2 ENVOYS TALK WITH WELLES ON ASIA WAR MOVES

By H. O. THOMPSON
 WASHINGTON, Dec. 2 (U.P.)—The United States was understood to have asked Japan today for an early answer to last week's statement of basic American principles and to have renewed its inquiries regarding the movement of Japanese troops in French-Indo China.

The request was said to have been made by Undersecretary of State Sumner Welles who called to his office for a 35-minute conference the two Japanese diplomats who have been conducting conversations with the United States.

A spokesman for the department said after the conference that Welles, by direction of President Roosevelt, had requested the Japanese to call in order to make certain inquiries of the Japanese government for the information of the President.

Welles Talks, Japs Listen
 Admiral Kichisaburo Nomura, the Japanese ambassador, and Saburo Kurusu, the special envoy, made one of the shortest calls of the special conversations which have been in progress here for several weeks.

Before going to the conference the envoys told reporters that Japan was giving "weighty consideration" to the request of the United States.

Secretary of State Cordell Hull remained at home with slight cold, and Welles called in the diplomats.

War Won't Help
 "War would not settle anything," Nomura said. "It is natural to say it is a question of war or peace, but war would not help and there is no reason why we should not settle these issues by diplomacy."

There has been indications in Washington the United States does not intend to permit lengthy procrastination before the official attitude of Japan is made known to this government.

Secretary of State Cordell Hull remained at home with slight cold, and Welles called in the diplomats.

Threat of Rail Strike Ends as Foes Sign Pact

By United Press
 Settlement of the four-month dispute over railway wage increases dissolved another threat to the national defense program today but negotiations involving the Bell Aircraft Corporation and the Aluminum Company of America remained deadlocked.

President Roosevelt's special fact-finding board reported to Mr. Roosevelt today on terms of an agreement accepted by railway unions and management.

An authoritative railway source, who estimated cost of the proposed increases at $300,000,000 annually, said the agreement would provide for a 7 1/2 per cent increase for members of the five operating brotherhoods and of 10 cents an hour for 800,000 members of the 14 non-operating unions.

Get Pay Hike
 The operating unions had ordered a strike Dec. 7 after rejecting the Federal Conciliator Thomas M. Campbell's recommendations for a 7 1/2 per cent increase amounting approximately to 41 to 63 cents a day. The non-operating unions rejected proposed increases of nine cents an hour.

Representatives of the United Automobile Workers (CIO) and Bell Aircraft resumed negotiations today in an effort to avert a strike scheduled for tomorrow. Bell employs 11,000 men at its Buffalo and Niagara Falls, N. Y., plants and holds defense contracts worth $150,000,000.

Federal Conciliator Thomas M. Campbell returned to Washington today in an effort to avert a strike scheduled for tomorrow. Bell employs 11,000 men at its Buffalo and Niagara Falls, N. Y., plants and holds defense contracts worth $150,000,000.

WAR DEPARTMENT FINDS IDAHO IS MENTIONED

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2 (Special)—Attention is again being directed to the absence of national defense centers in Idaho, this is one of the main lines in a report which the War Department has received almost nothing in the way of plans for such centers. The War Department has been reminded that Idaho is ideally situated for a powder plant, ammunition base or other project which, under the special laws of that department, should not be situated within 200 or 300 miles from the coast.

The report also stated that munition storage, bag-loading plants and similar things should be located so far inland that they will not be exposed to shell fire or bombing. Notwithstanding this policy the department has located plants within 25 miles of the coast.

Always the war department finds an excuse when Idaho is mentioned. There are no large industrial plants in Idaho which skilled workers can be drawn; the necessary facilities are lacking, etc.

CITY MAY DROP BARBERS' RULES

Possibility existed today that the Twin Falls ordinance regulating the hours at which barbershops can be open for business might be repealed by members of the city council.

The possibility loomed last night as councilmen discussed the ordinance which requires each barber to take out a city license at a cost of $2, only a small percentage of barbers have done so to date although this year is almost ended and the 1942 licenses nearly due.

