICK C. OCHSNER
BERLIN, Sept. 16 (Special).—The high command said today German armies had destroyed or defeated 18 Russian divisions with heavy casualties on the Leningrad front and were advancing "victoriously" on a broad front from bridgeheads east of the lower Dniester river.

The advance eastward from the lower Dniester—aimed at heart of Russia's Ukraine war industry centers—followed a "bold" attack by the Luftwaffe and by tanks in several days of bitter fighting, the command said.

The drives presumably were intended to encircle Kiev and push toward the railroad and industrial center of Kharkov, then to collapse the main Russian defenses in the Ukraine before the rich Donets industrial basin.

They'll Be at Jerome Fair

Sprightly and attractive, these three young ladies are "The Aristocrats" and they'll be one of the special attractions at the annual Jerome county fair which opens Wednesday, Sept. 17. The fair is in conjunction with the district 4-H fair, and is preceded by the Jerome county 4-H fair concluding today.

U. S. Will Look Into Canal Concrete Plan

GOODING, Sept. 16 (Special).—A. F. James, counsel for American Falls Irrigation district No. 2, has returned from a trip east where he conferred with officials of the bureau of reclamation at Denver, Colo., and Washington, D. C.

James consulted with regional officials in Denver concerning the need for concreting certain sections of the Milner-Gooding canal, which carries water from Snake river to this area. Denver officials promised to have engineers investigate the matter immediately and report the findings.

In Washington the matter was taken up with Reclamation Commissioner John Page, with Sen. John Thomas standing in for him, and Sen. D. Worth Clark at one session. Attorney James also discussed the new contract terms which would be necessary if investigation proves that concreting is needed.

LOSS $2,900 AS FIRE BURNS HAY

GOODING, Sept. 16 (Special).—Hay valued at approximately $2,900 was destroyed Sunday morning in a fire which demolished the separate stacks on the ranch of Ernest Fields, southwest of here.

The loss totaled 290 tons. The hay was baled and had just been delivered from the Fairfield area. Also lost were 15 tons of baled straw.

Gooding fire department was summoned but the flames were out of control when the truck arrived. The house connection at the ranch was broken before the fire was spotted, and as a result the call for help had to be taken all the way to Gooding by auto.

The fire burned a number of telephone poles, putting phones out of service on all ranches along the line.

JEROME SECURES NEW INSTRUCTOR

JEROME, Sept. 16 (Special).—H. Mayne Shoun, superintendent of schools, today announced that the Jerome school board had employed Miss Gertrude Murphy, Boise, to teach "the third-grade in the Lincoln elementary school."

Miss Murphy, a teacher of the third grade, was transferred to the first grade department to take over the extra grade thus relieving the overcrowded condition in the primary department by the addition of another teacher.

Miss Murphy is a graduate of the Pocatello high school and is a two-year graduate of the University of Idaho, southern branch. She has taught at Teton for one year, and for two years was a teacher in the intermediate grades of St. Anthony public schools.

Douglas Play Here Will Be First Time By Idaho Amateurs

Lloyd C. Douglas' "Magnificent Obsession" which will be presented as the all-school play for Twin Falls high school Oct. 16 and 17, was not released for amateur production until 1941 and its presentation by Twin Falls high school marks the first by an amateur group in the state of Idaho, according to Miss Florence M. Rees, dramatic instructor.

In many respects, "Magnificent Obsession" has been rated as one of the most unique stories of recent times. Miss Rees stated, and it was made popular by the public itself rather than through presentations of professional critics. It is estimated that 2,000,000 persons have read it.

Record of the book shows a close affinity to that of another spiritual novel, "Ben Hur," by General Lew Wallace. Both books started slowly, practically ignored by the usual type of reading public at the start. Then both "caught on" and showed a growth of wild popularity.

TWO AT WORK ON SCHOOLS' CENSUS

Two enumerators are now at work taking the Twin Falls school district census and a third will join the staff by the end of this week, Ernest P. Stettler, clerk of the board, said this afternoon.

