When all America calls for the best, it's a large order. America always makes up its mind about quality slowly and carefully. But, once it is certain that a product is the best of its kind, America quickly demands its production on a tremendous scale.

With more Budweiser than ever before, there has not been enough to go 'round. Never before in history has there been a situation like this: A vast expansion program carried on for eight years made it possible for the world's largest brewery to produce more beer in 1941 than ever before has come from a single brewery or group of breweries operating under one management—and yet it was impossible for us to fill all orders.

Such a demand, previously unheard of for any similar product, made it difficult to maintain adequate distribution in all of the 48 states at all times. Through it all, our dealers have shown great patience and for this we are grateful. America prefers Budweiser. Your own preference for Budweiser is a compliment to your own good taste—proof that you recognize the outstanding quality that has made Budweiser the biggest-selling beer in history.

With the completion of our expansion program, we trust that you now are getting Budweiser whenever you call for it.

RECLAMATIONISTS HEAR WARNING TO PREPARE FOR DROUGHT

EXPANDED PLANS FOR DAMS URGED TO SAVE WATER

BOISE, Oct. 29 (AP)—Idaho irrigationists who attended the national reclamation association meeting in Phoenix, Ariz., have brought back a warning to prepare now to cope with a long series of droughts which may menace the entire world.

The note of warning was sounded by Halbert P. Gillette, Marston, Calif., newspaper publisher, who has devoted years to study of drought cycles, according to William Welsh, secretary of the Idaho Reclamation association.

Through study of geological formations, and celestial movements, Gillette has evolved a theory that minimum rainfall years—the periods of greatest drought—came in 202-year cycles. He has tested his theory by checking with known precipitation records and historical documents relating about great droughts of the past.

Last minimum in 1782
He found that the last minimum rainfall phase of the 202-year cycle came in 1782.

Gillette now comes up with a weather forecast for 41 years from now and predicts a great drought will strike in the year 1923.

"It will be 43 years before the maximum dryness comes," Gillette forecast in his report to the convention, "but for at least 60 years after 1924 there will be severe recurring droughts."

Blames Sun Spots
Planetary movements and sunspots are the greatest contributing factor to this 202-year cycle of droughts, he believes. Since it will be impossible to change the course of the sun during the period preceding the next drought, Gillette suggested an expanded program of dam construction to supply ample storage water when the dry years come.

"To meet these conditions will call for the building of additional reservoirs in some instances, less waterfulness in the use of water in others, and more extensive use of underground storage," he told the convention.

FIRST RUN FOR POTATO STARCH GETS UNDERWAY

Infant run of the Magic Valley Processing company plant here, designed to produce starch from cultivated potatoes, was underway today.

Operations at the new plant on the truck lane saw big machinery move for the first time under the direction of Supt. Henry Jenkins. During a run of seven months the plant will employ 13 men, with nine-hour shifts being observed each day of the week.

Booisie Area Revenue
Officials of the new concern estimate that the $50,000 plant will bring $15,000 annually into this section of Idaho.

The low-grade potatoes which are used in the process first enter a 125-ton bin. From there they are conveyed to a washer and then enter a grinder. After passing through a strainer they enter the "shaker" screens from which a mealy substance is carried to be precipitated in tanks for a 24-hour period.

Those in charge point out that this allows the starch to settle. Impurities rise to the top and are drained away.

At this point the precipitated starch is agitated to produce a sludge that is pumped to centrifugal tanks. Thirty per cent of the water is removed before final operations in the drier come, this at a temperature of 320 degrees Fahrenheit.

First shipments soon
The starch is then packed in 100-pound bags and is ready for shipment. First shipments of starch manufactured locally are expected to leave here by rail for Chicago next week, according to Claude Detweiler, company president.

Officials estimated that as soon as manufacturing operations are well underway, experiments will start with an eye toward finding some use for the by-product.

CHILDREN SHARE DOLENS' ESTATE

Three daughters and one son will share the $10,900 estate of Oren Dolan and his wife, Mrs. Martha E. Dolan, both of whom were killed in a car-truck crash north of Hansen last Thursday.

Probate of Mr. Dolan's will was asked in petition filed by Mrs. Stella E. Pillars, Elk, Wash., oldest daughter. She requested appointment of Tony Oliver, Kimberly, a brother-in-law, as administrator with will annexed. Her two sisters and one brother joined in petition asking that Mr. Oliver also be named as administrator of their mother's estate.

