Political Issue Flares As Hospital Vote Nears

COUNTY CITIZENS BALLOT TUESDAY ON BONDING PLAN

Let's Open Our Eyes on The Hospital Issue (AN EDITORIAL)

A humanitarian issue goes before Twin Falls county taxpayers Tuesday... under the handicap of a bitterly fought political group which avowedly seeks to kill hospital improvement because it has failed thus far to oust the superintendent.

Voters in the bond election tomorrow will decide an issue that has been a serious problem in Twin Falls county for many years—the condition of our general hospital.

No one can deny the hospital is deplorably inadequate. Practically everyone is familiar with its over-crowded conditions. Many times throughout the year, the corridors and reception rooms are virtually filled with cot-ridden patients—some of them desperately ill.

Because of these pitiful conditions, it is not uncommon for blood transfusions and such to be performed in full view of other cases. In the stuffy wards, patients already fearful of their lives, actually watch others die because there is no other place to care for the dying. It's a condition human decency should never tolerate; one everyone might reasonably fear should his time ever come to enter the institution.

Yet, there are some who will close their eyes to this frightful situation, and reach instead for flimsy excuses to oppose the $250,000 bond issue which comes up for ratification tomorrow. In fact, much of the opposition has been deliberately misrepresented for personal, political and selfish reasons!

There is one thing every voter should bear in mind. Sooner or later, he or some member of his family, will probably be taken to the county hospital, seriously in need of proper care. If the bond issue carries, it will be comforting for him to know when the time comes that good hospital facilities are at his disposal. But if it fails, it will do him no good to condemn the institution's inadequacy. It will be no fault of the hospital or its personnel. The voters are aware of the conditions, and only they can correct them.

It is only fair in matters as serious as this that everyone should give the bond issue open-minded consideration. Analyzing all the objections is one way of arriving at logical conclusions, particularly when there is no argument as to the need for a larger hospital.

It has been said the taxpayers cannot afford a $250,000 bond issue at this time. What reason is there to believe taxes will be any lower for many years to come? Obviously, the trend of taxation is bound to be upward, and what will become of our hospital in the meantime? This same World war that is responsible for our defense taxation will be followed by worldwide epidemics, which is always the case, and what will we do then with our hospital already over-taxed? Can we afford not to endorse the bond issue under these conditions which would see the more logical question.

The criticism that hospital construction could have been done more economically anytime within the past several years has little merit because it was not until the last session of the legislature that county hospitals receiving pay patients could be enlarged by bond issue. And PWA funds were never available for hospitals making such a practice.

That the over-crowded conditions are brought about by non-resident patients from adjoining counties is another contention. Records show that of the 3,457 patients admitted to the hospital during 1940, only 408 were from out of the county, and more than half of these were emergency cases which would have will open at 1 p. m. in all county precincts Tuesday. Balloting will close at 7 p. m. Two-thirds majority of approval by those who vote is needed to carry the bonding plan.

Political fight against the bonds has brought to the fore... the Republican central committee and a stand president of the Twin Falls County group.

Statement Denied One statement made by Hull brought emphatic denial today by C. B. Lindsey, chairman of the board of county commissioners—a Republican board which refused the passage of the bonding plan.

Final Blast The pre-election campaign will end at 8:30 p. m. today when Claude H. Detweiler, business and high school teacher, speaks over the local radio station. Mr. Detweiler said this afternoon that he plans a vigorous indictment against the hospital board.

LET'S FACE FACTS who constitutes the opposition in the HOSPITAL BOND ELECTION?

On this Tuesday, the taxpayers of Twin Falls county will have an opportunity to make possible the improvement of our hospital. For the most part, every one interested admits the necessity of enlarging and generally improving our hospital to take care of present day needs.

It's time our citizens learned the truth concerning this group who place their own desires higher than the needs of our sick and injured people. Naturally, many arguments concerning details of the proposition have come to light—many of them are sincere objections and these objections have been met to the best ability of those persons who have led a long battle for an improved hospital.

