Doctor and Chairman of Board Outline County Hospital Needs

Problems which are being faced at the Twin Falls county general hospital at the present time were outlined here today by Dr. M. J. Fuenfeling, chairman of the physicians' committee in connection with the coming vote on bonds which would finance expansion and improvements at the institution.

DR. M. J. FUENFELING

C. H. Hempleman, prominent farmer of this section and chairman of the board of control of the county general hospital, this afternoon in a statement given to the Evening Times declared "Twin Falls county is rich enough to have a good, up-to-date hospital if the people want it."

Hempleman, who has donated much of his time to board duties for the past seven years, probably knows more about local hospital conditions than any other layman in the county.

C. H. HEMPLEMAN

In his statement the physician pointed out that there are many problems which are not so apparent to the layman but which are much more serious.

It must be apparent to all who come within the portals of the hospital. There are, however, many other problems which are not so apparent but which are just as serious.

"If Twin Falls county wants a hospital it is rich enough to have a good one," Hempleman said. "If the people do not want it then, of course, they have the right to turn down at the bond election next Tuesday. They have the opportunity now to obtain a medical center which will benefit all of Twin Falls county or they can leave it as it is."

He continued by saying that he didn't want the people to get the wrong idea.

Soviet Newspaper Reports Germans' Advance Is Halted

By FREDERICK C. OEBISNER
BERLIN, Oct. 9 (AP)—German armed forces were reported officially today to have smashed the entire 750-mile central and southern fronts defending Moscow and completed the military destruction of the Red army in what Adolf Hitler called "the last great decisive battle of this year."

The gigantic German offensive was credited in official Nazi statements with having ended Britain's German war on two continents with trapping at least 1,000,000 Russian troops on the central sector and with breaking up or encircling Soviet forces from the Volga hills northwest of the capital to the Ukraine shores of the sea of Azov.

By HENRY SHAPIRO
MOSCOW, Oct. 9 (AP)—The Red army was reported today to have halted powerful German drives on Moscow from the west and south and to have taken the offensive on the northern front at Leningrad and south of Lake Ilmen.

Private sources, such as office buildings, apartment houses and even private homes using appreciable quantities of critical materials, also are affected by the SPAB ruling.

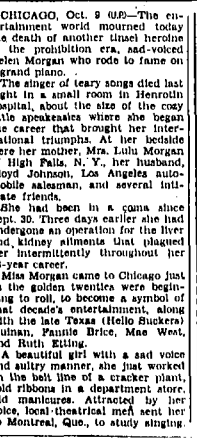

Matter of Choice
SPAB emphasized that because of the defense program's heavy demand for metals, it would not be possible for the United States to build all the warships, planes, tanks and other war equipment essential to national security if the scarce metals are used unnecessarily in building projects which are not vital to defense.

Opplies to Small Units

Successful appearances in London and Paris followed, then the radio and Hollywood where she played the buxom queen in "Amphitrupe" and starred in "Chaffing the American Girl," "Household Nights," "The Lemon Drop Kid," "Hollywood." Her last big stage role was Julie in Ziegfeld's "Show Boat."

SAYS UNION STRIKE LEADERS ARE HITLER FRIENDS

Evening Times:

I think the time has come when our government should demand that the union leaders be hit with a banish. Herr Hitler's friends from their ranks. I refer especially to the union leaders responsible for the numerous strikes prevalent, for any union official who would call a strike at this time is no American, and is a friend of Hitler and all the standards for.

If the union won't do this without any more delay the government should take over, and see that the law is done, at the point of a bayonet, if necessary. Also think that the country at large and the workers themselves would be better off, if those same leaders were put in the concentration camps on bread and water diet, for the duration of the emergency.

I as in California recently and talked with quite a number of union workers, and without exception they all agreed that they lost more in every strike than they ever gained by it and several said bluntly that if it were not for the strong arm methods of the union leaders, most strikes would be voted down.

How long do these so called Americans think their friend, Hitler, would stand for their strikes were they in his wonderful country?

Well, here's hoping Uncle Samuel will attend to this at once, stating all necessary force to do a thorough job.

Respectfully,
R. T. HENACHE

To bridge the gap between school and the business world for the 63 per cent of high school students who do not go to college, Twin Falls high school, under direction of Mrs. Rose M. North and Gerald R. Wallace, deans at the school, and with the cooperation of local business men, are sponsoring again this year a student vocational training period.

The course presents "splendid opportunities" for students to get into between high school and the holding down of permanent employment. Four students who took a nursing course under this plan last year, and Twin Falls practical training two hours each day at the local hospital, were given full-time jobs at the hospital last summer and now are working in other hospitals.

At present, Donna Crossley, Owen Helfrecht and Jane McNeely are receiving vocational training through the school program at the Twin Falls county general hospital, under supervision of Mrs. Martha Hansen, supervisor of nurses. Three

SWIM APPOINTED CROPS RECEIVER

Named receiver for a Gooding county 210-acre onion crop and a 70-acre potato tract, W. O. Swim, Twin Falls, has posted $5,000 bond today and assumed his special duties under mandate of district court.

Swim was named receiver under litigation brought by the Knavehr against Western Fruit Growers, Inc. The court specified that the defendant concern, operator of the big onion and spud tracts on leased land, is to complete harvesting the crop—on provision that it does the job promptly and efficiently. Mr. Swim will be receiver for the crops and machinery. The defendant firm, in addition, must account to him for the onions and potatoes already sold.

Knavehr, claiming he was dismissed as supervisor and his efficient crew of 100 harvesters fired, requested the receivership, asked judgment for one-half the net profits from the onions and potatoes, and requested another judgment for one-third the profits from the company's Wendell storehouse business. J. R. Simplot, Burley produce man named receiver at first, resigned without acting.

