Japanese Reel Back After British Troop Ambush

Hurricane Planes From Isles Enter Singapore Battle

SINGAPORE, Jan. 22 (U.P.)—Japanese invasion troops reeled back from a mass British imperial ambush on the eastern Malaya front today as rocket-fast Hurricane fighter planes, freshly thrown into action over Singapore, shot down five Japanese bombing planes and damaged one fighter in smashing a fresh attack on the city.

43 STATES CAN'T COMPARE WITH IDAHO RECORD FOR MEN IN ARMED RANKS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22 (Special)—The reference service of the library of congress has prepared a survey of the number of volunteers and the number inducted under selective service which shows the high percentage of volunteers in the northwest. Of the 48 states 43 cannot compare with the record of Idaho and only five surpass it.

A terrific blast of gun fire from all over the island met a second wave of Japanese planes, estimated to number at least 30 and drove them off before they could drop more than a few of their bombs.

The bombers left a trail of wrecked vehicles behind them and racing fighters, following up the attack, swept down and raked the roads with machine gun fire.

A communique issued by general headquarters here revealed the mass ambush on the east coast of Johore sultanate and the smashing of the airplane attack on Singapore by the Hurricanes, which had mowed down German attacking craft in the battle for Britain and now had arrived here to challenge the enemy.

The Japanese had pushed down the east coast from the Endau area, 75 miles above Singapore.

Strong imperial forces, perfectly camouflaged, awaited the enemy in the area north of Merising, which is 64 miles above the Straits which separate Singapore island from the mainland.

As the Japanese approached, the imperial troops, adopting the tactics which the Australians had used against the Japanese on the western front, aimed their guns at point blank range and pored bullets and shells into the attackers.

On the western Malaya front the Australians were reported unofficially to be fighting heavily against the Japanese in a battle which meant that the crisis point was approaching.

COUNTRY AWAITS RETALIATION FOR AXIS SUB DRIVE

By SANDOR S. KLEIN WASHINGTON, Jan. 22 (U.P.)—Americans waited patiently today for details of U. S. navy retaliation against German submarines which in a week have attacked six merchant ships almost within sight of the Atlantic seaboard and brought death to at least 75 seamen.

The navy has assured the nation that "good news" will be forthcoming to counteract the week of "bad news" about Atlantic shipping. All available naval units—vessels, and aircraft—are striking savagely at Hitler's "rattlesnakes." It was believed that when the navy considers the time is right to tell its story, the price German submarines have paid will more than offset the recent attacks.

Later yesterday the navy reported the fifth and sixth victims of submarine attacks. The American steamer City of Atlanta went to the bottom off Cape Hatteras early Monday with a loss of 43 or 44 men. The Latvian freighter Cilvatra was attacked and believed sunk off the Atlantic coast with the loss of two of its crew. Survivors of the Cilvatra arriving in New York and Charleston, S. C., said the ship was "still floating" when they abandoned it and believed it could be salvaged.

The survivors' stories about these attacks by underwater marauders which have infested Atlantic coastal waters for a week disclosed that the pattern of submarine warfare is nearly the same in each case—attack without warning, under cover of darkness, no regard for the safety of the crews.

Only three of the City of Atlanta's crew of 46 or 47 were rescued. The three survivors upon arrival in Hoboken, N. J., told bitterly of the German torpedo crashing into the side of the steamer early Monday morning, and how the sub then rose to the surface and played a searchlight upon the helpless sailors struggling in the water.

Voluntary enlistments in Idaho up to Dec. 20 last, were 7,826 or 1.40 per cent of the state's total population. Inducted under selective service as of Dec. 15 were 3,240 or 0.62 per cent. Top state was North Carolina, with 19.4 per cent of the population inducted. Second place went to Oregon with 19.094 volunteers, 1.75 per cent; inducted, 4,102 or 0.38 per cent. Wyoming had 4,054 of 1.69 per cent volunteering and 1,462, or 0.58 per cent inducted. Washington had 28,501, or 1.53 per cent, volunteering. Utah had 1,39 per cent, and Montana 1.38 per cent. California trailed with only 1.18 per cent.

New York state produced more volunteers than the entire northwest, but compared with population only 0.84 per cent volunteered. With the exception of North Carolina and Oklahoma no other region in the nation had more young men seeking the army and navy voluntarily than the western states.

Registration Places Set For Sign-up of Civilians

Three registration places were selected in Twin Falls today for the two-day civilian defense enrollment, scheduled in the city Friday and Saturday. Other areas of the county as well as many sections of Magic Valley were also mobilizing today to begin registration of civilian volunteers at once.

The Twin Falls registration places, announced by Loyal I. Perry, president of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, sponsoring group for the city sign-up, are: Chamber of Commerce office, 245 Main avenue west; Young's drug, 159 Fourth avenue west (truck lane); Anderson building, between the Orpheum theater and the Fur shop.

Hours of the civilian registration will be from 9 a. m. to 6 p. m. both Friday and Saturday. The enrollment in Twin Falls will be completed on those two days, according to Jaycee defense committee men. In other areas, however, the length of time will be determined by local officials in charge.

General supervision throughout the county is being exercised by the civilian defense council headed by Judge J. R. Bolwell. Alton Young, Jaycee chairman of the registration, announced this afternoon that "we now have plenty of volunteers to take care of the enrollment."

Both Bolwell and Perry emphasized that the registration is the cornerstone of home defense efforts, and persons with abilities along the lines sought by the state council should "be absolutely certain" to enroll. The registration is mandatory for persons taking Red Cross first aid and home nursing instruction. Sheriff Distributes Cards.

Registration blanks and the civilian volunteer "membership" cards were being distributed this afternoon by Sheriff Warren W. Lowery's staff to city and village headquarters at Buhl, Castleford, Piler, Kimberly, Hansen, Murtaugh, Hallister and Rogerson.

FOUR COUNTRIES MAY SEVER AXIS RELATIONS NOW

By EVERETT R. HOLLES RIO DE JANEIRO, Jan. 22 (U.P.)—Brazil and possibly four other South American nations may sever their diplomatic relations with the axis nations immediately to speed-up general Pan-American severance, it was reported today. The other nations were said to be Uruguay, Peru, Bolivia and Ecuador.

President Manuel Prado of Peru announced at Lima today that the Peruvian foreign minister would announce at the "opportune moment" Peru's decision to sever diplomatic relations.

It was reported that Brazil's action may be announced on the floor at the conference of foreign ministers of the American republics after the committee on hemisphere defense, on which all delegations are represented, meets late this afternoon to vote on the severance resolution, for which unanimous action is expected.

The so-called "big four" of the conference—United States, Undersecretary of State Sumner Welles and Foreign Ministers Oswaldo Aranha (Brazil), Enrique Ruiz Guinazu (Argentina) and Juan B. Rossetti (Chile), held a secret conference at the foreign office this morning to arrange for swift approval of the resolution.

Not Satisfactory Foreign Minister Ezequiel Padilla of Mexico, who with the heads of the Venezuelan and Colombian delegations drafted the original severance resolution, said the new formula is "not entirely satisfactory" and it is certain to be discussed in committee where he will request that the word "immediately" be inserted in the text.

The new formula alters the original draft by giving each Pan-American country freedom of action in providing that the resolution be submitted to executive or congressional approval. A break in financial and economic relations with the axis is not embodied in the draft.

Padilla conferred this morning with Ruiz Guinazu, who told him that Argentina would not agree to the provision for an immediate diplomatic break.

Supporters of the new formula said that its approval provision actually does not alter the original measure. It was explained that none (Continued on Page 10, Column 4)

Relentless Drives Aim For Bataan

By HARRISON SALISBURY WASHINGTON, Jan. 22 (U.P.)—Gen. Douglas MacArthur's men, the war department revealed today, are fighting against a huge Japanese assault launched by an entire army group—possibly 300,000 enemy troops—plus heavy new reinforcements being rushed to Luzon by the Japanese high command.

The huge Japanese forces, said the war department, are hurling themselves in unrelenting attacks directed particularly against the left and center sectors of MacArthur's lines.

The communiques did not state how well the heavily outnumbered American and Filipino forces are withstanding the hammering of the Tokyo forces but it seemed evident that the crisis of MacArthur's stand in Bataan may be at hand.

New Troops The Japanese were revealed to be pouring quantities of new troops onto Luzon, landing their fresh forces on Subic bay, just north of Bataan and on Lingayen gulf 100 miles to the north which was the scene of the original major Japanese landing effort on the island.

These forces, it appeared, are rushing up to the front and charging into action against the small, tired troops which have been holding off constant Japanese attacks for 47 days.

It was evident that the small American and Filipino group—despite MacArthur's astute generalship—could not continue to battle indefinitely against such vast and growing odds.

The exact size of the Japanese attacking force was not revealed. However, the communiques reported that the entire 14th Japanese army under General Houghm, bolstered by a number of other units and the constantly arriving reinforcements, is engaged in the attack.

A Japanese army is believed to comprise up to 12 divisions of about 15,000 men each. This would constitute a force of 180,000 and with reinforcements and other troop units it was believed the Japanese assault troops may well number as high as 300,000.

Refusal to Turn Off Lights During Alarm Costs $15

BOISE, Jan. 22 (U.P.)—The first fine for violation of blackout rules in Idaho was levied today against L. J. Smith of Boise.

He was fined $15 in police court for failure to extinguish lights during an air raid alarm.

Officers alleged he refused to turn off lights in his room after air raid wardens had requested him to do so. Police said other cases of alleged violations of the city's blackout ordinance were being investigated with a view toward a court test of the model law.

ALIENS MUST ASK FOR CERTIFICATE

New regulations affecting conduct of German, Italian and Japanese nationals in Idaho were received here today by Twin Falls city and county authorities from Francis Biddle, U. S. attorney general. The regulations are nationwide in scope.

Biddle's statement advised local officers that the new rulings relating to "alien enemies" require all German, Italian and Japanese aliens to apply at the nearest first or second class, or county seat, post office for a certificate of identification. The requirements apply to all enemy nationals 14 years of age or over who have not yet taken the oath of allegiance before a federal judge, the final step in acquiring American citizenship.

The identification program, which will affect approximately 1,100,000 German, Italian and Japanese non-citizens, will be directed by Earl G. Harrison, former director of alien registration and now a special assistant to the attorney general advising on alien problems.

ALIENS MUST ASK FOR CERTIFICATE

The regulations provide for two separate periods for the submitting of applications for identity certificates, as follows: All German, Italian and Japanese nationals residing in the states of Idaho, California, Oregon, Washington, Nevada, Utah, Arizona, New Mexico, Colorado, and Wyoming.

The identification program, which will affect approximately 1,100,000 German, Italian and Japanese non-citizens, will be directed by Earl G. Harrison, former director of alien registration and now a special assistant to the attorney general advising on alien problems.

BEDED

Because a flock of approximately 1,000 sheep decided to "bed down" early today on U. S. 30 one mile from Owsley bridge in Twin Falls county, the following results occurred: Highway traffic was stalled and Tempers of several motorists became considerably frazzled, not to mention the fact that: Other motorists almost got hoarse by shouting, whistling and oven barking at the dense throng of sheep. What's more, State Officer V. K. Barron, Twin Falls, had to climb out of bed at about 1 a. m. and drive to Buhl, where he picked up Buhl Officer Bus Lintz after which: Both officers decided to "sheep" the sheep. When they arrived, the stalled motorists had finally succeeded in getting the sheep to move.

The officers couldn't find any shepherders at the scene.

FARM LABORER PAY INCREASES

BOISE, Jan. 22 (U.P.)—Idaho farm hands are receiving 70 to 90 cents more a day for their labor this year than in 1941 because of a labor shortage, the agricultural marketing service reported today.

The average rate on Jan. 1 was $49.50 per month with board—and $68.50 without board, an increase over last year's levels of $14 and $17 per month in the respective categories.

