U. S. Fighter Airplanes Score in Java

MacArthur Troops
Break Fury of Jap
Attacks in Bataan

By EVERETT R. HOLLES

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5 (U.P.)—American army fighter planes, going to the aid of bomb-wracked Java in the Dutch East Indies, have shot down two Japanese warplanes, one of them a bomber, in an air battle against heavy odds.

The war department said today one of the small formations of U. S. P-40 fighters was lost in the encounter over Java where the Japanese air force has been assaulting the united nations base—a Soerabaja, starting big fires.

Military experts attached importance to the disclosure that American army fighter planes are in action over the Dutch East Indies. This followed yesterday's declaration of Gen. Sir Archibald Wavell, supreme commander of the united forces in the southwest Pacific, that U. S. and British reinforcements were enroute to the far-away battle-zone.

Reinforcements Arrive

Today's war department communique—which also reported that Gen. Douglas MacArthur's Philippine forces have broken at least temporarily the fury of the Japanese offensive on Bataan peninsula—showed that the vanguard of fighter plane reinforcements had reached the southwest Pacific at last.

Details as to the extent of this force were lacking and the communique spoke only of a "small formation" in action over Java. The P-40 fighters, the same type which has achieved thrilling victories in support of MacArthur's troops in the Philippines, were said to have "encountered a greatly superior force of Japanese bombers escorted by pursuit craft" over Java. "In the ensuing combat one enemy bomber and one enemy pursuit plane were shot down. One of our planes is missing," the communique said.

Break Jap Attack
Today's communique said that MacArthur's fighters were in action over Bataan peninsula, about 17 miles above Corregidor fortress, had broken the "savage character" of the Japanese drive which has been almost continuous for the past two weeks.

During the past 24 hours, it was stated, fighting was limited to "relative minor patrol actions."

The Japanese forces facing MacArthur's right sector near the Bataan east coast are under command of Lieut. Gen. Akira Nara and those on the left near the China sea are commanded by Lieut. Gen. Naoki Kimura, it was stated.

Battling night and day against Japanese shock troops landed from naval craft and fleets of invasion barges, MacArthur's forces were said to be holding the enemy at a standstill almost everywhere along a weavering line bisecting the thumb-like peninsula on the island of Luzon.

Although striving urgently for a knockout blow to drive the Americans and Filipinos from Luzon and back upon Corregidor fortress, the Japanese appeared on the basis of official war department communique to have made no real progress for three days.

Final Rites
Are Held for
Pawnee Bill

PAWNEE, Okla., Feb. 5 (U.P.)—Major Gordon Little, who as Pawnee Bill, represented the last of the roistering element which fought Indians, famed buffalo herds and settled the great southwest, was buried today in the family mausoleum atop Blue Hawk peak.

Services for the 82-year old pioneer, who died Tuesday, were conducted at the Methodist church by his old friend, the Rev. J. B. Cooper.

Little, who hated to see the traditions of the old west die, tried to bridge the gap between the pioneer days and modern times. He operated what he called "old town" near here where he ran an Indian store, a trading center and a hitching post. He catered to cowboys and stockmen and sold buckskin suits, silken shirts, western boots, cowboy hats, saddles, jodhpurs and the like. He dressed in similar regalia and wore his hair flowing to his shoulders.

A friend of Buffalo Bill Cody, Little himself had one of the largest buffalo herds in the nation.

He will be buried beside his wife who was killed in an accident in 1930.

WISDOM

RALEIGH, N. C., Feb. 5 (U.P.)—Oscar Pilts, director of North Carolina penal system, wondered what would be the best way to black out Central prison here in event of an air raid.

He wrote Atlanta prison officials for advice.

"Turn out the lights," they replied.

INVADERS RENEW
HEAVY BOMBINGS
OF DUTCH PORTS

By JOHN H. MORRIS

BATAVIA, Feb. 5 (U.P.)—Japanese bombing and fighter planes raided Soerabaja, the great Netherlands Indies naval and air force base at the eastern end of Java for the second time today and it was admitted that they had started fires and caused material damage.

It was admitted fires had been started at the naval base. The Netherlands Indies command said the raid was less severe than the one Tuesday, in which between 70 and 80 bombing planes, escorted by fighters, attacked Soerabaja and other towns in the area.

The communique, released through the Netherlands Indies news agency, said the Dutch garrison at Balikpapan on the east side of Borneo had fought its way successfully through the Japanese lines to safe positions where they continued resistance.

Oil Installation Destroyed

All oil installations at Balikpapan had been destroyed.

It was feared that some missing men might be trapped, the communique indicated.

There was no detailed word, the high command said, from Ambon island, naval and air base east of Celebes, but it was known that Netherlands troops continued fighting stoutly.

Objective Fails

Authoritative sources said that Japan had failed in its immediate objective in bombing Soerabaja and other towns.

This objective was to terrify the native population and disorganize island life by causing panic, it was said.

Both the Soerabaja and at other places, including tiny native villages whose people were machine gunned as they returned to the ruins of their bombed homes, civilian morale has remained high, dispatches said.

DOCTORS SELECT
'CLEARING HOUSE'

Offices of the sheriff were designated today as the telephone clearing house for all medical and ambulance calls during blackouts and actual air raid emergencies in Twin Falls county.

Dr. A. A. Boston, president of the hospital medical staff and county chairman of the medical defense program, said all calls for doctor assistance and for ambulances will be taken at phones 132 and 62.

The medical chairman will be stationed at the sheriff's offices in the blackout. He will coordinate the emergency work of the doctors, distribution of supplies and routing of ambulance aid.

Shifted From Hospital

Originally the telephone "nervous center" for the medical setup was to have been the hospital.

Dr. Boston announced today that the courthouse has been designated as temporary headquarters for the air raid casualty station. It will be used as such Sunday night.

Eventually, however, the permanent air raid casualty station will be at Legion hall. Dr. M. J. Puendeling, who will be in charge of emergency stations, is now drawing tentative plans for two mobile units which will be able to rush to any bombed part of the county.

Mobile Units Later

Arrangements for the mobile units will not be made until after the first test blackout.

Present plans now call for stationing of six doctors at the county hospital in time of emergency. There will also be X-ray technicians and extra nurses to handle any casualties resulting from air raids.

Blackout Plans
To Be Explained
At Meet Tonight

The decks will be cleared tonight for what couldn't happen here—a blackout to frustrate possible Japanese aerial attacks in Magic Valley.

After directing a successful blackout in the Pocatello section last night, Homer Hudelson, superintendent of air raid precautions for the state of Idaho, arrived in Twin Falls this afternoon. He outlines final plans this evening at a session which will perfect details of the blackout of south central Idaho next Sunday, Feb. 8.

The meeting here will attract recently appointed air raid wardens and fire wardens as well as police officials, members of the Idaho home guard and others from Twin Falls and all surrounding counties. It will be held at the American Legion hall starting at 8 p. m. and Hudelson will be principal speaker.

New Appointments
Leonard F. Avant, Twin Falls, county air raid warden, today announced more appointments of assistant wardens who will serve in the various school districts. They included John Higby, Superior district; Tim J. Brown, Park Lane district; Barney Glavin, Berger district; and Curtis Bower, Pleasant Valley district.

Principal items to be decided at tonight's session, officials said today, will include designation of air raid signals and also exact time and length of the first test blackout.

Hudelson was named state superintendent of air raid precautions by Gov. Chase A. Clark after he successfully carried out arrangements for Idaho's initial blackout in the Boise sector on Sunday night, Dec. 21. First blackout lasted 15 minutes and the second, on Jan. 18, covered a 30-minute period.