GOAL NEARS FOR EQUALIZED LEVIES

BOISE, Ida., Oct. 9 (AP)—State Superintendent of Public Instruction O. E. Roberts reported allocations for school operations show the state is nearing its goal of equalized county school levies on the three-mill level.

The 1941 legislature made available $1,250,000 a year for each year of the 1941-42 biennium. When added to endowment income, this will produce a state contribution to the minimum education program greater than in any other two-year period, Roberts said.

The increased state allotment has also resulted in a decided lowering of county school levies this year, he said.

State Support
"It will be noted that as state support of the minimum program increases, county support is reduced, dollar for dollar, and the range of county levies is lessened and equalized," the state school chief explained.

The ultimate goal being sought in the state program, Roberts said, is a state contribution of $2,350,553, $480,553 more than available this year, which would reduce all county school levies to a uniform 3 mills.

Matter of Justice
"It is encouraging to note that a gradual understanding of the operation of the 1933 minimum program law and an acceptance of the equalizing principle as a matter of simple justice to all taxpayers, is gradually taking place," he stated.

"We must carry on a continuous education program to promote further understanding in order to secure complete equalization."
Figures on county school levies for the last two years showed that much of the disparity between various counties was being eliminated. During the 1940-41 school year the county levies ranged from a low of 1.233 mills in Clark county to a high of 8.594 mills in Teton county. This year, Clark county was still lowest with a levy of 2.73 mills but the highest levy was 6.743 mills in Gem county.

Escaped Greeks Tell Tales Of Woe to Allied Listeners

By HENRY T. GOBBELL
CAIRO, Egypt, Oct. 9 (AP)—Greek officials said Greek refugees who had crossed the Mediterranean in row boats and sail boats told a grim story today of Greece under the German-Italian occupation.

It was a story of hunger and privation, of people going about barefoot in pajamas for lack of clothes, of a burning patriotic spirit, of passive resistance and active guerrilla fighting, of forced migrations of large sections of the population, and of angry relations between the Germans and their Italian allies.

Hundreds of Greeks have been executed, according to the sources, for guerrilla resistance. Nevertheless, the resistance continues and, it is asserted, service on the main line Athens-Salonia railroad has been cut by saboteurs.

Steady Trickle
Refugees are trickling steadily into Egypt and Palestine despite watchfulness of the Germans and Italians. It is impossible to describe their recaptives because there will be more but I have heard stories which sound like fiction thrillers, from escaped Greek refugees arriving in Athens, where they could volunteer for the international army being formed here.

I have been told in Athens, where nothing was lacking when I was there a few months ago with the British and Greek armies, there are endless lines waiting to obtain meager food rations; that there are countless beggars who are wounded

Greek soldiers thrown out of hospitals to make room for German and Italian officers and soldiers.

Refugees said the Germans had transformed every hotel and summer resort into a hospital to handle casualties from the Russian front and from the mountains where guerrillas are active.

An informant who recently left Athens said: "Every morning German officers go to the market place to tell officers what they may sell to civilians. They later return with trucks which take away for the German army the best food available. Generally only one-fourth the Greeks waiting in line get food."

Abandon Babies
Parents are abandoning babies because they cannot feed them, and hope someone else will. Girls are selling themselves to get food for their brothers and younger sisters. Meat, oil, butter, milk and cheese no longer exist for the ordinary person. Milk may be bought on a physician's prescription.

Refugees asserted the Bulgarians were transferring entire populations of towns and that Drama, a city of 80,000, was now being transferred to the people. An informant said 40 Athenians were shot a few weeks ago as saboteurs.

Massachusetts' population rose from 4,249,614 in 1930 to 4,312,222 in 1940.

This is a picture of three people's ideas of a "big" bunch of beets.

So the question is, which size bunch do you get?

Now Safeway has a suggestion. Bunch sizes vary—but a pound doesn't change. A pound is the same amount of beets in any store. The same amount every day in the week.

Why don't you buy your beets by the pound? Your Safeway now sells beets this FULL-VALUE way—by the pound! You pick out just the size of beets and just the number of beets you need. And you pay only for what you get by weight.

There are many advantages in buying any kind of fruit or vegetable by weight. And at Safeway every fruit and vegetable item is now priced this way.

Come in and see how much more good eating your money buys under this new FULL-VALUE plan.

Many prominent women tell us they would like every store in town to price all fruits and vegetables by weight. Then you could get just the amount you want just the sizes you like, and full value for your money every time. Whenever you trade, why don't you ask your store man about it?

JAPANESE CLAIM U. S. MAY CAUSE "WAR TO SPREAD"

AMERICA WARNED AGAINST JOINING EUROPEAN FIGHT

TOKYO, Oct. 9 (Special) — Japanese spokesmen and newspapers today criticized the "wilderness" slogan of the United States and warned that the war "is likely to spread to other regions" of the world at any moment.

Entry of the United States into the war, a spokesman said, would "be a blow to civilization and might even involve America in a deadlock."

The Japanese statements told the German claims that the Russian army had been destroyed as a fighting force on the eastern front, raising speculation on the possibility of a new move by Japan in the far east in event of collapse of the Soviet government.

The new warning of possible war moves in the Pacific came as Premier Prince Hiroto reported to Emperor Hirohito on the general state of affairs.

In a nation-wide radio broadcast, Commander Shunichi Kondo, chief of the first section of the cabinet information board, said "because of developments in the last few months war is likely to spread to other regions at any moment."

"Grasshopper" Plane May Carry War Communications

WASHINGTON — Army orders and other important communications may be carried by "Grasshoppers" instead of being flashed by radio in wartime if ideas being worked out in current maneuvers "jelled." The army's new "Grasshopper Squadron" consists of tiny cub planes.