The will, dated Oct. 3, 1935, slightly more than six years before Mr. and Mrs. Dolan were killed in the crash, contained a provision for equal division of the estate if the wife did not survive Mr. Dolan or if "both she and I were to be accidentally killed at the same time."

The estate is that of Edwin N. Glah, who died at Casper Oct. 20 while visiting his son there. Nominee for administrator is Joe Glah, Hansen, and the two petitioners also ask that he be appointed to handle the estate of their mother, Mrs. Eattie M. Glah, who died March 20, 1930 in Twin Falls.

How About Idaho?

If you want to know what the hectic activities at Washington mean to Idaho and the northwest, make it a daily habit to read John W. Kelly's "At the National Capitol," brand-new column in the Evening Times.

Kelly, in addition to general interpretive views, concentrates on how Washington's doings specifically affect our own state. That's something you can't get anywhere else... so naturally you find your Evening Times going to considerable expense to bring it to you.

Already Kelly has told you why Idaho can not defend contracts... and what the copper shortage may mean in boosting Idaho.

POT SHOTS WITH The Gentleman in the Third Row. A.H. PURISM IN PROSE WINS GREAT VICTORY!

Our Hope Is Our Ability to Learn. If there is one thing on which all thoughtful people agree, it is this: The kind of world Hitler is trying to impose will never be beaten by an effort to return to the old ways, the old order.

We who have known freedom, who have been born in freedom, knowing only freedom all our lives, are secure in our conviction that only under freedom can those new goals be achieved.

A sense of social responsibility is the key. Scientists who formerly labored without a thought of what was to be the use of their inventions and developments are beginning to ask those questions.

We're Proud to Accept. A country and its civilization may be judged by its prisons. What sort of offenses send men to prison, how they are treated there, and with what objective, are a pretty good measure of a civilization.

Wasting Time. Doctors acting for a selective service board had Joe Louis before them. They measured his height. They put him on the scales. They examined his teeth and eyes.

OCTOBERITES RECALL NOTED PEOPLE, EVENTS OF MONTH

October beats them all as a "lucky" month, agree a group of southern Idaho Octoberites, and so enthusiastic are they over their anniversary month, that each year they meet to dine and talk about the month's happenings and what "Who's Who" people who share it with them.

They call themselves the Octoberites. This year's celebration was staged last Sunday at the Twin Falls county fairgrounds. Filer, and because the day was so typically Octoberish—sunshine and warm weather long table was spread outdoors, where guests were seated for a pot-luck dinner. Mr. J. Lloyd and Mrs. A. C. Rutherford were the principal speakers.

The table was centered with two birthday cakes, one decorated in Halloween colors and the other in white. This was presented to T. J. Lloyd by his wife, Mrs. J. Lloyd.

Officers Elected

Mr. Lloyd was elected president of the Octoberites; Mrs. A. C. Rutherford, Mrs. Effie Harmon, Buhl, and Mrs. J. W. Ferguson, Clarkfield, Utah, were named vice-presidents; and Miss Jean Dinkelaaker, Twin Falls, secretary. Place and time for next year's meeting will be decided by the officers. It was generally anticipated to have it earlier in the month next year.

Mrs. S. C. Sorenson, Salt Lake City, who is visiting her sister, Mrs. Emma Hansen, Twin Falls, for her birthday, was a special guest. Each guest told about his or her best-remembered birthday. Mrs. Beem declared that her last one, her 80th anniversary, was her best one. Youngest one present was a five-year-old who was enthusiastic about his most recent birthday because he received an airplane.

Mrs. Lloyd, reminding his audience that Columbus discovered America in October, also called attention to the fact that famous Octoberites included John Adams, second president of the United States; Theodore Roosevelt, another famous leader of this country; Noah Webster, the "Dictionary Man"; Jenny Lind, the Swedish nightingale; Franz Liszt, one of the most accomplished composers of his era; and others.

Famous Women

Mrs. Rutherford restricted her comments to "Women of the Year" in October, commemorating Gertrude Atherton, San Francisco novelist and great-granddaughter of Benjamin Franklin; Mrs. Emma Yearlan, Salmon, "Sheep Queen of Idaho"; and Mrs. Katharine A. Ammon Morton, Chittenden, Wyo., only woman member of the Council of National Defense, as some of the better known Octoberites.

Mr. Lloyd concluded his address with an original tribute in verse to the month of his birth.

STRIKERS HALT PRODUCTION OF U. S. MACHINE GUNS

WIS. CONFERS WITH TAYLOR ON COAL MINE FIGHT

By United Press

Strikes halted production on 50-caliber machine guns and on 425,000 shipbuilding orders in the navy at two Michigan plants today.