The two now at work on the census are Fred W. Mackey and Mrs. Helen Hobson. Mackey started the tabulation of school-age youths last Friday and Mrs. Hobson began Monday.

Under state law each school district must compile an annual census of youths from the age of six to 21 inclusive. Similar census work is now underway throughout Magic Valley. Deadline for submission of the count is Sept. 30.

MAN CONVICTED IN MONEY FRAUD

Sixty-day probation had been granted today to Ray Walker, Twin Falls, found guilty in probate court yesterday of obtaining money under false pretenses.

The court found that Walker, who no longer works for Utah Drive-In company, gave Holli's drive-in market a $17 order on his U. C. wagon to pay a $15 account. He took the remaining $2 in cash. The wagon order, however, was sent back to Ralph Holli with a U. C. relation that Walker does not work for the concern now.

CITY MOTOR BUS SERVICE LOOMS

In all probability Twin Falls will soon have a motor "street car" service touching most parts of the city.

This was revealed last night as Ted Davis, local automobile dealer, made application for franchise to operate a passenger bus in the city limits which would follow designated routes and which would operate on given points on any of the routes once each hour.

For $2,000 in making a plan for franchise, through his attorney, Edward Babcock, Davis gave councilmen a certified check for $2,000 as is required by law.

After some discussion, councilmen decided that it was "about time" the city had a transportation system and decided to advertise for bids on the franchise, according to state law.

As a result they set 7:30 p. m. on Monday, Sept. 23, as time for opening on bids for awarding of the franchise. Councilmen may reject any and all bids received and each application must be accompanied by the $2,000 certified check. Type of equipment must be listed in the franchise application. The city, if the franchise is granted, will have the right to fix charges which will be made for passengers and a percentage of the revenue will go into the city treasury.

The necessary publication of calling for bids was authorized by the council.

Six Fire Alarms

Councilmen last night also approved a report received from Fire Chief L. Z. (Zeke) Bartlett, showing six alarms were answered by the local department during the month of August. Three of the fires showed no loss while three building fires had total damages of $250.

A report received from Dr. E. L. Price, city meat and dairy inspector, showed 1,881 animals slaughtered during the month.

After surveying three bids received, councilmen awarded contract for the heating plant in the new city garage and repair shop to the Home Plumbing and Heating company on a bid of $1,146. Other bidders were J. H. H. Plumbing and Heating company, with $1,340.31 and Detweiler Bros., with $1,263. The installation of the equipment is to be completed within 30 days.

Spectators "Rib" Firemen at Blaze In Old City Barn

Local firemen took a "ribbing" morning.

They answered an alarm at the city barn on Second avenue south about 8:35 a. m. where sparks from a chimney had ignited the roof. Damage was extremely small. But while the firemen were running a small stream of water on the burning spot, the "ribbing" came in the form of a protest from several persons who expected a chimney fire to result in a "burn." The hecklers pointed out that the new garage and repair shop is almost completed.

The firemen, however, went about their work as usual. Old building or new, the general idea is to put out the fire—and they did.

1,000 PREDICTED AT LABOR CAMP

With a population of 750 persons at its present time, Roy C. Lane, manager of the farm camp south of the city, said today that 1,000 persons will reside there before the season is over.

Lane pointed out that the influx of people to the local camp will prove of high value in getting the crop of this section harvested. All residents of the camp at the present time, who are physically able, are employed in harvest work, records show.

An employment office, affiliated with the Idaho state employment service, is located at the camp and is open from 8:15 a. m. to 10 p. m. daily excepting Sunday. Telephone number of the office is 108.

Shelter portion of the camp will be closed Dec. 1. Lane said, but the labor home portion, as usual, will remain occupied during the winter.

At the present time there are over 100 students registered at the camp school, sponsored by the school district. Shelter pupils attend grades one to eight at the camp while the shelter residents of high school age go to local public schools. Students of all of the grades residing in the labor homes go to the public schools.

The first draft volunteer in at least two months came into area No. 1 headquarters here today to sign up for the army.

What's more, the volunteer is over 28 years of age and could have secured deferred rating in the new class I-H. He is Donald Vincent Hutchins, Beilert, Kan., who will be credited against the quota of the draft board in that city.

