U. S., BRITAIN SMASH BACK AT JAPS

ALLIES AND FOE TRADE BLOWS IN 6,000 MILE AREA

By JOE ALEX MORRIS, United Press Foreign Editor. The United States and Britain smashed back at Japan today on a 6,000-mile Pacific war front that flamed from Hawaii's coral beaches to the jungle shores of Malaya and Thailand.

The American battle fleet was reported challenging the Japanese striking force which raided Hawaii with heavy loss of life and naval damage. A great naval engagement was rumored in the western west of America's Pacific Gibraltar.

Tokyo: Japanese naval command claims sinking of U. S. battleships Oklahoma and West Virginia; damage to four heavy cruisers; heavy destruction of U. S. planes; probable sinking of U. S. aircraft carrier (rumored to be the Langley); capture of "many" enemy ships; sinking of U. S. minesweeper Penguin at Guam.

London: Prime minister Winston Churchill carries Britain into war against Japan with a formal declaration before parliament.

Hawaii: White House reports 3,000 casualties, including 1,500 fatalities in Japanese air attack; loss of "old" American battleship and destroyer.

U. S. Fleet in Action. Washington: American battle fleet carrying out sweeping operations and has destroyed "a number of" Japanese submarines and planes.

Thailand: Apparently caving in to the Japanese with little or no fight; Tokyo claims Japanese troops moving into the country under "agreement" reached with Bangkok government; Japanese reported swarming into southern Thailand in preparation for drive on Singapore.

Singapore: British holding Japanese landing forces which have established series of beachheads along eastern coast; royal air force heavily engaged.

Manila: Waves of Japanese bombers attack key points in Philippines, including U. S. army base at Fort Stotsenburg, Davao and the vicinity of Baguio. Japanese landings rumored but not confirmed.

China: Japanese moves to declare war on Germany and Italy as well as to formalize the long existing state of war with Japan.

Hong Kong: Japanese attack Hong Kong twice by air; take over Shanghai International settlement; occupied.

CONGRESSMEN VOTE ALL-OUT FIGHT EFFORT

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8 (UP) — Congress today proclaimed existence of a state of war between the United States and the Japanese empire 33 minutes after the dramatic moment when President Roosevelt stood before a joint session to pledge that we will triumph — "so help us, God."

Democracy was proving its right to a place in the sun with a split second shift-over from peace to all-out war.

The senate acted first, adopting the resolution by a unanimous roll call vote of 82 to 0, within 21 minutes after the President had concluded his address to a joint session of both houses.

The final house vote was announced as 388 to 1. The lone negative vote was cast by Rep. Jeannette Rankin, R., Mont., who also voted against entry into World war I.

The resolution now has to be signed by Speaker Sam Rayburn and Vice-President Henry A. Wallace before it is sent to the President at the White House. His signature will place the United States formally at war against the Japanese empire, already an accomplished fact.

The resolutions were before both houses within 15 minutes of the time Mr. Roosevelt ended his seven-minute, 500-word extraordinary message.

There was a half second of uncertainty in the house when Rep. Jeannette Rankin, R., Mont., objected to unanimous consent for immediate consideration of the war resolution.

Notes No Again. Speaker Sam Rayburn brushed the objection aside. It was she who in the small hours of April 6, 1917, faltered, wept and finally voted "no" against a similar resolution aimed at Germany.

When the clerk came to her name on the roll call today, she voted no again.

A chorus of hisses and boos greeted her vote, the first cast against the war resolution.

Rep. Harold Knutson, R., Minn., who also voted against American entry into the World war in 1917, said today this nation "has no choice but to declare war on Japan."

"I do not see that we have any other choice," Knutson told reporters. "They declared war on us."

Miss Rankin and Knutson are the only present members of the house who voted against war in 1917.

Only Miss Rankin and Rep. Clare Hoffman, R., Mich., had remained seated when the house gave a standing ovation in response to Roosevelt's solemn statement.

"I ask that congress declare that since the unprovoked and dastardly attack by Japan on Hawaii, Dec. 7, a state of war has existed between the United States and the Japanese empire."

In a staccato of short sentences, the President told where the Japanese empire, already an accomplished fact.

