U. S. FORCES TAKE OFFENSIVE

Wake Isle Continues to Hold out

Defenders Staging Heroic Resistance To Japan Invaders

By SANDOR S. KLEIN
WASHINGTON, Dec. 16 (UP)—A small garrison of U. S. marines today passed the 150th hour of heroic resistance to Japanese attacks on Wake island.

And the "Devil Dog" defenders of the tiny, horseshoe-shaped pinpoint of land in the middle of the Pacific are continuing to bag Japanese raiders.

Navy communicators indicated the first attack on Wake island began last Tuesday. They have revealed four separate attacks since then.

In its communique No. 7, issued late yesterday, the navy said: "There have been two additional bombing attacks on Wake island. The first was light, the second was undertaken in great force. Two enemy bombers were shot down. Damage was inconsequential."

"The marines on Wake island continue to resist."

Sink Jap Ships
Last week the navy revealed that the marines at Wake had sunk by air action eight Japanese cruisers and a destroyer.

The latest communique reveals little of the historic battle which the marines at Wake have been fighting for almost a week. They are situated in the most isolated section of the Pacific—thousands of miles from the nearest inhabited island.

"There was little doubt here that when the Japanese story can be told it will take its place in future history books alongside other famous battles."

Officials here were cheered by even the brief reports from Wake, which indicated "no possibility" of the chance of continued successful resistance. The navy has not revealed in any of its communications whether help is being sent to the garrison.

Subs in Hawaii Area
Navy communique No. 7 also revealed that new enemy submarines are being reported as operating in the Hawaiian area.

Vigorous attacks are being made against them," was the only detail the navy revealed.

It was the first instance of Japanese activity reported in that area by the navy or any other source since the "sneak" attack on Pearl Harbor a week ago last Sunday.

The war department issued communique No. 9 yesterday revealing that "extensive air reconnaissance" is continuing along the Pacific coast of the Hawaiian Islands. Japanese air activity continues in the Philippines theater.

The Yanks--From Idaho--Are Coming!

"The Yanks are coming." That World War I slogan might well have been repeated this morning at the Twin Falls post as 15 youths from this section of Idaho left for Salt Lake City and final enlistment in the United States navy. In the picture above the boys salute C. A. Edmondson (left) local navy recruiter as a "see you later" gesture. The youths shown in the picture include T. W. Richmond, Bush, D. L. Ziegler, Filer, L. R. Craft, Twin Falls; M. L. Ohlsonstead, Filer; C. G. Long, Bliss; C. K. Taylor, Twin Falls; W. G. Linea, Twin Falls; J. K. Wilkerson, Twin Falls; L. J. Sirahn, Eden; F. D. Scott, Kimberly; T. W. Burkhardt, Bliss; W. A. Sandy, Shoshone; W. S. Petty, Jerome; H. C. Hoover, Twin Falls; and C. Lapp, Jerome. Scores of friends and relatives saw the boys on their way and Mrs. Joe Koehler presented the recruits with cigarettes. (Times Photo and Engraving.)

Japs Penned up on Luzon Isle; Enemy Transports Bombed

American armed forces struck offensively against Japan in the Philippines—and possibly in Japanese waters—today as British armies battled in defense of Hong Kong and Singapore.

On the island of Luzon, United States aerial bombs blasted Japanese invaders penned in three isolated coastal sectors in an effort to cut them to pieces, and other planes attacked enemy reinforcements moving by sea toward the islands.

LATE FLASHES

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15 (UP)—Secretary of the Navy Frank Knox, declaring the navy was not on the alert against the surprise attack on Hawaii, revealed today that the Pacific fleet lost the battleship Arizona, three destroyers and two lesser craft there Dec. 7.

At the same time, he told a press conference that a formal investigation will be initiated immediately by the President to determine why the U. S. military services in Hawaii were not on guard against the sudden Japanese onslaught.

He summarized the results of the Hawaiian engagement as follows:

1. The navy lost the battleship Arizona by a direct bomb hit; the old target ship Utah which was being used as a training ship for anti-aircraft gunnery and experimental purposes; the destroyers Cassin, and Shaw; and the mine layer Ogala.
2. Japanese losses included three submarines and 41 aircraft.
3. Navy personnel losses on both ships and shore included 2,729 officers and men killed and 656 wounded.
4. Army losses were severe in aircraft and some hangars, but replacements have arrived or are on the way.

Knox said the navy sustained damage to other vessels—damage varying from ships which already have been repaired and made ready for sea, or which have gone to sea, to a few ships which may require from a week to several months to repair.

The battleship Oklahoma, one of the older ones, was captured but can be righted and repaired.

"The entire balance of the Pacific fleet with its aircraft carriers, its heavy cruisers, its light cruisers, its destroyers and submarines is uninjured, and is all at sea seeking contact with the enemy," Knox said.

He added in reply to a question that he meant to include battleships in the balance of the fleet now at sea.

Idaho Japanese Can't Cross Into Tawana Or Adjacent States

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15 (Special)—No Japanese resident of Idaho can cross the Idaho-Tawana border into an adjoining state. The registration of foreigners, which is by many means a life-saver, is being enforced in Idaho.

The "border" between Idaho and Tawana is not a physical one, but a legal one. It is the result of a special division of FBI. Although some hundreds of Japanese have been placed under the supervision of a special division of FBI, all others registered have been picked up by government and state officials on the border. The government is still in a quandary what to do with these nationals.

In addition to the old-country Japanese there are the native-born of Japanese ancestry. These are a problem. Born in the United States, they are as completely citizens as any other person. American citizens are loyal to the United States. Those born in California some 142,000 are dual citizens, with a lesser number in other states of the northwest. It is a matter of debate in the chambers of congress whether the native-born Japanese-Americans are loyal to the United States. Thousands of them have had their birth certificates filed with Japanese consuls and the latter send the documents to Nippon. These are known as dual citizens; Japanese citizens as subjects and eligible to the army, although they may protest their single-hearted loyalty to Uncle Sam.