While attention centered on today's conference at Washington between John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers (U. M. W.) and Myron C. Taylor, former chairman of U. S. Steel, on coal miners' strike threatening steel production, the strikes in other areas were increasingly affecting manufacture of the tools.

The Kelsey-Hayes Wheel company's Plymouth, Mich., plant stopped turning out 30-caliber machine guns when 1,450 United Automobile Workers (U. A. W.) went on strike for higher wages and discontinuance of a new agreement on coal miners' strike allegedly are hired at lower wages to replace male employees.

Navy Work Crippled

Work on ships for the nation's navy, hard-hit by a strike of welders in west coast yards, was further crippled by a walkout of 1,200 members of the Industrial Union of Marine and Shipbuilding Workers of America (I. U. M. S. W. A.) at the Defoe Boat and Motor Works, Bay City, Mich. Jurisdictional strike of welders, key workers in the metal trades, threatened to spread to additional shipyards producing close to 100 completed war and merchant ships.

This situation seemed to be growing more serious along the Pacific coast while in the east, Richard Frankenstein, head of the aircraft division of the United Automobile Workers (U. A. W.), said today that a strike of CIO workers in five eastern states in sympathy for CIO workers engaged in a continuing fight for management of the Air Associates, Inc. at Bendix, N. J.

Through the office of production manager, Frankenstein said, the welders return to work pending settlement of their dispute with the Aircraft Division of the U. A. W. Welders at three San Francisco shipyards were voting today on whether to join their craft comrades who have walked out for four days and four Los Angeles shipyards.

Welders Essential

Welders are essential in shipbuilding. Some yards already had been forced to curtail their production and will be compelled to close eventually if the welders' strike continues. Their grievance is not against management but against the A. P. W. which refuses to grant them an autonomous union.

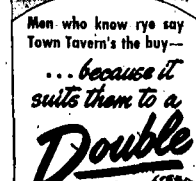

The air associates strike centered around a dispute as to whether the management had lived up to the spirit of an agreement between the union and government pressure, "settling" weeks-old strike. The company had agreed to reimburse all strikers in their former jobs and at their former pay, and at once. The company said the management was not doing this.

Sen. Pepper Favors Declaring War If Needed to Beat Hitler

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29 (Special)—Sen. Claude Pepper, D. N. C., yesterday said that if an American expeditionary force were needed to crush Adolf Hitler he would favor such a course, but he would not favor Germany's defeat can be accomplished without sending troops.

Pepper made the statement in an exchange with Sen. D. Worth Clark, D. Ida., during the second day of debate on the administration bill to remove neutrality act shipping restrictions.

He informed Clark that additional shipping tonnage would be made possible—would not cause him to vote for a declaration of war.

Pepper's speech in favor of the bill brought clashes with senate opponents of administration foreign policy and an extemporaneous give and take session continued on the floor of the chamber this session.

Wheeler Enters

During the exchange Sen. Burton Wheeler, D. Mont., interrupted to say that President Roosevelt's speech that night was causing him to revise his previous opinion that the President himself was being "pushed into war" against his will.

The speaker, said Wheeler, "was a speech that indicated to me very clearly that he thought we were in the war and we ought to get into the war with Hitler."

"I have felt all along that the President really did not want to take us into war, but was being pushed into it by the wildlies and the Dorothy Thompsons and the Nazis. But I am afraid I am going to have to change my opinion and conclude that he himself wants to go to war."

Clark opened the exchange by asking Pepper whether he would favor a "constitutional declaration of war" if it were necessary to defeat Hitler.

Makes Position Clear

"Yes, sir," Pepper replied instantly. "I'm glad you gave me the opportunity, because I was going to make that clear."

"Do you think," Clark pursued, "that Hitler can be defeated short of a declaration of war?"

"Yes," said Peppers Clark then asked whether Pepper would favor sending an expeditionary force if it became necessary to defeat Hitler.

"I'm not sure," said Pepper, "but I think it is possible to defeat Hitler without a declaration of war. I think the answer to that is yes. But the senator from Idaho is one of those who is not willing to give the alternative a trial."

"Let me ask the senator a question," Pepper continued. "Would you send an expeditionary force? Answer yes or no, as I did."

When Clark failed to make a direct reply Pepper said, "well," and the galleries laughed.

"All right," said Clark, "no. But let me amplify. Led the senator assume that this country will become a victim of Hitler?"

