DEATH TOLL 12,
42 HURT IN EAST
TRAIN ACCIDENT

By RALPH C. TEATSBORTH
DUNKIRK, Oct. 10 (AP)—
Wreckage scattered over a mass
of twisted wreckage today, seeking additional victims in the wreckage of a fast Pennsylvania passenger train in which at least 12 persons were killed.
The flyer left the tracks while racing through this central Ohio town at 70 miles an hour.
Coroner J. A. Mooney of Hardin county said 12 bodies had been removed, and he believed "there are more inside the cars." At least 42
persons were injured.
The fast Chicago-New York train
"The Pennsylvania," jumped the tracks almost directly in front of "the village depot" as it sped
on the night. The derailment
at 10:22 p. m. (EST).
The locomotive flopped on its side and skidded for about 100 feet. The first coach was cut cleanly in two and piled up ahead of the locomotive.
Parts of the train derailed into
and demolished nearby signs, towers. Several cars are telescoped into one another and the others
were in "cray zig-zag positions"
along the right of way.
The engine and coaches in a lounge car, a diner and a combination baggage and smoking car
also were smashed. The Pullman baggage car, however, was comparatively little damaged.
At Chicago, H. E. Newcomer, vice-president of the road, announced that a preliminary investigation indicated
a cylinder head, blown from a freight train on an adjoining track, derailed the limited before it was time to flag it.
A signal tower alongside the tracks was smashed and its splintered timber covered the locomotive and caught fire from the firebox. Within minutes it was blazing fiercely.
Township Chief Schwartz was in the wreck but escaped serious injury,
though he suffered from shock.
"I really don't know what happened," he said. "I suddenly found myself in the air. I was flying and myself all around me. Smoke from

Priorities Expert, on Visit Here,
Lists Necessities for Construction

By O. A. KELKER

Under the priorities setup
in connection with the national defense effort, all new construction—both public and private—stopped as of Oct. 10
so far as the federal government is concerned.
That was the statement made here
today by Ralph E. Bristol, Salt Lake City, district manager, office of production management. Bristol "is here today and will remain until noon tomorrow to answer questions
of local contractors, city officials and others concerning the priorities
situation."
Regarding the stoppage of public and private new construction—such as homes, court houses, postoffices,
water main extensions and so forth
—Bristol said in an interview with the Evening Times that there are only three exceptions to this rule.
"The exceptions," he pointed out,
which are necessary for the defense
of the country, are:
1—If the construction is deemed to be necessary for the defense of the country.
2—If it is deemed necessary from the standpoint of public health.

with local businessmen
today and will continue conferences here tomorrow morning.

3—If it is necessary from the standpoint of public safety.
"If the supply agent has the material necessary for new construction,
not coming under one of these headings, and is willing to let the builder have it, then the construction can go ahead," Bristol said. "But as the dealer reduces his present supply, without priority, he is reducing his stock and cannot get it replaced in most instances."
Concerning the setup in the Salt Lake City, the priorities expert said that "this section will feel the pinch more and more. The rulings have been made and it pertains to the Twin Falls and Magic Valley sections just as it does to the great industrial centers of the east."
Short on 300 Items Bristol said that the nation, at the present time, was "critically short"
on some 300-odd items.
As an example, he pointed out that the copper mines of America are running 24 hours a day, seven days a week and are observing no holidays. This same situation is found in the great steel mills and many other industries.
In September we imported from South America 40 million tons of copper, added to the 35 million tons produced in this country. We waited more copper from South America

but nobody had the ships to get it over." He continued:
"This war is one of machines and materials come from metal, therefore the demand on our producers and fabricators of metal is greater than ever before in history. Machines of war are fearfully complex. A tank has over 3,000 metal parts;
a large bomber requires two miles of copper wire for the various connections necessary; a battleship takes two million pounds of copper to build."
"Priorities is Care"
He said that "priorities is not the trouble but the cure. It is the hope of getting these things done. It simply means who shall have it,
and who shall not—on the basis of national defense."
He pointed out that without some sort of government control "the big fellow would take everything away from the little fellow and then the little fellow would be out in the cold with nothing at all. This way, they'll get something out of it."
He explained that the background
under the priorities setup and said that when the President called for national defense it was the same as if the head of a large corporation had called his board of directors to