Because military observers of the U. S. army on European battlefields have brought back stories of how easy it is for the enemy to jam "radio" communications during battle, the army is now working with the little planes as a message-bearing substitute.

Psychologists, Pipes, Cubs, and Arrowheads were invited to participate in most of the army maneuvers in various sections of the country during this summer and autumn, and members of the Grasshopper Squadron, they have been undergoing test runs with an eye to their extensive use.

Three-Fold Job

The small and very maneuverable cub planes are to have a three-fold mission: they carry messages from one army CP (command post) to another, they act as a liaison between officers from one battlefield sector to another. And they are being tested as observers and locators for artillery fire.

The aerial jeeps are not armed and they operate strictly in the rear of the forward line.

The cub planes are perhaps the easiest of all aircraft to pilot. What the army brass has to do is to draw from the big pool of civilian pilots trained in the government-sponsored civilian pilot training system, and it is believed that graduate pilots from this course, pilots with 30 to 35 hours of flying, are all that are needed.

Even if sighted the cub planes would be extremely hard to knock down because of their agile maneuvering. Flying at 40 miles per hour, the cubs can dodge, zig zag and swing completely about in a circle in less than a second. The planes find it extremely difficult to land than 200 miles per hour, and it usually takes half a mile for them to swing about and stop. The cubs would probably be out of the air and under cover in that time.

ARMY TRIES OUT ANTI-TANK GUNS

PLATTSBURG, N. Y., Oct. 9 (AP) — American anti-tank gunners are sharpening their marksmanship. The 15th anti-tank regiment, based in North York where the armies of three nations have struggled for control of the terrain, are now acquiring skill on the new tank combat range at the Macomb military reservation.

The federal government cleared 55 acres of ground with WPA labor to construct the device which enables the anti-tank gunners to test their tanks.

The range embodies approximately 100 feet of a railroad track on which simulated tanks travel only by gravity. The target, in the shape of a tank mounted on an anti-railroad flat car.

Range Nearly One Mile

The anti-tank gunners' mile away. Rolling downhill, the flat car winds in and out among the hills, at times accumulating speed up to 35 miles an hour.

The gunners get not more than a glimpse of the target as it coasts down the track, and the target's shooting chances give a broadside view of the "tank." Flushing out the course and the target's appearance of an attacking tank.

The "tank" itself consists of a rough lumber structure, covered with scrap tin, mounted on a flat car. As the car is released from a bomb proof shelter it travels down the course through a grassy valley.

The range boasts a particularly unusual feature. It has a practical appearance of an attacking tank.

Compromise

CARRY, Oct. 9 (Special) — Gene Coates Bolander and his brother, Miles J. Bolander, joined the United States Marine Corps at Salt Lake City last week and were sent immediately to San Diego, Calif. According to their father, Arthur Bolander, the boys were sent to San Diego to go into service together and to stay together, if possible, but one was wanted to join the army and the other wanted to join the navy. Neither brother would give in to the other's wishes, so they compromised and joined the marines.

PRODUCTION CUT SEEN ON LIQUOR

WASHINGTON, Oct. 9 (Special) — Whiskey production is going to be curtailed in the interests of national defense but drinking Americans don't have to worry about going dry, at least for several years.

There is a shortage of alcohol which is needed in enormous quantities in gunpowder plants. The office of production management plan to ask whiskey distillers to divert a large portion of their facilities solely to the manufacture of high proof grain alcohol.

Some distillers already have been approached with a proposal and indicated willingness to cooperate, officials said.

"This won't mean that the man in the street will have to go without a drink," one official said. "At least, he won't have to worry about it for several years."

The tremendous stocks of whiskey in existence.

He added, diversion of whiskey producing facilities might have an effect on blending. If the diversion lasts long, it also might affect the quality of whiskey several years hence.

CHAIR TAKES 542 NEW YORK LIVES

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., Oct. 9.—Fifty years ago four members of the Sing Sing prison, marking the first executions at New York's famed penal institution.

Since that day, 471 condemned persons have been put to death in the downstate prison's electric chair. There were five women among the 471.

James Slocum was the first to "walk the last mile." When the switch was thrown and Slocum pronounced dead by the prison physician, a white flag was hoisted. Next came Harris Smiler. A few brief moments after he sat in the chair, a blue flag was hoisted and Smiler had paid the price.

Then a black flag went up. Negro Joe Wood was the third member of the quartet. Finally Shobuya Juro, a Japanese, was hoisted on the "last mile," and shortly a red flag was hoisted. All had paid for their lives of crime.

Every time during the execution was Edward F. Davis, who later became official executioner, a post he held for several years.

A prison guard was enlisted as the first official switch-thrower, but at the institution's opening and executions became a more common occurrence, the state hired an official executioner.

The five women who paid with their lives were Martha Pace, Ruth Snyder, Anna Antonio, Eve Goo and Mary Clifton.

The first executions were secret. Crowds assembled at the prison gates hours before the scheduled time—4:30. They were not admitted. Neither were newspapermen. Many of the regulations governing executions since have been changed and newspapermen are admitted.

New York State had exacted the supreme penalty from 542 persons throughout the state since executions were legalized. Fifty-five were put to death in Auburn prison and 26 in Clinton prison. The remainder were executed in Sing Sing.

ARGUMENT

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Oct. 9 (AP)—Chief Little White Cloud argued the case for fire-water for Indians today. George Selkirk, hereditary Chippewa chief, told members of the Metropolitan association of Chippewas and Mayor Martin Kilday that "a great injustice is heaped on Americans of Indian descent when they are refused liquor at a bar."

Selkirk said the Indian bureau was "largely responsible for keeping from the Indian his rightful drink."

