Stalin Bluntly Says Soviet Will War on Japan If Necessary

Warns Tokyo Against Threatening Outer Mongolia
Vital Interview Cites Hitler's Mistrust Even Beneath Peaceful Words

EDITOR'S NOTE: Russia's attitude toward war with Japan and Germany is revealed in the following formally approved interview with Josef V. Stalin by Roy W. Howard, with extracts from a lengthy article in the Moscow Times discussing Russia's relations with America and the world at large.

By ROY W. HOWARD
Chairman of the Moscow Scripps-Howard Newspapers
MOSCOW, March 4.—The Soviet Union is prepared to go to war with Japan if necessary to prevent the destruction of the independence of its virtual political ally, the Mongolian People's Republic—Outer Mongolia.

The revelation of the high tension now existing and how important the Soviet regards the Manchukuo-Mongolian area was made by Josef V. Stalin to the writer in a three-hour discussion of Soviet relations with Japan and Germany, and Soviet-American relations particularly.

Stalin Warning To Japan Given Wide Attention
By United Press
The interview which Josef V. Stalin gave to Roy W. Howard, chairman of the board of the Scripps-Howard newspapers, warning Japan of the danger of war if she invades Mongolia and accuses Germany of aggressive ambitions, was a subject of official discussion throughout the world today.

Suppressed in Germany
To German and Poland it was suppressed. A few German papers printed an abbreviated version before they received instructions. The Polish Telegrams, however, distributed it, but two papers reported contained versions from their own correspondents.

Official reaction was restrained in Tokyo, although a foreign office spokesman intimated that the Japanese ambassador in London called to inform said Stalin had no right to pronounce on Japan's going to attack Mongolia.

The interview was regarded by French officials as one of the most important since an official spokesman characterized it as the first time Stalin had defined his attitude toward the rest of the world so clearly.

The interview was given to the entire Soviet press as an official foreign office communication in question-and-answer form.

New Problem Likely to Force Action on War and Other European Worries

GENEVA, March 5 (U.P.)—Emperor Haile Selassie's acceptance of the League of Nations plan for peace negotiations between Italy and Ethiopia, received at the league secretariat tonight, the acceptance of the plan by the Italian government, but within the framework of the league's stipulations.

GENEVA, March 5.—A threat of a crisis in the Italian-Ethiopian problem, calculated to force decisive action not only on Italy but on other European diplomatic activities, confronted league leaders today.

Authoritative reports flashed through Geneva that Switzerland had warned that if imposition of an oil embargo on Italy was to leave the league, Switzerland might follow.

Reports from Paris and other capitals, especially those of the possibility that Hungary, which is not cooperating in present league activities, also might follow Italy out.

But it was the Swiss threat that brought before the league the problem that has been behind the Italian-Ethiopian crisis since its inception—Italy's refusal to accept the league's stipulations.

League delegates were authorized for the statement today by Giuseppe Motta, Swiss foreign minister, had warned that his country, if it were to leave the league, would leave in all wars, might in certain circumstances leave the league.

Motta suggested the possibility that Italy might leave the league if the Italian-Ethiopian problem, pointing out that Switzerland then would have two powerful neighbors, the league in these circumstances, Motta was said to have argued.

The first was identified as Henry T. Thompson, 27, a former ally who was charged with the murder of a woman in 1925 for which he was sentenced to life imprisonment.

Two men were said to be awaiting questioning in connection with the asserted plot against the king. One was held in the hospital, the other was held in a prison.

CONVICT-HUNGER STRIKE CHECKED

Demonstration by Minnesota Prisoners Thought Broken as Many Capitulated
ST. CLOUD, Minn., March 5.—A convict strike of a thousand hunger at the Minnesota penitentiary here was believed broken at breakfast-time today when many inmates who had not eaten for 40 hours accepted food.

The strike began Tuesday noon apparently at the instigation of a prisoner, demanding higher pay, faster action on parole, and longer hours for the convicts working in the dining room.