During these blackouts in the Boise sector we actually had approximately 2,700 people on the job," Hudelson said. "These included 300 Legionnaires, 300 R.O.T.C. members, air raid alarm wardens, city and state police, doctors, nurses and also soldiers from Gowen field, Boise's air base."

The 300 Legionnaires who were appointed and assigned to their jobs, took over the task of guarding utility and strategic points throughout the city which included all public utilities, water reservoirs, the gas plant, Idaho power sub-stations, telephone facilities, all gasoline and storage plants in Boise and adjoining area, all lumber yards, all banks and financial institutions, all theaters (in order to prevent hysteria), all bridges (both highway and railroad) and all railroad shops.

R.O.T.C. boys, divided into small squads, manned every fire alarm box or station throughout the city for the purpose of prohibiting false alarms and signals and also to insure that legitimate fire alarm signals would be transmitted. Observation points in the state capitol dome, Hotel Boise, Hotel Owyhee and the railroad depot tower, were also manned by guards.

Lucy Boehm, 18, who has testified that she was secretary to the ring's alleged leader, Curt Frederick Ludwig, said Ludwig turned information about the big United States army bomber over to Mrs. Helen Pauline Meyer, woman defendant, at a conference in the Pocatello mountains of Pennsylvania.

Mrs. Meyer told Ludwig, the witness said, that she considered New York "too hot" for her and also wanted to go to Japan to join her husband, Walter, who had left the United States in April, 1941, to return to Germany.

Ludwig, agreeing that Mrs. Meyer had better leave the country, gave her information to be memorized about army camps and defense factories and technical details of the B-10, the witness said. He cautioned Mrs. Meyer not to write down any of the information but to memorize as much as possible and turn it over to the "proper persons," Miss Boehm said.

BERLIN, Feb. 5 (Official broadcast recorded by the United Press in New York and London)—German forces in Libya are smashing the British beyond Derna while U-boats in swift forays have sunk six more ships off the American coast and attacked a British convoy in the Mediterranean, the high command said today.

Its communique said Gen. Erwin Rommel's forces in Africa are pursuing the British east of Derna, the seacoast town only 160 miles west of the Egyptian border.

It said the six ships off the United States eastern seaboard totaled 47,000 tons and included one 15,000-ton steamer loaded with minerals.

Other submarines, off Sollum, Egypt, attacked a British convoy escorted by destroyers, scored several hits on "various" units and "sinking of one British destroyer is probable."

NEW YORK, Feb. 5 (U.P.)—A woman member of a German spy ring was arrested as she was preparing to flee to Japan with information about the Douglas B-19, world's last legitimate fire alarm signal, was testified today at the trial of seven persons charged with espionage for Germany.

ALLIED BOMBERS
BLAST JAPANESE
IN BURMA AREAS

By DARRELL BERRIGAN
RANGOON, Feb. 5 (U.P.)—Blenheim bombers roared along the turbulent Salween river today in a new series of attacks on Japanese troops concentrating at Paan, 30 miles north of Moulmein, for what may be their attempt to cross the stream and launch a drive on the Burma road.

The bombers attacked twice during the morning, following up a heavy aerial assault on the concentrations last night. They were protected by fighter planes manned by American volunteer and British pilots.

Unofficial reports said the enemy was being "heavily bombed."

Japanese bombers again appeared over Rangoon and dropped bombs in the Burmese market area. An estimated 10 persons were killed and 20 were wounded. The market building was fired.

The raid lasted five minutes, during which the anti-aircraft batteries went into action. An hour later the alarm sounded again and explosions were heard north of Rangoon, but no planes appeared near the city.

Heavy Skirmish
An official communique had said earlier that there was "unceasing" skirmishing in the Paan area.

Any Japanese thrust from the river town, situated between two ferry lines, probably would be aimed directly west at Thuton on the Martaban-Rangoon railroad and would have but 25 miles to go to reach that objective.

A successful drive might trap British troops in a pocket on the west side of the river as well as endanger the Rangoon-Mandalay railroad, 35 miles away—the first link in the Burma road to China.

Up and down the river, the Japanese, still stalled after five days, were attempting with artillery fire to soften the British defense lines and were probing with barge-borne forays for weak spots.

A civil defense communique reported minor civilian damages and no known dead from Japanese air raids on the east suburbs of the capital and a village across the Rangoon river.

Minor Damage
An RAF communique reported minor civilian damages and no known dead from Japanese air raids on the east suburbs of the capital and a village across the Rangoon river.

Japanese cannon and planes pounded at Martaban, northwest of the Salween estuary from captured Moulmein, either in prelude to an attempted crossing in force or as a blind to a major thrust farther up the river.

Hint Points to
Arrival of New Reinforcements

By HAROLD GUARD

SINGAPORE, Feb. 5 (U.P.)—The big guns of Singapore silenced Japanese artillery units with a heavy bombardment across the Johore straits today and the biggest armed force in this island's history stood ready for a finish fight against a direct enemy assault.

It is possible for me to say now that Singapore is prepared. (This indicated that reinforcements had begun arriving in some force in Singapore, possibly including American aid.)

That has been en route to the far east since the outbreak of hostilities and may have been diverted to Singapore.)

What a story I could write today if it were permitted by military precautions! But I am permitted to say that Singapore has its biggest garrison in its history, and possibly more men than the empire had in the entire Malay peninsula a few months ago. (British forces at their peak in Malay were estimated unofficially at around 50,000 men.)

Prepare for Battle
These forces are using every minute, day and night, to prepare for a fight to the finish.

The heavy guns on this besieged island rained shells of all caliber on the enemy troops and truck columns and observation posts after the Japanese had succeeded in moving up field artillery and started peppering the north shore.

The British bombardment silenced Japanese guns in their new emplacements. (Dispatches have indicated that the British had succeeded in turning fixed guns protecting the Singapore naval base so that they could be fired against the mainland.)

These guns are up to 18 inches—probably the biggest in the world—and could easily smash any artillery that the Japanese might move down the Malay peninsula if they could be used effectively.)

Shell Positions
The guns shelled positions all over the Johore coast and British reconnaissance planes reported the enemy was moving heavy tanks down the peninsula for an expected assault across the straits.

The thick black smoke of a naval oil tanker set after 48 hours ago by Japanese air attack still was hanging over the island coast.

As the Singapore guns opened up, and the small Japanese field pieces made their ineffectual retreat on the defense lines in the strait side of the island opposite Johore, Japanese plane fleets, increasingly larger, darted over to intensify their attacks on all areas.

The planes bombed and machine gunned civilian and military targets and started an attack on shipping in the harbor.

Intercept Jap Planes
British hurricane fighters, hurrying aloft to intercept them, shot down one and probably two planes of one big Japanese formation and damaged a third.

Aside from the intensifying artillery action, the air raids continued to be the main feature of this opening phase of the siege, but the enemy planes, respecting the anti-aircraft guns and the British fighters, usually flew high and bombed indiscriminately.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5 (U.P.)—A famine of appalling proportions has been caused in Greece by Germans who have stripped the country of food. Undersecretary of State Sumner Wells said at a press conference today.

In response to questions, Wells said that reports of the Greek famine had been reaching the government for a long time from Americans who had seen conditions at first-hand from neighboring countries and from the Greek legation here.

He said the Germans had taken every bit of food and left the Greeks to starve. Infant mortality was a shocking commentary on the Nazi treatment of the Greeks, he said.

Wells received the press because Secretary of State Cordell Hull had remained at home in an attempt to ward off a cold.

DEMURRER HITS AT COUNTY SUI

Brief demurrer denying sufficiency of Twin Falls county's claim against her had been filed in district court today by Mrs. Cora E. Stevens, county treasurer.