The law was passed over a year ago after a great majority of the local barbers had urged its adoption. It set the holidays which would be observed during the year and also the opening and closing hours for the various seasons. These requirements were in addition to the license fee.

No action was taken on the matter when it discussed at council last night but next Monday night action "one way or another" will be taken, one official said.

The official said that the barbers seem to have lost interest in the law which they asked be placed on the books and that as we are concerned if interest remains at the present low level we'll just take the whole law and throw it out.

YOUTH, 16, TAKEN HERE WILL FACE MURDER CHARGES

SANTA CRUZ, Calif., Dec. 2 (U.P.)—District Attorney Ben Knight, preparing a murder case against three men, charged today Fred Silver was stabbed "several times" with a fish-cleaning knife, thrown alive into a creek, removed for a coup d'grace, then hidden, dead, in some bushes.

Knight designated Fred Evans, 16, as the actual killer of Silvers in the Santa Cruz hobo jungle. He said Max C. Campbell, 16, alleged deserter from Moffett field, witnessed the slaying and then young Evans' father, Paul, 42, learned about the killing and fled with his son.

Campbell will be charged with the slaying of Jim Blaine McPadden, 19, Moffett field soldier, who was shot to death shortly before Silver was stabbed and drowned.

Fled to Hobo Jungle
 Knight said Campbell, fleeing to the hobo jungle after the McPadden shooting, met Evans. They arranged Silvers and Silvers "bushered them all day long," according to Knight.

"Evans lost his temper and he fought with Silvers. Silvers was knocked down," Knight continued. "He offered no resistance. Young Campbell didn't have one, so I staged a fish-cleaning knife attack in a tree."

"He stabbed Silvers several times. He threw Silvers into a creek while he was still alive and struggling. Evans asked Campbell for a knife. Campbell didn't have one, so I staged a fish-cleaning knife attack in a tree."

Throat Slashed
 "After Silvers was dead, his throat was slashed three times. The body was left in the creek. Campbell fled with young Evans, and told him of the McPadden shooting. They decided to return Evans was an officer who had arrested Campbell for deserting from the army."

"Paul Evans found them and advised them they had better not leave the body in the creek. They took it out of the water and hid it in the bushes."

Knight said all three fled in freight cars. Campbell was arrested in Twin Falls, Ida. The elder Evans was arrested at Syracuse, Kansas, and his son was apprehended at Rocky Ford, Colo.

Winnie in Russia

The famous Churchill face turns in Russia, this time in a famous caricature by a Nazi comic artist. In England today Churchill called for full mobilization of man and woman power.

Churchill Asks for Full Mobilization of British Men, Women

LONDON, Dec. 2 (U.P.)—Prime Minister Winston Churchill today called for maximum mobilization of British man power and woman power to expand the nation's war effort to the limit and promised that with American aid the allied powers would soon be superior to the axis in military strength.

Churchill introduced a motion to carry out his plea for conscription of all remaining men and women who can aid in increasing war production.

That, he said, generally would move the nation "master the front" in preparation for the day when Adolf Hitler, "recognizing his defeat in Russia, will turn his fury against the British Isles again, as well as for the time when the allies will be superior in equipment to the enemy. This day, he indicated, would be 1942.

Britain already is equal to the axis in equipment, the prime minister said.

Would Boost Age Limit
 He proposed to raise the age for compulsory military service from 41 to 50, thus bringing under review the cases of 275,000 men, and said that another 10 years might have to be added to the age limit.

Men over 41 would be used for static or sedentary duties. Churchill's motion asserted that if he also sought to compel an estimated 1,000,000 unmarried women from 20 to 30 years old to join the uniformed auxiliary services.

Churchill's motion asserted that in the opinion of the house... the obligation for national service should be extended to include reserved women power and that maximum power still available and necessary legislation should be brought in forthwith.

New Plans, Ships
 The prime minister emphasized that new plans have now been constructed and must be fully staffed and at the same time a powerful mobile army must be maintained for home defense and foreign expeditions.

