Expert Shooters in Tournament

Propagator Association, and in order to complete the entire number of shoots scheduled, the event originally scheduled for Idaho, but cancelled owing to the fact that the Boise club had been compelled to store their traps because of the loss of their shooting grounds, this event will be shot off at Salt Lake City next Saturday, thus giving the Utah metropolis two events instead of the one scheduled there for Sunday.

One of the features of the shooting of the touring teams is the great work done by Fred Willet, of the San Francisco team, who has steadily maintained a percentage of better than 91 ever since the tour commenced. Under all kinds of weather conditions, and at all manner of throw targets, the expert from San Francisco has shot better than 84 birds of every 100 targets, which is considered a remarkable record to be made anywhere.

High Poston, one of the Spokane representatives, is another tourist who has been shooting in great form since the tour started. In the earlier shoots in Oregon he fell way below his usual average by reason of his experimenting with a new gun, but since he has returned to his old rifle, he has been shooting practically as well as Willet. In the snow at Shoshone the other day Poston broke 76 consecutive targets, and when his teammates were expelling him to accomplish the straight, his hands became numb by the cold and he missed several targets, thus spoiling his chance for a record.

Besides Poston and Willet, the other members of the touring party are Guy and Pete Holohan, both well known in Twin Falls, having been former residents of this city, and who are now representing Portland in the tournament, and C. H. Handlett, E. C. Morgan and the "Acker" Handlett is Willet's partner representing San Francisco, while Acker and Poston represent Spokane, and Morgan represents the Portland team at each contest.

On their arrival at Twin Falls Monday, Peter J. Holohan received a telegram from the Dupont Powder company announcing that that company had decided to add a handsome pair of cut links to the prizes being competed for by the traveling teams. At present it looks favorable for the San Francisco pair, Willet and Handlett, to become winners of the trophies, for this team has won ten events so far, and only five shots remain, including today's contest. Spokane still has a chance, for the gunners representing that city have so far won seven contests, while the Portland team has captured but three shoots. An instance of the luck the Portland team has played in on this trip is shown by the number of times they have been beaten out by one bird. This occurred three times, while a margin of two birds beat the Holohans on two occasions, so, while last in the race, they have been forcing their opponents all the time.

One of 5000 targets shot at this far, Fred Willet has broken 1,892 clay birds for a percentage of 91.6-10, quite a handsome average. In the same number of targets Poston has broken 1,807 targets, for an average of 90.3-10 per cent.

The teams shoot at Idaho Falls Thursday, Ogden Friday and Saturday and Sunday at Salt Lake City, which will conclude the tournament.

Shooter	Score	Percentage
Willet	1892	91.6
Fisher	1200	80.0
Handlett	1400	87.5
P. Holohan	1200	80.0
Robertson	1100	86.7
G. Holohan	800	73.6
Morgan	2000	91.5
Poston	1807	90.3

GOOD BOXING BOUT.

Friday Evening of This Week at the Dreamland Pavilion.

The coming ten-round boxing contest between Jack Carpenter of Salt Lake and "Thaddeus" from Denver, which is to take place at the Dreamland Hall in this city next Friday night, promises to be the best contest of this kind ever staged in this section of the country.

The Dane made a great hit with the local fans by the easy manner in which he won over Furusworth and they are anxious to see him in action—again—against someone who will be able to make him exert himself the full ten rounds.

In Carpenter he will meet a boy who is somewhat larger than himself and one who has had as much experience and to the present time has never taken the count from any of them.

Carpenter recently boxed a six-round draw in Salt Lake with Jack Downey, the man who beat Slick Merrill, the crack colored boy. In those a couple weeks ago, Carpenter and the Dane have never met before as the Dane always refused to give away so much weight, but he has been improving so fast lately that he thinks he can take that much handicap and still win.

Carpenter arrived here Sunday and from now until the night of the bout both boys will work out twice daily, consisting of running on the roads in the forenoon and boxing and skipping the rope in the afternoon, and by the time of the bout they will be in condition to go the full ten rounds at top speed.

Both boys are good and willing mixers, who are trying all the time and to insure the fans who attend that they will receive a good run for their money Bud Ryan, who is promoting the bout advises that if the bout is not satisfactory the money will be refunded.

TWIN FALLS AS FACTORY CENTER

Supt. O. M. Elliott Delivers Interesting Talk.

NOON DAY LUNCHEON BY COMMERCIAL CLUB VERY POPULAR.

Subject for Next Wednesday, Cereal Food Manufacture in the Twin Falls Country.

