JUSTICE SPEAKS ON DELINQUENCY

Given Outlines Program and Remedies Before P. T. A. Council Here

Judge Raymond Green, justice of the supreme court, spoke at the P. T. A. Council of Parent-Teacher associations last evening at the Presbyterian church. He was introduced by Mrs. John E. Hayes. His appearance was in keeping with the policy of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers which is this year emphasizing character education.

In the opinion of Judge Green, the home and then the school play the most important part in the prevention of juvenile delinquency which has its largest percentage among children who leave school at an early age.

Little Chief Justice Green said poverty, alcoholism and narcotics, unfavorable heredity, and general environmental conditions are the principal causes for delinquency.

As agencies affording children a desirable outlet for adventure, Judge Green recommended supervised playgrounds. He emphasized the parents' responsibility in selecting wisely the type of movies for their children to see, and condemn by statistics that he was one of the first states to have juvenile delinquent laws, and officers trained to children's problems.

The girls' give club of the local high school, under the direction of Mrs. Garance Saunders, sang two numbers.

MINISTER TAKES GOSPEL TO ROAD

Modern Traveling Friar Goes to Auto Camps and Hobo Hangouts

NEW ORLEANS, April 29.—A modern, traveling friar, the only one in the Episcopal church of America, the Rev. William M. Partridge, is spreading the gospel along the highways and back roads of America.

Now 61, he has gained robust health from his wanderings after pacifism were apprehensive over a grave heart ailment four years ago.

The minister gave up his parish work near Boston and set forth in an old automobile and with his terrier. Spot. He has traveled 20,000 miles in 48 states, preaching, ministering in hobo camps and cañonals, without financial assistance. There are no funds in his church for such a mission.

Full of kindness, the minister has found "What is more significant," he said, "people are hungry for God, especially the hobo folk and the poor, irrespective of race, condition or religious affiliations."

"I have camped with them all along the roadside," he said, "and I have found that they are not so far from God as we think. They are hungry for God, and they are not so far from God as we think."

Born in Brooklyn and educated in New England, the Rev. Partridge was a missionary in the Alaskan gold rush under the famous Bishop Rowe. In the World War he was a navy chaplain and gave to the government his invention, a hydroplane, that could evacuate observers at sea from vessels too small to send up kite balloons.

"I took up this work," said the minister, "first for the honor of Christ, secondly in memory of my oldest brother, the late Right Rev. Sidney Partridge, bishop of the Kansas City diocese, and thirdly to bring some of the joy of the gospel to people whom religion affects like an attack of indigestion."

Dog Food Issue Invades Politics

WASHINGTON, April 30 (Special).—The question of whether dog food is just plain food for dogs or a burning 1936 political campaign issue has arisen today.

The dog food issue, tossed into the realm of national politics by Sen. Lester J. Dickinson, R., Iowa, was picked up by agriculture department officials and Charles Wesley Dunn, former dog cannery association executive.

Dickinson charged New Deal conditions were so bad that dogs were eating thousands of quantities of canned dog food because they couldn't afford pork and beans.

He disputes it. Dunn, who said he had been told by a very reliable source, said: "There's never been an investigation that I know of to determine to what extent it was used by humans—and I think I'd know if there ever had been such an investigation."

Where Does It Go
Dickinson persisted, however, in his questions of "What became of all the 125,000,000 pounds of inspected dog food canned in this country each year?"

To suggestions that maybe the fed to dogs, Dickinson laughed. He told the senate post persons eat 100,000,000 pounds of it and that dogs only get the scraps.

KIMBERLY

Mrs. C. E. Dorland and Miss Norma Neville returned to Buhl City Monday after spending several days at the home of Mrs. Dorland's sister, Mrs. W. L. A. on Eighth street. The Dorland brothers lay the concrete. The road bed has been widened and substantial improvements made at this point after pointing the part 10 days in Pocatello.

Go-Getters

HOLD Appears to Want Its Collectors to Behave Like Supermen

WASHINGTON, April 30 (Special).—The H.O.L.C. revealed today that its bill collectors—hired to get their $3,000,000,000 government loan home owners—must be go-getters, with a capital G.

"They have to be 'clear thinkers,' with lots of energy, persuasive, patient, impartial, firm, commanders of respect, diplomatists, and willing to acknowledge mistakes." These are other requirements for the administration's force of super-collectors.