"I'm not defending alcohol," he said, "but I don't see why it is a great crime to give an Indian a drink when it is to give an American of European descent a drink."

Humorist Woodford Has Advice for Gem Scribes

Jack Woodford, Hollywood, nationally known humorist writer, has a personal message for all men and women who attend the annual Idaho writers' conference here Oct. 17 and 18, according to Mrs. Olive M. Cook, past state president of the Idaho Writers' league, sponsor of the conference.

Although he will be unable to attend the conference, he has sent a personal message, which will be read during the article section at the Park hotel Saturday morning, Oct. 11, at 10 o'clock. Woodford is author of "Trial and Error," best seller among the "how to write" books.

Varied Information—Information of value to writers in the articles and special feature field of writing, particularly, will be emphasized at the article section, Mrs. Cook said.

Two Idaho newspaper editors are scheduled to give talks, Nicholas H. H. of the Post-Tribune, Boise, and "Newspaper Feature Writing" and Berwyn Burke, of the Northwest News, Jerome, to speak on the topic, "The Short Story with Feature Possibilities."

Chic Crabtree, production manager of the local radio, will speak on "Writing for Radio"; Victor Goertzen, Times-News staff photographer, on "Putting a Camera to the Test"; Mrs. Patricia Turner, Boise, a past president on "Pioneer Articles and Fillers," and Mrs. E. A. Landon, Twin Falls, will read the article which won first prize in the article section of the contest. Author of the article will not be revealed until the banquet at 8:30 o'clock at the Park hotel, when winners of poetry and short story prizes will also receive awards.

Public Invited—Membership in the Idaho Writers' league is not necessary to attend the conference. Any interested persons may attend by paying the nominal registration fee, Mrs. Florence Benson, Twin Falls, conference chairman, said today. Registration will take place before and during the reception Friday evening, Oct. 10, from 8 to 10 o'clock at the home of Mrs. John E. Hayes, and Saturday morning at the Park hotel.

Lessee members are requested to register as early as possible Friday evening, to avoid delay at the poetry breakfast, beginning at 7:30 o'clock with Mrs. Edith Macdonald Graham as toastmaster.

Mrs. Dorothy Boyd, member of the Twin Falls club, faculty, will be in charge of the poetry panel following the breakfast.

Featured speaking at the prose section Saturday afternoon will be David Orew, Lewiston, author of numerous western novels and animal stories, and Dr. Elmer Brown, dean of the faculty at the Albion State Normal school, author of "Fort Hall and the Oregon Trail," who will deal with early Idaho history.

Mrs. Dorothy Robinson, Boise, will preside at this session, and also at the round table discussion following.

Jarvis Floner, attending nationally known author, will contribute to the discussion, but will not be formally introduced. Other writers attending the conference will take part in the round table discussion.

Final event will be the banquet at 8:30 o'clock, with Mrs. Anna H. Hayes, Twin Falls, presiding as toastmaster. Novel decorations for the event are being designed by Victor and Dorine Goertzen, Twin Falls, and a "mystery" theme is being used.

AFL LEADER BACKS ROOSEVELT, OPPOSES DEFENSE STRIKES

GREEN APPEALS FOR WORKERS TO STAY AT POSTS

By WILLIS S. DUNWAY
 SEATTLE, Wash., Oct. 9 (AP)—American Federation of Labor leaders today appeared ready to accede to requests of President Roosevelt and AFL President William Green for an end to defense strikes.

Among the 600 delegates present for the AFL annual convention there was no discussion of Green's radio address last night in which he appealed to all union members to "stay on the job and keep defense production going full blast."

"I appeal to every man and woman on the AFL to remember at all times and under all circumstances that the national interest comes first," he said. "I urge them not to gamble for pennies at the risk of taking everything we hold dear in America."

Mr. Roosevelt, in a message to the convention Thursday, urged the union prevent work stoppages in the interest of national defense.

Agrees With Roosevelt
 Green said he agreed "100 per cent" with the President's statement that "only by united action can we turn back the Nazi threat." He cited agreements between the AFL and the government guaranteeing against work stoppages because of jurisdictional disputes between AFL unions.

"Our 5,000,000 members are united as one man in their unalterable and uncompromising opposition to militarism," he said. "They are determined to do everything in their power to produce the ships, planes, guns and tanks in whatever amount necessary to crush the evil power of totalitarianism."

He pointed to the AFL's record since the defense emergency in which time he said "more than 99 per cent" of the membership "refrained from striking for any cause."

Government officials have admitted the defense program would have "broken down" if it hadn't been for labor cooperation, he said.

Plea for Striker
 He added, however, a plea for public understanding of the strikers of the "human emotions" of men "smarting under a sense of injustice."

A part of his prepared speech which rebuffed the President's plea for peace between the AFL and the Congress of Industrial Organization was deleted because of a lack of radio time, but Green gave to the press as a statement of his AFL's stand.

"Under the circumstances," he said, "I am compelled to see that the President of the United States—there is no point in directing further appeals on this subject to the American Federation of Labor."

"We are willing to talk peace and make peace at any time we are accorded an opportunity to do so. We suggest you direct your future appeals to the CIO with all the influence at your command until the representatives of that organization agree to confer with us."

He said the AFL's "repeated overtures" to the CIO, "repeatedly" CIO "have been rejected or ignored."

Emergency Radio Tests Postponed

Officials in charge of arrangements for the emergency amateur radio tests which were to take place throughout this section Oct. 18 and 19 today announced cancellation of plans at the present time.

The officials pointed out that cancellation was necessary "because of unforeseen circumstances." They added that tests would be staged at some future date and ample notice would be given before that time.

NEW SUBSTITUTES AID ARMY PLANS

WASHINGTON, Oct. 9 (AP)—The war department reports that progress is being made in the use of substitutes for vitally needed aluminum, rubber, silk, zinc, copper and nickel.