The demurrer, replying to the suit filed in mid-January on order of the commissioners, asking judgment for $300 because Mrs. Stevens assertedly did not turn in her settlement of 1941 accounts by the deadline set in Idaho law.

The treasurer's reply states simply that the complaint filed for the county by Prosecutor Everett M. Sweezy "falls to state facts sufficient to constitute a cause of action" against Mrs. Stevens.

The $300 penalty is asked by the county under a forfeiture provision in Idaho statutes, calling for that amount for each neglect of settlement within the time prescribed. According to the commissioners' resolution authorizing the suit, the treasurer did not settle accounts by the first Tuesday after the first Monday in January.

Counsel for Mrs. Stevens are Chapman and Chapman, James T. Murphy and Frank L. Stephan.

The session will be held at 7:30 p. m. in the new banquet room of Bigley's cafe in downtown Twin Falls, Vogel said.

All independent grocers in the counties of Twin Falls, Blaine, Lincoln, Gooding, Minidoka, Cassia, Camas and Jerome are invited to attend the session "whether they do a business of $50 a month or one of $5,000 a month," the district leader said.

Concerning importance of the session to the independent grocers, Vogel said "this definitely affects the business that you are attempting to make a living from and if you are interested in that business and its future existence you will make every effort to be present at the meeting on Feb. 11."

It was pointed out that if Mr. Kopke, for any reason, is unable to attend the session another speaker familiar with the OPM discussions concerning the industry will attend.

BURLEY, Feb. 5 (Special)—Funeral services were held Thursday for Lynn Albert Simons, with Bishop Earl Olverson officiating at the Burley first ward L.D.S. church.

A quartet sang "Sometime We'll Understand," and W. O. Lyons gave the opening prayer. Speakers were Leonard Jenkins, George Ferrin, and Bishop Olverson. The quartet sang "Jesus, Lover of My Soul," and Bishop A. L. Hanks sang "Goin' Home." E. Winward gave the benediction, and burial was made in the Burley cemetery under direction of the Payne mortuary.

SANITARIAN RAPS "OPEN" DISPLAYS

Practice of displaying articles of food such as cheese, smoked or cured hams, fish, bacon and confections without a covering of some kind today was rapped by H. B. Post, state sanitarian with the district health unit, as an "insanitary practice."

Post said that this method of displaying such food "constitutes a potential hazard to the public health because it encourages handling by prospective buyers and exposes the food products to coughing and sneezing which may occur in that vicinity."

"Along this line, one should not discount the amount of dust that settles on such food during the day in a busy store," Post said. "Sometimes displays are placed within reach of children, or even dogs."

"If the housewife would only stop to think that possibly from one to 50 other shoppers or passersby had preceded her, she probably would not buy such exposed articles."

"The employees of stores are required to wear health cards solely for the protection of their customers. The effects of this measure are practically nullified if products are exposed to pollution in general—air or soil and in all stages of cleanliness or uncleanness."

Cooperation Talk Given to Grange

The next meeting will begin with an oyster supper, planned and served by the men of the Grange.

Police Car in Crash; Charge Hits Truck

Charges of reckless driving were filed here this morning against operator of a one and one-half ton truck after it was involved in a crash with a Twin Falls police squad car.

Charged with "reckless driving" is Alvin Vernon Hower, Twin Falls, a part time driver for I. G. Prescott, who holds the city garbage disposal contract.

Police records show that the mishap occurred about 7:15 a. m. at the intersection of Second street and Fourth avenue north. Hower was traveling east on the avenue and the police patrol car, with Patrolman A. E. Perkins as driver, north on the street.

Police allege that Hower ran the stop sign at that point and traveled directly in front of the police squad car. The truck was not damaged but the front end of the police car was caved in, both fenders were damaged and the frame was sprung. Perkins and Charles O. Slack, night desk man at the police station, were "shaken up" and slightly bruised. Damages to the machine were estimated at $200.

TICKLISH

Removing five-year-old dynamite from a house basement is apt to be ticklish work. But sheriff's deputies planned today to get a dynamite expert and perform that chore at the C. E. Hudelson home, Filer.

Report submitted to the sheriff said the dynamite, bought for well-digging five years ago, has just been discovered in the basement. Part of the powder was "oozing out" of the sticks.

Dean Rhea Will Be Idaho Bishop

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Feb. 5 (U.P.)—The Very Rev. Frank Rhea, dean of St. Michael's cathedral, Boise, Ida., today was appointed bishop of Idaho by the house of bishops of the Episcopal church at the annual assembly here.

Seen Today

Lady standing on one foot while her courteous gentleman escort uses pocket knife to pry chewing gum off sole of her shoe... Scott Smith, Jr., having chickens of a time opening up plugged hose line on soft drink machine at his cafe (and getting lots of free advice from certain two customers at counter)... Trio of policemen looking over badly damaged squad car after crackup... Wife, going to visit physician husband now with marines, finding her packing impeded by lots of telephone calls from folks wanting to say goodbye... Three young men busily engaged in conversation with army and navy recruiters at same time... And little boy cheerfully throwing hat and coat on floor as he climbs aboard drug store stool to inhale ice cream soda.

Sweating off the Fat

It is always a pleasure to see a public official step right out, grab a problem squarely by the horns, and go to the mat with it. Possibly the pleasure is enhanced by the fact that it happens so seldom.

Anyway, every state and local official knows that in this time of war, with federal debt rising, with costs of living rising, it is highly desirable that state and local expenses and taxes be cut just as far as possible.

Few officials have had the fortitude to tackle the problem squarely. Governor Lehman of New York is an exception. In presenting his budget to the state legislature, he has recommended a 25 per cent reduction in each individual's personal income taxes payable this spring, a similar reduction in some taxes payable in 1943; a cut of five millions in total budget despite unavoidable war expenses and all this in the face of inevitable loss of revenue from auto and gas taxes. He proposes to postpone almost all projected public improvements, cut expenses all around, and actually give the state taxpayer some relief to enable him to carry his increased federal taxes.

How Governor Lehman will fare with his proposals, we do not yet know, but such a program, actually embodied in a budget and shoved straight at a state legislature, is a fitting subject for loud cheers.

Much of the saving that can be made by state and local governments in times like this can be made without injury or handicap to individuals. Many employees will be leaving to join the armed services. The total will fall automatically if new employees are not immediately added, yet it will not be necessary to fire anybody.

All capital improvement projects not necessary to the conduct of the war which can be postponed will not only add their share to present economy, but will be waiting to be launched after the war at a time when jobs and work may be at a premium. Thus the postponement serves a double purpose.

Every state and local government has before it a definite task: to sweat off the fat and get down to minimum operations consistent with safety and effective administration. The taxpayer (and that's everybody nowadays) is going to have to carry a heavier and heavier load for the nation. It is up to the lesser governmental divisions to lighten the burden all they can.

Few of them have as yet faced the situation with as much courage as that shown by the governor of New York.

Pedigreed Junk

What is a medal?
It is honor frozen into metal.
When the honor is dead, the metal is junk.

So 21 prominent New Yorkers have found, at least, turning over to the scrap metal campaign medals presented them by Germany, Italy, and Japan. There were German Iron Crosses, a Bavarian Distinguished Service medal, a solid gold sports medal presented by Hitler himself, honors which no doubt the recipients were glad to receive and proud to wear when they were presented.

But they felt that the honor was tarnished, and when the honor is gone out of a medal, scrap and dross remain.

In the general reservoir of American war materials, who knows but that this metal may again regain its honor.

Significant for the Future

The first fighter and the first trainer plane ever to be built by the Hindustan Aircraft factory have just been completed in Delhi.

There, in an inconspicuous little paragraph, lies news that may have great meaning in the future.

