Japanese Planes
Blast Center of Singapore Area

By HAROLD GUARD

SINGAPORE, Feb. 4 (U.P.)—Japanese bombers heavily attacked Singapore again today but British artillery pounded enemy forces across the Johore straits in a battle to hold out until reinforcements reach this besieged island.

Gen. Sir Archibald Wavell, in a radio broadcast, called for defense of Singapore island "without further thought of retreat" until "great reinforcements" en route from America and Britain arrive on the southwestern Pacific front to turn the tide against Japan.

Heavy explosions shook the residential area of Singapore when 18 Japanese bombers dumped high explosives and incendiary bombs on the city this afternoon.

Smoke and clouds of dust rose over the residential area and the blasts of bombs shook solid buildings in the business district.

Ambulances raced into the damaged area and fire fighting services went into action. Casualties were believed to be high.

British guns heavily shelled enemy units near Johore Bharu.

It was believed that the guns were blasting not only at Japanese troop truck columns, moving into the Johore Bharu area directly across the causeway but at invasion craft which the Japanese were reported assembling on the Johore shore.

No Change

A general headquarters communiqué said: "There is no change to report in the situation."

"Our artillery engaged enemy transport at Johore Bharu."

"Enemy aircraft made a number of raids on the island, causing some damage but few military casualties."

"Our anti-aircraft defenses in the period between Jan. 31 and Feb. 4 shot down two enemy aircraft for certain and three probably."

Japanese planes, flying in small formations, were usually the case, returned to the attack on Singapore this morning and bombed the city area.

Despite the dive bombers which had now joined the Japanese raiding fleet, it was said officially that casualties in yesterday's raids had totaled only 22 killed and 90 wounded.

Singapore city was now more active than the fighting front, where imperial forces and volunteers faced the Japanese across the narrow strait.

Three Fires

During my tours of the city late yesterday I visited firemen at three different places where fires were burning.

At one point volunteers were digging in ruins for bodies while ambulances took away the wounded.

Japanese troops were taking up position along a 30-mile stretch of the Johore sultanate shore line opposite Singapore in apparent preparation for attack.

Japanese engineers were reported working on a fleet of invasion barges and other craft but there was as yet no sign that a direct attack by ground troops was imminent.

EASTERN IDAHO
GETS BLACKOUT

POCATELLO, Ida., Feb. 4 (U.P.)—Southeastern Idaho will undergo a regional test blackout tonight, the third to be conducted in perfecting the state's air raid precautions facilities.

Homer Hudelson, state director of air raid precautions, said time for the blackout may not be announced in advance so as to provide a better test for alertness of air raid wardens and other civilian defense workers.

The blackout will cover a territory from American Falls east to the Wyoming line and from Bingham county to the Utah line. Plans were for both town and farm buildings to be blacked out.

Special Stamps Will Be Used
For U. S. Rationing of Sugar

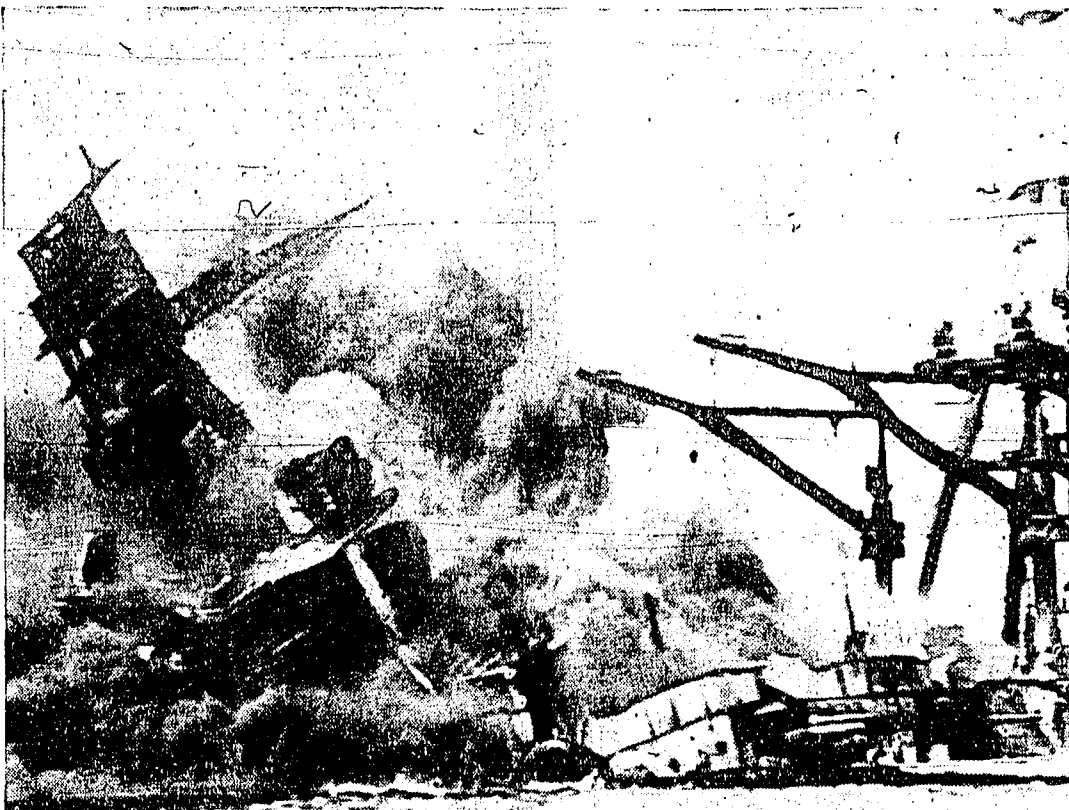

WASHINGTON, Feb. 4 (U.P.)—Special stamps, each good for one week's allotment, will be used in rationing sugar to consumers, the office of price administration said today.

The stamps will be issued by local rationing boards, probably in book form. A book of stamps will cover at least a three-month period. There will be a separate book for each individual user of sugar. Thus, a family of three would receive three books.

While the exact amount of sugar which will be allowed each individual has not been settled, OPA Administrator Leon Henderson said last month that it probably would be approximately 12 ounces weekly.

The sugar stamps would be issued when members of a family registered with local rationing boards, which already are allotting new tires to

CAR RELEASE IS SET FOR FEB. 12

An "undetermined" number of new motor cars purchased before Jan. 1—but not delivered prior to the "freezing" order of that date—will be released beginning Feb. 12, according to details of the new car program received today by the Chamber of Commerce from Ralph E. Bristol, Salt Lake City, district manager of the war production board field service.

The message charts the method of fixing new car prices and reveals a plan to compensate dealers for the expense of holding autos in their showrooms until sold under the forthcoming rationing program. Details of the rationing plan have not yet been announced.

Now in Effect

Price schedule for the new passenger cars became effective Monday, Mr. Bristol said.

Wholesale prices, according to the schedule, cannot exceed the highest prices that prevailed for the same make and model during the period Oct. 1 to Oct. 15 of last year. Retail price ceiling is fixed because dealers must take the wholesale base and add only the authorized charges.

Compensation for dealer holding of cars is achieved by allowing each month one per cent addition to the list price, or $15, whichever is the lower.