Last volunteer to sign up at area No. 1 offices did so early in July.

Many readers are unaware of the unusual ads that sometimes find their way into the Classified Page of the Times and News. Shown below in the box is an ad just a little bit different from the "run-of-the-mill" Classified ads.

Nevertheless, there is nothing unusual about the way these inexpensive want-ads bring results. It makes no difference whether you want to buy, sell, EXCHANGE or rent, you'll find that the "Classifieds" do the work simply, quickly, effectively.

Russians Claim Germans Pushed Back at Leningrad

SOVIET REPORTS COUNTER DRIVES DELAY INVADERS

By Henry Shapiro

MOSCOW, Sept. 16 (Special)—Russian troops, marines and people's guards have pushed back the Germans to the city's outermost defense line at one sector of the Leningrad front and have inflicted crushing defeat on the 12th German tank division at another, special dispatches said today.

A total of 3,000 men of the 30th German infantry division was wiped out during the engagement in which the tank division was defeated, it was asserted.

In pushing back the Germans to the outer defense lines, the Russian defenders destroyed 25 heavy tanks, nine armored cars and three field guns, according to dispatches from the front.

Advices told of a battle of steadily increasing ferocity, now continuing night and day without pause and involving hundreds of thousands of men on each side.

Guns of the Baltic fleet are supporting the Russian ground forces, while all marines who can be spared are aiding the army, along with the people's guardsmen who are working in Leningrad factories and offices.

The Russians are not only fighting the city firmly but are still counter-attacking, it was said, especially at night.

Russian warships, coastal batteries and troops, aided by planes, have smashed a German attempt to storm and capture the fortified air base of Ostrov, a Russian outpost of the Baltic coast of Estonia only 180 miles from east Prussia, a war communiqué said.

Four of six troop-laden transports with which the Germans sought to capture the island were sunk, the communiqué asserted, and the other two were seriously damaged.

Destroyer Sunk

One protecting German destroyer was sunk, the communiqué said, and others in the convoy were damaged.

Another German troop-carrying transport was sunk off the Arctic coast, along with a German patrol ship, by two Russian torpedo boats.

A communiqué said Russian army and navy troops had repulsed with heavy losses German and Rumanian troops who attacked Odessa, and that the fourth Rumanian infantry regiment was routed. One battalion, 1,000 men, was wiped out, the communiqué said.

It was disclosed also Russian planes had resumed their attacks on Rumanian objectives.

DEMANDS TRAFFIC TANGLE IN CITY BE CLEANED UP

Editor, Evening Times: Silence is supposed to be golden and I suppose patience is a virtue. But they come a time when gold and virtue must give way to make room for accomplishment.

Time after time, this past summer, I have attempted to drive through the business section of our city; and time after time I have been tied up in the net of tangled traffic which exists there, and which will continue to exist there until some very obvious changes are made in regard to traffic regulations and enforcement.

I don't know who is responsible for the enforcement of the laws of this city, whether it is the police force or the city council. But, I do know that those who are responsible to the people of this city for an adequate and well enforced set of traffic regulations while they are in effect, and I claim that the people of Twin Falls are not getting it.

Whether the fault lies in inadequate laws to care for our traffic problems, or inadequate enforcement, makes no difference. The point is, the problem should be taken care of immediately.

Upon several occasions, I have stood at the main intersection of this city, and I have seen gross violations of traffic laws I know to exist, while on an opposite corner from me, stood a city police officer, in uniform, on duty. Yet nothing was done about the matter.

I have seen the traffic lights out of adjustment for over three weeks in a stretch.

Just yesterday, I saw the car of one of the officials of this city improperly parked in a two-hour parking zone for seven and a half hours. Yet, it bore no ticket on its windshield.

I can take you through the business section of our city, and, for that matter, any section of our city, most any time of the day and show you examples after example of traffic violations.

I don't claim never to violate traffic regulations. Sure, I do. Every now and then, I jump a light, I overpark, I double park. But so do lots of other people, and get away with it.

