400 MARINES BATTLED BIG JAP ATTACK ON WAKE

U.S. NAVY TELLS OF PLANES, GUNS ON PACIFIC ISLE

WASHINGTON, Dec. 25 (AP)—The marine garrison which held out on Wake Island for 18 days against Japanese attacks from the sea and air, and sank four Japanese warships, numbered less than 400 men, the navy revealed today.

The marines were under command of Maj. James Patrick Blunnie, Jr., who reported that 14 Japanese attacks with equipment consisting of 12 fighter planes; six five-inch guns; 12 three-inch anti-aircraft guns; 18 50-caliber anti-aircraft machine guns and 30 30-caliber anti-aircraft machine guns plus the usual light weapons such as rifles and pistols.

The garrison included 13 marine officers, 365 marines, a naval medical officer and six naval medical ratings.

Davenport, a resident of Chevy Chase, Md., was born in Habana, Cuba, 23 years ago. He attended the Tombs school at Quincy, Switzerland, graduating in 1912. He joined the marine corps as a private.

The navy, revealing details of the heroic stand on Wake Island, said that the almost incredibly small garrison, held out against "all-out" Japanese attack from Dec. 9 to Dec. 23, (island time), inclusive.

A communication issued earlier today revealed that the marines had sunk two enemy destroyers before final successful landing of the Japanese in the struggle, marine aviators from the island bombed and sank a Japanese light cruiser and a destroyer.

PRIVATE PILOTS ASKED IN PATROL

BOISE, Ida., Dec. 25 (AP)—Volunteers for the Idaho civil air patrol—both private pilots and others interested in air defense work—were being sought today by A. A. Bennett, state aeronautics director and Idaho wing commander of the patrol.

Bennett said applications for the CAP have been sent to every airport in the state and were available to both pilots and other civilians. He explained the air patrol will need non-flying assistants for ground work.

Application for enrollment in the CAP was also available at the aeronautics department in the statehouse.

Bennett estimated 325 pilots and assistants would be needed to make up air patrol squadrons of the state.

Black-out Mars Christmas in "Prince of Peace" Birthplace

By VIRGIL FINLEY
 BETHLEHEM, Dec. 25 (AP)—Bells of peace rang out in the Church of the Nativity on this Christmas while almost 2,000,000 persons on five continents were waging war.
 It was dark last night in the narrow, winding streets of Bethlehem as Jews where the Christ child—the "Prince of Peace"—was born almost 2,000 years ago. The war-time blackout was in effect.
 Pilgrims streamed out from Jerusalem along the darkened countryside, amid avenues of olive trees and by the shadowed bulk of monasteries, to attend the solemn midnight mass in the great hall of the Church of the Nativity.
 There were men and women from all countries, in a variety of attire—natives in their colorful garb, and men in the uniforms of the British, dominions and allied armies now fighting in the middle east. There are Americans here, too. They are members of the United States military mission to the middle east, here to watch the flow of lend-lease supplies to the fighting allied armies.
 Missing this year, as on last Christmas tide, are the visiting Italian clergy, but thousands of Italian-war prisoners camped in Palestine will have special Christmas eve services conducted by the chap-

Magic Fountains
 Fountains that turn on at the sound of a human voice are used in several large cities. A photo-electric cell does the trick.

Quite a Change
 The moon has a temperature of about 212 degrees Fahrenheit during its long day, and about 200 degrees below zero during its long night.

Growing Americans
 People in the United States are getting taller, and the standard height eventually will have to be increased, according to scientists.

MERRY CHRISTMAS

... In America takes on a new meaning in 1941. For with the undying Christmas spirit is also a spirit of thankfulness for the bountiful resources—which will serve to protect us in our right to celebrate Christmas in its true sense.

 New Year*

Little cottages with coal stoves and roasting spits at the hearth have given way to handsome homes, electrically equipped, functionally furnished. Housewives once drudging from dawn to night, have leisure, have careers, aid in the defense of our nation. These are modern times in which we play an active part. But now—when the holly hangs bright green and red—we revert to an old-fashioned sentiment and say, A very merry Christmas—one and all!

Your friendship and patronage throughout the past year has been truly appreciated and it is the hope of the management and every employee of the Parisian that it will continue in the new year to come.

ENFORCING PLAN SET FOR PRICES

Enforcement methods for the many new price schedules being issued at Washington to check inflation will be "the full glare of publicity and the power of legal action," the Chamber of Commerce was informed by the office for emergency management.

The price schedules, effect of which has not yet been widely felt in southern Idaho, are intended to stabilize American wartime economy and to prevent inflationary trends.

Patriotism will be the chief grounds on which cooperation with businessmen will be sought for the time being, the O.E.M. told the C. of C. Specific penalties and compulsion machinery have not been provided to date. But the Denver office of O.E.M. called attention to part of a statement now being included in all price orders issued by Leon Henderson, price administrator. The statement to businessmen reads:

"In event of refusal or failure to abide by the price limitations, the office of any evasion or attempt to evade... the office of price administration will make every effort to secure any evasion or attempt to evade... the public are fully informed of violations..."