9 SHIPS SUNK IN ITALIAN CONVOY
BY BRITISH NAVY

LONDON, Nov. 10 (AP)—A British
sea and air blitzkrieg hit the axis
in the Mediterranean this week-end, destroying two Italian convoys and damaging another in what may be the curtain raiser to an offensive to drive German and Italian forces
from Libya.
The attack was led by the royal navy which pounded on the two convoys in the central Mediterranean, and sank nine of the 10 ships as well as one destroyer out of an escort which comprised about four destroyers and two cruisers of the powerful 10,000-ton eight-inch gun fleet class. The 10th merchant ship, a 10,000-ton tanker, was set
afire from two stern.
It was the biggest British success
of the war against Italian supply ships. The British suffered no loss.
"The royal air force joined in attacking another convoy in the same area, damaging and probably sinking one merchant ship and 'effectively machine-gunning' a second destroyer and other merchant ships."
Capt. W. G. Agnew, who led the British naval forces into action against the convoys, was awarded the order of knight commander of the order of the Bath today, one of the highest decorations for his feat.
Reports from Cairo said other RAF action included a three and a half hour attack on a British infantry column in the desert, and southern Italy, centering on an airfield and railroad yards, and barraging raids on the axis naval bases at Benghazi, Bardia, Sollum and Berberia.
The naval attack on the two convoys was carried out by two British cruisers, the 6,270-ton Aurora and Penelope, and two 1,920-ton destroyers, the Lancelotti and Libby.

British Leader
Asserts R A F Is
Luftwaffe Equal

By WILLIAM B. DICKINSON

LONDON, Nov. 10 (AP)—Prime Minister Winston Churchill declared today a large part of the American navy was in action against the axis, that the royal air force had achieved at least equality with the luftwaffe and that Britain would come to aid of the United States "within the hour" in event of war with Japan.

Churchill declared the British empire would reject an expected Hitler "peace offensive" by which the "guilty
men who have let hell loose
upon the world" hope to escape with "their fleeting triumph and ill-gotten plunder"
from the net which is now
closing upon them.

"The power of the democracies is continually growing," Churchill said,
"and it is a practical proof for all who have eyes to see that the forces of freedom and democracy have not yet with any ally in Germany
representing the Nazi regime."

Britain, he repeated in reference to predictions of an early "peace offensive" by Adolf Hitler, will "never enter into any negotiations with Hitler
or with any ally in Germany
representing the Nazi regime."

The prime minister, speaking at a time when the Red army appeared to be holding steady against the German army, said that the British empire
was ready on all sides.

ACCIDENTAL SHOT
WOUNDS BOY, 12

Justin G. Smith, Jr., 12-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Justin Smith, Cottage apartments, was in the company general hospital here today
in "critical" condition from an accidental bullet wound received yesterday about 1:30 p. m.
The 6-foot, 10-inch physician said that the 22 bullet which hit young Smith in the chest is believed to have lodged in the heart.
Records show that the boy was accidentally shot by a discharge of a gun in the hands of a friend, Robert Woodhead, 13, son of Mr. and Mrs.
James Woodhead, 455 Fifth avenue
north.

Woodhead was showing Smith the gun in the former's home and accidentally pulled the trigger. Smith was seated in a chair at the time and had a pet dog in his lap. The bullet passed through the dog and struck the boy before it struck Smith in the chest.
Young Woodhead told officers that he did not know the gun was loaded at the time of the accident.
The injured youth was rushed immediately to the hospital where an emergency treatment was started.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10 (AP)—Reuben James, U. S. naval aviator, who had received a letter written by a Reuben James sailor to his mother, setting the destroyer sunk two submarines before it was more submarines. Wheeler did not elaborate or identify the writer.

The Montana Democrat, leader of opposition to President Roosevelt's foreign policy, also read to the senate a dispatch from London quoting the U. S. Navy as saying the ship sank two submarines before it was torpedoed.

The letter was written by many people
in the United States realize what Mr.
Churchill said. Wheeler com-

FIGHTING QUIET
ON RUSSIA FRONT

The only specific fighting on the eastern front today claimed by Adolf

PLEASE TODAY IN BRIDGE OVERLOAD

Hearing at which plea will be presented in a misdemeanor charge resulting from damage to Hansen bridge was to be held this afternoon in probate court.