When they come across a tough customer who won't pay up, the handbook says, they must arrange for an interview with him, and possibly his wife and children. At this interview the collectors must win the borrower's confidence, the book said.

"Maintain a firm, but friendly and sympathetic attitude," it added. "You should be thoughtful, patient and persistent, exhibit a complete understanding of the borrower's situation and be tactful and diplomatic in discussing problems."

Don't Fight
The H.O.L.C. warned its agents specially against "getting into fights with the customer."

"Above all things you should not enter into any controversial discussion, political, religious, commercial or domestic," it said. "No argument over results in an improvement of condition of an account."

The bill collectors must not carry their sympathy too far, the world's largest lending corporation continued. It said its representatives "should be careful not to create an impression that the corporation is in any way responsible for the borrower's difficulty."

Here's How
If any customer won't pay, if he's been affected by propaganda, or if he assumes "government paternalism," the instructions urged the agent to lead him into his three-point argument:

A.—The corporation is the trustee for the bondholders.
B.—The bondholders are citizens.

C.—The corporation cannot afford to be lenient where it is not warranted.
If the borrower's interest in saving his home waning, the book said the agent should appeal to his self-respect, his honor, and his responsibility to his family.

Some borrowers have bought houses too big for them to afford. The H.O.L.C. recommended that either they take in roomers, move to cheaper quarters and rent out their houses, or sell it.

Finally the H.O.L.C. pointed its agents to:

If the borrower's interest in saving his home waning, the book said the agent should appeal to his self-respect, his honor, and his responsibility to his family.

Some borrowers have bought houses too big for them to afford. The H.O.L.C. recommended that either they take in roomers, move to cheaper quarters and rent out their houses, or sell it.

Finally the H.O.L.C. pointed its agents to:

of Accessories

Announcement in made of the opening here Saturday of Twin Falls' newest business firm, the Morrison Auto Supply Co., at 426 Main avenue south, in one of the business buildings owned by W. P. French, who will continue in business in adjacent property.

The Morrison firm will handle a complete line of auto accessories, including tires and auto parts, according to A. W. Morrison, president, Salt Lake City, head of Morrison & Co., a similar establishment which has been located in the Utah metropolis for 30 years. The company also has a store in Ogden.

In charge of the local store as manager will be S. T. Morrison who has been here assisting in preparing for the opening.

It is stressed that the firm is an Idaho corporation employing Idaho people, and Mr. Morrison said that it was because of the faith of his company in Twin Falls that this new Idaho venture is made.

The building has undergone some interior remodeling, and redecoration, and the front has been given an attractive coating of paint. A complete stock is being installed and the most modern of accessory fixtures are being used.

Popular prices will prevail throughout the store, according to the management.

The Farmers Auto Supply Co., operated by W. P. French, will continue in its adjoining location, and will feature spring and wheeling work, both wholesale and retail, it is stated.

TAX BILL MOVES INTO HOT BATTLE

Measure Bounces from House to Flery Reception in Upper Chamber

In consideration of the house measure, if necessary to meet the president's request.

Morganthau, who was criticized for his failure to appear before the house committee handling the bill, and Commissioner of Internal Revenue Guy T. Helvering were the first witnesses before the senate committee.

Faces Hot Assault
Despite predictions that the senate would speedily enact a satisfactory measure, the bill met with the fiercest opposition at the senate floor, where the committee hopes to take the bill within two weeks, the drastic revision of corporate taxes was expected to draw the heaviest fire from the Republicans.

In addition, Sen. Robert M. La Follette, P., Wis., plans to renew his long battle to force normalcy and order upon individual incomes under $20,000. He expects to offer his proposal as an amendment.

Revelation of the measure by the Democratic leadership appeared unlikely, although there was talk of reviving a proposal for processing taxes spread over perhaps 20 commodities.

ASSAILS SHELL

WASHINGTON, April 30 (AP)—Rep. Bertrand Shell was named as an old guard "reactionary" and one of the permanent obstacles of the Republican national convention demanded today by Ralph H. Burdette, a New York delegate.

Burdette denounced "selection of Shell to preside at the convention and demand for removal from control of the old guard Republican group which led the party to defeat in 1932."

MAX BAER WILL BE BAND LEADER

Announces He'll Lead Dance
Orchestra With Buddy
As Crooner

SACRAMENTO, Calif., April 29.—Max Baer was due to reach Los Angeles today where he will return to public life in a new role. Max, who departed Sacramento yesterday with a "musical" union card in his pocket.