The opportunity as well as the need for various factories in Twin Falls was clearly shown to the members who assembled at the Wednesday noon-day luncheon at the Twin Falls Commercial club. Professor O. M. Elliott, superintendent of the Twin Falls schools, talked for twenty minutes on "The Physical Advantages of Twin Falls as a Manufacturing Center." He illustrated his talk with a map of the United States, showing that Twin Falls is in the center of a vast valley easy of access by railroads. He also showed where it will be possible and practicable to ship by water to New York after the completion of the Panama canal, the Columbia river offering an outlet for fish.

Among the industries especially mentioned were a potato chip factory, a potato starch factory, canning factory, dried fruit factory, machine plant, woolen mills, cereal-food factory. The short-time allotted to the speaker did not give him an opportunity to touch on various points, but much valuable information was gleaned by those present.

A pleasant incident of the meeting was the formal unveiling by the president of the Commercial club of the picture of the battleship Idaho which was presented to the club by Addison T. Smith. The picture was hung in the rear of the banquet hall and draped with the American flag.

The luncheon, Wednesday, February 21, will be especially elaborate as the officials have arranged for a cold roast turkey menu for the day. While the picture to the club is greater, and there will be a loss on every plate, the price has not been advanced, the members paying 50 cents each.

The subject for the coming Wednesday is "Cereal Food Manufacture in the Twin Falls Country," and Mr. Brockbridge will graciously facilitate matters by securing tickets at one or two in advance.

RELIEF OF THE SALMON SETTLERS

State Land Board Makes Concessions.

SIX MONTHS PROOF AFTER DELIVERY OF WATER RESTADED.

A recent decision by the state land board will be welcome news to a large number of purchasers of land on the Salmon River tract who until the following year was made were forced to make proof within six months of delivery of water. In response to an inquiry made by George Smith of this city to the board, the following letter was received from Mr. Shawhan, Carey Act Commissioner:

Boise, Idaho, Feb. 6, 1912.
Mr. George H. Smith, Twin Falls, Idaho: Dear Sir: Replying to your letter of January 30th, addressed to Honorable James H. Hawley, which has been referred to this office, will say that the state land board at meeting on November 1st, repealed the rule requiring residence to be established within six months from the notice of the availability of water in the tract in which to establish residence, providing, however, that he entitlate 1-16 of the land the first year, and the second year, and submit final proof at some time during the third year.

We will have our new set of rules ready for distribution in a short time. If you will write us in about thirty days we will be glad to send you a copy.

Yours truly,
BENJ. F. SHAWHAN.

It thus means that the board has taken cognizance of the hardship which the strict enforcement of the former would work on the tract at present and will do all they can to give full scope to the desiring.

The first evening of the band minstrel show was an unqualified success. A packed house with standing room only was the result of the rare quality of the performance of last year and those present claim that it was better than before. Every number on the program went off with vim and precision and with enough good musical numbers interspersed with the rag time and cowboy songs to satisfy even Twin Falls musical critics.

The jokes and funny drives fairly convulsed the audience, even the victim of the broadsides being tickled. The program and the participants in it were a make-believe disturbance was made the victim of a clever little comedy. L. H. Perrine's many suggestions and his fine Lakes raised furnished the end men another victim, with P. H. Smith as a third.

The musical group, pulled off by Messrs. Luterbach, Thorpe and Tuber was highly enjoyed. Master Willie Hance Junior, as Madame Sherbrooke, showed a talent of rare quality as a young boy and was given his share of the audience's applause.

The show was between eleven and twelve.

ADDITION OF THRONE.

Chinese Republic Now An Assured Fact.

Peking, Feb. 12.—An imperial edict proclaiming the abdication of the throne by the Manchus was issued at noon today. Another edict declared the throne accepts the republic while a third approves of all the conditions agreed to by President Yuan Shi Kai and the republicans. The third edict created great astonishment. It was expected the Manchus would demand conditions to safeguard many of their privileges, but according to the proclamation the surrender was unconditional. It informed the viceroys and provincial governors of the retirement of the throne from political power and instructed them to continue their duty and to preserve order throughout the land. It is declared the act taken by the throne was in order to meet the wishes of the people.

A GOOD PROPOSITION.

Eastern Seed House Offers to Furnish Garden Peas for Planting.

A proposition of interest to every resident of the Twin Falls tract and farmers especially, was presented to the Twin Falls Commercial club this week by H. M. Moore, representing the D. M. Perry & Co. seed house of Detroit, Mich. Mr. Moore's proposition in brief is to make contracts with the farmers to raise garden peas, the entire crop to be purchased by D. M. Perry & Co. at three cents a pound and they will wait for the peas until the crop is sold in the fall. The farmer will be at no no cash outlay whatever, his only expense being the work of planting and harvesting the crop. It is even necessary to cultivate them. The average crop of garden peas, as shown by Mr. Moore, is from 25 to 50 bushels, and the high record in Montana last year was 53 bushels a peck. The average crop on the Twin Falls tract would be 50 bushels, as all farm products have invariably produced larger yields, here than elsewhere. It is possible that some of the potato experts may make a record of 100 bushels to the acre. There are 50 pounds of peas in a bushel, and there are 40 pounds in a bushel—this is probably a low average for the Twin Falls tract—will bring 47-1/2. Deducting $5.40 for seed, the net returns to the farmer will be $66.60.

