ROOSEVELT 1936 PLANKS EMERGE AS TESTS NEAR

Platform Takes Gradual Shape With Two More Primaries Scheduled Tuesday

MAPS FUTURE POLICIES

Address at New York Avoids Personalities and Charts New Deal Issues

By LYLE C. WILSON
WASHINGTON, April 27 (U.S.)—President Roosevelt's 1936 model New Deal platform began to shape itself before the campaign speeches at this selection yesterday, pointed toward primary tests in Pennsylvania and Massachusetts.

The President has sketched some essentials of his platform in two essential speeches. He will add to them in early June during a pre-convention speaking tour through Indiana, Arkansas and Texas. On June 27 at Philadelphia—it is safe to predict—the formally adopted platform of the Democratic party will be endorsed and interpreted by Mr. Roosevelt at ceremonies at which he will accept renomination for the presidency.

At a recent Baltimore speech and the address last Saturday in New York provided Mr. Roosevelt with several choices. He could have ripped into his opposition and advised the walk-out brigade of Democratic followers to run—but the President avoided personalities and lay down future policies to be carried out by the New Deal wing.

See 1936 Mandate.
Republican critics see the end of "breathless" Roosevelt program as it is taking shape. Observers generally believe Mr. Roosevelt would accept a "1936 Mandate" to continue with so-called experimental New Deal policies.

At the New York address, Mr. Roosevelt said he would continue with the New Deal program.

U. S. NAVY SHIPS SLIP OUT TO SEA

Aircraft Carrier Leads Parade From San Diego to Secret War Game Maneuvers

SAN DIEGO, Calif., April 27 (U.S.)—The aircraft carrier USS Ranger, her leading deck boat and other auxiliaries, slipped out to sea at 7:45 a. m. today, the first large fleet of local units to depart for spring "war game" maneuvers off Panama.

Carrying speed under a low hanging fog, the Ranger pointed out to sea from Coronado rocks to rendezvous with battle vessels of this and the San Pedro fleet. From the time the ships disappeared from sight, the fleet's movements will be a close-knit secret of high naval officials. The maneuvers, previously scheduled for May, have been barred and only informal news will be available from official naval dispatches.

IMPORTANT MANEUVER
WASHINGTON, April 27 (U.S.)—Departure of the United States fleet from California bases for maneuvers off the west coast of Panama is the most important phase of the navy's big summer plan for protection of this country and its possessions.

As usual, the movements of the fleet after it leaves California will be kept out of the public eye. Navy command-in-chief of the fleet and chief-of-staff of the war games will lead the fleet. The fleet will leave the coast of California in a series of maneuvers, which are known to the war game division of the navy as "Problem 1."

Smaller Area Marked
It is unlikely that in general the all-around efficiency of the navy's first line of defense, the fleet, will be tested in the maneuvers of the fleet last year, when it was the power of the navy to defend the coast of the west coast, the 1936 games will be held over a comparatively small area.

Court Withholds Coal Act Verdict
WASHINGTON, April 27 (U.S.)—The supreme court, after rendering a significant opinion upholding the power of the secretary of agriculture in fixing stockyard fees, failed to hand down the decision on the Guffey coal control act.

Failure to decide the Guffey act case today may be a test of the court's decision on the coal control act.

It means that at least 21 days will have to elapse before presentation of the opinion and the new argument on constitutionality of the Guffey law began.

Jersey's Idle Camp in Capitol

Threatening to remain camped in the assembly hall of the state house at Trenton, N. By THE PRESS
TRENTON, N. J., April 27 (U.S.)—A left-wing victory and, in particular, a surprising one, among Communists, Socialists, and other radicals, was the election of a "left-wing" national committee for members of the chamber of deputies.

It was certain also that the new chamber would be almost unmanageable because of conflict among the parties comprising the left-wing popular front.

A complete official tabulation of the 618 voting districts in France and the colonies showed 170 elected, distributed as follows: Left-Communists, 9; Socialists, 10; Joseph Paul-Boncompagni's division, 10; Independent and Republican Socialists, 22; Independent radical, 14.