"That powers of the government, state and federal, are fully exerted in the public interest and the interest of those who do not evade, full advantage will be taken of local cooperation, calling to the attention of local authorities price violators which may be grounds for revoking licenses and permits."

"That procurement services of the government are rendered by those in business with those who refuse to comply."

"Home for Christmas" Has Real Significance This Yule Season

With the American way of life threatened by war in the Pacific, "home for Christmas" has a double significance this year. From all sections of the United States, former residents of Twin Falls have been coming home to join in the traditional gift exchanges beside the illuminated Christmas trees; turkey dinners at tables appointed in the family's best china, silver and linen, and carol singing and conversation before the open fireplace. Breakfasts and open house observances are also on the Christmas calendar.

Twin Falls has been livelier, too, the past several days, as each bus and train has brought its share of Christmas travelers. Many of the enthusiastic young careerists—home for the holidays—have returned to the men in the various branches of the United States service, and in defense work, who were unable to have furloughs, the outgoing mails have carried packages, cards and letters of good cheer—extending the family circle to the armed forces, because of proximity to Twin Falls or because of transfer troops, are here in brief furloughs. Many other Twin Falls residents are joining relatives and friends elsewhere in the country.

Yule With Relatives
All members of the family of Dr. and Mrs. C. R. Scott are home for the holidays, and will join members of the C. R. Scott family for a Christmas dinner at the Scott home this afternoon. The party will include Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Scott and son, David, Palo Alto, Calif.; Dr. and Mrs. William Scott and son, Charles, Ann Arbor, Mich.; Mrs. and Mrs. E. R. Scott and daughter Dorothy, Twin Falls; Mrs. William Scott is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Krangel.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Reese and children, Joe Ann and Bobby, left Wednesday to spend Christmas with Mrs. and Mrs. George M. Reese, Boise, parents of Mr. Reese. They will return to Twin Falls Friday, Mrs. Reese is one of the members of the committee planning the philanthropic association Christmas dance Friday evening Dec. 26, at the Elks hall, and is also assisting in arranging the formal dinner for Delta Gamma society members at a Christmas dinner at the Park hotel Sunday, Dec. 28.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Sweeney will be hosts for a family dinner for Mr. and Mrs. Sweeney, Jean Jean Sweeney, home from Boise for the holidays. Mrs. M. M. Sweeney, Miss and Mrs. Sweeney, physiotherapy technician at Pore-Lewis, Wash., is absent from the family circle, the national emergency service is the responsible for her to get a furlough.

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Chapman, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Parsons, Boise, mother of Mrs. Chapman; Charles Murphy, student at the University of Oregon; Roy and his brother Tom Murphy, who will be home for the holidays. John Chapman, young son of Mrs. Chapman, will also be present.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Frazier will be hosts for a family dinner for Mr. and Mrs. Frazier, Gerald Painter and Bruce Painter, Bruce is here from Oakland, Calif., where he has been attending the Boeing school of aeronautics.

Talk Breakfast
Christmas observance began with a talk breakfast at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Len A. Chaspin, with a small group of friends guests. Christmas package opening followed.

Quanta of honor at the holiday dinner at 223 W. 2nd st. Mrs. Harry Bennett will be their son, Midshipman Harry Bennett, Jr., here from the U. S. naval academy, Annapolis, Md., and Ed Bennett, student at the University of Idaho, Moscow. Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Gordon, attending the Bennett family for dinner.

Mr. C. R. Weaver will have as dinner guests Dr. and Mrs. J. W.

Children Appear in Moose Lodge Pageant

Twin Falls Moose lodge and Women of the Moose entertained at the annual Christmas party Tuesday evening at the Odd Fellows hall for children of organization members. A pageant, "Nativity" directed by Mrs. Virgil Corby, was presented by Shirley Wallace, Mary Norman Hylet, Joseph; Larry Dean Wallace, Marjorie Corby and Ronnie Pope, shepherds; Louella Pope, Velma Roberts, Floydan Moir and Nadine Hardesty, angels; Richard Roberts, Howard Bean and Vernon Hansen, wisemen.

Ella May Patterson Weds A. Hillverda

CAREY, Dec. 25 (Special)—Miss Ella May Patterson, daughter of Mrs. James Patterson, Carey, and Andrew W. Hillverda, Bull Valley, were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents, Saturday, Bishop Adamson officiating. The bride is a graduate of Carey high school with the class of 1934, and of the Albion State Normal school with the class of 1938. She now is teaching in Ketchikan. The bridegroom has been employed at Bull Valley for the past three years.

Pleasant Valley Grangers Elect

HANSEN, Dec. 25 (Special)—Pleasant Valley Grange has re-elected Ole Aklund as pastor, for a second term. Other officers are Otto Shurger, overseer; Mr. Bradshaw, steward; I. P. Larsen, assistant steward; Roy Wright, gatekeeper; Ed McArthur, treasurer; Mrs. Ole Aklund, chairman; Mrs. Curtis Bower, secretary; Julia Bower, lecturer; Mrs. Ed McArthur, care; Mrs. L. P. Larsen, Pomona; Mrs. Bradshaw, florist; Miss Dorothy Larsen, led assistant steward. Roy Wright was appointed as purchasing agent; Mrs. Larsen, chairman of the home economics committee, and I. P. Larsen was re-elected to the three-year term on the executive board of the Grange. The Grangers proposed a county-wide auction sale in the near future with the funds to go to the Red Cross.