Peas are an easy crop to raise and are beneficial to the soil. An additional profit may be had by turning the hoes into the field after harvest as the waste peas and vines are excellent manure.

Peas were grown extensively last year at Livinston and Roseman, and at Mr. Anthony, Idaho, and the farmers are so well pleased that they are putting out a much larger acreage this year.

Mr. Moore is now visiting the farmers on the tract with the intention of signing up for five hundred acres.

SANGERS TO BUILD.

L. H. Perrine, Who Sold His Tract of Land at Twin Falls, Is in the City.

L. H. Perrine, of Twin Falls, who is in the city on business, is highly optimistic over the prospects of his section of the country. He says that in the past "Within the past 10 days," said Mr. Perrine, "we have had a noticeable change in business, which was for the better. The country is now being simply crowded during this time and people from all over the country are flocking in. The outlook for the future is very bright. This coming spring is excellent. A number of deals are pending on the north side tract which will be consummated in the near future."

One of the best things in business activity at Twin Falls has been the big sale made by Mr. Perrine's work when he sold to W. E. Sanger and J. C. Sanger of the state of Washington, 80 acres of land immediately adjoining the Perrine tract.

"This is Carey act land," said Mr. Perrine, "and when you consider that I paid $25 an acre for it, it is a great deal of money. It is now $1250 an acre, you will have some idea of value in our section."

It is interesting to note that the intention of the Sangers to divide this land into town lots and immediately make an addition to the city. Mr. Perrine believes this will bring many new settlers to the city, and it alone will add much to the prosperity of the place.—Statesman.

DARING ESCAPE FROM PRISON.

Desperate Character Escapes From Albion.

OLIVER H. BATES, JR., HIDING IN LAVA FIELDS.

John H. Bates, Jr., who has been held in the Cassin jail at Albion for a state prison, and who is also under indictment for alleged violation of the white slave laws, escaped from the jail in Albion Monday forenoon and is still at large.

According to Sheriff R. C. Parks of Cassin county, who was at Albion Monday night, following a day and a half of strenuous riding in pursuit of the fugitive, the escape was accomplished while the jail was unguarded and the doors unlocked.

Bates escaped by simply walking out of the jail in broad daylight. He admitted that he did not lock the doors of the jail, following a day and a half of strenuous riding in pursuit of the fugitive, the escape was accomplished while the jail was unguarded and the doors unlocked.

"Bates escaped by simply walking out of the jail in broad daylight. He admitted that he did not lock the doors of the jail, following a day and a half of strenuous riding in pursuit of the fugitive, the escape was accomplished while the jail was unguarded and the doors unlocked."

As soon as the alarm was sounded two or three posers of men were formed, and the chase after Bates was begun. More than 5 armed men took up the chase after Bates, but he was not late Monday night. It was learned from an authentic source that Bates had been directed from the jail at Albion to the lava fields, where he was hiding. Bates is a desperate character, and the sheriff's men anticipate a bloody battle in case he is overtaken. With two charges hanging over his head, it is probable that he will make every effort to avoid capture and to get out of the country.

Sheriff Parks said last night that although the pursuit of Bates was being diligently maintained and the men of the posse were striving hard to capture the fugitive, it is probable that Bates will succeed in getting away, for he knows the country as well as any of his pursuers, and this makes the capture of Bates a very difficult task.

News of the escape of Bates was received in Boise yesterday morning, when United States Marshal Hodges received the following telegram from Sheriff Parks:

"Bates broke jail today and escaped. Better offer reward. R. C. Parks."

At the time this was received, the Sheriff's men were on their way to Albion to bring Bates and other prisoners to Boise. Bates is said to be a state prisoner, and the indictment in the federal court, will have to face very conclusive and damaging evidence in the white slave charges, and it was predicted that his case would be the most sensational of its kind ever heard in the state when it came to trial. The order of the court was not to discuss the case at this time, but it was intimated that the evidence against Bates was exceedingly strong.

The charge against him in Cassin county, for which he was being detained at the jail at Albion, was grand larceny, during United States marshal Hodges received the following telegram from Sheriff Parks:

On all of Your Printed Matter, It represents Good Workmanship, Good Wages, and Good Conditions.

Scarcely a week passes in this city that a smiling salesman from some out of town printing establishment visits this city. Each one gets some business from the merchants and business men of this city. In every case the work handled by these outside houses can be duplicated in the city shops or the order can be filled by the printers who can duplicate the outside prices and make a nice profit on the business. How about that class of mail order business? How many business houses call up the local printers to find out if the job they want done can be done at home? Consistency is a virtue indeed, something for the other fellow to practice.