Day labor was receiving $2.45 with board and $3.15 without board, an increase over a year ago of 70 cents and 90 cents per day respectively.

The farm labor supply in Idaho was reported to be 81 per cent of the demand.

$4.75 BEAN PLAN INCLUDES PINTOS

Government action which will mean increased revenue to Idaho bean growers—and will, for the first time, give pinto beans equal consideration in federal purchase—has been ordered by Secretary of Agriculture Claude Wickard, Cong. Henry C. Dworshak advised the Evening Times today.

Cong. Dworshak announced that the department of agriculture will support a price of $4.75 per hundredweight for U. S. No. 1 grade beans, or $4.60 per hundred for No. 2, as of the beginning of the 1942 marketing season.

Pintos and Pinks "This increased production program for dry edible beans not only embraces Great Northern and other white varieties," the congressman told the Evening Times, "but also pinto and pink beans. This is the first time pinto beans will receive equal price consideration in purchase programs of the surplus marketing administration."

The $4.75 and $4.60 USDA price applies in bags, carlots, f. o. b. cars at country shipping points. The level is equivalent to 85 per cent of the parity price.

Cong. Dworshak's statement also said: "The production goal of the department of agriculture envisions a dry edible bean acreage in 1942 of 2,000,000, with an estimated production of 20,400,000 one hundred pound units."

Ease up, City Farmers! U. S. Doesn't Want 'Lawn' Gardens

By JOSEPH L. MYLER WASHINGTON, Jan. 22 (U.P.)—At ease, you city farmers! Drop those spading forks. Get away from those seed catalogues.

You want to be patriotic, you want to help beat the Japs, don't you? Well, take the advice of the department of agriculture—steak to your petunias, and let the parsnips go unless you've been raising them before.

Let the country's dirt farmers rake the vegetables. They'll do it better and you won't get so many stiff joints.

Don't get the department of agriculture wrong. It's not trying to stifle one of the strongest and most noble urges in the heart of man just for the fun of it.

secretaries and store clerks went hog wild with hoes and spades on the plot of idle ground they could find, including parks, golf courses, lawns and baseball diamonds.

The net result was a great use of seeds, fertilizers, insecticides and energy which might more efficiently have been used on farms by experts at gardening.

HUDELSON HEADS PRECAUTION UNIT

BOISE, Jan. 22 (U.P.)—Homer Hudelson, Boise, today assumed command of Idaho's air raid precaution organizations.

Hudelson directed organization of two regional blackouts for southern Idaho and eastern Oregon, and with C. E. Arney, state civilian defense coordinator, will organize the state into six air raid precaution districts.

600,000 U. S. Soldiers Moved Since Attack on Pearl Harbor

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22 (U.P.)—A high government official said today that vast emergency military steps, invoked immediately after the Japanese attack on Pearl harbor, have resulted in strengthening of our defenses to unprecedented levels, and have paved the way for reinforcements in the southwest Pacific.

A huge operation, involving the movement within the continental United States of some 600,000 troops, was carried out with a minimum of confusion and delay, the official said.

Large numbers of army planes and men were moved quickly into their station on the west coast, from California to Alaska, to meet the threat when it appeared that Hawaii had been endangered and damaged more than actually proved to be the case, he said.

This official said that bombers were flown and pursuit craft were shipped immediately to Hawaii, with the result that it is now far stronger than before the surprise raid.

MEET CALLED TO COMPLETE GUARD

With the preliminary sign-up and details completed several weeks ago, formation session of the Twin Falls home guard troop was called today for 2 p. m. Sunday at Legion hall.

The meeting was announced last night by W. W. Frantz, post commander, at the American Legion gathering which heard Prosecutor Everett M. Sweeley discuss his shotgun process and call for public psychology based on "offense" instead of "defense."

Frantz said actual formation of the home guard troop, for which 54 able-bodied veterans are registered, must be completed because Adj. Gen. M. G. McConnell is expected here soon to swear in the organization.

Mr. Sweeley explained to the Legionnaires the shotgun-conversion process he has perfected. Still a secret to the general public, the process was termed by Legionnaires today as "amazingly simple" yet so effective that the average pleasure-hunting gun will become a deadly instrument with which Idahoans could mow down invading parachute troopers.

All Legion post meetings hereafter will find a $5 defense stamp being awarded to a member, Mr. Frantz said.

Boy Scout court of honor will be held Feb. 11 at Legion hall with the Legion-sponsored troop as host.

HOME LOAN FIRM NOW DISSOLVING

Announcement that the Home Loan company is now in process of dissolution because it has achieved its liquidation purpose highlighted the annual stockholder meeting in Twin Falls Tuesday.

The concern voiced high praise for directors who have guided the organization since its start in November of 1932. R. E. Bobler has served as president; O. K. Hunt, vice-president; Lem A. Chapin, treasurer; the late George Sandholls, director, and Harry Eaton, secretary.

Mr. Eaton reported that the eighth and final liquidating dividend totaling $7,000 has now been paid. Dividend total during the liquidation procedure since 1932 was $107,000.

Furniture Placed In Wrong Auto Is Still Unreported

If you drive a light gray Chrysler business coupe, probably of the sedan-coupe type, 1940 or 1941, you'd better look into the trunk of your machine.

Reason: You're likely to find in that trunk one unfinished breakfast table and one used walnut tea-wagon on rollers.

City police and the Bert Sweet furniture store said the missing articles haven't been returned yet although they were placed in somebody's car by mistake Monday afternoon. They figure the owner of the machine doesn't even know the furniture is in the trunk since many autoists don't look into that portion of their cars more than once or twice a month.

The mistake occurred, Mr. Sweet said, when a clerk carried a table and tea-wagon from the store to place it in the 1940 light gray Chrysler sedan of Mrs. Helen Henderson. The store was loaning the two items of furniture to Mrs. Henderson for use in a Twin Falls housing authority display planned later at Pioneer Square.

ELMORE HAGLER FREED ON BOND

Freed under bond of $1,000, William Elmore Hagler, 26, Twin Falls "conscientious objector," was back at home today pending the February session of the U. S. grand jury at Boise.

Hagler was released from the Mountain Home county jail after bond and affidavit were filed with the clerk of the federal district court for Idaho. The necessary papers were sent to the clerk early this week by J. O. Pumphrey, U. S. commissioner in Twin Falls.

Squadmen are local friends of Hagler, who has been widely known as a softball player and holder of the state champion singles title in bowling.

Delay in release of the young man under bond was caused because the papers had to be sent to Hagler at Mountain Home for his signature, then returned to Twin Falls for Judge Pumphrey's final signature of approval.

Hagler faces federal action because he refused to go to the civilian public service camp at Cascade Locks, Ore. Listed as a "total" objector to army service, he also rejected civilian service although the Oregon camp is under direction of a minister.

Wood, for walking sticks and umbrellas is grown like corn or oats. Small saplings are planted and are cut in about four years.

TWO SIGNED FOR DUTY WITH ARMY

Sgt. Frank Morris, U. S. army recruiter stationed here, today announced that two more southern Idaho men had been tentatively accepted for duty with the army air corps.

The men are Delbert W. Henderson, 27, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rex S. Henderson, route 2, Jerome. He has been assigned to the air corps at Tucson, Ariz; and Glen E. Tanner, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Emory Tanner, Paul, Ida. Tanning will also go to the Tucson air base.

Meanwhile Assistant Navy Recruiter Edmund Bannan reported that five men sent from here earlier in the month had enlisted at Salt Lake City. These included Rex Overton, 23, Buhl; William Robert Eillon, Twin Falls; Frederick Russell Osgood, 25, Hansen; William Harold Kyle, 25, Buhl; and Milton Albert Powell, 30, Hazelton.

"Give a Ride" Cards Arrive

Membership cards and auto stickers were available here today for the first 25 motorists who want to join the voluntary group willing to give a lift to soldiers and sailors seeking a ride.

The group, now under formation in Idaho, is the Service Motor corps. The Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce defense committee announced today that the initial 25 cards and stickers have arrived from R. G. Cole, Boise, who is heading the Idaho movement. There's no fee involved.

Purpose of the organization is to assist men of the armed forces because they seldom have funds available for transportation when they receive surplus military articles protected under the plan because the rules provide no lifts are to be given until the soldier or sailor shows his authorized permit proving he is a legitimate member of the armed forces and has permission to be absent from his post.

The ride recipient signs the motor corps driver's card.

Sticker on the windshield tells the soldier or sailor that the car owner is willing to cooperate.

Unofficially, the G. O. C. defense committee indicated belief that local autoists who join the service corps should pick up riders only within towns. Stopping on a deserted highway could be dangerous if the pedestrian proved to be impersonating a member of Uncle Sam's forces.

FIRE APPROVALS IN COUNTY AT 39

Tire-buying authorizations issued thus far by the Twin Falls county ration board reached 39 today with approval of several additional okayes. The 39 total includes many permits for purchase of obsolete kinds of tires.

Arthur Chester Radford, Buhl, two obsolete 600 by 20 tires and tubes.

Lawrence Augusting Murphy, Twin Falls, one obsolete 450 by 20 tire.

William Clyde Williams, Twin Falls, one obsolete 400 by 21 tire and two tubes.

Fred Rippe, Piler, one obsolete 825 by 21 tire.

Welfare Unit Maps "Help for Those Who Help Themselves"

"I can't see to sew, but I can rip and press," one woman offered, as she sought aid this week from the Twin Falls Community Welfare center, operating a sewing room at 244 Main avenue south.

And because she was willing to "help herself" to this extent, she was given an opportunity to exchange her labor for material. Some of the church women will assist her with the sewing.

An elderly woman came to the center yesterday to exchange a pair of overshoots for wool material which she will make over into a pair of trousers for her young grandson.

Churches Combine

The Community Welfare center is being operated during January and February by women of 12 local churches, with the view of "helping people to help themselves."

Women who do not know how to sew, may come to the center and receive material and help from the women who are on duty from 9 to 4 each week day; or they may bring material which needs to be remodeled or made over.

Experienced seamstresses who may have sewing machines or other equipment may also use the center's rooms. Patterns, thread, combs, binding tapes and other materials are available for their use.

Anyone knowing a family in need of such facilities is asked by the council to acquaint them with this community service. Miss Ruth Reed, a state adult education teacher, has been loaned by the state to help the local church women in carrying on the project.

Shirts for small boys, which had been made out of adults' discarded work shirts, warmly lined mittens made from pieces of trousers, corduroy, flannel, old tweed coats, Gerdtrudes, aprons and school dresses are among the garments which have been made this week and distributed to the grade schools.

Needs These

The center needs discarded garments and material that can be made up into good, everyday work clothes—no silk material for "dress up" occasions—Miss Reed remarked today.

Persons having material to donate may take it to the center between the hours of 9 a. m. and 5 p. m. or telephone Mrs. W. L. Goodman, president of the Community Welfare council.

Some of the garments received so far can be satisfactorily remodeled into apparel for high school-age girls, as well as children and adults. Social church women pointed out today.

THE HOSPITAL

Twin Falls county general hospital had no beds available today. The bed situation yesterday was critical. Emergency cases were cared for, but there were no beds for chronic cases.

ADMITTED

Mrs. Ellen Moreland, Mrs. G. A. Gates, Sloan Skiles, Twin Falls; Roy Meyerhoff, Mrs. Sidney Byram, Eden; Roberta Hancock, Buhl.

DISMISSED

Mrs. Marvin Miller, J. W. Walck, Mrs. J. E. Wagner and daughter, Mrs. Clifford Davis and daughter, Twin Falls; Mrs. Douglas Greenman and son, Buhl.

Experienced seamstresses who may have sewing machines or other equipment may also use the center's rooms. Patterns, thread, combs, binding tapes and other materials are available for their use.