James A. A. Bailey, granted continuance this morning until later in the day because Prosecutor Everett M. Sweetley was busy with calling of the criminal calendar, opening of district court.

Defendants are Richard Wilson, truck driver, and the employee of Construction company. Possible penalty under the statute (section 4-20) could be fine, imprisonment or both. The charge is for damage to bridge as well as the driver's license. State civil suit for damages to the bridge is pending.

The complaint, signed by State Officer V. K. Barron, accuses Wilson of driving over the bridge of excessive weight on the bridge this morning. Operating a truck with a tractor on its bed, according to the complaint, Wilson is charged with having taken a load of 35 tons onto a span marked for a 10-ton load.

A steel truss member or support snapped under the burden, and the bridge settled an estimated six to nine inches. The structure was thrown out of alignment. It was promptly closed to vehicular traffic pending completion of repairs by the state.

cerned with the production of profitable production. Our government needs more eggs. The extension service is in full sympathy and is anxious to help.

At the session today the agents, together with Moore, discussed among other things breeding, housing of laying stock, feeds and feeding, sanitation, confining of laying stock and quality of product.

Regarding feeds and feeding, it was pointed out by Moore that the farmer should not use the product of his farm insofar as possible. This means the utilization of the feed grown on his farm to the greatest possible extent and it is means by which to save and gain.

No New Buildings Needed

In this section, Moore said, very little new poultry housing is needed. "There are enough old laying houses to accommodate more than double the present poultry population. Most of it is in need of some inexpensive remodeling which, if done, would make it as efficient as new. This is in line with the suggestion made by the secretary of agriculture. No a lot of interest-bearing debts but applied efficiency," Moore said.

12 PASSENGERS DIE IN ACCIDENT

the locomotive just about covered them.

When it left Chicago, the train carried 77 passengers and a crew of 20. It was stopped at Port Wayne, Ind., and Lima, O., and there was no way of ascertaining at once how many passengers got off and got on there.

Bodies Mangled
Bodies of the dead were horribly mangled. In the first minutes, one passenger not injured, climbed out of a mangled Pullman and walked up to the front of the wreckage, thinking he might help the train crew. He stumbled across the body of Fireman J. L. Gehardt, of Port Wayne, Ind. It had no head.

The injured were taken first into this town's little station. Ambulances arrived quickly from the nearby towns of Findlay, Lima and Bluffton, and the local hospital. There were 12 dead and 11 critically hurt, though many had painful wounds.

Employer workers aided railroad workers in extricating bodies and aiding injured trapped in their cars. A light snow was falling and fares for the bodies were being paid.

Grinding of Brakes
There was a grinding of brakes and then chairs and furniture and people were thrown about the car," he said. "I jammed the cards into my pocket and some red ink came out for a corridor. Luckily, I got out."

Lynn Mahan, Chicago, public relations officer of the American Locomotive company, said he was thrown from his bed in a Pullman compartment. Uninjured, he dressed and climbed out of the car.

"The engineer was hitting it up at near top speed, it seemed," he said. "I had gone to bed. I noticed the train was slowing down and was trembling. I knew we were off the rails. It went about a hundred feet before it stopped. The engineer, R. E. Schuler, Port Wayne, was injured but his condition was not critical. He said he did not know the cause of the accident."

TRIO OF BANDITS BEING KEPT HERE

Three Idaho bandits, brought here from Nevada Saturday night, will remain in the Twin Falls jail until officers get ready to take them back to Gooding, where they will face charges, Sheriff W. W. Lowery said this afternoon.

The three prisoners are Edgar Leroy Pruitt, alias W. L. Reeder, Twin Falls, and W. Walling Boles, who were returned to this section of the country from Las Vegas, Nev., by Sheriff Gooding. Gooding, L. C. Ormer, Idaho prison guard, and Ray Mummy, Las Vegas deputy sheriff.

Some charges could be filed against the trio after their activities of the past two weeks since their escape from the Gooding jail and their capture in Nevada. Just what the exact charges to be filed will be not known today although at present time they are held on burglary accusation.

Sheriff King was to confer with Sheriff Lowery this afternoon as to what action will be taken against the trio. In any event they will be lodged in the local county jail until they are ready for them at Gooding," Lowery said.

