NEW CHURCH FOR PRESBYTERIANS

Congregational Meeting Approves Plans

CARNEGIE'S OFFER OF PIPE ORGAN ACCEPTED.

BUILDING COMMITTEE PLANNING TWENTY THOUSAND DOLLAR ADDITION TO PRESENT CHAPEL.

The members of the Presbyterian church met Wednesday evening to consider the building of the modern tower of the present church. A large number were present and the plans for building met with a hearty approval. Several architect drawings were submitted for approval and the final decision will be made by the building committee of the church. The cost will be approximately twenty thousand dollars and when finished will seat about seven hundred people and provide space for several years to come. Some of the money will be secured from the church members and the society but the bulk of it will be raised among the church members and attendants. The campaign for subscriptions was placed in the hands of a good strong committee which will take the field at once. The sum of $10,000 from the Carnegie fund, one-half from a pipe organ, was accepted, and another committee appointed to raise the money for the church's share of the cost.

FRENCH MAKES ANNOUNCEMENT

Will Be Candidate For Seat In U. S. Senate.

Washington—I have decided to become a candidate for United States senator from Idaho," said Senator George W. French, in a formal announcement made Tuesday. His declaration was not unexpected, as it had been known for some time he intended to enter the senatorial race in announcing his candidacy, Mr. French said.

"I have withheld making any announcement until present, because I desired to hear from all sections of the state before doing so. Membership in the senate affords far greater opportunity for service than membership in the house and I would not be a candidate if I did not frankly admit that it is one of the greatest ambitions of my life to be elected to membership in that body from Idaho,"—Stateeman.

REXALL STORE MAKES CHANGE

Sketch & Wiley Enlarge Store Space In Perrine Corner.

One of the contemplated improvements for the New Year is that of the Rexall store in the old Perrine Sketch & Wiley, the proprietors of the drug store, have enjoyed a splendid business the past year and are now making plans for added business. An arrangement has been made between the drug store and the Twin Falls Title & Almoe company who will turn out and the whole space leased to the Rexall store. The druggist company will occupy quarters now leased to the Old Home Inn. The old home inn will give the drug store much better space for caring for their trade and will allow them to devote more space to show cases and the display of the drug sundries.

CELEBRATE FIFTH ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Craven-Estate Tuesday Evening.

For friends of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Craven, the fifth anniversary was a joyful occasion. Guests were given to celebrate the fifth wedding anniversary. The six-course dinner served in exquisite style by the hostess, assisted by Misses Maxwell, Fern and Florence Costello, Matrices Ostrander, Parke, and Mrs. and Miss Marcel Wilson, occupied two hours of the pleasant evening. After dinner, after the cigars and pleasant conversation ended a thoroughly enjoyable evening, when the guests wished the bride and groom many more years of happiness. The invited by special invitation were awarded, Mrs. George Sprague, and Mr. E. J. Catrander.

The citizens in the residence district are getting rather worried up over the dog nuisance and rightly so. Dog concerts in various parts of the city have gained so many additional vocalists that the dogs are terrible, making sleep impossible. Many of the canine Canines are regularly heaped and protected from the dog catcher and still have just as much power to annoy as the unlicensed strays of the night. Still a nuisance is a nuisance and under the ordinances of this city can be suppressed, provided the city takes the right attitude in the matter. No citizen owing a dog or any other animal has the right, morally or legally, to annoy his neighbors and should take the right view of the matter. Dogs can be made to pass lawlessly through the night, if sufficient attention is given the problem by the owners. Those owners who cannot keep the dogs from annoying the public should not complain. If the city demands the elimination of the dog, a little more attention to the concert of the night police would certainly make a hit with the public and possibly bring the nuisance to an abrupt terminus. At any rate, any citizen complaining of broken rest from howling dogs should not be told to go out and shoot the dogs. As a taxpayer he is prompted a certain amount of protection from nuisances of all kinds.