MURDER HEARING UNDERWAY HERE

Prosecution Offers Evidence Against Woman Accused of Slaying Negro

Two-Nominee for President Says Only Solution Is Socialistic Plan

providing decent housing for the third of the population needing it. "The Republicans are the only ones who would like to believe Roosevelt is a Socialist," Thomas stated.

He credited the present national administration with a sincere desire to help—but cautioned that economic security in this country cannot be secured without socialization of industry, stopping of war and securing the balance of the capitalist system.

Hila Townsend Plan

Thomas took no encouragement to the Townsend Old Age revolving pension plan, declaring that payment of $200 monthly to people for not working by transactions tax would be impossible under the present system. Under the Townsend plan, he said, seven percent of the people would be drawing from 40 to 60 percent of the national income. "People would draw this pay while they were working, instead of after," he added.

He denounced the social justice of the Democratic administration, the increasing appropriations for armament, the continued unemployment and New Deal legislation including the N. R. and the A. A. A. Had the supreme court ruled on the latter soon after they were enacted, there would have been no trouble in this country. He praised the T. V. A. but said it had neither increased wages nor shortened hours of labor in the territory affected.

New Deal "Fiasco"

"The New Deal should be spoken of in the past tense," he said, and described it as "an attempt to reform and change the capitalist system," adding that "some parts of it are very good."

"The New Deal is dead," he said, "but you did not say that Roosevelt would not be re-elected. The election of Roosevelt to the New Deal on the part of the American people is gone."

Turning to the supreme court, he declared that the real government of the U. S. was vested in the supreme court, which he said was a government of, by and for the people.

He proposed at least two changes to the U. S. constitution, one of which would provide for the direct election of the President, and the other to include additional civil rights for farmers and workers.

Thomas denounced William Francis Hearst and his "reluctant vice press," and asked for a showing of hands on the part of those favoring the Hearst case, expressing pleasure that his audience exhibited a greater knowledge of the fact than is customary.

He praised cooperatives and said the signs he saw on Route 90, indicating there was a cooperative oil company in this country were encouraging.

At the conclusion of his remarks he was asked questions, and his answers included criticisms of Father Coughlin, Upton Sinclair and Communism.

RAPS BORAH DRIVE

BOISE, April 27 (Special)—Norman Thomas, number one man of American Socialism, described William F. Borah's battle against monopoly as futile and outmoded in a speech here yesterday.

The Socialist party's two-time presidential candidate speaks today at Idaho Falls and Pocatello en route to his New York home.

Thomas said that old-line political parties' failure to solve farm and unemployment problems gave impetus to the growth of Fascist and dictatorship forces in the United States.

"That great American, Borah of Idaho, is battling vainly against monopoly. But it is too late, when we look now in monopoly government monopoly..."

But will operate to the ends of power, plenty and freedom will be handed to the masses."

OFFERS PLAN

Norman Thomas, twice candidate for the presidency on the Socialist ticket, outlined his solution of America's economic problems in an address here Sunday. He envisioned war and fascism unless the Socialist program is applied in time to halt present trends, and declared that Roosevelt is not a Socialist, despite Republican charges. He fired at both major political parties.

MRS. BURKHALTERS ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED
The engagement of Miss Eva Burkhalter, daughter of Mrs. Teresa Burkhalter, and Donald Wayne Armstrong, Spokane, son of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Armstrong, Dayton, Wash., was announced yesterday afternoon at an attractive musical tea given at the Burkhalter home on Elm street by Mrs. Burkhalter and Mrs. Effie Hinton. The wedding is scheduled for early June.

During the afternoon the program included two vocal solos, "L'Amour, Toujours L'Amour" and "The Falling in Love With Someone" by Miss Jean Bicketts, Jerome; a Chopin number by Mrs. Burkhalter and a waltz by Chopin played by Miss Maxine Buckentin; "Until," and "Liebestraum," sung by Mrs. J. E. Cress; dance music by Marie Merritt and Rhonda Phillips; two harmonica solos by Mrs. J. H. Barnes, and an original composition by Mrs. Hinton dedicated to Miss Burkhalter.

