LIQUOR VIOLATORS ARE FOUND GUILTY

Four Cases Tried in District Court.

NONE HAVE ESCAPED THIS TERM OF COURT.

Several Cases Yet to be Tried—County Attorney Well-Satisfied With Results.

So far this term of court four bootlegging cases have been tried and a conviction secured in each case that has come before the court jury.

Charles Howard was the first offender to be tried and he was found guilty of maintaining a nuisance. He was charged with and was sentenced to serve three and one-half months in the county jail and to pay a fine of $400 and costs. Howard has also been found guilty of violating the city ordinance against maintaining a nuisance and an appeal has been taken to the district court. It is not known at the present time when the case will be heard.

Percy L. Hanson was charged in the Hoffman and Goldfarb two-specific sales of intoxicating liquor, was found guilty on one charge and not guilty on the other. Hanson has not been sentenced as yet, as it is understood that a motion will be made for a new trial by his attorney.

Frank Weber pleaded guilty of peddling liquor and was fined $250 and costs of prosecution.

The cases on behalf of the state have been looked after by County Attorney A. R. Hickman and Attorney A. M. Hansen, who have engaged on behalf of the city. The defense in each case has been taken care of by law firms of Guthrie & Larsen.

ODGEN CAPITAL IN JARBIDGE

Jarbidge-Badger Group Is Planned by Mining Men of Utah.

John E. Devan, manager of the mines of the Jarbidge-Badger company, came in on Saturday evening to meet his associates with the other officers and directors of the company regarding business affairs, says the Elko Express.

Mr. Devan states the property of the company is looking fine and he has just come from the state capital where he has agreed to invest in the company and furnish the money to continue development on a larger scale all winter. At present men are working, but Mr. Devan expects to have ten or twelve on the "dry roll" soon.

The development is by three tunnels that crosscut to the ledges and in all of which good ore has been found. The lower tunnel has been driven 250 feet to the ledge and drift has been run 120 feet on the ledge.

Another tunnel out the ledge in 150 feet and ore was found that concentrates seven tons one and makes product worth $32 a ton. The values are now estimated at $100,000. An additional claim that adjoins the company holdings are to be taken over. All the holdings of the company and the adjoining ground have good surface showings and the prospects for developing a paying property are regarded as bright.—Salt Lake Tribune.

LAND OPENING AND DRAWING

Will Take Place at Jerome Last of November.

The opening of 14,000 acres of land under a pumping proposition within the first and second segregations of the Twin Falls tract, the Kimball and Water company will take place about the last of November, the exact date to be announced later.

These lands will be drawn for under Carey act rules and the draw will occur on the 28th and 29th of November. The land is located east of Jerome within a few miles of town, beginning just over the two-mile line. Some very choice land is included within this project, and when drawn it will be the best land available. The lands will be the means of bringing many strangers to the tract.—North Side News.

RAILROAD TO CONTACT.

Salt Lake and Twin Falls have been trying for line to Upper Camp.

Mining activity to a large extent has blazed the trail for railroad construction in the valley. The valley contains a great amount of mineral wealth, and Nevada has especially been the scene of an immense amount of railroad building since Tonopah, Goldfield, Ely and several other districts have been developed extensively by mining companies and industrial bodies of precious metal have been exposed, but the end is not yet. A number of new mineral fields are coming to the front, prominent among which is Contact.

Salt Lake and Twin Falls have been trying for line to a considerable extent. One of the most active operators in that camp is a Salt Laker who by heroic efforts has succeeded in interesting a large amount of outside capital. He has depended upon the help of the twin towns—many of the railroad and bus-him—a number of Twin Falls people who are anxious to have a new line that will give it closer connection with a number of our outlying districts.

The crew has already agreed to help in the financing of the projected line to the extent of $300,000, and others who are interested in farming and mining ground which will be tapped by the road are willing to put up an equal amount.

The line now proposed is to start from Shafter on the Western Pacific and Nevada Northern lines and build through Contact and on to Twin Falls.

It will give direct connection with the Union Pacific and the two roads of Contact an opportunity to ship either to the valley smelters or the Steptoe plant near Ely.

The case was removed to the federal court upon the contention that the reclamation act is a "revenue" act, the same as other government laws which create revenue departments are. Judge Foster, in his opinion on the motion to remand, does not sustain this contention.

The action is based upon difficulties arising from disputes regarding irrigation and many settled in the vicinity. The Twin Falls residents interested in the suit. By this action the Twin Falls Canal company seeks to have settlers restrained from using waters from the Snake river which the canal company claims. Owing to the fact that such a large number of settlers are dependent upon irrigation, the outcome is awaited with interest in many quarters.

The action is under way, to determine the money made at once.

The local engineers will be able to collect all the data that will be required to present to the projectors of this line and actual construction could be started on the completion of the same.

The same is to be continued by the shifter, as it would be an easy matter to get material and supplies delivered to that point from this market.

The work has been carefully outlined and some of the timers are now at work. Construction is likely to be completed within possibly a year.—Salt Lake Telegram.

CITIZENS MAKE RAID.

Idaho Falls Citizens Clean Up Their Town.

The peace and serenity of the court was interrupted Saturday by the hurried entrance into the city hall and the office of the police judge of several citizens bearing in their hands pitchforks and bottles of the same shape, design and color of the ordinary beer bottle. Inquiry developed the fact that the individuals had been gathered under the auspices of the recently organized "Reverent League," had quietly prepared a raid and search and seizure on saloons and soft drink places during the busy hours of Saturday.