We The Women

By NEHA MILLETT (RUTH SERVICE)

One way of finding out whether or not people like you as well as you hope they do is to test your tact. Try it—and see how you come out.

Do you say to the mother whose son has just gone to camp, "How are you getting on now? Don't you miss him?"

Do you say to anyone, "You don't look as though you feel very well. Do you say to a friend, 'You're certainly looking better than when I last saw you. You looked so bad then I was really worried about you?'"

Do you say to the parents of a first child, "Your carefree days are over, now all right?"

Do you say to the mother whose son has just gone to army camp, "Isn't it a shame he had to go?"

Do you say to the mother whose child is just starting to school, "Well, you're not a mom, but you'll never be completely yours again?"

Do you say to the person who has received an honor or a promotion, "I don't suppose you'll have much time for your old friends any more?"

Do you say to the woman who is showing you her new coat, "Jane Brown has one very much like it? It's Cold Water, isn't it?"

Do you say to the mother whose young son is on the high school football team, "Don't you worry about him? He'll get hurt some day?"

Do you say to a bride, "Husbands are all alike?"

Do you say—when there is a school teacher in the crowd—"Well, have to behave ourselves, with a teacher present?"

Do you say to answer "Yes" to any one of those questions you aren't as tactful as you should be. And if you answer "No" more than one, there probably aren't many people who feel better after talking to you than they did before.

Church Gives Two Special Programs

RUFERT, Dec. 25 (Special)—CHRISTMAS was observed in the local Christian church Sunday with two special Christmas programs. The first, under the direction of Mrs. Roy F. Gillette, was presented by the children of the Bible school. This consisted of a group song, the Christmas story, vocal and instrumental numbers, readings, tableaux, special exercises and was followed by a Christmas sermon by the pastor, Rev. Eugene Stump. The second was a sacred cantata—presented and directed by Mrs. Edna C. Gorden Goff in charge of special lighting effects.

Those who took part were Carol Ellen Schwengel, Esther Kohler, Helen Lucille Long, Nellie McGraw, Lisa Schuppach, Nina E. Grace, Gladys Schwanke, Lynn V. Carpenter, Dr. A. E. Johnson, Thomas Calvin Long, William H. Carpenter and Rev. Eugene Stump, members of the choir, who gave the vocal selections.

Those who took part in the character parts were D. L. Carlson, Guy Bellis, Raymond McNeely, Ora Jean Quail, Vivien Shry, Beverly Barr, Lois Mae Fridge, Rose Marie Guard, Florence Guard, Lois Marie Merrill, Lillian Ethel Pickett, Norma McNeely, Maude Ketchel, Anna Taylor, Wilma Robert, Patricia Dinmore, Wilma Peterman, Helen Peterman, Marjorie Sedgewick, Jacquelyn Greer, Elaine McIntyre and Aubrey Bruner Poindexter.

Club Entertains For Rotary Ann

GOODING, Dec. 25 (Special)—Rotary Ann was special guests at the Rotary meeting Friday at Flynn's banquet room. A trio from the club, Miss Lelene Gargill, Miss Verna Jean Roberts and Miss Betty Ward sang several Christmas carols.

New Rotary Ann are Mrs. Tom Edholm, Mrs. William Carter, Mrs. Edward Birch, Mrs. Fred Johnson and Mrs. Lawrence VanRiper. President Robertson also introduced Mrs. G. M. Bowden of Boise, wife of the guest speaker.

Mr. Bowden, guest speaker, was a boyhood friend of the Rev. Frank O. E. J. present district governor of Rotary.

Adam Schuber carried out a definite plan to buy a new rotary hat by buying one twenty-five cent stamp. The stamps purchased went to Ted Edholm and Mrs. Wayne Hudson.

This feature is to be continued at Rotary meetings.

Wayne Hudson announced that the Maasick building fund of some $4000 is to be invested in defense bonds.

Favors were presented to the Rotary Ann.

FORD, LINCOLN and MERCURY DEALER

A Christmas Message .....

The usual joy and carefree Holiday spirit of former Yuletides takes on a new and somber meaning for all of us this Christmas Season Nineteen Hundred Forty One.

Month by month throughout the year one nation after another has been drawn as if by an inescapable magnet of circumstances into the most horrible conflict known to humanity.

The shocking events of the past few days which have swept our own great nation into World War No. 2 bring all of us face to face with the inevitable fact that this war is a struggle to the finish between the democracies of the world and the totalitarian powers, to determine whether Christianity, freedom and the American way of life shall survive, or shall be replaced by serfdom and slavery under the lash of the most ruthless and cruel warlords known to the human race.

Even as we plan to celebrate Christmas, a deep shadow of sorrow hovers over thousands of American homes, for we are at war, and war means that many homes will be forever saddened by the loss of their fathers, husbands, sons, brothers, or sweethearts who will make the supreme sacrifice in order that the American way of life may be preserved for ourselves and for future generations.

We are deeply grateful that we are privileged to live in America, where, in spite of restrictions, shortages and even war itself, we enjoy more freedom than any other people on the face of the earth.