And why is this group so opposed to the bond issue? BECAUSE THE PRESENT BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS REFUSED TO GIVE THE JOB OF SUPERINTENDENT TO A MAN OF THAT GROUP'S CHOICE. And in retaliation, this group has been operating in the last few days as opposition to an issue which should be a clear cut matter of civic improvement.

VOTERS! Don't be confused - don't be sidetracked by minor issues which have been injected by a small group of politicians. Look at the issue squarely and then use your best judgment and VOTE YES

BRITISH PLANES BOMB TARGETS IN GERMANY

400 LONG-RANGE CRAFT DRIVE ON NORTHWEST AREA

LONDON, Oct. 13 (AP)—Almost 400 long range British bombing planes took part during the night in one of the greatest royal air force raids on Germany of the war.

Four-motored bombing planes, carrying new types of high-destructive bombs, raked targets in Bavaria, the Rhineland and northwestern Germany.

Munich, the Bavarian city which is a Nazi stronghold, and in which the merciless anti-Jew laws were passed in the Reichstag, was a principal target. It contains many important war industries.

The attack on Bavaria was the first since Jan. 27 when Regensburg was the target. British planes bombed Munich Nov. 8, 1940, and hit the greatest oil refinery in Europe after Adolf Hitler had finished a speech there in celebration of the anniversary of his 1923 putsch.

A second attack was made on Bremen, Germany's second port, which is an important submarine base.

The Swiss army command at Berne reported "unidentified" foreign planes had dropped bombs on the village of Bubikon in the Thurgau canton, near the German frontier, during the night, and three persons had been killed.

Swiss quarters estimated that since Friday night, when improved weather permitted resumption of the British offensive, more than 1,000 British planes had attacked targets ranging from Norway through Germany to occupied France.

Emergency Treatment for Wreck Victims

First aid treatment was being administered to six injured persons at the Three Creeks CCC camp 78 miles southwest of Twin Falls when this picture was taken last evening. One man, Francis Peck, 31, Twin Falls, was badly injured when the car carrying members of a deer hunting party left the road and went over the edge of a steep canyon grade.

Public Forum

FINDS HOSPITAL BOARD HAS MADE "GOOD" REPLY

Editor: Times to make some comments as I see it, in the Forum regarding the controversy of the proposed bond issue to enlarge the county hospital and things in general.

I think that the assertions of some of the expressions already made and casting reflections on their motives and basis for their views are wrong as I know nearly all of the members of the Grange and Kiwanis and the hospital advisory board and think they are entirely sincere and honest in their views expressed and have no reason to doubt their sincerity and I know some of them are heavy taxpayers and would not pay more taxes if they did not think they were justified in doing so.

And for sake of brevity, will take the answers made by the members of the hospital advisory board as they are given in their "ad" relating to the objections made by the Grange and Kiwanis committee.

I think they have answered that completely under the conditions existing in prior years, as regards the economical part of it. I think it could have been done a few years ago it could have been done at a savings of from one-fourth to one-half, but they have shown it could not have been done.

The overlooking consists partly in the fact that the residents. But I do not see how this can be remedied very much as stated by the hospital board.

I think the Grange etc. committee have forgotten that a serious and sincere attempt was made a few years ago, as I remember it, to get some church or private organization to take over the hospital, the Catholic and Lutheran churches, but they have shown it could not be done.

It is to be noted in my mind as I for one am against any further debts of the hospital, but can be helped, and an attempt is being made to have it not to allow off. So far I have not entirely made up my mind yet and have been about it since, and facts and information before me I do.

Outlines in the West we practically follow in the midst of plenty of oil. You'd think that western gasoline rationing would be about as imminent as a coal shortage in Newcastle, war or no war.

But we fall out here do few possible gasoline shortage or rationing. Not because there's a lack of oil, but because there aren't enough tanks.