All the balances of world power are shifting. Vast areas and huge populations which have in the past been reservoirs of raw material and coolie labor are being industrialized. When the Chinese have won the war they will never again be the China our fathers knew. India's countless millions are steering for freedom, plus industrialization.

Here are forces in motion that dwarf the tiny conscious plans of men, and make 19th century politics look like a village store checker game. Whether we can make it the brave new world it can be, remains to be seen. That it will be a vastly different world is more apparent every day.

A Michigan hen was born with four legs. She's lucky, if she has to scratch for a living.

Joining an Estimable Cause

As you constituents may have noticed via the press, the Athletic Round Table up at Spokane has started a movement which is now so successful it has dazed the sponsors. The day after congress voted pensions to its own members, the Round Table inaugurated a "Bundies for Congress" campaign to assist the poverty-stricken solons who seem to fear starvation unless they raid the treasury.

Everything from rats' nests to glass eyes and false teeth has been donated. A loaded truck (or trucks) is supposed to be en route to Washington darn quickly.

Feeling that you people would certainly desire to enroll in such a commendable cause, we shipped the following telegram last night on behalf of our constituents:

"ATHLETIC ROUND TABLE, SPOKANE, WASH.—TWIN FALLS, IDAHO: WOULD YOU PLEASE JOIN 'BUNDIES FOR CONGRESS' CAMPAIGN. IF NOT TOO LATE WILLING TO SEND PACKAGE STARCH MADE IN TWIN FALLS. SOLONS WHO VOTED PENSIONS TO THEMSELVES WILL NEED THIS STARCH FOR USE WHERE MOST PEOPLE HAVE BACKBONES.—Pot Shots, Idaho Evening Times."

SUGAR TRA LA!
Pot Shooter Harry Povey tells us that the H. and M. lunch counter displays the following sign:

"Sugar is scarce—Use a little and stir like hell."

DO YOU HINT RATIONING OR JUST FLAT PARSSES?

Dear Pot Shots:
We'll all be wearing "defense clothes" before long.
You don't know what "defense clothes" are? They're the same things we're wearing right now... only more ragged and worn.

THE GREAT COMEBACK!

Dear Third Row:
They'll have to change the old song now. The old gray mare very definitely is gonna be even more than she used to be.

GUYS WHO ARE BUSIER THAN A ONE-ARMED ETC.

A snowball rolling downhill is just pycnology piker stuff compared with the rapidly pyramiding (we're open to suggestion on that spelling) list of duties already facing the three genies of the county rationing board.

And the same three faces the boards in other counties within our constituency, so those committees will kindly refrain from smirking at Messrs. Carl Anderson, C. C. Voeller and Asher Wilson.

Then they were told they'll have to handle the new car and truck rationing. That'll start in three weeks. There goes any spare time the boys had.

And now Mr. O. Anderson tells us they informed him up at Boise over the week-end that ration boards must handle the sugar rationing. A card for every single person, babies and all.

Oh, murder... or worse. And the war has been underway for only two months.

YEAH, MR. R. HAS CHANGED LOTS OF THINGS!

Dear Pot Shots:
Harry Wallace, new grandpa, says there's compensation to be paid for a homey little scam? If you're born in February.

He's remembering the fact that his grandson arrived during the "presidential month," along with Lincoln, Washington and other famous people. February babies are supposed to be smart presidential material.

But what about that Jan. 30 Roosevelt birthday? It's sort of changed the picture.

YOU CALL US A LIAR FOR ONE APOSTROPHE?

Sir:
You can't count.
That item from Gooding Tuesday on "How to Start a Riot in 55 Words," was actually 36 words long. You can't go putting two words together with an apostrophe and get away with calling 'em one. No sir, there were 36 words no matter how large a headline you had to say 35.

WE ESCAPE ONE PITFALL

Pot Shots is glad to report today that he has escaped one pitfall in the path of papies.

In short, unbelievable as it sounds, we have heard little Miss Pot. She's start saying "da da," and we do NOT interpret this as meaning her first words in life are "daddy."

FAMOUS LAST LINE

"... Wonder if we could get a sugar ration card for the dog and cat."

SERIAL STORY

TAMBAY GOLD

BY SAMUEL HOPKINS ADAMS

IN THE CABIN

CHAPTER XXVII

WHILE I was waiting on them, Juddy slipped across to the plane and pinched the revolver.

She wasn't for letting Angel shoot some poor slob that might be perfectly innocent. They put off without noticing their loss.

"They hadn't been gone half an hour when Doc showed up at the Feederia. He was in his working clothes, and he looked white and grave.

"Old Swoby is back," Doc said. "I've got him in the shaker."

"Then everything's jake," I said.

"No. He's been shot."

"Shot?" Juddy forgot her feud with Doc. "What—why—"

"It isn't serious. Flesh wound. I've dressed his arm."

"What have they got on him?"

"He was found hiding in a barn near the place."

"Hiding from the airplanes?"

"Of course. But could you get a mob to believe that? There's something else. The woman, before she died, muttered something about a man with a red head. Swoby had that infernal red cap of his on. When they found him, he ran."

"What'll we do, Doc?"

"I've telephoned the State Police."

"Did you get 'em?"

"No, they're all out on the hunt. I left word."

I hustled across to the Feederia and brought back my good old forty-five.

"Look," I said. "Give this to Old Swoby and head him for the Big Swamp. They won't find him there. Not tonight. Lord! What's that?" But I'd heard that lost-soul wailing before.

"Bloodhounds," he said. "The swamp is hopeless. He turned to Juddy. 'Is there a bar to the door of the log shed in your back yard?'"

"Yes."

"My God, Doc!" I said. "Are you crazy? You can't stand 'em off here."

"Have you got any better plan?"

"No. But—"

"You don't expect me to give Swoby up, surely?"

"I'd rather have him killed than you."

"We're wasting time," he said. Juddy spoke up, kind of desperate.

"Yes, we're wasting time. Don't you see you can't do anything with him?"

She didn't look at Doc. I think she was afraid to.

"Come, Swoby," he called.

Swoby came out. He stared from one to the other of us and then said something that made me almost cry. "Why must they kill me?" he said. "This is not my country."

"You must do what Mr. Oliver tells you," Juddy said to him.

Something shoved against my leg. It was Dolf.

"Okay, boy," I said. "Trail along. You like trouble."

WE all went across the road to make ready. Doc sized up the log cabin and the lay of the land around it. He had his pistol. I had my old forty-five whanger. Juddy's twelve-gauge stood in the hall corner. I sneaked it and a box of shells and gave the lot to Old Swoby who'd been in the war and knew a gun when he saw it. Juddy had hung on to the gat she swiped from Hendy's plane.

"They might try to burn us out," Doc said. "We'd better roll that rain barrel in. We'll need buckets." That guy thought of everything.

While Juddy and I were getting out the buckets for water the sound of the dogs got nearer and more mournful. They were baying at the ford where Old Swoby waded the stream. That didn't give us too much time. Doc spoke up, quiet and business like.

"This is the plan. When they come, I shall try to get a hearing. I don't want to hurt anyone. But I do want them to believe that we're prepared to shoot if necessary. Now you two go back to the mansion and keep after the troopers."

"And leave you here?" Juddy said.

"This is no time to argue," he said. "Go back."

Juddy didn't argue. She just walked into the shack. I trailed. Dolf followed me.

"For God's sake, Juddy!" Her voice shook, too, when she spoke. "I'm not afraid. At least, not very."

"Mom," he said. "Mom! Get her out!"

"Don't start anything Doc," I warned him. "I was base of a living pyramid once. You can't shove me around. And I won't let you shove Juddy. We're staying."

"They come now," Old Swoby said.