FDR Reveals Jap 'Subs' Took Part In Hawaii Attack

By LYLE C. WILSON
WASHINGTON, Dec. 15 (UP)—President Roosevelt revealed today that Japanese submarines as well as airplanes participated in the sudden onslaught on the Hawaiian islands on Dec. 7.

He made the disclosure in a report to congress on the background of the war with Japan, in which he also revealed that Japan was making preparations for pending three hours and 40 minutes after the attack began.

"The actual air and submarine attack on the Hawaiian islands," the President said, began at 1:20 p. m., Washington time on Dec. 7.

He made four Japanese submarines taken part in the attack on Hawaii, and Washington time that day three hours and 40 minutes after the Japanese attack had started—the Japanese minister for foreign affairs called on U. S. Ambassador Joseph Grew.

Grew was told, Mr. Roosevelt said, that Emperor Hirohito, to whom the President had sent a last-minute special appeal on the previous day, had formulated many days before, the plan for the attack which had already been made without warning, and was in progress at various points in the Pacific.

The report said Grew was not informed of the Japanese reply until after it had been delivered by Japanese Ambassador Kichisaburo Nomura to Secretary of State Cordell Hull in Washington. It was given to him one hour after hostilities had started.

Mr. Roosevelt told congress that the "barbaric aggression" of Japan in Manchuria in 1931 set the example and the pattern for the conquest of the Pacific by Italy and Germany in Africa and in Europe.

"Through the years which followed," Germany, Italy, and Japan recurred an undertaking to limit their acts of aggression to their common advantage—and to being able to extend the dominion of the rest of the world," the President said.

Reviews earlier Peace Efforts
He reviewed this country's support of the League of Nations in attempting to dissuade Japan from its conquest in China in the early 1920s. That Japan, he said, accepted the terms of the League of Nations and its prohibition and extreme nationalism.

He said the result of Japan's interest in the countries which have joined in fighting the Japanese.

"These and other peace-loving countries," he said, "are now, first, to put an end to Japan's program of aggression and, second, to make good the right of nations and mankind to live in peace now."

Rush Keeping Three Recruit Offices Busy

Local recruiting offices for the army, navy and the marines today continued to attract scores of youths interested in joining the armed forces of the United States, a check by the Times showed.

Two recruits were kept busy at the navy office in the postoffice building while the army recruiter, announced names of two tentatively accepted for that branch of the service. They are Cole C. Thompson, 23, Gooding, and Roy Chasnel, 30, also of Gooding. Both were accepted for the air corps at Jefferson barracks, Mo.

Egt. Stanley J. Jazdyk, marine recruiter, said that five men were scheduled to leave for Salt Lake City and final enlistment tonight. He did not release their names, however, pointing out that such information would be withheld until the report for the Salt Lake trip.

Those accepted for enlistment received only a small part of the actual application or seeking information. It was estimated today that up until 1 p. m., the three post office offices interviewed a total of 135 men.

American Planes Damage Two Jap Transport Ships

MANILA, Dec. 15 (UP)—American war planes badly damaged two Japanese transport ships and downed four Japanese fighters in a blasting attack on the invasion area in the Legaspi sector of southern Luzon, a communique of the far eastern army said today.

The damaged transports were in addition to four sunk and three damaged in previous aerial attacks off northern Luzon island.

Red Armies Pursue Big Nazi Force

MOSCOW, Dec. 15 (UP)—The Red army's counter-offensive spread today along a 1,000-mile front from Tagnanov on the sea of Azov to Tikhvin, 110 miles east of Leningrad, and dispatches said the Soviet attacks had become a battle of extermination against numerous encircled axis sectors.

A telephonic dispatch from the northwestern front said troops of General K. A. Meretskov—the liberator of Tikhvin—pursued the battered 39th German corps westward that German defenses on the Volkhov river had been smashed, and that 100 villages had been recaptured. The German 30th army lost 20,000 men in retreat from Tikhvin, the newspaper Pravda said.

On the southwestern front, General Losenko regained 400 villages in six days, liberated the cities of Yermolino and Lovat, south of Moscow, and continued to press toward Orel, more than 200 miles south of Moscow, front dispatches said.

A dispatch to the newspaper Pravda said the railway between Tikhvin and Volkhov had been recaptured.

On the central front, Pravda said, the 14th German panzer division, the 23rd infantry and the 6th panzer division are in full flight, harassed by Russian cavalry cut air force. General Kuznetsov's forces recaptured 42 villages, while south and southwest of them 89 more villages were recaptured, Pravda said.

In the south, Marshal Timoshenko's armies are attacking near Blagovino, midway between Kharkov and

Approval Given For Navy Boost

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15 (UP)—The navy has approved today legislation authorizing a $100,000,000 increase in the size of the navy.

The navy had requested authorization for a 30 per cent expansion which would have amounted to 900,000 tons.

Rep. James W. Mott, R., Ore., said the bill would increase the navy's tonnage by 100,000 tons, which would be a 30 per cent increase in the navy's tonnage in 1942.

The navy's original request contemplated a three-year building program.

The naval affairs committee said the navy could ask for the rest as fast as appropriations are available to handle it.

516 Veterans Offer to Help Home Defense

Veterans of World War I—516 in all—have offered their services to their country for the second time in approximately 26 years.

The veterans, coming from all over Twin Falls county, Sunday afternoon crowded the American Legion hall here as they answered call for formation of a volunteer home guard which, in emergency, can serve any place in the state.

Only the able bodied men in the group were asked to register yesterday. The group will be made up of all those veterans with defects, minor or major, were asked not to enroll. As a result, 134 actually signed up to serve when called.