3,000 U. S. Casualties After Jap Raids on Hawaiian Islands

Weather Puts End To Drive

BERLIN, Dec. 8 (UP) — A Nazi military spokesman said tonight Germany had abandoned attempts to capture Moscow for this winter.

The military spokesman said large scale operations by Germany on the eastern front have been ended for this winter.

Moscow, he said flatly, "will not be captured before spring."

He said the early start of the severe Russian winter caused the Germans to make this decision.

The spokesman said he was not implying that Germany would cease fighting in the east or seek an armistice, but said that Germany, hence-

CLARK ASSERTS STATE IS READY

BOISE, Dec. 8 (UP) — Idaho's civilian population was being organized today for war-time conditions.

Military organizations in the state were already prepared for "any eventuality" incident to war in the Pacific.

Gov. Chase A. Clark called for a meeting of the Idaho civilian defense advisory council to place the civilian defense organization on an "alert" basis.

County defense organizations were well organized before the emergency and full instructions for their activities now that peace is gone were being drafted, the governor said.

LATE FLASHES

NEW YORK, Dec. 8 (UP) — The National Broadcasting company's correspondent at Manila reported today that "Manila is now under Japanese bombardment."

MANILA, Dec. 8 (UP) — Reliable informants said today Pan-American Airways here had been notified to suspend service to Manila, and the hotel and fuel tanks were aflame.

BATAVIA, N. E. I., Dec. 8 (UP) — The Netherlands East Indies declared war against Japan today, intended to all Japanese in its territory and proclaimed a state of danger of air attack.

SINGAPORE, Dec. 8 (UP) — Royal air force planes today carried out intensive bombing attacks on Japanese transports attempting to land troops along the northern Malayan coast.

An RAF communique reported heavy attacks were carried out against Japanese troops attempting to land at Sungoi and Patani.

LONDON, Dec. 8 (UP) — Japanese paratroops have been landed in the Philippines islands, according to a dispatch by the official Italian news agency Stefani, broadcast by the Itoms radio today.

ONE BATTLESHIP SUNK IN HARBOR

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8 (UP) — Casualties on the Hawaiian island of Oahu in yesterday's Japanese air attack will amount to about 7,000, including about 1,500 fatalities, the White House announced today.

The White House confirmed the loss in Pearl harbor of "one old battleship" and a destroyer, which was blown up.

Several other American ships were damaged and a large number of army and navy airplanes on Hawaiian fields were put out of commission, the White House disclosed.

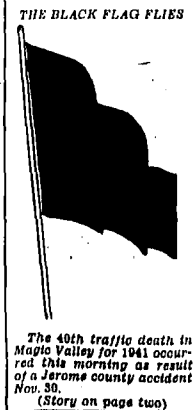

U. S. Attacks. It reported at the same time that American operations against Japan were being carried out on a large scale, resulting already in the destruction of a number of Japanese planes and submarines.

The White House statement said: "American operations against the Japanese attacking force in the neighborhood of the Hawaiian island of Oahu in yesterday's attack appear more serious than at first believed."

In Pearl harbor itself one old battleship has capsized and several other ships have been seriously damaged.

Full Text Given On War Message

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8 (UP) — The text of President Roosevelt's war message to congress: To the congress of the United States: Yesterday, Dec. 7, 1941—a date which will live in infamy—the United States of America was suddenly and deliberately attacked by the armed forces of the empire of Japan. The United States was at peace with that nation and, at the moment of the attack, was still in conversation with its government and emperor looking toward the maintenance of peace in the Pacific. Japan's attack upon Pearl Harbor, Hawaii, and other United States possessions in Oahu, the Japanese ambassador to the United States and league delivered to the secretary of state a formal note of American message. While this reply stated that it would continue the existing diplomatic relations between the United States and Japan, it also stated that the Japanese government was ready to discuss the possibility of a truce or armistice. It will be recalled that the distance of 11,000 miles between the United States and Japan makes it impossible for the Japanese to have been deliberately sought to deceive the United States.