Critical defense materials have been eliminated or reduced materially in 800 different equipment items purchased by the quartermaster corps and new specifications have been made for nearly that many more to be manufactured to replace present supplies.

Brass and bronze, for example, have been eliminated from belt buckles, rifle scabbard maps, nuts, bolts and electric fixtures. In 80 other items malleable iron and steel is being used instead.

Victimized Clay Used
 The drive to conserve nickel supplies resulted in the development of wood, vitrified clay, cast iron, galvanized iron-steel and glass substitutes which receive a special polish to make them suitable for use in tables, electric fixtures, steam kettles and other items.

Zinc content has been reduced in more than other types of equipment, with substitute materials used widely in galvanizing and finishing.

Substitutes for aluminum—less vital materials have been substituted for aluminum in 30 instances and cast iron or corrosion-resisting steel replacing that metal in army cooking utensils. Mirrors in reflectors is replacing aluminum in table tops and wood and steel in chairs and other furniture.

Glass, porcelain, black iron, lead, steel and galvanized iron are used instead of copper, while fiber glass and "rock cork" take the place of cork. Silk has been eliminated from 17 army supplies and greatly reduced in the other three still requiring it.

The program theme for the year will be "International Relations" and will include a discussion of the international problems aggravated by the different world powers.

Plans were made to attend the district meeting at Burley, Oct. 19. Mrs. L. J. Johnson will be hostess to the B. P. W. Oct. 20.

NAMPA WILL GET SUGAR FACTORY

NAMPA, Ida., Oct. 9 (AP)—H. A. Benning, Ogden, Utah, general manager of the Amalgamated Sugar company, said today construction will start within 10 days on a $2,000,000 sugar beet factory here.

The plant, which will be capable of processing 2,000 tons of beets daily, is scheduled to be completed Oct. 1, 1942. The factory, powered entirely by electricity, will be constructed partly from machinery brought from Ogden where the company has decided to close down a plant because of limited acreage.

Beaming estimated about 450 persons would be employed in the sugar factory during the peak 100-day operations. He said beet acreage totaling about 15,000 acres will be needed to supply the plant.

WHEELER TARGET OF ARIZONA EGGS

TUCSON, Ariz., Oct. 9 (AP)—Ben Burton K. Wheeler, D. Mont., was the target of two eggs at conclusion of an address here last night but the missiles missed the isolationist and the hoodlums who threw them escaped from the rear of the auditorium.

Wheeler told his audience of 1,500 that the United States navy was strong enough to repel any nation or group of nations and that the country need not depend on the British navy for survival.

He said "freedom of the seas" was the "warmonger's slogan" and there would be no freedom of the seas as the British blockade prevents "shipment of food to starving children of occupied nations."

BLAME IN RESIDENCE BLAZE

Considerable damage was caused here last night by a fire in the A. H. Bradford home, 161 Ninth avenue, north of here, apparently resulted from a defective fuse, Fire Chief L. Z. (Zeke) Bartlett said today.

The blaze apparently started in the basement while the occupants were away from home. The alarm was turned in by neighbors who notified the smoke but the fire had been burning for a considerable period before detected.

Investigation showed that much of the kitchen floor was burned away and equipment there, including a refrigerator and a range, was damaged. Smoke damage was general throughout the place and paint throughout the lower interior of the home was blistered.

STAGG GUNS FOR ANNUAL UPSET SATURDAY

MINDOKA FOREST KILL SETS ALL-TIME HUNTING RECORD

Veteran Teacher Takes Pacific to Tackle Mustangs

By JIM SULLIVAN
 SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 9 (UP)—This is the fall week-end Amos Alonzo Stagg, beloved mentor of American football coaches, makes his annual big game hunting expedition, armed with his slingshot—the "pea-dinger"—and a lot of football Davids from Stockton.

The "victim" the Stagmen are stalking this year—the 32nd year of Stagg's coaching career—is the proud and powerful Southern Methodist university.

And lest S. M. U., often a Rose bowl possibility and once a Rose bowl selection in this big game expedition of Stagg's too lightly, let the Mustangs be warned of the exploits of California, St. Mary's, U. S. C. and Notre Dame.

Always an Upset

Each year since coming out of University of Chicago to take over coaching at little Pacific, the 72-year-old Stagg has scheduled one big team a year. And each in those games Pacific, displaced underdog, has come up with the line of football that made the big fellows strain and struggle for victory. A win or tie, a tie and some close defeats mark the record of the Stagg annual hunts. And the pea-dinger, which springs a halfback out of nowhere to catch the enemy pitcher, has contributed to the embarrassment of the big fellows. It's a slingshot as powerful as that of the Biblical David.

Stagg's men meet the Mustangs in Tyler Saturday night in one of the last acts of what will be a mighty big football week-end for Pacific coast teams.

Unbeaten Grizzlies Play

The week-end starts tomorrow with undefeated Montana, one of the two unbeaten Pacific Coast conference teams, playing badly bruised O. A. in Los Angeles. The 72-year-old Stagg is taking on the same city, Idaho, going for a win over Gonzaga in Spokane. San Jose State and San Diego and other smaller teams mixing it.

It's Saturday, however, that holds the major interest.

Stanford's team, unbeaten in 13 straight games, stakes its Rose bowl game against a doughy Oregon State team at Corvallis. Oregon State comes to this one fresh from an upset over Washington.

Worst Licking

Given its record in taking 20 years by Ohio State, finds little comfort in the comeback chances against an Oregon team good enough to hold Stanford to a four-point win.

California, also on the comeback trail after that 1939-40 debacle, faces against Santa Clara, unbeaten so far, at Berkeley.