The hounds were yelling for blood; the mob, too. The front line of the chase straggled into the yard. Doc pushed the big door shut and slipped the bat. Old Swoby took him place at the rear window with Juddy's gun. It all looked to me like bad trouble.

Doc stood by the small front window next the door.

"Everybody quiet, please," he said. "I'll do the talking."

HE stuck his pistol through the window and fired a shot in the air. A car swung into the grounds. By its lights I could see the advance guard taking cover in the thickets. Bixie Groff and a bunch of his townies were behind one clump.

"Don't come any further," Doc said. "You'd have thought he was in his classroom. Quiet authority; that was his pitch. Some bird behind a live oak called out.

"Give the fella up, Prof. We got nothing against you."

"Anybody interferes, they're right liable to get hurt."

Groff, with a couple of his pals, was edging over to the left. A bullet plunked into the log above my head. Some more followed. They were firing high. The car lights were switched off now, but there was enough moon so we could see a man moving forward alone.

"Stop that shooting," he said. "Maurie Sears," Juddy said.

"Quiet!" Doc snapped at her. "Oliver!" Sears called. "Can I have a word with you?"

"Certainly."

He walked up to the door. Through my chink between the logs, I could see his face, stern and set.

"You might as well give him up, Oliver."

"So that you and your friends can lynch him?"

"I'll never have a hand in another lynching. Not at Tambay." (Well, I knew why that was.)

Doc said: "Will you guarantee to deliver him safely to jail?"

"I can't guarantee anything. But I'll do my best."

"I believe that, Sears. But I don't believe it would be good enough."

"There isn't much time," Maurice Sears said. "As your friend, Oliver, I beg you to turn the man over to me."

Doc seemed to be thinking about it, for he didn't say anything for a few seconds. Then, "That's your best advice?"

"It is."

"Would you do it in my place?"

"The case is differ—"

"Would you do it in my place, Sears?"

"No."

"I thought not. But you expect me to?"

"No."

"Thank you, Sears. Neither will I."

With Kelly at Washington

Laundries are asking for a priority on tires for their trucks. They declare that unless they can collect the soiled linen and clean it there will be a menace to public health.

Leon Henderson has had this matter drawn to his attention by the laundrymen, who have a plan to educate the public. They ask that family bundles be ready when the driver comes to collect; they want one delivery and no calls-backs nor special service. Instead of arguing with the driver the housewife is requested to call the laundry direct when pieces of the wash are lost. The laundries intend placing a governor on the trucks which will hold them to a certain speed.

Mr. Henderson has revised his list of those exempted from the restrictions on tires and new automobiles by including the clergy. A western senator, armed with a letter from a clergyman, marched into Henderson's office and waited for the price control administrator to read it. Despite all the protests that have been made by the clergy this was the first time the subject had been laid in Henderson's lap. Recognizing the fact that ministers must travel to parishes long the same as doctors and nurses, Henderson ordered his staff to give the same priority to the cloth as to the other few exceptions. And now come the laundrymen.

Talk is being renewed of the probable transfer of the forest service from the department of agriculture to the department of the interior. Under his war powers the President can reorganize any department, and he has long wished to change the forest service over to Secretary Ickes and it was the subject of many conferences during the 1940 presidential campaign. At that time, however, the timbermen of the northwest were content to have the service remain where it is.

Of late the timber owners of Idaho have changed their mind and many of them would welcome the service going to Ickes. One reason for this is that a small inner group in the forest service in the national capital seek to place all timber in the federal government. This, they explain, is outlined in the so-called Bankhead bill which, in the course of a few days, would give the government complete control over all timber.

Notwithstanding that Ickes is irascible, timber owners believe that he would not stand for the "reforms" sanctioned by Wickard, who is too busy to watch forest service policies closely. Secretary Ickes personally supervises every detail of ever bureau in the department of interior (the even corrects errors of the typists), overlooks nothing. For these reasons the timbermen are willing to take a chance with him.

Photograph of forests in Idaho, Oregon and Washington, provided under an appropriation last year, is to be extended to all forests in western states. A program for this protection has been drafted by the forest service but has not yet been initiated. Timber owners are so concerned over the possibility of incendiary bombs being dropped in the forests that they have sent representatives to the capital to ascertain what precautions are being or will be taken by the government. Private timber owners are already on the job guarding their own holdings against acts of Japanese fliers. The forest service can do no more than it is doing at present until congress votes an appropriation. At the request of Idaho timbermen Senator McNary offered an amendment to the priorities bill which will make available the manpower of CCC camps to guard against forest fires. The amendment empowers the President to direct the administrator of the federal security agency to assign men from the camps to the extent necessary to protect munitions, aircraft and other war industries, municipal water supply, power and other utilities and resources subject to the hazard of forest fires.

Between the draft and war industries, the usual helpers hired to watch and fight forest fires have been reduced to an extent which alarms the timbermen, but with this amendment the situation will be materially bettered. The government also is concerned with protection against fire, for the war department has already awarded contracts for one billion feet of lumber and the military and war industries will continue to call for a staggering amount of wood.

At a meeting to be held last week. Talks on "How the lives of famous people influence our lives and count" were discussed by Elaine Manning, who talked on Clara Barton and Florence Nightingale; Pearl Christensen, Orsen Welles, and Kate Smith, and Sarah Kearn, Madame Schumann-Heink.

Music was furnished by the rhythm band and Raymond Johnson played a violin solo.

SOVIETS EXPECT ADDED STRENGTH IN ENEMY LINES

By WILLIAM DOWNS
LONDON, Feb. 5 (U.P.)—The Red army, driving forward on the front west and north of Moscow, killed 5,700 Germans and took 11 populated places, the Russian army communiqué said today.

The fierce fighting that has marked the advance, continued with the Germans trying futilely to counter-attack, the communiqué said.

In the Ukraine sector the Russians were reported to have broken into the German lines both north and south of Kharkov. Dispatches said the Kursk-Kharkov line had been pierced at two points and that there was heavy fighting in the outskirts of Belgorod, a rail center 38 miles north of Kharkov.

Suffer Resistance
Despite these successes the Russian newspaper Pravda warned, that the "enemy from now on will put up a stiffer resistance and we must not underestimate the strength of this stiffening by the Germans."

The Germans' heaviest losses came in several sectors on the Kalinin front, northwest of Moscow, where five populated places were liberated, 27 tanks, five guns and eight machine guns destroyed and 5,200 men and officers killed. There were no figures on the Soviet losses.

27 Blockhouses Destroyed
The communiqué said that in one day, units operating in the Leningrad sector destroyed 27 enemy blockhouses, six machine guns and three mine throwers.

Guerrillas also were dealing out misery to the cold and weary Germans as they operated behind the Nazi rear, the communiqué said.

In the Ukraine, Russian ski troops and Cossack cavalry were reported to have broken the German lines north and south of Kharkov, the great industrial center of the district.

Dispatches said that fighting was going on at the outskirts of Belgorod, a rail center 38 miles north of Kharkov.

$103 Penalty for Woman Motorist

On payment of a fine of $100 plus costs of $3, Mrs. Violet Moore, 33, Rupert, today had been released from county jail after pleading guilty to a charge of operating a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor.

The woman was fined as she appeared before Municipal Judge J. O. Humphrey yesterday afternoon. She had been held in the county jail from the time of her arrest at 2:40 a. m. Wednesday to the time she appeared before the judge. At first she said her home was in Burley, records show.

The judge announced he would recommend revocation of the woman's driving license for a period of one year. Local police made the arrest.

Mishaps Damage 4 Machines Here

RESTRICTIONS HIT WESTERN ALIENS

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 5 (U.P.)—Federal authorities tightened restrictions on enemy aliens today by curtailing their movements in California and barring them from defense areas in Oregon and Washington.