According to verified statements from business men of the cities on the Mikado project, the rate for electric lighting is surprisingly cheap compared with that furnished to this city. From the government power plant, the Mikado project, independent sixteen candle power lights on a minimum basis of six lights, cost the consumer twenty-five cents per light for a month, burning the same day and night if they so desire. Of this amount ten cents per light goes to the city where the lights are used and fifteen cents to the government. As a basis of comparison the citizen of Twin Falls would pay about seven dollars per month per sixteen candle power lights if used all the time. The question which is puzzling the business men here is just what makes the difference in the rates and just why this city has to pay a higher rate for cheaper generated power than does the citizen of the government project town. Perhaps the lighting company here has some explanation for the difference. It certainly would be interesting to hear it, at least.

There are several methods of combating mail order business which the Times respectfully submits to the business men. One is in the use of printers' ink and advertising space of the newspapers. It has probably come to the notice of a number of merchants that Montgomery Ward & Company believe in printers' ink in one form or another, and that has caused some disturbance in this city. Right at present in the city of Twin Falls some twenty per cent of the business houses are doing ninety per cent of the advertising which is bringing in trade for the entire city. The rest of the business men can be said to realize on the other fellow's energy. In checking over the ground floor business houses just along Main avenue, there are some ninety-eight businesses represented. Of that number only thirty-one firms carry any advertising whatever during the year. Of the thirty-one only sixteen carry the "constant" advertiser. In "two solid blocks along this avenue there is only one advertiser. Dray your own conclusions as to the result. The same can be said with regard to the other business sections. The business men who are bringing in trade and keeping Twin Falls to the front are also the heaviest contributors to every fund for public benefit. Think over. Do you wonder that the outside houses here are picking off the trade where eighty per cent of the business houses are continually silent as to their wares?

A RAILWAY THAT GOES TO SEA. Under this title nearly five years ago we described the beginning of one of the most remarkable engineering undertakings of modern times—the forced year for year in fresh and inventive spirits. The report of the keys or small islands lying at the southern end of Florida. Now this extensive piece of railway construction has been completed, and on Monday of last week the road was formally opened. The Over-Sea Railway is due to the broad vision and the financial resources of one man—Mr. Henry M. Flagler, who now, at the age of eighty-two, sees the gigantic plan which he conceived brought to a successful end. A glance at the accompanying map will show the course of this line, which jumps, as it were, from one island to another over enormous bridges and trestles. The longest of these jumps is that crossed by the great Flagler Viaduct, which is over seven miles in length. In many places the bed of the road is made of coral rock; in others concrete has been used on a large scale. The road ends in Key West, after one final leap across the deep water. Thus Key West, which is already an important manufacturing place, but given over almost solely to the one industry of cigar-making, and is the southernmost point on our Atlantic coast, is made physically as well as politically a part of the United States. There is good reason to expect that the result may be to make Key West a port of general importance, particularly after the completion of the Panama canal. The other great object accomplished by the new railway is to bring the capital of Cuba much nearer to the United States. By the new route the time from New York to Havana is reduced to only six hours. The line is about one hundred and fifty miles in length, running from Miami to Key West, and its construction has cost over one hundred thousand dollars per mile. Its exposure to the sea has made necessary unusually strong and heavy construction, and the cost has been increased by the fact that all materials have had to be brought a great distance, including even the drinking water used by the laborers. The traveler by this route will have the novel experience of a long journey over a slender causeway which for a long distance separates the Atlantic Ocean from the Gulf of Mexico.—The Outlook.

THE VINDICATION OF DR. WILEY. Dr. Harvey W. Wiley's course in enforcing the Pure Food Law and his persistent attacks and denials, but who against the influence of some federal officials in the government, has been approved by a special committee of the house of representatives. And the report of the committee is signed by all its members, Democratic and Republican alike. As chief of the bureau of chemistry, Dr. Wiley has borne the brunt of the struggle to make the pure food laws effective. He has been the target of much of his effort nullified by others, particularly by Senator McClellan, of the department of agriculture. When charges were brought against Dr. Wiley, and were endorsed by Attorney General Wickham, the fight was brought into the open. Though the president refused to sustain the charges, and decided in favor of Dr. Wiley, the committee on expenditures in the department of agriculture investigated the matter. As a result the committee finds that the administration of the department has been faulty, especially in reaching Dr. Wiley's authority and in treating administrative questions as if they were judicial. The committee recognizes the services that Mr. Wilson the secretary of agriculture has rendered, but speaks plainly about the disorganization from which the department has suffered. Concerning the employment of an expert, for which, among other things, the attorney general recommended the punishment of Dr. Wiley and others, this committee declares that the accused officials were actuated by a desire to secure the services of an efficient assistant; that the form of contract under which this expert was employed is simply "technically illegal," and that congress should specifically provide for the employment of such experts. Indeed, in one respect at least, the tables seem to have been turned, and action taken in the interest of those opposed to Dr. Wiley. He declared in one case to have been "wholly without warrant of law" or cause the report of this committee has of itself no effect upon the personnel or the organization of an executive department; but the fact that it is unanimous is an encouraging indication that congress, as well as public sentiment, is behind the wholesome and effective principles for which Dr. Wiley stands.—The Outlook.