With the whole world at war and history being re-written hour by hour, let us not forget that the Christmas Spirit and the Christian principles laid down by the Great Prince of Peace, which have come down through the centuries, is the self-same Spirit that will bring America victoriously through this emergency, because it is the very foundation upon which civilization rests.

While we are deeply concerned over the course of events which have taken us all by surprise and have cast shadows over our usual Christmas festivities, let it be remembered that "Old Glory" has never been taken into battle except in a righteous cause and—further, that the "Stars and Stripes" have never suffered defeat. Our nation is again ready to defend its shores, its possessions, its homes—its all—and, in true American form, all differences of opinion are now swept aside and we stand united as never before in our history—and, regardless, of what we, as individuals, may be called upon to do, we will meet force with even greater force and under Divine guidance will not only win this war but will assume leadership in formulating lasting PEACE, when the proper time comes.

One of the greatest factors in any war is morale at home—it is up to us to keep our feet on the ground, our chins up, and carry on our normal activities in addition to helping to WIN THE WAR.

It is a genuine pleasure and a welcome privilege to number you among our more than four thousand customers. In wishing you and yours a Very Merry Christmas and thanking you for your valued business during 1941, may we express our appreciation for the opportunity of serving you. We will strive throughout the New Year to serve you even better than ever before, to the end that your efforts and ours may be generously rewarded in increased Prosperity, Health, Happiness and the Continuance of Living in FREE AMERICA—the Greatest Country on the Face of the Earth.

Sincerely Yours,

GROUP URGED TO TAKE FIRST AID

GOODING, Dec. 25 (Special)—A county Red Cross meeting was held at the Gooding court room last week at the home of Mrs. H. J. Palmer, county chairman. Representatives attended from Hagerman, Wendell, Bliss and Gooding.

Earley Crippen, first aid chairman, gave a talk on first aid training and its importance at the present time. He urged all to take the course who could possibly do so. The standard course is 20 hours and the instructors must have a certificate. Classes will be arranged for groups over the county if enough enrolments are indicated.

Mrs. Vern Cargill, war production chairman, gave a talk concerning the work of that committee. Supplies of France but instructions now are to keep supplies for the front and that plans are to have the room open by next week. Magazines and books for soldiers may also be left at the Red Cross room.

Mr. Painter suggested that farmers could bring old scrap iron to the bank dealer in Gooding who would sort it and sell it so that it would be available for government use.

The matter of raising Gooding county's quota of $1500 for the National Red Cross emergency fund was discussed, and Virgil Daniel and John Walbrecht were appointed as co-chairmen of the drive to raise the money. Quotas set for each village are as follows: Gooding, $100; northeast Gooding, $100; northwest Gooding, $100; southwest Gooding, $100; Bliss, $100; Tuttle, $44; Hagerman, $204; east Wendell, $227; west Wendell, $165; West Point, $65. Mr. Painter explained the importance of keeping the soliciting for this fund separate from the matter of the Red Cross annual roll call which has just concluded.

Eighty-five per cent of this emergency fund will be sent to national headquarters of the Red Cross to be used in army camps and for civilian population harassed by the war.

Cedar Draw Club Buys U. S. Bond

BULL, Dec. 25 (Special)—Cedar Draw Community club voted to purchase a U. S. defense bond, donate $5 to the war emergency fund of the American Red Cross, and send boxes of candy to John Rutherford, Leonard Peoples, Marie Ewing, Harold McLaughlin, Paul Peterson and Wayne Smith who are in the military service from their district at the recent meeting at the community hall.

Mrs. Harry Akew, president-elect, divided the club into groups in order to facilitate the immediate canvass of the district according to instructions received from the local American Red Cross chairman.

Miss Ruth Rasdels, a guest and art student at the San Diego university, gave an interesting demonstration of how to make attractive Christmas packages, candle holders, and evergreen sprays using cranberries for the dominant color material.

Mrs. Emma A. Reed, who celebrates her 75th birthday during the holidays, was honored with a handkerchief shower by the group.

Mrs. Ray Rasdels and Mrs. William Wainard were welcomed into the club as new members. Mrs. John Lumby as hostess served refreshments in keeping with the holiday motif. The newly elected officers will be installed at the next meeting, Jan. 7.

Paul Has Annual Yule Observance

PAUL, Dec. 25 (Special)—Annual community Christmas tree and program was presented at the high school auditorium Friday evening. The program was sponsored by Miss Elfreida Anderson, music teacher, and the following grade teachers: Miss Helen Miller, Miss Virginia Schodde, Miss Virginia Budd, Theron Borup and Albert Holyoak.

The stage was lovely with a large decorated and lighted Christmas tree in the background. A cantata, "Christmas Review," with Jay Merrill as reader, was given with all the pupils of the grade school taking part in song or speech. Back stage music was furnished.

The high school sextet rendered several Christmas carols, in costume, carrying candles.

Christmas treats, sponsored by the Paul post of the American Legion and auxiliary, were given to all children present.

There are three state capitals on the Missouri river and 18 on the Mississippi river and its tributaries.