"The senator also assumes," said Pepper, "that we will have to send an expeditionary force."

Jaycees View Safety Movie

The film was shown during the regular noon session at the Park hotel and narration for the movie was by Grandland Rice, noted sportsman. It compared good sportsmanship on the highway with that on the athletic fields and outlined the rules applying in each case.

As another part of the safety program sponsored by the organization under the direction of Stanley Phillips, Monday night safety interviews are featured over the local radio station. First program with Everett M. Sweeley, county prosecutor, was heard over the station this week. Next interview will be Monday, Nov. 3, at the same hour.

Special newspaper phase of the safety crusade will be a series of weekly cartoon drawings, with tentative plans calling for these to be alternated in the Times and News.

Also discussed at yesterday's session were plans for a delegation to Jerome next Monday night for presentation to club members at that point.

No evening session will be held during November. It was announced, regular date that month falling on Armistice day.

NOT MUCH CHANCE for you to go clocking different brands of motor oil to prove which one flows fastest in Eskimo season. Yet the quicker the lubrication at every cold start, the less "dry rub" on delicate surfaces in your engine. Then why not change now to Conoco Nth oil for Winter and shun any bets on which oil flows fast, faster or fastest? For you get an OIL-PLATED engine from patented Conoco Nth motor oil, and OIL-PLATING is high up in the cylinders to fight fierce grind, much sooner than any plain oil-flow alone could even start wiggling.

Conoco Nth oil, you see—all in addition to speedy flow—fastens oil-plating to inner engine surfaces, as if by "magnetic attraction." This close-bonded OIL-PLATING doesn't all year to drain down—not the whole night long. So it's up to its topmost point before you even touch the starter—and that's "faster than fast," to aid you toward anti-friction starting, whatever the weather gets to be.

Even up in Iceland, of course, any engine's normal firing is hotter than the Land of the Hottentots. Yet you don't want to "burn up the oil!" And Conoco Nth oil proved that it could last for more than twice the mileage averaged by the other big-name brands of oil that competed in the Impartial Death Valley Death-

Test. When all five other quality brands in this certified test were used up—engines ruined as each strict 5-quart fill gave out—the Conoco Nth oil that competed under identical conditions was still up at 2.7 quartal Certified!

A known economy record... plus a known aid to safe prompt starting... when you change to Conoco Nth for Winter OIL-PLATING, at Your Mileage Merchant's Conoco station. Today. Continental Oil Company

GAVE TWICE THE ENGINE LIFE!

This oil that OIL-PLATES gave the engine more than twice the life averaged by the engines using the other oils in the Death-Test.

In these times use your oil prudently. And use oil that's great for engine life—changing regularly as recommended.

Good starting—good lubrication against all needless wear—helps conserve gasoline, too.

RUPERT AND BURLEY RISK UNBEATEN CONFERENCE RECORDS

Irish Gridders Hold Slight Edge in Betting

NEW YORK, Oct. 29 (U.P.)—Go back a decade or more to the golden era of Army-Notre Dame football rivalry, when such stars as Marbury Schwartz were playing for the Irish and Christian Keener Cagle was picking 'em up and laying 'em down for the Cadets.

Remember Earl Blaik and Frank Leahy? Probably not. They were very much behind the scenes in those days although they were vital factors in the fortunes of the opposing gridiron warriors. Blaik was an assistant at Army under Bill Jones and Ralph Sasse; Leahy was at Notre Dame under the late Knute Rockne used him as a sort of unofficial coach and consultant.

Great Battle Looms

Now comes another Army-Notre Dame game, one that promises to be a battle at Yankee stadium this Saturday with both teams coming up to the test undefeated and untied. And the coaches are no other than Earl Blaik and Frank Leahy, now in full charge of football at the institutions where they got their groundwork.

That's the setting, and it's worth the price of admission for some 75,000 who will pack the stadium that falls on Saturday.

The game has been a sellout for weeks.

Irish Favored

Notre Dame, largely because of the superior reserve strength the Irish demonstrated in crushing such teams as Georgia Tech and Illinois, stands as a 10-0 favorite. But Army, practically the same squad that defeated only Williams last year, has some strong players. Big cleve triumphs over Yale and Columbia.

Blaik has turned in one of the tight coaching jobs of the year at the point and an Army win wouldn't go down in anybody's book as the year's biggest upset.