Fourteen homes guard units will be established in Idaho, including the one in Twin Falls, W. W. Frazier, local American Legion post commander, said today. The Legion is handling the registrations.

The men will be available for guard duty anywhere in the state, including the home guard units. They will be equipped with regular army uniforms, rifles and ammunition.

Commander Frazier offered services of the men to any of the county commissioners, and also to Twin Falls which has the largest number of men. He and the city commission

Turkey Will Retain Neutrality Standing

By EVERETT K. HOLLES
WASHINGTON, Dec. 15 (UP)—Turkey's declaration of neutrality was greeted here today as indication that the Turks have successfully resisted recent American pressure to line up with the axis.

For less comforting, however, was the new assertion that United States entry into the war does not change the Irish position of friendly neutrality.

The week-end Turkish and Irish developments indicated that both were seeking to continue strong ties with the United States while maintaining their difficult positions as neutrals.

The only other important neutrals in the war arena are Spain, Portugal, Sweden and Switzerland. Spain's policies are considered dominated by the axis and Sweden, because of her strategic position, appears economically, at least, with the axis orbit. Portugal's neutrality is precarious and may become more so if there are attempts by the axis or Germany to establish bases on Portuguese islands in the Atlantic. Switzerland is expected to retain their traditional neutrality.

State department officials told yesterday that Ireland was made yesterday at Cork, Ireland, by Mr. York-born Prime Minister Eamon de Valera.

State department officials told yesterday that the United States, now that it is belligerent, might bring strong pressure against de Valera to obtain the use of Irish ports and naval bases not cautious silence, but diplomats believed there would be early communications between Washington and Dublin.

Durham Will Be Scene of Bowl Clash

PASADENA, Calif., Dec. 15 (UP)—The Oregon State-Oregon State football game will be played in Durham, N. C., the home of Duke.

Had Oregon State publicity director, said the game would be played under Coast conference rules, but as long as it was being played in Pasadena.

He said it was not immediately known whether the tickets arrangement would be made.

Percy Lacey, athletic director for Oregon State, will remain here for three or four days to make complete arrangements for the transfer.

West Hinterland Will Be Mapped

HALT LAKE CITY, Dec. 15 (UP)—The entire "back country" of the west will be mapped accurately under a program started by the U. S. department of geology. It was disclosed today.

P. E. Barry, regional geologist for Utah, said that present plans call for maps being brought up to date with air roads, trails, power and communication lines, wells and water developments later.

TECHNIQUE

NEW YORK, Dec. 15 (UP)—National Broadcasting company reported from London today that the British radio is using the new technique in its broadcasts to Germany.

Seven mechanical clock ticks are heard over the air. They are a code, a German die in Russia, is it your husband? Is it your son or your brother?

How, while the beleaguered garrison at Sevastopol in the Crimea is hammering at the Germans without respite, Pravda said.

Dispatches from the front said Soviet forces had stormed Tagnanov, while German were reported occasionally counter-attacking. Soviet units were reported to have penetrated the German rear beyond the river Altsa, assaulting the Japanese.

The dispatches said the Red army troops were surrounding German army units entrenched in buildings and were taking them with the Iron

KNOX GIVES FULL REPORT ON PEARL HARBOR TO PRESIDENT

PUBLIC NOT YET TOLD OF ACTUAL BATTLE RESULTS

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15 (AP)—Secretary of the Navy Frank Knox today reported to President Roosevelt in detail his inspection of damages wrecked by Japanese bombers on American defense establishments in the Hawaiian Islands.

Knox returned to the capital last night, saw the President there, and was the first caller to the White House today. It was expected that his conferences with the President might result in formulation of new policies in the light of actual war conditions and his first-hand knowledge of conditions in Hawaiian strongholds.

There was still no indication when the government would make a more complete report to the public on damage at Pearl harbor, huge U. S. naval base outside Honolulu, which bore the brunt of the surprise attack a week ago yesterday.

Knox has information White House Secretary Stephen T. Early said he had received information would come from Knox, but that he did not know when it would be ready.

White House announcements told of severe damage at Pearl harbor and nearby army posts, with 3,500 casualties and loss of two warships.

There was speculation whether Knox's investigation would lead to changes in either army or navy command in the Hawaiian area. This was coupled with reports that Admiral William D. Leahy would return from his ambassadorial post in Vichy to take a high defense position, possibly as commander of the entire mid-Pacific area. Leahy is 65 years old.

Official navy announcement that on Wake Island "the marines continue to resist" added to the urgent enthusiasm with which congress approached his job. It was probable, however, that Guam and its garrison of 400 navy ratings and officers and 15 marines had been captured.

Nothing has been revealed from Midway Island since a 9 a. m. Saturday when the navy said it was continuing to resist.

BOISE, Dec. 15 (AP)—Prize for civilian morale in Pacific coast cities was expressed last night by Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt during a brief airplane stop-over here.

"Morale on the coast is very high," the first lady declared. "Everywhere I went there was great defense activity, both in civilian and military lines."

Grangers Awake to Duty In Crisis, Taylor Asserts

By A. HARVESTER

That the Grange in America, from the lowest subordinate to the National Grange, is fully awake to the responsibility which rests upon the shoulders of each member of the order was the opinion voiced by State Master E. T. Taylor before 150 Grangers and friends gathered for the 20th annual installation of officers of the Twin Falls County Promote Grange.

The session was held at Odd Fellows hall in Twin Falls Saturday night.

Mr. Taylor said that the Grange, considered in the trying conditions that followed the Civil war in an effort to heal the wounds left by four years of bitter strife, in which brother had been aligned against brother and father against son, felt deeply the burden laid upon it by the present crisis.