The 40th traffic death in Magic Valley for 1941 occurred this morning as result of a Jerome county accident Nov. 30. (Story on page two)

COLLUSION SEEN IN JAP MESSAGE, PACIFIC ATTACK

REPLY TO U. S. TIMED TO COME AFTER BOMBING

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8 (U.P.)—Japan's plans to break off diplomatic negotiations here at the very moment Japanese planes were attacking the United States were shown today in a reconstruction of the final events in America's efforts to preserve peace.

It was doubtful whether Japan's diplomatic representatives here knew of the exact action which Japan's armed forces would take, but when they received their instructions from Tokyo they must have known some decisive step was at hand.

Secretary of State Cordell Hull, releasing the documents which played a part in the final collapse of the U. S.-Japanese negotiations, said: "It is now apparent to the whole world that Japan in its recent professions of a desire for peace has been infamously false and fraudulent."

Set Appointment Time

The Japanese asked at 1 p. m. yesterday for an appointment with Hull. That was 25 minutes before the attack on Hawaii. When they arrived at the state department it was 2:30 p. m., or 40 minutes after the bombing had begun.

The timing was dictated by Tokyo because the decoding and translation of the lengthy document presented to Hull in rejecting American proposals for a peaceful agreement required several hours. It could not have been judged so neatly.

The document, branded by Hull as "crowded with infamous falsehoods and base insinuations," stated that the American statement of basic principles but accused the United States of not only refusing to end the war, but also of charging that the United States, Britain and other powers were attempting to strengthen their position in the far east at the expense of Japan.

Burst of Indignation

The 70-year-old Hull, his efforts for peace collapsing in the face of Japan's refusal to negotiate, before told Ambassador Kichisaburo Nomura in a burst of indignation:

"I must say that in all my conversations with you during the last nine months I have never uttered one word of untruth. This is borne out completely by the records. In my 50 years of public service I have never seen a document that was more crowded with infamous falsehoods and insinuations than the one which you have presented to me today. I never imagined until today that any government on this planet was capable of uttering them."

Peace Appeal Reverted

The state department and White House made public during the day President Roosevelt's unprecedented appeal for peace, sent Saturday to Emperor Hirohito, the text of the Hull memorandum to the Japanese on Nov. 26, and the Japanese reply.

In Mr. Roosevelt's urgent withdrawal of Japanese forces from Indo-China and the return to no other power would invade the French colony, now completely dominated by the Japanese forces. The President said a withdrawal of the Japanese from Indo-China "would result in the cessation of peace throughout the whole of the south Pacific area."

MEXICANS CALL FOR AID TO U. S.

MEXICO CITY, Dec. 8 (U.P.)—Amidst angry administration denunciation of Nipponese aggression, members of the house of deputies said today they would ask congress to declare war immediately against Japan.

Quezon believed temper of the national leaders was such a declaration might come before the day was out. As in the United States, both houses of congress must approve a war declaration.

Congress currently is in session. The president had not commented on the Japanese attack against the United States' Pacific islands but Foreign Minister Ezequiel Padilla, after a conference with him, angrily condemned the Japanese action and pledged Mexico's full assistance to her neighboring nation under the Havana treaty.

WAR PUTS HALT TO LABOR STRIFE

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 8 (U.P.)—War brought peace on the Pacific coast labor front today.

A nationwide strike tomorrow of 125,000 welders who have sought autonomy from the American Federation of Labor, was cancelled by a special committee representing 125 local unions which has been meeting in Washington.

Huber J. Brown, Oakland attorney and business agent of the Oakland local of the United Welders, Cutters and Helpers, telephone Commander George Keller, navy representative on an OPM committee investigating the threatened strike and said:

"Welders available for work will report Monday and thereafter. The cancellation of the strike plan is the welders' answer to the crisis in the Pacific."

MINUTES

This is a story of minutes. John L. Turner, 354 Fourth avenue west, called police at 4:03 p. m. yesterday to report that his Plymouth sedan, bearing Idaho license 7A-40, had been stolen from a parking place in front of the address given. He said the theft had occurred in the last four minutes.

That's four minutes.

Police went to work to look for the machine. They found it a block away.

That was four minutes later. Total: Eight minutes from time the car was stolen until it was recovered and police didn't know about it until four minutes after it was gone.

