Will Hold Two Days' Session Commencing Nov. 1.

CENTURY CLUB APPOINTS COMMITTEE ON ARRANGEMENTS.

Senator W. E. Borah to be Present and Address Ladies on Questions of the Day.

Plans are now practically completed for the entertainment of the Elizabeth officers of the State Federation of Women's clubs to be held in Twin Falls on November 1 and 2. At the regular meeting of the Twentieth Century club on the 15th, the arranging committee were appointed by the president to manage the details of entertainment, the three committees all under the direction of Mrs. J. H. Seaver.

FRUIT FAIR A SUCCESS.

Manager Downey Thinks All Who Assisted in the Undertaking.

The management of the Twin Falls County Fruit Fair take pleasure in announcing to the people of the county the simply successful and interesting fair. Due largely to the prompt response of the exhibitors to the invitation to bring their produce, the fair is kindly attention given by the newspapers who, through sufficient funds were not provided for advertising.

ANNUAL POULTRY SHOW.

To Be Held December 11, 16 to 18—Good Attendance Wanted.

The next annual poultry show, which will be held December 11 to 16, under the management of the local Poultry Association, will undoubtedly bring out a large and better class of birds than has yet been shown on the tract.

GOV. HAWLEY IS A BOOSTER

Court House is the Finest in the Gem State.

IS VERY ENTHUSIASTIC OVER THE POSSIBILITIES OF FRUIT.

From his recent trip to Twin Falls, where he participated in the dedication of the new $150,000 court house, and with the hearty and excellent of the Twin Falls county building still vividly impressed upon him, Governor Hawley yesterday, in a comparison of the Twin Falls court house and Ada county's court house, characterized the latter as antiquated, unsanitary and unbecomingly.

AT THE ORPHEUM

The Musical Waters, Introducing Latest Novelties in Music and Dancing.

At the Orpheum theatre this week the management will introduce the Musical Waters, in the latest songs and dances. Their music will consist of church organ, chimes, banjo, mandolin and novelty musical instruments. They will also introduce feature dancing and playing different musical instruments at the same time.

THE JUVENILE COURT.

Judge Shields Doing All He Can to Assist in Looking After Delinquents.

Two young boys, aged 12 and 14 years, were before Juvenile Judge Shields Monday to answer the charge of having robbed another boy. After being held in custody for a few days, the judge, in his opinion, thought it best to let them go, with the understanding that they should be given the opportunity to work for their mother and informed her that if she would give the boys a good whipping in the presence of his assistant him in caring for them he would then remain with her.

NEW SINGER AT ISIS.

Miss Clara Fafek in Character Songs at Popular Play House.

The Isis theatre has secured the services of that talented singer, Miss Clara Fafek, who so richly pleased the patrons of that popular motion picture house a short time ago. Miss Fafek will remain here, indefinitely, and this week will entertain the patrons with character songs. The management has secured the great motion picture drama "Four Plays" taken from the novel of that name, written by that famous author, Charles Reade. The play is in three parts, each part being a real 100% live show. This must be seen to be appreciated.

TWIN FALLS GIRLS WIN.

Twin Falls Girls Win in a Snappy Game With Ellet.

One of the snappiest basket ball games ever held in the state of Idaho was pulled off at Ellet on Friday, Oct. 20. An hour's play favored the girls and Twin Falls, carried about some forty fans to boost for the team. As they had all the enthusiasm of a healthy novel, this being their first appearance in the basket ball line. The game was clean, thorough in sportsmanship and its disputes arose over any decisions.

A SUCCESSFUL FIRM.

Munyon & Lue Doing a Big Business in Auctioneering Line.

In the last sixty days the auctioneering firm of Munyon & Lue of this city, have conducted twenty sales and have never failed to take place within the next two weeks. Mr. Lue started into business in this city four years ago this month and during that time he has formed a partnership with H. G. Munyon and their firm has been more successful from the start. Out of the twenty sales that have taken place and the seven that are to come, only three of the parties will be the tract; one of them has already returned after traveling over the Pacific northwest and parts of Canada, and is satisfied to make the Twin Falls tract his home, finding here the best opportunities than any place he visited.

RAILROAD WRITER A VISITOR

Samuel D. Dunn of Railway Age Gazette, Approves of Tract.

Under the guidance of Joel Peck of the Short Line, Samuel D. Dunn, editor of the Railway Age Gazette, visited Twin Falls for a short time last week in order to get a better conception of the accomplishments of irrigation. Mr. Dunn was taken for a brief view of the tract around about the Twin Falls water works and the evening train stated that it was something wonderful the development which has taken place in the short period of time. He could scarcely credit the small number of years taken to produce improved farms and substantial improvements. As editor of a widely read railway publication, Mr. Dunn can give Twin Falls some very valuable advertising, valuable for the reason that it is freely given, and in a way expert opinion.