Anyone knowing a family in need of such facilities is asked by the council to acquaint them with this community service. Miss Ruth Reed, a state adult education teacher, has been loaned by the state to help the local church women in carrying on the project.

Shirts for small boys, which had been made out of adults' discarded work shirts, warmly lined mittens made from pieces of trousers, corduroy, flannel, old tweed coats, Gerdtrudes, aprons and school dresses are among the garments which have been made this week and distributed to the grade schools.

Needs These

The center needs discarded garments and material that can be made up into good, everyday work clothes—no silk material for "dress up" occasions—Miss Reed remarked today.

Persons having material to donate may take it to the center between the hours of 9 a. m. and 5 p. m. or telephone Mrs. W. L. Goodman, president of the Community Welfare council.

Some of the garments received so far can be satisfactorily remodeled into apparel for high school-age girls, as well as children and adults. Social church women pointed out today.

INVITATION

To the women of Twin Falls community whose families need warm clothing—right now—this is an invitation to go to the Twin Falls Community Welfare center, 244 Main avenue south, to get material and help in making those garments. Or to take your own material or clothing to be made up or remodeled. It's a service to "help you to help yourself and your family." You're welcome any day except Sunday from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m.

RUSSIANS BOOST TEMPO OF DRIVE TOWARD SMOLENSK

40 BELOW ZERO WEATHER FAILS TO DELAY REDS

By M. S. HANDLER
MOSCOW, Jan. 22 (U.P.)—Red army troops slashed into the staggering German lines today on the blood-stained snow of Borodino where Napoleon on Sept. 7, 1812 won the victory which opened the way to Moscow but cost him his empire.

They were driving straight for Smolensk, 160 miles to the southwest, tirelessly, with the precision of a machine and a relentless energy engendered by bitter hatred in one of the most astonishing offensives of history.

Snow-sleds towed ski troops along the ragged German flanks while infantrymen marched in close ranks through breast high snow, mile after mile in 40 degree below zero cold, to make a path for the tanks and trucks.

Parachutists dropped behind the German lines from great transport planes while Stenmorter dive-bombers hurtled down on troop and truck columns in the German rear.

It was the opening of the eighth month of the war and it was the 18th anniversary of the death of Nikolai Lenin, father of the Union of Socialist Republics.

Work at Peak Speed
 But today, usually a holiday, found war factories working at peak speed, eager to make records in Lenin's honor, and the men at the front who normally would have honored him in garrisons all over the Soviet Union, sought to speed their pace.

Jubilant military leaders talked of driving the Germans entirely off Russian soil.

The Russians were on the offensive at Leningrad, far west of once threatened Moscow, and over the entire front for the 600 miles from Moscow southward to the sea.

In capturing Moshalsk, 63 miles west of Moscow and six miles from Borodino, the Russians had smashed the last German spearhead pointed toward the capital.

Now they were throwing troops and machines, and crack fresh reserves, into their drive, determined to give the Germans no rest.

Passed Moshalsk
 Dispatches from the front indicated that the Russians might already be past Borodino, six miles from Moshalsk on the main Smolensk highway.

Their glider-towed ski troops were heading for road junctions far in the German rear, to cut off the rears.

Dispatches described how the gliders raced over the snow, to pounce upon tired, shivering German troops whose only warning was a sudden cloud of snow dust in the distance and the hall of machine gun bullets and trench mortar shells from batteries quickly set up commanding the junction points.

Western military experts expressed amazement that it was possible for the Russians to continue their drive. In a five-day train journey from Kulybshev they recorded temperatures as low as 50.8 below zero. Our powerful armored train was sheathed in ice when we arrived at Moscow, where even a short exposure to the open air brings out the tell-tale white spots of frost bite on the face.

Moscow itself is unchanged except that there are few pedestrians, more troops, and it is ghastly cold.

Important Victory
 Advances reported that in addition to their other successes, the Russians had won an important victory in the Karelian forests north of Lake Onega, where the Finns had sought to cut the Arctic railroad. It was asserted that Russian shock troops had captured and held against persistent Finnish counterattacks the key town of Vellkaya, Cuba, whose possession by the Finns had been a grave threat to Arctic communications.

Military leaders were chary of predictions, but it was known that a great Russian platoon was closing on the Germans from the Rzhev direction to the north and Thoral direction to the south.

It was indicated that the Red

NAVY ENROLLS 16 FROM CCC CAMP

It was more or less a "grand slam" for navy recruiting in one spot.

C. A. Edmonson, chief recruiter here, signed 16 CCC youths at the Wood River camp Tuesday as part of his Magic Valley tour. In addition, E. R. Bannon, assistant recruiter, tentatively accepted five other young men yesterday at the local office. The two who signed today for inclusion in the Evening Times list yesterday were Duane Raymond Greene, 20, route one, Jerome, and Guy Roberts, 18, Burley. Greene will be a radioman, two year term, and Roberts a yeoman, two years.

The CCC boys who signed: Elmer Burr Weese, 18, Valley Bend, W. Va., radioman, three years; Clurie Lenzie Arnett, 19, Boles, Ky., machinist, two years; Jim Webb Curtis, 22, Paducah, Ky., machinist, four years; Legs Nealand, 18, Lexington, Ky., machinist, four years; Clinton Morris Staples, 17, Flippin, Ky., machinist, four years; James David Griggs, 18, Paducah, machinist, four years; Charles Bedford Morgan, 17, Sunny Lane, Ky., machinist, two years; Chesley Kenton Shives, Summer Shade, Ky., machinist, two years; Hugh Wayne McGuire, 17, Bowling Green, Ky., machinist, two years; Garland Wireman, 20, Jackson, Ky., machinist, two years; Herbert Lewis Gundler, 17, Versailles, Ky., storekeeper, two years; Leroy Ellis Combs, 18, Conkling, Ky., machinist, two years; James Gilbert McIntosh, 19, Jackson, storekeeper, four years; Joseph Rubert Burry, 18, Kentucky, machinist, four years; Robert Turner, 17, Alto, Ky., machinist, two years; Robert Lee Thorpe, 17, Fillmore, Ky., machinist, two years.

The army command had deliberately left the Moshalsk pocket for weeks in order to immobilize the estimated 100,000 Germans in it and increase the chance that the troops driving northwestward might close in and trap the entire pocketed German force.

JEROME ADVISES DAM SAFEGUARD

JEROME, Jan. 22 (Special)—Asking cooperation and support of a movement to increase guard duty at both Magic and Milner dams, members of the Jerome Chamber of Commerce, at their session Wednesday afternoon, voted a resolution which will be sent to the State Chamber of Commerce and other organizations. The announcement was made by the secretary, Otto Power.

Report of the electrical session held in Boise, which was in conjunction with the State Chamber of Commerce convention, was made by Berwyn Burke, editor of the Jerome North Side News. A. L. Woodhead, manager of the local Idaho Power Co. office, also gave a report of the meeting.

Members of the Jerome organization voted in favor of sponsoring the proposed out-of-school youth program, which may be set up in this city.

JAPS CAN'T WIN, ASSERTS WILKINS

BOISE, Jan. 22 (U.P.)—Sir Hubert Wilkins, noted Arctic and Antarctic explorer, last night told a banquet audience here that "deep down in their hearts the Japanese realize they cannot defeat America and Britain."

The Japanese merely wish to win respect of the civilized world, and therefore can be expected to treat American prisoners of war fairly. He maintained that China was too unstable to be depended upon as a strong ally during the war.

Sir Hubert also made it plain to Boiseans that he was willing to repeat the weather-defying feat which he told a banquet group in Idaho Falls. He said in an interview that he would be glad to wager $10,000 he could jump into icy water, undress and dress in 40 degree below zero weather without suffering any ill effects. The wager, however, was expected to go without takers since the Idaho men who expressed doubt concerning the act were not willing to go to Alaska to witness it.

Heyburn Planning Annual Art Show

HEYBURN, Jan. 22 (Special)—Walter Basinger has announced that preparations are underway for the annual art exhibit to be held at Heyburn from March 1 to 15. From all indications it seems that it will be as large as previous years.

Registration of all Heyburn students who have reached their 18th birthday will be completed Wednesday, Jan. 21. It is entirely voluntary on the part of the students but the Idaho civilian defense council asks their cooperation in registering.

Employe Dancing on Top Of OCD Building Halted

By JOSEPH L. MYLER

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22 (U.P.)—They don't dance on the roof of the office of civilian defense anymore. The blame is partly the weather, but mostly it may be laid to wisecracks-in-columns and on editorial pages.

The whole thing started innocently enough with a remark by Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, assistant OCD director, to the effect that national headquarters of the office of civilian defense "ought to practice what it preaches," I. E. healthful exercise.

The remark was a challenge to Alice Marble, tennis star and women's director of the OCD's division of physical fitness. Before you could tighten a fiddle string, stenographers, secretaries and file clerks were swinging their partners to recorded music atop the OCD building, a converted 12-story apartment house at duPont circle.

Virginia Reel
 For five days young men and women of the OCD personnel spent part of their lunch hour dancing the Virginia reel—which is exercise, indeed—on the tile-paved roof under Miss Marble's direction and with Mary K. Browne, former women's tennis champion, as "caller."

They had a fine time, and the stenographers were beginning to notice an appreciable abatement of that affliction known locally as "government spread." Filled young men were losing that transparent look about the gills. Health, induced by sunshine, fresh air and exercise, was blooming. Attendance grew by two and fours to an average of 40 a day.

The story got out and the commentators took it up. Some of the time dances may be resumed, it was indicated.

When spring brings back blue skies, Miss Brown's "do-se-do" will ring out high above duPont circle once more, and again the shoppers on Connecticut avenue will hear floating down mysteriously from the sky, the foot-tlinging strains of "Turkey in The Straw" and "She'll Be Coming 'Round the Mountain When She Comes."

Every 24 hours in the United States an average of 170 cars are stolen.

It Didn't Seem Possible.

In the spring of 1919 an old man sat writing his memoirs. They were war memoirs, naturally, of the war just closed. The man was Eric von Ludendorff, the great quartermaster-general of the German armies, a military genius who was soon to prove himself a political dud.

"The unified war strength which the United States had sent over to France in the months of April, May and June," he wrote, "was, according to our advance information, estimated at about 15 divisions. In time, a total of about 20 American divisions were to be in France."

Then there must have been a bit of a sigh as he added, "That was more than I had deemed possible. The preponderance in number of divisions that we had attained in March was thereby offset."

Ah, yes, "More than I had deemed possible." That was what turned the trick. "America was thereby the power which swung the balance of decision."

When the task of arms production and training of soldiers and sailors was set before us by the President, there was a bit of scoffing in the German and Italian press. Such goals were visionary, they jeered. It couldn't be done. America was only bluffing, anyway. Sixty thousand airplanes in a single year! Forty-five thousand tanks! Eight million tons of ships! All Yankee bluff!

Well, the Kaiser and his aides did some calculating in 1917. First they calculated that the United States wouldn't fight, no matter what they did. But America fought. Then they calculated that America could not put the actual force on the front in time. Again they miscalculated.

We have a job before us today. It is to insure that some other old and broken German general shall sit writing, and the sooner the better:

"The American planes, guns and ships arrived in swarms. It became more and more difficult for us to replace our losses, but still the American material and the trained American troops came. It was more than we had deemed possible."

America is not going to win this war all by itself. But again it is given to us to provide that balance of power which will tilt victory into the end of the scale that weighs for right and freedom.

Every man, woman and child in the United States today holds the answer in his hand to the breathless questions, "Will it be enough? Will it be in time?"

In the United States we are saying, yes.

Look at the Other Fellow!

Somewhat there is a trait in human nature that enables the man who has fallen in the mud up to his hips to get a certain satisfaction out of contemplating the fellow who has fallen in up to his neck.