HITLER BLAMED IN ASIATIC WAR

Although the United States is at war with Japan, the Pacific fight was inspired by Hitler and should not be permitted to bring diversion of American resources away from the central conflict in Europe, the national Fight for Freedom committee advised today through Mayor Joe Kocher today.

Kocher, a member of the nationwide group, received a telegram this morning from executives of the organization. The message said:

Continue Axis Fight

"We are basing the following on a full page ad Monday New York Times. Suggest you use it as a means of letting people know that we are continuing our fight against the axis powers."

"Japan's war on the United States is the desperate effort of Hitler to turn American attention from the center of war against our world. That center is Berlin. The Führer has steadily warned against the internal treachery of the axis. We have warned the Japanese that they are dupes of each treachery, unwilling to face the barbarism which the axis has brought back into our world. At every moment the Japanese envoy was talking peace with our government. Tokyo and Berlin were mocking to attack on American soil, carrying out the well known Nazi technique of underhand aggression. This treachery was master-minded by the thugs and gangsters of Berlin."

Fight Japan—And Berlin

"War has chosen us. It is our duty to understand the full and treacherous scope of that war. While fighting Japan to the death we must remember that Berlin prompted this attack, that Berlin is the meaning of this attack, that Berlin is a world enemy and a mortal danger."

"Facing this danger all Americans will unite. All Americans will become better in the cause of defending the simple decency of civilization against the men who keep no promises, who know no honor. Our fight for freedom has begun. Its battle cry is unity."

The wire was signed by Ulrich Boll and P. H. Peter Cusick, executives of the Fight for Freedom committee.

Battleship Loss First U. S. Blow

The loss of a U. S. battleship at Pearl harbor, Hawaii, officially announced as "captured," marked the first time in history that the American navy has suffered such a blow. No dreadnought class ship had been lost previously as the U. S. S. Maine, blown up in Havana harbor on Feb. 15, 1898, was an "ironclad" of only 6,622 tons.

The largest warship lost during the World war was the cruiser San Diego, 15,400 tons, sunk by a mine off the island, N.Y., on July 10, 1918.

ATTORNEY URGES LABOR SACRIFICE

Alexander L. Puccinelli, lawyer of Elko, Nev., and esteemed leading knight of the Elko Elks lodge, today had appealed for less of the "give me" attitude among labor leaders and more of "give and sacrifice."

Puccinelli was speaker during annual memorial services held at the local lodge yesterday afternoon, honoring those organization members who have died. The memorial program was followed by a tea.

Deputies Strike

During his talk the Elko attorney, former star football player with the San Joaquin university under Coach Buck Shaw, deplored the strike situation in the United States. He called for united support of all Elks and citizens in general of all national defense efforts.

He said that if there was more of the "give and sacrifice" attitude among labor leaders there would be greater harmony between employer and employee and a much healthier industrial condition."

He stressed appreciation of the privileges guaranteed by the constitution.

Russians Report 2 Smashing Wins

By DAN ROGERS
United Press Staff Correspondent

The Russians reported two smashing new victories on the eastern front Sunday while in Libya the British claimed initial success in a resumption of the great battle of annihilation between the main axis and imperial tank forces.

The official Tass Soviet news agency said "several thousand" Germans were killed and a threat to Moscow from the southwest eliminated as the Nazis slipped back across a river between the closing jaws of a Red army trap. Another German force was reported "almost encircled" at Tikhvin, 125 miles east of Leningrad, where fierce fighting raged.

Third Round
The third round of the Great Libyan tank battle began in earnest Saturday noon, after 24 hours of increasingly severe offensive patrols. With the main axis forces concentrated in a triangle bounded by Sir El Gubi, El Adam and Sidi Rezegh. The main British forces were southeast of this triangle and the heaviest fighting was reported near Sir El Gubi.

The situation in brief on the Russian and Libyan fronts:

The German stampede described by the Moscow press was believed to be the Malyarovsk sector, where a strong Soviet attack was reported earlier to have thrown the enemy back over the Mara river. Saturday the Germans were thrown back on the Mozhatk and Volokolamsk sectors of the Moscow front. Red dispatches said. At Tikhvin, the Russians said, they smashed through German defenses, destroyed a whole battalion and occupied the village of Lazarevitch. Berlin spokesmen claimed all Russian attacks were repulsed. The Nazis claimed only local successes in the Ukraine, ignoring specific operations elsewhere.