The government sends tankers to Britain, and those tankers are released or sold by Union Oil and other American oil companies. This is a turn, leaves us short over here.

New it takes 2 railroads of trains of 50 cars, each to haul as much oil as goes in just 1 tanker. And out here on the big shore of our oil is moved by tankers.

So I asked the boss what Union Oil was doing about it. And, as seems to be the policy of Union—they're doing plenty. In the first place, they're securing every barrel, truck and tank car they can get their hands on.

But there's not all. As a matter of fact, a tanker when we broke out, Union suggested something of this sort might happen, and ordered 7 new tankers, without aid or urging by the government.

Well, 3 of these ships are already delivered and the rest due at 6-month intervals. Of course, they won't end a shortage of transportation, but boy how they help!

The Union is doing every thing possible to minimize gasoline rationing. They're getting every tanker, short-circuiting gasoline rationing. It has been doing in tons and war for over 50 years.

THE people who think the United States should support the Hitler propaganda methods have wanted the Mellett OOR or the Donovan OOR (office of the coordinator of the Lower Middle States) to start out-gobbling Goebbels. The people who have been scared of propaganda have been alarmed by the existence of these organizations, and have therefore accused them of doing things they haven't been guilty of.

MOVIE RADIO GO-BETWEEN From the above half-dozen paragraphs it can be seen that OOR is now definitely in the position of a go-between on the wholesale proportions of some of the independent departments and bureaus. But movie radio is not isolated in the press.

FOOTBALL POWER SWINGS AWAY FROM WEST

Stanford, Tulane, Mississippi Lose Week-End Battles

By JACK GUENTHER

NEW YORK, Oct. 13 (U.P.)—The balance of national football strength teetered in three directions today as the east, the midlands and the southwest moved into the season's fourth week with their dominant positions reaffirmed at expense of a crumbling south and the luckless Pacific coast.

The most prominent week-end victims were Stanford, Tulane and Mississippi State, but plenty of ambitious climbers moved into the spots they vacated. The best were Texas, Fordham, Minnesota, Northwestern, Navy, Michigan, Penn, Duke, Santa Clara, Clemson, Vanderbilt, Rice, T.C.U., Texas Aggies, Ohio State and Nebraska.

Add to these Cornell, Villanova, Dartmouth, Columbia, Army and Temple and you have the "who's who" of 1941 to date. Each in most instances the positions are precarious. Every big squad continues conference or intercollegiate play this week against strong foes and there are three standout contests.

Top Notch Games

The midwest—A four-way battle among Minnesota, Michigan, Northwestern and Ohio State is in store for the Big Nine crown. The first three teams turned back Illinois Pitt and Wisconsin by making scores last Saturday while Ohio rested after its victory over Southern California. This week Michigan tackles Northwestern while Minnesota faces Pitt, Ohio State tackles Purdue, Iowa goes against Wisconsin and Wisconsin battles Illinois against Drake, Notre Dame, which blanked Georgia Tech, goes a breather to Carnegie Tech. In the Big Six, Nebraska rolled over Kansas to lead the conference but met Indiana this week.

Maryette upset Michigan State, which upset Marquette, plays Santa Clara.

The southwest—Texas, Rice, Baylor and Texas Aggies, and Texas Christian, who meet this week, all are undefeated. Texas moves against Arkansas after whipping Oklahoma and Rice, surprise conqueror of mighty Tulane engages L. S. U. Baylor faces Villanova and SMU takes on Auburn.

The south—Duke and Clemson rolled over Maryland and Boston colleges and retained perfect records. Vanderbilt whipped Kentucky and took a clear lead in the only open class division in the Southeastern conference. Duke meets Colgate this week while Clemson tackles South Carolina and Vanderbilt meets Georgia Tech. Tennessee and Alabama both won easy triumphs and meet this week.