HOUSE APPROVES LIMIT ON DEBATE

acknowledged that he was "for some restriction, some position to be taken, but not the committee in charge."

Cox charged that the nation was in "no mental attitude for war and being led to the slaughter." He said that he has indicated for some time that the United States is actually in the war and its security depends on the nation's attitude for arms production at top speed.

While arrangements for consideration of the measure were being made, the House was in session, congressional leaders conferred with Roosevelt.

Made No Roll
After the White House conference, House Democratic Leader John W. McCormack of Massachusetts said he had not pulled the House but that he thought the amendments would pass.

Senate Democratic Leader Alben W. Barkley discussed the measure as a general discussion of legislative matters, and said the senate would wait house action on the measure until after taking up that subject.

McCormack said the conference touched on anti-strike legislation in a "very general way."

Some leaders looked to an address by the President, tomorrow, but the White House officials said more votes. Mr. Roosevelt speaks during the Armistice day ceremonies at the tomb of the unknown soldier in Arlington cemetery. His address is scheduled for 9 a. m. MST, on all major networks.

Approved Arming
The neutrality revision bill originated in the House and passed by a vote of 239 to 138.

The senate added to it, however, a provision for repeal of all other shipping restrictions in the neutrality act—repeal of the prohibition against arming ships—into war zones proclaimed by the President and against ships sailing directly to ports of belligerent nations.

Thermo-Charged

WINTER PROTECTION OTHER OILS CAN'T MATCH

NOTICE: We don't mean "easier"—we mean the "EASIEST" winter ever for your engine, battery, starter! Why? Because Thermo-Charged "20 RPM" keeps a better oil film on engine parts than other motor oils at any price, anywhere.

This means much less wear—Thermo-Charged "20 RPM" film stays put on pistons and cylinders while your engine is stopped. It means a well-oiled, easy-starting motor that saves battery and starter, too. And it means unequalled "hot-spot" protection when your engine warms up. Change to Thermo-Charged "20 RPM" now—for your car's EASIEST WINTER.

NORRIS READY TO BACK CURB ON DEFENSE STRIKES

VETERAN LIBERAL STATES PRESENT LAW INEFFICIENT

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10 (U.P.)—Sen. George W. Norris, Ind., Neb., veteran liberal and champion of labor causes, today pledged his support for any constitutional legislation sponsored by the administration to curb defense strikes during the emergency.

"If the President feels that present law is insufficient," Norris said, "he will probably ask for more legislation. I would support him fully in such a request."

Restricted Injunctions
"Loyal" a supporter of liberal house legislation, Norris was co-author with Mayor Fiorello H. LaGuardia, a former member of congress, of a statute severely restricting the use of injunctions—an effective anti-strike weapon—in strikes.

Norris said the dispute in the captive coal mines, involving the question of a union shop for the United Mine Workers (U.M.W.), was an example of a controversy "which patriotic men should settle in a hurry during the emergency." He said present legislation "apparently doesn't cover that situation."

F.D.R. Hasn't Power
"I thought at first the President would have authority to seize and operate the mines," he said. "But now, I am told he cannot take such action."

The strike in the captive mines, so-called because they are owned by the mills and do not serve the public, has been temporarily postponed pending recommendations of the national defense mediation board. U.M.W. President John L. Lewis has insisted it will be resumed Nov. 15 if the board does not recommend a satisfactory solution.

Look into the Last Mile—FIRST

MAYBE it's a little hard to picture this trim Buick as it will look on that unknown day, when you come to turn it in.

There may be scars in its fenders, and use-stains on its upholstery—but the thing that matters is it'll still be going great guns.

You can count on that husky valve-in-head straight-eight to be ticking off the miles with the satisfying efficiency it now boasts.

You can rely on Compound Carburetor to hold your gas-costs down, squeezing every last power-packed mile out of the fuel you burn.

There won't be any loss of easy comfort in those all-coil springs, or any need for care to keep them there.

Think about it right away and see how Buick's extra mile, handled on all other Buicks.

CCC AT PAUL TO WORK ON CANAL

CAMP PAUL, Nov. 10 (Special)—A project that will benefit farmers living on 40,000 acres in the vicinity of Burley is being undertaken by CCC enrollees at Camp Paul. Work has started on the repair of the main south side canal, and when it is completed loss of water by seepage will have been eliminated in this main artery of the local irrigation system.