So if you're worried about the tremendous federal debt get what satisfaction you can out of this:

The public debt today of the United States is slightly less than the annual national income. In Britain it's twice the national income. That is the estimate of the Alexander Hamilton institute. That means that we may emerge from the war with a debt of perhaps twice our national income, while Britain will then be in for a debt three or four times the national income of that country.

Just how all this will end, even the most proficient economists don't know. About all we can be sure of is that no-matter-what kind of a hole we find ourselves in, we will have plenty of company.

The Army Must Be Fit to Fight

An army, in order to fight successfully, must be fit to fight. It is a well-established fact that the greatest toll an army suffers, at least before going into action, is that taken by venereal disease. Unless this insidious enemy of fighting fitness is rigorously controlled, our army has already suffered a major defeat before ever going into action.

The American army of World war I was the cleanest army in this regard that was ever assembled. It can be done. The army knows how to do its share. Civilian cooperation is necessary, however, because army men are at times outside military jurisdiction. Further, the problem of protecting defense workers against loss of priceless hours of production is almost equally acute.

Cooperating with military and civilian authorities is the American Social Hygiene association, which is promoting the sixth National Social Hygiene day on Feb. 4. No community can afford to pass up this chance to help eliminate the most insidious saboteur of all—venereal disease.

TAMBAY GOLD

BY SAMUEL HOPKINS ADAMS

THE STORY: Mom Deane sets up "Federal" lunch wagon at run-down Tambay plantation, forms "Federal" camp, party, forms "Federal" camp, party, forms "Federal" camp, party...

Angel did. It was right up his alley. "It's a pity there wasn't a man on the place that night," he said. "This time he was staring straight at Doc Oliver."

"What could one man do?" I said.

"I'd like to have been there with a few of the team," Angel said. "Oh, if only you had been!" This from Juddy.

The old party had huddled up. "I'm afraid that Walker would have had to get a new football team. Have you ever heard of a lynching being stopped in these parts?" He talked like he was defending a cherished institution. Doc jumped in. "Yes, I have. This one was stopped by"—he smiled—"an aged man, two lads, a narrow lane."

"Shakespeare," I said. "Shoot, Doc. I could feel the tension loosening up."

"RIGHT here at Tambay," he went on. "Several years ago. There had been a particularly brutal murder on one of the plantations. There was no plain clew, but an old Negro man had been seen putting about the place. He had always been a harmless old fellow, but when they caught and threatened him, he was too terrified to explain what he'd been doing there. Word reached a dinner party that the old fellow was being taken to Tambay Tree. There was an old gentleman there for whom the Negro worked. He excused himself from the party. Two or three guests followed him, boys of 17 or 18. Their horses were outside. They got to Tambay only just in time. They rode their horses through the mob, took the rope from the praying Negro's neck, and faced around with their pistols in their hands. Nobody stopped them. Weeks later the real murderer was caught."

"Who were the rescue party, Doc?" I said.

"Ask Maurie Sears," he said. "Juddy left Angel and went over to Sears. 'Who was the old man, Maurie?' she said. 'Great-uncle Rantoul Maurie. He's right much of an old fire-eater and afraid of nothing on earth.' 'And you?' She smiled at him. 'And the other boy, whoever he was?' 'My cousin, Elliot Maurie. We couldn't find the old gentleman ride alone.' 'No; you couldn't. And yet—' 'Oh, I'll never understand you people! But, Maurie, I'll tell you one thing. If that ever happens again at Tambay I'll—I'll hate the

Every Man-Jack Among Navy Recruits Eager to Go to Sea

(Editor's note: The following article, first of an anticipated series, was written by the former profronter of the Evening Times. He has enlisted in the United States navy.)

By FRANK ELLSWORTH

U. S. NAVAL TRAINING STATION, Company 42-12, San Diego, Calif.—To say the least, life in the navy has proved not only interesting but entertaining. I say this sincerely and without any film-flam and the feeling appears to be the same among the men with whom I've been associated here in camp. Incidentally, every man-jack of them is eager to get to sea on Uncle Sam.

Arrived Jan. 12

The seven recruits who left Twin Falls Jan. 2 for the navy spent several days in Salt Lake City before being sent here for training. This group, of which I was a member, arrived in San Diego Jan. 12 in Salt Lake City, the many recruits were required to report to the recruiting office at 9:15 p. m. each day. Remainder of the day was spent in various ways. Bowling, attending picture shows, reading, playing cards, reading and writing letters were some forms of entertainment. At certain times of the day the recreation room of the Elks club tryout of the recruits and the Salt Lake City Y.W.C.A. held a dance for army and navy men one night.

The trip to San Diego was made by special train. Except for a few amusing incidents the trip was uneventful. One such incident occurred at a crossing in California. The train was moving slowly.

Helping the Sailors!

Seated in a car waiting for the train to pass were three women. One of the fellows asked another for a cigarette. The women in the car heard the request and one walked over to the train from the auto and handed the recruit a package of cigarettes, much to his surprise. The cigarettes were distributed among the fellows of that car.

After arriving in San Diego we were taken by bus to the training station. On the first night, after "chow" we were given three inoculations, took a physical examination and were shown to our "bunks," or beds.

The men in our company have been issued their uniforms, "whites," "blues" and "fatigues." Rifles have been issued and haircuts have been given to each man.

First Haircut!

The first haircut for the recruit is something he probably will remember for a long time. All that remains after the first haircut is about a half inch of "bristles." However, with all the recruits receiving the same treatment, self-consciousness is eliminated.

In camp, every fellow is known as "Mac" to the other fellows. All over the area at any time of the day, someone is heard talking to "Mac." Now recruits, upon arriving at the station are greeted with, "Where are you from, Mac?" "O'how" is served cafeteria style, on a large scale. After eating, each

With Kelly at Washington

Every shipyard in the northwest will soon be given contracts to build merchant vessels, destroyers, mine sweepers and patrol boats at double the number of orders heretofore placed with them. On the ways of northwest yards must be constructed the ships to carry troops, airplanes and supplies for the mass attack upon Japan when the "time comes."

Secretary of the Navy Frank Knox reminds the people, not to be impatient or expect an immediate assault on Japan for at least 18 months, possibly 24 months, will be required to make preparations. Use then the northwest will be defended by troops already in concealed positions and by the army air force. It is estimated that the maritime commission will let contracts for approximately $320,000,000 on Puget sound and Columbia river, plus the naval vessels. Employment is also expected to be doubled. Some of the yards will have work ahead until 1945.

Idaho and Nevada are the only western states that are on the borderline of filling their quota of civil service appointees. Washington, Montana, Wyoming, Utah and Colorado have more than their quota; Oregon and California are under. The administration is now asking that everyone who has taken civil service examination to come to Washington for the war activities; but in the west hundreds who are eligible have refused because they have heard of the crowded condition in the capital and the high prices. Every week for the past month the army and navy have taken on 10,000 new people. Civil service commission has opened a school to teach stenography and typing, finding it impossible to fill the demand otherwise. Any girl who can operate a typewriter will find a job waiting in Washington, D. C.

As soon as the confusion over civil defense is straightened out millions of dollars will be available to purchase small machines to extinguish incendiary bombs and incipient fires. The appropriation has been kicked around, but at the earliest date orders will be given for pumps and these will be distributed in all towns except in the mid-west, where there is no danger of raid by Japanese fliers.

FUEHRER STARTS MOTOR CHECKUP

By United Press

Adolf Hitler installed today an unprecedented motor vehicle check-up system, indicating that Germany's supply and transport establishments may have been thrown out of gear by the campaign in Russia.

He indicated new tension between himself and the army by naming a ranking officer of the Hitler elite guard as inspector general for all "questions" concerning automobiles and lorries in the reich and conquered territories.

The official, Jakob Werlin, according to official Berlin broadcasts recorded by the United Press, will be responsible directly to Hitler and will inform him "with greater rapidity than reports passing through customary military channels."

NEW HIGH IS MADE BY SAVINGS-LOAN

First Federal Savings and Loan association set a new high mark in loan disbursements last year, achieving 304 home loans aggregating $469,500, Manager H. R. Grant advised stockholders at the annual meeting here Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. Grant's report showed that assets as of Dec. 31 were $1,852,547 with 85 per cent of the total in mortgage loans to citizens of this general community. The association has $207,316 in cash and government bonds, representing 11 per cent of the assets.

New Savings

New savings totaling $330,075 were cited in the manager's report.

Thirty-sixth consecutive dividend, stockholders were told, disbursed $65,443 among 2,030 persons having savings and investments in the association. Dividends were 4 1/2 per cent for the year.

Payments to shareholders for matured shares, completed savings programs, partial withdrawal of accumulated funds, down payments and other purposes reached $738,214, according to the annual report.

Significant civic aspect of the association's work, Mr. Grant pointed out, was that homes financed by the First Federal during 1941 enhanced real property values by fully $225,000.

Defense Boost

Turning to the association's vigorous efforts on behalf of defense bonds and stamps, Mr. Grant reported that sales have been $13,750 through the concern since May 24, 1941. "Many more could have been sold," he said, "had we been able to obtain them."

Officers were reelected at the Wednesday session, which was the 26th annual meeting. Stuart H. Taylor is president; Reese M. Williams, treasurer; E. A. Landon, secretary; Leo Anderson, assistant secretary; Mr. Grant, manager; Parry and Thomas, legal representatives.

Directors include R. P. Parry, E. A. Moon, Alvin Casey, Floyd Norman, Mr. Lander, Harry W. Barry, E. D. Koster, Mr. Taylor and Mr. Williams. On the loan board are Mr. Taylor, Mr. Moon, Mr. Norman, Mr. Kester and Mr. Williams. Auditing committee is Mr. Taylor, Mr. Casey and Mr. Landon.

SERVICES HONOR CAROLE LOMBARD

HOLLYWOOD, Jan. 22 (U.P.)—Carole Lombard joined the other movie immortals in Forest Lawn Memorial park today.

After the briefest, simplest possible service—in accordance with the wish expressed in her will—the bodies of Miss Lombard and her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth K. Peters, were interred in the green acres where are buried Marie Dressler, Will Rogers, Jean Harlow, Doug Fairbanks, Lon Chaney, Tom Mix and many another movie star.

The sealed coffins of Miss Lombard and her mother, killed in last Friday's aerial tragedy in Nevada, were blanketed with garlands in the Memorial church. Whether by chance or on purpose, the caskets formed a perfect "V" in front of the pulpit, where the Rev. Gordon C. Chapman said a prayer, read a psalm and recited one of Miss Lombard's favorite poems.

None See Gable

Grim of mouth and wearing dark glasses to cover his red-rimmed eyes, Miss Lombard's husband, Clark Gable, sat in an ante-room late yesterday during the 10-minute service. None of the invited friends, numbering less than 50 and including Spencer Tracy, Fred MacMurray, Jack Benny, Myrna Loy and Miss Lombard's first husband, William Powell, ever saw him.

Miss Lombard had suggested in her will that the services be ultra simple. And simple they were.

Police stopped sightseers at the bottom of the long road leading to the chapel on the top of a hill overlooking the San Fernando valley where Mr. and Mrs. G. had enjoyed what they said were the happiest years of their lives. Photographers remained outside the cemetery. A dozen members of the press came not only as newspapermen, but as friends and mourners.

No Music

There was no music. Miss Lombard would not have wanted it. Floral tributes, including two large United States flags made of red and white carnations and blue cornflowers, lined the chapel. None of the bouquets bore cards.

The Rev. Chapman, pastor of the Westwood community Methodist church, said a brief prayer. He read the 23rd psalm. Then he recited the poem, work of an unknown author. It began like this:

"My life is but a weaving
"Between my Lord and me,
"I cannot choose the colors;
"He worketh steadily,
"At times He weaveth sorrow
"And I in foolish pride
"Forget He sees the upper
"And I the lower side."