He announced he will become a band leader, although he plays no musical instrument.

The band he will lead, Maxie Baer, was organized by Carlos Casado and was reported to have been stranded in southern California after putting in 10 weeks at labor camp when Gus Arnheim, a musician and band leader of considerable standing, refused to go on the road with the organization.

Proposes Tour
Ancil Hoffman, Maxie's manager, is backing him on a proposed tour of the Pacific coast.

If the 14-piece dance orchestra achieves popular favor in the west, Max said, he will ship it east to crash the big time.

Max, a 210-pound younger brother, Buddy, who was recently routed badly defeated at Oakland by a boxer known as Andre Langford, will go along with the orchestra as crooner.

Various Effects
Max himself, it was indicated, does not intend to leaving the band. He does dancing, tap dancing and a bit of acting and may even put on some shadow boxing.

MOTORISTS FACE MONOXIDE PERIL

CHICAGO (AP)—If a person suffers from headache, dizziness or nausea while driving, he probably is inhaling a bit of carbon monoxide gas, according to Prof. Lawrence A. Clouting, of the Northwestern university, Evanston, Ill.

An inspection of 200 cars stopped at random along highways revealed that one out of every two contained traces of the gas, indicating a potential danger.

Small concentrations of carbon monoxide breathed for an hour or two can produce headache, nausea and impaired judgment, yet the driver will not be aware of this condition, the engineer said.

He recommended frequent and careful inspections of automobile exhaust systems and an occasional pause to exercise in fresh air.

The average weight of an elephant is about five tons.

75,000 MAY SEE KENTUCKY DERBY

Largest Crowd in History is Forecast; Brevity Rules as Solid Favorite

LOUISVILLE, Ky., April 30 (AP)—With the glory and glamour of the Kentucky derby, greatest of all American turf classics, only two days away, the outlook today for the biggest crowd in history, the fastest spending through since the depression and a solid favorite to best in the big race.

Col. Matt Winn, 74-year-old proprietor of Churchill Downs, predicts that 75,000 persons will see the running of the derby Saturday.

See High Betting The betting will reach the $1,500,000 mark, in Col. Winn's estimate. Last year's crowd was the biggest since 1911.

The horse to beat is Brevity, owned by Joseph E. Widener, New York sportsman who has never won the derby. Misfortune has befallen Brevity many years, but the shrewd horsemen believe it will take a catastrophe to sidetrack Brevity.

A probable field of 15 will go to the post for the Kentucky derby, the first of the season, with Brevity, the $400,000 purse being practically a sure thing.

When Col. E. R. Bradley, who has won four derbies and won the $1,500,000 purse, is in the race, charges, virtually conceding the race to another horse, it's time to bet on Brevity, says Colonel Bradley.

Other expert horsemen echo Bradley's opinion. The odds on Brevity are 10 to 1.

The league leading Oakland Oaks were hauled down another notch by the basement-outgoing, the second straight, when they took their second straight victory by a 4-3 score Wednesday.

At the same time, the lowly Sacramento Senators, long labeled as the higher-ups by upstaging the San Francisco Seals 10 to 1.

The Angels' second win seriously jeopardized the Acoras' hold on the top spot, and came as a considerable surprise after the mediocre showing of Jacques Lelievre's team in previous appearances.

At San Francisco, Sacramento's Maywood Belcher held the Seals, his first win in the derby, but the Seals, who had been the favorite, were knocked out by the Seals in the second inning.

At Portland, the San Diego Padres edged the series by edging the Angels 16 hits and rolling up a 10 to 3 margin over the Braves.

HONOLULU—SALT FLATS, Hawaii, April 30 (AP)—Captain George Eyston, British sportsman, today looked forward to setting new records to go with those established yesterday in two trials with his Diesel-powered car.

Eyston drove his three-wheeled flying machine across Utah's salt flats at 158.07 miles an hour through the flying mile and 158.09 miles in the hour for the flying mile, but a hangup on a new two-wheel record.

The new marks were established on the six-mile straightaway where Sir Malcolm Campbell has posted a record of 140.76 miles an hour in his gasoline-powered car.

Eyston and his planned to replace the Ricardo Diesel power plant given him by the British government for experimental work with a Rolls-Royce gasoline engine and go over circular track record.

Eyston said he would not race again for at least 10 days.