The pitchforks were sooted containing what is supposed to be whiskey and no doubt it was, as well as several unlabelled bottles supposed to contain beer. Several other bottles containing beer and alcohol were seized.

Three times during the past ten days children of tender years have narrowly escaped serious injury or perhaps death while playing in the streets of the city at wide crossing streets without proper care. In all cases the children were not old enough to be on the street without some one to look after them. It is a common sight to see on our main streets boys, playing on the pavement, start out into the street almost under the feet of the automobiles. The city places all the restorative posts upon the shoulders and drivers of autos in order to protect the public, and yet the plan of the accident has been averted by just pure luck. What needs the most attention at present is the parent who will allow his child to play upon the dangerous streets or go about unattended before reaching the age where the child can care for him or herself. It is not out of the possibility to have some fatal accident in which the driver of the team or auto will be blamed for something really not avoidable, merely because some parents leave the city authorities to assume responsibility which they have shirked as parents.

THE CALIFORNIA PROJECTION.

The election in California certainly indicates a tendency toward more radical democracy in the more recently settled states, if not throughout the United States. The returning the initiative and the recall laws, enacted by decisive majorities; women suffrage has been adopted by a majority that is very much smaller than the number at the end of last year, were roughly reported as follows:

For Initiative and Referendum, over 60,000.

For recall, about 100,000.

For woman suffrage, 2,500.

Altogether there were twenty-three amendments submitted, but fifteen of them dealt with only five distinct subjects. One group of five amendments gave larger powers to the following commission and privileges to its members; another group of six gave larger powers to cities and counties in making their own charters; another group of three pertained to the courts of the state; and a group of two put in practice the principle of the short ballot. One important amendment provided for workmen's compensation, and one provided for civil service reform, which, in California, has been thoroughly checked. All of these are according to unverified reports, adopted.

At first the amendment providing for woman's suffrage was reported as defeated; and immediately the advocates of woman's suffrage announced their intention of having recourse to the newly adopted process of initiative to have the question now before the people of the state next year. No body seemed to think it worth while to consult the women themselves on the question. If a majority of the women do the suffrage, it should be and will be generally given, because whether it is desirable or not, it is not so undesirable to have women voting as it would be to have half the women of the state believe that their man rights were denied them by the men. It is, on the other hand, only a minority of the women desire the suffrage, and it is as perfectly inconsistent in asking the men to force upon the other women as their right a burden from which they wish to be relieved. The referendum, initiative, and recall have long been proposed elsewhere, as a remedy for badness. It remains to be seen whether the remedy will prove efficacious. We think it is one to be held in reserve, that the 1901 ballot legislation, as recommended by Mr. Childs in his report, the book of which we wrote last month, should be made a Presidential point, and the direct appeal to the people for a state meeting, negotiation should be reserved for a last resort.

The Outlook is strongly opposed to applying the recall to the judicial offices and thus making it possible at any time to transform a town-meeting into a court of appeals. But we can understand why certain men have led the people of California to adopt the petition remedy for the burden which would be to legality and tradition, if by nothing worse, before the courts in other states learn a lesson from the California election.

The lesson that substantial justice is far more important than a blind adherence to technical rules or just traditions, they may expect the example set by California to be followed in other American communities.—The Outlook.

RUSHING THE WORK.

Work on the Central Idaho Being Rapidly Pushed.

Track laying on the Central Idaho highway is moving along nicely, and the road will be completed to Payette City this year.

At this writing the track layers are out about eight miles, and everything is working smoothly. Up to Wednesday the men in charge of the work were hampered by incompetent labor, but now the men are run out there Thursday—this will enable them to lay way, there will be nothing short of an exceedingly early winter that will keep them from completing the road well ahead of schedule.

The switch and tie job has been completed and the building of the men were run out there Thursday. This will enable them to lay more steel than they have been doing, as it was taking better than an hour to run into town for dinner and back again.—Streifel Recorder.

Mr. Osborne, the engineer in charge, deserves great credit for the manner in which he has pushed the work, and the headway he has made on the timber line of the road.

Warm Floors and Healthy Children Make Happy Homes

There is no better way for you to avoid worry and expense than by insuring your children's health.

Warm floors in the home, which is the children's play house in winter, are assured when using Cole's Original Hot Blast Heater.

The steel base and body construction allows the heat to be radiated to the floor keeping it warm during the coldest weather.

Cole's Original Hot Blast Heater

The Cleanest-Easiest to Care For Burns Soft Coal, Lignite, Hard Coal, Crushed Coke, Wood and Cobs.

Users of coal must remember that the ordinary heater is a big care to operate. That its smoke and ashes entail dusting, curtain washing and carpet sweeping. Think then of the case of operation and the cleanliness of Cole's Hot Blast.

Cole's Hot Blast has a guaranteed smoke-proofed door—means the feed door and the current of air draws the smoke directly across the top of stove to the stove pipe—away from the opening. Contrast this simple, cleanly feed with the side door in an ordinary heater. The side door used on other heating apparatus permits escape of dirty smoke, unpleasant gas and accumulated soot drops from it. If you overfill a side door stove, coal falls to the floor. And note this, you cannot make a side door heater air-tight—an everlasting advantage in favor of Cole's Hot Blast, which is air-tight and guaranteed to remain so always.

No fires to build—the fire is never out in this remarkable heater from fall until taken down in the spring.

Better select one today—surely it is the heater you need.