The big Libyan tank battle was resumed only about 10 miles from the Sidi Rezegh battlefield where the British were defeated a week ago. Both sides had made extensive repairs and the imperials were believed to have received reinforcements from Egypt. The battle, begun in scorching mid-day desert sun, continued by moonlight Saturday night and on into Sunday. Much depends on its outcome. Perhaps the success of the entire Libyan campaign.

BALT LAKE CITY, Utah, Dec. 8 (UP)—J. Reuben Clark, Jr., first counselor in the presidency of the Mormon church, tonight said the church "deplores this further spread of this tragic war."

"We urge that hate of men which injures most him who has it, shall not be permitted to enter our hearts, and that the eternal principle of the brotherhood of man shall ever be the guiding spirit of our conduct."

"We of America must meet the full obligation of a lofty patriotism and a true allegiance to our country."

Clark said he had telephoned Mormon missionaries in Honolulu about their safety but as yet had no reply from them. He said no information was available about other missionaries who might be endangered in China.

"Here's how advertising WORKS"

"You hear a lot these days about what advertising means to people...how it brings them better goods at lower prices, and makes life more comfortable and more enjoyable. Well, advertising does all that, of course, but I'm more interested in what it does for me as a retailer..."

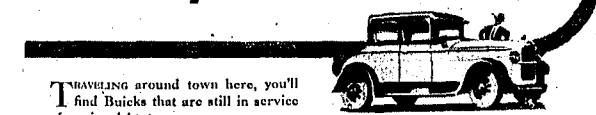

1. "I'm in business to sell goods, and I've learned about advertising right here at the store counter where results are what count. I've seen how advertising works with my own customers and, believe me, I've got all kinds..."

2. "There's Mrs. Stockbridge, for instance, the banker's wife in that big house up on the hill. She's one of my best customers, and so is Mrs. Brickley, whose husband is a foundry foreman. Both these families have been trading here for years."

3. "I don't know whether Mrs. Brickley and Mrs. Stockbridge read the same magazines or listen to the same radio programs. But I do know that they both read the local newspapers and the ads in them...my ads and my manufacturers' ads."

4. "That's the way it works with all my customers. No matter where or how they live, they all read the local papers. So you can see why newspaper advertising by the manufacturers of the products I carry means more sales for me."

Take a tip from the Old-Timers

TRAVELING around town here, you'll find Buicks that are still in service after six, eight, ten or even more years.

It's worth noting that these sturdy old Buicks are still serving faithfully and well, for several reasons.

They have the same basic type of engine as the sleek 1942 Buick—a rugged, long-lived, extra-efficient valve-in-head, though it is now made better by FIREBALL combustion.

They have the same dependable drive—a stout torque tube encasing a sturdy steel shaft stretching its unbroken length from transmission to rear axle.

Frames are fundamentally the same now as then; brakes, though hydraulic now, use the same, efficient, self-energizing action.

This retailer, like other successful dealers everywhere, knows from his own experience that newspaper advertising is the one medium through which manufacturers can reach all his customers and prospects. That's why manufacturers produce more sales for their retailers...and themselves...when they advertise in local newspapers.

Brother of Twin Falls Man on Bombed Warship

SHANGHAI, Dec. 8 (Monday) — The Domei (Japanese) news agency today said the USS Oklahoma was sunk at Pearl Harbor.

Many Idahoans today cast anxious eyes westward as they sought to find out something—anything—regarding safety of friends or relatives and one of these persons is C. J. Bohne, manager of a Twin Falls store.

With first news of the activity in the Pacific, Bohne came to the Times-News office to find out more details and almost the first article to meet his eye was a bulletin that the U. S. S. Oklahoma, a battleship, was at sea in today's air attack on Pearl Harbor.

Warrant officer of the U. S. S. Oklahoma is A. M. Bohne, 366 brother of the local Bohne. Bohne said that his brother has been serving in the navy since 1927 and has been warrant officer for the past two years. His position is a responsible one aboard ship.