Fish Screen "Propaganda"

Here's some propaganda for installation of fish screens on canal systems in south central Idaho. These members of the Army-Notre Dame "catch" 100 crabs, on the north side recently. He got them by the simple process of walking down a dry canal bed and picking them up—dead. They had been stranded when the canals were drained. The biggest one at top of pile weighed over eight pounds—and all the rest he holds tip the scales at three pounds or better. (Times Photo and Engraving)

Idaho and Montana Show Good Statistics

SEATTLE, Oct. 29 (U.P.)—Montana and Idaho, orphans of the Pacific Coast conference, won't regain their full membership status until next year. Meantime, however, they're doing well by themselves on the statistical side.

Montana, for instance: The Grizzlies now hold down second place in total offense and all-around defense. Idaho ranks fourth and seventh, respectively, in those departments according to figures released today by the American football statistical bureau.

Of the two teams, the Vandals appear to have made the more spectacular comeback. Under Coach Francis (Brazie-Dogleg) Schmidt, Vandals rank second in forward passing, and so far have averaged better than 200 yards per game from rushing and passing.

Stanford's conference leaders took a large drop in ground gaining as a result of a game with Washington. But the Cards remained on top of the list, gaining 120 yards in a five-game average of 316.8 yards.

California increased its margin over the Bears in total defense, holding USC to 102 yards. The Bears' opponents have gained only 621 yards in five games, for an average of 124.2 yards.

Individual coach leadership in total offense, which combines rushing and passing, continues to flourish with USC's Bob Robinson, who has amassed 581 yards. Curt Meacham of the University of Oregon had the best all-around record, leading in rushing, first in punting, fifth in total offense and sixth in passing.

Work to Start On Kimberly's New Gym

KIMBERLY, Oct. 28 (Special)—Work will get underway on the new Kimberly school gymnasium on Monday, Nov. 3, it was announced here today by Bupt. L. A. Thomas after receipt of word from Bob Hampton, Buhl, district WPA supervisor.

The work will start on Monday with a superintendent and two laymen on the job. One week later a force of 18 men will be on the job. Hampton assumed Thomas' work last several weeks by lack of men on the WPA, due to the labor shortage in this area which has been fronted by the state department of education. The completion of the gymnasium will be the first job of the state department and it was thought that a priority rating might be made possible through the national work camp program for the Japanese original religion of Japan was called "Shintoinism."

Dick Harlow Named as Coach of Week

NEW YORK, Oct. 29 (U.P.)—His team has scored only seven points in season, his only player is named Endicott Peabody, II, who came to Cambridge by way of Back Bay and Grinnell, his hobby is collecting birds eggs and the row of goose eggs he dug up on Dick Navy's perfect record wins soil Harvard of Harvard the award of United Press coach of the week.

Harlow has been a story ever since he came to Harvard from the wilds of western Maryland in an effort to put the brakes on the Crimson's 10-year pagitan tantrum. An outlander who had attained worldly Penn State, he became entangled in the Ivy that sprouts from every leafy branch of the campus. The Lovells may have been speaking to Cabots but nobody was speaking to Harlow.

Lilla Harvard

But he persevered, motivated the players and in a couple of seasons had lifted Harvard football by its bootstraps, pardon by its gaiters. Although the Crimson hasn't won any championships, it has been a fairly capable football force ever since.

This year prospects were fairly bright around Cambridge until national defense took a couple of key players and Peabody dumped the Crimson 19 to 0. The following week it appeared a disastrous season was in the books.

Crisman Flourishes

But in two weeks since then fair Harvard has flourished. The Crimson first upset Dartmouth 7 to 0 and then pulled the most stunning upset of the eastern season Saturday by holding heavily favored Navy to a scoreless tie. Peabody's brilliant leadership and the letter R pronounced solidly in his life until Harvard taught him the word grit, has virtually assured himself nomination as All-American guard.

The veteran Harlow is the man behind the scoring resurgence. He has been coaching football for high school 30 years, at Penn State, Colgate, Western Michigan and Stanford. Harlow and apparently hasn't missed a trick.

P. E. Leaders Slate Meeting At Wendell

In order to present to the public physical education in all its phases, and in order to meet as a professional group to further interested within that group and make for better teachers of athletics, the district leaders of physical education, P. E. teachers, who met at their sectional meetings last Saturday during the week of Oct. 27, will meet at Wendell on Nov. 1.

This meeting will launch a series of similar sessions to be held throughout the year at surrounding towns of the district, and is the result of several years' attempts toward this goal, which is being spread to state organizations of the kind, as is the policy of many surrounding states.