POOKING THE PEOPLE. While it is true, as Mr. Lincoln said, that it is not possible to fool all the people all the time, it is also true that it is quite possible to fool a great many people a part of the time. By taking different groups of people at different times, the "fooling" business is conducted in this country with profit by groups of scoundrels who are referred to as "pookers." They are fresh and inventive spirits. The report of the chief inspector of the post office department sheds a lurid light on the extensive and profitable "fooling" of people carried on in this country this year. In spite of what are generally regarded as "hard times" and the feeling of extreme caution which prevails in business circles, the postoffice department put out an end to frauds which had already extracted in one way or another about seventy-nine million dollars. Many events in recent years have gone a long way to shake the impression that Americans, though lacking in artistic impulse, are shrewd business people. It seems to be necessary to "hold out" some, alluring promise of impossible profits to secure a good living from the mails. Minor shams which were never successful, which was never brought to the surface, enormous plans which are pure imaginary, form an attraction which to many read, honest, but dull-minded people seem irresistible. Any clever scoundrel who will promise thirty per cent in six months, or a hundred and twenty per cent in a year, has only to hire a small room, put in a desk, and open his morning mail in order to live like a millionaire, with a minimum of street wisdom to take him to an expensive restaurant for a Roanoke feast. Of course it may be said that in a country in which such colossal fortunes have been made in such short time and in which the advance of prices, with occasional intermissions is so steady, there is bred an optimistic temper and a desire to "get rich quick" which seems to deprive many people, temporarily, of their reason. But so many swindles have been exposed that even people in the remotest part of the country ought now to be on guard. "If it's too good to be true, it is no longer accepted as a defense," and after the wide publicity given to thieves and scoundrels who publish alluring advertisements there is no longer any reason for a man who is in enterprises about which he knows nothing and with which he makes no intelligent endeavor to acquaint himself.—The Outlook.

ARE YOU USING

Electric Light?

Good household lighting can be afforded by every family of moderate means. The average monthly bill for residence lighting in this city under the $1.00 minimum is approximately $1.80 per month, and in small houses approximately $1.35 per month.

For an average price of $1.80 per month is sold absolutely the best, the cleanest, the most convenient and safest lighting in the world.

This is a dull month for the electrical contractors. They are willing to make prices lower than ordinary. A considerable saving in labor can be effected if with a large number of contracts they can proceed from house to house. To parties occupying their own houses which require wiring an additional inducement is being made by the Great Shoshone and Twin Falls Water Power Company. For further information in regard to this, inquire at the office.

If you are a renter you will find that most landlords will wire their houses if their tenants really want electric light. Wired houses secure good tenants.

DEAL IN REAL ESTATE.

Big Capitalist of Salt Lake Invests in Buhl City Property to the Extent of $20,000.

The largest transaction in city property within the last two years was consummated Saturday and Monday when Julius Rosenberg of Salt Lake, who recently engaged a life when he sold liquor business in that city, acquired title to the brick building on Broadway occupied by the Variety A. Store, the two-story brick on Main street occupied by the Golden Rule store, the frame building on Main street occupied by the Mode Millinery and Dr. Wertheim, and the vacant lot at the corner of Ninth and Main. The building occupied by the Variety A. Store was a part of the Baldwin estate, the other real estate involved was the property of W. J. Tull. Twenty thousand dollars changing hands on the several parcels, the deals were all made through Atty. A. W. Ostrom, who has been retained as local attorney by Mr. Rosenberg for the past year.

Mr. Rosenberg has just returned from Jurbidgo and was strongly impressed by the resources of Buhl through the excellent fertility of the country this side of Castleford, and the many prosperous stock ranches in the fertile valley beyond, all tributary to Buhl.

On Saturday, through Mr. Ostrom, he purchased the entire Baldwin estate from Chas. A. McRoberts. Sunday morning Mr. Rosenberg visited Twin Falls and returned the following day and purchased the several parcels in his investments. Mr. Rosenberg held in view not so much the present worth of the properties, although this is said to be purchased at reasonable figures, but more especially the future of the city; in fact much of the property he did not see until the deals were closed. Mr. Rosenberg is said to have other Buhl investments under consideration—Buhl Herald.