An interesting feature of the event was the arrival of a bouquet of Ophelia and tallsmans roses tied with satin ribbon and containing the engagement ring. The gift of Mr. Armstrong to Miss Burkhalter during the ceremony of the afternoon the flowers graced the taper-lit tea table. Presiding at the service were Mrs. Lulu Barclay, Burley, and Mrs. Lulu Barclay, Burley, and for the second hour Mrs. Ethel Gray and Mrs. Edythe Connor, Jerome, presided. The rooms were trimmed with white lilies, the gift of a school friend of Mrs. Burkhalter living in California, and lilacs and carnations were corsages sent by Miss J. H. Burkhalter, Portland.

The event was attended by about 60 persons from Twin Falls, Burley, Jerome, Kimberly and Buhl.

Howe was just as much to Mr. Roosevelt, during the last campaign and the first White House year, as you have heard. # BROWNS LOOM AS TROUBLE-MAKERS FOR FLAG CONTENDERS

BARELY LOSE 16 IN RAGING FRAY, 8-7

Rajah Hornsby's Lads Score League-Leading Indians; Tigers Nip Chisox

NEW YORK, April 27.—Once again, Rogers Hornsby and his team came close to striking terror into the hearts of Chicago fans by defeating the Chicago Cubs in a game that was a tightly pitched battle. The Browns, noted trouble-makers for pennant contending teams, virtually eliminated the New York Yankees by winning a crucial series near the end of the 1935 season.

However, the Browns have worried that the going may not be so easy for them this year by winning two of the first four games played.

Always a Threat
Despite Hornsby's lack of a strong pitching staff, there is not one American league manager who can match the tactically brilliant and always a threat to the Browns with his degree of accuracy that the Browns' periodic inspired young pitcher can break up a tight ball game with a barrage of base hits in the ninth inning.

The Browns gave the league-leading Cleveland Indians such a scare yesterday by tying up the score in the ninth, then carrying the game 10 innings by an error of the Indians' catcher, Relle Hemley, on an attempted play, allowing the Browns to score and finally win 8-7.

Pitchers' Duel
Dismissing an early four-run lead, the Indians' ace, shortstop, Lynn Lary, single drive over the run that tied it up in the ninth. Hornsby sent his fifth pitcher, Walkup, to the mound and the 15,000 spectators saw him engage Lary in a pitching duel that was one of the best of the season.

Just to end up the day's play and prove he knew what to do with a golf club, McGinnis got three birdies his final nine holes of play. Score of 33 first hole.

In the Edmunds, Chapin, Taber and Roberts foursome, Bert started out at 10, though he was going to be paring the first hole. "I know a lot of boys would like my 42," he said.

Paul Taber was all burnt up, paring four holes the first nine, and then he changed his mind. Some lucky duck like Roberts was bound to win in a few holes from winning. Observed Paul, "That's a shot for a good player, Dick."

The last two tees ended up in a tie. Paul Dieler and W. Arnold, and Dr. Tolson and Dr. Fred, boys ahead of them gathered all the birdies.

Jimmie Sinclair is quite as good as, as well as a golfer. With a score of 10, he was paring out a beautiful drive to his ball for the first time in a long time. "It didn't go down by the Railroad Track," he said. "It went over the railroad track. That was his face red."

Believe it or not, but Harry Shultz won a golf match. He, that fellow just panned it with his club. He was playing the Prince Pinner. Harry was just shooting "em high, wide and away." Upper bracket for Harry.

Some very good golf had been turned in the past few days. Grand budget continues to hold the low-hanging score with a snappy 34, two under par.

A large crowd was in the hole. All the boys and girls, players from Boise, Idaho, Utah and Montana were among the out-of-town players.

Nose Out Glenns Ferry With Victory in Final Event at Sub-District

GOODING, April 27 (Special).—Tough in the 880-yard relay, but on the program, gave Jerome a close victory over the Glens Ferry team in the final event at Sub-District.

Glenns Ferry, who scored 234 points, won the relay with 23.4 points. Gooding scored third with 22.4, and Wendell was fourth with 21.4. King Hill scored 20.4, and Richfield 19.4.