"At no time in the history of the order has the responsibility been greater, or the task harder than at the present," he said. "We are faced as an organization with the task of adequately and generously supplying the needs of our country, not only of our own country, but also to provide a surplus for our allies. And while we are doing this we must protect the interests of the American farmer, that he may not be the victim of the same harsh adjustment he followed the other world conflict."

Honorable Place

The American farmer has filled an honorable place in the history of this nation, according to Taylor, who returned recently from the National Grange sessions at Worcester, Mass. And while in the New England states and the east, Mr. Taylor visited some of the shrines that the early builders of the republic made sacred by their undying devotion to the cause of liberty. And in these shrines the name of the American farmer has an important place.

It was the farmers that "gave them ball for ball" at the battle of Lexington, the first battle of the American revolution. It was the farmer that stained the fields of Valley Forge with the blood of his shoes, feet, for we were a nation of farmers at that time. And it has been the farmer boy that sat in the highest place in the nation, as our country has repeatedly faced the crises that have faced this great nation. It was a farmer boy who said that this nation "God shall have a new birth of freedom" that government of the people, by the people, and for the people shall not perish from the earth.

It was a farmer boy, said Mr. Taylor, who sat in the presidential chair of this young nation first began to assume the stature of a world power, during the Spanish-American war and the period immediately following. It was a farm-raised boy who guided the destinies of the ship of state during the last World War. And lest we forget, it was a farmer who led these same forces, ragged and bleeding at the feet, during that terrible and never-to-be-forgotten winter at Valley Forge.

And it is a member of the Grange and a farmer by birth, said the Grange master, who now toils the reins of government as we take our place by the side of those nations that are fighting the ruthless war machine of Hitler and his scoundrels, "who are seeking so desperately to fasten the fangs of destruction into the very bowels of our civilization."

The farmer has been the bulwark of our nation in more ways than one. But, said Mr. Taylor, when we go down this time we want capital and labor to go all the way with us; and when we start up we want all three to start even, with no favors shown. We must have access to ample supplies of steel for farm machinery and sufficient help on the farm if we are to produce the food and materials that the government is asking us to provide for the defense of the nation, in the opinion of Mr. Taylor.

"The farmer stands ready to live up to traditions which the farmers of this nation have so nobly upheld, but we ask to be placed on a par with the other great classes of American people."

Felate Unfairness

An item of Mr. Taylor's talk that challenged the attention of his hearers and about which there is a determination to do something, was the fact that Idaho potatoes are the victims of unfair competition in many of our large market centers. Mr. Taylor showed his hearers 10 potatoes that he had paid 21¢ for in Worcester, none of them No. 1 potatoes, and in fact, we in south Idaho are feeding better spuds to our cows as culls. And these potatoes were shown for sale alongside of the finest of Maine potatoes, that with retailing at 12¢ pounds for 32¢. Nor is this the first time that this state of affairs has come to the attention of the Grange. The Grangers feel that the government should be able to do something about it. But Mr. Taylor's solution seems more direct. His remedy would be for the producers, through cooperative, to own the potatoes until they pass into the hands of the consumer. All of the advertising that we could do would hardly offset the effect of such adverse and unfavorable impressions of Idaho spuds as must surely be gained by such unfair sales methods as those described.

Felate Idaho Grangers

Mr. Taylor paid a high tribute to the efforts of the Grangers of the nation as a whole, but especially praised those of the Grange during the past year of Idaho Grangers, and exhibited a gold emblem that he had received as master of an outstanding State Grange, being one of five states to be so honored, among the 37 states in which the Grange is active. Mr. Taylor characterized the recent session of the National Grange the greatest in history, as 13,000 Grangers took the seventh degree, the greatest number ever to be given degrees in any year. Only 3,500 could receive the degree at one time and as the time required to confer the degree is about two hours, it required one whole day to confer the degree on the 13,000.

Over 21,000 Grangers in all were in attendance at the sessions, which were held in Memorial hall, just recently completed in memory of the World war heroes. Mr. Taylor said that National Lecturer James C. Farmer, of New Hampshire, stated before the National Grange that the last session of the Idaho State Grange was one of the finest he had ever attended.

Install Juveniles

The very efficient way in which Ronald Smith, a member of West Point Grange, assisted by State Treasurer Ray Smith, Wendell, with aid of his assistants, Robert Brand, Glenn Lee Brand, Betty McClellan and his sister, Norma Smith, installed the officers of Kimberly Juveniles Grange, called forth generous applause from the audience. Nor was the installation of the Pomona officers less imposing, in which Ray Smith, assisted by Mrs. Smith, Melissa McClellan, Lawrence Hill and Irene Hill, did a very impressive ceremony and Master-Orator Eric Jones said he needed the whole-hearted support of all Grange members in the year ahead.

Others Installed

Other officers installed were R. O. Harding, over-seer; Mrs. J. M. Pierce, lecturer; Howard Cobb, steward; Frank Eastman, assistant steward; Mrs. George R. Johnson, chaplain; Mrs. L. G. Cobb, business; Roy Haveland, secretary; Tom Heffelman, gate keeper; Mrs. Emma Kruse, Corer; Mrs. A. Pennington, Mrs. F. E. Southwick, Flora; Mrs. Frank Eastman, lady assistant steward.

Victors were present from Eden Grange, Pleasant Plains, Valley Grange, and J. M. Erlandson, a member of the Washington State Grange was also present. John De-mond, state deputy, of Valley Grange, spoke briefly and told of the esteem and respect in which the Grange was held because of the behavior of the delegates to the recent State Grange session. Lewiston, various persons called the Grangers the "cleanest bunch" they had ever attended, for which we are all very proud. My always deserve such high compliments.

Mr. Taylor characterized the recent session of the National Grange the greatest in history, as 13,000 Grangers took the seventh degree, the greatest number ever to be given degrees in any year. Only 3,500 could receive the degree at one time and as the time required to confer the degree is about two hours, it required one whole day to confer the degree on the 13,000.