Already, excavations have been made for the laying of 9,000 square yards of rip-rap in the canal, and work will soon start on the placing of layers of sand and clay bases for the stone used for rip-rap. The masonry will be completed through application of a layer of sand. When the project is completed more than 10,000 square yards of material will have been placed and three or four months of labor by a full CCC company will have been expended.

Production on the farms in this territory will be stepped-up as a result of a more plentiful water supply. That the canal will never be in danger of washing out will be a certainty as soon as the present work is completed. Through elimination of loss of irrigation water by seepage the status of agriculture in the territory will be aided for a period of more than 50 years, according to Virgil A. Paik, educational adviser at Paul CCC camp.

300 Utah Prisoners Offer Services in Armed Forces

By JAY ROSENBERG
SALT LAKE CITY, Nov. 10 (U.P.)—If the United States, Great Britain or Canada need 300 men in a hurry for their armed forces, they would have only to come as far as the Utah state prison.

Warden John E. Harris revealed today that nearly his entire prison population had volunteered for "war service."

He said it all came when the prisoners attended one of the regular moving pictures held by the prison.

At the start of the show, a messenger depicting the President, was flashed on the screen.

Mr. Roosevelt had been filmed making a speech of a patriotic nature which had a "stirring effect" on the 372 prisoners.

They clapped for a long time after the President's picture had gone off the screen. The next morning, according to the warden, one by one they filed into his office and asked, "What can I do for national defense?"

He said the majority wanted to "join up" and estimated 90 per cent of the prisoners had indicated the desire to join any foreign service—of course they were granted their freedom in return for their services.

Warden Harris said that in many cases the motive was not entirely unselfish. He said he was positive many of the prisoners were serious in their desires, and they were motivated by a "keen patriotism."

One prisoner, an excellent radio technician according to the warden, wanted to go with a contingent of men recently sent to Great Britain to operate radio apparatus.

Warden Harris said the prisoner, serving one year to life for burglary, was outstanding in his field and had built a number of radio receiving sets which outclassed commercial models by a "long way."

At any rate, the prisoners will have their chance. The next meeting of the pardon board was scheduled to take up cases of men willing to join the armed forces as "skilled workmen."

Larsen-Sarazin Vow Pledge at Cathedral

Many Twin Falls county residents were present at the wedding Saturday of Miss Mary Isabelle Sarazin, Nyssa, Ore., one-time resident of Boise, and Russell Warren Larsen, Kimberly. Dean Frank A. Rhea performed the ceremony at 11 o'clock at St. Michael's beautiful Episcopal cathedral, Boise, and James L. Strachan, St. Michael's organist, played the wedding music.

The bride is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Joseph James Sarazin, Nyssa, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard J. Larsen, Kimberly. Mrs. Sarah Bower and Mrs. Flora Anderson, grandmother and aunt of the bridegroom, and Miss Dee Hoppler and Miss Lorraine Jensen were present from Twin Falls. Hansen guests at the wedding included Miss Ann Larsen, Russell Larsen, Mrs. S. A. Walton, Miss Mary Walton, Jack Walton and George Walton.

Traditional white slipper stain formed the wedding gown, styled with a fitted bodice, full skirt and train, the neckline embroidered in seed pearls.

She wore a Juliet cap and fingertip veil, and carried a bouquet of Cecil Breuners roses, gardenias and bouvardia.

Mrs. Clara C. Peterson, Portland, sister of the bride, as matron of honor wore a soft blue taffeta gown, designed with a sweetheart neckline and full skirt, and she carried a bouquet of roses and chrysanthemums. Miss Margaret Sarazin, another sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. She wore a deep blue taffeta frock with a sweetheart neckline and full skirt, and carried a bouquet of roses and chrysanthemums. Both attendants wore flowers in their hair.

Robert Olin, Kimberly, was best man, and the ushers were Kenneth Cochran and Joseph Robertson, both of Nyssa. A large reception in the Crystal ballroom at the Hotel Boise followed the ceremony. Friends from Nyssa and Parma assisted at the reception.

