U. S. FIGHTERS LEAD BATTLE ON JAPS

Japanese Land Troops on Philippine Mindanao Isle

Danger Spot for Region Is Under Gigantic Attack

By FRANK HEWLETT

MANILA, Dec. 20 (UP)—An army communiqué reported today that Japanese troops had landed in force at Davao, acute danger spot of the Philippines, and that heavy fighting was in progress.

The communiqué quoted reliable reports that the landing had been effected. No details were available immediately on the numbers involved or the positions of the defense forces.

News of the new threat to the United States and Philippine forces came in the following communiqué issued at noon:

"It has been reliably reported that the Japanese have landed in force at Davao and that heavy fighting has been going on all morning. A 4 p. m. communiqué said fighting continued at Davao and announced a 'night' bombing of the army's Nichols Air Base here at midnight.

It was reported that the Japanese landed in force at Davao and that heavy fighting has been going on all morning. A 4 p. m. communiqué said fighting continued at Davao and announced a 'night' bombing of the army's Nichols Air Base here at midnight.

Within 48 hours of the Japanese attack on the United States Philippine constabulary had reported up approximately 20,000 Japanese in the island and of these 10,000 had been arrested in Davao province.

First Attack
How many Japanese remained at large in Davao, possibly fifth columnist, was not known.

Davao is among the first Philippine objectives hit by the Japanese. There was an attack by 24 planes at 6:30 a. m. Dec. 6 and other attacks the same day. Captain Robert J. Tills, U. S. N., one of the first casualties, was killed in the defense against the attacking planes by navy aviators.

Of the 225,000,000 Japanese capital invested in Philippine real estate, most is concentrated in Davao province, which is rich and fertile, and in Davao City which has an estimated population of 80,000. In 1918 Davao had only 15,300 people of whom 2,274 were Japanese.

By SIDNEY J. WILLIAMS
LONDON, Dec. 19 (UP)—Sir Mark Dunning, governor of Hong Kong, telegraphed the government today that the empire garrisons, including the British and Indian troops, are in a last ditch, overwhelming odds under a ferocious Japanese attack, still held.

The message came as Britain waited grimly and hopefully an hourly expected announcement that the island, for 100 years an outpost of the empire and for generations one of the world's great naval bases, had fallen to the Japanese.

By SIDNEY J. WILLIAMS
LONDON, Dec. 19 (UP)—A military commander said today that empire troops made a "night" withdrawal from the Hong Kong area on the west Malaya coast.

Mac Arthur May Head Allied Pacific Command

Plans Outlined for Voluntary Censoring

By JOHN A. REICHMANN
WASHINGTON, Dec. 20 (UP)—Byron Price, veteran newspaperman and press service executive who was named by President Roosevelt to head the new office of censorship, plans first to clear up the "muddle" over voluntary censorship of the press and radio.

Mr. Roosevelt created the office, to operate "for the duration," by executive order following a one-hour conference with Price yesterday. Emerging from the White House, Price made it clear to newspapermen that censorship of the press and radio will continue on a purely voluntary basis. He said the system would be based on a "paternalistic" response of responsible executives to official pleas that nothing be printed which might "give aid or comfort to the enemy."

He emphasized that he will try, as one of his first tasks, to correlate and organize the various requests of governmental agencies to avoid dissemination of certain types of information.

Attorney General Francis B. Biddle and Postmaster General Frank Walker were present at most of Price's conferences with Mr. Roosevelt yesterday. It was assumed they discussed the censorship task as related to their departments.

Mr. Roosevelt's executive order setting up the censorship under the war powers set provides:
1. The censorship of "communications" by mail, cable, radio or other means of transmission "passing between the United States or its territories and possessions and any foreign country. The way was left open to clear mail to some countries, presumably the allies, by executive order naming exceptions later.

BOY, 16, KILLS 4 IN OWN FAMILY

LITTLE FALLS, Minn., Dec. 20 (UP)—Raymond Butcher, 16-year-old farm youth, confessed today he shot and killed his father, mother, sister and brother because the "man" getting a square deal around the house.