The east—Dukeban Fordham tops the independents and will meet West Virginia while Villanova opposes Baylor and Temple engages Penn State. The two service teams, Army and Navy, both won handily and go against Yale, beaten by Penn, and Cornell, which conquered Harvard. In the Ivy league, Penn continues defense of its title against Princeton. Dartmouth, which whipped Colgate, faces Harvard and Holy Cross meets Massachusetts.

Coast Conference Muddled As Major Teams Are Beaten

Stanford Loss Opens Fight For Rose Bowl

By JIM SULLIVAN

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 13 (U.P.)—The Pacific Coast conference race for the Rose Bowl, after three big football Saturdays, today was right back where it started, only more so.

Seven of the eight major teams in the conference have lost conference games and W. S. C. has been beaten twice. Independent Santa Clara is unbeaten, but the Rose bowl has a closed-shop contract with the conference.

INDIAN FALLS

Stanford, which won 13 straight games starting with the last game of 1939, fell from grace Saturday when a big, fast, fighting Oregon State college team dumped the Indians, 10-0. A wet ball and some Stanford injuries contributed to the defeat, but there were no complaints about the victory which established the Beavers as a top contender for the Rose bowl.

Oregon, tied for the conference lead with Stanford, Oregon State and U. C. L. A., overpowered U. S. C., 20-0. Oregon is now the highest-scoring team in the conference, with 55 points in three league games. It was Oregon's first win over U. S. C. since 1915.

Washington finally got into motion to wallop W. S. C., 23-13. The Cougars got a 13-2 lead at the half, but Washington rolled through for three touchdowns in the last two periods.

BRASSO WHIP BEARS

Santa Clara, gunning for another post-season bowl game, still ran at half speed, although whipping California 19-0.

U. C. L. A. won a conference game.

FLASH!

Joe "Flash" Gordon, second baseman for the world champion New York Yankees and hero of the recent world series, stopped in Twin Falls overnight—but was gone this morning like the nickname he carries.

Gordon registered at a local tourist park last night, but was up and away early this morning without even stopping to have breakfast.

The youthful second-sacker of the champions was driving a big Chrysler car with an Oregon license.

Oregon has a chance to win undisputed first place next week by beating California at Portland. Washington can move into contention with a win over U. C. L. A. and if U. S. C. beats W. S. C. the Trojans will move into the group that has two wins and one defeat. Oregon State will tie and Stanford has a breather against U. S. F. Santa Clara plays an important interconference game against Michigan State.

Other Saturday scores:

Southern Methodist 34, College of Pacific 0; Western Washington 6, Portland 6; Portland airbase 12, Boise airbase 7.

The meeting, originally scheduled for today, was postponed because of conflicting business of commission members.

Bengals Chalk Up Win Over Western State

POCATELLO, Oct. 13 (Special)—University of Idaho, southern branch, grid players had returned home today with another victory notched on their belts.

The victim this time was Western State college of Gunnison, Colo., and the score was 13-6.

led by Dale Dykeman and Bob Patton, a pair of hard-gunning backfield sees, the visitors punched across 190 touchdowns in the second stanza to take the game away.

The first came when Dykeman passed to Willson for a touchdown and the second a few moments later as Dykeman took a State punt and went 75 yards through a broken field for the counter. Guard Rex Wells kicked the extra point to complete the local scoring.

The lone Western State counter came when Hiltcock, a freshman quarterback, matched a Utah fumble out of the air and went 70 yards for the score.

EXTENSIVE SABOTAGE CLAIMED UNDERWAY IN NORWAY

ORGANIZED ARMY OF SLAVS FIGHTS GERMAN TROOPS

By United Press
Norwegian dispatches reported today discovery of extensive sabotage to newly-built German anti-invasion fortifications in the Alesund district of Norway and said the local Nazi military commander had given the people a "last warning" to cease these activities.

The dispatches, received in Stockholm, said all those who had participated in destruction of the fortifications would be punished severely—"if adults are found responsible they will be court-martialed; if children the parents will be held responsible."