BOISEAN TO HEAD RATIONING BOARD

BOISE, Dec. 25 (U.S.—Gov. Chase A. Clark today set up a state wartime rationing board with C. O. Anderson, Boise department store owner, as chairman.

Clark appointed Anderson as state rationing officer and named J. B. Dollard and E. H. Smith, both of Boise, as the other members of the board.

The board headed by Anderson will have charge of all county rationing councils. The county group are now being set up to deal out tires for motor vehicles after the federal sale has lifted Jan. 6, but Governor Clark said the rationing may be extended later to cover other commodities, necessary for conducting the war, in which shortages exist.

Anderson will direct the work of all the three-man rationing boards being formed by Idaho's 44 county defense councils, the governor said.

The governor also disclosed that as soon as appointment of rationing boards and officers have been ratified by the federal government, the appointees will be required to take oaths of office which will make them federal officers.

Although the ration groups were being set up by the state administration, Governor Clark explained that the board members will be responsible to the federal government. They will work without pay, he said.

★ Through a score of wars, rulers and kingdoms, there has been one light, one goal, that has served civilization consistently. To the American people, it has a special significance because beneath that star of freedom of worship, our country was born. Today we celebrate, in reverence, His star—the star which guided many toward a new life with His nativity. We feel sure that we, as American people, can well ponder the significance of His life . . . and then renew our efforts in behalf of a country which places high in its guarantee to its citizens freedom of worship.

SNOW INCREASES IN RESORT AREA

It ought to be a record snow year for the skiing resort country of the Sawtooths. If the latest report is an omen.

Snow depth at Ketchum village was no less than 18 inches Monday compared with a scanty six inches at the same time one year ago. Supervisor Charles I. Daugherty reported. Halley had 10 inches compared with four in 1940. And the three levels of Old Baldy mountain showed a range from double to triple the amount of snow registered 12 months ago.

Old Baldy No. 1 is now 27 inches. No. 2 is 32 inches and the upper level is 39 inches. Comparative figures for 1940 were nine, 14 and 19 inches. This week's report shows a substantial increase for Ketchum and the Baldy sectors but a one-inch decline at Halley.

Fairfield and Soldier ranger station remained about the same during the week—the former with 12 inches and the latter with 21. Both are more than double the snow depths at this time in 1940.

Cumulative snowfall at Halley since Oct. 1 is now above the long-time average and nearly three times greater than a year ago. The total as of Dec. 22 was 24 inches, average is 23.30; last year, 8.3 inches.

Santa Claus to Nation Succumbs in Washington

WASHINGTON, Dec. 25 (U.P.)—The seasons came and went, more and more of those letters were answered. More and more needy children awakened Christmas mornings to find their appeals to Santa Claus answered.

The postoffice department eventually took official notice of the work he was doing and authorized him to dispose of Santa Claus letters in the manner he thought most appropriate. The disposal of the letters was expedited by instructions to postmasters to turn the letters in their territories over to local welfare and civic organizations.

Shortly before his death, Cowley said that an increasing number of organizations had asked permission to participate. He said the department was receiving "the most wonderful cooperation" in his enterprise.

Though Cowley no longer can provide as the Santa Claus of the unfortunate, the department is following its usual practice this year and will in years to come, officials said.

Then he enlisted the aid of welfare agencies and as the Christmas cafe. Mrs. May Barnett, Caldwell, accompanied Mrs. Watts and was a guest of the lodge. A special meeting was held in the I. O. O. F. hall following the banquet.

The I. O. O. F. lodge recessed and joined the Rebekah to hear Mrs. Watts' discussion of "Moral Education of Young People" and general address on lodge work.

George Leth, grand master of the I. O. O. F. lodge, gave a talk on the defense program.

Mrs. George Leth, staff captain, entertained at a tea in honor of Mrs. Watts, at her home in the afternoon.

BOMBER FLIERS TO GET MEDALS

WASHINGTON, Dec. 25 (U.P.)—The war department revealed today that 17 U. S. army fliers who made a secret mass flight from Honolulu to the Philippines last September in four-engine bombers have been recommended to President Roosevelt for distinguished flying crosses.

The distinguished flying cross is the highest air award made outside of those given for actual combat. The pilot of one of the bombers was Capt. Colin F. Kelly, Jr., who was killed after scoring three direct hits and sinking the 23,000-ton Japanese battleship Haruma during Japan's attack on the Philippines.

The award will be made posthumously as was the distinguished service cross.

The mass flight, carried out to strengthen Philippine defenses, was described by the war department as a trip "which ranks as one of the greatest in aviation history." It began Sept. 5 and was completed Sept. 12 without accident or injury.

The formation was under command of Major Edmund O'Donnell, Jr., Brooklyn, N. Y., the men cited include three majors, three captains, 23 lieutenants, 22 sergeants and 14 enlisted men.

The flight covered more than 7,000 miles and, to avoid Japanese patrols, an uncharted and circuitous route was used. Most of the route which never before had been flown by either commercial or military aircraft, took the bombers deep into the south Pacific.

The army said the planes since have been heavily engaged in the defense of the Philippines against Japanese attacks.