This Prophet Vows He'll Choose Kentucky Derby Winner for You

By HENRY McLEMORE LOUISVILLE, Ky., April 30 (AP)—Sage, like Col. Williams, goes to the head. I say that because I have enjoyed both the Kentucky Derby and the Kentucky Derby a year ago.

It's been a year since I named the big son of Godwin, Fox, come hanging down the wire in front, but I haven't gotten over it. Perhaps that's because Omaha is the only winner I ever called in advance.

People wrote letters and sent me a check for $100,000. I was given it as a crop corrective, and success when I named Omaha as the winner of the Kentucky Derby a year ago.

I've told to repeat it. I've told to repeat it. I've told to repeat it. I've told to repeat it. I've told to repeat it.

I've told to repeat it. I've told to repeat it. I've told to repeat it. I've told to repeat it. I've told to repeat it.

PACIFIC COAST LEAGUE

By United Press

San Francisco, April 30 (AP)—The Pacific Coast League today opened its season with a 10 to 3 victory over the Los Angeles Angels.

The league leading Oakland Oaks were hauled down another notch by the basement-outgoing, the second straight, when they took their second straight victory by a 4-3 score Wednesday.

At the same time, the lowly Sacramento Senators, long labeled as the higher-ups by upstaging the San Francisco Seals 10 to 1.

The Angels' second win seriously jeopardized the Acoras' hold on the top spot, and came as a considerable surprise after the mediocre showing of Jacques Lelievre's team in previous appearances.

The taste of our Family's Whiskey seems to have got everybody going!

I just can't get over how this Family's Whiskey of ours has got hold. Even when we get asked over to drop in on folks that are mighty well on, and can afford to pay a whole lot more for their whiskey, it appears they're finding The Wilken Family Whiskey more to their liking than any other.

Well, that just goes to show. People that are real well fixed don't see any sense in paying out a lot if they can get something they like for less money. After all, this Family's Recipe of ours ought to be good. It's got everything that goes into the Wilken Family Whiskey more found out about making whiskey right and smooth.

EVERY DAY SHOULD BE MOTHER'S DAY

Mother's Day will soon be upon us, the date being Sunday, May 10.

Right now isn't too early to be preparing for it, to write letters, which will reach their destination if Mother lives in a foreign land, or to procure gifts if they are to be shipped.

A little interest in the matter will help to spread Mother's Day sentiment out over a longer period, and not just for one day of all the year.

In the first place, Mother's Day is just the day to tell all the mothers of the Mother's Day pictures. She's a lot of people, some of them old and some of them young, some of them rich and some of them poor.

Being all these people, and more besides, she has a few common wants that are in evidence every day in the year. She wants a decent measure of economic security and a chance to look forward to old age without undue fear.

She wants things for her children—a comfortable home, good schooling, a chance to grow through a happy childhood to useful manhood and womanhood. She wants a world that will stay put without dissolving every so often, into the chaos of war or economic breakdown.

Are we doing a tenth part of what we could do, day in and day out, to provide those things for her?

The beautiful thing about Mother's day is that it provides opportunity to pay public tribute to all Mothers, for groups to halt in their prosaic courses to dwell on the sentimental side of their personal being, and for the nation as a whole to reflect on its womanhood, past, present and future.

Mother's day is a wonderful institution. We could approach it with a clearer conscience if we did just a little more for Mother on the other 364 days.

STRAWS IN THE WIND

Interesting results on voter trends are seen in some of the initial primaries, especially those in Pennsylvania and Massachusetts.

In the Keystone state, the President, overwhelmed professed opposition on the part of Col. Henry Breckinridge, by a vote of approximately 17 to one, while Gov. Alf Landon of Kansas, scored a 10 to one victory over Herbert Hoover in Massachusetts, and Roosevelt held a similar lead over AT Smith.

While it is true that the results are indicative, in that all candidates were not officially entered in each state, and the chosen delegations for the most part are unpledged, the votes nevertheless indicate not only strong sentiment for the reelection of President Roosevelt but mounting support for the Kansas millionaire oilman.

CONFESSION IN EDUCATION

President Herbert Maynard Hutchins of the University of Chicago has again trained his inquisitorial eye on his own profession. His conclusions, embraced in his current Yale lectures, are certainly worth passing on.

The system of higher education, declares Mr. Hutchins, has lost its meaning in a maze of confused aims so that the college degree no longer means what it should, or did. For instance, he charges that "institutions have lost their souls trying to do something to get money."

