

Here's Look at Hospital—Beds in Corridors and Record Room

To present the Twin Falls county hospital picture clearly for voters who cast ballots Oct. 14 on approval or rejection of the $250,000 bond issue, the Evening Times sent its cameraman to the institution yesterday afternoon. Above, some patients as well as visitors have little privacy because beds (often of very ill and dying persons) must be placed in corridors. From five to 10 beds have been put in the halls at one time.

The little patient in this picture eyes the cameraman with curiosity as he takes this "shot" of the record and case history room. Hospital records may be seen stacked in the background. The little girl occupies one bed in the small room which also holds two other beds. Attendants are also forced to use this room for the taking of electrocardiographs, in connection with heart disease cases, and some babies are also weighed here, the scales being on the table at the left. Officials point out that the room, if used for records alone, would be large enough.

So small is the laboratory at the county general hospital that the cameraman had to stand on a chair in one corner to get as much of the room as is shown above in the picture. To the right, and not visible in the picture, is storage space for oxygen tent and fracture equipment. One piece of this equipment is on the table at the right. In this small room hospital attendants, doctors and bacteriologists must do work such as classifying blood samples, making blood counts and testing other samples. (All photos by O. A. NEW FUNDS ASKED FOR LEND-LEASE

President Decides To Ask Neutrality Act Modifications

By JOHN B. DEAL

WASHINGTON, Oct. 8 (UP)—President Roosevelt, at a 95-minute conference with congressional leaders, decided today to send congress a special message tomorrow asking modification and revision of the whole neutrality law. Senate Democratic Leader Alben W. Barkley, spokesman for the congressional group, would not predict specifically what recommendations Mr. Roosevelt would make. It was learned one point would be elimination of section 6 of the act, which forbids arming of merchant ships. Bills incorporating the President's program will be introduced in both houses immediately after receipt of the message, Barkley said. The administration plan, he said, is for the house to act first. This was Mr. Roosevelt's second conference in 24 hours with the congressional leaders on the momentous decision to revise the neutrality act. Attended Meeting Leaders of both parties from the senate and house attended today's meeting, whereas most of the conference yesterday were senators. Secreatary of state Cordell Hull, and Lend-Lease Supervisor Harry L. Hopkins also participated in the conference in the President's study. He replied to a message sent to congress tomorrow, Barkley said. "The message must speak for itself. The house will act first on whatever legislation is taken up."

Barkley was pressed as to whether Mr. Roosevelt would ask action first on the section which prohibits arming of merchant vessels, and propose later elimination of section 2 which specifies prohibition of combat zones from which American flag shipping is excluded, and would later elimination of a ship "might be the most urgent."

"The President could hardly ask for anything less," a reporter suggested. Barkley nodded affirmation. "Do you see any possibility of a so-called filibuster?" Barkley was asked. "I don't like to discuss possibility of a filibuster until after the bill is introduced," Barkley said after several moments of deliberation. He appeared to indicate that the administration has considered this possibility. Barkley was asked for his personal viewpoint on arming of ships and elimination of combat zones. "I fervently expressed myself in favor of repealing it (the law) insofar as it deals with both of those subjects," Barkley replied.

3-YEAR-TERM FOR FORMER CIO MAN

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 8 (UP)—James (Jim) O'Neil, former radio commentator and CIO publicity man, was found guilty of perjury today in federal court and was sentenced to spend three years in federal prison and pay a $100 fine. O'Neil's attorneys gave oral notice of appeal after the sentence was imposed by Federal Judge Martin Walsh. The perjury charge was based on O'Neil's denials he told FBI agents before the Harry Bridges deportation hearing that he knew Bridges was a Communist, that he had seen Bridges passing duplicate stamps in a Communist membership book and that he had attended a number of Communist meetings with Bridges. At the hearing and again in the federal court, O'Neil insisted he had not told the FBI anything about Bridges.

England Claims Sea Battle Edge

LONDON, Oct. 8 (UP)—Minister of Food Lord Woolton said in the house of lords today that Britain was "getting the better of the enemy in the battle of the Atlantic," due partly to a tactical change in the United States. Woolton expressed satisfaction with the amount of bulky, storable food imported from the United States under the lend-lease act.