Establishment of "curfew zones" along nearly two-thirds of California's coastline and at some inland points threatened aliens in night jobs with unemployment and struck at the pocketbooks of theater, tavern and restaurant operators and other amusement industries in alien districts of coastal cities.

Within those areas, enemy aliens may not leave their homes between 8 p. m. and 6 a. m. and may not travel more than five miles from their homes. The curfew zones were designated in addition to 97 California areas from which aliens will be barred completely.

31 Areas Banned
A justice department order issued last night will bar aliens from 31 vital areas in Washington and Oregon, including eight square miles around the Grand Coulee dam, a strip on both sides of the Columbia river near the Bonneville dam and areas around the Diablo and Ruby dams on the Skagit river and the Long lake hydroelectric plant on the Spokane river.

Authorities said they could not estimate how many aliens would be driven from homes by last night's order, but they believed there would be only a few. More than half of the 186,000 Japanese, German and Italian aliens in the eight states of the western defense command live in California.

Curfew Hurts
The curfew zones in California include vital defense works and fertile farm lands of the Sacramento and San Joaquin valleys. In some cases the restricted area extends inland as much as 150 miles to include Marysville, Sacramento, Stockton, Los Banos and Maricopa.

Because Los Banos, a farming community and the site of dry gas wells, was included in the "curfew" area, other gas and oil fields were expected to be made restricted areas. Extension of such zones may include all of southern California.

'Phone Booth Is Tight Fit For This Cop

CHICAGO, Feb. 5 (U.P.)—Patrolman Pat Walsh weighs 220 pounds, and when he gets into a telephone booth, it's a tight fit.

Walsh squeezed into a booth at the criminal courts building today. When he had completed his call, he was unable to turn around and open the door.

Walsh yelled and pounded on the wall. A building attendant turned the outside knob of the door—it came off and rolled across the floor.

As the crowd of spectators grew, another patrolman, Steve Stuckel, appeared with a hammer and a screw driver and went to work on the molding holding the small glass window in place. When his job was half finished, a curious bystander picked up the doorknob, inserted it, turned it and opened the door.

Walsh backed out and was thanking everyone when newspaper photographers arrived and asked him to step into the booth again for some pictures.

Walsh didn't work a second time. The molding had been replaced. Stuckel had disappeared with the hammer and screw driver.

After 25 embarrassing minutes, someone broke the glass window and the bystanders pulled Walsh out.

A man 40 years old was considered well past his prime only a few centuries ago.

Low-Income Unit Open For Public Inspection

Hundreds of residents of this section are expected to visit the model home at Pioneer square, Twin Falls' first low-income housing unit, during the time it will be open for public inspection.

The four-room house was opened for public inspection yesterday and will remain open during the month of February and possibly into March. Visiting hours will be, daily from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m., excepting Tuesdays when it will remain open to 9 p. m. Sunday visiting hours will be from 1 p. m. to 5 p. m.

Receptionist during the open house period will be Mrs. Helen Henderson while Mrs. Marjorie Estling, tenant selection supervisor, will have charge of taking applications from prospective residents.

Applications Accepted
Mrs. Estling said today that applications would only be accepted afternoons and evenings. One room in the home, designed as a second bedroom, will be used as an office where applications will be accepted during the open house period.

The homes were constructed under direction of the Twin Falls Housing authority with John S. Kimes as contractor and the late Burton E. Morse and Holmes G. Lash, associate architects.

Twenty-eight dwelling units are located at Pioneer square with 68 more at Washington courts. Most of the homes will probably be ready for occupancy sometime in March.

The model home's furnishings follow a color combination of paprika red, holly green and white, with accents on yellow. Rooms in the home include the bath, two bedrooms, the living room and kitchen. Furnishings cost $115 for the bedroom; $39.07 for the bedroom; $54.07 for the living room and $28.64 for the kitchen. Assuming that furnishings for the bedroom now used as an office would be the same as the bedroom now furnished, total cost of furnishing the house would come to $160.20.

Low Rentals
The low-income homes will rent from $7 to $17.50 a month and this includes electricity and water, electric range, coal fired water heater, coal fired space heater, window shades, private bath and toilet, individual built-in laundry tub, clothesline space, parking space and utility rooms. The homes will range in size from three and one-half to six and one-half room units.

On Wednesday, initial day for inspection, there were 62 visitors and 29 applications were taken from persons in the eligible brackets.

Marines Enlistee Honored at Party
Thirty-one members of the Baptist choir attended a party at the Idaho Power company auditorium last evening in honor of Waldo Burdard, who is leaving soon to join the United States marines. As a salute to the honoree the group sang "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow," and he was obliged to respond with a ditty, "Be Honest With Me."

Miss Betty Phelps and Miss Thelma Phelps sang "The Old Village Choir" and "Hondulu Moon." Arthur Gordon and Ted Scott presented several humorous skits including "The Gay Cavalier," with a "play" on the names of choir members.

Mrs. Theresa Wiley and Mrs. Juanita Jones presented a humorous medley. The following impromptu program was given:

Song, mixed quartet, Mrs. H. H. Burkhardt, Mrs. Ted Scott, Bennie Winkler, Franklin McMullin; baritone solo, Marc Fay; trio, Miss Mary Strain, Miss Ruth Marie Brooks and Miss Louise Smith; novelty whistling number, Mrs. R. C. McMullin; soprano solo, Miss Edna Graham; tenor solo, Carlton McMullin.

Games were played and as a prelude to the refreshments, the Phelps sisters, dressed in Valentine aprons and caps, sang a humorous story to the guest of honor.

Committee on arrangements was Mrs. McMullin, Mrs. Wiley and Mrs. Jones.

Enjoy Yourself By Feeling Good

You Can Feel So Much Better If You'll Follow a Few Sensible Suggestions...

You are already familiar with most of the rules you must follow if you're to enjoy the best of health, but perhaps you do not fully appreciate the particular importance of a proper balance of necessary foods.

SENSIBLE EATING is one of the secrets...

Scientific investigation has disclosed a widespread lack of certain vital food elements in the average American diet, partly because of our methods of eating, partly because of a dislike for foods providing these elements. But these elements—Vitamin B1, Iron and other minerals—are vital nevertheless if one is to enjoy a full measure of health. That's why science has recommended that bread be "enriched" with these important ingredients, so they may be consumed easily, regularly, and even without detection. BUTTER-KRUST "Enriched" Bread includes all these added food values that science recommends for making you feel good.

TWIN FALLS TOPS RESIDENCE GAINS

Twin Falls retained its ranking as Idaho's "city of homes" during 1941 by showing a 33 per cent increase in dwelling construction during that period compared with 1940.

This fact was shown today in the latest statistical report compiled in the Pacific northwest building data published by the Equitable Savings and Loan association, Portland, Ore.

Twin Falls' total expenditures for homes in 1940 was $383,805 against $511,539 for 1941. City coming nearest to "matching" Twin Falls in home gain was Boise where the gain was only three per cent. Average gain for the four major communities in Idaho came to only seven per cent.

Twin Falls was third in Idaho in the gain shown for total building permits (including remodeling, repair and also new construction) in 1941 as compared to 1940. The gain in this tabulation for Twin Falls was placed at 26 per cent against 105 per cent for Boise; 45 per cent for Pocatello and a loss of 16 per cent for Lewiston. Average gain in the four major Idaho communities was 67 per cent.

Tabulations show that building construction in the Pacific northwest's defense centers leaped forward by 48 per cent during 1941, while volume in leading non-defense cities declined by eight per cent. These figures are compiled from totals in 30 communities.