With that the Rev. Chapman said the benediction and the mourners filed by the caskets into the gray afternoon. Interment was private, with only the members of the families as witnesses. Gable declined with thanks an offer from the army for a squadron of soldiers to fire a salute in memory of Miss Lombard's war work.

He left the cemetery at sunset, alone in the back seat of a rented limousine. His fans and Miss Lombard's numbering by now perhaps 100 at the gates, glimpsed him hatless, with cithin in hand, as the car purred away.

RAF Ships Bomb Northern Germany

LONDON, Jan. 22 (U.P.)—Royal air force bombers raddled northwest Germany last night "in force" with strong attacks on the port of Bremen and Emden.

The air ministry said the two objectives were the main objectives but that airplanes in Holland and the docks of Boulogne, France, also were bombed.

Six planes are missing, its communication said.

Grange Gleanings

By A. HARVESTER

BUILD

At the regular meeting of Buhl Grange, the charter was draped for M. Homing, pioneer of the Buhl country and long time member of the Buhl Grange. A gold seal was received from the National Grange as a recognition of outstanding activity by the local Grange, this being a second year honor award for this unit. Five dollars was received from the Pomona Grange as fourth prize in the gavel contest.

A letter was received from the Taxpayers' league, asking the Grange to support a move to abolish the WPA, the CCC and the NYA during the war, in order to save money for the prosecution of the war. The letter was referred to the resolution committee.

Committees were appointed by Master Southwick as follows:

Home Economics—Mrs. Parlinger, Mrs. Owen and Mrs. Southwick.

Resolutions—S. C. Orr, I. E. Stansell and Frank Southwick.

Flowers—Mrs. Henry Lehman, Mrs. Piery and Mrs. A. Tarnler.

Agriculture—Mrs. Lehman, Harry Davis and Grant Leader.

Legislative—S. C. Orr, I. E. Stansell and Clyde Smithson. M. Sandgren was named as business agent. The new password for 1942 was given out by the master.

Mrs. Clyde Smithson, Grange lecturer, offered the following program: Highlights from the National Grange meeting by several members of the Grange. In this connection S. C. Orr told of the peculiar fitness of the new master of the National Grange, Albert S. Goss. Mr. Goss was a resident of the state of Washington prior to his appointment as land bank commissioner, and has the interests of western agriculture at heart and a thorough knowledge of the farmer's problems.

Mrs. Clyde Smithson told of the duties of the Red Cross and what may be done to assist in the work of the organization. She advised the planting of family gardens in town as well as in the country to aid in the food supply and insure its wholesomeness. Mrs. Earl Parlinger gave a stunt in which the men were given needle and thread and asked to sew on buttons. Frank Southwick and F. E. Southwick were awarded prizes as the most efficient seamstresses, a very dangerous thing for Frank as he is a recent bridegroom and wife might get some funny notions.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Latham, recently arrived from Washington, were guests. The Lathams are members of a Grange near Seattle and will farm in the Buhl neighborhood, where Mr. Latham has purchased a farm.

INSTALLATION

Despite the roads and weather, the installation at Mountain Rock Grange hall was well attended, more than 150 persons being present for the event, at which five Granges had their officers installed. Knoll, Twin Falls, Hansen, Kimberly and Mountain Rock were the participating Granges. Pleasant Valley Grange being unable to come because of illness in the Grange. The installation was in charge of J. P. Belleville, assisted by Ruby Jones, Effie Dahlquist, Bill Wiseman, Hazel Haverland and Mrs. Lawrence Bell as marshals, and Mrs. E. E. Bauer, Mrs. Billington, P. Denn and Mr. Bauer as emcee masters. Mrs. John Deane was acting chaplain with music for the ceremony being furnished by Mrs. Howard Manning. The ceremony was very beautifully carried out and the folks all felt repaid for the trip, especially after hearing the two vocal solos by Howard Manning, accompanied by Mrs. Manning at the piano.

Carol Holloway of Knoll Grange was presented with a pastmaster pin by Erle Jones, on behalf of Knoll Grange. In a speech complimenting Mr. Holloway, and in the enthusiasm that brought out this crowd of 150 Grangers in such a time holds through 1942 we shall expect great progress from all these Granges this year. Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.

TWIN FALLS

Twin Falls Grange met at the I. O. G. P. hall Wednesday, Jan. 14, with a good attendance, and Master Jackey presiding. The group sang the old Grange favorite, "The Grange Is Marching on," as an opening number. Routine business was cared for and Master Jackey outlined the plans which the Grange should adopt for the new year.

Scoutmaster Fred Locke urged all members to help the Boy Scouts in the defense project they have taken over, saving waste paper. Save all papers and magazine for the Boy Scouts in your vicinity and they will collect them. Save any other waste materials that may be used in defense work. The Grange voted to help the Pomona Grange in the proposed Red Cross benefit auction.

During the lecturer's hour Mrs. Capps outlined plans for the year in her department. She also gave a talk on "Thoughts for Today." Roscoe Wark gave a talk on the state master's annual address before the State Grange session. The group sang "Day Is Dying in the West" as a closing number.

Refreshments were served by Mr. and Mrs. Capps and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Locke and the Grange spent a pleasant social hour afterward.

(Continued from last meeting) ... Twin Falls Grange voted $5 to the Red Cross drive. During the lecturer's hour Fred Locke showed motion pictures for 45 minutes, showing a "comic strip," "Highway Safety" and "Travelogue on Africa." Mr. and Mrs. Frank Barton and Mr. and Mrs. L. Jones served delicious mince pie and coffee, and they wished A. Harvester had been there to enjoy the pie with them. Great Sakes a Scott!

CEGAR DRAW

And over at Cedar Draw they had a joint installation of Cedar Draw and Northview Granges, with a good crowd present and oyster stew (yum yum) for bait. The installation was in charge of Stanley Walters as installing officer, assisted by Mrs. Walters and Mrs. Ted Blerer as marshals and Ted Blerer as regalia bearer. The date, Jan. 10, was the regular date for Northview Grange to meet but Cedar Draw will meet this Friday, Jan. 23.

DAM PROTECTION DECLARED VITAL

Comprehensive protection of river dams and farm canal systems is a No. 1 defense necessity, Asher B. Wilson, representative of the county civilian defense council, declared at the Rotary club meeting here Wednesday.

Wilson outlined the Twin Falls Canal company's recently-expanded protective measures and termed safeguards at strategic points "essential in this emergency." He explained action taken by the county council, headed by J. R. Bothwell, Mr. Wilson said county fire precautions are under O. H. Coleman; police, Sheriff Warren W. Lowery and Frank L. Stephan; medical, the county hospital medical staff headed by Dr. A. J. Boston; schools, Supl. A. W. Morgan.

Open discussion at the club luncheon brought to light the fact that sewage water through Rock creek tunnels could be utilized by Twin Falls in case of bombing emergencies.

R. S. Tofflenire, Rotary president, presided at the luncheon in Blagley's coffee shop.

War Brings Shortage of Herbs For Medicine, Gardeners Told

When Idaho women "get going" on chemistry, expect them to start raising paprika, seasonings, medicinal herbs, seeds from which cosmetic oils can be made, and other products.

With war shutting off many imports, and with the Farm Chemurgic society continuing the experimentations to create outlets for farm surpluses that cannot be eaten, gardening is going to become something more than growing greens for salads and flowers for table centerpieces.

Particularly to the women of Idaho and other highly agricultural communities is coming the new opportunity to help the nation—and probably to make money, too.

Information Available

C. G. Bowden, representative of the Northrup, King company in the northwest, and member of the Idaho council of the Farm Chemurgic society, in an address before the Twin Falls Garden club last evening, inspired both his men and women listeners to find out all they could about this "new order" for the grower.

When he had explained at length the experimentations that are being carried on to create new industries—the Idaho Power company is sponsoring the studies in Idaho—he was asked the question, "If these products are raised in small quantities, say two or three rows, could one dispose of the crop?" His answer was "yes."

Anyone wishing more information concerning chemistry, may write to the Idaho council of the Farm Chemurgic society, in care of the Idaho Power company, Boise; the local branch of the power company, or to the president of the Idaho council, Windsor Lloyd, Nampa, for additional information.

Approximately 75 persons, mostly men, attended the meeting. Mrs. Robert Dingman was program chairman. Mrs. John S. Feldhusen

Pop Corn Feast Marks Gathering Of Girl Reserves

Girl Reserves enjoyed a popcorn feed last evening following their regular business meeting at the "Y".

While they watched comical skits and pantomimes portraying the scenes of camp life.

Sophomore skit was in charge of Miss Dorothy Krengel, and she was assisted by Miss Barbara Price and Miss Joan Lindenman. Their pantomime was a comical picture of "Hess's Flight to England."

Miss Grace Bruley introduced the second skit, of which she was in charge, and her assistants were Miss Genevieve Benoit and Miss Joan Benoit. They presented a take-off on the morning radio programs, "Stage Jordan, Halvett."

Miss Julia McBride led the group in singing songs made up at last year's camp session, and Miss Lindenman gave a report of camp life and especially of their devotional periods. Miss Helen Tinker explained the G. R. camp girls' traditional "Gypsy Panorama."

Miss Mary Jane Shearer presided over the business meeting and appointed several chairmen for committees concerning the dance and other current undertakings of the club. Mrs. Frank Wells, sponsor, suggested that the G. R.'s assist in the selling of tickets for the President's ball. The suggestion was well accepted and Miss Vera Goodman was appointed in charge of the project.

Miss-Norene Annis gave a report of the preparation of Christmas baskets; she was chairman of the project. Marie Louiden led the devotional period of the meeting.

Miss Mary Alice Buchanan gave a report of plans for the spring dance, and Miss Benoit and Donna Lee Smith were placed in charge of the event.

Miss Lois Bair was appointed to take charge of a drive by the club for the securing of books for the USO book campaign. Miss Buchanan was in charge of refreshments.

Four Win Prizes At Elks Tourney

Mrs. Truman T. Greenhalgh and Mrs. Wilbur S. Hill won women's prizes and J. H. Blandford and Barney Glavin, the men's prizes, at the Elks lodge bridge party last evening in the Venetian room of the Elks hall.

Defense stamps were awarded, and a military motif was featured in the buffet table appointments. Tournament prizes will be given high scorers for the series, at the April 15 card party.

Much of the sewing for the production unit of the Twin Falls chapter, American Red Cross, is done in the homes. Mrs. Pearl McDonald, executive secretary, points out, and many clubs, including rural groups, are assisting.

OREGON'S GIRL EDITOR GETS NATIONAL NEWSPAPER FAME

By JEAN DINKELACKER
You've heard about Inez Calloway Robb, the Caldwell, Ida., newspaper woman who made good in New York, London and Lisbon; but what do you know about the exciting career of Dorothy Anne Hobson?

She's the star northwest newspaper editor who decided to "twinkle out" in 1941—much to the disappointment of her many newspaper readers.

Folded Card Table
Dorothy Anne, a freckle-faced girl of nine, with blonde pigtails and sparkling blue eyes, edited her first issue of the Valsez Star in the fall of 1937. In December, 1941, she announced "with the December issue—we are suspending publication of the Valsez Star. We are folding up our card table and closing our door."

The story of Dorothy's four-year editorship is recounted in the Publishers' Auxiliary of Jan. 17, 1942, summarizing Cecil C. Snyder's feature story in a recent issue of the Portland (Ore.) Oregonian.

Her more than 800 subscribers in every state in the Union and a number of foreign countries, but not including Germany—as in one issue she stated: "We lost our German subscribers; we guess he got scuttled"—will regret the passing of this very amusing piece of rural Americana.

Valsetz is tucked away in the hills of western Oregon, 30 miles over a winding mountain road from Dallas "and if you go lickety-split—you'll land in the ditch." It is a lumber town, maintained by Cobbs and Mitchell company, which operates the mill.