Dealers Do This

Magie Valley dealers, in order to determine the maximum retail price, are to do the following: Find the maker's list price for the same make and model and add (1) Federal excise tax (2) Allowance for transportation which cannot be more than the actual freight charge from factory at carload rate (3) Five per cent of the total of the list price and the transportation allowance.

Reds Displeased
With Allied War
Production Work

By NED RUSSELL

LONDON, Feb. 4 (U.P.)—Allied diplomatic informants said today that Russia was disappointed by the allied war effort, especially United States and British war production, and was increasingly anxious over continued allied setbacks in the Pacific.

They said Russians made no attempt to minimize the long-standing enmity between Russia and Japan and expressed belief that only war could result from it eventually.

Russia's position was, however, that Russia's industry was straining to the limit to supply the needs of the present Red army offensive and to build up reserves against the prospective German spring drive and that it could not now be expected to aid the allies by attacking Japan from Siberia and thus forming a new Pacific front.

Propose Second Front

There were indications, informants said, that if the Russians finally succeeded in driving back the Germans to their frontiers they might ask the allies to form a second front in Europe for the final knockout blow against Hitlerism.

Russians have begun to wonder, according to informants, how far the allies are prepared to retreat in the far Pacific before they make a counter-offensive against Japan, and it was added that there was growing bewilderment in Russia over the inadequacy of preparations to meet a Japanese attack which had been long foreseen.

It was said that the Russians apparently thought that United States war production was considerably further advanced than has proved to be the case, and that they were disappointed now also because of the emphasis the United States was reported to be putting on certain types of weapons.

Light Tanks Useless

Light tanks were mentioned in this connection. The Russians have found light tanks to be almost helpless against the heavy German tanks, informants said.

Russian disappointment with allied war production and war effort generally was said to be based on comparisons with their own gigantic war program, which enabled them to double their army to 8,000,000 men.

Philadelphia Test
Blackout Success

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 4 (U.P.)—The largest mass test blackout ever attempted in the nation—the darkening of Philadelphia and seven adjoining counties with an area of 3,500 square miles—was pronounced "99.9 per cent complete" by Mayor Bernard Samuel of Philadelphia today.

Samuel, coordinator for defense in the Philadelphia area, was highly pleased with "the excellent cooperation" of the public with the 60,000 air raid wardens, thousands of policemen and reserve police and others who aided in directing a 16-minute test last night.

FOUR BURNED IN COAST JAIL FIRE

SAN DIEGO, Calif., Feb. 4 (U.P.)—Fire swept through the drunk tank of the San Diego city jail today.

Four inmates were burned to death and 13 others were injured seriously.

Three of the men were cremated in their cells. The fourth died en route to a hospital.

Police were able to identify the dead only as men named Nester, Rimer, Porter and Martinez.

The blaze started shortly after 3 a. m. when an inmate in one of the cell block's two padded cells ignited the cork and tar paper lined interior either purposely or accidentally.

The flames shot up from the cell, enveloping the two-story block housing the 16 other prisoners and trapping them.

The 16 were in cells directly above the two padded cells and the men were seized by the extreme heat of the blaze.

Police and firemen fought their way into the block, unlocking cell doors and carrying out the occupants. Firemen said all the men rescued suffered severe burns and all had been overcome by smoke.

IDAHO'S RETAIL
SALES INCREASE

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 4 (U.P.)—Retail sales by independent stores in Utah increased 16 per cent in 1941 over 1940, and in Idaho and Montana advances of 9 and 7 per cent, respectively, were recorded, the bureau of the census reported today.

In Utah, December sales were 18 per cent over the previous year, with women's ready-to-wear making the greatest individual advance 32 per cent.

Idaho's record showed a 10 per cent improvement for December, 1941, over December, 1940, with lumber and building materials registering 24 per cent gain to lead the parade. Motor vehicles dropped 18 per cent to put the state's December figure at 10 per cent.

In Montana, December sales were five per cent ahead of the same month in the previous year, despite a 16 per cent motor vehicle decline. Filling stations had the most notable gain—14 per cent.

All cities in the intermountain west reported increases, both for the year and for December, ranging from 2 per cent to 28 per cent.

Japan Invaders
Held at Bay on
All BattlefieldsBy JOE ALEX MORRIS
United Press Foreign Editor

The united nations battled to hold their far eastern defense line today until "great reinforcements" from America can turn back Japan's offensive.

On the swirling Salween river in Burma, along the blazing Johore straits before Singapore, on the tropical Dutch islands of Borneo, Celebes and Amboina and along the sea lanes north of Australia the allied armed forces still were fighting stubbornly against big odds.

"Our part is to gain time for the great reinforcements which we and our American allies are sending," Gen. Sir Archibald Wavell told the defenders of Singapore in an order of the day that applied as well to Burma and the Bataan peninsula where American defense lines threw back another Japanese flanking attack.

Allied leaders emphasized that the fight to hold on would be grim and that reinforcements from America were increasing their gains along the Mediterranean coast, having driven back some 325 miles to force the British from Derna and threaten collapse of the entire British winter advance in north Africa.

Nazis Push Ahead

British tank units still were fighting in the Mus sector, 80 miles southeast of Benghazi, but the German column on the coast had pushed far to the east and a Berlin broadcast reported operations in the Bardia sector, implying that some enemy units had crossed the Egyptian border.

Only in Russia, where the Red army was reported driving the Germans from villages "in the Smolensk region," was there a definite trend against the axis air fighting zones, Moscow dispatches said—advances were continuing but did not give any definite positions in the "Smolensk region," which extends far to the east on the road from Moscow.

Allied reinforcements were believed to have arrived in the east but a large scale flow of men and materials is urgently needed to end Japanese bombing attacks on Singapore and break up enemy preparations for a direct assault on the island.

Sull Resist

The Dutch, however, said they still were resisting strongly around Balikpapan on Celebes and near the Amboina naval air base and that Netherlands guerrilla troops at secret jungle bases were poised to strike at the invaders.

American and Dutch airplanes were scouring the East Indies waters in search of new Japanese invasion fleets and aircraft carriers.

Dispatches from the fighting fronts showed: AMBOINA—British artillery shells Japanese troop concentrations and invasion barges on 30-mile front along strait of Johore guarding Singapore island; fires started by enemy bombs in Singapore city.

BURMA—RAF and American pilots blast Japanese troops seeking to cross Salween river northeast of Moulmein and small boats attempting to get a foothold on Martaban gulf. Heavy enemy casualties reported.

FARM LABOR IS READY TO HELP

In the nation-wide effort to meet increased farm labor needs arising out of the "food for victory" production program, Idaho is equipped to do its part. W. Clyde Williams, manager of the United States employment service office here said this afternoon.

Williams said he had been informed by A. J. Tillman, employment service state director, that "next season's crops are expected to be the largest in America's history, and it is estimated that 300,000 additional man-years in farm labor will be needed."

The local office manager said that with America at war, farm labor must be mobilized quickly and efficiently.

"Each of the 24 public employment offices in Idaho will have on its staff a qualified person responsible for farm labor placement," Williams said. "Farm placement work in Idaho will be coordinated with that of the other states in the Rocky mountain area by a federal farm placement representative at the regional offices of the social security board at Denver."