RUSSIANS FIGHT OFF NAZI HORDES ON CENTER LINES

By HENRY SHAPIRO

MOSCOW, Oct. 8 (UP)—Dispatches reported today the Red army was fighting off tremendous German panzer thrusts toward Moscow in battles that destroyed 300 enemy tanks, wiped out two battalions of 2,000 men and "choked a river" with bodies of Nazi soldiers. German tank drives that broke through the Russian central front in region of Bryansk and Vyazma (130 miles from Moscow) were admitted, but the Red Bear said the Russians were striking back everywhere behind the heaviest bombardment of German forces by the Red air fleet. "Fierce hand to hand fighting, attacks on enemy tanks and with bottles of gasoline and hand grenades, counter-charges by Russian tanks and elaborate land mine fields were used to halt the Nazi tanks," the Red Star declared. "It is only a matter of bravery and competence in handling our mighty arms."

"The 'Immense Losses' suffered by the Germans, the dispatch added, has forced Hitler to throw in all mechanical reserves including secondary forces withdrawn from occupied countries. At point 'F' the dispatch said, (Continued on Page 3, Column 1)

In one out of that same hall at that time a pneumonia patient, because no room was available, was undergoing treatment in an oxygen tent, and near him, also in the hall, a patient with a "very bad" heart was being treated with the noise with special equipment. Naturally, Miss Hansen pointed out, bringing the accident victim in to the hospital had caused considerable noise and her means, together with the noise caused by the attendants in the emergency ward, disturbed the other two patients. "All three of those were private room cases," Miss Hansen said, "and all should have been where it was quiet. Under existing crowded conditions she said, it was impossible to place the three patients any place but in the hall."

Russians Call for England to Strike

By JOE ALEX MORRIS

Adolf Hitler's all out offensive broke through the eastern front in a great "battle of encirclement" against elite Red armies defending Moscow today and brought new Russian proposals that Great Britain strike decisively at the axis in western Europe.

The Russians claimed that destruction of the bulk of the Russian central front armies was assured, while Moscow admitted that some panzer forces had broken through but said they are meeting savage resistance that had forced Adolf Hitler to throw in his reserves because of huge losses.

The seriousness of the German threat was emphasized, however, by renewal of suggestions in Moscow's Red fleet publication that the time was ripe for the British to undertake military action against the axis in western Europe, which was reported weakened by the muzzling of some 2,000,000 troops and "virtually the entire Luftwaffe" on the eastern front.

Both Moscow and Berlin reported the most intense hand-to-hand tank and artillery fighting in the Vyazma sector only 120 miles from the Russian capital, and around Bryansk, some 210 miles to the southwest. The Red army claimed important gains on the Leningrad front. The Germans said their push into the Donets was industrial basin continued after "destruction" of the Russian defenders.

On the basis of reports from both capitals it appeared the Vyazma battle might go far toward deciding success or failure of Hitler's bid to break the Red army and reach Moscow before winter. The next high command said "several" Russian armies had been encircled in this sector due west of Moscow on the Smolensk railroad. This indicated a gain of 70 or 75 miles in the six-day offensive.

Dr. C. R. Beck of Twin Falls has taken charge of the Darmack county public health unit. He replaced Dr. James Foley, director, who suffered a broken hip in an accident.

Crowding at Hospital Forces Serious Cases Into Hallways

Twin Falls hospital records "show the serious cases of overcrowding during the past few years" and this admission Miss Martha Hansen, superintendent of nurses, pointed out a specific case which occurred only recently. Records show that a 24-year-old woman was having been injured in an automobile accident. She was suffering, among other injuries, a badly crushed shoulder. The ambulance driver and attendant brought her into the hospital and, because no place was available, had to place her on a bed in the hall where she is attending physician was forced to make his examination. In one out of that same hall at that time a pneumonia patient, because no room was available, was undergoing treatment in an oxygen tent, and near him, also in the hall, a patient with a "very bad" heart was being treated with the noise with special equipment. Naturally, Miss Hansen pointed out, bringing the accident victim in to the hospital had caused considerable noise and her means, together with the noise caused by the attendants in the emergency ward, disturbed the other two patients. "All three of those were private room cases," Miss Hansen said, "and all should have been where it was quiet. Under existing crowded conditions she said, it was impossible to place the three patients any place but in the hall."

GERMANS CLAIM ENCIRCLEMENT OF RUSSIAN TROOPS

By FREDERICK C. OCHSNER

BERLIN, Oct. 8 (UP)—The high command today reported a great "break through" against the Red army on the central front defending Moscow and the press asserted bulk of Soviet Marshal Semyon Timoshenko's armies had been encircled and faced with "inevitable annihilation."

Claiming rapid progress in Germany's announced intention of destroying the Red army as a fighting force, the newspapers said the strongest and best elements of the Russian armed forces had been caught in the encirclement maneuver in the Vyazma sector 130 miles west of Moscow.

"These armies are fighting bravely and have succeeded in holding together, but they are now to a great extent cut off from their supplies. The fighting is proceeding," the Deutsche Allgemeine Zeitung said.