The ideas of economy which are being carried out by the school board through its superintendent, are possibly the strongest ever put forth in economy. At the beginning of the year, when the bid was raised against added expense to the school system, the word went forth that if the patrons wanted economy they would get it. Naturally people expected that the board should shut down on everything in the way of luxuries in added curriculum. As a starter for that-wanted economy, the first step was the addition of a music department with a new instructor. Number of new sewing machines and wood, for little electric motors to run the same. Of course the new instructor expected a good salary and got it. The equipment cost some more, but the added expense instead of cutting. Now comes the information that the school system is to be supplied with a milking machine for the agricultural department. Money expense. Two new teachers are hopefully demanded by the superintendent in order that the number of pupils may not exceed forty to the room. Other schools have at times exceeded that number, and survived. Wonderful curriculum of exterior, in order that Twin Falls may see the curriculum of schools in cities of ten times the size. The Boise schools are so of tenanted to the kickers here as the pattern for "Twin Falls schools. Boise is kicking on a six mill school tax this year. Twin Falls patrons must contribute heavily or be classed as undesirable citizens by the school board and pay 14 mills; the limit set by the state. Why should Twin Falls have to pay more per capita for educating its children than the wonderful pattern Boise. After considering all of these wonderful economies it occurs to the Times that what is needed is not more similar economies but a change of the administration of the schools, so men who can distinguish real economy from the brand that is being passed off on the taxpayers at present.

AMERICAN SLAP AT THE MONROE DOCTRINE

Professor Bligham of Yale, an expert on Latin America, where he has traveled extensively, has published a work under the title "The Monroe Doctrine in an Obsolete Shillibeth." He was subsequently requested by the editor of the Berlin Tagblatt to communicate to its readers, in the columns of that leading German paper, his views on United States policy in South America, a country where German interests are yearly becoming of greater importance. The professor begins his article writing his readers that they must be careful to distinguish between the Monroe doctrine of 1823 and the Monroe doctrine as it was developed under Cleveland's accidental administration by Secretary of State Olney on the occasion of the Venezuela trouble. On this point Dr. Bligham says:

"The new Monroe Doctrine rests on false premises and its actuality is derived from impossible theories. Only listen to what Olney says: 'The States of North and South America are by their geographical position, their natural sympathy, the similarity of their form of government, commercial and political friends and allies.' Dr. Bligham denies that the geographical proximity of the Latin and Anglo-Saxon republics establishes the soundness of any such presumption. On the contrary, he remarks:

"Any schoolboy knows that this statement is not in harmony with the real geographical position and proximity of South America to the countries of the world. The greatest of South American states are situated much nearer to Spain and Portugal, for instance, than they are to New York and New England. Key West is not nearer to Rio de Janeiro and Buenos Aires than it is to Gibraltar, and the general route from Valparaiso to San Francisco is longer than from Valparaiso to London. Peru is bordered by the Pacific Ocean, and yet is farther from Brazil, Spain, and Portugal, than it is from Gibraltar."

To talk about 'natural sympathy' says the Professor, is merely 'to throw mud into the eyes of the American people.' Such sympathy has no existence, at least as regards South America. To quote further:

"From the North American's point of view, the Monroe doctrine of today is not only a burden to be borne, but an actual injury which we suffer only because we are ignorant of the position of things in South America. We have assumed the attitude of the 'elder brother' with the 'Club' whom one might have been justified in assuming a control which today is impossible. It is necessary for us to understand once for all that the leading Powers of South America are fully able to take care of themselves and already are strong enough to treat our Monroe Doctrine with derision."

The implications of this fact are legion, ergo giving this authority on all things Latin and South American, after the newspapers, monthlies, and university teachings show that in Latin America the claims of the Monroe doctrine "everywhere excite hatred and antagonism." This point he discusses, however, as beyond the scope of his essay, but lets his voice in warning: "The writing on the wall is inevitable; he may dramatically say, 'Brazil has the largest dreamers in the world,' 'Argentina and Peru are bantling shibboleths of war.' He concludes:

"The writing on the wall is not only that a Mongolian hand-shaped the letters. Yet it may safely be averred that these propitious omens in South America the critic in which Latin, Indian, and Asiatic blood are to closely intermingled. The leading Indian inhabitants of Peru, Bolivia, Ecuador, and Colombia according to an eminent anthropologist, closely resemble the natives of Northern Asia that the hypothesis of South America being originally colonized by Asiatics assumes an air of plausibility. It is at present quite probable that this colonization is actually going on. One thing is certain. The Mongol question in South America has reached a critical stage. The position, itself, has taken with regard to Japanese immigration is exactly opposite to that taken by California. Argentina actually welcomes the Japanese, and these immigrants are so numerous that the Japanese government has subsidized a direct line of steamship by the Cape of Good Hope route. Another Japanese line passes by way of Honolulu to the west coast of South America."