Shirley Wilbur Butcher said the youth admitted he had planned the slaying for a "long time."

The bodies of his father, August, 50, his mother, his sister, Anna Mae, 10, and his brother, Kenneth, 8, were found last night in the basement of their burning home.

Then, he shot his father and brother, who were sitting together on a couch outside the house and fired his father's .12 gauge shotgun through an open window at his mother and sister who were washing dishes in the kitchen.

MASTER-MIND IS NEEDED FOR JOB

By ERNEST BARCELONA
WASHINGTON, Dec. 20 (UP)—The anti-axis powers may be prepared to accept a plan that will place America's best general—Douglas MacArthur—in supreme command of all allied forces in the crucial far eastern struggle.

The promotion came as he confirmed that plans for establishing an international command to master-mind operations on a world-wide front are being digested here.

Mr. Roosevelt announced the promotion even as he confirmed that plans for establishing an international command to master-mind operations on a world-wide front are being digested here.

And it is no military secret that the center of this big show is Singapore. The big British naval base in the heart of the allied defenses in that area, Hong Kong already may be lost to the British. But from a standpoint of military value, Hong Kong is only a side-show confronting THE STRIKE LAST NOV.—Continuing (Continued on Page 3, Column 1)

American fighting men today led furious assaults against the Japanese in the far east. An American submarine sank a second Japanese transport. American volunteer pilots with the Chinese army shot down four of ten Japanese bombers near the Burma road and chased six others away.

7 MILLION MAN ARMY LOOMS IN 20-44 AGE GROUP

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20 (UP)—Congressional legislation exempting teen-age youths from compulsory military service but creating a potential army of 7,000,000 men, between 20 and 44, inclusive, awaited President Roosevelt's signature today.

Designed to mobilize the nation's manpower for the all-out war against the axis powers, the bill calls for the ultimate registration of all men from 18 through 44. But only those in the 20-44 age bracket would be liable for military service.

Conferees predicted that a bill of congress to lower the minimum age to 18 would force the army to abandon its plan to halt voluntary enlistments.

Chairman Robert H. Reynolds, D., of the Senate military affairs committee, said the army had expected to receive 100,000 men in 1942.

Instructions already have gone out to local boards for a check of men registered in the original roll call of men from 21 through 44. It was expected that 100,000 men in the 20-44 age group probably would be the first to register this time.

Government and congressional leaders predicted that a bill of congress to lower the minimum age to 18 would force the army to abandon its plan to halt voluntary enlistments.

Chairman Robert H. Reynolds, D., of the Senate military affairs committee, said the army had expected to receive 100,000 men in 1942.

LATE FLASHES

MANILA, Dec. 20 (UP)—American defense forces were reported all holding the capital and port of Davao tonight after heavy fighting against strong Japanese landing units on Mindanao island.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20 (UP)—The navy disclosed today, for the first time, that enemy submarines have been operating along the Atlantic coast.

The disclosure was in a navy department statement that said a radio message broadcast by the enemy was their "aided operation of enemy submarines on the Atlantic coast."

BOISE, Dec. 20 (UP)—Lonnie Walling, 21-year-old son of a farmer, was back in the Ada county jail here today after his fifth successful jail break since he was arrested in near Nampa.

Walling, who had stolen a car in Fayette after escaping from the Ada county jail, gave his name as Harry Bradshaw when he crashed into the car of Homer McDunkin, Caldwell, near Nampa early today. He was arrested by police and taken to the Ada county jail here today.

SPORTS

ANGOTT EASILY BEATS JENKINS FOR TITLE

Champion Takes 13 Rounds in New York Scrap

NEW YORK, Dec. 20 (U.P.)—Sammy Angott, a dark-haired, bull-shouldered Italian from Washington, Penn., was undisputed king of the lightweight today and hoped to revive the glorious days of Benny Leonard, Tony Canzoneri and the other great 135-pound champions of the past.

Angott, recognized as lightweight king by the National Boxing association, took a unanimous 15-round decision last night from Lew Jenkins, scrawny, hollow-eyed Texan who was the New York state athletic commission's champion.