Yale Governors

Two professors of Yale university have been elected to high office in Connecticut since 1910. They were Simon B. Baldwin, professor of law who was elected lieutenant governor, and Wilbur L. Cross, dean of the Yale graduate school, who was governor from 1930 to 1933.

HIGH SCORING LOOMS IN ALL BOWL BATTLES

Oregon State Only Strong Defensive Club

By JACK GUENTHER
 NEW YORK, Dec. 25 (U.P.)—The obvious and the only conclusion to be drawn after studying the record of the great bowl games that meet in the major bowl games on New York's day is that the pending season program provides more potential offensive fire-works than any other similar bill ever offered. From the transplanted Rose bowl in Durham, N. C., to the Cotton bowl in Dallas, Tex., the games are crammed with teams which operate on the theory that victories are won by out-scoring the other fellow and not by trying to stop his drives. Only one of the eight games accords the defense-Oregon State.

With that in mind, it is apparent that the game will be won once the statistics call the teams to action. Possession of the ball will be the biggest factor; the teams which manage to hold it probably will take it squarely downfield—not just once, but time and again.

Here is a quick check on the four games:

Lach Big Threat
 Rose bowl, Durham, N. C.—In Duke the outscoring will see the second record highest scoring chips. The untied and undefeated Idaho Devils, ran up 311 points in a game for an average of 34.6. They also collected 2,232 yards and 147 first downs for individual game averages of 37.7 and 18 in these departments. In the other half of the deep, and in Steve Lach and Winston Spragles, they have two fine offensive threats.

Oregon State is the least attacked-of the bowl participants, but played one of the toughest of the regular season schedule. Against nine foes—seven of them usually rugged teams—the Beavers averaged 21 points per game and 18 first downs. Don Durjan and Bob DeBarnis, a left-handed right half-back, are two chief performers on the offense.

Favorites and probable winners—Duke, unless the Blue Devils' scoring was even greater than generally expected. Duke has too much power on the ground and in the air.

Topscor Game
 Sugar bowl—This should be the day's banner attraction. Missouri has scored 214 points in 10 games, triplets, Harry Lee, Bob Shuler and Red Wade, for an amazing number of regular season touchdowns. Meanwhile, Lewis, toward the season, and has at least three men who can throw, run and receive with equal skill.

Missouri boasts one of the nation's greatest ground attacks. The Tigers have gained 2,104 yards—27.1 of them on the ground—and have averaged . 25.3 points, 246 yards and 13.6 first downs per game. Fordham in the same roles, but with 2,000 yards, many of them on long passes—for an average of 25.5 points, 322 yards and 14.6 first downs. Missouri's stars say the present Tiger eleven is the best in history.

Favorites and probable winners—Fordham is favored but the game is a tossup.

Texas Aggies Favored
 Cotton bowl—Texas A. M. is the most pass-conscious of the major teams of 1941—having gained almost twice as many yards (14,571) in the air as on the ground (6,011). The Aggies averaged 25.3 points, 228.4 yards and 11.2 first downs against 10 better solid units and lost only one game—that to mighty Texas. Derraco Moser, a great passer, is the star.

Alabama, although twice beaten, also ran up an unusually high average of 21.3 points, 243 yards and 11.7 first downs per game—even while losing two. Jimmy Nelson and Holt Rast are the foremost offensive threats and Frank Thomas, who comes up with a well-knit attack and Nelson is an exceptionally versatile performer.

Favorites and probable winners—Texas Aggies will be favored and on the record show it is doubtful they were far more decisively defeated by Texas than Alabama was in its two losses. The Tide is a bit weak on pass defense—and passing the Aggies are strongest.

Snitch the Difference
 Orange bowl—The Georgia Bulldogs have the outstanding ground gaining record in the nation. Snitchwick averaged 110 yards per game, rolling up completed 43 passes for 11 touchdowns as extra measure. Hitchcock to his ability, the Bulldogs have rolled up 279 points and 2,508 yards—one of the best records to be found anywhere.

Texas Christian, while also an offensive team, has the poorest record on the program. The Horned Frogs collected 143 points and 2,748 yards in 10 games, with Frank Medaniel leading in rushing and Emory Nix carrying the passing game. They have a weak defensive background. The Frogs have given up 172.4 yards per game and shouldn't give Snitchwick much trouble if any.

Favorites and probable winners—Georgia. The Bulldogs have more solid ground strength but if Snitchwick were less the Bulldogs would bog down. Against the superior record and the decision that T. C. U. never has lost a bowl game in three previous appearances.

Layden Selects All-Star Squad Of 29 Players

CHICAGO, Dec. 25 (U.P.)—The cream of the National Professional Football league headed for New York today, bent on shackling the powerful offense of the Chicago Bears.

Commissioner Elmer Layden picked a 29-man all-star squad last night for the annual game with the league champions. The players will report to Coach Steve Owen of the New York Giants for the game at the Polo Grounds Jan. 4.

Layden said the squad was picked for its ability "to give the Bears some competition." Receipts from the game, which was shifted from its original date because of a request of army authorities, will go to the naval relief fund.

Boone Climbs Into Tie for Pin Leadership

By HARRY GRAYSON
 NSA Service Sports Editor
 NEW YORK—Jack Dempsey sat with me the night Jim Braddock beat Maxie Baer.