"We must face a continuous growth of the navy and must maintain a great number of warships of all kinds which are coming steadily into service," he said.

"Many munitions from the United States will be required," Churchill said, listing the production timetable for the allies as follows: First year—nothing; 2nd year—very little; 3rd year—quite a lot; 4th year—only you want.

"We are now at the beginning of the third year," he said. "The United States is getting through its second year. Germany started the war already well into its fourth year."

Hard Head Ahead
 "We have to make a definitely harder turn of the screw... Here is another installment of full, sweat, inconvenience and self denial, which I am sure will be accepted with cheerful, proud alacrity by all classes in the British nation."

He said that since it was not possible to supply all home guards with rifles, they had been supplemented.

IDAHO WPA QUOTA IS SET AT 5,900

BOISE, Dec. 2 (U.P.)—Idaho has been assigned a WPA quota for December of 5,900 workers, 2,600 less than employed in the same month last year, State WPA Administrator Dean Miller said today.

The quota will be divided with the Pocatello district receiving 1,700 workers, Duluth district 905, Coeur d'Alene district 1,423, and the Boise district 1,810.

Miller said reports from various sections of the state indicated that private employers were releasing a considerable group of workers and applications for WPA work are steadily increasing. There were some indications, however, of considerable less demand for WPA employment this December than last year.

REAR HOARDING OF COPPER CHARGED

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2 (U.P.)—The rural electrification administration was accused today of "hoarding" millions of pounds of copper cable despite the copper shortage resulting from defense production.

The charge was made by Rep. Thomas D. Winter, R-Iowa, in the House as he introduced a resolution asking for a special House investigation.

Winter said the REA cables were "hoarded" in open Texas fields and were being paid for duplication of transmission lines. He said the plants to be installed were being hoarded in an area already saturated with other plants.

He charged the REA was "intentionally" hoarding cable "for the benefit of the utility industry." He said the REA was "hoarding" cable "for the benefit of the utility industry."

Firemen Work At Top Speed In Toy Repair

New toys from old ones. "The boys" over at the fire department are following these days as they really buckle down to work in remaining and repairing toys which will be sent to needy youngsters at Christmas.

To enable the firemen to do a quality job more than 100 toys were collected by the fire department.

If Coleman, commissioner, today announced purchase of a paint gun which will be used on toys and which will also be available for other city work after the toy project is completed for this season.

The toys, collected through efforts of the Twin Falls Junior Chamber of Commerce, are being repaired under the direction of Chief L. E. Gabel. The city is collecting the toys in addition to a special toy show at the Orphanage through cooperation of the fire department and the city.

All work on the toys is being done in the basement of the fire station. The toys are being done and firemen hope that fire alarms will be scarce so they can devote all their time to the toy construction job.

The Twin Falls project is one of several in Magic Valley. Blaine, Buhl, and other cities are also repairing toys for needy youngsters.

German, Italian Troopers Renew Siege of Tobruk

By WALTER COLLINS
 CAIRO, Dec. 2 (U.P.)—A powerful axis tank attack broke through the British trap in the Libyan desert, an official spokesman said today, renewed the siege of Tobruk and drove British imperials from Sidi Rezzeh and Bir el Hamid.

"The Germans slipped off the very end of the appendix that barred their way westward and made a junction in the Sidi Rezzeh-Bir el Hamid-Zaarain triangle," the spokesman said in describing the setback.

(In London, a British military spokesman said "This is one round for them, but the next round is coming up and it can be assumed that operations are taking place to restore the corridor from Tobruk to Sidi Rezzeh.") Heavy British tank and infantry reinforcements were rushing into the battle zone.

John in Libya
 The Germans under Gen. Erwin Rommel and the Italian Arletti (leading) forces, all of which repeatedly had been attacked by the British, joined to make the axis attack on a narrow front, according to a communiqué.