Prisoners who had made separate but ineffective demonstrations since the strike started Tuesday noon, were fed in their cells.

Officials would not discuss how many strikers accepted food but said they considered the strike broken. They believed the remaining convicts would surrender to hunger demands by tonight.

CRISIS OVER SWITZERLAND EMBARGO RAISED

Langue Told Neutral Country May Withdraw If Italy Quits Geneva

Switzerland, he was said to have said, as a neutral would be unlikely to participate in any action likely to cause an armed conflict and therefore might be obliged to raise the embargo.

Delegates were said to have been particularly impressed by Mopla's denial because a popular movement to protect Switzerland's neutrality might culminate in a initiative under the constitution, which the Swiss public would vote on the question of resignation from the league.

The appointment of Hirota was taken as a firm indication by the emperor to extremists. Hirota is a former extremist himself, and a perfect-windmill type—interested as still acceptable to many army men.

But in more than two years in the foreign office, Hirota's moderation has been entirely among the civilian element in the cabinet on matters of policy, and has not been a friendly friendship with Russia and the United States.

U. S. PLEASED WASHINGTON, March 5 (AP)—Appointment of Hirota as Japanese premier was welcomed today because of his friendly ties with the United States and his moderate policy while minister of foreign affairs.

Although it is endorsed by Mitsuru Toyama, one of Japan's most famous nationalist extremists, Hirota's appointment is a friendly hand to the United States and to Soviet Russia, in both of which he has served as a diplomat.

Soon after he became foreign minister in 1934, he took the unusual step of sending a personal message to Secretary of State Cordell Hull, in effect proposing special efforts to strengthen American-Japanese relations.

"I firmly believe that, viewed in the light of the broad aspect of the situation and studied from all possible angles, no question exists between our two countries that is undemanding of an amicable solution," he said.

Hull responded that it was his conviction also that all problems of the two nations could be solved by the "gentle" family letters has been the basis of relations between the two nations during the present administration.

PLAN DRAWN FOR PROPOSED TAXES

Temporary Processing Levy Is Tentatively Mapped for Lawmakers

WASHINGTON, March 5 (AP)—Congressional tax experts received today the agricultural department today a plan for temporary two-year processing taxes on farm products, designed to raise $211,000,000 annually.

At the same time treasury experts submitted schedules showing the amount of revenue which might be derived through changes in personal income tax provisions and through a general manufacturers' excise levy.

The house ways and means subcommittee, which received the suggestions, said the processing tax levy, however, received more serious consideration.

Such taxes would raise approximately $200,000,000 in 1934, $200,000,000 in 1935 and $200,000,000 in 1936, while President Roosevelt told congress the treasury needed to raise $200,000,000 in 1934.

BALLOTTING OPENS ON FILM AWARDS

Selection of Best Performers of Past Year Will be Told at Dinner Tonight

(Copyright, 1936, United Press.) HOUSTON, Tex., March 5.—Ballotting opened today on a long list of nominees for the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences annual awards of merit with the winners to be announced at a banquet tonight.

The voting ends at 5 p. m. when the ballots are to be turned over to an auditing concern for tabulation. The official list of winners will not be disclosed until the end of the banquet.

A majority of Hollywood's leading actors, directors, writers and executives will attend the affair this evening, for which reservations were sold out weeks ago.

Four Actors Compete

Voting for the men's acting award were Clark Gable, Charles Laughton, and Franchot Tone for their work in "Mutiny on the Bounty" and Victor McLaglen for "The Informer."

Non-actors among the actresses were Elizabeth Bergner for "Escape Me Not," Claudette Colbert for "The Sign of the Cross" and "Dangerous," Katherine Hepburn for "Alice Adams," Miriam Hopkins for "Becky Sharp" and Martha Oberon for "The Dark Angel."

There are 19 nominations for the outstanding production and a score of awards for directing, writing, adapting and in technical fields.

Forgets Lines

James Cagney was pictured Saturday by his employers as "forgetting" actor war topics in testimony by Jack Warner during the star's suit to annul his contract with Warner Brothers.