I shall never forget the Old Man Mauler as Baer attempted to lurch the whole thing off in the 15th round.

"Look at him!" he roared, "he's losing the world heavyweight championship, and he's clowning!"

Sammy Louhran joined me as we walked out of the Sunken Garden in Queens. Louhran beat Braddock and Baer when they didn't amount to much. The Philadelphia would have sacrificed anything to win the heavyweight title, but couldn't make it.

"Baer clowning so long," remarked Louhran, "that when it was time for him to stop, he couldn't."

Sammy Angott—Law Jenkins lightweight "championship" battle at the Garden the other night was so bad that somehow we wound up at Dempsey's. I guess it was that we wanted to see what a champion used to look like.

Bowlers in the Twin Falls Bowling association took things easy over the holidays. There is no league bowling until Jan. 8, with Hugh Boone at the top of the standings for the first time this season.

The lucky Elmer moved into a 195 tie with Roy Jones on the strength of a great week that saw him gain 214 yards—27.1 of them on the ground—and have averaged . 25.3 points, 246 yards and 13.6 first downs per game. Fordham in the same roles, but with 2,000 yards, many of them on long passes—for an average of 25.5 points, 322 yards and 14.6 first downs. ### Denver Alumni Approve End Of Loop Play

DENVER, Dec. 25 (U.P.)—Denver university alumni and fans today hailed the university's withdrawal from the Big Seven conference as an indication that the Pioneers definitely have decided to have a "big time, independent" football team.

Rival coach of the Mountain States Intercollegiate conference, while saying little except that "it's too bad" and "it's up to the Pioneers," privately lamented the loss of the big crowds before which their teams played here.

Denver will play the six remaining conference teams in 1942 and will try to keep Colorado, Utah and Wyoming state on the 1942 football slate. Whether this can be done probably will be determined at a conference meeting at Laramie sometime before March 1.

Athletic officials indicated a training table, vetoed at the last conference meeting, would be instituted at the university this fall. Chancellor Dale P. Gates, Jr., however, said Denver would maintain eligibility requirements equal to those of the schools it plays and is to become a haven for "athletic bums."

No difficulty School officials admitted privately that the Pioneers might have trouble filling an independent schedule for the first year or two, after that they expect to have little difficulty.

While Gates gave as reason for the resignation "complete domination by the conference" of the schedule, the home-and-home rule, enacted at the last meeting, was the primary cause. Denver, up to now, has played two-thirds of its games at Hilltop stadium and outdrown several member schools by several thousand persons. Under the new ruling, it could have only three conference games a year at home.

Colorado colleges, New Mexico university and Montana university were most prominently mentioned as possible successors to the Pioneers in the conference.

Now all the division has to do is get rid of Angott, and one more start like he made against Jenkins will accomplish that.

Jenkins didn't seem to care one way or the other. The championship appeared to mean no more to him than an old pair of cowboy boots.

There is much in what Dempsey says—that fighters lack pride in today. Dempsey and fellows like Benny Leonard strutted like champions—acted the part in and out of the ring.

Jenkins was last seen on that motorcycle headed for Sweetwater, Tex.

"The boys who ditch out the bar-room fan may miss him, but the fight fans will miss the excitement." The trouble with Lew Jenkins was that he was a lightweight all over.

Confiscated Deer, Elk Distributed To Needy Families

BOISE, Ida., Dec. 25 (U.P.)—The state fish and game department, aided by veterans and civic organizations, has distributed 1,400 pounds of confiscated deer and elk meat to needy persons for Christmas dinners. It was announced today.

The meat was confiscated by conservation officers during the big game hunting season from violators of hunting regulations.

Eight hundred pounds of meat, valued at 622 pounds of deer, meat was butchered and wrapped in four six and eight-pound packages. Eighteen organizations in south-western Idaho assisted the department in distributing the meat.

Grange Gleanings

By A. HARVESTER

BRAVO, GOODING!
Don't know whether the defense bond "pep talk" that made in the Grange column had anything to do with it or not, but I see that several of the Granges have decided to buy defense bonds, taking money from various funds of the Grange. But it remained for Gooding Grange to go all out for defense bonds, the matter of buying bonds. At their last meeting they voted to take $1,000 from their building fund for the purchase of a defense bond. And Gooding, we're mighty proud of you.

I've talked with several farmers in the last few days and they are all of the same mind, and that is that the farmer is not concerned nearly so much with the earning of big profits during this war as he is with the winning of the war and making it certain that no such war will be waged by big headed bores, crony for power, and if labor and capital groups will take the same view of the situation and not impede the progress of our arrangement, we will shorten the struggle and save a good many of our boys.

One farmer told me that he did not want anything but a living during the war and would be satisfied if the government got the rest. That is the spirit that will show Hitler and his stooges with the people who live in a democracy think of their peculiar form of government, and also what they think of German rule. Labor and capitalists shouldn't have to be spanked to make them do all they can for the government, and it is no more danger. We are the government in this democracy, even if the whole thing does seem rather ridiculous. All of the ramifications that are found in the administration of the affairs of 130,000,000 of people.