The German forces apparently had achieved a major victory in their running battle with the desert front. It appeared they had broken through some British lines in their running battle with the Sidi Rezzeh-Bir el Hamid-Zaarain triangle south of Tobruk.

Some British observers regarded as ominous the absence of any British claim as to German losses in this battle, which now has been in progress for about two weeks. The avowed intention of destroying axis armored forces.

Development Not Clear
 The developments and the present positions in the battle were not yet entirely clear, but it was certain British forces were being weakened. The British had a numerical superiority unless British reinforcements have arrived.

Significance was attached to the British official description of the battle area as covering 1,000 square miles and as being fought in three separate zones, thus indicating the lines are so fluid that the British reports that he was trapped firmly.

Dies Presents Prison Record Of CIO Heads

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2 (U.P.)—Rep. Dies today presented to the house during debate on anti-strike legislation a photostatic document which he charged was the criminal record of 20 officials of nine CIO unions.

Dies said the records were collected by the Dies committee investigating un-American activities. He also presented the names of 100 CIO leaders who previously has charged with Communist connections.

"Time and time again," Dies charged, "we have discovered that CIO leaders had both Communist and criminal records."

Records File up
 Arguing for enactment of legislation to curb defense strikes, Dies said that such ugly facts concerning the backgrounds of CIO officials "are up in our records until they began to make a pattern."

"I have taken more or less at random a cross section of the more recent additions to our files," he said. "I have here the criminal records of..."

A Smile That's Worth a Million

A youngster's cheerful smile warms the heart of any parent, not because it denotes happiness alone, but because it's a good sign the child is strong and healthy. Of course it's worth a million, a human asset well worth protecting. Plenty of exercise, fresh air and nourishing foods are all important factors in maintaining that radiant smile.

BUTTER-KRUST "Enriched" BREAD

is one of those important, nourishing foods so essential to the health of growing children. The vitamins with which it is "enriched"—Vitamin B1, Iron and Nicotinic Acid—are recommended by the Committee on Good Food, a Unit of the National Research Council. They are recommended to transform all foods into energy, to build up the body and restore its resistance.

ALL NEW YEARS' BOWL PARTICIPANTS NAMED

TCU Gets Bid To Florida Orange Battle

By WILLIAM TUCKER
NEW YORK, Dec. 2 (U.P.)—Now that the Orange bowl finally has been decided, look over and take your choice for the New Year's day football extravaganza.

Rose bowl—Oregon State (beaten twice) vs. Duke (unbeaten, untied).

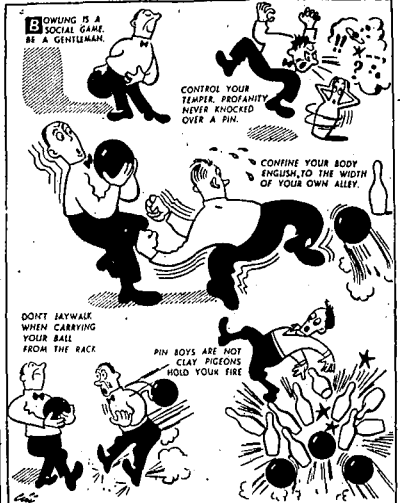

Sugar bowl—Fordham (beaten once) vs. Missouri (ditto).

Cotton bowl—Texas A. & M. (beaten once) vs. Alabama (beaten twice).

Orange bowl—Georgia (beaten once, tied once) vs. Texas Christian university (beaten twice, tied once).

The entry of Alabama and TCU into the bowl program surprised. It left unbeaten and untied Duquesne out of the major bowl assignments.

Set 'Em up in the Other Alley

You Name It: Your Top Sports Thrill

By HARRY FERGUSON
NEW YORK, Dec. 2 (U.P.)—A bunch of the boys who whip the numbers were sitting it up in a mild sort of way and toward end of the evening one of them said: "Well, just to start it around, what single thing in sports gives you the biggest thrill? I mean something that really sends the shivers up and down the spine?"