I don't claim to be a "Hoyle" on traffic problems, but I do claim to have some good sound, workable plans to take care of such problems as slowing up traffic on Saturday nights, double parking, overtime parking, pedestrian traffic, often situation along traffic lines, etc.

If anyone is willing to talk the matter over for what it is worth to help establish a well regulated traffic in this city, I am at your service.

I am, sincerely,

ALL-GIRL LAMB TEAM WILL COMPETE WITH BOYS AT FAIR

GOODING, Sept. 17 (Special)—A judging team from the Herdette, 4-H club, Gooding county's all-girl lamb club, will compete with the boys' livestock judging teams at the district fair in Jerome.

The judging contest will be at 9 a. m. Wednesday, Sept. 17.

Members of the team who placed first in judging at the Gooding county fair, August 21-23 are Juana Easman, Gertrude Kornher and Alice Brown.

Herdette is the only all-girl 4-H livestock club in this district. Members are from 12 to 15 years of age and they are those on the judging team and Helen Lohbrecht, Mildred Edholm and Dorothy Edholm. Their leader is Mrs. Almee Bryan.

Started With "Buns"

The club was organized in January with their officers, Helen as president; Juana, vice-president; Alice, secretary; Gertrude, reporter; and Dorothy, yell leader. All except two bought "bun" lambs with their own profits which they later sold for profit. With the proceeds from their first lambs they purchased ewe lambs which they fitted and exhibited at the county fair. They plan to keep these lambs for their second year's project.

The girls have competed with the 4-H boys of livestock clubs in the judging tours conducted during the summer and have rated well on each tour. At their meetings the girls have studied literature sent by the university extension service on the care and raising of lambs and have learned to distinguish the various breeds of lambs and their origin and history. They have also had a game or entertainment number at each meeting and a social period with the girls taking turns at being hostess. Meetings were held at the home of Mrs. Bryan.

For the annual 4-H county picnic the Herdette composed appropriate songs and yells which they gave as part of the day's program. These girls are active in many other affairs at school and during the summer. Some are in the high school band or in the chorus; two played

FROSH INITIATED AT GOODING HIGH

GOODING, Sept. 16 (Special)—Friday was freshman initiation day at Gooding high school with the first all-school assembly held Friday morning under the direction of the student council. Miss Mary Barker, student body president, presided for the assembly.

All freshmen were required to introduce themselves and afterwards each council member explained his duties on the council. There was group singing and a vocal trio, Vernie Roberts, Betty Hard and Lelaene Carrell sang, accompanied by Lele Lettice. Throughout the day, freshmen were required to wear their pajamas and carry senior classmen's books or shine their shoes on request.

Senior reception was held in the junior high school auditorium in the evening as the first all-school dance. Intermittent entertainment included skills given by each of the four classes with the aid by the juniors judged as best. Committees on arrangements for the day were: Initiation, Frances, Hurt, Lester Brown, Ed Asplinger, refreshments, Margaret Ryan, Jeanie Varin, Jean Massey, program, Helen Kornher, Vernie Roberts, Vernie Jean Roberts, John Alexander, music, Eldon Cont and Walt Fraisher.

Nominations will also be received from the floor at the Jerome session. Installation will be held the same night, Deane S. Shipley, Kimberly, is retiring president.

Among reports heard here last night was one by Glenn Maxwell on activities at the Four-Slates Highway association convention held at Missoula, Mont., on a recent date.

Communities represented at last night's session included Albion, Gooding, Carey, Jerome, Kimberly, Richfield, Rupert, Wendell and Shoshone.

Final Plans Due For City Picnic

Final plans for the city employee picnic, which will be held at the Piler fairgrounds next Sunday, will be mapped at a special committee meeting Wednesday at 8 p. m. at the city hall, O. H. Coleman, councilman and chairman in charge of arrangements said this afternoon.

The picnic, which will include athletic contests and other features, will be for all city employees and members of their families. An estimated 300 persons will attend.

Municipal Judge J. O. Humphrey is in charge of drawing up the program and will make his final report at the Wednesday session.