Typical of Dorothy Anne's slant on the town's social life is this little "What You're What You're"

"The ladies of the bridge club held their annual party for the husbands last month. The ladies wore their best dresses, their fur coats, red fingernails and large earrings. The men wore whatever they had." A regular Dorothy Thompson when it came to "talking politics" the young editor gained for herself the title of Oregon's pillar of "Republicanism" and the state's most outspoken editor. After the defeat of Wendell Willkie, she didn't have much to say for some time except that "we are still Republicans, but we are meeting some awfully nice Democrats. They smile and shake hands so nice."

Herbert A. Templeton of the lumber company which bears his name in Portland has been Dorothy Anne's publisher. She wrote her copy in longhand on a school note pad and mailed it to Portland where it was mimeographed. Mr. Templeton bought 250 copies of the Star each month and mailed them to his lumber dealers.

"Better Keep House"
Dorothy Anne doesn't plan to continue an editorial career. Recently she decided she wanted to be a lawyer and go to Syracuse university, but "the reaction of one-of-her subscribers discouraged her in that pursuit, and, although we can't see anything very interesting about stomachs, we think maybe we had just better keep house."

Their Universities

Mr. Summerfield, a graduate of the University of Illinois, is a member of the firm and is manager of the R. and G. Jewelry store in Twin Falls.

Among the guests were Mrs. Buky, mother of the bridegroom-elect; Mrs. F. A. Robinson, Gooding, grandmother of the bride-to-be, and Mrs. Clayton Mullins, Salt Lake City, intimate friend of Miss Halpin, who was Miss Maxine Doss prior to her holiday marriage. Miss Halpin was her maid of honor.

Constitution of Y.W.C.A. Drafted

Constitution is to be adopted during the general meeting of the Y.W.C.A., to be held in Twin Falls next Wednesday, Jan. 28, according to plans completed at the meeting of the executive board of the Y.W.C.A. yesterday afternoon at the "Y" rooms.

Mrs. R. L. Reed presided, and during the session yesterday, cooperation of members in the Victory Book Campaign was asked.

A devotional candlelighting service will begin next Wednesday's meeting, to be held at the Idaho Power company auditorium at 2 p. m. Mrs. F. W. Slack and Mrs. Frank E. Wells, executive secretary of the Y.W.C.A., are planning the program, which will include special musical numbers and an address by an out-of-town speaker.

Happy New Year!

Guess I'm a little late with this greeting, but I just got back from my vacation. Bet you didn't even miss me. Well—I missed you folks just the same. After twenty-six years of saving, Mrs. Musgrave and I finally got to spend two months in California.

It is fun to go down there on a short vacation, but believe me this is the place for me. The finest people on earth are here—a progressive thrifty group—greatest climate too. We have lots to look forward with the changing of seasons. I really believe we have more warm sunshine than any state in the union. We came home a little sooner than we had planned. On account of the existing crisis we felt that our place was at home.

We, like the rest of you red blooded Americans, are willing to sacrifice a plenty in order to help win this war. One good thing that will come out of living conditions which will exist for the duration of the war is this—We will all live closer to each other and be more neighborly. We will find enjoyment at home and in our local community. With the present rationing in force it's a cinch a fellow won't want to be in some other state when blow outs on the family bus takes place.

I think you folks would be smart to buy all the home furnishings you need in order to bring contentment at home. We have the largest stock of quality furniture on hand we have ever had. Come in and select the things you have worked so hard to get. A cozy, comfortable, home makes happier Americans.

Our business is unusually good, and remember that cash talks at

AIRCRAFT PLANT MAY GO TO UTAH

SALT LAKE CITY, Jan. 22 (UP)—Possible location of a major inland aircraft factory in Utah was seen here today, following disclosure that officials of Northrop Aircraft, Inc., have conducted a survey of available sites.

The Pacific coast company, which manufactures dive bombers and interceptor planes, was represented in the Utah survey by C. N. Monson, treasurer of the corporation. Monson said, before returning to California, that the plant contemplated for Utah would have a $10,000,000 annual payroll.

Despite Monson's statements, officials of the firm in Hawthorne, Calif., disclaimed knowledge of the plan. Gus Buckman, secretary of the Salt Lake City Chamber of Commerce, said Monson and two members of the corporation's board of directors, Chairman Lamotte T. Cohn and H. W. Cohn, conferred with him and with Gov. Herbert B. Maw.

It appeared likely the plant would be situated in southern Utah, if the plan goes through. Nept was understood to be one of the sites under consideration.

Before leaving, Monson said: "We are going to build a plant somewhere in the interior. This area has many advantages, and if our requirements are met, the factory will be erected in Utah. However, we have other localities under consideration, some of which meet the water, acreage and utility needs."

LOUIS HONORED BY WRITERS, NAVY, ARMY

Champ Awarded Ring Magazine And Neil Trophies

NEW YORK, Jan. 22 (U.P.) Heavyweight Champion Joe Louis must be credited today with the most glorious knock-out of his career, following last night's amazing triumph at the Annual Boxing Writers' dinner where:

(1) Lieut. Comdr. Gene Turney, standing at the speakers table in his naval uniform, declared in the presence of Jack Dempsey that Bomber Joe is "the greatest and most complete workman the ring has ever known."

(2) James J. Walker, former mayor of New York City, called Louis "an American gentleman," the highest tribute he knew—because of Joe's exemplary conduct in the ring and out because of his quick response to Uncle Sam's call.

(3) Occurred the unprecedented double presentation of the Eddie Neil memorial plaque for having done the most for boxing during 1941, and the Ring magazine's fighter-of-the-year award.

(4) A telegram was read from Lieut. Col. H. C. Brenizer, Joe's commanding officer at Camp Upton, which stated that the heavyweight champion was developing into just as good a soldier as he was a ring fighter.

Turney, retired undefeated heavyweight champion, was honored also at the Boxing Writers' dinner in Rupert's brewery—given a desk set by the writers for his service to his country and to boxing during 1941. But the lieutenant commander in his blue and gold was merely incidental on this program honoring the man in the army uniform, Private Joe Louis Barrow.

Turney was incidental until he commented upon Jolting Joe's recent triumph over Buddy Baer in the first round for the benefit of the navy relief society. Turney said Louis' performance at the Garden that night was the "greatest exhibition of human destruction I ever saw." He said the great Bob Fitzsimmons might have been able to operate in as deadly fashion, but he never had seen Ruby Rob and he doubted it. Then, despite the presence of Dempsey—who only yesterday joined the New York state guard—called Louis the greatest fighter of all time—or words to that effect.

Brown-skinned Joe was praised by many other speakers, including former Postmaster General Jim Farley, Head G-Man J. Edgar Hoover, Sanitation Commissioner William F. Carey, President Abe J. Greene of the National Boxing association, and Toastmaster Sid Mercer of the New York Journal.

Most dramatic moment of the night and perhaps in Louis' career came when former Mayor Walker concluded his tribute by saying, "Joe—when you risked your life and your future against Buddy Baer in patriotism—you did something else. You laid a red rose on Abe Lincoln's grave."

Then Louis stood and bashfully received the Eddie Neil plaque. The big brown man in the army uniform—who had started life in the Alabama cotton fields—had no prepared speech of acceptance, and if he had it would have been forgotten in his emotion.

Like Champion But he came through like a great champion. Probably no other man in the world could have followed Walker, one of America's most effective after-dinner speakers—who had left the gathering mantled in hushed sentimentality.

Only the big, shuffling brown man could have been the perfect foil. Joe didn't say much, but his talk was dynamic—like his work against Buddy Baer. He said he felt mighty good when he won the world title—thought then that was his happiest moment—but tonight I feel better than I ever felt in all my life—and I want to thank all of you from the bottom of my heart."

Then he sat down.

Willie Hoppe Takes Lead In Billiards

CHICAGO, Jan. 22 (U.P.)—Defending champion Willie Hoppe, New York, held an undisputed lead in the world's three-cushion billiards championship tournament today after the leadership had been deduced in two, three and four-way ties for over a week.

The silver-haired tiltist shot an easy 50-23 victory over Chicago's Jake Schaeffer yesterday in 41 innings. Hoppe set an all-time tournament shut-out record by leading Schaeffer 25-0 at the end of the 14th inning. It was the champion's sixth victory in seven matches.

Wesker Cochran, San Francisco, forced to retire from a match Tuesday because of pneumonia pneumonia, returned to defeat Joe Chicago, Mexico City, 50-23 in 39 innings. The victory put Cochran in second place with five victories and one defeat to Cincinnati's five victories in seven matches.

John Fitzpatrick, Los Angeles, defeated Arthur Tuttle, Kenosha, Wis., 50-41 in 43 innings. Art Rubin, Brooklyn, finished his schedule with a victory over Otto Henschel, Philadelphia. Rubin won 50-38 in 52 innings.

Play to Open In Frisco's Open Tourney

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 22 (U.P.)—Byron Nelson, former PGA and open golf champion, was favored today to win his second California title in ten years of competition, the $5,000 San Francisco Open.

Nelson, who broke his link by winning the $5,000 Oakland open last Sunday after trying since 1933, was picked to repeat because he is a long driver. The California club at Olympia built for the boys who can knock them far, and the condition of the fairways and greens today was expected to penalize those who depend upon their hair-line approaches and putting.

Tradition shows that the golfer winning the Oakland and repeated the next week in San Francisco, although this is the first time in the competition the local tournament has been medal rather than match play. Dick Metz and Jimmy Demaret, both have turned the double-trick.

The California course has been lengthened to 6,700 yards, par 72. Although it earlier had been predicted a score of 281 would take the $1,000 first prize, conditions changed yesterday and it now appeared that those who cracked par for at least the first two rounds would be fortunate indeed.

Lawson, Little of San Francisco always does his best before home-town galleries, and bracketed with Benny Hogan and Sammy Snead, loomed as Nelson's most dangerous competitors. All four played sub-par golf in practice rounds.

The tournament ends Sunday after four 18-hole rounds.

Second game saw the Albion girls win by a 33-11 count over the visitors. Laura LaRue collected 16 points for the winners.

Preliminary score was 38-24 for Albion with Howard LaRue taking down high-score honors with eight points.

Robinson Will Meet Berger

NEW YORK, Jan. 22 (U.P.)—Ray Robinson, Harlem welterweight who knocked out Fritz Zivic Friday night, has been signed to meet Maxie Berger of Canada in a 12-round bout at Madison Square Garden on Feb. 20.

Promoter Mike Jacobs said Berger was selected as an opponent because world welterweight Champion Freddie Cochrane is in the navy and it is not known when he will be available to defend his title. Robinson is the No. 1 challenger.

Bruins Offer Special Card at Gym Tonight

There's an all-out special at Twin Falls high school tonight—and basketball fans from this city can turn out and see two good games, plus doing their bit toward helping the infantile paralysis campaign.

Feature of the program will be the Big Six conference clash between Caldwell Cougars and the Twin Falls Bruins. Then the No. 2 item is the fact that Twin Falls and Buhl high schools have resumed athletic relations—at least in a small way.

Buhl is sending down its freshman club to take on the Twin Falls Cubs in a preliminary contest starting at 7:30 p. m.

Principal Ed Rogel announced that 10 percent of the gross receipts will be turned over to the Fight Infantile Paralysis fund in the statewide drive now under way.

Gibb Returns Biggest news in the Bruin camp today was the announcement that Glenn Gibb had made up all scholastic deficiencies and will be eligible to perform tonight. The towering senior, who has been one of the leading conference scorers, has been doing "A" work since running into difficulties last week and returns to the team.

The Bruins will hold a wide edge in height when the two clubs line up on the floor. The Cougars, made up mostly of Juniors, haven't a letterman in their starting lineup and most of the boys are under the six-foot mark.