A third comeback team, Jimmy Hopkins Washingtonian, seeks its first win of the year in battling Washington State at Pullman, Sunday. Coach Harry W. Ryan, of their neighborhood feeding in Seat. Francisco.

Solons Take Series Lead

BACHAMENITO, Calif., Oct. 9 (UP)—The Sacramento Solons today lacked just one game of clinching the President's cup in the Pacific coast league slugging playoff.

The Solons took a 2-1 lead in the series edge by defeating the Seattle Rainiers 4 to 1 last night behind the fine fielding pitching and veteran Tony Freitas while his mates were peaking away at the offerings of Al Turpin and Dewey Hurlano.

UCLA to Abandon Freshman Football

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 9 (UP)—U. C. L. A. will abandon freshman football for remaining of the 1941 season, according to an announcement made today by coach Fred Coe.

Lack of sufficient material was given as the reason for the decision.

Charley Root Gets Release From Chicago

CHICAGO, Oct. 9 (UP)—James T. Gallagher, general manager of the Chicago Cubs, announced today that Charley Root, 38, had been given an unconditional release after 10 years of service with the club.

Root reportedly has been offered a coaching job with Los Angeles in the Pacific Coast League.

Grange Picks Notre Dame To Defeat Georgia Tech

All Prophet—No Loss

By RED GRANGE
 The Original Man-in-Motion Bill Alexander has lost none of his, counting at Georgia Tech, but he'll be a miracle man indeed if he fields sufficient strength to stop what papaya is developing into a fish Notre Dame team, Oct. 11.

Notre Dame material was supposed to be considerably below standard this fall, but in repelling a good Indiana team, 10-6, Frank Leahy demonstrated that he will do considerably more than all right in his first year in South with the Fighting Irish.

Players were switched around to build the Notre Dame line, and Angelo Bertelli, a sophomore, solved what appeared to be a passing problem.

can't give Georgia Tech a chance, but the new addition of the Fighting Irish will show Atlanta a lot of new stuff out of its lopsided side.

Colgate Over Dartmouth

My choice of games in the east is the one bringing out Colgate and Dartmouth at Hanover. Colgate and Dartmouth hammered a little Amherst club, 47-7, but Colgate undoubtedly did more good out of last year to wait until the final period to edge Penn State, the Nittany Lions making a surprisingly strong showing.

WIN	LOSE
COLGATE	DARTMOUTH
COLUMBIA	PRINCE TON
SYRACUSE	HOLY CROSS
TEXAS A. M.	NEW YORK U.
FORDHAM	NORTH CAROLINA
INDIANA	TEXAS CHRISTIAN
MINNESOTA	ILLINOIS
NORTHWESTERN	WISCONSIN
MIS SOURI	KANSAS STATE
NEBRASKA	KANSAS
GEORGIA	MISSISSIPPI
TEXAS	OKLAHOMA
STANFORD	OREGON STATE
S. CALIFORNIA	OREGON
WASHINGTON	WASHINGTON ST.

For this and other reasons, I give the Red Raiders a big edge over the Big Green in a hard-fought engagement.

Texas, Tulane March on

Back going into sectional schedules, let's dispose of intersectional scraps. Texas, one of the teams of the year, isn't going to have any more trouble with an untried Oklahoma team in Dallas that it will have with any other outfit on its coast.

The same goes for the crushing Tulane creation in its appointment to take in Houston. The victory of the Pacific is biting off vastly more than it can chew in tackling Southern Methodist at Tyler, Tex.

Clemson has an exceptional aggregation, but Boston college, manning the line, is in a strong position in Boston. I like the Eagles, but not too much. Villanova tackles Florida on the latter's grounds on the night of Oct. 11, and the Gladiators will be dazzled by the shifts and other fancy stuff of Big Clipper Clemens.

Fordham, well warmed up by its pulse-quicken victory over Southern Methodist, should hand Carolina its first defeat.

Washington State over Washington—Because the nickel came down heads.

Mississippi State over Louisiana State—And maybe without too much trouble.

Michigan over Pittsburgh—You saw the best Michigan defense when the going gets tough.

Notre Dame over Georgia Tech—The Irish should do it, but they had better not count their touchdowns before they're hatched.

Missouri over Kansas—By about one touchdown.

Duke over Maryland—And it won't even be close.

Missouri over Kansas—Looks fairly easy, but this one is always a hard-fought game.

Detroit Night-Club Boss to Stage Heavyweight Tourney

Tony Barbaro Slates Giant Eliminations

By HARRY FERGUSON
 NEW YORK, Oct. 9 (UP)—The dining room is slightly warped, there is that all over the crystal ball, but here goes a starting attempt to pick a few of Saturday's football winners.

Minnesota over Illinois—Bruce Smith begins to build the reputation that will make him an All-American.

Pennsylvania over Yale—The Yale will be using "Boo-Hoo" instead of "Hoos, Hoos" when this is over.

Navy over Lafayette—Those Middle can do it this year, on the field as well as on sea.

Ferguson Goes out on Limb With His Choices

Cornell over Harvard—But don't hock the family car on it.

Texas over Oklahoma—21-8.

Oregon over Southern California—The Trojans still haven't recovered from that Ohio State shellacking.

Washington State over Washington—Because the nickel came down heads.

Mississippi State over Louisiana State—And maybe without too much trouble.

Tony Barbaro Slates Giant Eliminations

DETOIT, Oct. 9 (UP)—Frank Barbaro, a former coal miner and auto worker who plucked a fortune out of liminal slimes, may be the man to make the first serious inroads on Promoter Mike Jacobs pugilistic property.

This 42-year-old night club operator who decided it was more lucrative to entertain wage earners than to throw more than 20 tons of beer in the form of 128 fighters—the ring on Oct. 17 for the opening of what he calls "Frank Barbaro's International white boys heavyweight tournament."