ALBION WINS ON A FLUKE

Twin Falls Team Outplay Opponents Saturday.

NORMAL SCHOOL SECURES TIGHT DOWN ON BLOCKED KICK.

The Twin Falls high school has reason to be proud of its foot ball team in the clean, hard fought game played last Saturday afternoon, the only and more experienced men on the field Normal. Although the only score made in the game was a field goal, the play for the whole game shows that Twin Falls outplayed its opponents at nearly every stroke of the game. When Twin Falls visited Albion and lost by a score of 6-0, it was with good reason that it had played a better game and the one touch-down of the Normal had been made by accident. In the Saturday's game the same thing occurred when Gibraltar's kick was blocked and the ball carried a short distance for a turnover, and Twin Falls again took the small end of it.

As the time approaches for the Chicago Land Show and placing of Twin Falls exhibits in that show, there is considerable agitation as to the proper representative to be sent with the exhibit. A large number of people are interested in the success of that exhibit outside of the board of directors of the Commercial club, although that body will eventually secure the man who will do it. Upon the knowledge and handling ability of that representative will depend whether Twin Falls makes the good with the eastern and middle states farmers. The consensus of opinion being that the man who has cultivated the soil and who knows intimately concerning the same is to be best fitted to talk to farmers who always ask more or less technical questions of the man in charge of the exhibit. If that man is a practical farmer he is always able to give such information. If on the other hand he is merely a business man his answers are very apt to be irrelevant and unsatisfactory, creating an impression that perhaps the exhibit is picked up anywhere without confinement to the Twin Falls country. The Times believes that with the directors of the Commercial club have the final vote. In the question that the laymen who are giving their money to keep the club running and the ranchers who have furnished the products, have the matter just as much at heart. The Times also believes that the sending of a representative to Chicago should be given serious consideration and the man picked for his knowledge of the Twin Falls country, its soil possibilities and general farm knowledge so that what he gives to the visitors to the Twin Falls exhibit will bear scrutiny by expert farmers.

In Latah county, one of the publishers has brought suit against the county, to restrain that official from having his printing done out of the state and the suit aired through the press of the state is bringing out a great amount of information that shows very poorly for the county officials all over the state. According to a law of the state so printing that can be done within the state or county can be sent out of the state to outside printers and publishers. The law in most states has been obeyed by state and county officials when convenient only, and a large sum of money sent out that should remain within the state and county. The practice once started is usually added and increased by judicious percentage paid by the outside firms to the officials, until the local printing offices get but little in most counties. Twin Falls county is present being a rare exception to the general rule throughout the state. The suit in Latah county is merely a test case, brought in order to show the officials of that county the law. The Times does not know the justice of the suit, but it is a question in the particular suit, but the principle of the case is here at any rate, and the issue of the trial will be eagerly watched all over the state. The fact that the law has been disregarded in other counties is due principally to the carelessness of the newspaper fraternity in handling their rights and usually when the matter is brought to the attention of the county officials, first excuses is shown, and then ready compliance with the law. Twin Falls passed through the same trouble four years ago when it was discovered that printing belonging to the county printer was sent to Boise to a job house. That practice was stopped after some trouble. In the case of the Latah officials and other county officers the need for the suit was imperative and the press of the state should give the Mirror-Star publisher moral support, as well as financial if necessary. The ordinary newspaper man on the weekly paper is no busy boosting for his home, merchants and manufacturers as against the small order houses that his own particular part of the home consumption of home manufactured products is overlooked. Both by the politicians whom he has helped and the merchants who do not figure in his business, the printer applies to the printing industry as well as to the other business of a city. The printing industry in the point of dollars invested and in the number of men given employment, is a very important part of any city's industry and should be given the same loyal support that would be given to any brand bearing the local trade mark in any commodity.

IDAHO WINS BACK HERITAGE

From State to Make Lion Selections Amounting to 400,000 Acres
Boise, Ida., Oct. 17.—A controversy that has lasted for years, that has been dragged through the courts, through the legislature, and finally to Washington, D. C., where it was heard by the department of the interior, the forestry department and even went so far as President William H. Taft, is at last settled with Idaho as the victor for this state to acquire title to its birthright—400,000 acres of land within the boundaries of forest reserves, but for which lion selections are to be granted. The state through its land board agents of the forestry bureau are authorized to start immediately to locate the unreserved land, or sections 16 and 36 reserved in every township in the state through the admission act, for the benefit of the public schools.