Moreover, colleges have pursued a confused notion of democracy which allows students to stay in public education as long as they like, studying aimlessly, haphazardly, until finally a degree is cinched.

No confused is the training offered, says President Hutchins, that all students are shunted down the same groove, with the result that higher learning is unlearned. In a word, the college program calls for some sharp revisions, and President Hutchins seems to have pointed the way to a few of them.

THE SCIENTIFIC COP

If you follow the crime news of the day, you may observe that the role of science in the solution of crime has become increasingly important.

The Tilton murder in New York, just solved, is a case in point. There the murderer was traced through a single strand of twine. Science played a decided role, says Police Commissioner Lewis J. Valentine.

And in Washington, J. Edgar Hoover tells us that his laboratory is the best detective he has in his department. His files offer adequate proof of the part that chemistry and scientific approach in general mean to law enforcement in America.

It is a brand bid to every police department and sheriff's office in the country to turn as much as possible in the use of scientific detection. The day of the "dumb cop" of familiar memory is over.

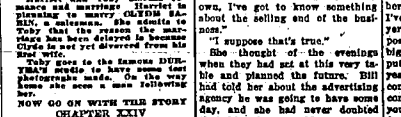

Now that AAA deprivations among them have ceased, little piglets seem to be making a comeback. A Kentucky girl was born with 14 toes.

"Helaine rumored to have shaved off beard to avoid capture by revolting northern tribesmen." (Hill, maybe Hitler's enemies aren't easily revolted.)

Twenty-seven states report wild life decreasing because of lack of food. Or maybe it's the cover charge.

MACARONI 'KING'

EATS 5 POUNDS

And Then This Geneva Man Calmly Calls for Pork and Sauerkraut

GENEVA, (U.P.)—Louis Paris, a bulky Genevise construction worker, has been crowned "King of Macaroni for 1936."

Surpassing 50 other contestants, including six women, Paris won the title in a local case by eating more than 5½ pounds of Macaroni within an hour and a half. Then, wiping his mouth nonchalantly, he called for a dish of pork and sauerkraut.

Henrietta Villi, who ranked first among the women, dropped out of the contest after consuming slightly more than three pounds. Her nearest female rival, Jennette Forrester, who fell behind her record by only a few ounces, is rated to beat Miss Villi next year after a little serious preliminary training.

The champion weighs slightly more than 175 pounds and is 5 feet, 7 inches tall.

POLITICAL PARADE

WASHINGTON (U.P.)—President Roosevelt's political stock would slide some if 1936 history repeated itself this year. There was a Roosevelt boom in 1933. It began shortly after the New Deal administration was inaugurated. It peaked abruptly as national industrial recovery legislation took form.

Congress required many weeks to hatch the Blue Eagle and there was a coincidental speed-up of industrial production attributed by some observers to an effort of manufacturers to get as much material through their shops as possible before NRA wages and hours restrictions became effective. "That phase" of the 1933 boom was a factor in some degree in the extraordinary springtime spree of the New York stock exchange in that year.

Let Parade. Whisky stocks led the boom time parade. There was widespread suspicion of market rigging. "If prosperity was not just around the corner, repeat undoubtedly was there, and many sheared lambs came back for another trimming. From March to July, 1933, the first Roosevelt boom saw market quotations ever higher and there came the reckoning. The market collapsed.

The improvement of stock market prices in recent months may or may not be better foundation than in 1933. But practical politicians recognize the fact that the general upturn of business must be maintained if Mr. Roosevelt is to maintain whatever degree of popularity he may possess in this presidential year. A July market collapse in 1936 would be nearly timed to smother Democratic claims that things are better if not precisely perfect.

Roosevelt "Luck." Roosevelt luck undoubtedly will be a factor in this election. A Washington observer of the last days of NRA convinced many persons that the United States supreme court relieved the President of an embarrassing problem when NRA was declared unconstitutional. Good or bad economically, NRA was a legislative liability at the time the court spoke. Mr. Roosevelt was attempting at the time to persuade the senate to agree to a two-year extension of Blue Eagle power. The Democratic appeal was that it would repudiate Mr. Roosevelt's leadership in the fight against the "big business" and "big money" trusts.

Then there was the agricultural adjustment administration, also a constitutional liability. It was popular with farmers in the death and Republican cheers probably helped rather than hurt New Dealers.