Full program

Barbaro'll run the 66 three-round elimination bout on the opening night straight through until the wee hours when he normally would be closing his night club. Two rings will meet the following Friday. The tournament will continue thru for seven weeks.

To Barbaro and his cohorts, the fact the winner will receive $10,000 first prize is apparently secondary to his designation as the "white heavyweight champion of the world."

"Then we gonna take that boy and fight him with Joe Louis," says Barbaro. "We gonna keep challenging until that boy fight us."

Barbaro talked to Jacobs about his punch parade only as a project to throw in with about 100 slugs in his career so far. Included are Golden Gloves, dancers, cowboys, musicians, comedian, ex-convict and even a few seasoned fighters.

Davis Reports 709 Deer Taken During Special 5-Day Outing

A total of 709 deer was bagged by 730 hunters in the Mindoka special hunt, according to Conservation Officer Grover C. Davis, who had charge of the annual event.

The total bag set an all-time record for the forest and the chances are, in the opinion of Davis, that the total deer killed was the highest percentage taken out of a forest in any place in the world this year.

Davis reported that of the 750 participating in the special game and fish department, 750 entered the forest and of these about 20 failed to check out with a deer.

Stanford and Albert Lead Grid Statistics

SEATTLE, Oct. 9 (UP)—Quarterback Frankie Albert and the Stanford university football team lead the Pacific Coast conference in all-around offense, the American football statistical bureau says today.

Albert attained individual leadership with 208 yards in 37 plays against 208 yards in 28 plays run up by Bob Robinson of USC and 207 yards in 28 plays by Curtis Iwamoto of Oregon.

Stanford as a team has amassed 553 yards from rushing and passing in two games, followed by Oregon State, California, Washington State, USC, UCLA, Washington, Idaho and Montana.

Washington State leads the conference in all-around defense, having yielded only 285 yards. California was second; Stanford, Oregon, UCLA, Oregon State, Washington, Idaho, USC and Montana following in order.

X-Rays Show Lew Jenkins Injured

X-rays of Jenkins, who cringed before Welterweight Champion Red Jackson for the title, revealed the injuries, which apparently were suffered in a recent motorcycle accident.

DEPUTY GRANGER TALKS AT HANSEN

HANSEN, Oct. 9 (Special)—There are 1,000 Granges listed on the national rolls, with an aggregate valuation of $28,000,000. John Demond, Boise, national Grange deputy, told the meeting held on Booster night at the Hansen Grange. The speaker also named several sources, as well as several lost in the last session through the tireless efforts of members of the state Grange.

Opening his address, Mr. Demond gave a brief biography of the seven founders of the Grange. The program included a brief history of the local Grange, by Mrs. Frank Trunkley, group singing, a piano duet, Juanita Simmons and Ann Coleman. The Grange male quartet, composed of Donald Dietz, Stuart Scott, Vance Taylor and Charles Swann, sang "Juanita," which was followed by a whistling solo by Mrs. Marie Laugel, with Mrs. J. H. Coulter at the piano. Miss Dorothy Fornwalt sang "Old Folks," with Miss Marjorie Hambo accompanying at the piano. After which the group sang "Best Be the Tie That Binds."

A short tableau, "The Four Square Grange," was the final number, and was cast by Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Prior, as "Old Age," with Mrs. Arthur Koehn as "Youth," and Mrs. J. R. Hall, "Man and Womanhood," standing at the west side. Arthur Koehn as "Youth," and Gene Prior and Juanita Simmons, children, representing the south side.

Mrs. Stuart Scott appeared as Paddy; Mrs. Harvey Fornwalt, Filly; Mrs. Harry Prior, Hope; and Vance Taylor, Charity. Mrs. Donald was reader, to the set music produced by Miss Marie Laugel, and harvest effects were used in setting the stage.

FARM PROGRAM LAUNCHING NEAR

With the 1942 agricultural and range conservation program ready for launching soon after Oct. 15, county and community farm committees of the AAA will meet at 10:00 P. M. in Twin Falls Saturday. The committee will be given details of the sign-up drive which opens next week.

The 1942 farm program will be linked closely with defense and will be based on the need for food and fiber. The program will be given details of the sign-up drive which opens next week.

Changes Aid Defense
Changes in the 1942 program will make possible an increased production of food crops and wider use of overgrown farm producing facilities to assist defense, according to County Chairman Walter Reese, county heads of the county agricultural defense board.

Allotments are to be made for wheat and potatoes. In the production; all other soil-depleting classifications will be abandoned. Farmers who devote 20 per cent of their land to soil conserving practices will receive benefits.

Sign-up and Survey
Reese said that the annual farm sheet sign-up, usually held in the spring, will be combined with a survey of farmers' plans to boost production during 1942. The sign-up is moved ahead in order that the USDA defense board a chance to get the production increase intentions of county farmers. Deadline for the survey is Dec. 1.

GRANGE UPHOLDS HOSPITAL BONDS

Endorsement of the $250,000 hospital bond issue was voted last night by the Twin Falls Grange as one of its members at 10:00 P. M. last night.

Dr. W. F. Passer, physician and surgeon, outlined the situation at the overcrowded hospital and told what the proposed $250,000 would make possible.

Grange Gleanings

Well, Buhl Grange didn't have far to go to receive the gavel in the contest meeting, last Friday, for North-west Grange as I do, I know they didn't.

And, by the way, this is the kind of unselfish service for others that is the best. The contest was held at those who know it best. The Grange used to have a corps of deputies, who only it was to visit each Grange and sort of organize them in the arm, as it were, but now this corps falls to the lot of Pomona and subordinate masters, or persons who get to do the work. If they are too busy or cannot get away because of previous dates, there are the folks who, without pay, do the work for them.