"What this means to the farmers and farm workers in this state is just this: If a farmer needs work, and if a worker needs work, we can get them together quickly if they are available from other localities or from other states. It means that if a worker cannot find a job locally we can help him find a job somewhere else. We will be able to eliminate much of the waste in time and energy caused by haphazard job-chasing and job-filling."

"In this time of national emergency, farm employers and workers alike should use the facilities of the public employment offices of the U. S. employment service, to make certain that America's production of food is not hampered by lack of farm workers at the time and place they are needed."

Scouts Collect 5 Tons of Paper

Boy Scout troop 67, sponsored by the Methodist church, has gathered and disposed of approximately five tons of waste paper, diverting it into defense channels. It was reported at a meeting of the troop Monday evening at the church. Saturday's collection totalled 1,840 pounds.

Gordon Day, Snake river area Scout executive announced at the meeting that Boy Scouts of all troops in the city will distribute air raid instructions to all residents.

Day praised the troop for its energy in salvaging waste paper. This troop has reported the highest amount collected and disposed of to date.

Troops 67 planned to participate in Boy Scout week Feb. 8 to 14, and will attend in a body services at the Methodist church next Sunday morning.

About 10 members of troop 67 are eligible to train for the emergency service corps work, under the direction of George R. Parks, it was announced today.

"Bundles for Solons" Plan Gains in West

SPOKANE, Wash., Feb. 4 (UP)—A "bundles for congress" to "keep 'em laughing" campaign swept merrily along the west coast today bringing forth contributions of rats nests, wooden legs, glass eyes, false teeth and moth balls.

Residents rummaged through attics and cellars for "presents" for their senators and representatives at Washington, D. C., and articles of every size, shape and description decried the official "bundle headquarters" at the Spokane Athletic Round Table office, where the stunt originated Friday to rib congressmen who voted pensions for themselves.

Workers Behind
A large corps of women workers were far behind in their wrapping and packaging chores, but said they hoped to catch up by Wednesday when a special truck leaves Spokane to carry the "bundles" to Washington. Round Table members, dumbfounded by the reception accorded their plan, said they were swamped with telephone calls from cities along the line of march. Many asked permission to add a truck to the caravan and other municipalities said they would have the mayor and town band escort the trucks through town.

Other Round Table "bundle headquarters" were set up in San Francisco, Los Angeles and other western cities and a coastwise campaign was opened in newspapers. One advertisement read:

Need Help
"They need help back in Washington. Forget Pearl harbor and the war. Mail a bundle to your senator or the other fellow's congressman. Athletic Round Table. 'Keep 'em laughing.'"

Round Table members ordered large quantities of stage money printed for use in the campaign. Each bill had a picture of Eisenhower, the Round Table's horse mascot, in the center.

WPA QUOTA FOR STATE BOOSTED

BOISE, Feb. 4 (UP)—Regional WPA authorities have boosted Idaho's February employment quota to 6,700 to enable employment of nearly all persons requesting aid. State WPA Administrator, Dean W. Miller announced today.

Originally the quota was set at 6,300 workers but because of an increase in unemployment due to termination of seasonal farm work, Miller asked for a 400 worker increase.

Miller predicted that March 1 to 15 will be the peak of unemployment in the state and said Idaho could "easily use a quota of 7,000 during the period."

Starting in April and continuing throughout the summer "nearly every man on WPA now will likely be given a chance at private jobs," Miller said.

Two Autos Crash When One Stops

Two cars crashed on Addison avenue east of Twin Falls yesterday afternoon because one of the machines stopped to pick up two boys walking along the road. Deputy Sheriff John Lester said today. The damaged cars were operated by Robert D. Thompson and Gerald W. Askew, both of Twin Falls. Askew stopped his 1935 sedan to pick up two boys hitchhikers, Lawrence and Marlon White, Thompson, approaching from the opposite direction, applied his brakes when he saw the boys crossing the road to reach Askew's machine.

The Thompson car skidded, turned sideways and smashed into the Askew auto.

Thompson's 1940 coupe suffered a caved-in side, a tire, front axle and fender on the Askew machine were damaged.

AUTOIST CLEARED BY TIRE INQUIRY

Four tire purchase authorizations were approved today by the Twin Falls county ration board; and investigation of one questionable case proved that the resident was justified in use of new tires. He had purchased before the January freezing order.

The latest permits went to a Kimberly fuel trucker, two tires and tubes; a Twin Falls salesman, three obsolete tires; a Hansen farmer, one tractor tire, and a Twin Falls farmer, one obsolete tube.

The case which had been probed by the board and referred to the state ration board concerned a service station operator noted with four new tires on his car in mid-January. Chairman Carl N. Anderson said investigation brought state approval because the man had bought the tires for his own use, was not a tire dealer and secured delivery prior to the freezing decree. He purchased the tires in October of last year but had not immediately placed them on his machine.

SURVIVOR TELLS OF SUB SINKING

HORTA, The Azores, Feb. 4 (UP)—The only known survivor of the German submarine destroyed by two destroyers off the Azores yesterday, told his story today.

A sub-lieutenant, he said the submarine was on the surface about four miles off Pico island when dawn broke. Two destroyers sighted it. As it dived one destroyer opened fire. Hit, the submarine had to return to the surface.

Approximately 15 men of the submarine's crew had climbed through the conning tower onto the deck when the destroyer scored a direct hit which practically cut the submarine in two, the sub-lieutenant said.

All of the Germans dived into the sea and the sub-lieutenant, a strong swimmer, struck out for shore where he was taken into custody for internment by Portuguese authorities. As he swam ashore, he heard explosions like those of depth charges. He assumed that some of his shipmates had been picked up by the destroyers.

(The Horta dispatch which passed through the Portuguese censorship, did not identify the nationality of the destroyers. They could have been British or American.)

Mrs. Victor Goertzen was distributing the pledge sheets. She will return all sheets, when signed, to the Chamber of Commerce office.

Persons indicated by each store are to shut off exterior signs and interior lights at the first blackout warning. They will turn on the lights at the all-clear signal.

1,292 MISSING IN PACIFIC FIGHTING

WASHINGTON, Feb. 4 (UP)—Navy spokesmen told the senate naval affairs committee today that 1,292 officers and men of the navy and marine corps are missing or prisoners of the enemy as a result of American war action in the Pacific.

This is the first official disclosure of casualties since Secretary of Navy Frank Knox announced after the attack on Pearl harbor that 2,729 enlisted men and officers had been killed and 656 wounded.

The new disclosure was made during open hearings on a house-approved bill to permit the continuance of allotments to dependents of Americans captured by the enemy. The spokesman, an officer of the bureau of navigation, gave the following figures on American losses:

58 naval officers "supposed to be prisoners of war."

5 officers missing and whose status is unknown.

30 enlisted men missing.

75 enlisted men probably prisoners.

300 enlisted men "suspected" to be prisoners.

A marine officer supplemented the statement with the following figures for the marine corps:

44 officers and 716 enlisted men "in the hands of the enemy."

One officer and 65 enlisted men missing.

TOWNSEND ORGANIZATION OPENS DRIVE FOR PENSIONS

RETIREMENT PAY BY CONGRESSMEN IS AMMUNITION

By JOHN R. BEAL
WASHINGTON, Feb. 4 (AP)—Dr. Francis E. Townsend's old age pension organization, using congressmen's retirement pay as ammunition, today began a drive for enactment of a national pension program for those "who are not able to make their own way."