LATE SHERIFF'S DAUGHTER HURT

Jerome, Dec. 15 (Special)—Miss Gladys Parker, daughter of the late Sheriff Art Parker and Mrs. Parker, Twin Falls, was in St. Valentine's hospital at Wendell today undergoing treatment for hurts received in an auto wreck 15 miles southeast of here Sunday about 8:45 a. m.

Passenger in the car with Miss Parker was Mrs. Alex Fuller, Death, Nev. She was only slightly injured.

Investigating officers said that Miss Parker was driving east on highway 25 when she attempted to pass a machine driven by F. E. Spencer, Jerome. As she did so her car slipped from the road and went down a 12-foot embankment, rolling over several times. The car was badly damaged.

Miss Parker's auto did not hit the Spencer machine before leaving the highway.

CARRIERS, UNION SETTLE CONFLICT

CHICAGO, Dec. 15 (AP)—Wayne L. Morse, chairman of President Roosevelt's emergency mediation board, announced today that the 14 cooperating railroad brotherhoods and the railroad carriers had signed an agreement settling the differences involved in the recent threatened nationwide strike.

The agreement, reached after a conference lasting 38 hours, was based on the mediation settlement at Washington, Dec. 1, which averted a scheduled strike by the big five operating brotherhoods, Morse said.

The settlement provided for an 18-month moratorium starting Dec. 1 on all national and regional movements for changes in working rules. It also established a basic minimum wage of 46 cents an hour and provided for an hourly increase of 10 cents.

SALMON, Ida., Dec. 15 (AP)—Emerson McGovern, about 36, Clayton silver mine employe, was killed yesterday in an auto accident. Police reported the car was driving failed to make a turn at the Carmien bridge, three miles south of here.

Shrine Evacuates Crippled Children From West Coast

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 15 (AP)—The Shrine's hospital for crippled children, acting on the policy the present emergency is real, is gradually discharging children to their homes and is making arrangements to transfer others to Salt Lake City. Mrs. Eugene R. Polmer, superintendent, announced today.

Action was taken after the hospital adopted a policy of offering the facilities of its staff and equipment for any service it can render the community in time of emergency.

The steps to discharge some of the children to their homes were taken so that facilities may be available in case of war need. A few children will remain at the hospital until the chief surgeon decides they can be removed.

Arrangements are being made to send these patients to the Shrine's hospital for crippled children in Salt Lake.

PROBE OPENS ON SEATTLE BLAZE

SEATTLE, Dec. 15 (AP)—Fire department officials today were seeking to determine the cause of a three-alarm fire which raged uncontrolled for two hours last night through the three-story Sanitary Public Market near Seattle's waterfront.

The damage had not yet been officially estimated, but it was indicated to be high.

The interior of the black-square building, ranging from two to five stories in height, was destroyed. The building houses several manufacturing concerns in addition to food stores and fruit and vegetable stalls, many operated by Japanese.

At the height of the fire, patrons of the Liberty theater across the street were herded through the rear exits.

SAFE—AND BUSY.

Probably as busy these days as any person in Honolulu is Miss Helen Megeer, daughter of Mrs. Mary Megeer, Twin Falls. She took time off from her duties at Children's hospital, however, to call on her mother, "Am all right."

The cablegram was received here last week-end, bringing welcome relief to members of her family.

She has been in the Hawaiian Islands almost three years.

War Mothers, 1941 and 1917, Join In Maintaining Morale of U. S. A.

How Twin Falls county women are taking the present emergency "in stride," determined to be their efficient in everything from morale-maintenance, to war work, to social activities—is reflected in the "warrior women" letter, a representative woman of this community.

"First things first" means something different to each of them—but the results are the same. Helping to win the war. Here's what they say.

Three Men at War

Mrs. J. W. Adamson, whose husband, J. W. Adamson, and a son, L. Adamson, are with the Morrison-Knudsen construction company defense workers on Wake Island. "I am keeping my fingers crossed for my son, Dale J. Adamson (another member of the family). I am not worrying unduly; I am confident that all will happen. Dale telephoned last week, just before he boarded his ship. I keep remembering what he said.

"Mother, I can give the best I've got to my country. If I know the way, I am not worrying. Don't depend on the men in the service for so much financial support at a time like this when our nation needs everything it has to put into material and equipment. We don't expect too much from our government and we don't expect too much from you. I am writing, never stop, even if you don't hear from us. We'll get the mail if possible, and we'll write when we can. Keep your letters coming."

"First things first" means getting behind the families who are being held in the service, showing them consideration that they may pass on the courage to "their men in uniform."

Mrs. A. S. Martyn, past state president of the Idaho chapter, American War Mothers. "First let us set our feet on the ground of the universe, who can bring good out of evil. Let us keep our faith in America, and live only one day at a time, doing our best daily to give ourselves for whatever may come tomorrow, without undue concern for what tomorrow may bring."

"First things first" means shutting off the radio if its excitement keeps you from immediate tasks, and means curtailing those leisurely 45-minute or hour-long talks, when five or 15 minutes will do.

"First things first" means "the Mind."

Mrs. M. Inella McCoy, past state president of the Idaho Federation of Business and Professional Women's clubs. "We as women recognize that our principal responsibility is in the 'all-out' battle of the mind. For one thing, it is a good idea to take stock of everything it has to put into material and equipment. We don't expect too much from our government and we don't expect too much from you. I am writing, never stop, even if you don't hear from us. We'll get the mail if possible, and we'll write when we can. Keep your letters coming."

We must not, in our zeal to be doing something for our country, let down on our homemaking.

"We must keep our children well-clothed, well-fed and well-housed, our first line of defense. Women must play a very important part in this conflict and remember the keynote in every way is 'America.' Our duty is to use everything we have to save American democracy."