"He forgot" his lines many times, Warner said. "On one occasion I investigated a delay in production and found Cagney had forgotten his lines half way through a scene."

Despite Cagney's asserted tendency to forget his lines, the studio is fighting his attempt to void their contract.

Frederic March, fellow film star, testified in Cagney's behalf that the square-jawed actor had reached an agreement with the studio to make only four pictures a year. Cagney is seeking to break his contract on grounds that the studio "forced" him to make five pictures annually.

TREASURY PLANS SILVER PURCHASE

Considers Steps to Take Peru and Other South American Metal Output

WASHINGTON, March 5 (Special).—The treasury today considered plans whereby virtually all the newly-mined silver in Peru and other South American producing countries could be purchased by the federal government.

Assistant Secretary of the treasury Henry Morgenthau, jr. revealed the plan today in a speech before the House Committee on Finance.

He refused to discuss treasury silver buying policies at length.

The plan bears potential similarity to one announced yesterday in connection with the Canadian government's offer to purchase silver of like effect has been agreed upon with Mexico.

Possibility that the silver would be acquired through the central banks of the various Latin American governments was refuted by Morgenthau.

The plan ratified yesterday states that the Federal Reserve Bank of New York would act as the treasury's fiscal agent and deal directly with the central banks.

All purchases in Latin America are to be made in amounts specified by the treasury at prices governed by the world market.

Contests Slated by Gooding Debaters GOODING, March 5 (Special).—Gooding high school's second team in scholastic debating will meet at Bliss high school Thursday evening with the affirmative team traveling.

The two debaters are expected to start at 7:30 p. m. The question being debated will be the national, high school debate topic for the year. "Resolved: That the several states should enact legislation providing for a system of complete medical services available to all citizens at public expense."

The team traveling to Bliss will be composed of Lucille Knight and Jay Aston. The negative team in which will meet the Bliss affirmative team will be composed of C. E. Jensen and Thomas Tapper. There is to be a decision rendered for each debate.

Next week will see the variety squad in action again when Gooding's first team will both travel to King Hill for a double debate there, probably on Tuesday night according to arrangements being made by Coach Robert Patton.

CRUISE TO NOWHERE

JANE WESTON heard the soft "ding" and alert beating against the pane as she closed the Central Employment Bureau again.

She was in luck. Every day for 30 days, while she was in this cramped office, Jane had called the same number. Regent 3000. Regent 3000.

And each time, as now, she had received the same reply. "Sorry. No call for you yet, Miss Weston." Jane elbowed and snatched the telephone. She snatched the type again.

It was a relief from thinking about her work. She was in luck. Every day for 30 days, while she was in this cramped office, Jane had called the same number.

'BASEMENT' WINE LESSENS MARKET

Amateur Makers in U. S. Cut Down Sales of Imported Products

WASHINGTON (AP)—Amateur manufacturers of wine and heavy taxes explain a small decline in wine imports from Spain last year, the failure of Argentina and Chile to find a market here, trade authorities believe.

More than 25,000,000 gallons of wine were estimated to be produced in the basement of American homes. Hundreds of thousands who learned to make wine during "home day" days have since turned to professional vintners when wine can be purchased at every corner grocery.

In 1935 Spain shipped 475,000 gallons of wine to the United States, and in 1934 only 350,000 gallons. Pre-proletarian production of wine in Argentina and Chile would find markets here have not been fulfilled.

Tariffs Also Blamed

Importers blame the home manufacturers, the tariff and the internal-revenue for the unfavorable import situation. They are seeking reduction in internal revenues, and also hope that the negotiation of a United States-Spain reciprocal trade agreement might lead to lower tariffs.

A third possible remedy would be an advertising campaign for imported wines.

"Buy American" campaigns are said to have made the United States conscious of the wine industry, the "bootlegger" who flourished in the prohibition era, is still a factor—although of waning importance—in the present trade, as his evasion of tariffs and taxes may enable underselling of legal products.