The special fanfare was announced to Germany by radio after martial music and fasters of trumpets and followed by the playing of Deutschland Uber Alles, the Horst Wessel song and march tune for the Russian campaign—indicating the importance attached to the annihilation.

The radio had not presented a communique with such elaborate trimmings previously except in some instances as the fall of Paris or the capture of the capitulation of an entire country.

Woman Confesses Posing 15 Years As Man Laborer

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 8 (UP)—Frances Orlando, 31, confessed to police today that after posing as a man for 15 years she married an 18-year-old Sacramento, Calif., girl last Labor Day. Orlando, a film studio carpenter, was taken in custody on information from Sacramento police, who said Elizabeth Nuss had been missing since Sept. 1 and was believed to be with Miss Orlando, who went under the name of "Richard Orlando."

Sympathy Strike Closes Big Plant

GARY, Ind., Oct. 8 (UP)—The sheet and tin mill of the Carnegie-Illinois steel company, working on defense work, was shut down today by CIO steel workers protesting arrest of a "dual picket" who attempted to keep a woman employe from entering the plant. About 6,000 men were idle at the mill, and union leaders called a mass meeting to consider appeal for sympathy strikes by 40,000 additional steel workers.

House Unit Asks Gigantic Fund to Battle Hitlerism

By JAMES SHEPHERD

WASHINGTON, Oct. 8 (UP)—The house appropriations committee today asked congress to vote an additional unrestricted $5,985,000,000 for the lend-lease program in response to an appeal by Gen. George C. Marshall for every assistance that will keep Russia fighting and speed the destruction of the German army. "The ruthlessness of the aggressors in this war and the conscienceless tactics they have resorted to will not permit the delay incident to legislative sanction before aid can be extended to any particular nation," the committee said.

"Our first line of defense lies in the lend-lease operations," it said. "The haste of production must intensify and increase so long as the war continues and pledged its control of the nation's wealth to destruction of the axis."

The committee warned that more and more lend-lease appropriations would be needed as long as the war continues and pledged its control of the nation's wealth to destruction of the axis. The committee approved a total of $6,159,412,225, of which $5,985,000,000 would be allocated for lend-lease aid and the remainder, $174,412,225, for such defense purposes as naval ordnance and construction of acquisition of 213 combat squad vessels. It stimulates funds for the Tennessee valley authority and the California central valley project, explaining that these materials would be taken up soon in other appropriation measures.

The appropriation would bring the lend-lease fund to $11,000,000,000 and the total defense outlay to more than $20,000,000,000. The original lend-lease appropriation was $7,000,000,000.

Ask Immediate Passage The committee urged immediate passage of the pending bill and the date on it was scheduled to begin in the house at once. The committee answered recent suggestions that because all of the first lend-lease bill has not been allocated the pending bill is not needed. It pointed out that the dramatic process of appropriation by congress, and planning, execution and delivery by the executive is made far in advance.

Rapidly tabulated late today day to discuss their stand on the lend-lease appropriation. The public health unit was established by the state department of public health as a free clinic.

Fund Is Approved For Health Clinic

BOISE, Oct. 8 (UP)—Gov. Chase A. Clark announced today the federal works agency has approved a grant of $40,000 for establishment of a public health clinic here. The grant will include funds for construction of a building for the clinic and for the purchase of public health as a free clinic.

U. S. FRIENDSHIP WITH FINLAND HANGS IN BALANCE

ALLIES HOPE TO APPLY 'SQUEEZE' ON TINY NATION

By JOHN A. REICHERMANN
 WASHINGTON, Oct. 2 (Special)—United States friendship with Finland hangs in the balance today.

Britain and her allies are engaged in a diplomatic campaign designed to "squeeze" Finland out of further participation in the Russo-German war. Secretary of State Cordell Hull revealed yesterday the United States has joined Britain and the Norwegian government-in-exile in that effort.

World Aid Advance
 That move was believed aimed at discouraging Finland from advancing far enough into Russia to cut off the vital communications lines which would permit shipment of American and British war supplies to the Russian army through the treacherous Arctic port of Murmansk. While no details are available, it was believed in diplomatic circles Germany is exerting an equal "squeeze" to keep Finland in the war and help break the Murmansk rail lines.

Efforts to induce Finland to abandon her Russian campaign after she has regained the territory the Soviets took from her in the 1939 war were instituted by the British. Britain proclaimed a "embargo" against Finland, effectively cutting off supplies for relief and reconstruction which had been made available by the United States. Later, diplomatic sources said, Britain expressed dissatisfaction that the United States maintained cordial relations with Finland even after outbreak of hostilities with Russia.