"First things first" means maintaining a normal schedule; plus making time for extra duties; plus converting our finances into the channels where most needed NOW.

American Idealism

Mrs. A. R. Scott, Hansen, regent of the Twin Falls chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution. "We are proud that the emblem of our society is the flag of the United States of America. We know that our sacrifice will make it red a little deeper. Its blue will be more like the blue of heaven; we are loyal and true. We want its white to shine with purity and righteousness of good lives as it stars to glow and become more brilliant by our devotion and faith.

"Now, when every heart feels the horror of our being at war, is the time when we must live the principles we profess. We must be strong and brave and level-headed, so that we will impart this courage and equilibrium to those we contact and thus create an area where our ideals will survive. An America that will be equal to any demand. Whatever our problem, whatever our difficulties, we can get guidance and help if we will seek it.

"May not Elihu's advice be just as good today as it was when the young man's eyes were opened and he saw, 'and behold the mountain was full of horses and chariots of fire round about Elihu.' May not the air round about us be just as full of God's angels? 'Fear not, for you have the witness more than they that be with them!'"

"First things first" means remembering the idealisms of church and state of December, 1941.

Rev. L. Clark officiated at the ring ceremony.

Elks Revel at Annual Charity Ball

Topping even the attendance at the New Year's eve dance last year—usually the largest dance of each season for the Twin Falls Elks lodge—was Saturday night's charity ball. More than 200 couples danced in the Elks ballroom against a setting of Christmas splendor. Largely responsible for the success of the event were, left to right, E. E. Flesher, member of the decorating committee; Mrs. Hayes, H. G. Hayes, esteemed leading knight and general chairman of arrangements; Mrs. Hayes, Mrs. J. H. Blanford, and J. H. Blanford, exalted ruler. (Times Photo and Engraving)

Winter Scene Brings Holiday Mood to Ball

Greeting more than 200 couples who attended the annual Elks charity ball Saturday evening at the Elks ballroom was a westerly winter setting of realistic beauty.

Snow-covered pine trees in varied sizes bordered the west end of the pavilion, where the orchestra stand was marked off by an old-fashioned "stake and rider" fence. At each corner of the hall was a large Christmas tree, flecked with artificial snow.

Service Men to Receive Gifts From Auxiliary

American Legion auxiliary room was a beehive of industry this afternoon as auxiliary members wrapped gift packages to be sent to Twin Falls youths in the several branches of the United States service, bearing "Merry Christmas" greetings from Twin Falls.

Homemade cookies, candies, cakes, toilet articles and similar items went into the boxes, packed under the direction of Mrs. M. L. Bigham, chairman of the Yule project for the auxiliary.

Last week the public was asked to hand the names and addresses of any Twin Falls youths known to be in the service, to the committee.

A dropped ceiling of red, green, yellow and blue lights was arranged overhead, and large bells were hung at the cross-section of red and green Christmas rope-colored Yule light strings. Adding to the frosty winter effect were silver icicles.

Committee on arrangements included Herman G. Hayes, chairman; E. E. Flesher, John Ford, Bill Madland, O. J. Bohne, Howard Hall, W. Frank Warner, Dale Stuyver, John Q. Adams, Jr., A. C. Carter and Max Phillips.

Proceeds will be used to provide Christmas dinner baskets for needy Twin Falls families.

Christmas cards with sentiments that mean so much are found at the Club Book Store—Adv.

DAV Auxiliary Fetes Families At Holiday Party

Attending a gala Christmas party and turkey dinner last week in the recreation room at the home of Mrs. Doris Stradley, were 50 guests, members of the Disabled American Veterans auxiliary, their husbands and children.

Mrs. E. L. Rayborn and Mrs. W. C. Stone assisted Mrs. Stradley with dinner arrangements, and Mrs. Jerry Adams and Mrs. Rayborn directed the games and contests, prizes going to Mrs. Clair Mathers, Miss Joan Grimsman, Mrs. Vivian Lawson, T. M. Knight and Johnny Horeja.

Auxiliary members conducted an exchange of "secret Pal" gifts, guessing identities of their "pals" the past year. New names were drawn for next year. Members also filled a Christmas basket for a needy family during the evening.

A large lighted Christmas tree in one corner of the room, and the fireplace mantel decorated with a miniature Santa Claus and reindeer in a snow-covered forest, added to the holiday air. White chrysanthemums centered the buffet dinner.

The auxiliary will send gifts to veterans from Twin Falls county who are patients at the Veterans' Hospital in Boise, and will also present gifts to Gold Star mothers.

Jean Sprague Arranges Broadcast From College

A "scoop" for women's colleges has been written by Miss Jean Sprague, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George F. Sprague, Twin Falls, and director of public relations for Sweet Briar college, Sweet Briar, Va.

The college will be headquarters for a nation-wide broadcast today from 8 to 8:30 p. m. on the Vox Pop program, heard each week over the Columbia Broadcasting system at that time.

The broadcast will be the first to originate in a woman's college, according to the directors of the program. Miss Sprague was instrumental in making the arrangements for the broadcast. She is a former sociology editor of the Idaho Evening Times.

The program will be conducted by Patric Johnson and Wally Sotter, who are heard with the program as interviewers each week, and members of the student body will participate.

Vera Heidemann, W. Edwards Wed

Miss Vera Heidemann and William Edwards, both of Twin Falls, were united in marriage Saturday at 1 p. m. at the Christian church parsonage.

The marriage service was read by Rev. Mark C. Cronenberger. Both the bride's and bridegroom's parents attended the ceremony.

Following a brief wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Edwards will be at home in Twin Falls. Mr. Edwards is associated with his father in the management of Sunset Memorial park.