The Townsend organization circulated a letter from Rep. James F. O'Connor, D. Mont., to President Roosevelt. Under the heading, "Congress passes pension law for all congressmen," the publication commented:

"The long awaited event has happened! And the President has signed the bill! So now it is a law. The congress has decided to include its own members in a generous pension program. There is nothing wrong in that itself. Dr. Townsend was one of the first to advocate it, but he wanted it only a part of a general, fair and honorable retirement program for all of our senior citizens."

Asserting that national defense had been advanced as a reason for delaying action on the Townsend pension bill pending in the house, the publication continued:

"Yes, but the congress found time just prior to consideration of a $17,000,000,000 (now increased to more than $26,000,000,000) naval expansion bill to take up—by unanimous consent, mind you—a retirement proposal that, if applied to some 27,000,000 citizens, they would be more than entitled to. There was no real opposition to the proposal of pensions for congressmen."

However, Sen. Harry F. Byrd, D. Va., introduced a bill yesterday to repeal that provision of the bill which permits congressmen to assume the benefits of the civil service retirement system by notifying the disbursing official and paying five per cent on their salaries into the fund until they are eligible to retire. In the case of those now eligible to retire, a pension could be obtained on the basis of a "token" payment.

Blood Donors To Get Cards

Under present plans, each person who registered as a blood donor during the recent Junior Chamber of Commerce drive will receive identification cards to carry on his person.

The cards will list the donor's type of blood and will also have space for the name, address and other related data. The cards will have space for the donor's thumbprint and police officials will be required to cooperate in taking such prints. Plans for distribution of the special cards were discussed yesterday at the Jaycee board of directors luncheon at Bigley's. Completion of the blood donor project, it was announced, will come when Kimberly volunteers have been tested.

Joe Covey was named to contact 19 chairmen of the Jaycee committees to secure volunteer registrars for the next draft sign-up Feb. 16.

CHILE SELECTS ALLIED BACKER

SANTIAGO, Chile, Feb. 4 (AP)—The election of Juan Antonio Rios, presidential candidate of the "anti-Fascist Democratic front," was regarded today as a triumph for Chile's pro-Democratic forces, and observers predicted one of the first acts of his regime would be to sever all relations with the axis powers.

Rios, a radical party member, defeated his rightist opponent, Gen. Carlos Ibanez del Campo, by 55,945 votes in yesterday's election—which was one of the quietest in many years. Within 60 days he will be inaugurated for a six-year term, succeeding Pedro Aguirre Cerdas, who died in November.

Rios campaigned mainly on an anti-Fascist platform and his vote of 257,980 against 202,035 for Ibanez was regarded as a mandate against Germany, Italy and Japan. In view of his sweeping triumph his pro-election support of the United States and his allies, many observers believed Chile soon would break with the axis in accordance with the resolution approved at the Rio de Janeiro conference of foreign ministers. Nineteen American nations already have severed relations with the axis, leaving Chile and Argentina the only hold-outs.

Here Is Typical Routine for 'Future Admiral' in Training

By FRANK ELLSWORTH
(Co. 42-12, U. S. N.)
NAVAL TRAINING STATION, San Diego, Calif.—After approximately two weeks of navy life, the men of our company are becoming somewhat accustomed to this new form of living. For most, it is an entirely different form of life and most seem to be enjoying the training period.

Some evidences of home-sickness are found, but they are few and far between. The business of the camp keeps the apprentice seamen from catching this strange malady.

Start at 2 Bells—The day begins at two bells, 5 a.m. to civilians and others outside the navy, when all the sailors must "hit the deck." At 5-15, all fall out for exercise before breakfast. The exercises vary from day to day, but a typical day would include a march around the drill field three times "on the double," or at a slow run. This distance would equal about a mile and a half.

After the half-hour exercise, all line up for the first meal of the day, and after a work-out such as the above most of the plates are empty when dish washing takes place.

Drills—Following the morning meal, the commanders take over their respective companies for marching, rifle drill, bayonet drill, exercises, knot tying or whatever is on the schedule. At eight bells (8 p.m.) the men return to their barracks and spend the rest of the day as they please, as long as they don't break any of the navy regulations. There are various "shop stores" located about the camp and the fellows may purchase their wants at these stores at cost. Candy, cigarettes, ice cream in different forms, "pop" and supplies which the men might need are among articles sold at these stores.

At times, some of the fellows decide that they won't do as they are told and the consequences of their acts change their minds. Sometimes a whole company will suffer because of one of its members' tricks. The company may be placed on a "work detail," working in the kitchen, cleaning up the grounds, or some such work that needs to be done. In the case where one gets the whole company in "Dutch," his punishment isn't the work he has to do but the "working over" he receives from the company.

USO Offers Movies—Evenings are spent in many ways. On most nights picture shows, through sponsorship of the USO, are given in the camp auditorium. Each Saturday evening a half-hour radio program is given from the auditorium, usually with a special guest artist. Last Saturday, for instance, George Burns and Gracie Allen appeared on the program.

Athletics also play a big part in the evening's entertainment and Sunday afternoon's diversions. Some of the "blue jackets" take workouts at the gymnasium. Boxing, wrestling, punching bags, skipping ropes and playing ping-pong are included in the gym activities.

For the first three weeks of training, the "future admirals" are placed in "quarantine" or "detention." During this period, except in cases of absolute necessity, the men are to stay in the camp at all times. This is done for the health of the fellows and helps to check any diseases that might become of epidemic proportions. "Shots" for diseases are given at intervals throughout this training period.

Three times a day, sick call is held, when any one who is feeling below par may report to the dispensary for examination.

Darn Own Socks—Washing of clothes and bedclothes, shaving, bath taking and the like are taken care of in the evening. It is not unusual to see a sailor sitting on his bunk darning a hole in a sock or sewing a button on his clothes. Every corner of each of the barracks must be spotlessly clean at all times and negligence of any company proves disastrous.

General classification tests are given during the training period to determine the status of each individual. Grades on these tests help in determining selections for trade schools. The tests include arithmetic, spelling, English, mechanics, a test on common sense and a test to determine the difference between dots and dashes as they are sent by radio. For some people it's impossible to distinguish the difference between the dots and the dashes and these tests show who can and who can't.

Air Raid Practice—Blackouts, air raid alarm practices, and fire drills have been included in the training thus far. Each man has a special duty to perform for each.

The next "big event" for the men of our company seems to be the graduation from the "quarantine period," when some liberties will be granted. Meanwhile all are working hard to learn the life of a seaman and get into the action to win the war for Uncle Sam.

Pupils Will Try Mystery Writing—Students of Miss Venna Anderson's English classes at Twin Falls high school have been making a complete study of contemporary American short story writers and poets, and they will soon begin protracted creative writing period. Especial interest has been shown by the students in mysteries, and they will soon attempt to write original mystery compositions. They will also continue their regular program of building better sentences through a thorough study and analysis of them, according to Miss Anderson.

Century Club Launches Sale of Tickets for Red Cross Benefit

Sale of tickets for the Twentieth Century club's Red Cross benefit dance Saturday night, Feb. 14, at Radio Rodeo, began yesterday afternoon under the chairmanship of Mrs. Howard Hall, Mrs. E. H. Gyer, general chairman of the dance, announced today.