Hillbilly Party At Jerome Fetes Legion Officers

JEROME, Feb. 5 (Special)—"Corn likker jugs" (filled with punch; large trays of potatoes and meats, and pots and pans containing old-fashioned corn bread and other foods appropriate to the evening, graced the tables at the dinner party, arranged as a hillbilly, and hard times party for all past commanders of the American Legion of Jerome.

Checked Table Cloths

Guests were seated at five long tables, which also were appointed in colorful plaid napkins and other suitable decorations.

Following dinner, dancing and singing was diversion. Approximately 60 persons attended.

Guests came attired in hillbilly costume, two being adjudged most hilarious and authentic.

Prize winners were Leighton Innes, Jerome business man, and Mrs. Frieda Sinclair, pioneer resident. Mrs. Sinclair, a picture of true hillbilly character, appeared in old-time dress, high-topped shoes, and carried a lantern since she had apparently "just returned from a 'possum huntin' expedition." She smoked a corn-cob pipe.

Mr. Innes came with a black eye, and wore a gaudily designed shirt, a tattered hat which hung on one side of his head, and rolled up pants, the trousers being held up with the aid of a piece of improvised rubber suspender over one of his shoulders.

During the course of the meal, coffee in large pots was passed about from guest to guest who "helped himself." The "likker jugs" also were placed at vantage points.

Mrs. L. W. Sanberg was master of ceremonies and read a letter received recently from an imaginary "Elmer" who was supposed to be away in an army camp.

Letter From "Elmer"

In the letter were humorous anecdotes about each of the past commanders.

Present Commander Dana L. Messenger gave a toast to the honored members.

A hillbilly orchestra also appeared, composed of auxiliary members

COWBOY OWNERS OFFER TO LEASE FRANCHISE

Plans Slated for Starting Advance Selling of Tickets

If the Twin Falls Cowboys function as a team in the Pioneer league it will probably be under the direction of some outside organization, Carl Anderson, business manager, announced today.

The decision was reached last night following a meeting of fans at the Chamber of Commerce at which plans were outlined for the solicitation of $5,000 in advance sale of baseball tickets.

The idea is to have an experienced baseball man come into the city, take over the club and line up a team. It would be necessary that such a man have outside baseball connections so that he could arrange a tie-up with some major or big minor league club.

Cooperating with the new theme of reorganization, directors of the Cowboy organization have offered to lease their club to some such responsible man for the year at $10 per season—just enough to make the lease legal.

Go to Coast
This proposal Mr. Anderson will carry with him when he goes to San Francisco next week to a scheduled session of the Pacific Coast league at which time every possible plan of operation will be brought into consideration, including direct tie-up with some team on the west coast, or some kind of a player agreement.

Mr. Anderson branched this plan to Vice-President Bill Wainwright of the St. Louis Cardinals at Boise over the week-end and also to Ed-Edie Mulligan, general manager of the Salt Lake Bees and both were of the opinion that such a deal could be arranged.

Meanwhile, a committee of local fans was appointed last night to start the advance sale of tickets—to secure the necessary $500 deposit fee to assure a team here. The first $500 must be collected by Feb. 10, the day before the next league meeting at Idaho Falls on Feb. 17.

White Named Chairman
Named as chairman of the fan committee to start solicitation of the ticket sales was Wally White and his aides will be Fred Stone and Harry Walters.

They are slated to start work immediately and will lay out plans for special ways to hurry along the ticket sales.

White announced last night after his appointment that he would speed plans for a rally to be held to start the drive off with a bang and get a big list of local business men and fans behind the project.

Meanwhile, the assemblage heard Mr. Anderson and President Frank Magel of the club last night point out that "37,000 attendance wasn't considered at all bad for a last-place club" and that the prospects for increased attendance in 1942 were good.

Need 50,000 Fans
It is estimated that at least a 50,000 home attendance is needed to make a team "break even" financially for a season—an average of 833 per game for the year with the new 120-game schedule, of which 60 would be on the home lot.

A new schedule proposed for the club would have Twin Falls open the season at Ogden on May 1 and the Cowboys open their home schedule here on May 5 against Idaho Falls. This is one of the schedules that Hady Walker, owner of the Boise Pilots, is strenuously fighting.

Filer Fighters Lose Battles To Kimberly

McCoy Enlists In U. S. Navy
GREAT LAKES, Ill., Feb. 5 (AP)—Benny McCoy, Philadelphia Athletics second baseman, prepared today to learn a coxswain's duties in the naval reserve.

He enlisted yesterday and officers at the Great Lakes naval training station said he would be assigned to active service "within a day or two."

McCoy received a $40,000 bonus for signing a contract with the Athletics after Baseball Commissioner K. M. Landis released him from the Detroit Tigers and declined him a free agent before the 1940 season.

Pro Golf Aces Warm up for Phoenix Open

By WILLIAM McMENAMIN
PHOENIX, Ariz., Feb. 5 (AP)—Professional golf stars warmed up for the $5,000 Western Open Golf tournament today by shooting for $400 in purses in an 18-hole preliminary round in which they teamed with amateurs.

As usual on a tournament eve, little Ben Hogan of Hershey, Penn., ruled as favorite over a field of more than 100, topnotch professionals despite his failure to show among the first 10 in last week's pre-amateur match at Bing Crosby's Rancho Santa Fe links.

Hogan and Sammy Snead of Hot Springs, Va., made up a foursome for today's pro-amateur round with Dr. E. Payne Palmer, Jr., and Nell B. McGinnis of Phoenix. Most of the gallery was expected to follow this foursome and watch Hogan, who is on the way to his third straight year as the country's leading money winner. He already has won the $10,000 Los Angeles Open and the $5,000 San Francisco Open.

Winner's share of the $5,000 purse will be $1,000; second money, $700; third, $500; fourth, $400; fifth, $350, and the balance will be divided among the next 20 low finishers.

Film actors Bing Crosby, Bob Hope and Edgar Kennedy, Hollywood's leading golfers, will play as amateurs, along with Johnny Dawson, surprise winner last week at Rancho Santa Fe, and Ellsworth Vines, the tennis star turned golfer. Professionals will include Harry Cooper, Lawson Little, Ralph Guldahl, Jimmy Demaret, Clayton Hefner, Jimmy Thomson, Henry Picard, Denny Shute, Johnny Revolta, Harold McSpaden and Dick Metz.

Dolly Stark Back As Major Umpire

NEW YORK, Feb. 5 (AP)—Dolly Stark was back as a national league umpire again today after an absence of nearly two years.

League President Ford Frick announced Stark's reappointment yesterday. As he is not a replacement, there now are 13 arbiters in the circuit. This will allow use of four officials in some games.

Stark, elected the league's No. 1 umpire in a 1934 players' poll, has not officiated since 1940, when he retired on his physician's order.

SALT LAKE CITY, Feb. 5 (AP)—Jack Dempsey is in the New York state home guard; Gene Tunney is working for the navy; and Joe Louis is drilling in the army. So old Jack Johnson, who will be 65 next month, has hit the sawdust trail again to do his part—mainly, of course, for old Jack himself.

Jack is teaching the American youth the mysteries of the one-two punch.

(This week he is in Salt Lake City and he is delivering his message as a headliner in the world's fair museum. He is flanked on one side by a lady snake-charmer and on the other by sheep-headed men from Ecuador. But don't get him wrong; the environment doesn't bother old Jack.

128-Pound Impost Results in Alsab Withdrawal at Hialeah Park Race

By JOHN B. McDERMOTT
MIAMI, Fla., Feb. 5 (AP)—Requested became the favorite today for the $5,000-added Bahamas handicap at Hialeah park Saturday after withdrawal of Alsab, racing's "million dollar baby," because of the heavy 128-pound impost assigned him.