Aids Finland
 Hull made clear the United States would like to know what Finland's intentions are. He made no threat, but observers read into his words the inference that a continued alliance of Finland with Germany would force the United States to class Finland as part of the "aggressor" bloc of countries. He said too great penetration into Russia would make Finland a participant in the general war.

The alternative offered Finland would be aid in the form of foodstuffs and reconstruction materials, and probably a promise of the restoration of Finnish territorial boundaries after the war.

CHEST CAMPAIGN LEADERS CHOSEN

Leaders who will head the coming Community Chest drive for funds were named last night at a special session held at the Chamber of Commerce offices.

The five "generals" who will head solicitations in the various districts of the city are Grant Thomas, eastern district; W. A. Van Engelen, southern district; Elmer Hollingsworth, northern district; Frank Graves, western district; and Robert Benbow, wholesale district.

The "generals" were present at last night's session and conferred with Carl N. Anderson, drive director, and Frank L. Cook, president. Announcement was made that "captains" and other workers would be selected in the immediate future.

Beds Even on Surgery Floor at Hospital

ABOUT THE PICTURES

Here are more pictures snapped at the Twin Falls county general hospital by the Evening Times cameraman to show you the crowded conditions at the institution, so you will know the situation when you vote yes or no on the hospital bond issue Oct. 14.

Top photo, the pediatric ward for children. The floor on the third floor—the floor on which the operating room is located and on which, in every standardized hospital, patients are never placed. In all standardized hospitals the surgery is isolated. In the small room shown here there are four beds, each containing its child occupant. In the background is a small boy whose leg is held in the air. If the hospital could be used as a long-needed laboratory.

Lower photo, a crowded ward scene showing four of the five beds in this particular ward. Under standard practice, none should contain over three beds. The room pictured here, however, has beds so closely together that there is just room enough between beds for a nurse to walk.

Control—How'll You Have It?

Who will not control himself must be controlled. If everybody could, or would, control himself in his relations with other people, there would not need to be a single policeman in the world.

The American people now have a magnificent opportunity to show themselves worthy of freedom from strict control.

There is talk of government price-fixing, government setting of wages, government limitations on profits. Why? Because if there are no limitations on those things, inflation is inevitable, a common disaster dragging all down with it.

Self-control seems to be the only way. The farmers must not object to release of agricultural surpluses, even though that keeps prices down, and they must resist that hankering for $2 wheat.

Those are hard words, but true words. If self-restraint of this kind is not exercised, control must come from some other source, and nobody, not the farmers, not the workers, not the employers, will like it.

How Fund Started She stated that Miss Edith Amos, Sunday school teacher in the Methodist church, interested her class in putting on a play to start a fund for a public library in 1911. The proceeds were given to the Community Civic club and added to donations of various clubs at a later date.

Donations of books from individuals and clubs were the initial efforts which made the library possible.

It was during the term of McClosky's term of office as city mayor that a 3 mill city tax was levied in support of the library and a paid librarian hired.

Mrs. Richards, Mrs. John Noble, Mrs. W. J. Rippinger, Mrs. William Knutsen have served in that capacity. Miss Annette Morse being the present librarian. About four years ago the library was doubled to one and a half mill. Rotary and Kiwanis contributed from time to time. The Isnail, Cedar, Cedar, Mentor clubs and American Legion Auxiliary have made donations annually for several years. Individuals have placed books "in Memoriam" in the library and clubs have added volumes each year," she added.

Library Reports "During the past year fines and pay copies have netted an income of $175.70, clubs donated $1825. At the present time there are 1,336 adult fiction, 1,536 non-fiction, 1,503 high school and juvenile books on the shelves. The library purchased 406 new books and 91 were donated. The circulation figured 14,692 adult fiction, 2,381 non-fiction, and 4,545 juvenile making a total of 21,618—making a turn over of four times for each book.

"In view of the present circulation and the amount of books purchased and received annually the need for more room is a very urgent one," she concluded.

Mrs. L. G. Lacey, civics committee chairman, reported mattresses were to be made again this year for the needy and asked members to contact her if they knew of anyone needing same. The hostesses served refreshments.

GIRL RECREATION PLAN INSTITUTED

Replacing the regular activities of girl athletics each afternoon during sixth period at Twin Falls high school, will be a period of quiet time each Wednesday of mixed recreation, which began today with the sophomore class members being admitted to the activities. Class periods will rotate among the three classes, sophomore, junior, and senior, and the fourth of each group of Wednesdays will be open to all classes, announced Miss Madeline Carvin, who will be in-charge of the activity.