The question couldn't have been asked before a better group, made up entirely of sports writers, had traveled hundreds of thousands of miles for years to watch all kinds of sports. They had seen the pictures from end to end. And they were almost killed in the rush to make their choice.

"You got to give it to college football," one man said. "To college football, the thrill is now you take a whole game, the whole thing, it does something to you to see that big Wisconsin band start the parade with everybody blowing their horns out that swell marching song, 'On Wisconsin!'"

"He went to Wisconsin?"

"Where do you go to school?" inquired a cynic.

"Wisconsin," said the gent sheepishly.

Another indignant gentleman demanded the floor:

"Here's the one that will give me a kick as long as I live. There's nothing in the sport of the Kentucky derby and all of a sudden the band starts giving out with 'My Old Kentucky Home.' And after the first few bars the crowd stands up and starts humming it kind of a wailing, 'My Old Kentucky Home.' Brother, you can't match it."

"Seems like to me that's about the best thing in sports," said another. "It's the Red Herring of the Yankees—standing out there facing the flag with their caps off. And the umpires are at attention and the rest of the players are lined up abreast in front of the dugout. You can hear a pin drop."

A little fellow interrupted: "You don't have to have a band to give me a kick. What's wrong with the last round of a National Open Golf championship when a guy is coming up the stretch trying to get on the last four holes to tie or win. Like Gene Sarazen did out at Cleveland's Municipal Club."

The last man spoke: "It's an outdoor fight. You got about 60,000 people there, and the darkness and the cigarettes look like lightning bolts. The champ sits in his corner, and you see the challenger's feet in the ring. The announcer walks out to the microphone and says, 'This is the last round of the championship. It's a very heavyweight, Billy Conn. From Denver, Colorado, weighing 165 pounds, and the challenger is a very purple trunk, the world's heavyweight champion, Joe Louis.'"

"They get the seconds out of the

Major League Clubs Map Trades at Minor Meeting

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 2 (U.P.)—When Coach Wallace Wade—who once said he'd never again bring a football team this far west—arrives with his Duke team for the Rose bowl game against Oregon State college the people of California are going to see a game they had no part whatever in planning. Oregon State won the right to choose its opponent by winning the Pacific Coast conference title. It promptly sprang a surprise on the coast by choosing Duke for the game at Pasadena New Year's day.

Bruce Dyer, Los Angeles Times sports writer to whom Wade first expressed his dislike of local contests, after a 7 to 3 beating by University of Southern California, 1930, said "as a long time friend of Mr. Wade I'm hoping he will hurry up and say he didn't mean it. I'm saying forgive and forget, even if he did slander the southern half of California."

But Wade had break down and say he didn't mean it. So our harsh on us three years ago. We reached our committee, could then function with more sincerity when Wallace and his boys arrive late this month.

Many of the customers here feel it is a waste of money. California, they are willing to make it unanimous. When the lookers were announced Sunday that Duke had been chosen, a full-throated chorus of boos arose. Nevertheless it is conceded Duke has a bang-up football team. That he did slander the southern half of California.

But Wade had break down and say he didn't mean it. So our harsh on us three years ago. We reached our committee, could then function with more sincerity when Wallace and his boys arrive late this month.

ATHLETIC STAR, SETTLES IN TWIN FALLS... HE PLAYED BASEBALL WITH HAP CHANDLER...

Every one in a while we run into some old-time athlete who was a top-notch in his line—but who now can look back only with fond memories on his life-day in the spotlight.

Such a man is Bub Nelson, now working here at the Gateway Hotel. He was a mite of a youngster—playing quarterback on the Graton, N. D. football team—a city about the size of Burley.

Bub was gaining mid-west fame for his football feats and when he broke the state record in the javelin—no couldn't have weighed more than 120 pounds at the time—he was hailed as a midwest athletic marvel. We can't give you the exact figure, but that javelin threw was probably something well over 100 feet—some distance in those days.