The committee, under the direction of Mrs. Hall, will conduct an energetic ticket selling campaign, but tickets will also be sold at the door that night, and the club will receive the proceeds for the benefit fund.

Ticket Admits Couple

Tickets will be sold at 99 cents a couple, and each ticket will admit either a man and woman, two men or two women, Mrs. Hall explained today.

Other members of her committee are Mrs. C. E. Dean, Mrs. E. F. Ross, Mrs. Dean Millon, Mrs. Mel Cosgriff, Mrs. L. M. Hall, Mrs. K. Duane Hodge, Mrs. R. M. Palmer, Mrs. Dean H. Affleck, Mrs. A. A. Boston, Mrs. Allyn Dingle, Mrs. George Wilcox, Mrs. H. G. Hayes, Mrs. Leonard Avant, Mrs. W. A. Young, Mrs. Robert L. Bach and Mrs. L. E. Hinton.

Appropriate and effective decorations will be arranged for the dance by a committee headed by Mrs. L. A. Chaplin.

Her assistants will be Mrs. E. F. Ross, Mrs. Mel Cosgriff, Mrs. Claude Brown, Mrs. Stanley Phillips and Mrs. William Middleton.

Intermission Program

Mrs. Tom Alworth, in cooperation with Wayne and Roberta (Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Kenworthy) who are donating their services for the benefit of the American Red Cross, will arrange an intermission program. Mrs. Alworth is the wife of the chairman of Twin Falls chapter, American Red Cross.

Other committees assisting in arrangements for the benefit dance will be announced later, according to Mrs. W. W. Thomas, publicity chairman.

Abe "Linkern's" Early Life Told In Graphic Book

Mrs. Wallace Bond reviewed Lancaster's novel, "For Us the Living," at a meeting of the Alice M. Gibbs circle of the Baptist church yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Elwood Bobber.

Commenting on the book, Mrs. Bond said, "The Indiana Buckhorn valley and the Sangamon country of Illinois form the picturesque background for the development of 'Abraham Linkern' and of Hugh Brace, whose companionship and struggle is definitely a part of the rise of the 'Abraham Linkern' whose words we treasure today, and whose memory we have every reason to honor."

Mrs. Dale Wakem and Mrs. Jack Stevens, assistant hostesses, and Mrs. Bobber served a desert luncheon preceding the business session, presided over by Mrs. Verle Moser. Devotionals were led by Mrs. A. Wells.

Action-Ready for Blackouts

Typical of the action-ready items prominent in spring fashions is this two-in-one blackout bag designed by Frilo. It's slung over the shoulder in order to free both arms for action. Papers, and customary personal things go into one compartment which closes with a zipper. A fitted tray that slides out of a second compartment, with only a flap to lift in order to get at it, holds first aid bandage and antiseptic, identification card and flashlight. Carriquiry and felt make the pocketbook which comes in many colors.

Air Raid

What have you done with that air raid precaution sheet of instruction that the Boy Scouts, in uniform, have delivered to your door? It'll be handy for the "blackout" Sunday—and thereafter.

Best possible place for it is on the inside of your kitchen cabinet door.

All it takes is three snips of Scotch tape at top, bottom and in the middle of the left-hand side of the paper. The paper is of such "convenient texture" that it adheres to the door without falling limply forward.

That way, you can read both sides of the sheet. Might be a good idea to memorize the most important parts.

—Try it!

Jigsaw U. S. Map Puzzle Diverts Guests of Club

A clever jigsaw puzzle game highlighted the entertainment program when the Century Woman's club entertained at the annual party for husbands of members yesterday afternoon at the Idaho Power company auditorium.

A jigsaw puzzle of a map of the United States, provided by Mrs. Tom Timber, attracted the attention of the 60 guests. Members "put a state together" and then added it to the large map until all states were in place.

Mrs. Timber also conducted a guessing game, featuring the names of club members. A pot-luck dinner was served cafeteria style, and the quarter tables were decorated in the American flag motif.

Mrs. L. V. Nicholson, Mrs. Harrison Griffith, Mrs. E. A. Littler and Mrs. L. H. Miller, were the hostesses. Club guests were Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Houston, Jerome; Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Wilkinson, Hazelton; Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Wright, Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Rutherford and H. Sommer.

Mrs. Block Resigns As Rebekah Director

Primrose Rebekah lodge met for a business session and program last evening at the Odd Fellows hall. Mrs. Gladys Shaw, vice-noble grand, presided in the absence of Mrs. Edna Block.

Mrs. Block has resigned because of ill-health, and has gone to the home of her mother at Meridian.

Mrs. Myrtle Ballantyne, deputy president, made her official visit to the lodge last evening.

Mrs. Jennie Crowley was chairman of the program committee. Mrs. Esther Wise gave a reading, "The Joiners."

Mrs. Zara Tonks played two piano solos, "Liebestraum," Liszt, and "Impromptu," Rihnholt.

Herman Christensen sang "The Flag Without a Stain" and "Arms for the Love of America."

Members of the refreshment committee were Miss Myrtle Anderson, chairman; Mrs. Hattie Ellis, Mrs. Jane Jensen, Mrs. Ella Long and Mrs. Mabel Skinner.

PTA Council to Elect President

At a meeting of the Twin Falls Parent-Teacher association council Monday night at the Idaho Power company auditorium, Mrs. F. G. Kleffner, president, appointed the following committee to choose a president for the council:

Mrs. Roy J. Evans, Junior-Senior P. T. A. chairman; Mrs. Charles Young, Bickel school; Mrs. Grant Kunkle, Lincoln school, and Earl Walker, Washington school.

The committee will report at the March meeting, and the new president will take charge of the April meeting.

Disease Less

Mrs. Eltha B. Given, school nurse, announced a decrease in communicable diseases had been observed among school children since the first of the year, and that a home hygiene class had been organized at the high school by junior and senior girls, with classes held five times a week.

Mrs. George Erbland, nursery school chairman, reported that 25 children are attending daily, and that the family life classes have made tea towels for the Lincoln P. T. A. lunch program, and mittens for children.

Mrs. Scott Ellsworth, membership chairman, announced 22 new associations in the state, making a new total of 186 associations.

All P. T. A. groups in the city have started study groups, with an especially successful program at Bickel school, Mrs. Kunkle reported.

Food Demonstration

Preceding the meeting, Miss Lucille Johnston, home demonstrator for the Idaho Power company, prepared a menu containing all the nutrition "musts," and awarded the food as prizes later.

Refreshments, prepared by Miss Johnston, were served from a lace-covered table decorated in a Valentine motif. Mrs. Kleffner presiding. Mrs. J. R. Nielsen, 503 Sixth avenue north, will be hostess to the council March 2.

MISS VAN ENGELSEN'S SONG TO U. S. GIRLS INTRODUCED

Miss Dorothy Van Engelsen has written words and tune for a new song, "Girls of America," as a part of a contest being staged at Twin Falls high school as a Girls' league project.

The song is not a regular league or school tune, but has been composed to reflect the feelings of the American Girl during this present emergency, said Mrs. Rose M. North, dean of girls, when reporting on the regular executive council meeting held at her home this week.

Miss Van Engelsen's presentation of the effective martial air, which was favorably received by each of 53 girls in attendance, highlighted the meeting. She accompanied Miss Barbara Russell, who sang with meaning the words:

"Girls of America,"
Girls of America, join hands and sing,
Girls of America, our hearts we bring.