The plan is entirely new for Twin Falls high school, but has proved successful in numerous colleges and universities, and is planned to give more of the students a chance to use the gym facilities and equipment. Volley ball, table tennis and badminton will be among the activities, and square dances will be taught later on.

FORDHAM TAKES LEAD TOWARD ROSE BOWL

RUPERT, BURLEY PLACE CONFERENCE RECORDS AT STAKE

Rams Boast of Schedule to Get Best Bid

By WILLIAM TUCKER
NEW YORK, Oct. 8 (AP)—The Fordham Rams run rampant in the east. They have speed and finesse plus sophomore varsity who play with the ticket to glory denied in 1936 when the "seven blocks of granite" proved excess baggage for the Rose bowl express.

If the Rams weather their eight-game schedule against opponents from every section of the nation they will deserve fulfillment of the long-standing "Rose Hill to Rose bowl" dream. They began their card Saturday, beating Southern Methodist 16-10. They play North Carolina this week-end at Raleigh, West Virginia, Texas Christian, Purdue, Pittsburgh, St. Mary's and New York U.

Albion Normal Meets Boise Junior College

ALBION, Oct. 8 (Special)—Albion Normal football players, somewhat relieved with their 25 to 0 victory over a crew of rugged Gooden Field Flyers are pointing toward their next opponent, Boise Junior College.

The past grid was between the Panthers and Boise Junior College has a always been hotly contested with plenty of football shown by both teams. Albion passed to a 12 to 0 victory over the Boiseans last year with both teams exhibiting a fine, open field brand of football. This is to be the Bronchos' homecoming which indicates that Albion will meet a team keyed-up for victory. The Boise lads dropped their game with Eastern Oregon college by a score of 7 to 0 while the Panthers won with a 12 to 0 win over the Oregon school. This indicates that the odds are about even considering that Albion met the Oregon club in last season's opener while Boise Junior college played a much improved ball club the following week.

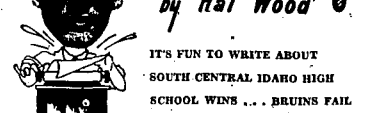

Unless some injuries are acquired in this week's practice sessions, Albion will be able to field a team free from injuries for the first time this season.

The Panther-Growen Field battle did not show a great deal of football because the entire game was played in a sheet of rain and hail. The Bronchos were weak in backfield and kicking and these two phases of the game will be stressed this week.

While it is known that the Boiseans in the Albion camp because none of the Panther coaching staff has returned, it is known that Albion's mentor, reports that he will drill his boys against any kind of attack and particularly against the type of offense used by the Bronchos last year.

In this encounter, Albion will be seeking its tenth consecutive victory over Boise Junior college.

IT'S FUN TO WRITE ABOUT
SOUTH CENTRAL IDAHO HIGH SCHOOL WINS... BRUNIS FAIL TO "TURN OTHER CHEEK" ...

There's probably nothing we like better than to write a story about a south central Idaho athletic team "upsetting" an outside club—even though we've been in the opinion our own particular heroes didn't have much of a chance.

Such was the case at the state basketball tournament last spring at Boise when our cup of joy flowed over both Brunis and Shoshone lads, under the hand of the championship ratings, came through with state titles. But already that's a thing of the past and the football season is on.

So, we take the proverbial "pen in hand"—it's a battered old Remington 5—because we're so excited about the Twin Falls Bruin defeat of the highly-touted Nampa Bulldogs.

First, and foremost, we wish to point out that the success of the Bruin club can't be credited to any of the players, although it must be admitted that the boys all did their parts.

You've got to hand the hand-picked team to Hank Fournier, Twin Falls coach, who has been doing a wonderful job of welding a group of mediocre inexperienced boys into a winning machine.

Met Hulbert, under power? Yes, he has developed into a fine backfield performer after being on the sidelines as an underdog for Chuck Thomas for the past couple of years.

Glenn Gibb at quarterback and Glenn Terry (the latter the only backfield regular from last year) all are making a few mistakes. And it appears that the other halfback play is set-up for anyone that steps into the role.

Lyle Pearson, a husky young sophomore who is down with an illness right now, started the spot for the first two games. When Red Higgins was inserted into the place, he kept going right in the approved Pearson style. Both these boys are sophomores in school and both appear to have bright futures ahead.

And the line? Well, they are as sneezed at—in fact, it is doing a fairly creditable job of living up to the Powers tradition—always having a "goose line." That something for which Hank is noted throughout the state—the development year after year. That's something exceptionally tough for every opponent.