Well, Bub matriculated at the University of North Dakota and among other things he was a member of the Phi Kappa Phi (then known as the Phi Kappa) against the University of Minnesota gridiron team. He was a member of the Phi Kappa Phi (then known as the Phi Kappa) against the University of Minnesota gridiron team. Utah Gridders Still Without Ocean Passage

SALT LAKE CITY, Dec. 2 (U.P.)—The Utah Gridders, who have been waiting for a ship to take them to the ocean for the last two years, today were still trying to find some means of escape from their mountainous home.

The vessel they originally made reservations on has been requisitioned for government service. The only other passenger ship sailing from San Francisco to Honolulu in time for the game, the Lurline, is booked to capacity.

Charles M. Theron, Parialee contacted steamship companies by telephone yesterday in an attempt to find some means of making the trip. But he was told that the team's only hope would be if sufficient passengers cancelled their reservations. Theron said that he was also considering the possibility of the team making the trip by air.

If the Hawaiian games are cancelled, the team will probably be able to get to the ocean by air.

Twin Falls to Seek Place In Cage Loop

When the Snake Valley Outlaw Cage League meets in Jerome on Thursday evening they will probably be confronted with the biggest line-up of applicants ever to seek entry in an independent basketball loop in this area.

The club functioned as a six-team unit for the last two years and as an eight-team league in the season before that, the chances are that many as 10 clubs will be asking places for the 1941-42 season.

Twin Falls Possibility

Latest club to seek entry was a Twin Falls organization that hopes to be able to secure the high school gymnasium here for games at least once a week and thus be able to compete in the conference.

New applications have also been received from Halley and American Falls and such out-stead-boys as the Elks club of Burley, Rupert, Declo, Gooding, Jerome and Shoshone are also expected to compete in the conference.

Present plans for splitting the league into two divisions and having the champions of each section play a title game at the end of the season. Such a division would eliminate traveling expenses for such long-haul contests as from American Falls to Halley.

Work on getting a Twin Falls team in the league is being handled by John Wells, chief of University of Idaho, southern branch, greatest athletes. Included as a possibility in this team are such stars as Corky Carlson, the multiple winner from Washington state college; Wayne Turner, Morris Hartley and Ray Wells, all former Twin Falls high school stars.

Radtke Chosen "Most Valuable" Pioneer League Ball Player

BOISE, Dec. 2 (Special)—Jack Radtke, the little guy with the big swing, who held down second base for the Pioneer league champion Boise Pilots, was chosen the league's most valuable player, it was announced here today by the Pioneer League Baseball Writers' chapter.

Selection of Radtke gave the Pilots a clean sweep in the two years that they were generally recognized as one of the most valuable players in the league. Last year large Wall Lows, Pilot first baseman and heavy hitter, was chosen as MVP.

Trailing Radtke in second place in the writers' estimation, was Clark Henson, outfielder-first baseman for the Salt Lake Bees. Who topped the league swatmen with a .350 mark. Tied for third place were Tom Cahavan, Ogden's fancy fielding first sacker, and Chucker Lambert, the Red's No. 1 chucker. Larry Blaylock, 23-year-old winner for the Pilots, took over fifth place.

Writers were asked to name five and voting ran on the first point for first place, six for second, etc.

The balloting for five first place

Word Awaited On Tie-up With Majors

Directors of the Twin Falls Cowboys held out strong hope that Bill McCorry, manager of the Kansas City Blues, will be able to send them word in the next few days that the Wranglers had been made part of a major league baseball club.

McCorry, manager of the Ogden Hoops and representing the Twin Falls club, is expected to attend a league meeting in Jackson, Wis., the high hopes of landing a tie-up with an outside chance that the Baseball Union might take on a connection.

Meeting in regular seasons last night, club directors of the Kansas City Blues, who are expected to work on assembling the team for the 1942 season, was started as soon as the meeting was held. The meeting was held in the presence of Bill McCorry, manager of the Ogden Hoops, and Bill McCorry, manager of the Kansas City Blues, who are expected to work on assembling the team for the 1942 season.