HOW TO MEASURE A RIVER.

Simple Method for Determining the Volume of Any Stream.

The United States Geological Survey recently issued a paper describing a simple method of determining the approximate flow of streams or small rivers. It is believed that the following procedure may be of some value to those who for any reason wish to determine the velocity or volume of a stream.

To ascertain the velocity of the stream choose a place where the channel is straight for 100 to 200 feet and make a nearly central width and divide it in length, marking each end; then allow small chips to float down the stream, by one of the methods described below, noting the time required for these to traverse the distance laid off on the bank. The surface velocity in feet-per-second is obtained by dividing the distance in feet passed over by the time in seconds it takes the float to travel this distance. The average of several such determinations will give the mean surface velocity of the stream. This result multiplied by the coefficient 0.85 gives very nearly the mean velocity of the stream. To obtain the area of the cross section of the stream, stretch a tape from shore to shore and take the depth of the stream at intervals of 10 to 20 feet. The average of these depths may be assumed as the mean depth of the stream. This average multiplied by the width will give the area of the cross section of the stream in square feet.

The discharge is found by multiplying this cross section area by the mean velocity, as obtained by the float measurements, the result giving the discharge in cubic feet per second.

In determining the velocity for small streams and when only approximate results are desired the float is placed in the center of the stream only. For larger streams and when greater accuracy is desired a tape is stretched across the stream and the distance between the two banks is divided into a number of equal spaces or sections. Floats are then allowed to drift down the stream, the time taken in the center of each of these spaces, the same number of floats being used for each section. The mean surface velocity is then assumed to be the mean of the surface velocities obtained for the several sections. For each float the distance from the point from the right bank is recorded as indicated.

Dick Davis has moved into the house vacated by Dr. Cole in Donkey town. A. G. Lammer and family will shortly return from their visit to Hawaii. The family has been visiting their house vacated by Mr. Davis.

SOCIETY NOTES

Mrs. J. H. Wood entertained four ladies at a social tea party last Thursday afternoon. Those present were Mesdames Hazen, Arkuckle, Gibson and Fuller.

The young ladies of the Presbyterian church will give a fried chicken supper in the basement of the church Tuesday evening, February 20th, from six o'clock on. The young ladies state very emphatically that there will not be a food shortage, no matter how many hungry people attend.

Mrs. Chas. Bullis was hostess at an informal but jolly little party last Saturday evening, when she entertained a few ladies at bridge, at which Mrs. Arthur L. Lewis captured the prize for high score. After several games had been played, dainty refreshments were served. Those present were Mesdames G. P. Inker, C. C. Redford, C. E. Booth, Geo. Bullis, C. H. Burton, Courchlin, E. J. Hartigan, W. S. Hill, E. C. Laverling, A. L. Lewis, L. P. Morse, and A. P. Senior.

The domestic science department of the Twentieth Century club will begin an active campaign in favor of patronizing home industry by giving a noon-day dinner on Saturday, March 24, at which all foods served will be home grown. The humble bean, which has suddenly stepped into the limelight because of an attack by a Chicago mill order house, will be a prominent offering on the bill of fare and those served will be a part of the 10,000 bushels raised on the Twin Falls tract. Details of the program for the day have not yet been worked out, the date and the beans being about all decided on so far. Full particulars will be given later.

Mrs. Charles H. Burton entertained at the second of a series of parties on last Friday afternoon. The guests were Mesdames Chas. Bullis, J. Costello, P. J. Costello, E. C. O'Donnell, H. Grant, W. P. Guthrie, P. E. Lewis, W. S. Hill, Kelley, C. O. Langley, G. W. Kennedy, A. L. Lewis, H. O. Milner, H. M. McCollum, L. P. Morse, T. A. Reed, H. A. Reed, A. P. Senior, R. W. Spangler, T. W. Wilesworth. Senior, following which most delicious refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mesdames Bullis, Grant and Langley.

Mrs. Carl Hahn entertained a company of little folks at her home Tuesday afternoon in honor of the fifth birthday of Carl J. Junior. The afternoon was taken up with games and other amusements dear to the hearts of the children. A dainty luncheon was served by the hostess, assisted by the Misses Cora Hartigan and Zeta Heine. The guests were: Misses Fox, Maxwell, Pearson, Powers, Kohl, Dyer, McMillan, Jessie McMillan, Combs, Ecker and Nelson.

On Friday evening Miss Mabel Cole entertained about twenty of her schoolmates and friends at a delightful flower masquerade at her home on Second avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Yates expect to move from the congenial neighborhood in the "Spring Garden Road." The crowd met at the Mr. J. H. Wanda house last Friday evening and went in a body to give this worthy couple a surprise party. To say they were surprised would be putting it in a mild form. They were simply taken by storm, but soon came to life and gave the crowd a hearty welcome. It took "that" Yates a little longer to recover but was feeling as well as ever before many hours. A very pleasant evening was spent with games, music, recitations and social conversation. Light refreshments, furnished by the ladies, were served, and the crowd departed at a late hour, expressing their regret at losing this worthy couple from their midst.