Loyal to our ideals; brave, true and strong,
Pride of America, marching along,
Girls of America, hearts and hands we bring.

To serve America, to thee we sing,
Miss Margaret Detweiler, president, presided over the meeting, during which Miss Gwen Helfrecht reported on her experience at the Twin Falls county general hospital. She has received practical experience during the past school semester as a part of the high school's vocational training program. Others who benefited from this training for nursing were Miss Deanne Crossley and Miss June McNeely.

Miss Vera Goodman, Miss Alta K. Frazier and Miss Virginia Knight are taking the training this semester; the program is a part of the school's efforts towards satisfying to its best ability the great shortage of practical nurses throughout the United States. Home nursing is also taught as a 30-day course at the school.

Miss Helen Miller, senior unit sponsor, brought up the topic of Dr. Joseph Marshall's series of talks at the senior unit meetings. He has already begun his program, with a discussion at the last unit meeting. This project with the senior girls is to replace the regular unrelated programs, and is to deal with topics relative to both personal and mental hygiene. Girls discussed problems and questions to be taken up at those meetings.

Standing chairman for last semester gave up their positions to this semester's new chairman, who will continue the work of the league for the remainder of the year, and the year's plans were discussed from an arranged calendar.

Norske Dansfest

The "Norske Dansfest," annual Girls' league dance, will be held Feb. 6 and is the first special event for this second semester. Others are the senior unit's tea for the faculty, Feb. 10; the Mother-Daughter banquet, sometime in March; a regular G. A. A. play day, during April; the junior unit's annual May breakfast for the senior girls, and the sophomore Vagabond day, also in May.

Uniting of Americas Topic of BPW Speech

Speaking on "Solidarity of the Americas," Mrs. Emma Clouche gave the historical background of the conquest and development of the Americas, and raised the question of the prevalent methods of trade, when she addressed B.P.W. club members at a dinner session this week at the Park hotel.

"The world is very narrow now, and our task, at the end of this war, will be to seek an understanding of the cultural differences of the Americas and help build a civilization that is common to all with a freedom of cultural development in each country," she observed.

She asked whether it was better to reach a mutual understanding through helping with production, rather than exploiting the natural resources of a country.

Mrs. Effie Rihert Hinton led the community singing, and Mrs. Catherine Potter sang "I Am an American."

Mrs. Frankie K. Alworth presided at the business session. The club voted to cooperate with the Twentieth Century club in staging the Red Cross benefit dance Saturday evening, Feb. 14, at Radio Rodeo.

Mrs. Marjorie Estling, a new member, was named on the publicity committee. Announcement was made that the Tawanna group of Camp Fire Girls, sponsored by the club, was collecting tin foil, cancelled stamps and empty shaving cream and tooth paste tubes for diversion into defense channels.

TIME TO REFURBISH

How is your supply of house dresses? If it's going down, and you're not able to replenish completely, now is the time to make the old ones over. Why not use some contrasting color for a set-in belt, new sleeves, a dashing pocket or two, or some tricky applique? It won't take a great deal of time and you'll be surprised at the refreshing effect a bit of doctoring up will do. Perhaps your scrap-bag will yield the desired contrast material.

BASEBALL CHIEFS PUT SHOULDER TO WHEEL

161 Night Games Slated to Help Recreation Effort

By OSCAR FRALEY

NEW YORK, Feb. 4 (U.P.)—Major league baseball put its shoulder to the wheel today in all-out support of the American war effort.

National and American league tycoons, meeting here yesterday with Baseball Commissioner Kenesaw M. Landis, voted:

1. Permission for 161 night games.
2. Removal of all restrictions on Sunday doubleheaders.
3. Cooperation with the morale divisions of the armed services.
4. Allotment of 10 per cent of all baseball salaries for defense bonds and stamps.
5. Approval of two all-star games for the ball and bat fund.

President Roosevelt's "play ball" letter inspired the increase in night games so that day defense workers will get their share of the national pastime. The magnates welcomed the suggestion, primarily because of a sincere desire to aid the war effort but also because of the financial aid in what had been expected to be a precarious season.

21 Games to Senators
So the National league will play 84 night games and the American league 77. Fourteen night games were allotted each club equipped to play nocturnal ball except Washington. The Senators persistently held out for 28 games and were granted 21 in a compromise.

Owner Clark Griffith complained that Washington had an extraordinary number of day-time workers unable to take time off for baseball. The American league was willing to grant his request but the National league argued that too many night games would be detrimental and Landis suggested the compromise. So that there will be no interference in the war effort, no inning of a night game may start after 12:50 a.m. war time. Nor can night games be played on Sunday.

There are five teams — Detroit, Boston and the Yanks of the American league and Boston and Chicago of the National—which do not have suitable lighting for night games. They will, however, play night ball on the road.

No Restrictions
Abolishing restrictions on Sunday doubleheaders ended another long standing rule. Previously, no Saturday twin bills could be scheduled until after a team's third Sunday at home.

The decision to cooperate with the military morale divisions left both leagues open for a large number of exhibition games with service teams. Nothing was decided definitely because the owners could not anticipate the demands which will be made upon them.

The 10 per cent salary deduction for defense bonds and stamps was made binding on the executives, the commissioner, league presidents and club officials. But such action in connection with other baseball salaries—players, clerks and park employees—will be voluntary.

But, it was said, an effort would be made to "persuade" reluctant subscribers to cooperate so baseball would be united in its war effort. The players will wear special emblems on the sleeves of their uniforms to show that they are "doing their bit."

Rally by OSC Beats Idaho Vandals Again

MOSCOW, Ida., Feb. 4 (U.P.)—Oregon State college came from behind in the last five minutes of play last night for its second successive triumph over University of Idaho's game basketball quintet, 34-29.

Their victory placed the Beavers in a tie with Washington State for second place in northern division standings.

Idaho established a first-half superiority after the first ten minutes, in which the score was knotted three times. Halftime score favored the Vandals 23-20. In the second half, Oregon State's tight defense held Idaho to six points.

Center John Mandic of O. S. C. was high scorer with nine points. Ted Thompson scored eight for Idaho.

By WILLIAM C. PAYETTE

PORTLAND, Ore., Feb. 4 (U.P.)—Portland tonight honors one of America's most amazing athletes 15-year-old Nancy Merkl, a hometown girl whose laurels—collected across the land—would fill a good-sized trunk.

For the first time since this youthful mermald started smashing swimming records with legs that once "would never walk," civic organizations have united in a banquet for Nancy, and reservations are stacked waist-high.

Miss Merkl, named the nation's No. 1 girl swimmer by the amateur athletic union, just has returned from a tour of the south and east. During the tour she added more laurels to the one world record, four American standards and a host of regional, state and city marks which she now holds.

Her aquatic triumphs on the tour were overshadowed by two greater thrills. She met handsome Johnny Weissmuller, the Tarsan swimmer of the movies, and she was all affluter. The Weissmuller perturbation lasted until she arrived in Washington, D. C., for the President's birthday ball and talked to Mr. Roosevelt "for seven whole minutes."

"He's the handsomest person I ever saw," she said.