Individual high score went to Pasburg. Glenns Ferry, who scored 1.10.50, was runner-up. Glenns Ferry, with next with 1.11.00. Winners of first and second places, qualified for the district meet at Butte, Friday, April 28.

The tie for second place between Campbell and Williamson was broken by a tie in the 100 and 200 yard races. Williamson won the 100 yard race, and Campbell won the 200 yard race.

Harry Denton and Jim Winterbottom went two over par for a 74. Two birdies were the best they could do.

Dr. Fox, of Elmer, and Dale Whitman, two young players, gave a good account of themselves by coming in with a 76. Two birdies were in their favor. Sprouts Leichter and Jack King were next in line with a snappy 81. Not bad for two old gentlemen.

BAD BREAKS IN BUNCHES

Joe Cronin's Double Header

With the Oakland Oaks' four and a half game Pacific Coast League lead apparently safe for at least another week, the Seattle Indians and the Mission Reds lock horns this week in a battle for possession of the second bracket.

Four and a half games behind the driving Oaks, Seattle held their position by a one game margin at the conclusion of the week's league play Sunday.

Win Double-Header
The Indians edged ahead of the struggling Reds by defeating the Mission Reds in both ends of a double-header at Seattle Sunday. They swamped the Reds 10-1 in the first game, then edged out a 5-0 victory in the second.

The dual victory gave the north-ers a 4-0 margin in their first series of the season. The Portland Beavers followed the Indians' undying, winning up the Beavers by splitting a Sunday double-header and taking four games to the Reds' two.

Home runs featured the first clash at Portland which the Beavers won, 6-4. Goldie Holt smacked a homer with two outs in the third to start the Portland bombardment. Moose Clabaugh smacked a homer with two outs in the sixth and wound up the scoring when he homered in the eighth, with two on base.

Veteran Holl Thurston won his own game as the Mission annexed the second 3-1. Limiting the Beavers to seven hits, Thurston came to bat with the score tied in the ninth and batted a home run to win the game. The Oaks' first series of the season was a 3-1 victory over the Reds.

Win First Series
Sacramento won its first series of the season by taking the Oakland Oaks in five games. The Oaks' first series of the season was a 3-1 victory over the Reds.

SEATTLE INDIANS WIN DOUBLE BILL

Northlanders Take Second Spot But Face Week's Battle Against Missions

By United Press
With the Oakland Oaks' four and a half game Pacific Coast League lead apparently safe for at least another week, the Seattle Indians and the Mission Reds lock horns this week in a battle for possession of the second bracket.

Four and a half games behind the driving Oaks, Seattle held their position by a one game margin at the conclusion of the week's league play Sunday.

Win Double-Header
The Indians edged ahead of the struggling Reds by defeating the Mission Reds in both ends of a double-header at Seattle Sunday. They swamped the Reds 10-1 in the first game, then edged out a 5-0 victory in the second.

The dual victory gave the north-ers a 4-0 margin in their first series of the season. The Portland Beavers followed the Indians' undying, winning up the Beavers by splitting a Sunday double-header and taking four games to the Reds' two.

Home runs featured the first clash at Portland which the Beavers won, 6-4. Goldie Holt smacked a homer with two outs in the third to start the Portland bombardment. Moose Clabaugh smacked a homer with two outs in the sixth and wound up the scoring when he homered in the eighth, with two on base.

Veteran Holl Thurston won his own game as the Mission annexed the second 3-1. Limiting the Beavers to seven hits, Thurston came to bat with the score tied in the ninth and batted a home run to win the game. The Oaks' first series of the season was a 3-1 victory over the Reds.

ROOSEVELT 1936 PLANKS EMERGE

"horse and buggy" interpretations of the constitution has not ended even though it may not be given direct emphasis in the Democratic campaign. On the basis of the two speeches, Mr. Roosevelt's 1936 platform appears to include these planks:

Limited Work Week

1. National action for a limited work week, stable employment and adequate minimum wages.

2. Encouragement of higher minimum and lower maximum working hours to remove juvenile and senile labor from payrolls.