FAIRVIEW
And when Fairview Grange met last Friday night, a meeting of the Fairview Grange has some kind of a benefit program to raise money to buy a defense bond, the response was spontaneous and the motion passed unanimously. A committee was appointed to arrange for the benefit and arrangements will be forthcoming soon. (The saying that a prophet is not without honor save in his own land, seems to be true, as the Fairview Grange is going ahead with their building program.)

There were 63 members present, with two officers absent, as Fred Atkins, the chairman, was in California to see his son, William, who is in the army. With Alfred Kramer acting as chairman, the committee met after Grange and set the date as Jan. 2, invited Eric Jones, Fictions master, to act as installing officer, and invited Lawrence and Deep Creek to install with us. This will be an open meeting and the public is invited.

William Chambers reported for the building committee that they had made arrangements to acquire a building in Buhl and would proceed to start the building of a Grange hall if this met with the approval of the Grange. The report was accepted and the building will start soon. A site is going to be acquired from Joe Tved, half a mile west from the Fairview service station. A crew of men was to start to remove rock from the site on last Monday. An old landmark of Buhl will be razed and the lumber will be used to build the hall.

red for some time. A good attendance is reported and the committees for the new Grange year were named by the master.

The committees are: Home co, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Hawk, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Quigley and Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Butler; work committee, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Amos, Mr. and Mrs. Edith Smith and Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Stephens were obligated in the first and second degrees. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Boyer, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Thurston and Wendell Ollers were given the third and fourth degrees. The next meeting for Dec. 28 will be postponed, but there will be a get-together meeting and shower for Mr. and Mrs. Bud Quigley, the newlyweds.

The program put on by the Juvenile Grange was: A prayer; song, "Jingle Bells," by the children; play, "Trouble in Gull Land"; play, "Christmas Plot"; Christmas Trees of other lands. These, with several songs and recitations by the children, made a very interesting program. Then came Santa Claus and he gave out about 100 sacks of treats. Again we say, nice going, Gooding Grange. You've given us something to shoot at.

Mr. Harrison, the newly elected lecturer, asked that the officers put on the program for the first meeting of January, as she will be absent at that time.

It is probable that a box supper and dance will be featured as the means to raise the money to buy defense bonds, the event to be held early in January.

Mr. Leth, lecturer, presented a Christmas program as follows: "Come All Ye Faithful," Stipley and Edward Novacek; reading, "Twas the Night Before Christmas," June King; reading, "Lazy Betty," Jean King; sax solo, Leah Kudack; reading, Caroline Kudack; song, "Away in the Manger," Karen Jensen and Myra Dean Campbell, accompanied by Betty Jensen; song, the Cobb boys; piano solo, Lou Shields; reading, Helen Kudack; poem, Shirley Brandon; song, "Christmas Bells," Jeanice Burnett and Anita Mirale; recitation, Carolyn Crawford; reading, Carol Peterson; reading, Lois Jane Petersen; song, Joan Lee; recitation, Karen Kramer. Then came Santa with candy and nuts for all.

GOODING
When the Gooding Grange met at the last session they highlighted the meeting by voting $1,000 to buy a defense bond, taking the money from the building fund of the Grange. The building of a hall will be deferred for some time.

OILMAN DONATES RANCH TO SCOUTS

Local Scout officials today received word that Wally Phillips, a Tulsa, Okla., oil man, had given the Boy Scouts of America a 91,000-acre operating ranch in New Mexico and a two-story office building in Tulsa, the building valued at $5,000,000.

Gordon A. Day, Snake river area council executive with headquarters here, said the gift was made "for the advancement and development of the program of Scouting."

Name Chosen

In accepting the gift national officials stated that hereafter the ranch will be known as Philmont Scout Ranch, and that the purpose of Mr. Phillips in making available the office building in Tulsa was to provide a permanent endowment to the Scout activities on the New Mexican properties.

The office building is modern in every respect, with complete air conditioning and fluorescent lighting. The ranch property is unusually well developed and improved for both livestock and recreational purposes, being long recognized as one of the outstanding properties of its kind in America. Elevations of the ranch range from approximately 8,000 feet to 12,000 feet and it is divided between high mountain timbered areas, foothills and mesas and prairie land with sheltered valley and meadow lands.

Scout Mecca

Day said this afternoon it is anticipated that this national project will become a mecca for Scouts from every part of the nation. Tours to and from it, as well as their experience while there, will afford a worthwhile contribution to the good citizenship of America, he said, "because of the values accruing to boys and their adult leaders in possessing a better knowledge and love of their country."

Tire Men Banned From Serving on Ration Committee

BOISE, Ida., Dec. 25 (UP)—Gov. Chase A. Clark was advised Wednesday tire dealers were not to be included on local councils handling tire rationing.

The governor received a telegram from Frank Bane, Washington, D. C., office of price administration, that "after extended conference with representatives of tire dealers and at their strenuous recommendation, we are suggesting to governors and to state defense councils that tire dealers not be included on local councils, boards or committees actually handling rationing work."

"The representative of tire dealers felt that this would avoid any possible repercussions with respect to favoritism," Bane explained. "It is essential, however, that the cooperation and goodwill of the tire dealers be maintained in the administration of this program and that their services be utilized fully in technical capacity wherever necessary."