Panel discussions will take place at the first session, with physical education instructors from Burley, Buhl and Twin Falls to present their respective views on the continuance of girls' participation in competitive basketball.

Ever since the district which has someone in charge of work for physical education, is being conducted by officers of the association, the public is invited to attend the November and future meetings.

Miss Madeline Garvin, Twin Falls health instructor, is president of the association; Miss Collins Amantuz, Buhl, secretary; and Kenneth Resold, Twin Falls, is treasurer and chairman of membership.

The Greater and Lesser Antilles are two groups of islands in the West Indies lying between Florida and South America.

G. A. A. Maps Plan For Play Day

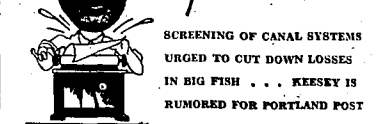

Constitution for Girls' Athletic Association of Twin Falls high school was announced at a meeting last week at the high school, and plans will include a play day in the near future.

In order to maintain active membership in the organization, girls must participate in at least one sport each semester; if they fail to do this, points towards letters, which heretofore carried over an indefinite period of time, will be dropped completely, and those who are absent from classes will then be put on probation for the very first.

The play day will be for the purpose of helping those schools which have done away with competitive basketball for girls to establish programs to replace this activity, which has previously been their only sport for girls. It will also aim to give those schools which still sponsor girls' basketball additional athletic activities.

Castleton, Hanscon, Dietrich, Curlew, Jarvick, Eden, Wendell will be among those schools which will be invited to attend the play day in the near future. The program is being held also for the purpose of aiding in the establishment of G. A. A. chapters in schools interested in Korea chorus girls are trained at a government academy.

SCREENING OF CANAL SYSTEMS URGED TO CUT DOWN LOSSES IN BIG FISH... KEESY IS RUMORED FOR PORTLAND POST

Members of the Southern Idaho Fish and Game Association gather here tonight for their annual fall banquet—and if the talk we hear going around is serious, then the best thing that one of the speakers could talk on would be the screening of canal systems throughout this area.

Slated to be a guest at the session is Burton Perrine, Twin Falls man, now state fish culturist. Mr. Perrine is a member of the state department director, will also be present; as will George W. Booth, member of the state fish and game commission.

Now—this writer admits he knows very little about fish screens. In fact, we have yet to find very many men who do know much about them. But the fact remains that some way should be found to keep fish out of canals.

The anglers who go out and return with trout weighing from three to eight pounds are very few and far between. But when the canal systems were closed on the north side last week, William Wood, a zone sportsman, walked along the dry bottom and picked up dozens and dozens of trout that anglers would have missed.

With the fish planting system gaining full force throughout the state, it appears that the loss of work of increasing the trout population is going to get nowhere unless the death toll in the canals is stopped. To be sure, there will be a big supply of the little ones—but it's the big ones that anglers live on, and they are the canals are dried up.

A few years back, a fish screen was tried on the Buhl canal.

END

Open fishing season for the 1941 season neared a close today as the Nov. 1 deadline approached.

All of the lily streams that dot the landscape throughout south central Idaho will be closed Saturday, Nov. 1, until next spring, according to Grover C. Davis, district conservation officer.

The exception, of course, is the Snake river, which is open the year around; and Murlough lake and the canal systems connected with that lake.

Bobcats Meet Buhl as Pirates Tangle With Norby's Jerome Tigers

Thundering down the stretch toward undefeated records before their traditional Armistice day battle, Rupert and Burley high school Big Seven conference teams play league battles this week-end—and are heavy favorites to reach the deciding game without a conference blemish on their record.

The Pirates tackle Coach John Norby's eternally improving Jerome Tigers and unless Coach Gerald Dellinger can bring his boys around to good condition after that three-week harvest vacation, there's the possibility that the Pirates will know they have been in a battle before the day is over.

The Norbys scored one of the upsets of the season last week-end when they won their first game of the year—a decisive victory over the Gooding Senators. With nearly all youngsters in the lineup playing their first year of high school football, the Tigers have shown steady improvement and may give the giant Rupert squad a tough time of it.

Wendell places its unsold record on the line at home by playing the Pocatello aggregation, and should come out on top. Other class B contests send Glenns Ferry to Halley, Kimberly to Aberdeen, Declo to Albion, Hagerman to Fairfield.

In the only scheduled Class B six-man game, Castletrood tangles with Acquia. Other games may be played in this loop but no advance announcements have been made.

Party of Hunters Gets 4 Deer, 2 Elk

A party of six men from the Clover area reported back into town here last night that they had been on a Soldier mountain hunt, it was stated today by Albert Schroeder.