Many Opinions. The foregoing instances of Roosevelt's "luck" are not necessarily the opinions of good persons. Others might consider both those court decisions to have been political bad medicine for the President. But there is no doubt about the soldier's bonus. Mr. Roosevelt's valued immediate payment twice—the last time somewhat tamely, but he is record in opposition. The bonus was paid with both Republican and Democratic votes. Mr. Roosevelt is not personally responsible for that, yet the distribution of the bonus which may be converted into cash will not begin until June. The machinery for cashing the bonds will take a little time. It is estimated that $1,000,000,000 of bonus bonds will be transferred to the treasury. The money will begin to flow in—July and probably hit its high a couple of months later. Retail store owners will be glad to see the money. They will be glad to see the money. They will be glad to see the money.

COATING A BUILDING

Christian Troelsrup, Copenhagen clothing merchant, demonstrated that ingenuity wasn't an American monopoly when he covered the sides of his store with 1,000 overcoats which he wanted to dispose of in a hurry. This he saw the store looked before the customers arrived and the police had to be called out to keep order. But he sold the coats.

Your Baby's Health

By Dr. MORRIS FISHERMAN, Editor, Journal of the American Medical Association, and of Hygiene, the Health Magazine. Long before there were physical classes or midwives, no doubt, many women bore children successfully without the help of either. Frequently, however, these mothers suffered unnecessarily, and sometimes they became ill or died as a result of complications which today are well controlled.

As "human life" became more complex, and as conditions of living changed, the medical complications of childbirth became more difficult. Crowding of human beings brought greater chance of infection. There is a saying in medicine that a badly taught or ignorant midwife can kill more women than a highly educated doctor can cure. If women made sure of their ability to bear children successfully and without complications by having a suitable physical examination beforehand; if they consulted competent medical advisers when they knew they were going to have children; and if they followed medical advice carefully through the entire period before childbirth, the number of deaths would be greatly diminished and much unnecessary illness later would be prevented.

A midwife cannot, because of her limited education, be as competent as a well-trained doctor. The most important thing that she can secure is that which gives her sufficient knowledge and judgment to know when to call for medical assistance. A midwife may be able to recognize the presence of excessive bleeding, convulsions, swelling, and other complications, but not many can recognize unfavorable physical conditions and wrong position of the child sufficiently early to enable the mother to get the kind of help necessary.

Whether a midwife, a general practitioner, or a specialist, should be called upon to deliver a child, it is essential that the doctor be a well-trained, competent, and experienced physician. In 1935, the government mint at Washington coined 80,147,000 new dimes, in comparison with only 80,892,000 the previous year.

Trend of Circus Toward Midwest

DETROIT (U.P.)—Trend of the circus business toward the middle west has caused the James M. Cole circus to seek winter headquarters in Detroit. The Detroit board of commerce has received orders from Peng Yan, N. Y., where the circus now is quartered, to find a suitable site in or just outside the Detroit city limits.

Forrest Freeland, who has been here representing the Cole circus, said that a large tract of land and three large brick buildings will be necessary to house the 11 elephants, 250 horses, 200 managers, animals, trucks and other equipment.

Wallace Says Research Work Will Chart Good Coming From Program

WASHINGTON (U.P.)—A program of co-operative research will be begun by the soil conservation service and the bureau of agricultural economics for a more accurate check on economic and social benefits derived from soil conservation and erosion control practices, according to Secretary of Agriculture Henry A. Wallace.

The studies will contrast the economic and rural life effects of uncontrolled erosion and soil depletion on the one hand, and definitely planned erosion control measures on the other.

Four Phases. Research work, Wallace said, will follow four general lines:

1. A study of the economic and social conditions at the time erosion control measures are begun. This study also will determine to what degree soil erosion in the past has influenced the present situation.

2. An estimate of the economic and social effects likely to result from the adoption of a definitely planned program of erosion control and soil conservation measures.

3. Ultimately, an evaluation of the economic and social effects which have resulted from the adoption of the recommended erosion control measures.

Added Studies. Such additional studies as may be essential to the economic and social evaluation of the activities of the soil conservation service.

The research program will be on a national basis, Wallace said, and will be under supervision of Dr. Walter J. Roth, in charge of economic and rural life studies of the soil conservation service.

TOSCANINI GIVEN GOTHAM TRIBUTE

Thousands Battle to Secure Standing Room at Last Appearance

NEW YORK, April 29 (AP)—The great event was coming off at 8:30 p. m. in Carnegie hall, and at 7 a. m. the first man appeared and sat down on the stone steps. By noon there were several hundred.