Portlanders are turning out tonight not only because of Nancy's accomplishments, but also of the handicaps she overcame in her battle toward physical fitness. She started swimming to overcome infantile paralysis. At first, physicians feared she never would walk again, but, as a last resort, she was taken to the pools when nine years of age. Her recovery was remarkable.

Four years later she set a 200-meter free-style world record and became history's first 13-year-old high-point scorer in a national A. A. U. women's meet. At San Francisco she broke the 600-meter record.

Last year she set a 1,500-meter record at Ilk Point, N. C., and was the 1941 indoor 440-yard champion. In one race at Buffalo, N. Y., she crawled from the water two pool-lengths in front of her closest competitor.

Attesting her growing importance in the athletic world, she was sixth in the balloting for the James E. Sullivan award, presented annually to the nation's outstanding amateur athlete. Nancy was one of the youngest persons ever nominated.

That's a lot of dough—but still

Oakley Triumphs Over Twin Falls Bruins, 32 to 23

Twin Falls Bruins may be the "darlings" of the Big Six conference right now after knocking off the Pocatello Indians—but to the Oakley Hornets they were just another bunch of guys named Joe.

Continuing their customary sway they've held over the Twin Falls club in recent years, the boys from the small Cassia city gave the Bruins a lesson in the word "fight" here last night and easily walked off the floor with a 32-23 victory.

Finding Big Seven conference foes considerably tougher than the Big Six, the Bruins last night didn't have much to show Coach Dode Cranney's old home town. A ragged first half, which ended with the Twin Falls club in front 13-10, failed to display much in the way of basketball—and the fans were sitting mostly on their hands.

Hornets Start
But when the Hornets started to buzz in the third stanza they really set the crowd agog. They scored nine points to run the score to 18-13 before the Twin Falls boys wiped the grins off their faces and settled down to work. From there on it was a basketball game.

However, a substitute sophomore center by the name of Dallas Peterson, poured in five baskets for his club that finally told the margin of victory.

After the Oakleys had run the count to 22-15, Twin Falls spurred to 24-19 at the close of the third quarter. They added two more points and the count was 24-21 with four minutes to go.

But it was all Oakley from there on in and Coach J. S. Halliday's boys poured off the heat—scoring eight points in the remaining four minutes to make sure there would be no last-minute rallies by the Twin Falls boys.

Cubs Triumph
Peterson's 10 points, was top scoring man for the evening, while Olan Gibb topped the locals with eight.

Preliminary tilt saw Coach John Platt use 21 players in defeating the Oakley reserves by a score of 36-25. Oakley, playing part of the time against Twin Falls freshmen, held a 15-10 lead in the first half. However, the sophomores did a bang-up job in the third quarter to tack the game away. Scoring honors went to Russell with eight points, while McMurray topped the losers with the same number.

Next game on the local schedule brings the conference-leading Boise Braves here on Thursday evening.

Embarrassed Hans Lobart Hopes Phillies Will Win Half of Games

By JACK GUENTHER
NEW YORK, Feb. 4 (AP) — The new manager of the Philadelphia Phillies, who probably still is a bit embarrassed by it all, spent about as much time in public at the baseball convention as his team annually spends atop the National League. Hans Lobart appeared twice, but he bobbed in and out faster than Jim Farley strides through an election rally in Augusta, Maine.

The first time he breezed down the hall outside the council chambers he was quicker 'foot than Jesse Owen on roller skates. The next time he held an overcoat in front of his face as if he wished to obscure his identity. A pardonable gesture from a man recently appointed to pilot the unquestionably worst team in either major league.

On this second sweep through the corridor I attempted to intercept the ruddy faced veteran of hundreds of losing ball games and discover just how he felt when he was snatched from his relatively secure and thoroughly comfortable position as a Quaker coach and forced to assume the horrors of managership. I almost made it, but not quite.

"Expect win half games," manager Logert explained, as he increased his speed. "Plenty room for improvement. Must say, plenty room for improvement. Hushed end last season. Counting on escaping cellar. Might make trades soon but not miracle man. Got hurry keep date now. Plenty room improvement and try-hustle again."

The last sentence I couldn't catch because the elevator door slammed shut on my nose. But I was greatly impressed by Lobart's emphasis of improvement and hurriedly checked the record book to determine just how much improvement there really is room for. It was then I realized that the Lobart state was perhaps the most conservative in baseball history.

I found that if the new manager can improve the team 100 per cent the Phils would finish 28 and a half games out of first place, that if he wins half his games it will be only the second time this has happened since 1917.

"This can't very well qualify as news to Lobart, who came to Philadelphia under the reign of Jimmy Wilson, worked as coach under Doc Prothro for three years while the team finished last, and actually, if not officially, took command last September when Prothro suddenly and mysteriously disappeared from Shibe park. If Lobart isn't aware of what the future holds, he must have spent last year in blinkers. The Phils lost three of their first 13 games. From June 9 to July 24 they lost 35 of 40 games. They ended the season 37 games out of first place, 54 out of second place and 19 out of seventh place for an average of 37.8, one of the all time low tide marks.

The longest 1941 Philly winning streak was three games, which may be why Prothro decided to disappear. Lobart stepped in around Sept. 1 and put more zip into the team than an interne armed with a barrel of adrenalin and a gross of needles. He was mildly terrific, but the Phils couldn't stand up.

He has them stealing bases as recklessly as the James boys stole bank funds, he stretched his ersatz material to the breaking point, in short, he furnished just what the departed doctor must have forgotten to order. The team couldn't win any more regularly, but it could and did lose the hard way instead of just giving up.

I wish Lobart luck, but there isn't much point in that because he will need a lot more.

2 Pirate Players Sign Contracts

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 4 (AP)—Outfielder Bob Elliott and infielder Pete Coscarart have signed their 1942 contracts, the Pittsburgh Pirates management announced today.

Coscarart, obtained from Brooklyn in the trade which sent Arky Vaughan to the National League champions, is the sixth infielder to be signed by the Pirates for the coming season.

Elliott, who batted .273 last season, may be switched to left field this season in place of Maurice van Robays. Jimmy Wastell, also obtained in the Vaughan deal, is expected to take over the right field spot.

ROOSEVELT MAY ENTER INTO NEWEST POLITICAL SQUABBLE

FLYNN REMARKS STIR BATTLE IN DEMO-GOP RANKS

By LYLE C. WILSON
WASHINGTON, Feb. 4 (AP)—President Roosevelt was expected today to fight an early political battle that has been shaken by Flynn's remarks. The National Committee Chairman Edward J. Flynn's complaint about Republicans fouling and foot faulting the war time agreement. Congressional Republicans generally accepted Flynn's radio attack on Republican National Committee Chairman Joseph W. Martin, Jr., as offering them an opportunity to hit hard in the approaching campaign without exposing themselves to the charge of weakening the war effort.

Flynn charged Martin with partisan political maneuverings in violation of a war time agreement entered into Dec. 9, two days after Pearl harbor. He said the Republican party was more interested in winning control of the house in this year's elections than in winning the war.

Martin snapped back the G. O. P. would support the war all out but would not relinquish its right of suggestion and criticism.

"It is obvious from the address delivered by Chairman Flynn," said Martin, "that what he wants is to liquidate the Republican party and squelch all criticism."