The revival of the Grange at Edin and New Frontier are examples of what may be done by Grangers who have an abiding faith in the Grange to help solve the farmer's problems.

Ray Smith, Welter, master of West and Pioneer, and State Grange treasurer, was the vital force in this case, and the result of his work is two Granges ready to go and take a strong place in south Idaho Grange life. They are going to have a Grange supply working in that vicinity soon.

I understood that Hansen was to talk to them on the way to boost a Grange. Mrs. Durk played selections on the violin, and knowing Roy and Grace as I do, I know they both did well.

Then, seriously, the resolution from the Piler Grange concerning the hospital bond issue, in which Piler Grange and the Piler Kiwanis sent out some very good reasons for the bond issue should be defeated, was endorsed unanimously by Northwest Grange.

In a very short, blunt speech, Master Charles Reed of Northwest Grange "got rid" of the gavel and handed it over to Mr. and Mrs. Holter, who had made one of the most successful contest meetings in the history of the Grange.

Brother and Sister Day of Northwest Grange exemplified the patron's test and the spirit of recognition and State Grange. Mr. and Mrs. Carrington and Brother Miller found no difficulty in working their way back into Grange life. There had been sent outside for that purpose. It was noted that two members of Claremont Grange, near Burley, were present, Mr. and Mrs. Schuchert. (I believe that is the way they spell it, if not I'll correct it next time.) The gentleman I write in this way so I don't have to misspell it again.) Is the rural mail carrier who took the place of E. G. Aasen, hired from route 34. He and his wife will probably take a demit from the Claremont Grange and join the Buhl Grange, and A. H. Harvey will be in the way of prospective sixth degree members for next year. If the State Grange meets in Twin Falls county, He also announced that the national lecturer, James C. Palmer, of New Hampshire, would be at the state Grange for two days.

Harvest Ball
R. O. Harding, master of Fairview Grange, announced a harvest ball and booster meeting for Friday night, Oct. 10, at which all Grangers are invited and Fairview Grangers are asked to bring along their friends, who may be prospective Grange members. He also announced that the most regular meeting would be penny carnival night, on a night especially for our own Grange kiddies, though the kids from 25 to 60 seem to get about as much fun out of it as do the younger kids. Buhl meetings will be held at the Fairview hall.

Master Southwick of Buhl Grange announced that his Grange would pass the gavel to Cedar Draw Grange at the annual meeting, Oct. 14, at the Methodist church basement. The regular session closed with the singing of "Under the God Be With You Till We Meet Again." On roll call it was found that 111 Grangers were present.

The program presented by Lecturer Alice Crawford follows: Vocal solo with yodeling, Grace Dinius, accompanying herself on the piano. "Out on the Texas Plains" and "Yellow Barked," scientific discussion, by Master Southwick. "Under the God Be With You Till We Meet Again," recitation by Jimmy Maxwell. recitation by Jimmy Maxwell. recitation by Jimmy Maxwell. recitation by Jimmy Maxwell.

GOOD WILL ENVOY
Eric Jones, Pomona master, has cordially been invited to visit our good will as far as the Grange of south Idaho are concerned. Perhaps not a week passes that he does not make a trip to some Grange to give them a boost, at the invitation of said Grange. On the night of Oct. 2 he visited West and Pioneer at Emerson school house, near Heyburn, at a big booster night meeting, at which charter masters and other masters received special recognition.

EXCELSION
Excelsior Grange had a big booster night meeting last Friday night and at the request of Eric Jones, Roy Durk and his wife, who planned to attend the gavel meeting, Buhl, went instead to Excelsior to

ROTARIANS HEAR BUSINESS EXPERT

Startling the Twin Falls Rotary club with a surprising display of retentive memory, Dr. J. C. Curran, New York business methods executive, called each member of the club by name as an unexpected highlight of a talk in which he offered advice on how to improve business.

Dr. Curran's memory feat featured his talk—but the "tips" he offered the clubmen presented important recommendations. As for such institutions as banks, schools and churches, he said that these also must be placed before the public as the most effective means of doing so is through the press.

He illustrated the need for advertising by telling of the decline of many products because they were not adequately boosted before the consuming public. As for such institutions as banks, schools and churches, he said that these also must be placed before the public as the most effective means of doing so is through the press.

Here's New
The speaker, head of the Curran School of Better Business Methods, New York City, hadn't met the individual Rotarians before, but by close attention while Hugh Phillips, program chairman, introduced the members and told their occupations, he later called each by name and inserted references to their business.

Guests were G. E. Austin, Salt Lake City; Arnold B. Derfield, Seattle; Bob Barnett and Maurice Talbot, a pair of the high school students who are in charge of the flag donated by Rotary for Lincoln stadium. Rotarian visitors included E. Sid Smith, Shoshone; H. R. Talmadge, Riverhead, L. I. and J. M. Barker, Buhl.

Missionary Society
Has Lunch Session
RUPERT, Oct. 9 (Special)—The Woman's Missionary society of the local Christian church met Tuesday in a covered dish luncheon session at the home of Mrs. N. K. Jensen.

Mrs. Angelo Prunich, assisted by Mrs. Whitley and Mrs. James Floyd, conducted a devotional service. The lesson, "Challenge to Christianity," fourth in a series of six on "Christianity and Democracy in America," was presented by Mrs. A. E. Johnson in the following program:

A story, "Together Does It," Mrs. J. I. Tremaine; talk on "Agencies Working for Democracy" and "The Church Makes a Contrary" by Mrs. Thomas F. Beech and Mrs. Arthur F. Cox. Each talk was followed by a round-table discussion and plans were made for some practical missionary work in the local community.