Albert Sabath, owner of Alsab, announced that he would withdraw the brown colt after learning yesterday that Racing Secretary Charles J. McInnahan gave him top weight in a field of 19.

Alsab set the turf world agog last year by winning 15 of his 22 starts by earning $110,000. The $700 wonder horse of 1941—a leading Kentucky derby contender—was to have made his three-year-old debut in the Bahamas.

Requested, arch-rival of the Sabath entry, is owned by Ben F. Whitaker of Texas. Beating the track record in a workout early this week, he now becomes the favorite with second impost of 121 pounds.

The Bahamas is for seven furlongs and Requested ran the mile in 1:38.4 in a workout Tuesday morning. This clipped one-fifth second from the track record, established last Saturday by Eternal Peace. Requested's stablemate weighted at 111 for the race. Alsab tied the mark in a Monday workout.

Requested was timed in 23.8 at the quarter, 48.4 at the half, 1:01 at five furlongs, 1:13.4 at the three-quarter and 1:25.4 for seven furlongs. Alsab's corresponding workout times for six furlongs were 23.8, 48, 1:00.8 and 1:13.2.

Alsab traveled the fastest mile ever recorded for a two-year-old to defeat Requested in the Champagne stakes at Belmont last October. In winning, he was clocked at 1:35.4.

The Bahamas was slated as a homecoming for the Sabath colt as well as a renewal of his rivalry with Requested. Starting his campaign here last year, Alsab ran his poorest race. He finished last in a field of 14 at Hialeah last February, a race in which Requested romped off with show money.

Explaining Alsab's withdrawal, Sabath said he felt the heavy impost was too much for the young horse to carry. The colt would continue training, he said, for the rich $25,000 added Flamingo stakes Feb. 28—the winter test for Kentucky eligibles.

Other imposts for the Bahamas included: Eternal Bull, 120; Bright Willie, 117; First Pledge, 115; American Wolf, Figgertout and Sir War, 114; Rodney, 113; Bold Question and Tomochichi, 111; Alohot, 110; Sweet Singer, 109; Elre, 108; Incoming, Argentum Bill and Altem, 105, and Sanguaton, 103.

Requested was timed in 23.8 at the quarter, 48.4 at the half, 1:01 at five furlongs, 1:13.4 at the three-quarter and 1:25.4 for seven furlongs. Alsab's corresponding workout times for six furlongs were 23.8, 48, 1:00.8 and 1:13.2.

Burley Rallies To Triumph Over Shoshone

BURLEY, Feb. 5 (Special)—The "battle of champions" was past history today and Cassia fans were convinced of that old adage: "A good big team can beat a good little team."

The Class A champions took the Class B titleholders into camp by a score of 40-30—but only after a struggle that raged in a nip-and-tuck affair through three quarters.

In fact, the visitors put up such a stiff fight that they were leading by one point as the final stanza got underway. However, a great Bobcat rally that scored 12 points in the first four minutes of the last quarter salted the game away.

Burley held an 11-8 lead in the first quarter, but the Indians came back to trail only 16-17 at the intermission.

Third stanza saw Shoshone take a narrow 22-21 lead. And then the local fireworks broke loose, with the home club scoring 19 points in the eight minutes of play—well over two points per minute.

Scoring honors went to Baumann of the losers with 16 points, while Bradshaw got 11 and Klink 10 for the home club.

Preliminary saw the strong Bobcat frosh-soph five put an end to the 17-game winning streak of the Indian reserves by scoring a 21-14 triumph. Burley held a 10-4 lead at the half-time.

Lineups:
SHOSHONE: Baumann (16), P. Wood Winter (3), C. (4), Jones Murphy (2), G. (11) Klink Anderson (4), J. (11) Bradshaw Substitutions: Shoshone—Hannewerk, Jones (3), Andrews, D. Baumann, Burley—Robinson (6), Evans (3).

Jockey Boots Home Five Winners in Day

NEW ORLEANS, La., Feb. 5 (AP)—Jockey Jimmie George, still new enough to racing to rate an apprentice allowance, was credited today with the outstanding riding feat of the young 1942 racing season after booting home five winners in seven months at the fair grounds.

He won the first on Black Time yesterday at $16.60 straight but finished out of the money in the second. Then, George won three straight with Silver Gray $6.40, Champaign $11, and Kentown $15.80. He finished third in the sixth and wound up the day by bringing home Aloise in the seventh at $7.20.

It was the best day of any jockey since Alfred Robertson's six winners at Jamaica last fall.

Plays up to Opposition
However, Coach Duke Cranney's clubs have a habit of playing up to the competition, as they have proved in recent weeks—such as the beating they administered to the Peatello Indians.

After barely edging out Filer on Jan. 27, the Bruins came back strong to trounce the Gate City crew. Tuesday the Twin Falls basket tossers did well to hit the backboard—let alone the hoop. So there's the possibility that the local quintet may get hot against the Big Six opposition again.

A queer circumstance surrounds the case of Glenn Gibb, the second high scorer of the Big Six. He has scored 82 points in seven games for an average of 11.7 points per contest in leap play.

But against south central Idaho competition, such as Filer, Oakley, Burley, Gooding and Jerome—all members of the Big Seven conference—he has scored 36 points in five games—an average of 7.2 points per game against supposedly weaker competition.

Settles Chances
The Boise tour, starting here tonight, stops at Idaho Falls on Friday for a "clinch" game at the third ends Saturday against the third-place Peatello Indians. Conclusion of the swing through the circuit will pretty much settle the Braves' pennant chances.

Individual scoring honors in the Big Six race still go to Reed Taylor of Nampa, who has collected 97 points in eight games, compared with the second-place total of Gibb's 82 in seven contests. Other leaders include:

Williams, Idaho Falls, 60; Biles, Nampa, 64; Parrott, Caldwell, 62;

Pilots' Owner Reverses Plan For Ball Club

BOISE, Feb. 5 (AP)—Boise's participation in Pioneer league affairs during 1942 today appeared to be assured, although rumors of a possible change in ownership continued to flourish.

Hady Walker, owner of the Boise Pilots, who told league directors Monday "he would not operate this year" under present conditions, reversed his stand and told League President Jack Hallwell that the Pilots would be ready to play ball on May 1.

Meanwhile, the Boise Parks corporation met in executive session to assure Boise baseball fans of a club this season. M. C. Smith, president of the association, reported after the meeting that "nothing can be released now, but there were persons at our meeting who intend to examine the situation closely."

He declined comment on whether interested parties had expressed a desire to take over the Pilots' franchise but said that some action will be taken in the next few days to work out the matter to the satisfaction of all concerned.

Walker intimated he would be willing to sell his franchise and park holdings but set the price at $70,000.

Ice Tourney Gets Underway At Seattle

SEATTLE, Feb. 5 (AP)—The far west's leading amateur ice stars opened the 1942 Pacific coast figure skating championships at civic ice arena today, but the entry list of 100 included only one defending champion.

She was Ramona Allen of Los Angeles, 1941 Pacific coast senior champion. Another Californian, Jack Might, entered the men's senior division rather than defend his junior crown, and was a ranking favorite. Marilyn Teller of Los Angeles, 1941 Pacific coast novice champion, competes this year as a junior.

Miss Allen's strongest competition in the women's seniors was expected to come from Marcella May, San Francisco. Two Tacoma entries, Margaret Clarke, northwest champion, and Pat Hoyt, were favored in the women's novice group.

This year's tournament ranks as the foremost of its kind in the west, following the wartime transfer of the national championships from Berkeley, Calif., to Chicago.

Today's schedule included novice, juvenile, senior, free-style exhibition, junior and senior pair finals, and dance competition.