"HIMSELF TO 1905" Here's to the early pioneer days, to "his" the best of all! When on streets of sage the rabbit played, and we heard the coyote call. Yes, here's to the dust, the burning heat, and even the worst old "cow." For these are the things that printed deep, fair lines on memories' page. 'Twas all this then, that bound us firm in friendship, not to sever—

"The time may bend and break and change, true friendship lives forever! So I raise my glass and drink to those dear bygone days of old—
And count these o'er and o'er again, a miser and his gold.
Twas in those days we hoped and prayed, that the Twin Falls tract might grow—
And working stanchly side by side we've made the thing we! We've hoisted, grubbed and planted, we've worked and made it boom.
And now a city splendid we take from off our loam.
And so I drink to Then and Now, the sowing and the reaping—
And fondly trust that what we have wrought, into our Great God's keeping."

During the past week Montgomery Ward has flooded southern Idaho with literature attacking the character of our merchants and the quality of the goods they sell, together with the way in which their stores are kept. What Are You Going to Do About It?

Montgomery Ward & Co. asks this question; Mr. Farmer, Mr. Mechanic, Mr. Everybody—residents of "South" Idaho and Twin Falls in particular. This is the "stonewall" question asked in a scurrilous circular edited by the above firm and mailed broadcast. Their circular is a condemnation, not only of the Merchant of Twin Falls but to the farmer as well. It is an insult to the intelligence of all persons to whom they were mailed. NOW WE ASK

WHAT ARE YOU GOING TO DO ABOUT IT?

What has Montgomery Ward or any other Mail Order House ever done for Twin Falls and Southern Idaho? Did they help build the bridges across Rock Creek? Did they furnish the funds for a $7000.00 fair to advertise the farmers products? Who furnishes the funds to maintain the horticultural exhibits? The dairy conventions? The swine breeders conventions? The poultry shows? Who opens up new markets for the products of the tract by building an $8000.00 road to Jarbridge? Who buys your eggs? Poultry? Butter? Milk? Onions? Spuds? Fruits? Who supports your Commercial Club; exploit your lands and orchards; maintain your churches and help build your school houses?

You Know the Answer---The Local Merchants

How much money has Montgomery Ward invested in Southern Idaho? How much taxes do they pay for support of public institutions?

You Have Pride in Twin Falls

Montgomery Ward & Co. say about our stores:

"Their stocks are far inferior to those of stores in towns not nearly as large in Kansas, Iowa, Illinois and other eastern states." We feel a great pride in our stores and know you do, and YOU know there is not a town of its size in the United States more up-to-date stores than those of your own Twin Falls and with stocks as good. If they misrepresent your beans and our stores, won't they misrepresent the quality of their goods and anything else.

Who Raised The Dirty Beans?

Montgomery Ward's man says in his circular: "The goods (white navy beans) shown me were machine run stock, very poorly cleaned, many of the small or trashy beans not taken out and withall very dirty." Mr. Farmer, there is not a store in Twin Falls selling other than home-grown navy beans. This is where you come in direct competition with Montgomery Ward & Co. They seek to destroy your market. You raised 16,000 bushels of beans last year. Did we kick on your beans? Think it over.

Are Our Stores Clean?

Here's Montgomery's exact words about our groceries: "I was shocked beyond measure at the condition of the grocery stores, especially the fact that none I visited was a thoroughly clean and up-to-date establishment. The goods are thrown in almost any shape and it is a wonder to me that the citizens do not compel them to clean up."

ARE WE DIRTY? You know Mr. Consumer, that Twin Falls' grocery stores are strictly clean. After so gross a misrepresentation, would you believe their other statements?

AGAIN THEY SAY: "You yourself can go into the stores at Twin Falls and find just the same conditions that he did."

And that's real good advice. We invite your inspection from cellar to garret and pleased to show you it's our pleasure.

Who and What Are We?

This Merchants' association is an organization for the purpose of boosting Twin Falls and making a better feeling among ourselves. To regulate credits and see that every man who is honest and entitled to it is accorded the proper credit.

Is your Credit good at Montgomery Ward & Co.'s?

Other purposes is to open and find new markets for Twin Falls products.

To regulate and encourage subscriptions to legitimate enterprises, and advance the general welfare of the tract.

How Can We Misrepresent?

Montgomery Ward's "Country Storekeeper" says our goods are shoddy and second grade. How can we misrepresent when you can examine our goods before you buy? You know their statement is not true. You are an intelligent people. Would you believe any other statement they made?