Many persons already have been arrested, it was said. The sabotage was reported to have been carried out after the completion of recent "invasion exercises" by German troops.

The British radio reported meanwhile that Jugoslavia now has an organized army which is fighting sporadically against the German occupants and in one engagement captured 700 German officers and men. A Stockholm paper claimed guerrilla war still was in progress between Greeks and Bulgars, particularly in mountain districts.

Czech sources in London claimed a large sugar warehouse in Prague had been burned, a Nazi troop train had collided with a freight train, killing 15 persons at Ceska Trebova, and German gasoline storage tanks at Tabors set afire.

HERE'S WHAT HOSPITAL BOND ISSUE WILL MEAN

In order to give the taxpayers of Twin Falls county a clear conception of just what they will receive if they give a favorable vote on the hospital bonds, an Evening Times reporter made a study of the plans of the architect for both the contemplated new construction and the reconducting of existing building.

Taxpayers voters will decide the issue Tuesday. If the bond issue vote is successful, $250,000 will be provided to bring the hospital up to standard and eliminate the overcrowded condition which now exists.

The Scope
Following is the scope of contemplated hospital construction as taken from the plans of the architect:

General hospital building additions:
1—To construct an additional masonry building onto the east end of the existing building. To be of masonry (concrete) foundations; brick and masonry walls for all exterior walls, stair well walls and the interior walls enclosing corridors. To comprise a full basement, first story, second story and a partial third story to be occupied for a surgery.

2—To construct an additional masonry building onto the west end of the existing building. To be of masonry foundations, brick masonry walls for all exterior walls, stair well shaft, and the interior walls enclosing corridors. To comprise full basement, first floor, second floor and a third floor to include ward rooms and sun porch. To include one new service elevator.

New Entrance
3—To construct at the existing central front entrance of the existing building an additional building to be constructed of masonry (concrete) foundations, brick exterior walls. This building is to comprise a full basement and one story. To be used for the administrative offices and for the main entrance to the hospital.

Boilers and existing equipment:
1—To construct a brick masonry addition to the existing boiler house at the north side wall for coal storage.

2—To remove the two existing boilers and to install two new boilers and install new stokers.

3—To reconduct the existing equipment.

4—To construct a concrete pipe tunnel from the existing boiler house to the existing general hospital buildings and its contemplated additions.

Reconditioning Present Building
Reconditioning general hospital building:
1—To remove interior partitions to enlarge existing rooms and for the purpose of relocating rooms for the operation of the hospital plant in connection with the contemplated additions. This work of relocation of rooms will exist in the basement, on the first floor and on the third floor.

2—To reconduct the existing ventilating system by the installation of new coils and jets.

3—To install a new system of piping for hot and cold water to replace existing system.

New Roof
4—To install a new roof on the existing deck.

5—To insulate ceiling of the third floor of the existing general hospital building.

6—To repaint the patch plaster. Superintendent's residence:
To construct a basement and one-story residence to be located upon the northeast corner of the property.

Construction to be of concrete masonry foundations, brick walls for exterior walls. (Note: Officials point out that this construction is not compulsory and has the possibility of being eliminated in the final plans if the bond election is successful.)

Movable equipment (general):
1—Operating tables, operating room lights, operating room instrument cases and other minor equipment including sterilizer and tables.

2—Furniture and equipment for all additional wards, private rooms and semi-private rooms.

3—Additional office furniture, kitchen and dining room equipment.

4—Additional service equipment.

5—Furniture for hospital board rooms.

6—Furniture for doctors' rooms.

7—Miscellaneous surgical and medical equipment.

8—Furniture for maids' room in basement.

The Items Analyzed
Following are the major items of expenditure under the present plans:
1—For the additions to the general hospital building: $185,100.
2—Reconditioning existing general hospital: $7,000.
3—Movable equipment: $22,500.
4—Architectural fee, on basis $25,000 construction cost: $10,715.
5—Other costs: $2,485.