But while we're blowing up the Bruin chances, we must point out that the hard row to hoe is still ahead—with Peetele and Boise still in the mix. That's something for Jimmy O'Brien, the former Field mentor who now handles the reins of the city. He's the star here Friday night to watch the Nampa-Twin Falls tilt. Bill the biggest optimist in the coaching business, Jimmy O'Brien, says the Nampa didn't have much—which, of course, almost everyone in the stands could say.

"However, I think we'll be able to take 'Twin Falls,' says the Irishman. "Think I have some very good backs on my club who will work me trouble—but I don't think they can match my boys."

O'Brien has something to brag about in his backfield, too, as most every Twin Falls fan will recall. His star is Kelly, who already the major league football scout on the youngster's trail. He has about everything—as he showed most of the opposition of the state last year in leading the Indians to a championship.

It ought to be a battle worth watching to see.

Speaking of the Nampa game

Bobcats Meet Jerome Tigers and Pirates Tackle Gooding Club

Major action on south central Idaho high school football fields will be featured in the Big Seven conference this week-end as undefeated Rupert and Burley teams test their strength conference clashes.

However, the two unbeaten clubs from the east end of the conference are heavy favorites to humble foes that may put up good battles but to date haven't done anything too impressive in the way of victories.

The best game may be at Gooding when the Rupert club invades the home of the Senators. Coach Mack Saunders has put out a well-coached club that lost a close game to Burley; put up a good scrap against Twin Falls, only to lose; and then last week came up with the brand of football to trounce the Pler Wildcats.

Pirates Have Class

However, the Senators will need to show a lot of power because Coach Gerald Dellinger of the Pirates has one of the better clubs of the state. After defeating Oakley in the opener for a conference victory, the Pirates dropped a close 1-6 decision to the Big Six Nampa Bulldogs. They bounced back to edge Pler 3-0 and decisively trounce Burley Indians. The chances are that the Pirates will prevail—but it should be a close race.

Tigers aren't given much of a chance against the well-balanced Burley Bobcats. Coach Fulton Budge has a group of veterans back and if injuries don't keep key men out—his team is going to have a lot to say on who wins the 1941 Big Seven crown.

Other Major Winners

Other major eastern eleven weathering last week-end included Navy, Army, Colgate, Cornell, Columbia, Holy Cross, Yale, Pennsylvania, N. Y. U., Cornell, Dartmouth and Princeton but none had the opposition to match the Rams.

Navy warmed slowly but moved under forced draft in the second round to buy West Virginia 40-0.

Army looked none too impressive in getting by The Citadel 10-6. Cornell's Big Red, with most of its 1940 stars graduated, pulled out a narrow upset, defeating Syracuse by a touchdown. Pennsylvania walloped Harvard 21-0 and defeated Michigan at Amherst, 47-7 and gained recognition in the Ivy league.

Yale saw three Virginia touchdowns before the Elis pulled it back together in the second half with 21-10 and have Coach Spike Nelson's debut. Princeton turned in the best performance of the Big Three by trouncing Mississippi 20-7.

No. 1 Upset Victim

Georgetown, which appeared to be off to another great season when it upset Mississippi, was the No. 1 upset victim, dropping a 3-0 decision to Virginia Tech.

Once-beaten Purdue laid emphasis on the de-emphasis at Pitt by defeating the Panthers 14-0.

Important games involving eastern teams this week are:

Temple vs. Georgetown at Philadelphia; Army vs. Virginia Tech at West Point; Boston college vs. Clemson at Boston; Dartmouth vs. Colgate at Hanover; Harvard vs. Cornell at Cambridge; Michigan vs. Pittsburgh at Ann Arbor; N. Y. U. vs. Texas A. & M. at New York; Princeton vs. Columbia at Princeton; Syracuse vs. Holy Cross at Syracuse; and Yale vs. Pennsylvania at New Haven.

Paul Brown Chosen As 'Coach of Week'

By JACK GUNTHER

NEW YORK, Oct. 8 (AP)—Stories of the Cinderella men of sport are legion but you can leaf through every record book in all the libraries and you'll find no precedent for the feat of the balding newcomer to big time football selected today as the United Press "coach of week."

His name is Paul Brown and already that name has been stamped in Ohio State's history along with those of such gridiron giants as Chick Harley, Coach Cunningham and Coach Pease. But where it took his predecessors years to achieve their fame, Brown has won his in just 12 days.

At 33, Paul Brown is the youngest coach in the western conference. Just nine months ago he was as anonymous in national football circles as the 1930 All-American. He was well known in his own backyard as the "Miracle Man of Massillon," where he had lost only one game of 40 played in five years, but Massillon, after all, was just a high school.