The two Bohne brothers last saw each other six years ago in the home community in northern Minnesota. Last winter O. J. Bohne went to Los Angeles, California, because his brother's ship was to come into that port. However, the ship never came and so after two weeks waiting Bohne returned to Twin Falls.

The brother serving on the battleship is married and has two children. The wife and children reside at Long Beach.

No information on the safety of his brother had been received here by Bohne tonight. Possibility exists that it will be days—or even weeks—before any such information will be coming through because of cramped wire conditions including news reports and official government reports.

Idahoans Will See Action With open battle underway, many other Twin Falls and Magic Valley youths and men will see action. Scores are in the navy and are stationed on battleships, cruisers, airplanes carriers and other vessels of the fleet.

Today, their parents and friends wondered.

LIONS TOLD OF SUBMARINE BASE
BURLEY, Dec. 8 (Special) — George Henderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Scotty Henderson, who is on leave from work on Midway Island in the Pacific, was main speaker at the Lions club meeting this week.

Henderson told of the construction of the submarine and naval base on the island, which is being carried by dredging sand and coral from the ocean.

The work will require about one and one-half years for completion. Wage scales, Henderson told his listeners, range from $80 to $350 per month, and men receive $30 canteen allowance and $10 cash, and the balance of the money is sent home. Average length of stay is two months and 11 days, and after for drinking purposes is distilled and usually warm, with temperatures ranging from 90 to 130 degrees.

Guests at the meeting were Bill Anderson and Mack Crouch, Mabel Holmes and Lilith Blair presented musical numbers.

"We'll Get 'em," Says Recruiter

"It may take us a little while to do it but we'll get 'em."

That was the blunt statement made here last evening by C. A. Edmondson, local navy recruiter, who has been in the service for years and who has been all over the face of the globe.

"This sudden attack was as much a surprise to me as to anyone else," Edmondson said. "But then that has always been the Japanese policy to strike first and then declare war."

Edmondson said that he was "sure" there were enough other boys in the service who felt "just the way about it as I do."

Both Edmondson and Sgt. Frank Morris, local army recruiter, expressed the unofficial opinion that the action tonight would mean intense recruiting activity in the Magic Valley and over the whole of the United States. Likewise selective service officials looked forward to an early special session which they expect they will be instructed to hold in order to rush men into the service.

Salmon has served in the navy about five years and is a first class storekeeper. He was a graduate of the Twin Falls high school, having received his diploma in 1934. One sister, Celestine, is employed at the Times-News office and another sister, Rita, is student at the University of Portland nurses' college.

DRAFT QUOTA TO BE SHOT UPWARD

BOISE, Dec. 8 (UP)—The state quotas of men being called up under the national selective service act will be "doubled or tripled for January and succeeding months," Brig. Gen. Lewis B. Hershey, draft director, said here Sunday night.

Hershey, who cancelled a projected tour of the Pacific northwest when he heard news here of the Japanese attacks on American positions in the Pacific, said he planned to return to Washington as quickly as possible.

The draft head said one-million class A men were ready to be inducted into the army immediately, if transportation facilities can be provided.

"The selective service organization has been ready for months for just such an eventuality," Hershey said, adding that "the biggest obstacle now is the lack of equipment."

The draft director said "we could call all the men the army would need immediately but equipment difficulties might prevent a sudden influx of new men into active service."

GERMANS HINT AT HELP FOR JAPAN

BERLIN, Dec. 8 (UP)—The press hinted today Germany might go to the aid of Japan against the United States under the axis military alliance and blamed the war in the Pacific on President Roosevelt.

The official news agency, in a dispatch from Tokyo, quoted Japanese Premier Hideki Tojo, "I am happy the alliance with Germany and Italy is growing ever closer."

The newspaper B-Z Am Mittag was the first to suggest the axis agreement might be invoked.

Except for a denunciation of Mr. Roosevelt by Tokyo, quoted news agency, there was no comment from official quarters.

FULL PACIFIC COAST IS PLACED UNDER WAR-TIME FOOTING

ALL SAILORS ON LEAVE ORDERED BACK TO POSTS

By LEICESTER WAGNER
SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 8 (UP)—The Pacific coast, from Alaska to Mexico, was on a wartime footing today in anticipation of a Japanese attack on vital aircraft plants, oil refineries and navy bases.