Bruins Won In their first meeting before Christmas the Twin Falls club won the decision. However, Caldwell has shown improvement since that time and is expected to make a fight tonight—the first game for the visitors who has been one of the leading conference scorers, has been doing "A" work since running into difficulties last week and returns to the team.

Probable starting lineups, with height of each player in parentheses:

CALDWELL P TWIN FALLS
E. Tanner (6.1) P Cartney (5.10); K. Dille (5.10) P Terry (5.10); R. Parrott (6) C Florence (6.4); C. Shafer (5.10) G Gibb (6.1); Hopkins (5.10) G Hulbert (6)

Lombardi Set To Sign His Red Contract

OAKLAND, Calif., Jan. 22 (U.P.)—Ernie Lombardi, catcher for the Cincinnati Reds, won't hesitate a second to sign his contract this year, even though he takes a cut in salary, he said today.

Lombardi was a lengthy holdout last season, and wound up in the fall with a miserly 263 hitting average, after clouting a 318 in 1940.

"I'm kinda expecting a cut," Ernie admitted, "but I'm going to be in great shape when spring training seasons."

He said he had been cutting wood to toughen his hands and walking around Lake Merritt every morning to strengthen his ankles.

And he's on a diet—hasn't touched spaghetti for more than three months.

"Hale America" Golf Tournament Slated

Nation's Great Players Will Get Invitations

NEW YORK, Jan. 22 (U.P.)—The big golf event of 1942 will be the "Hale America" open tournament at Chicago June 18-21 and the first two players invited to play in it are Bobby Jones, the "grand slam" champion, and Chick Evans, first player to win both the U. S. Open and Amateur.

The U. S. Golf association has designated the "Hale America" tournament to replace the U. S. Open and Amateur which were cancelled for the duration. It will be staged in cooperation with the Chicago District Golf association, which is combining its proposed Chicago Open with the new event. The tournament course will be named later.

Tourney Purpose The tournament's purpose is to raise funds for war relief and advance the physical fitness program sponsored by the office of civilian defense.

District qualifying rounds will be held May 25 in 50 to 70 cities. Professionals and amateurs with handicaps of perhaps five or six strokes may compete. Returns from a $5 entry fee will be converted into defense bonds, a large share of which will be distributed as prize money in the final phase of the tourney.

Then the district qualifiers will engage in sectional tests in 12 cities about June 6. Admission will be charged to raise more funds for war relief.

Limited Qualifiers A limited number of qualifiers will then move into the main event at Chicago over a 72-hole route. Prominent players who did not otherwise qualify will be invited to compete as have been Jones and Evans. The total field probably will number from 50 to 75 players, including a separate limited division for amateurs. In addition there will be a driving contest and other exhibitions.

The tournament will be similar to the patriotic tournament held in 1917 to replace cancelled tourneys. It was played at Chestnut Hill, Penn., and won by Jack Hutchinson with a score of 76-73-71-72-292.

Cokes Triumph Over Rupert In Outlaw Tilt

RUPERT, Jan. 22 (Special)—Invading Twin Falls Coca Colas edged the Rupert Boosters in a Southern Idaho Outlaw Cage league contest here last night by a score of 32-29.

The game was close and hard-fought all the way. With Twin Falls holding a narrow 13-12 edge at the half-time.

Scoring honors went to Johnny Wells of the invaders with 13 points. Ray Wells had 10. New led Rupert with 12.

Lineups: Twin Falls—Ray Wells, 10 points; J. Wells, 13; Hartruff, 1; Turner, 6; Tetz, 2; Substitute: Russ Wells.

Rupert—New, 12; Whitley, 3; Gibson, 2; Dellinger, 5; Judevine, 2. Substitutes: Cornelison, Williams, Croft, Freeman.

CAGE TOURNEY NEW YORK, Jan. 22 (U.P.)—The fifth annual national invitation college basketball tournament will be held at Madison Square Garden March 17 to 19, and 23 to 25, John Coffey, chairman of the Metropolitan intercollegiate basketball committee, announced today.

Babe Phelps Ready for Full Baseball Campaign

ODENTON, Md., Jan. 22 (U.P.)—With most of his troubles behind him, Catcher Babe (Blimp) Phelps, one of the few ball players who ever "luffed" himself right out of a four grand world series cut, today looked forward to happy and successful season in the uniform of the Pittsburgh Pirates.

The ex-Brooklyn catcher who is good-natured but noted for his "strange moods" and "stranger ailments" has forwarded his signed contract to the Pirates and plans to report on the dot at Pittsburgh's San Bernardino, Calif., spring training camp. Phelps weighs 215, only ten pounds over his playing weight.

Phelps quit the Dodgers last June 13 and hasn't been in a baseball uniform since. His troubles all started last February when he failed to report with the rest of the Dodgers at the club's Havana training camp and they continued apace until Larry MacPhail suspended Babe and slapped a $500 fine on him.

"I'm glad to go to the Pirates," Phelps said. "I don't want to play any place I'm not wanted." Since he left the Dodgers Phelps has painted almost everything in Odenton that he could slip up on with a bucket of paint and brush.

"The hunting's not so good around here," Phelps said. "So I've been painting to kill time. I painted my house, the garage and my other house next door. Then I painted my mother's house, the parsonage and part of the Methodist church. I got so tired of painting I thought I'd develop painter's colic."

During the world series last fall Phelps kept up his painting and "just heard an inning or so at a time."

"I was pulling for the Dodgers, of course," Phelps said, "on account of Dolph Camilli and the other boys that I like. And talking about Camilli, I think he's just about the best ball player in the business. I heard a false rumor during the winter from the pastor's daughter that Camilli has been traded to the Pirates, too. I was kind of sorry it wasn't true."

Cecil Isbell Wins Top Passing Honor

CHICAGO, Jan. 22 (U.P.)—Official statistics of the National Football league today gave Cecil Isbell of the Green Bay Packers the professional football forward-passing championship for 1941.

The former Purdue gridiron gambler led the league last year in passes attempted (266), passes completed (117), yards gained (1,479) and touchdown passes (15). The last two figures were also new league records.

Isbell's record of at least one touchdown pass in every regularly-scheduled game was unmatched in league annals. His total of 15 for the season bettered by three the mark set by Slingin' Sammy Baugh of the Washington Redskins in 1940.

His total yardage on passes surpassed Baugh's 1940 record by 112 yards and he had only 11 passes intercepted. Only in percentage of passes completed did Isbell yield first place. Sid Luckman of the Chicago Bears finished first, averaging 57.1 to Isbell's 56.8 and Baugh's 54.9.

Baugh finished second to Isbell in all-around passing performance in 1941 competition. He attempted 193 passes and completed 106 for 126 yards and 10 touchdowns.

Luckman finished third with 119 attempts for 68 completions that gained 1,181 yards and scored nine touchdowns.

Last season saw the aerial game reach a new high in professional football with 44.3 per cent completions for an even 100 touchdowns.

Sixty-five men, a record number, attempted passes, and 35 completed passes for touchdowns, for another record.

Dempsey Turns Down Offer To Join Navy

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 22 (UP)—Jack Dempsey, former heavyweight king, has rejected an offer to be sworn in to the navy by Lieut. Commander Gene Tunney because he "doesn't like water or boats," the navy announced here today.

Lieut. Commander George Howe, in charge of navy recruiting in southern California, said he had wired the former boxing champion an "invitation" to enlist in the navy and be sworn in by Tunney, the man who defeated Dempsey for the world's heavyweight crown.

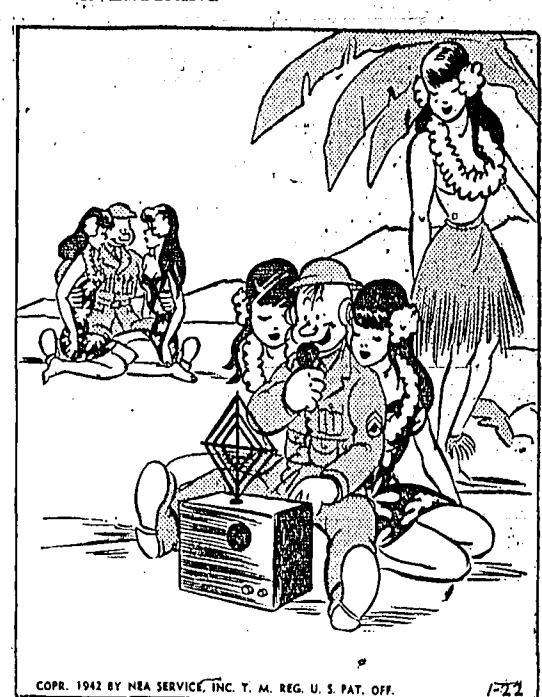

Dempsey replied that he was also passing up the opportunity to enter the navy because he has already been sworn in as a lieutenant in the New York state guard.

Semi-Pros to Let Big Loop Stars Perform

CHICAGO, Jan. 22 (UP)—Bob Feller, Hank Greenberg and other baseball stars now in the armed forces will be eligible for sand lot diamond play after June 1.

The national semi-pro baseball congress voted at its seventh annual conference yesterday to eliminate the ban that had kept professional players off the amateurs' and part-time pros' diamonds.

Action was taken to give Feller, Greenberg, Ted Williams, Johnny Sauer, Joe Grace, John Rigney, Freddie Hutchinson and other major leaguers now in the armed forces a place in the semi-pros' expanded organization.

The congress added an army division to its town and industry brackets. Officials anticipate 500,000 new participants in sand lot games this year.

George Sisler, St. Louis, Mo., high commissioner for five years, was re-elected by the congress board of directors today for a one-year term.

Fred Clarke, Winfield, Kan., former manager of the Pittsburgh Pirates, was appointed chairman of a committee to coordinate the congress facilities and the civilian defense health program.

Author Johnston never was anything but fair. He manages Pastor and Simon and, inasmuch as Monopolist Jacobs booted their Svengali out into Broadway, their current meal tickets are Franklin and Thompson.

Square Guy Johnston took his mimeograph machine along when he entered Mike Jacobs' dog house, and his literary efforts show a depth of feeling and perception. They are the great books of all time, hotter than a Russian commune.

Author Johnston never was anything but fair. He manages Pastor and Simon and, inasmuch as Monopolist Jacobs booted their Svengali out into Broadway, their current meal tickets are Franklin and Thompson.

That accounts for the first four. Johnston asserts Franklin, the Cleveland Negro, has chased the Con man, whom he takes the American Phil Scout, Lou (Muscles) Nova and Buddy and Max Baer back to where they belong, into the class of doing the least for the most money.

Johnston charges that Conn, Nova and the Baers refused to meet Thompson, the Los Angeles Negro, even socially, while crying: "Bring on Joe Louis. I'll flatten him next time."

Honest Jimmy Johnston stresses that Nova refused to box the Negroes, Franklin, Thompson and Booker Beckwith, and now wishes he had rejected the Louis invitation.

Highly debatable is Johnston's declaration that Conn is the only man Louis ever knocked down who didn't get up at least once. America's Phillip is no dope, he adds.