The National Association of Automobile Dealers' Importers pointed out that many American consumers are buying distilled spirits in preference to wines. The future of the import wine trade, it was thought, is not bright, and an advertising campaign was recommended.

The Roosevelt-Hull trade program thus far has favored rum, brandy and gin imports but had little effect on the international wine trade. Rum tariff was cut in the Cuban agreement, whiskey tariff in the Canadian pact, and gin in the recent Netherlands treaty.

In view of this situation, the wine trade will eagerly watch the impending United States-Spain agreement for possible changes in wine tariffs.

OPPOSES BORAH

Chosen as Ohio "favorite son" for the Republican presidential nomination at the national convention in June, Borah, Taft, whose son of the late President William Howard Taft, will oppose Senator William Borah in the bitterly contested race for the Buckeye state's 32 delegates. Taft is a former state senator and long has been prominent in the Democratic caucus.

DECOY CARS AID IN THEFT DRIVE

Auto Snatchers, Fooled When Kansas City Deliberately Sets Out Lures

KANSAS CITY, Mo., (AP)—An old duck hunting trick was credited today by Police Director Otto Higgins for his department's recent success in controlling auto thefts and car stripping.

The result of the campaign was the recent announcement of a reduction in automobile necessary insurance rates for Kansas City.

Higgins recalled the use of "decoy" cars to entice "new hunters" guns. He assigned policemen in plain clothes to drive new automobiles to designated locations, leave car doors unlocked and a dummy key in the lock.

The policemen would hide nearby. When a thief entered the decoy automobile and struggled with the dummy key, which would not unlock the car, the policemen made an arrest.

The campaign quickly gathered in several men who admitted widespread car thefts. Police at other times, allowed the thief to drive the car away and followed him. They were led to the fence who purchased and stripped the car.

Higgins also obtained jobs for several patrolmen in used parts businesses where stolen tires were bought. These men, with a list of stolen tires and parts, were able to make rapid color changes to blend with their surroundings.

BIRMINGHAM HAS BOOM IN BRITAIN

Highly Adaptable Area Offers Cheeriest Business Picture in All England

BIRMINGHAM, England (AP)—Cheeriest 50,000 acres of land in the whole of the British Isles, and Britain's No. 1 prosperity town, is booming. Its factories are burning night and day for the full seven days of the week. The bustling air of activity in the center of the town, the wealth and well-being being reflected in the show windows, the theater queues and cinema full houses, all testify that Birmingham is the most prosperous period since 1921.

The reason for this prosperity is crystallized in a single word—adaptability. People here have a background of nearly 200 years of manufacture behind them. Each one a new type of commodity or commodity in both the Birmingham manufacturers and workers. Their hands still, inevitably they touch their share in its manufacture.

That is why there are 2,200 trades in Birmingham—more than in any other town in the world. It explains why there are only 48 per cent of Birmingham's population in the town now unemployed.

Anything from the most delicate silk spring of a $200 wrist watch to a 200-ton railway bridge girder is turned out in Birmingham as an ordinary job. Work for an extra 20,000 was found in the town last year.

A LIGHT SMOKE

OF RICH, RIPE-BODIED TOBACCO

All kinds of people choose Luckies, each for reasons of his own. But everyone agrees that Luckies are a Light Smoke of rich, ripe-bodied tobacco. It is a rather surprising fact that the leaves of the same tobacco plant may vary far more than the leaves from plants of quite different types. Chemical analysis shows that the top leaves contain excess alkalies which tend to give a harsh, alkaline taste. The bottom leaves tend to acidity in the smoke. It is only the center leaves which approach in nature the most palatable, acid-alkaline balance. In Lucky Strike Cigarettes, the center leaves are used.

ICKES, WALLACE FIGHT FOR LAND

Both Cabinet Members Desire Control Put Under Own Departments

By HALPH W. OLMSTED WASHINGTON (Special)—Secretary Ickes is suggesting to various senators that they introduce bills to include all unappropriated public domain within their respective states under the Taylor grazing law.