In the receiving line with the bride and bridegroom, the matron of honor, the bridesmaid and the best man were Mrs. Clara C. Peterson, Mrs. Sarazin, Mrs. Olin and Mr. Olin. Mrs. Sarazin wore a tailored suit of deep blue-green boucle and a corsage of gladioli and roses. Mrs. Larsen wore a blue-velvet dress with a corsage of violets and white bouvardia.

The bride, a graduate of Nyssa high school and the Fashion Art school, San Francisco, also attended the Oregon State college and the University of Oregon, where she was a member of Alpha Omicron Pi. She was engaged for several years in the advertising department of Falk's store in Boise.

Mr. Larsen, also a graduate of Nyssa high school, is a member of the Twin Falls Elks lodge, and is manager of the Hansen Grain and Seed elevator.

Following a brief wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Larsen will be at home in Kimberly. Her going away costume was a blue herringbone dress with which she wore a white tailored blouse, black pumps and gloves and an off-the-face hat with a touch of red matching her huge red bag. A natural polo coat carried over her arm, completed the ensemble.

The bride was recently honored at a wedding shower at the home of Mrs. Eldon Stenewick, Nyssa, with Mrs. Ward Wenke, Mrs. Forrest Bidmore, Miss Irene Poage and Mrs. Kenneth Cochran as co-hostesses.

Polishing Tip

Never put furniture polish or wax on a dirty surface. Always clean thoroughly first. Apply polish sparingly and rub down with a clean, soft, dry cloth until you have a bright, hard polish. Four or five really good polishes is all that should be necessary during the year.

Table Setting

You can arrange an unusual table setting by making three table scarves, one to run lengthwise and two crosswise on an oblong table, of crisp, permanent-finish organdy, appliqued with colorful flower or fruit motifs cut from bleached china.

Drip Coffee

When making coffee by the drip method, pre-heat the pot with boiling water. Two level tablespoons of coffee for each cup of boiling water is the general rule. Pour the fresh, boiling water over the coffee and let stand over a very low heat until dripped through. Never allow the brew at any time to boil.

FOR THANKSGIVING

Thanksgiving gifts of flowers and plants will give pleasure twice as long if you ask the florist for advice on their care and follow it conscientiously. Keep them away from the heat of lamps and radiators. Remember that crowding of fresh flower arrangements is just as unhealthful as it is inartistic. Woody types of flowers like chrysanthemums, should have their stems broken off under water as soon as you receive them; roses and most other flowers should have their stems cut off under water with a sharp knife to provide a maximum area of breathing space.

SHOWDOWN NEARS BETWEEN LABOR, GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS

NAVY INFORMATION TO UNION DEFIED IN COAST PLANTS

By United Press
Labor approached a showdown with government officials today in four disputes jeopardizing the defense program.
AFL building tradesmen threatened a general strike, defying the navy department, on defense projects in San Diego, Calif. President Roosevelt waited an answer to his second appeal for striking Detroit teamsters to resume work at the Railway Express agency. The "Captive" mine controversy still seemed explosive; and railway unions, which have rejected a government board's wage recommendations, expected presidential intervention.
At San Diego, with AFL construction workers on government projects were called to a meeting today to discuss a call for a general strike on 10 projects. J. E. Butler, secretary of the AFL Building Trades Council, who had ordered the general strike, called the meeting.
The general strike order was the union response to a navy department ultimatum, demanding the strikers return to work today, or their jobs. The navy said contractors would be permitted to hire other labor or the government would employ civil service workers.
Union Confident
A general strike would interrupt work on projects costing $25,000,000. Union members who have demanded wage increases of approximately $1 a day, were confident replacements could not be found.
Settlement of the Railway Express strike at Detroit awaited word from Daniel J. Tobin, international president of the AFL, building tradesmen rejecting Roosevelt's first appeal and after the second he would not order the men to resume work without authority of the union executive board members, who could not be assembled before Monday.
Representatives of the five operating railroad brotherhoods adjourned yesterday, announcing they would strike "on or about Dec. 5." Because of dissatisfaction with the wage proposals of the presidential fact-finding board, they were certain the President would seek further negotiations to prevent a transportation stoppage during the defense emergency. Officials of the 14 non-operating unions met Wednesday to consider the report.
The national defense mediation board is expected to complete its recommendations today. The "Captive" mine dispute involving the steel company mine owners and the United Mine Workers (UMW) President John L. Lewis reportedly had said he will not yield on the union's demand for a closed shop, the dispute expires Saturday.
Seattle Threat
At Seattle, shipyard workers withdrew a threat to renew their recent strike when the office of production management promised to hear complaints of discrimination. The workers bolted from the AFL and ended their strike, pending mediation, on condition they be protected from discrimination.
The United Aircraft Workers (independent) announced they would call sympathy strikes in the southern California plane factories. The union had threatened sympathy walkouts to support demands of fellow unionists on strike at the Lockheed and Vega plants at Burbank and at the Consolidated Aircraft Corporation at San Diego. Air corps officers had appeared to the union to withhold action.
At New Haven, Conn., the state board of mediation and arbitration arranged a conference between representatives of Yale university and CIO service employees. The employees had called a strike, effective today, to enforce demands for a closed shop.