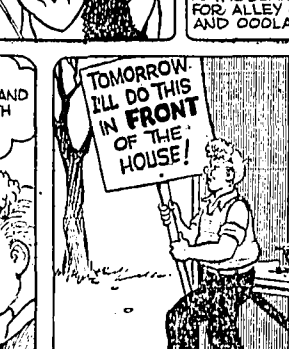

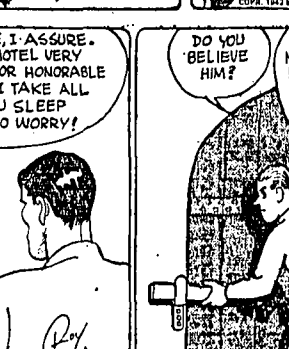

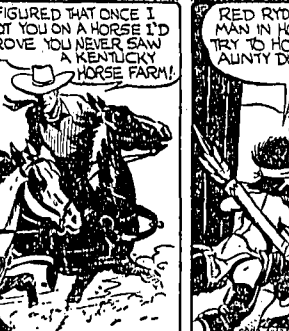

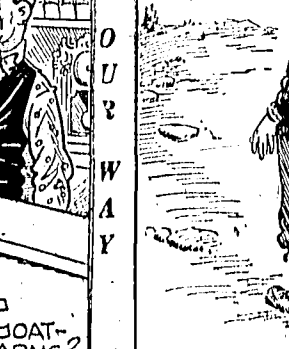

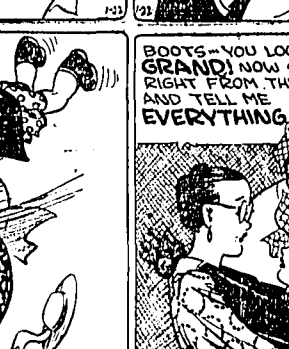

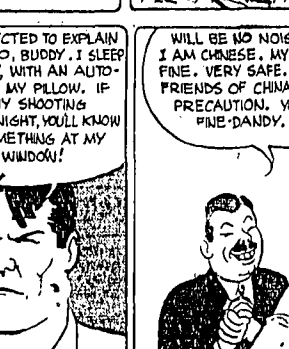

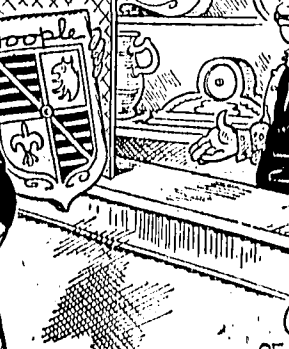

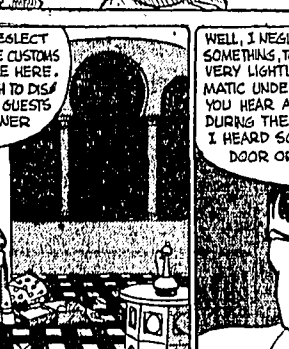

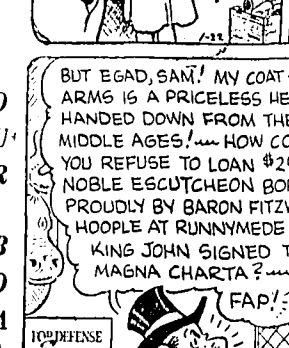

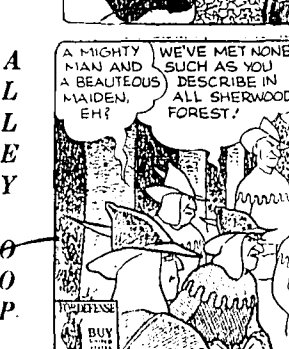

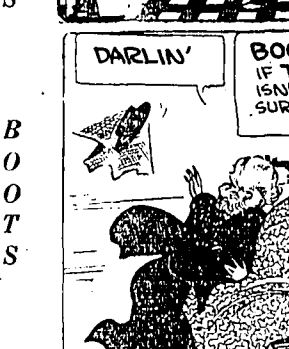

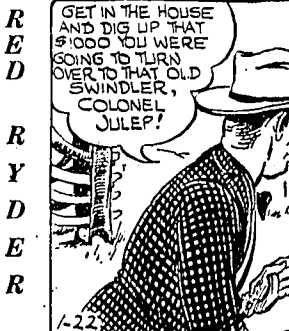

Johnston says the Baby Baer qualified for a second edition with Louis by pushing Joe out of the ring in Washington.

Johnston takes keen delight in shouting that his fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth choices, between them, have quit no fewer than seven times.

Lee Savoid, insists Johnston, has been flattened and beaten so often that he is best qualified to tackle Louis. Savoid strengthened his claim by winning Detroit's white hope tournament in which he knocked out or beat every bartender, longshoreman and roustabout entered. In the way of removing pugilistic rubbish, he did more than the Detroit sanitation department.

But Johnston advises all hands to keep an eye on Johnny Shkor, a Boston youngster.

You may rest assured that James J. Johnston has more than

Former Grid Star Honored for Bravery With MacArthur Army

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22 (UP)—Remember an all-American football player for Army back in 1926 by the name of Trap Trappnell? Well, he's still playing for the army, but today he's known as Maj. Thomas J. H. Trappnell.

He's one of those heroic Philippine defenders who have turned the Japanese attack into something more than a pushover.

Trappnell's latest feat has earned him the distinguished service cross. As his sister-in-law, Mrs. S. W. Trappnell, said at Baltimore when informed of his decoration: "I'm thrilled but I can't say I'm overly surprised." It sounds just like him.

The story, as relayed to the army from Gen. Douglas MacArthur's headquarters in the Philippines, was this:

Trappnell's cavalry unit was engaged in rear guard operations against the enemy at Rosario in La Union province on Dec. 22. The Japanese, hell-bent - for - leather, were racing after Trappnell's unit with tanks and infantry.

Calling upon that same quick faculty for grasping the situation that he once used on the football field, Trappnell waited on a bridge until his unit had crossed, then set fire to a truck. The Japanese did everything but throw their rifles at him, but Trappnell remained on the bridge until it was burning fiercely.

He then retired slowly with the rear elements of his unit, all the while picking up wounded soldiers and shouting encouragement to his men.

The army, in-one of those rare bursts of enthusiasm that seldom creep into tersely-worded communications, said: "With complete disregard for his personal safety, Maj. Trappnell delayed the hostile advance and set an inspiring example to his entire regiment."

The 30-year-old former football star was born in Yonkers, N. Y., and was graduated from the United States military academy in 1927. The army regards him as one of its best polo players.

Trappnell's wife was said to have returned from the Philippines recently. Their home is in San Francisco.

HOT LUNCH ROOM BENEFIT SLATED

EDEN, Jan. 22 (Special)—The regular meeting of Eden P. T. A. was held last week in the high school auditorium, with the president, Hagold Fisher, presiding at the business meeting.

Plans were made to hold a card party Feb. 3 to buy equipment for hot lunch room. Mrs. Willard Lattimer and Mrs. Harold Fisher were appointed a committee to attend to this.

A program of music was furnished by the teachers. Miss Baylor sang "Just A Waiting For You" and "Caroline," accompanied by Miss Margaret Harris. A trio, Miss Edythe Trunkley, Miss Marjory Mabbott and Miss Harris, sang "The White Cliffs of Dover" and "In the Evening by the Moonlight," with accompaniment by Miss Harris.

Lunch was served by the grade school teachers, with the table in the dining room decorated to represent a winter scene. Miss Trunkley and Miss Josephine Samuels poured, assisted by Miss Laurel True, Willard Lattimer and Carl Stephens.

FARM-TO-PLANT TIRE O. K. GIVEN

Farmers engaged in hauling essential agricultural products to factories may file applications to receive tire rationing certificates, according to word received at ration headquarters here today from J. T. McCorkle, secretary of the state board.

Farmers thus made eligible for tire permits include those who haul sugar beets to the processing factories at Twin Falls, Burley and Rupert. They also include those hauling stallions and bulls for breeding purposes.

McCorkle stressed, however, that farmers cannot secure new tires for use on trucks and trailers which will haul agricultural products directly to the consumer.

PAPER TELLS OF ALASKAN BLAZE

Telling the story of one of the largest fires in Alaska—a midnight blaze which in November completely destroyed the most important business section of Seward—is a small mimeographed newspaper, issued at Moose Pass, Alaska, recently received here.

Copy of the Moose Pass Miner, which graphically delineated the story of the blaze which destroyed restaurants, apartment houses, the newspaper plant, the drug store, the steamship office, the Alaska shop and the new bakery, making hundreds homeless, was received by Mrs. K. R. Allan, 227 Seventh avenue north.

Sent by Father
It was sent to her by her father, E. E. Carson, retired postmaster of Hope, Alaska.

Origin of the fire was not stated, and as the Miner comments, "Not very well acquainted with Seward, the Miner has probably made some grave mistakes in this account. Telephone efforts to obtain information were not rewarded. Lester Busey, editor of Seward's newspaper is preparing to issue a mimeographed paper."

Seward's newspaper plant was completely destroyed although it was located in a concrete basement of the Arcade which was built to be a fireproof building.

The beautiful Alaska shop, a store which would be a credit to Fifth avenue in New York City, was in the path of the fire and also burned were its several apartments. Mrs. Millie James, who owned the Alaska shop, saw her work of a lifetime endeavor reduced to ashes," the Miner relates.

25 Cents a Copy
Page two of the Moose Pass Miner, which sells for 25 cents a single copy and is edited by L. H. Allen, had an editorial on "Fire!" telling what the board of fire underwriters has to say about the origins of fires generally.

And on the back page, showing Mrs. James' spirit to "carry on," is an advertisement announcing that "The Alaska Shop is open for business in the former Kawabe Curio shop. Mrs. James has taken over the Kawabe stock and together with what stock she saved from the fire, the Alaska Shop can serve you."

Grange Celebrates 25th Anniversary

RUPERT, Jan. 22 (Special)—The 25th anniversary of the organization of the Rupert Grange was celebrated by local Grangers at the Christian church annex Friday evening. The master, Ernie Mariele, presided and named the following committees to serve during the year.

Home economics, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Maberly, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Culley, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hager; refreshments, Mrs. A. H. Culley, Mrs. Fred Schuepbach and Mrs. James Clark; flowers, Mrs. John Ellers and Mrs. Edna Whitnah; reporter, Mrs. William Douglas.

A big cake bearing 25 candles, occupied the place of honor during the evening and proclaimed the age of the Grange, which was organized Jan. 17, 1917, by C. E. Roberts, who now lives in Los Angeles.

The program, under the direction of Mrs. W. E. Jackson, Grange lecturer, opened with group singing of "Grange is Marching On," with Mrs. Fred Rucker at the piano. Other entertainment features were a history of the Rupert Grange by Mrs. C. E. Bouse; greetings from Mr. and Mrs. C. E. B. Roberts, Los Angeles, read by the secretary, Mrs. H. R. McMillan; a song, "The Sweetest Story Ever Told," Mrs. Fred Schuepbach; talk on Grange work, Luke Williams, former member of the local Grange, but now a resident of Boise; song, "Smile, Smile, Smile," by the entire group; a reading, "Thought for the Day," Mrs. W. E. Jackson.

Charter Members
Four charter members were present and were introduced. They were Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Jackson, Mrs. C. E. Bouse and Ed LaRue. The secretary was instructed to order 25 year emblems for the four charter members.

The evening concluded with a social hour after refreshments were served by Mr. and Mrs. George Donaldson, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mariele and Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Mariele.

STATE CHAMBER MEET REVIEWED

Jerome, Jan. 22 (Special)—R. E. Shepherd, Jerome, addressed members and guests of the Jerome Rotary club Tuesday giving a brief resume of the recent state Chamber of Commerce session held in Boise. Mr. Shepherd is a former state president of the organization.

Five members of the North Side Canal company board of directors, Ralph Shawyer, H. E. Harry, Harold Morris, Jerome; R. B. Fletcher, Bliss, and Charles F. Orth, Wendell, were guests of the meeting. Ralph Day, Gooding, was a visiting Rotarian.

Dr. Kenneth Walker, federal veterinarian, Jerome, was chairman of the program.

Famed Expedition Topic of Address

BUHL, Jan. 22 (Special)—Presentation of the Lewis and Clark expedition and the part played by Sacajawea, a squaw of the Shoshone tribe who rendered great service to the expedition across the continent, was the topic discussed by W. H. Eldridge for the Rotarians last week.

Mr. Eldridge presented to the Rotary club an enlarged picture taken 36 years ago of the people who had gathered at the opening of the Buhl townsite. He also gave the club four other pioneer pictures taken at that time showing the land on which he proved up and which is now the Ring ranch.