Ickes and Wallace have been battling for some time. Whenever a bill is introduced to add lands to a national forest Ickes opposes it. Whenever one is introduced to add lands to a national forest Wallace supports it.

In general, the Taylor grazing act "frees" grazing privileges and when once a man gets on the range his grazing privileges cannot be reduced. The forest service, on the other hand, can reduce grazing privileges for redistribution for a more judicious protection.

From the standpoint of small stockmen and farmers the forest service position seems the more desirable. The Wallace-Ickes feud should reach the floor of congress within the month.

SENATORS BUSY

Some people wonder if senators are busy. We are advised that they are. They are handling about 1,000,000 letters a day in addition to 500,000 pieces of legislation. They also handle about 250 calls per hour. Forty-two thousand telegrams are received daily by government officials.

HOLES SAVED

The long struggle of the Hotel Washington of Weiser, Idaho, to escape bankruptcy appears to be approaching a happy conclusion. About two months ago the RFC to the hotel outstanding indebtedness and make necessary repairs on the hotel was turned down by the RFC board because no distress was shown.

Bank Has Mortgage

The First National Bank of Idaho has about $20,000 mortgage on the property. The RFC said Idaho First National is a solvent open lending institution; let it take care of the hotel. Through the First National bank, Senator Pope went to Jesse Jones, RFC's capable czar, and demanded something to be done.

PERMITS NEEDED TO DON APPAREL

SYDNEY, N. S. W. (AP)—In Papua, natives must obtain a permit from the administration before they may wear any clothing. Mr. Hubert Murray, lieutenant-governor of Papua, has announced that a Papuan must show that he understands the correct use of clothing, and the need for constant washing to prevent disease before a permit is granted. The danger is that the simple natives are fond of gathering furs of European clothing and wear them, allowing them to rot and become vermin-infested, wearing them, leading to disease.

Some people wonder if senators are busy. We are advised that they are. They are handling about 1,000,000 letters a day in addition to 500,000 pieces of legislation. They also handle about 250 calls per hour. Forty-two thousand telegrams are received daily by government officials.

TESTS MINIMIZE LEPROSY HAZARD

Experiments Hint Disease Very Probably Not Contagious, Experts Say

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP)—Efforts to save lives by the causative organisms of leprosy have virtually established the fact that the disease is not contagious.

That is the conclusion of Dr. A. J. Sells, assistant professor of bacteriology at the University of California. Taking as a basis for his work clinical tests that had been made at the Kaula Leprosy Hospital on the outskirts of Honolulu, Dr. Sells successfully checked them for six months at this federal laboratory.

The original experiments at the Honolulu institute were directed toward leprosy and the causative organism of leprosy for a sufficient long period to study its development and possibilities of treatment. Along these lines considerable progress has been made.

It was these experiments that Dr. Sells rechecked at Carville, N. C. He took from 11 subjects not only produced the same results in each case, but identical results with those obtained at Honolulu.

The organisms removed from living subjects by Dr. Sells were placed in embryonic chicken tissue culture. These embryos were drawn from fertile eggs, prepared by mixing and converted into a liquid culture.

The leprosy organisms were placed in this culture and have survived there, thus giving opportunity for definite identification and the possible development of a cure.

Efforts to inoculate leprosy germs in human beings and animals by the usual means for the most part have been unsuccessful.

It is this fact that has established the conclusion that the disease probably is not contagious.

While medication in leprosy has been widely different and generally discouraging, it is believed that as a result of the present experiments in keeping the organism alive under laboratory conditions progress can now be made in the curative field.

ITALY DEVELOPS SCREEN PLAYERS

National Program Will Assist in Training of Actors and Actresses

"ROME (AP)—Students are being selected for the Royal Academy for Dramatic Art, sponsored by the ministries of press and propaganda and public education to develop young school of stage and screen actors.

The new academy replaces by royal decree the Royal Institute of the school, popularly referred to in Italy as the "Eleonora Duse."