The group spent five days on the hunt and all came up with at least one animal. Besides Albert Schroeder, others in the party were E. O. Skragstad, Robert Scharsner, Al Skragstad, Arthur Tysen, and Harold Kobia.

Bag Limits Reported: In Ducks, Pheasants, Deer, Elk—and Coyotes!

(BY CHARLES G. SUMNER)
 (SPECIAL)
STOFURUM, Oct. 28 (Special)—The special 100 deer hunt is in completion in the Soldier mountain game preserve, not far from Etcham, and reports and evidence looked over indicate that the gunners are having better luck in that area than they had in some other preserves.

A special hunt for 100 elk also opened in the same district, and it is noted that a few shooters, at least, had cleaned up on the quota allowed. The application list was filled, it was cited by the state game department.

Many of the local parties went to the Soldier district via the Warm Springs route, much shorter and better roads. Some of the boys reported that they had bagged one in the Soldier hills some snow could be encountered over the route. One party coming in Friday morning consisted of Lt. Reagen, sportman who had two elk and two deer. They stated most of the hunters had not been experiencing any trouble in finding plenty of big game, and the weather was fine for the quest.

Two types of birds are abundant. It seemed evident, however, that while it was a little chilly in that region, most of the game was unwounded due to the climate in the least, a condition frequently prevailing. It is one of these physical factors that would prevent a large buck walk out of the brush, look the mirror squarely in the eye with a quizzical expression, or a large buck quietly walks into the brush again. Two such were brought to light. One went out in the brush and a large buck stepped out of the timber at very close range, pulled down on the deer, then lowered his horns, and with one more he turned for the second fumble—and the buck sauntered off. Asked if he was ahead of the deer he responded quite humorously: "I guess so; I could not find the damned saucer." Another notice ran into a hunt, both equally surprised, a few set snares together, and neither felt at

Young Negro Flash to Get Severe Test Friday Night

By HARRY FERGUSON
NEW YORK, Oct. 29 (AP)—It's hard to make yourself heard above the shouting of football fans these days, but the boys who think brain bashing is the best of all sports least of all, they have a good one on tap in Madison Square Garden this Friday evening.

They may be right at that. Come 10 p. m. Friday they will take the wraps off a young Negro fighter named Ray Robinson, and whether he really is in the great tradition of Joe and Jeffry Armstrong or whether he's just another "flash" burnt out quickly...

law before starting a trip to never-never land. Zivie also clings to the theory it is his job to detect violations of the rules and anything the referee doesn't see is his business. Consequently there have been times when Zivie borrowed Britain's slogan of "thumbs into his opponent's eyes which can be embarrassing, not to say painful."

The theory that is going to draw some 15,000 customers is that they know they will be in on either the chief of a national club to the boxing heights of which they see a promising career smashed.

...so far the kid has done plenty of flashing. He is tall, rangy, quick as a cat and a hard puncher. He has had 114 fights as amateur and professional and there is not even a draw on the books against him. He has won 'em all.

Some Robinson's competition hasn't been anything to worry him into a nervous breakdown, but that situation is going to be taken care of this time. His opponent is sending him against vice, tough, scared old Fritz Zivie, former waterweight champion, a man who knows all the answers and can make up new ones if necessary.

Robinson is Robinson's arm. One is nobody knows whether he can "take a punch downstair," as the boys say—meaning whether body punishment slows him down. Nobody knows because so far the kid has been so much better than his opponents that he hasn't had to worry about taking anything. He's been too busy dishing it out. The other is that he seems to be inclined to do considerable of his road work on Harlem dance floors on the theory that the same muscles are involved in the execution of a left jab and the conga.

Zivie is about the best ditcher that could be found to test the theory that Robinson is vulnerable. It throws a TNT ball through the body, moving around with the assurance of a man who has been in the business for years and can take a lot of socking on the

RITE HELD FOR ONE-TIME MINER

GOODING, Oct. 29 (Special)—Final rite was held for Mrs. M. Marlett Saturday at the Cochenran chapel with Rev. William A. Thompson in charge of the service, and Rev. C. H. Northrup assisting. Music was provided by John Alexander who played background music and sang "The Old Rugged Cross." Pallbearers were Ward Meyer, Henry Cleveland, Henry Bryant, Archie Noll, Cliff Trenching. Interment was in Elmwood cemetery.