All leaves of service men were cancelled, the army ordered coast defense and sent two regiments of anti-aircraft troops to guard the Mare Island navy yard and the Denham arsenal, 20 miles from San Francisco.

Mayor Florento LaGuardia of New York, in a statement of civilian defense, announced he would fly to Los Angeles tomorrow with Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt to confer with Gov. Culbert Olson of California, indicating how serious the threat to the Pacific coast was regarded in official circles.

Asks Volunteers

Governor Olson called out the state guard and appealed for 10,000 volunteers to bring it to war strength. The guard was given the task of watching over vital bridges, water works and oil refineries.

Gen. J. L. Benedict, commanding the ninth corps area—the state of California, Nevada, Utah, Idaho, Montana, Washington and Oregon—summoned all men on leave to immediate duty.

Leaves of all sailors in the 11th, 12th and 13th naval districts, with headquarters at San Diego, San Francisco and Seattle, also were cancelled.

All land holding devices—both military and civilian—were manned around the clock. Pursuit planes stood on the line at a score of bases. All civilian flying was terminated by an order suspending private licenses.

The navy announced all aircraft flying over navy stations other than air bases would be regarded as hostile and would be fired upon.

Censors on Duty

The navy also sent censors to offices of commercial telegraph, cable and radio companies to scan incoming and outgoing cables. The army signal corps, which handles transmissions to Alaska, cancelled all commercial telephone calls.

The coast guard, now functioning as a unit of the navy, ordered all craft on the Pacific coast to put into their home ports pending clarification of the situation.

Columbia River Defenses

Columbia river defenses were ordered to fire upon all enemy vessels.

Rear Admiral C. S. Freeman, commanding the 13th naval district, announced a coast patrol has been established and all important vessels from northwest and Alaska ports would be provided with "suitable armed escorts."

A state of alert extended to Victoria, B. C., where the royal Canadian air force cancelled leaves of all officers and men.

Recruiting of naval, army and marine forces was put on an "unlimited" wartime basis.

Local members of the federal bureau of investigation were ready for any possible order to round-up Japanese nationals or suspected Japanese sympathizers.

Pacific area headquarters of the American Red Cross announced general instructions had been issued to all offices to keep open day and night to handle inquiries from persons seeking information about relatives in the war zone.

Rear Admiral J. W. Greenleash, commandant of the 12th naval district, announced that all war plans of the district had been put into effect. He said that precautionary measures have been taken to guard against sabotage and ordered all members of the class M-2 of the naval reserve not already on active duty to report at headquarters in the San Francisco federal building.

Lt. Gen. John L. DeWitt, commander of the Fourth army, which includes Alaska, announced that the army war plan for the area also was in operation.

Machines Seek Recruits

The U. S. marine corps announced that unlimited recruiting had been inaugurated in 11 western states.

Mayor Angelo J. Rossi of San Francisco proclaimed a state of emergency for the San Francisco area and authorized the civilian defense council to "take all proper steps to protect the lives and property of San Francisco citizens."

Fort Ord and the Salinas army airbase were placed on an "alert." Sheriff Alex H. Borges of Monterey county placed a guard at Monterey bay to prevent departure of any ships.

Navy Cancels Leave

The navy orders cancelled leaving of all men and officers at the naval air station, Alameda; the receiving ship at Yerba Buena island; the section base at Treasure Island in San Francisco bay, and Mare Island navy yard at Vallejo.

"The war crisis served to bring on abrupt halt to plans for a nationwide strike of welders. The United Welders, Cutlers and Helpers cancelled plans for a strike, announcing that it was the union's intention "to trouble in the Pacific."

State Senator John Shelley, president of the AFL San Francisco Labor Council, called a meeting of hotel and department store union leaders for tomorrow. There were indications that current strikes of department store workers and hotel culinary and service workers would be called off.

Blind Children Present Program

GOODING, Dec. 8 (Special)—Sixteen students from the department of the blind at the state school for the deaf and blind at Gooding and their instructors gave a program at the civic club rooms in Hagerman Thursday. The occasion was a joint meeting of the Rim Rock Study club and the Hagerman civic club.