Big Jump

The climb from a high school to a college like Ohio State is almost impossible. Only two modern coaches bridge the gap with a single leap—Bob Zuppke, who went from Oak Park, Ill., to University of Illinois, and Abe Ribman, who stepped from Manual high in Louisville to the University of Kentucky. Brown has done even better.

His first game pitted Ohio State against Missouri and State barely won, 12-7. In Columbus the downing of the football season was decided and decided to withhold its verdict. It was just as well because that week the Buckeyes made good—two times they crashed Southern California, 23-0.

This was the worst beating the Bruins had in their history. The first climb into football prominence almost two decades ago and it was one of the most pertinent developments of football's second big week-end. How did this Johnny-come-lately do it? Well, the answer

Jenkins Works Hard-To Kill Prestige as Champion Battler

By HANLEY FERGUSON

NEW YORK, Oct. 8 (AP)—The three all-time great gentlemen on the New York boxing commission occasionally forget their double talk and other things which make them the darling of the gamblers, and get down to business with all the seal of a new house-made solution a new brew.

They did it yesterday, and after all these months, finally cracked down on the hungry-looking young man who is a lightweight champion in this state. He is Jack Jenkins, and his story is one of the strangest of all worlds—the prize fight world.

They say the fire that lit his highest and brightest light first, and that, in a few words, is the story of Jenkins' career. A few years ago he arrived here with a broken-down automobile and a pretty young wife, and from Texas he got the world's fair, and all he wanted was a few dollars to start a small business. He had enough money to pay expenses here and buy gasoline back home. He had a surprise, he began making the daylights out of all the lightweight fights in these parts. He was so hot in his early days, but he had a right hand that landed like TNT and he began to make up quite a following. His manager was Fred Brown, a Texan, but the man who handled his affairs in and out of the fight racket was Hyman Kaplan, a fast talker who knew the ropes.

Everything was smooth sailing for a few and Jack Jenkins until he won the lightweight championship. Then the roof fell in on him. Kaplan, it developed, was associated with persons who loved to play cards, the chief reason being they always won. The law sent Kaplan to the big house, and Jenkins had troubles of a different kind. He had a quarrel with his wife, he went to Texas and landed a statement that a large chunk out of the hand that was feeding him. He criticized New York, the people who were paying the money that earned him his purse, for being "funny talkers."

But, most important of all, he became more interested in riding motorcycles at high speed than in getting ready for fights. He began to lose, and only the fact that he was involved in the non-title bouts kept him from losing his championship.

Monday night in Madison Square Garden, Jenkins struck bottom. He was matched with Lightweight Champion Ed Cochran in another one of those non-title affairs, and it turned out to be a dismal performance. It was so bad the boxing commission ordered Promoter Mike Jacobs to hold up Jenkins' $7,000 purse.

Late this month, Jenkins, champion in New York state, is supposed to fight Sammy Ansoldi, recognized by the National Boxing association as lightweight titleholder. Even if Jenkins gets out that hard, his doom still is written plainly on the wall.

For him to be in the ring, eager to get a crack at the little-a-bundle of dark dynamite named Tully Robinson. The Nigma had a a sleazy boxer, a hard puncher, and a fast man on his feet. He has "champion" written all over him, and some might say he will probably will land the blow that will send Jenkins back to Texas. There he can ride his motorcycle.

Juniors Annex Feminine Softball Title

Juniors class of Twin Falls high school yesterday took the Interclass championship for girls' softball when they defeated the sophomores, 10-1, in a score of 10-1. The four-games tourney, which began Thursday, Oct. 3, started with the sophomores defeating the seniors, 12-1, in a score of 12-1. The seniors lost to the juniors, with a score of 12 to 14. Monday's 7-2 score brought the seniors victorious over the sophomore team, but was the last game for the underclassmen, leaving the sophomores for the final game. Sophomores appeared to have yesterday afternoon's game sewed up when the sophomores took their last inning, with a score of 10-1. The seniors in the lead. But the sophomores "kept 'em hopping" when they bunched in five runs during that last inning, and left the score at 8-10.

The girls of the high school and O. A. A. will next take up badminton as a tennis. In each of these sports they will receive about six weeks of instruction from Miss Madeline Clinwin, instructor, and then a badminton tournament is scheduled to start the first week of November, will be run off for interclass championship. Winners in this case also securing 30 points toward the citizenship cup.

Drunken Driving Trial Faces Man

JEROME, Oct. 8 (Special)—Hearing for Edwin Amnott, Gooding resident, will be held here Thursday morning, Oct. 9, at 10 a. m. before Probate Judge William O. Conatuck.