The task of finding the land, classifying and making lion selections of equal value, will occupy at least a year if not longer. At a meeting of the state land board held this morning in the state through the representatives of the forestry department with authority to act, met the state agents and the plans for making the transfer were soon into and arranged.

Careful Checking First.

It was decided the plans and charts in the possession of the state should first be carefully checked and the work of crisscrossing the land mapped out. With the opening of early spring crews of selectors will be sent into the forest reserves where they will ascertain the location and value of the land, grade it as to whether it is for range or agricultural, and provide for the selection of an equal amount in some other section of the state, keeping in mind that so near as possible the lion shall be selected in as large a block as possible.

It is believed by the plans decided upon that it will be possible to locate the lion lands in large blocks in various parts of the state where they will be most beneficial and bring in the most revenue. The plans found to be in the greatest class within the forest reserves probably will be exchanged for similar lands in the southeastern part of the state where they can be rented to sheep and stockmen for grazing purposes. Heavily timbered lands will be exchanged for similar lands in the northern part of the state where the timber can be disposed of at a good price to lumbering concerns. The expense to crisscross, block out and exchange the land will amount in the thousands of dollars and will be equally divided between the state and the federal government, each paying its half. This is satisfactory to the state and equally so to the government. The idea the land board has in the entire transaction is to gain possession of the school sections at one time thought to be hopelessly lost.

Grant Under Admission Act.

Under the terms of the admission act, or the act admitting Idaho to the Union as a state, Idaho was granted title to sections 16 and 36 in every township for the benefit and support of the general school fund. These townships were disposed of from time to time by the state in the survey and the lands were to be held in trust by placed to the credit of the schools and educational institutions. The lands in some sections are in disposition of the school sections, or over those classes as unreserved and which, since the admission of the state into the union, had been included within the homestead lines of national forest reserves. A great many of these reserves were created and still exist in Idaho. Practically all of the land included within them is unreserved and valuable for its timber. When the

DRASTIC ACTION TAKEN

Hyke Park Pharmacy to be Prosecuted for Distributing Medicine Samples.

What is said to be the beginning of an active campaign against the free distribution of medicine samples was launched yesterday when James H. Falls, state dairy and food inspector, filed a complaint in Justice Bower's court against the Hyke Park pharmacy at Third and Eastman streets, accusing it of a direct violation of the drug laws of the state. The inspector declares that samples of the medicine that were distributed by this firm contained enough poison to kill a child and that they were thrown around carelessly where the children would be most likely to get them. The pellets are sugar coated and look tempting enough to induce a child to eat them. The label on each one contained a list of 11 drugs that they had in them, four of which were poisonous.

The inspector charges that the drug store named hired four boys to distribute the samples through the city last Saturday and that these boys visited the residences of the city through the residence districts. He says that Saturday was the best day that the boys were selected for the children to get their hands on the deadly drugs when their mothers were away with the boys. The boys were household and Sunday preparations.

Mr. Falls says that he has been receiving complaints that drug samples were being distributed through other parts of the state but that he has been unable to locate anybody who was responsible for the before.

The complaint was drawn up and filed by the commissioner in and against F. C. Smith and Mrs. F. C. Smith of the Hyke Park pharmacy. The attorney that the packages contained Mr. Falls says, stating that never more than one tablet should be given to a child from 5 to 12 years of age.

The following is the list of drugs contained in the pellets: Acetophenetidin, an acetanilid derivative and a potent, caustic, toxic, irritant, white atropine sulphate, fluid extract of non-toxic root, fluid extract opuntia, powdered capsaicin, fluid extract of gentian, podophyllum, these, acetophenetidin, atropine sulphate, fluid extract of aconite root, and fluid extract of gelsemium. Mr. Falls says that the pills, producing a strong effect on and even a complete stoppage of the heart. They also work on the nervous system to render the patient unconscious. Aoin is given as one of the strongest cathartics known.

The recent laws of the state provide a penalty of conviction of not over $500 or an imprisonment in the county jail of not over six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment at the discretion of the court. The alleged offense is beyond the jurisdiction of the justice court and will, after a preliminary hearing, be transferred to the district court for trial.

F. C. Smith, owner of the Hyke Park pharmacy, is out of the city so no statement could be secured from him last evening concerning this matter. Mrs. Smith had not time to be interviewed, although she said the firm had handled this medicine for three or four years, and had never had a complaint.

FEEDING HAY TO HOGS.

Astonishing Results Obtained at Experiment Stations.