In addition to the new academy touring stock companies will be financed by the government to give actors experience and keep employment in theatrical ranks to a minimum.

The academy and stock companies will be utilized to recruit young actors and actresses in large numbers will be required when the new academy is to be started in Europe.

Completed here next year, Maestro Silvio D'Amico has been appointed director of the academy. He has selected a staff of instructors and coaches from among the best Italian artists.

Subjects to be offered include recitation, dancing, gymnastics, history of the theater, fencing, transformation exercises, film direction, photography, scenario writing, styles and history of fashion. Other subjects are to be added.

A little theater is to be opened in connection with the academy. Periodic public performances will be offered, in which instructors will play the leading parts, while students cast in secondary roles.

Students will advance to important parts as their courses and performances warrant. Certificate of graduation which permit students to enroll in the traveling stock companies or engage in motion picture work will be granted.

A few specially selected graduates will also receive traveling scholarships, especially those engaged in motion picture work.

Known leading directors, writers and photographers of the screen will be invited to Rome to lecture and demonstrate their art.

Defenbach Speaks At Hagerman Club

HAGERMAN, March 5 (Special)—Byron Defenbach spoke at the Hagerman Townsend club meeting Monday at the Re-Organized L. D. S. church. He outlined the history and causes of the world depression and the reason for the sales tax and transaction tax.

He stated that the Townsend plan was a cheap depression policy. He did not allipate the amount he thought should be paid each annulant, but stated that should be arranged later after the law has passed and ready.

The Hagerman Townsend band furnished music. A large crowd attended.

EDUCATORS PLAN HAWAII MEETING

Conference at Honolulu Will Offer Chance to Study Racial Mingling

HONOLULU (AP)—Educators and scholars representing a score of nations will convene this week at the University of Hawaii, to study the problem of racial mingling.

The scholars, who will be joined by delegates from the United States, Hawaii and other nations, will hold a series of conferences on education in Pacific countries, from June 30 to Aug. 7.

Delegates will discuss the racial, cultural and educational problems which have arisen from the contact of peoples and nations.

The scholars will be joined by delegates from the United States, Hawaii and other nations, will hold a series of conferences on education in Pacific countries, from June 30 to Aug. 7.

There is no permanent water supply in the dry season in most of the Pacific islands, and the water situation is a serious problem.

Subjects to be reviewed range from language problems and local economies to anthropological and psychological.

Firsthand Study. Representatives will have opportunity to study firsthand the mingling of races, since Hawaii's population is a veritable "melange of nations," including Japanese, Chinese, Korean, Samoan, Puerto Rican, Portuguese, American, English and many other peoples.

The seminar will be held in conjunction with the regular summer session of the University of Hawaii and is expected to draw students of world renown.

Burley Working for New Mail Service

BURLEY, March 5 (Special)—Encouraging prospects toward a better mail service here are indicated through telegraphic advice received today by Dan L. McGrath, secretary of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, from Rep. D. Worth Clark.

Efforts are being made to arrange for the Union Pacific bus system to take up outgoing mail here at 9 p. m. on route over highway 50 south to Ogden and Salt Lake City... This would insure up to a 24-hour swifter transmission of mail both east and west while under the present method Burley has only one daily receiving service by rail.

Rep. Clark's wife said she had taken matter up with office department and urged approval for expenditure of necessary funds for change of service from railroad to bus. Department advises they have no word from field relative to this proposal. Department getting report from field immediately. Will do everything possible to get better service for Burley. Will appreciate further advice on future developments.

C.C.C. Crews Build Camp Swim Pool

HAGERMAN, March 5 (Special)—In addition to road work now being done by the C.C.C. crews, a swimming pool has been constructed at the Hagerman camp.

The pool is large enough to accommodate all the boys wishing to swim. It was constructed 10 feet from the shower room and was made by damming a tributary of Hillingery with a 10 foot dam.

The crews have practically completed the road from the Oweley bridge to the Glenns Ferry cross road on Indian ridge and the road from the Hillingery south to the top of the hill. Graveling will start on this road next week.