Feb. 23 Good Date

If Mr. Roosevelt intervenes in the dispute he may select the occasion of his next Fireside chat, Feb. 23. Democratic fund raising dinners are planned for that date.

The President may use a strategy which was under discussion by responsible congressional Democrats long before the war began. The idea advanced then was that Mr. Roosevelt would find it necessary to make some general political statement fairly early this year and preferably prior to the spring primary season.

Party lines had been snarled by dispute over adding the democracies so that some Democrats were against and some Republicans were for Mr. Roosevelt's foreign policies. Under those pre-war circumstances, responsible party leaders suggested that he might make some such statement as this regarding congressional candidates:

Merit Support

"Those members or candidates for congress who, regardless of party, place their nation's interest and defense above petty considerations merit the support of the people."

Such a statement would tend to protect Mr. Roosevelt from charges of partisanship and enable him, if necessary, to show further favor to pre-war supporters of his foreign policies and to indicate further his distrust of some of those who opposed him, regardless of party.

There are 425 seats in the house and 24 in the senate at stake this year. All the notable senate isolationists are in office for two to four years more but in the house every member must run again this year if he desires to remain a representative.

BOY SCOUT WEEK
February 6-12

Here's the Boy Scout week poster being distributed throughout Magic Valley today and Thursday for the annual observance which centers this year on Scout Service in national defense.

STORES FEATURE BLACKOUT NEEDS

Blackout materials are now being featured in a number of Twin Falls stores, with others expecting early arrival of similar goods.

Unusual "blackout curtain" is on sale at one department store. The curtains, operating on a roller, can be clipped close to windows to prevent showing of light. Made of washable black cloth, the curtains are available in 36-inch, 42-inch and 48-inch sizes. Prices are about 50 cents to $1.

Another store reported it expects early shipment of "blackout cloth," thick and similar to chintz. Buyers of this material may make their own curtains to fit the windows.

Hardware stores are featuring flashlights, batteries, oil lanterns, camp stools, thermos jugs, lunch kits, camp stoves, pails, tubs, garden hose, friction tape and hand axes.

Sale of blackout items has been back since the first test is set for Feb. 8 in Magic Valley. Since the initial "practice" will probably be of very short duration, buying of blackout items is expected to soar to a peak between the first test and the still-unscheduled second one, which is destined to be of long duration.

Camp's Siren Successful in Air Raid Test

Roy C. Lane, manager of the farm labor camp south of the city, said today that the new air raid warning siren at that point "surpassed all expectations" when it was tested for the first time yesterday afternoon.

The tests for the new siren, mounted on top of the camp's administration building, were made between 3:30 and 3:40 p. m. yesterday. Although weather conditions were not of the best and a strong cross wind was blowing, tending to carry the sound away rather than to the city of Twin Falls, the new siren was clearly heard in many parts of the city.

Listeners Posted

Prior to the test, arrangements had been made for "listeners" at various distances from the camp. Maynard Craig, airport manager, said the siren could be heard at the airport, a distance of four and one-half miles away.

O. H. Coleman, city councilman and county fire warden, said that from the bridge over Rock creek near the old rock crusher the siren was "clearly heard" Carl Ritchey, city councilman residing near Harmon park, reported he heard the siren while inside his home. The residence is about two and one-half miles from the camp. Other residents in that vicinity also reported hearing the signal.

Municipal Judge J. O. Humphrey reported it was "easy to hear it" at the police station while John Piggerrin at the filtration plant said the signal could be easily heard there, even inside the brick building.

Termed Adequate

"The tests showed that the camp's new siren will be entirely adequate for serving a section stretching two to three miles any direction from the camp," Lane said today.

Under present plans the camp's signal will be used in conjunction with the city fire siren as warning for this section's first blackout Sunday night, Feb. 8.

Covers were laid for nineteen. Mrs. Maurice E. Willis, retiring worthy matron of the Rupert chapter, O. E. S., was initiated into membership in the club. The initiation staff was composed of Mrs. Ross Woolford, Miss Etta B. Clemens, Mrs. Charles H. Burgher and Mrs. H. E. McMillan.

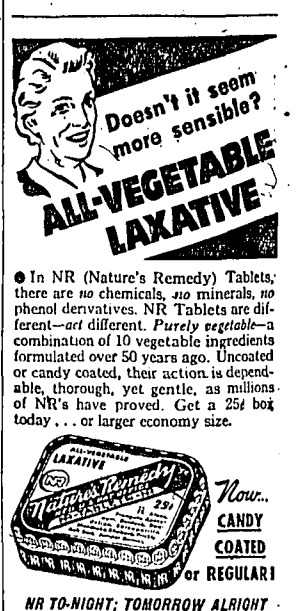

Plans for the district meeting to be held here in May were outlined. A special meeting will be held Monday, Feb. 23, at the home of Mrs. Frank Harris to complete these plans.

FEBRUARY QUOTA FOR WPA DROPS

BOISE, Feb. 4 (AP)—Dean W. Miller, state WPA administrator, said today Idaho's February work quota was 200 short of the number needed to employ all applicants for WPA jobs.

The quota for February was set at 6,300 workers but Miller said there were not enough projects to employ all persons who had applied for work. He said the winter unemployment problem was due to termination of seasonal employment for agricultural workers.

Doesn't it seem more sensible?

Ag Unit Will Hear Family Psychologist

Problems of family life in wartime will be discussed for the adult agricultural meeting at 7:30 p. m. Thursday by Mrs. Julia Harrison, psychologist and family life consultant for the state department of vocational education.

The public is invited to attend the session, one in a series of special agricultural meetings held at the Twin Falls high school "ag" rooms. Men were invited to bring their wives, since the talk by Mrs. Harrison will be of interest to women.

Yale B. Holland, Smith-Hughes agriculture teacher, is in charge of the series.

Mrs. Harrison, who has already addressed a number of high school classes and P-T-A. gatherings, is available for other appearances before clubs by contacting Supt. A. W. Morgan's office.

Student Classes Take Iowa Tests

Students of English classes at Twin Falls high school were given the Iowa State reading test during the latter part of the last semester, and results of the tests have been announced by Miss Dorothy Call, one of the English instructors at the school.

The median score, the score of the person in the middle and not necessarily the average, was 75 for the 276 sophomores, 81.5 for the 258 juniors, and 82.5 for the 176 seniors. The percentile rank was 44, 41 and 46 for the median scores of the sophomores, juniors and seniors, respectively.

The percentile rank indicates the standing. Forty-four indicates that 56 per cent of the median scores of the 10,000 students who took the test did better than the national average. The seniors' median was 54 per cent.

Although Norman Johnson, senior, had the highest number of correct answers of all the students who took the test, his percentile rating was but 95; Barbara Price had the top rate of 98 per cent. Her 108 correct answers netted her this higher percentage because of allowances for age and accepted knowledge for a sophomore student.

WARDENS

SAN DIEGO, Cal., Feb. 4 (AP)—The western defense command ordered an alert lasting from 8:44 to 10:24 p. m. at San Diego last night, indicating that unidentified planes or surface craft were nearby. There was no official explanation of the order.

UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO, Feb. 4 (Special)—Three Magic Valley students have been named air raid wardens in their campus residences to assist in blackouts. Named wardens were Marion Kilbourne, Gooding; Harold Condit, Hagerman; and Gerald Chapman, Twin Falls.
