SADNESS IN MANY HOMES

Twin Falls Visited by Death During Week.

DEATH OF MRS. C. A. TUSH, A SHOCK TO COMMUNITY.

William M. McGill, an Old and Respected Resident, Passed Away Tuesday. Remains Held Awaiting Wire from His Father.

The news of Mrs. C. A. Tush's sudden and unexpected death on Sunday morning threw a gloom over the whole city, where both Mr. and Mrs. Tush had been popular and respected residents for the past two years. Mrs. Tush had just undergone an operation and was improving rapidly. Her death Thursday night, when peritonitis set in and she died early Sunday morning.

The remains were shipped Monday evening to Oakland, California, the parental home of the deceased, for burial. From one-thirty until three Monday afternoon the friends of the deceased were given an opportunity to view the remains, which rested in state at the Hunt Chapel and a great many took this occasion to show their love and respect for Mrs. Tush.

Maudie Lavina Tush was born in California, February 22, 1876, and spent the years of her girlhood and early womanhood in the home of her parents in Oakland, California. In 1905, Mr. and Mrs. Tush were married and moved to the Twin Falls tract, where Mr. Tush has been engaged in engineering on the various irrigation projects of the tract and is at present chief engineer for the Twin Falls-Brunson project. Mrs. Tush has been since her husband's death, a devoted mother and a woman prominent in all the social life of the city. During her life here she has been the many friends and the respect of the whole community and her death has cast a deep sorrow over the city. The sympathy of all is extended to Mr. Tush in his recent sorrow.

The Springs club wishes to voice through your columns the grief over the loss by death, of Mrs. Tush. This literary circle has been in existence three years, and during the hours of sitting there have been many close and lasting friendships made. Now that death has claimed one of its most beautiful members, we are all sorry. We will, knowing, no matter what progress the club makes, there will always be in the hearts of the present members a longing for a beautiful, smiling face and the cheerful greeting always received from its absent member.

Wouldn't you like to be in Booth's shoes? They're the best.

A REAL ESTATE CONSOLIDATION.

W. E. Palmer Joins Colorado Realty Company.

Three of the bustling young real estate men of the city joined forces during the past week in the Colorado Realty company. W. E. Palmer, who has been conducting a separate business, purchased an interest in the above firm. With previous, to that time was composed of Messrs. D. M. Denton and M. W. McCauley, two bustling young men from Colorado, who have built up a fine business. All of the young men have many friends who wish them success in the new combination.

HELD FOR ASSAULT.

John Davis of Dubl. Bound Over to District Court.

County Attorney Hutto spent yesterday afternoon in Dubl. on the case of the state of Idaho vs. John Davis, charged with attempt to kill. The preliminary hearing resulted in Davis being bound over to the district court and the prisoner is now in jail waiting the convening of court next week. Messrs. Steinfel and Jennings have organized a bill posting company in this city, and are now prepared to take charge of all kinds of posting and distribution work on this tract. Williams will have charge of the inside work, Mr. Jones, the farm land, and Mr. Bolton, the city property. The new firm is starting out as though they meant business, having made several good sales this week to people who came to the tract to invest.

SOIL SURVEY FOR TWIN FALLS TRACT.

Unless unforeseen obstacles change the plans of the U. S. bureau of soils, the Twin Falls tract will be covered by the next area to be surveyed. Captain Capron, of this city, who has been in correspondence with the bureau, states that no additional survey can be considered during the present fiscal year, but after that our tract will come first in the order of survey. The offices of Twin Falls, Cassin and Lincoln.

During the past ten years the soil surveys of the U. S. have been extended over a large portion of the country and are of inestimable value. All data pertaining to the land, rock, mineral, analysis of soil and historical data, together with large colored topographic maps of each of the three counties, will be published by the government and held available for free distribution. With an intelligent, progressive farming element, such as is found in our tract, the soil survey will certainly prove a remunerative enterprise.

Don't Forget.

The Twin Falls is going to be the biggest city in the state. Don't forget that Booth's store is growing with it and will grow to be the biggest store in the state. The store they received a complete stock of infants' and children's shoes, and a great line of the CROSSBRED SHOES FOR MEN—GROSSBRED MADE.

But a few weeks are left until the close of the contest. Have you placed your favorite yet?

BIG GROCERY HOUSE IN CITY

Will Supply Stock to the Surrounding Towns.

WILL BE LOCATED IN CONCRETE BLOCK NEAR POSTOFFICE.

F. M. Buckley of St. Paul, Together with Dewitt Young and J. A. Malone, Will Put In $20,000 Stock.

Twin Falls' advantageous position as a central distributing point, was the means of landing a big wholesale grocery establishment last week when F. M. Buckley of St. Paul, Minn., after viewing the field, with his associates, Messrs. J. A. Malone and Dewitt Young, made plans to start business about the first of the year. A lease was secured on the building which formerly housed the furniture man, which they will have invested, should be able to do a fine business. Besides supplying the towns around with wholesale groceries, the Twin Falls Grocery and Mercantile company, as the new firm is styled, will open a retail house for this city and county.