Panhellenic to Complete Dance Plans Saturday

Panhellenic association will meet Saturday at 1 p. m. for the annual Christmas luncheon at the Park hotel.

Holders are Mrs. Clyde Koonz, chairman of the committee; Mrs. George Seidel and Mrs. P. J. Bonin.

All women eligible to membership in the group—those having affiliation with national college social societies—are invited to attend, according to Mrs. Robert Werner, president.

They are asked to notify any member of the hostess committee.

Plans will be completed for the annual Christmas dance Dec. 26 at the Elks hall, which is expected to be the largest attended of any Panhellenic-sponsored formal in several years.

Needlecraft Club Exchanges Gifts

Needlecraft club met for the annual Christmas party and gift exchange last week at the home of Mrs. T. J. Lloyd. Pollyanna gifts were also presented, and names chosen for the new year.

The lace-covered table had a centerpiece of holly and winter fruits. A two-course luncheon was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Williams.

Kansas and Iowa State Favorites In Big Six Conference Cage Race

Up Roberts, left, Oklahoma forward, and Marvin Sollenberger, Kansas guard, are big shots in the Big Six.

By BURTON BENJAMIN

NEA Service
Big Six conference basketball rolls down to a big three dog fight. Here is the winter book:

Defending champion—Oklahoma State and Kansas.
Favorite—Kansas.
Contender—Oklahoma State.
Dark horse—Oklahoma.
Kansas, traditional powerhouse, was knocked into a tie with Iowa State on the final night last season when an underdog Oklahoma team defeated the Jayhawks 45-37.

Verbose but capable Dr. Phog Allen, in his 25th year as coach of Kansas, finds himself with five lead after last season's squad and two from the previous year.

Only first stringers available are Marvin Sollenberger and Ralph Miller, both handicapped by knee injuries. Howard Engelman, last season's Big Six scoring champion with an average of 18.3 points per game, is unavailable. So did Bob Allen, another all-conference star; John Klina, Norman Sanneman, Bill Horan and Ed Hall.

Among the lettermen, T. P. Hunter, Vance Hall, John Buecher, Charles Walker and Bob Johnson will see service. Ray Evans is the best of a crack crew of sophomores.

Letterman Carl Schneider, six-foot six, and Henry Vogt, two inches shorter, make Iowa State a real threat.
Schneider averaged 7.5 points per game for Louis Menz's Oycloines last season.
Oklahoma has a sophomore team headed by the publicized Gerry Tucker, who is called the finest player the state has ever known. Tucker was a freshman at Kansas, but transferred to Oklahoma.

He is a high-ranking tennis player and a good singer besides playing a whirlwind game at center for the Sooners.
Other Oklahoma sophomore prospects are Bob McCarty, Jack Gray and Dick Rutch. Up Roberts and Paul Heap are veterans.
Missouri had a dismal season last year when ineptly robbed the squad of letterman Arch Watson and Keith Sanger at mid-semester and a foot injury incapacitated veteran Herb Gregg.
Coach George Edwards looks for a better season with six lettermen returning and some promising newcomers, led by the left handed shotmaker, Ed Matheny.
Veteran Don Harvey has the edge at the other forward. Six-foot five-inch Roy Storm will start at center, with Capt. Loren Mills and George Evans at the guards.
Nebraska was a troublesome squad last season, and A. J. Lewandowski's lengthy legs may upset a few favored rivals.

Experienced Players
Missouri Valley conference shapes up as a battle between last season's Creighton champion and Oklahoma A. and M., the runner-up.
Eddie Hickey of Creighton lost two men by graduation, but has a good sophomore contingent headed by Joe Lissel, Harry Hess, Tom Dintzen, Frank Hebenstreit and Bob Timm.
All-Conference Ed Belser, six-foot seven-inch center, should have a big year if he has sufficiently recuperated from a broken leg incurred toward the end of the last campaign. Don Shearer and Duane Noyes are returning veterans.

Oklahoma Aggies should provide stiff resistance with L. J. Eggleston, J. T. Newman, Charles Scheffel, Bud Millikan and Jack Taylor, all seniors, plus three junior reserves, Buford Madford, Dow Wiginton and Gene Bell.
The Missouri Valley looks like a two-team monopoly.

Coast Black-outs Were Not Tests, U. S. Army Reveals

DEFENSE LEADER ADMITS FLARES DROPPED FRIDAY

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 15 (AP)—San Francisco underwent five blackouts during the first week of the war, and in no case was it a test, the army western defense command announced today.

It verified reports of "unidentified" aircraft flying over the bay area today, added that flares "apparently dropped by enemy aircraft" were seen Friday night during the region's first blackout, two hours and 38 minutes.

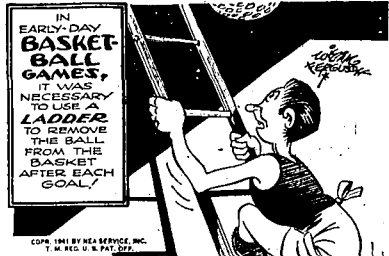

Lieut. Gen. John L. DeWitt, head of the army's western defense command, issued his first "communique" last night and in it emphasized that every blackout in San Francisco was genuine—based on official military information indicating a definite danger of air attack by planes in the immediate vicinity.

"The planes were first located offshore and later in the San Francisco bay region," the statement continued. "The navy and other agencies reported their presence. This information was further supported by the fact that no army or navy planes were over the area at that time. Flares were seen in the sky, apparently dropped by enemy aircraft. The all clear signal was given when the planes disappeared."

There was a three-minute blackout in San Diego last night, first on the Pacific coast since Friday night.

14 CONVICTED ON SPY ACTIVITIES

NEW YORK, Dec. 15 (AP)—Fourteen persons convicted of transmitting information on United States defenses to Germany and failing to register as foreign agents awaited sentencing today at the end of the first espionage trial of the war.