Mrs. Mildred Peritz talked on the braille system and demonstrations were given by Keith Black in arithmetic cubes; Marvin Cash in braille writing; Charles Tyree with the braille slate and Joyce Barnes read from the Reader's Digest written in braille.

Miss Julie Lynch told of plans for orchestra work for this year and Miss Dorothy Weaver spoke on work in the speech department.

Vocal solos were given by Lorice Hopkins, Robert Walton and Joyce Barnes. Jack Barnes played a violin selection. The remainder of the program was Christmas carols and choral work by the Junior and senior choruses.

Other students taking part were Dallas Groschen, Pete Johnston, Durrell Terry, Roland Kelly, Harry Turner, Nils Hansen, Viola Maki, Vonda Keller and Bonnie Nesbitt.

The program was a substitution for a talk scheduled to be given by Burton Driggs, superintendent of the state school. Mr. Driggs was called away by a death in the family.

Naval Expert Terms Japanese Aggressor Action as "Suicide"

By REAR ADMIRAL VATES STERLING, JR. (United Press Naval Critic)

The war in the Pacific has begun and first reports of the fighting show undeniable reverses for the United States in a conflict for which Japan has been preparing for a considerable period in which it carefully planned its strategy.

Japanese bombers attacked Hawaii yesterday in a surprise attack which plunged the United States into a Pacific war of unquenchable magnitude. Reports of attacks on other bastions of the United States, Britain and The Netherlands followed news of the attack on the American naval base at Pearl Harbor.

It appears certain Japan has risked everything on an "all-out" war. To this observer, familiar with the Pacific's military, political and economic factors over many years, Japan's action appears suicidal.

Japs Cannot Win

It may be a long, hard war, but the Japanese cannot win. The United States may suffer reverses at first, but the navy will obtain a terrific revenge for the men and ships it loses. Our Pacific positions have been carefully planned and ably manned, and details for cooperation with the British, the Netherlands East Indies, Australia and China have been agreed upon for weeks.

The Japanese probably followed what long has been understood to be the greater master plan—simultaneous attacks on British, Dutch, American

FSAH HELPS FOOD DEFENSE EFFORT

Farm security loans in Twin Falls county are being concentrated on financing of sound expansion of dairy, hog, poultry, feed crops and garden enterprises to aid FSA borrowers and disadvantaged farm families in meeting the "food for freedom" quota set by the county agricultural defense board.

L. F. Wiseman, county FSA supervisor, said this afternoon.

"Every effort will be made to help farmers unable to secure adequate credits from other sources to purchase the cows, hogs, poultry, seed, feed and equipment necessary to place their farms on an all-out defense production basis," Wiseman said.

"Where facilities for defense food expansion are available, farmers will not only be able to protect their incomes but will prevent inflation by producing food for which there is increased demand."

More Food Demand

Modifications of the neutrality act, making American ships available for carrying food to Britain, are expected substantially to increase present demand for defense foods, it was pointed out.

Another important consideration, said Wiseman, is the fact that the machinery for supporting defense food prices, crop controls and need for feeding Europe and replacing breeding herds after the war, increases possibilities of a post-war slump in farm prices.

Varied Plans

"FSA families are also planning to increase food production through machinery cooperatives, better stock, improved dairy and poultry practices, increased feed crops and ex-

FBR "GRATIFIED" BY U. S. RESPONSE

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8 (UP)—President Roosevelt was gratified today by the reaction of the United States expressed to the White House in hundreds of telegrams and telephone calls.

Executive Secretary Stephen Early told a press conference the tremendous volume of messages to the President "all express horror at this attack and pledge full loyalty to the President and the government."

The messages came from governors, mayors, religious leaders, heads of civic organizations, newspaper editors and radio broadcasters, many offering their personal services. A Washington taxi cab driver named Smith telephoned the White House late last night, saying he had just finished paying for his cab but that he offered it to the government and offered further to drive free of charge any government official needing transportation.

All London, former governor of Kansas and Republican presidential candidate, wired the White House: "The Japanese attack leaves no choice. Nothing must be permitted to interfere with our victory over a foreign foe."