It is only of recent years that feeding hay to hogs has become general. There have been some breeders who have made a practice of this for a good many years. The recent tests at experiment stations have shown some very important facts. For instance, every 100 pounds of grain for hogs fattened on grain alone, the hog fed alfalfa hay, makes a gain of 175 pounds, virtually making three-fourths as much from the hay as from the grain. The hogs showed a gain of 565 pounds of pork per ton of alfalfa hay fed. The same weight of grain which is worth $1.40 separate and alone, brought $1.40 when fed with alfalfa. This was shown by an experiment at the Kansas experiment station, where everything was managed carefully to make the test a valuable one. At the Nebraska experiment station, where everything was managed along made corn 77 cents a bushel, and when alfalfa was fed with the grain the corn brought $1 per bushel.

They proved at the Kansas experiment station, when fattening hogs fed corn and alfalfa hay that 100 pounds of alfalfa hay added 200 pounds of corn and produced 1500 pounds of pork from the alfalfa hay from each acre. Alfalfa is much the better feed for hogs, every legitimate makes profitable hog feed. This includes the Canadian field peas, the clover, vetch, alfalfa, timothy, and timothy, red top and similar grasses have little value as hog feed. The leaves of early cut corn, green, green, and sorghum cut when the seed are in the milk make good hay for hogs, although not nearly the equal in feeding value of the hay above recommended.

The leaves of the hay is the valuable part for the hog feed. The stems are too woody and detrimental to the hogs. The plants should be cut when they have the most leaves on and it is then in the best feeding condition and the hay should be cured in a way to preserve the leaves as green and fresh as possible.

Here 838 pounds of gain was put on hogs per ton of hay with alfalfa cut when the first bloom appeared, only 333 pounds of gain per ton of hay when the hay was made when the alfalfa was cut later, the late cutting having lost many of its leaves before being gathered.

pounds of leaves with each bushel of corn. The hogs will eat the stems and pigs should have each day when not in pasture all the hay they will eat. The leaves are the best for the mental to the other feeds. The hay can be fed daily in shallow flat troughs. The hogs will eat the hay to feed it in a portable rack with the stems thrown out every day, which can be fed either to cattle or horses.

JOINT INSTITUTE.

The Joint Institute of the Counties of Bannock, Bear Lake, Blaine, Blount, Camas, Clearwater, Lincoln, Lemhi, Owyhee, and Twin Falls will be held in Pocatello, Idaho, beginning with October 25th-27th. The law requires all schools in these counties to close during the said week and teachers must attend the same. Lectures and department work will be given by Ira W. Huggins, of the University of Chicago, Prof. H. A. Adair, of California, J. W. Coulter, of Nebraska, W. D. Iowa of Kansas, and several others of the strongest and most up-to-date educators of the country.

Lewislat State Normal Training. The Lewislat State Normal opened its fifteen annual session last month with a greatly increased enrollment. In 1910-1911, there were 332 registered students, 222 now enrolled and 110 in attendance. The total enrollment for the year 1911-1912, for the entire state of Idaho, both north and south, is represented. Students also have enrolled from Oregon, Washington, California, Montana, Maine, Pennsylvania, North Carolina, Minnesota, Alberta, Canada, and Illinois. The fact that the Idaho Normal has a greater enrollment than any other in the west is well known. The high standards maintained at the State Normal there, has without doubt had much to do with this great increase in enrollment.

Civil Service Examination. The clerk-harrier examination for employment in the local postoffice will be held in Twin Falls on Saturday, October 28. Applications for the examination may be obtained from the district secretary at Seattle, Wash., or from the local secretary at the local postoffice. The application must be mailed to the district secretary so as to reach Seattle not later than October 24.

MAKING THE HOME ATTRACTIVE WITH NEW BLENDED ACQUATIONS VIRGINIA CHASE

Competent authorities nearly all agree that one of the best ways to keep the family intact is to make the home as attractive and "homey" as it may be. The fact that the boys and the girls will have no desire to go to dance halls and saloons in the course of my travels, I have noticed that in most every instance where families have separated, it has been due to an unattractive home. Now, please do not misunderstand me. I do not want you to think that a home must be elegantly furnished to be homelike. On the contrary, many of the most humble homes are the most cheerful and inviting. The key to success in home-making is in combining just effects of curtains, wall paper, furniture, etc.