FIRES BLAZE IN HAMBURG AREAS

LONDON, Nov. 10 (AP)—The royal air force set great fires in the dock and town area of Hamburg in the third night running of the big British offensive against Germany, the air ministry said today.
The ministry said the RAF concentrated on north German ports in attack carried out by straight with a force estimated at more than 100 planes.
After concentrated bombing, the ministry said, "large fires were left burning in the docks and town of Hamburg."
Other attacks were made on the ports of Cuxhaven and Emden. The docks at Dinkburg and Ostend also were bombed.
Two bombers were missing. The docks and shipbuilding yards at Hamburg, it was reported, were clearly visible in the starlight.
"Bombs were seen to burst among the targets," the ministry said.
A semi-official source estimated the RAF had employed between 100 and 200 bombers and fighters in the stepped-up attack upon Germany and German-occupied territory which started Friday night.
The cost of these attacks has been considerable. Lost British planes up to last night totaled 88.

FAMED BRITISH DESTROYER SUNK

LONDON, Nov. 10 (AP)—The admiralty announced today the famous British destroyer, HMS Glasgow, was sunk in the running battle against the German battleship, Bismarck, has been sunk.

The admiralty did not disclose how, when or where she was sunk. The Glasgow was completed in 1938.

D. WORTH CLARK IN RADIO DEBATE

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10 (UP)—Sen. D. Worth Clark, D. Ind., a member of the senate non-intervention bloc, charged last night "a little group of war lords" has adopted the catchword "national unity" to plunge the United States into war.
The term is being used by the pro-war 80 per cent of the nation in their efforts to silence the anti-war 20 per cent, he said.
Clark was teamed with Sen. Gerald P. Nye, R. N. D., in a radio debate on "Are the United States United?" against Sen. Carl A. Hatch, D. N. M., and A. B. (Happy) Chandler, D. Ky., both ardent administration supporters.
All four agreed there is complete unity in the "destination of Hitlerism" and for a defense so strong no nation or group of nations would dare attack. They differed widely on the unanimity of support for President Roosevelt's foreign policies.

CALE KILLED BUT AUTOISTS UNHURT

JEROME, Nov. 10 (Special)—One better calf belonging to a farmer south of the city was dead today, but two high school youths, Melvin Atwood, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Atwood of Jerome, and Jack Higgins, also of this city, escaped unhurt when the car in which they were occupants struck the strayed animal as it wandered onto the highway.
The accident occurred at about 2:15 a. m. Friday three miles south of the city. Young Atwood was reported to have told police that he really did not see the animal soon enough to avoid striking it. As his car hit the calf, he swerved off the highway and into the borrow pit where the car overturned on its side. Damage was not extensive to the front end of the machine, police stated.
Investigating officer was a member of the Idaho state police.

ESCAPED IDAHO PAIR CAPTURED

BOISE, Nov. 10 (UP)—Robert Nash and Tom Elms, two Idaho convicts who ran away from a penitentiary work project last Thursday, were back in their prison cells today and said they "little bit glad" to be there.
It was said the prisoners got pretty hungry during their two nights of freedom, they told Warren G. Van Clark.
"It won't be so bad to be back in the prison—at least the meals are regular and the place is warm," one of them said.
The pair was picked up by Oregon state police and railroad detectives in Huntington, Ore., where they had built a small fire in the railroad yards to keep warm. The escapees picked up their clothes in the winter, after hitch-hiking from Boise where they escaped during a heavy fog.