Mr. Buckley left last night for Salt Lake and Chicago to purchase fixtures and stock and it is the intention of the firm to rush goods in as fast as possible.

Mr. Buckley is an expert in the grocery business, having spent a number of years with the big grocery house of Parwell in the Twin cities and should be able to supply the tract with the very latest in groceries. Mr. Malone and Dewitt Young are both well known in this city where they have been residents for a number of years. Their ability and integrity is well known to the residents of the tract and it is a matter of congratulation that they have decided to cast their lot in this city.

SHEARED THE JEROME LAMBS

Sweeley's Men Too Much for North Side Footballists.

SNOW AND MUD GIVE ADVANTAGE TO HEAVIER TEAM.

By a Score of Ten to Nothing, Everett Sweeley and His Team Prove Too Fast for Kinney's Lambs.

From the amount of excitement in Twin Falls on Thanksgiving day one could get the impression that a real variety foot ball game was pending. And from the number of foot ball stars lined up on both the Twin Falls and Jerome teams the team could actually count on seeing a good game. This expectation was not far wrong as it was worth the price admission just to see some of the old stars with the fire of battle in their eyes. Sweeley of the Michigan university, looked like a giant when engaged in his foot ball togs. Chapin and Kinney of the Yale for Jerome, played with the same fighting spirit, which has dominated the contests of their Alma Mater.

Ed Kahl and Charles Malt, with the memories of the golden college days acted as referees and umpire, and aided materially in quelling the pugacious old timers.

The field, although it had been cleared of the drifts, was still covered for the most part, with sticky snow, making task plays impossible.

The first half, which was twenty-five minutes, was full of snap and vigor, and in less than five minutes from the whistle the Twin Falls out-forged the ball over Jerome's line for the first touch-down. Capt. Sweeley failed to kick goal. On the kick-off, however, the star full-back booted the sphere from the kick-off to the center of the field and square over the posts in one of the longest kicks of the game. Jerome brought the pigskin out to the twenty-five-yard line and kicked to Twin Falls, the ball being carried five yards. They began a procession to the goal in which the visitors were unable to withstand the line onslaughts of the heavy Twin Falls back-field.

The remainder of the half was spent in Twin Falls attempting to score on their opponents by the same kind of straight foot ball; during which time Jerome secured the ball on a fumble and sent Chapin around the end for a sensational run which was checked by Sweeley. The ball again in the possession of the home team it was advanced by Sweeley, who was tackled by hard plungers by Thomas, and on runs by Botsford and when time was called, ending the half. During this half very little time was taken out for injury to the players and the score of 5 to 0 shows that there was little difference in the two teams.

The second half started off with Jerome making some good gains through Twin Falls' line and especially so of some of Chapin's old runs, which made the local rooters hold their breaths until the swift Jerome back was downed by Sweeley. After about five minutes of play in which both teams resorted to kicking, a wonderful twenty-five yard forward pass by Sweeley, which was just as wonderfully caught by Botsford, carried the last another twenty-five yards for the last touchdown of the game. Twin Falls failed to kick goal. The half closed with the ball close to Jerome's goal. During this short half two men were injured, Burton of Twin Falls being obliged to retire because of a sprained knee, while Cha-

TIE SPARKS-LAIRBEL RANCHES SOLD.

The consummation of the mammoth deal by which David Keece and his associates of Ogden, come into possession of the big Sparks-Harrel ranch in Nevada was effected Friday when Mr. Keece drew drafts representing $500,000 in favor of the former owners of the tract of land, and obligated himself to pay $300,000 more, the balance of the purchase price, within five years.

This is considered to be the biggest land deal ever made in Utah. The property which has by the transaction been acquired, contains several thousand acres of the choicest grazing lands in Nevada and is said to be the largest ranch in the United States. There are now 25,000 head of cattle on the ranch and twice this many are to be added by the present owners. The ranch lies north of Tacoma, Nev., and takes in a portion of lower Idaho. —Salt Lake Tribune.

FRANK LYLLE FORGES CHECKS.

FRANK LYLLE OBTAINS MONEY ON Employed in Blacksmith Shop.

Monday night Frank Lylle, a young man well known in this city, was arrested for forgery on complaint of J. W. Woodard of the Twin Falls Manufacturing Co. The case caused a great deal of surprise, owing to the former exemplary conduct of the young man. Four checks, totaling about $600, were offered by Lylle and accepted by the innocent parties. Cole Wilson cashed one for the youth on the street for ten dollars as a personal favor and was much astonished to find that during his absence a check for a similar amount had been cashed. The two checks aroused his suspicions and investigation showed that the signature on the checks was a forgery. Later developments showed that two other checks were passed off at the Crescent bar.