A crowd of 11,241 paid $28,810 to see the last title bout of the year in Madison Square Garden, and most of them left the big arena boozing because of the party atmosphere. Angott, constantly the aggressor, won every round except two on the "knelt" dress score. He landed on a low blow, the punching Pennsylvania made a slung bag of Jenkins and provided all the thrills with his total offense.

Champs Slate Defense of Ski Crowns

SUN VALLEY, Dec. 20 (Special)—The individual champions of last year's intercollegiate ski tournament here will return in defense of their titles on the alpine slopes of Sun Valley Dec. 29 to Jan. 1.

But since there is, paradoxically, danger as well as safety in numbers, Janet Quincy of the University of Washington and Bobby Blak of Stanford, defending titles, are not assured of success to their victories of last year.

There are 21 universities, colleges and junior colleges with four others on the waiting list. Last year, the total individual entry numbered 50 from eight universities and colleges.

Other schools represented on the reservation list were Wisconsin, Minnesota, Northwestern and Illinois of the Western conference; Gonzaga, Salinas, Pomona, Oregon State, Southern California, University of California at Los Angeles (U. C. L. A.) and Menlo Junior college from the Pacific coast; Idaho, Southern California, Colorado and Colorado Mines from the mountain area; La Crosse, Wis., State Teachers College, Ohio State, the middle west; and Dartmouth and Norwich from the Atlantic seaboard.

George Washington, Kentucky Picked in Southern Cage Races

By BURTON BENJAMIN
NEA Service Staff Correspondent

Basketball in the south is a mass production affair with 38 teams in the Southern and Southeastern conferences alone.

George Washington university, having exhibited commendable manners in its first year in the Southern conference by dropping out of the basketball games, is set to win a basketball title. Duke aims to argue the claim. More placid in the Southeastern division, where traditional favorites—Kentucky, Tennessee and Alabama—should maintain the status quo.

In the Southern conference:
Defending champion—North Carolina.
Favorite—George Washington.
Contender—Duke.
Darkhorse—South Carolina.
In the Southeastern conference:
Defending champion—Kentucky.
Favorite—Kentucky.
Contender—Tennessee.
Darkhorse—Alabama.

George Washington, which won 11 of 12 games against Southern conference teams last season although not a member of the league, finished the season with 13 victories against four losses.

Four lettermen graduated from that squad and four returned, headed by Matt Zunin, six-foot three-inch forward. He scored 343 points last season.

Other veterans are Bobby Gilman, Roy McNeil and Joe Gallagher. From a strong freshman squad come Jim Myers, Jim Hensch, Bob Jackson, Jim Barnett and Hap Spuhler, Jim Myers, Dave Hubbell, Duke, George Washington.

Jim Graham, all from Indiana. Ed Ostefson and John Schumacher are from Illinois. Ted Baskin and Jim from Pennsylvania. Cosmopolitan and competent is George Washington.

Duke has all five regulars but harvested a bumper freshman crop. Chief among them are brothers Cedric and Garland Loftis and Bob Gantt, all of whom started on Durham high school teams which won the U. S. eastern championship in 1939 and 1940.

Duke retains power in ample with Capt. Hap Spuhler, Dave Hubbell, Sam Rothbaum, Clyde Allen, and Bill McCloud.

South Carolina, which surprised everyone by battling to the final of the conference tournament last season, has five lettermen headed by Preston Westmoreland, all-southern forward, who rang up 571 points in 24 games.

Defending title-holder North Carolina lost heavily by graduation. He has only two regulars back, Capt. Bob Rose, a six-foot four-inch forward with tremendous hands, has moved to center.

Horace (Bones) McKinney, who played with the Lane brothers and Gantt at Durham, is a six-foot six-inch center who should strengthen North Carolina.

Stanham and Mary has a dangerous team headed by Glenn Knox, high-scoring center.

V. M. I. has Emil Solnyk, all-southern forward, back, and his game is greatly improved.

The others are out of it with Wake Forest, the best