Comparison of Prices

It is utterly impossible to compare prices from a catalogue without the article itself to compare. A $4.00 shoe and $3.00 shoe may have the same description, yet have a better grade of material of the same description and better workmanship thereon. One may be scab made and one union made, and it's a cinch the mail order houses don't use UNION MADE GOODS. We are willing, ready and anxious to compare prices. Just come along with catalogues and samples.

THE RESOLUTION.

That Brought Out Montgomery Ward's Wrath

HERE IT IS.

Resolved, That whereas we do not consider advertising in premium lists profitable to the members and it is contrary to the rules of the organization, we withhold our endorsement; but we hereby approve of the plans of the Southern Idaho Poultry association to solicit money and premiums for its support among our members. Provided, all advertising and premiums offered by mail order houses be refused.

We don't consider this kind of advertising proper and profitable and we were willing to support the poultry organization with cash. Why should we donate our cash to provide an advertising medium for Montgomery Ward & Co.? Don't you think we were right. Would you?

Irrigated Southern Idaho

Has been developed in 7 years from a desert to a flourishing and prosperous country, and is populated by people of high intelligence from all parts of the United States. Did Montgomery Ward & Co. or any other Mail Order House contribute anything to the accomplishment of this condition? No, it was only accomplished by the united effort of all the people.

In order to accomplish all things we still hope for, we must be united. We need you, You need us.

"UNITED WE STAND, DIVIDED WE FALL."

What are you going to do about it?

Merchants and Manufacturers Association.

TWIN FALLS, IDAHO

The 5 Acre Orchard Tracts are Selling

Lawyers, Merchants, Manufacturers, Clerks, Farmers, Day Laborers, are taking the advantage of this Great Opportunity While it Lasts.

WHY NOT?

The purchase price is as low and lower than most of the tracts are selling for all cash inside of 5 years. I only ask 30 per cent of purchase price and agree to wait until the orchard pays the balance without interest, or if you wish to pay all cash at end of 5 years you may deduct 20 per cent from the unpaid 70 per cent. Where does that put the purchase price? Way down below what others are selling at and you have the full 5 years to raise nearly three-fourths of the purchase price, and remember you—

Don't Pay Me Any Interest

That's a big item here. Another point to consider, I price the land according to location and quality, the lowest tracts $1250, up to $2500. The $2500 tracts face along the electric car line and are choice tracts. Other choice tracts for less money not as well located. All of these orchards are located inside the limits of the proposed electric car line.

Don't Wait Until the Choice Tracts Are All Sold.

Drop me a card or phone me for one of my folders, which explains the terms, or what would be more satisfactory, come to my residence and we will talk it over.

Mr. John Fox received the sad news this week from his son, Clark, at Marshall, Mo., that his younger wife had passed away. Mr. Fox left February 1st for that place in response to a telegram stating that his wife was very ill. He reached her bedside February 3rd, but was too late to see his wife alive for she had died at five o'clock that morning. Mr. Fox has the heartfelt sympathy of the Buhl people in his hours of bereavement. The following account of the death of Mrs. Fox is taken from the Marshall Republican.

An unusually sad death occurred in this city Saturday morning, February 3rd, when Mrs. C. E. Fox, nee Miss Myrtle England, passed to her reward. Mrs. Fox resided with her husband, to whom she was married a little more than a year ago, at Buhl, Idaho. Seven weeks ago she came to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. England, on 2nd St. and 1st Ave., for a visit. Her husband, January 27th, she gave birth to a son, who died after a few hours. She also became seriously ill, during that time.

Mrs. Fox possessed neither wealth or high social position, but she had things that were more precious. She was one of God's chosen and her short life was a beautiful one. She solved life's daily problems from day to day in a manner that would do credit to a saint. Always cheerful and smiling, always onward and upward, always busy, her life was crowned with success.

She was born at Salt Springs in this country, February 2, 1888. Being ambitious to secure an education she decided to hold her own. She first assisted her father in the irrefragable conflict office. Seven years ago she was employed in the Republican office and we found her a most able and willing worker. She left us to attend Marshall high school, from which she graduated. Later she attended M. V. C. and would have graduated in a year, but decided to teach. As a teacher she again showed her ability and was a general favorite.

On Christmas, 1910, she was married to the surviving husband. Whatever she undertook was done in an earnest manner, and everywhere she made friends.

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Edwin Hudson of Kansas City, at the First Presbyterian church, Monday at 2:30. Mr. Hudson was a fellow-student of M. V. C. a double quartette from the college also rendered several hymns beautifully. The remains were then tenderly laid to rest in Ridge Park cemetery. The funeral home were present to direct the interest and love of the departed.

The Republican joins in extending to the bereaved husband and relatives our heartfelt sympathy.