And this brings to mind a most important subject--that of how to make good looking cheerful homes. Let us suppose a room looks too high for its length and breadth. With the help of a good carpenter or handy man, that lean bulky appearance can be entirely eliminated by making a false ceiling out of Compo-board. This is much easier than it seems. A light framework in first place out of Compo-board, is all that is needed. 2x4's to which the Compo-board is nailed. The reason I recommend Compo-board is that it is sanitary, inexpensive, easily applied, and the workmen do not track up the house, as is sometimes the case with other building materials. As an illustration of its small cost of Compo-board, let me cite you the case of a friend of mine, Mrs. O. at

A GOLDEN NUGGET FOR EVERY HOUSEHOLD.

A Nugget More Valuable in the Household Than The Product of the Mines. That Nugget is GOLDEN VESTA BUTTER

In full pood cartons. The health of your household is priceless--beyond the purchasing power of gold. No one necessity of the table causes so much trouble if it is bad or unwholesome or so much pleasure if it is sweet and sanitary as Butter. We are talking Golden Vesta Butter to you because we believe that it is worth while to any housewife to purchase butter that will give satisfaction for every ounce of the sixteen in the pound.

In the first place it is made by experts who have discovered after years of experience that certain things must be observed in butter manufacture.

It is sanitary because the Linc'n Produce and Refrigerating Company is particular about sanitation and watches every process from the receiving of the cream until the Golden Butter is placed in the carton to send to the retailer.

It is this care that is making Golden Vesta a household word just as Jarbidge stands for gold to the mining men.

CALLED BY DEATH.

Friendless W. Sprague Passes Away After Lingering Illness.

On Friday morning, October 20, at 3:30, Frederick W. Sprague, aged 28 years, was called to the Great Beyond after an illness of almost a year of suffering with chronic appendicitis and spinal trouble. He leaves to mourn his death his wife, Mrs. Rebecca Sprague, and a young son, besides three sisters and three brothers. Moslemes, Nottle Nance, of Kansas; Sadie Ayers and Charles Webb of this city; A. S. Sprague of this city; Dr.

F. M. Sprague, Seattle, Washington, and Charles Sprague, of Philadelphia, all were present at the funeral but the brother who resides in Philadelphia. The funeral services were held from Charles J. Walker's chapel Sunday afternoon at two o'clock, and was attended by the Modern Woodmen of America, he being a member of the Albee camp, holding a large number of friends of the surviving family. The funeral was conducted by Rev. W. E. Henry, pastor of the First Baptist church, assisted by the choir, who rendered several beautiful songs. The remains were interred in the city cemetery.

Your Safety

All cases of impaired vision cannot be cured by glasses, but by far the greater number can. However, it is a great misfortune that your eyes are not experimented with, for if glasses are not the remedy required, their use is most dangerous. If you submit your case to me, you are safe, whether you need them or not. If you need them, proper ones will be furnished, if not, you will be promptly informed of the fact.

SHIPPING CATTLE TO FEED.

Jim Lempergen, the big Portland cattleman, came in from the west on No. 17 this forenoon, and after spending a couple of days in the Gate City, will depart for Twin Falls, at which point he is shipping a couple of thousand beef cattle, which he will feed there this winter, having purchased a large quantity of hay from the Twin Falls farmers. Stock feeding promises to be an important industry in that part of the state hereafter. Blackhall & Gemmill, the Bannock county sheep men, are shipping 30,000 head of sheep to Ellert to be fed on hay purchased this fall by the firm.—Pocatello Tribune.

NEW THEATRICAL ATTRACTION

Lowe's Madison Square Company Open Monday evening of this week Lowe's Madison Square Theatre company commenced a week's engagement at the Lyric theatre, with that well known play, "College Chums." The company is a well balanced one and will no doubt give satisfaction to the theatre going public. The company is playing at popular prices and between each act new specialties are given. Do not fail to see them.

Free Lecture Oct 29th.
E. T. Talliferro, Bible Lecturer of New York, will deliver a Free Bible Lecture at the Lyric theatre, October 29, at 8 p. m. Everyone invited.

AN AVERAGE RANCH YIELD.

W. E. Bush of Ellert, gives Some Crop Figures.

W. E. Bush of Ellert, with his wife and family, were visitors in Twin Falls Wednesday. While here Mr. Bush gave to the Times reporter a high average for his whole farm. Twenty acres of wheat in one field, gave 1604 bushels, which is a big yield. Fifty-five acres in another field, gave 3220 bushels. Oats on thirteen acres yielded 960 bushels and sixteen acres of clover netted 89 tons in two cuttings. Mr. Bush, living as he does in the rich country west of this city, can be said to indicate by his report what that section is doing this year. He claims that his report is merely about the average.

Hallowe'en's Ball.

On Hallowe'en night there will be a big time at Dramaland. By the light of the jack-o-lantern the dancers will make merry. The witches will be there and you sure will have a big time that night if you love dancing. Everybody come.