Amnott was arrested last week and charged with operating a motor vehicle on the public highway, while under influence of intoxicating liquor. He was arrested after he allegedly struck down a pedestrian, Jim Wray, Jerome.

Mr. Wray, who was walking north along the highway, was struck down, and suffered a badly lacerated eyebrow and a facial injury. He was treated by a Jerome physician.

Amnott was released last week following his arrest, and upon furnishing bond for his appearance.

conference ball, have showed considerable improvement since taking drubbing from Shoshones in the opener. Last week the Tigers played good ball all the way through, only to lose a one-point decision to the invading Okie Hornets.

Bull to Okley

The other conference clash takes the Bull Indians to Okley, where the Hornets will be favored. Always hard to beat on their home field, the Hornets this year have shown forth a team that is showing increasing signs of power. Meanwhile, the Bull club has yet to show much in the way of offense.

Flier Wildcats, beaten in their first three games, will come to Twin Falls for their annual tilt—decidedly the underdogs. While the Bruins have swept through all opposition with ease or less ease in the first three weeks of the campaign, the Wildcats can't be under-estimated. Coach Bill Powers, the younger brother, is always aiming for an upset victory over Brother Hank—and it's the weakest teams that always perform the upset.

To date, the best effort put forth by the Wildcats was a 3-0 loss to the powerful Rupert eleven—a game that saw the Flier crew stage a great defensive battle.

Wendell Trojans, victorious over Okley, Gooding and Nampa on successive week-ends and the Flier engagement will be their last non-conference battle of the season.

Following this game the Powers club plays Pocatello, Caldwell, Idaho Falls and Boise on successive weeks.

In the Class B 11-man circuit, the highly-rated Shoshones Indians are expected to bounce back with a victory over the Fairfield Mushers, beaten last week by the Class A Burley Bobcats in a close, hard-fought battle. The Indians will probably go on the warpath against the Mushers.

Wendell Trojans, victorious over Okley, Gooding and Nampa on successive week-ends and the Flier engagement will be their last non-conference battle of the season. Following this game the Powers club plays Pocatello, Caldwell, Idaho Falls and Boise on successive weeks.

In the six-man section, Hazelton travels to Hansen, Castleton visits Eden and Dietrich plays host to King Hill.

Boxing Chiefs Hold up Purse Of Lew Jenkins

NEW YORK, Oct. 8 (AP)—The New York boxing commission today had ordered the purse of lightweight Champion Lew Jenkins held up as a result of the unsatisfactory showing he made last night against Welterweight Champion Red Cochrane.

Cochrane won a 10-round decision, but neither title was at stake. Jenkins' end of the purse amounted to around $700.

Willis Glesenberg, Cochrane's manager, was suspended for six months for advising his fighter to take it easy in the early rounds.

The commission then went back to the recent heavyweight title tilt between Joe Louis and Lou Nova. Ray Carlen and Ray Carlen respectively Nova's trainer and manager, were both suspended and reprimanded for putting grease on Nova's face after the referee had warned them not to. Carlen was suspended for six months and Arel for 60 days.

The commission said the suspensions were made because Carlen and Arel had advised Nova to stay away from Louis in the early rounds and try to come on later and win by a decision or knockout.

Man Returns: Now He Faces New Charges

JEROME, Oct. 8 (Special)—Because a convicted forger returned once more to the scene of his former activity, he faced today a double charge of again passing fraudulent checks.

It is George Washington Pettit, accused of passing $18 and $25 checks with the allegedly forged name of Henry Jones, when forger, Sheriff's officers said the checks were cashed at the Hamilton pool hall and the Hamilton hardware store, and were dated Oct. 2.

Pettit returned to Jerome county about two weeks ago. Officers said that at the Jerome jail where he was found guilty of forging Mr. Jones' name on a check, was sentenced to one to 14 years by District Judge Rader Lee, and then received commutation to six months in county jail. He served that period.

Officer Carl Perle has served time at Yakima and Seattle, Wash., and in Dallas, Tex., on charges of vagrancy as well as forger. He has been held numerous times for investigation, according to FBI records.

It was indicated he will receive hearing soon.

Probe Continues
Officers are still continuing investigation of three other check forgers which occurred last Thursday in Jerome. The checks were made out for $25 and $28, and were forged names of Tom Callan, Jerome farmer.

On two of the forgers, a warrant went into the Jerome stores here, purchased goods and said he would return for the merchandise. He took change from the bank. He also bought a large amount of wearing apparel and other articles from the J. C. Peters store, this time taking the goods with him.