A federal jury in Brooklyn found them guilty after more than nine hours deliberation. It returned its verdict shortly before last midnight, 14 weeks to the day after the trial started. Federal judge Mortimer W. Byers remanded the 14 to jail until Monday, which he set for sentencing today.

They face a maximum jail sentence of 22 years each. Attorneys for Edmund Heine, who once earned $100 a year as managing director of the Ford Motor company in Germany, said he would appeal the conviction. Other defense counsel made no immediate statement.

The conviction was the climax of federal bureau of investigation counter-espionage activities which began in February, 1940, when William Sobel, key state's witness, returned from Germany and informed federal officials he had agreed, under duress, to act as a spy here. He had been ordered by German agents to build a powerful short-wave radio station to communicate with a station near Hamburg, Germany.

The FBI moved in on the spies July 15, after the arrest of three women. Two others had been arrested previously. The 33 prisoners were indicted July 15 and within a few days, it pleaded guilty. Two more entered guilty pleas shortly after the trial began Sept. 3.

THREE BURNED IN CORVALLIS FIRE

CORVALLIS, Ore., Dec. 15 (AP)—Three persons were burned to death yesterday when a two-story farmhouse at Sulphur Springs, 12 miles northwest of Corvallis, was destroyed by flames.

The dead were Mrs. H. H. Hillebrand, 50; a son, Homer, 18, and her brother-in-law, Arthur H. Hillebrand, 50. Another son, William, 18, was severely burned as he was being carried from the second floor by his father, H. H. Hillebrand. They were all asleep when the fire occurred. Mrs. Hillebrand was burned to death trying to save her son, Homer. Bodies of mother and son were found at the top of the stairs.

GUARDS SIGN-UP IN IDAHO HEAVY

BOISE, Ida., Dec. 15 (AP)—Idaho home guard officers today had available nearly four times the number of men needed to form the Boise contingent.

During a six-hour registration period Boise American Legion officials signed up 234 men whose names will be placed on the list to form a 60-man unit here. Heavy response to the call was also reported in other Idaho cities but complete figures were unavailable.

Formation of the 800-man state home guard was made legal by a proclamation of Gov. Chase A. Clark. The proclamation said that "there is imminent danger of disaster, invasion, riot, breach of peace and sabotage within the state of Idaho and by reason thereof it is necessary that a part of the unorganized militia be called into active service."

Lieut. Gen. M. G. McConnell expected to have guard units on duty in 16 cities by the middle of next week.

HUGE FLOOD TOLL

LIMA, Peru, Dec. 15 (AP)—The toll of a week-end flood that destroyed at least half the residential section of Lima, a departmental capital, may reach 2,000, reports from the stricken Santa river area disclosed today.

Here's Picture of Fort Lewis As War and Blackouts Arrive

PORT LEWIS, Dec. 15 (Special)—"What did the boys in olive drab think about the blackout?"

"Think? Hell, buddy, they didn't think. All that's bygone stuff now! And that, in simple essence, is the reaction of men of Fort Lewis who garbed in steel helmets, with gas masks awning out at their belts, walked from their mess halls at 5 p. m. into blacked-out barracks—and into a new part of soldiering, as it were.

Life in the barracks, always fraternal and friendly, isn't the same after five o'clock. Now it is chance reflected light, and not that from regulation 50 watt globes, which falls upon the whiteness of the rolled collars of the bunkers or a towel hung over the rafters.

Now it is time to memorize the number of stars; to learn to brush the teeth in darkness; to learn not to bump the chin on the drinking fountain and to remember that it can't take more than a few seconds to put on the gas mask.

There is walking. Not the old kind—for a discharge, or a new light, or for a date next Saturday night—not the kind which becomes a dull habit. Now it is anxious waiting. "What's in it? And when?"

One soldier took a shower in the dark: "Well, he remarked when he came out, 'well shower, same as usual, 'cept I stepped in the foot-bath with my shoes on.'"

In one barracks the men, faced with an old problem under different circumstances... that of amusement for themselves, started to play: "I'm thinking of a man."

"Living or dead?" "He's living," was the reply. "He's living," was the reply.

The first sergeant came into the barracks. "Och, men, your attention," he said evenly, "I'm appointing Jensen here your barracks fire-warden. He'll lead you out whenever the alarm sounds. Remember, no more than two men together, spread apart, no bunching."

Dietrich Man's Brother Killed In Jap Bombing

SHOSHONE, Dec. 15 (Special)—Roy Lipe, Lincoln county farmer living in the Dietrich community, accepted the consolation from the navy department—that his brother, William Lipe, serving with the United States navy, had died in line of duty.

Relatives interviewed stated that Mr. Lipe was stationed at Pearl Harbor and the Japanese aerial attack took place. He was 30 years of age and had enlisted in the navy at Seattle about a year ago. He is survived by a wife and a six-year-old daughter.

A sister, Mrs. Will Chapin, also resides at Dietrich. So far as is known this is the first Idaho resident reported killed in action during the present war. Approximately 20 men from Lincoln county are now serving in the army and navy forces stationed in the Hawaiian and Philippine areas.

Five young men from Shoshone are employed at the various defense and projects in the war area of the Pacific.

BLACK-OUT?

HOLLYWOOD, Dec. 15 (AP)—Anne Gwynne, slapsly Universal starlet, today was chosen the girl with whom we would most prefer to be caught in a blackout, by the University of Southern California chapter of the Alpha Epsilon.

Miss Gwynne, a red-haired Waco, Tex., and Stephens college girl, is the one just finished playing the feminine lead in an Abbott and Costello picture.

No lights out at 9 p. m. But it didn't make any difference. Everyone slept, some in their shirts and some with their shoes on. But they slept. And none shaved in the morning.