By 6 p. m. a thousand were waiting and at 8 p. m. when the box office opened, men and women struggled furiously against the heavy police lines to buy the 110 available tickets.

These tickets were for standing room. The tickets for seats had been sold several months ago.

Piles Door Open

In the rear of the hall one of the excelsior was so eager to get in that he tried open a fire door. Before police could arrive in sufficient number, 100 or more had fought their way into the auditorium where every seat and every inch of standing room was occupied.

The great event unfolded itself over the next two hours and at every opportunity the audience cheered, stamped feet, clapped hands, screamed, shouted. The lights came up now and then, revealing the great man, and the faces turned up to the dynamic, white-haired man with beetling black brows on the stage.

The event was the farewell appearance of Arturo Toscanini, conductor of the New York Philharmonic Symphony orchestra, which he had conducted for 11 seasons.

Natives, Ready For Peace, Try To Sell Spears

WITH THE ITALIAN ADVANCING ON ADDIS ABABA, April 30 (AP)—The Italian army on wheels moving slowly, steadily toward its goal and the end of the war, on something like a Baku.

The natives are overpowered by strong manual strength where water flows into the cotton fields as they have the cotton gins banks of piled up and hauled mud.

We reached the vanguard of the motorized column which was driving for the capital this morning.

Tribe-men friendly

All along the way the tribesmen were friendly and helpful to the road and they offer wonderful bargains in weapons apparently about to retire from the fighting business.

Usual tipped arrows, marked to testify to the number of people they have killed, curved swords and the tiny knives with which the warriors mutilate their captives are offered in addition to match boxes, chickens, eggs, ducks, honey and milk.

ITALY PLANS ON DEMONSTRATION

Fascists Ordered to Stand By for Test Mobilizing When Addis Ababa Falls

ROME, April 30 (AP)—The government ordered all Fascist organizations today to "stand ready in uniform" tomorrow.

It was presumed the order meant another vast "test mobilization" of Fascist strength after announcement of the fall of Addis Ababa.

Sirens, whistles and bells probably will give the signal throughout the country for the mobilization of some 10,000,000 Fascist men, women and children when news of the capture of Addis Ababa arrives.

Fascist leaders received red cards this afternoon bearing the following instructions:

"Dear comrade: you are requested to be ready in uniform on Friday, May 1, for a signal."

The cur request was interpreted meaning that all Fascists are expected to report to their headquarters immediately after the whistles blow, similar to the first test mobilization on Oct. 2 last, the day before the war started.

School directors were ordered to have boys instructed in distance signals when the signal sounds. Further instructions to the Fascists were expected tonight.

Rome Fascists, it was understood, will gather in the Palazzo Venezia to hear a speech by President Benito Mussolini.

EMPEROR ORDERS CITY UNDEFENDED

Withdraws Troops in Hopes of Bloodless Occupation by Italians

Here, would make it impossible for the Italians to bring any military equipment. They say that the route through the mountains is so steep and narrow that it is impossible for a tank under normal conditions. Now the roads have been damaged as much as possible in anticipation of the Italian advance, and authorities believe they will not be repaired after a heavy rain.

The British Red Cross men reported that about 2,000 Italian infantrymen were in the column in the Debra Berhan area.

OCCUPY KEY TOWNS

ROME, April 30 (AP)—The Italian forces occupied Sassa, a key point in the Afan river area, and the Ababa-Djibouti railway, yesterday, an official announcement said today.

Sassa is the last really fortified Ethiopian position before the sea. It is located on the railway, the southern army of Gen. Rodolfo Graziani now is expected to advance rapidly along the railway routes toward Harar and Dire Dawa, encircling the Ethiopians on the southeast and the northern army on the west and north-around the capital.

Continue Advance

The official announcement said also that the Italians continued their advance after capturing Sassa, which is about 12 miles northeast of there.

On the extreme northeastern front the Italians after capturing Lake Tana, in the British sphere of influence, began pushing their advance into Ethiopia, capturing Debra Tabor, 12 miles east of the lake.

PARIS SUBWAYS ARE WAR HAVEN

First of Series of Shelters From Bombs and Gas Is Finished

PARIS (AP)—What is believed to be the largest and the safest gas-proof shelter in the world has been completed at Paris and is ready to shelter 800 persons against any future air raid.

It is the first of a series of shelters which it is planned to build out of those sections of the subway which lend themselves to conversion into shelters.