Dr. J. Ott Pitt of Treemont, Utah, spent Thanksgiving at the home of his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. H. Pitt, on their ranch at Tandem Falls, five miles west of Buhl.

Mr. and Mrs. Amos Howard were delightedly surprised at their home in Buhl, Wednesday evening by a party of friends, who were Messrs. Charlie Swanson, Newton, Light, Pugh, Roy Cammack, Bruce Howard, Benj. King, Peter Shark, Luther Howard, Parker, King, Johnson and Baker; the Misses Alma and Anna Lindstrom, Nora and Carrie Dalquist, Dena and Judith Sandberg, Adde and Ester Howard, Alma Swanson, Laura Griffith, Katie Grohman and Mrs. Peter Shark. The evening was spent in dancing, Mr. Parker being the violinist. At midnight a luncheon which had been prepared by the young ladies, was served, consisting of oranges, bananas, sandwiches, coffee and cake. The young ladies presented to Mr. and Mrs. Howard a beautiful kitchen cabinet, purchased from the Buhl Furniture company. Mrs. Howard was delighted over the evening's entertainment and remembrance and will always have a warm spot in their heart for Buhl and the people.

Union Sunday school is held every Sunday afternoon at the Deep Creek school house at 2:30 o'clock.

E. W. Byrne, first violator of the Buhl ordinance, was arrested and fined $5.00. Mr. Byrne was moving a safe and was unable to pull the load with one team. So he put on another team, for which he was fined. Mr. Byrne had already procured a drayage license, but our city attorney claimed he had no right to put on another team. This warrant was sworn out by John H. Harris, another drayman, and was served by City Marshal Sam Nihart. He was tried before Judge Barstow.

Another warrant was sworn out for Mr. Byrne on a similar offense, but Mr. Byrne, one of our councilmen, forbade them serving it, saying they had better use a little more of their influence trying to stop the gambling, which has been running practically wild over in Buhl, investigating some citizen who is trying to make an honest living.

Chas. Culver of Seattle, a friend of M. C. Ware, is in Buhl investigating this end of the Buhl.

SECOND CONFERENCE OF GOVERNORS IN WASHINGTON.

The much talked of inventory of the nation's resources is now practically completed. To consider the material it has brought together the national conservation commission has just announced its first full meeting for Tuesday, December 1, in Washington. At that meeting the first steps will be taken toward putting into tangible shape the results of the six months' hard work on taking stock of the country's waters, forests, lands and minerals.

Not long later, after the commission has gone over the inventory, it will hold a joint meeting in Washington with the governors of the states and territories, or their representatives. At this meeting the inventory will be further discussed and the report which the president has requested the commission to make to him by January 1, will be formulated.

With less than six months in which to make the inventory, the four branches into which the commission is divided, aided by the cooperation of the government departments, have brought together what is probably the most useful collection of facts about the material things on which national industry and progress are based that has ever been assembled at one time.

Reports presenting those facts and pointing out their significance have been prepared. These reports, summarized and indexed, will be submitted to the commission at its coming meeting.

All through the summer general interest in the work and object of the conservation commission has been growing. The public is now well posted on a subject of which only a few specialists had knowledge at the time of the conference of governors and experts at the White House in May.

The governors carried the spirit of the conference home with them, to their own people, and have kept things moving ever since by appointing state commissions to study local problems, by writing and speaking upon the subject of conservation, and by keeping in close and helpful touch with the national commission. They are ready to take part in the approaching joint meeting. The bare announcement that it had been set for December 8 resulted in a number of acceptances before the formal invitation of the commission had even got into the mails.

When the conservation movement was started, specific information about the actual state of our resources was partly wanting, partly inaccessible. Certain facts were broadly known. It was at least questionable that our resources had been wastefully used, and that some of them, notably the mines, were sure in time to be completely exhausted, while others, for example the forests, could still be kept perpetually useful by right management. The first work was to get the facts as to exactly what the situation was and how it could be improved by measures that would work. Without the inventory of the resources, which should show the present condition of the resources and the way to develop them to the best advantage, conservation was in danger of staying up in the air.

But the work is now practically done. The facts are there, in dollars and cents, tons of coal, board feet of lumber, acre-foot and horse-power of water, acres of land. And the possible reform measures have been weighed. The final report to the president will be the necessary supplement to the addresses at the White House conference. The note of these addresses was a note of warning. The report is expected to show that the warning must be heeded if the exhaustion of natural resources is not, one day, to impoverish the nation, and it will also undoubtedly show how the country's resources can be developed so as to last the longest possible time and serve the greatest good of the people.