Clyde B. Metcalf was born in Indiana Dec. 13, 1889 and died Oct. 23 in Gooding. His parents moved to Walla Walla, Wash., when he was an infant. When he was 10 years old he joined a pack train to the gold mines of Idaho and was employed as a chore boy in Idaho City. Later his parents joined him in Idaho and he was largely responsible for their support.

In 1887 he went to Ketchum where he engaged in contracting the removal of ore to the smelters. In 1887 he married Mary Louise Miller, Caldwell, and two children were born, Walter and a daughter who died in infancy.

In 1895 they moved to Caldwell where he engaged as building contractor using bricks which he manufactured himself. While living there he was for a time a member of the board of trustees of the College of Idaho.

They came to Gooding in 1907 where he was in the creamery business as long as he was able to work. He lived at the home of his son for the last nine years and for a year had been bedridden.

Mr. Marlett was a charter member of the Presbyterian church which was organized in Gooding in 1907.

Surviving are his son, Walter, and two grandsons, all of Gooding, four brothers and one sister.

WOMAN ORDAINED FOR PASTORSHIP

SHOSHONE, Oct. 29 (Special)—Ordination services for Miss Elizabeth Caudill, pastor of the Shoshone Baptist church since September, 1935, were held at the local church last week with Rev. Roy E. Barnett, Twin Falls, presenting the sermon. Miss Caudill, who is the second woman in Idaho to be ordained as a Baptist pastor, comes from a ministerial family. Her father, Rev. B. F. Caudill, Hamilton, O., a brother, Rev. W. E. Caudill, Proctorville, and an uncle also are in service for the Baptist church.

Charge to the candidate was given by Rev. H. Northrup, Gooding, and the charge to the church was made by Rev. Rollo Speer, Pocatello. Rev. Speer is a member of the state ordination council.

Ordinating prayer was offered by Rev. Earl Kaurin, Jerome; devotions were led by Rev. C. M. Baerzen, Castelford, and moderator for the services was Rev. O. L. Johnson.

Rupert, "The Holy City" was sung by Mrs. Henry Harger, accompanied by Mrs. Paul Phelan, at special request of Miss Caudill.

Miss Caudill appeared in the afternoon for examination before the ordination council, comprised of pastors and delegates from churches of Gooding, Halley, Shoshone, Jerome, Rupert, Twin Falls and Castelford.

The newly ordained pastor was graduated from the Baptist-Missionary training school, Chicago, and received her bachelor of arts degree at Carson-Newman college, Jefferson City, Tenn. She was a missionary at Huntington, W. Va., from where she went to Halley. She came to Shoshone after spending eight months at Halley.

Contributed to the Twin Falls Community Chest drive by the Evening Times and J. R. Williams, who draws "Out Our Way".

Franklin's average daily consumption of water is 40 gallons per person.

SPUD CHIEFS RAP GENERAL SUBSIDY

JEROME, Oct. 29 (Special)—Announcement was made today through the offices of County Agent Eugene W. Whitman, that members of the administrative committee of the potato marketing agreement for southern Idaho and Malheur county, Oregon, are on record as opposed to the federal government granting any subsidy or establishing a diversion program in any area until such area has organized and put into effect a potato marketing agreement.

This expression was made in a resolution form and was passed at the second meeting of the committee in Pocatello Oct. 18.

Lloyd Bell, manager of the committee, announces that the bulletins and special notices will be issued from time to time. Any person or firm wishing to receive such notices should notify the office at box 407, Pocatello.

Survey Completed In Ketchum Area

KETCHUM, Oct. 29 (Special)—A unit of the U. S. geologic survey for the northwest has just completed a geographic survey of this immediate section of Blaine county. It encompasses elevations, water courses, meander lines, tentative power sites and all other information matter required by the geographical division of the government department.

The crew spent the past week on 10 miles of Warm Springs creek, northwest of Ketchum, and completed the work to Croxy Cove hot springs, from which point the unit left for Boise and Tacoma. The party was in charge of Engineer Fred F. Lawrence, and operating in conjunction with the state reclamation body of Idaho, E. V. Berg, commissioner.

The engineer cited that such cooperative work has been the rule in Idaho and other states for a considerable period. In scanning the roads and streams of the Warm Springs area a potential dam site was selected as a point a short distance above the old Guyer hot springs, on Warm Springs creek. Though it was stated this was a practice of the government for future reference and did not at this time comprehend the promotion or construction of a power plant of any sort.

Engineer Lawrence and his assistant came from the Tacoma office.

A temperature of 88 degrees below zero has been registered at Yellowstone national park.