During the Parisians mechanically took shelter from bombs in the subway, but then the danger from gas was added.

The new shelter is arranged with particular attention to gas.

Subway Made Airtight

In case of an alarm, the subway ceases functioning as a roadway for underground trains. Great air-tight doors are closed, and machines compress the air in the enclosed space to a pressure of one atmosphere and a half, thus providing it possible for these people to escape to enter through the three main entrances, provided with gas-tight doors.

Entering with them, for the air under pressure blows it out.

The air in the tunnel is directed outside, filtered through machines which are secret is guarded carefully, but which are said to provide perfect protection against gas.

Small known gas, which can carry some 8,000 to 10,000 cubic meters of air.

This first shelter of the Metro system has been installed at the station of the rue de la Fite, 75 feet underground and its size, of which the properties are said to be perfect, protection against gas.

Hated of Fascism was the feature of the celebration planned at Moscow, but the real feature was the demonstration of Russia's military might in the great May day parade in the Red Square before the Kremlin.

Warsaw Cautionous

In Poland, the chief concern of police was to keep separate, in all industrial centers, the divergent demonstrators. At Warsaw, police mapped four separate marches for parading organizations in honor of the anniversary of the great British strike.

Great Britain's strike may day celebration in the usual labor party and trade union demonstrations.

Nazis have taken May day as their own. In Germany, and elsewhere, the day is celebrated for an all-day demonstration, with a speech by Fuehrer Adolf Hitler as the high point.

THIS CURIOUS WORLD

THE ENERGY REQUIREMENTS OF PARROTS COULD BE FULFILLED BY THE DAILY CONSUMPTION OF LESS THAN A POUND OF SOFT COAL!

IN SOME SPECIES OF PARROTS, THE MALES ARE GREEN AND THE FEMALES ARE BLUE. YET THE COLORING MATTER IS THE SAME IN BOTH SEXES; THE FEATHER STRUCTURE IS RESPONSIBLE FOR THE VARIATION IN COLOR.

EVERY OFFICIAL WEATHER FORECAST FROM A METEOROLOGICAL OFFICE REQUIRES THE COOPERATION OF AT LEAST ONE HUNDRED PERSONS.

A meteorologist, or "weather man," cannot give out forecasts until at least a hundred persons over the earth have transmitted to him the findings of their observations. From these, he draws his maps and formulates his own conclusions as to the weather probabilities.

OGLE THIS SEA-GOING FIN-FLIPPER, DOC! ADONIS WAS GUARLEY COMPARED TO THIS BEAUTY! HE'S TH' GIANT BASS OF TH' SEASON'S RUN—EIGHT POUNDS IF HE WEIGHS AN OUNCE!

A STRAPPING SPECIMEN FOR THESE WATERS, NO DOUBT, BUT—AH—UM—A MERE MINNOW, COMPARED TO THE SPECTIUS-AGUESSUS, A SPECIES OF BASS I CAUGHT OFF KWANGSHOW. HE WAS THE LEVIATHAN OF BASS! THE NATIVES SHINGLED THEIR HUTS WITH HIS SCALES AND USED THE FINS FOR BOAT SAILS! EGAD—IN ANGLING FOR THE SPECTIUS BASS, YOU'D HAVE TO INFLATE YOUR FISH TO FOUR TIMES HIS SIZE, TO MAKE HIM BIG ENOUGH FOR BAIT!

THE BIGGEST THING ABOUT THAT FISH WAS THE TALE.

DO WE ALL HAVE TO GO TO HELP KETCH HIM, PA?

YES—YES—IT'LL TAKE TEN COWBOYS TO CATCH HIM, IN THE VACANT LOT YOUR FATHER REATED—IT'S AS BIG AS A CATTLE RANCH!

I GOT SOME SUGAR—HE LIKES THAT.

YOU SHOULDN'T GET SO SARCASTIC—YOU'RE THE ONE WHO WAS ALWAYS KICKIN' ABOUT TH' HON BILLS—IT'S THE CLOSEST PASTURE I COULD GET—THERE'S NO GRASS IN A TWO-BY-SIX LOT!

NOW, IF I CAN JUST GET HOME WITHOUT THE DOGS—SEEING ME.

MAYBE I'D BETTER WAIT UP FOR A WHILE—THEN I CAN SNEAK IN, AND HELL NEVER NOTICE.

IT'S NEARLY DARK NOW! I WON'T HAVE LONG TO WAIT.