Man, Ill for Six Days in His Car, Finally Rescued

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Sept. 16 (AP)—Anthony Chaves, 25, became ill suddenly last Monday as he entered his automobile.

Thinking the seizure would pass, he lay down on the seat. Instead of passing it became worse.

Unable to return to his rooming house Chaves remained in the car. Occasionally he muttered enough strength to ask children playing nearby to get him a drink of water.

Six days passed. By the time his plight was noticed by adults in the neighborhood and police summoned, Chaves was so weak he could hardly move.

At the hospital, where his illness was diagnosed as a stomach disorder complicated by severe malnutrition, Chaves was fed intravenously. Doctors said today he probably would recover.

Youths in F.F.A. Buying Livestock

They have a good start in the livestock business, these F. F. A. boys. Pasture Farmers of the Twin Falls high school association already have started on their projects for the year, with the buying of registered pigs and white-face ewes.

Jack Jones is investing in 25 pure-bred Suffolk ewes; Howard Runk is buying 10 registered Hampshire ewes and Gerald Williams has eight of the registered Hampshire ewes. Other F. F. A. members are making similar investments.

Gasoline Rationing may come to parts of the West...

Here are the facts: Although certain areas near refineries will probably not be affected, some kind of gasoline rationing may come to Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Arizona and parts of Northern California. There may also be temporary shortages of home heating oils in these areas.

If these shortages do come, you may well ask, "Why?" California, alone, has proved oil reserves of 33½ billion barrels—a 65,000 gallon tankful for every family in the West. Our wells could more than double their output. Our refineries can turn out enough products to supply a two-ocean Navy, and still produce gasoline and heating oils in abundant quantities for civilian life. Then why should we have rationing?

The answer is transportation. Gasoline is one of the bulkiest types of merchandise you buy. The Pacific Coast uses an average of 200,000,000 gallons every month—enough to fill 19,048 tank cars, or 381 fifty-car trains!

Here on the Pacific Coast, where centers of population are far apart, the tanker keeps it moving. One tanker can carry as much gasoline, or heating oil, as 400 tank cars. In normal times, they move the bulk of petroleum products between Seattle, Portland, San Francisco and Los Angeles.

But today we're short on tankers. What happened? Take the case of Union Oil. Two years ago, when the war first began, we had 10 tankers in our fleet and 7 new ones on order. In June 1940 four of the original fleet were sold into service on the Atlantic. One of these was torpedoed on December 4, 1940. The other three are still carrying on.

Of the new tank ships on order; two, the Victor H. Kelly and the L. P. St. Clair, have been delivered. A third, the Paul M. Gregg, will be delivered this month.

1 Tanker Equals Eight 50-car Trains

The Victor H. Kelly is in Pacific Coast service. The L. P. St. Clair has been sent to Vladivostok by order of the U. S. Government. This means that the Union Oil Company has contributed five tankers to the war effort and only gained back one. Generally speaking, the same thing is true of other Pacific Coast companies.

This loss of tankers has a crippling effect on the coastwise flow of gasoline and heating oil. The states of Oregon, Washington and Idaho, for example, use an average of 54,000,000 gallons of gasoline a month. In addition, they consume about 70,000,000 gallons of fuel and heating oil per month during the winter season. To move this combined amount, the industry needs only 30 tanker trips per month. To carry it by rail would require 11,809 tank cars, or 236 fifty-car trains. In other words, every time you take a tanker off the coast run, you add eight 50-car trains to a railroad system that's already overburdened with defense traffic.

What Are We Doing About It?

As we have already pointed out, Union Oil Company, anticipating just such a tanker shortage, placed orders for seven new ships in 1939. They are being delivered at the rate of one every six months.

In the meantime, substitute facilities are being increased with all possible speed. Every barrel, every tank car, every truck that we can lay our hands on is being pressed into service.

We can guarantee that the supply of gasoline and heating oils will never be cut off entirely. But there may be some rationing necessary that will inconvenience you temporarily. If it does come, we only ask that you bear it as good-naturedly as possible. Don't blame your dealer or your oil company or Mr. Ickes. Blame Hitler. The situation is just a natural result of our Nation's "all-out" defense effort.