In Latin America is powerfully reinforced from Asia it is better, for us, says the writer, to have the "A.C."—Argentina, Brazil, and Chile—for friends and not for enemies. That is, we must drop our Monroe Doctrine. It is moreover, a delusion, he continues to think that the Monroe Doctrine helps our commerce. We should follow Germany's example:

"Germany has shown, especially by her action in Brazil, how this is to be done. It is true that she is only as powerful in army and navy as America and not a whit stronger. If we look at the matter from a logical point of view we should find that nothing hurts commerce as much as political interference, which makes enemies for us not only in South America, but also in Europe, and involves a costly loss of time. Would it not be wiser to heed the warning of James Bryce, who holds that an advocate of peace we should gain the greatest influence and eventually control the whole western hemisphere, and, thus, headed, refrain from holding an umbrella over other people who already have one of their own, or from holding it over a friend when it is not needed?"

Triangulation made for The Literary Digest.

IMMENSE FEDERAL BANK IN N. Y.

Reserve Bank Capable of Absorbing 50 Per Cent of Capital Needed.

New York—The task of getting up the machinery which is to put in motion the new banking system of the country was taken up yesterday by the federal reserve organizational committee, consisting of Secretary McAdoo of the treasury department and Secretary Houston of the department of agriculture.

On this committee devolved the responsibility of determining the size of the reserve districts and locating a bank in each. To aid it in reaching its decision the committee Monday began a series of hearings which will be continued three days more in New York and subsequently in other important financial centers of the country.

A number of New York's leading financiers gave their opinions on the subject Monday. Frank A. Vanderlip, president of the National City bank, spoke thoughtfully on the question of the impossibility to work out a plan that would fulfill all requirements.

"It presents almost an insoluble problem," said Secretary McAdoo, when Vanderlip had given his opinion as to the manner in which the proposed reserve districts should be drawn up.

"I think that is what you are facing," said Mr. Vanderlip, "oversight and control, especially in the smaller districts. If we get into a place eight and control the business, the law will work, in spite of its defects, if we do not, it will not work."

The majority opinion of the witnesses favored the creation of New York as a regional bank, such method that the total amount of capital available to the new system of the country.

Such a district would include New York, New England, New Jersey, Delaware, and Maryland.

Secretary McAdoo suggested that such a large bank here would overshadow the other regional banks, of which, according to the law, there must be at least seven. The reply was made that a bank of such size was needed here in order that it might become a center and hold its own with the great individual banks in New York.

THINK HUERTA WILL RESIGN

Developments of Past Month Indicate Mexico Will Have New President.

Mexico City.—That General Huerta intends to resign his present position as president of Mexico has been often denied by him in the most emphatic terms—in again being persistently reported in the capital. It is said that he will take the field in person against the rebels after yielding his presidential office. Ex-General Gómez, minister of justice, will be selected as his successor, according to the understanding.

Under the alleged plan, General Gómez is to hold the presidential powers until a new president is chosen. It is now General Coronel Trevino of Monterrey, one of the oldest of the army officers, who on previous occasions has been talked of as a possible successor to Huerta and to whom it is urged Washington could have no objection.—Statesman.

The easy want ad tasks are usually accomplished through one publication of the ad.

The want ad tasks may require repeated publications of the ad—sometimes growing into the dignity of "want ad campaigns."

And, while, purely "transient" classified advertising may not complete the task set for it, a "want ad campaign" does not fail, if sensible persistence is used. This means that such difficult want ad tasks as that of finding
