WARNING TO SUBSCRIBERS.
The management of the Twice-a-Week Times is informed that a person claiming to represent this paper has been soliciting subscriptions in this city for one dollar per year. All citizens are warned that such solicitor has no authority to take any subscriptions for the Times. In case any persons are approached after reading this notice, they will confer a great favor if they will call on this office immediately.

WILBUR S. HILL, Mgr.

Senator Borah has introduced a bill in the United States senate which provides for the establishment under federal control, of a co-operative clearing house for marketing agricultural products. The move is in its infancy but has for its purpose the giving of good substantial backing for the profitable marketing of farm products and the cutting down of the cost of articles used by the agriculturalist. The bill so far has had but little publicity in the journals of the country and its feasibility is still under discussion.
There is no doubt but what the government is on the right track in its attempt to work out better conditions for the farmers of this great country.
Most of the national statesmen are beginning to realize that in the success of the farming industry lies the solution of the major part of our problems. That it is not a question of tariff solely.

Home Industry Week is approaching and The Times sincerely hopes that citizens of this county will consider the problem of supporting home industry seriously. The movement for better feeling between the producers and the consumer is a worthy one and should be given longer consideration than merely one week. The support of home industries should be a yearly problem, likewise any movement that has for its aim the conservation of home products, manufactured or grown. The problem is too complex to solve in a week or one year. It must come by thoughtful consideration of all the people concerned in upholding any country. The problem cannot be solved when individual selfishness is the deciding factor. The splitting of live and let-live is one that has for its main purpose a higher standard of living for all classes and has nothing in common with the selfish individual aim. The only real result which can be accomplished by home industry week is to direct the public sentiment toward the ultimate goal of real benefit for all local people. In this issue of The Times will be found an advertisement putting preferred stock on the market for a local candy manufacturer. The men behind the company have put every dollar into the factory and into property in this country. They are putting out a product that is worthy. With the present capital they are realizing a small margin of profit and could increase that profit by an increase of capital and almost no increase in the fixed charges of the business. That candy factory can be made to grow into one of the big institutions of this section if right now it can be given a legitimate hand along right lines. The above is mentioned purely as an example of what constitutes strong home industries. There have been other ventures started in this community which have failed solely for the lack of support. It is high time that the business men and all classes understand that the people who are here most successful of the country is to succeed. Every failure of industries or businesses or ranchers means a black eye for the whole country. There is no other way of looking at the problem. There is no time or place for selfishness in real boosting for home industries.

QUALITY

Combined with right price, are the strong factors that have made our business a success.

THE HANDWRITING ON THE WALL.
The prohibition fight, henceforth will be nation-wide, and contemplates writing into the national constitution a prohibition of the manufacture and sale of all alcoholic beverages. To accomplish this result will require the ratification of thirty-six out of the forty-eight states of the union. Of these nine are already in line through state prohibition—Maine, Kansas, North Dakota, Oklahoma, Mississippi, Georgia, Tennessee, North Carolina, West Virginia. The last five have been added in a period of six years. In addition to these there are eighteen states in which a major part of the people live in territory made dry by local option, and in which we may be assured prohibition sentiment predominates. *

The most influential argument against prohibition is that it is not effective, that prohibition doesn't prohibit. This is not basic or moral problem; the fact of failure to enforce is no argument against even the expediency which lies behind the moral issue involved. Ultimately all questions must be settled by moral standards; only in this way can mankind be saved from self-abuse. The liquor traffic cannot have room by declining that government is incapable of coping with the problem it presents when the people decide that it must go it will be banished. *

For the liquor business is in blame; it seems incapable of learning any lesson of advancement or of anything but profit. To perpetuate itself it has formed alliances with the authors that repeat all conglomerate and patriotic citizens. It deliriously abuses the most corrupt political powers and backs with all of its resources the most unworthy men, the most corrupt and recreant officials. It does not aid the purification of municipal, state, or national administration. Why? Because it has to ask immunity for its own lawlessness.

The case of the liquor traffic is called for adjudication by the American people and must be decided for trial.
Other cases may be called later, but the one before the court cannot be postponed. * There are billions of property involved, * but when the people decide that the truth is being told about the alcohol-liquer trade the money value will not count conscience aroused puts the value of a man above all other things.—The Outlook.

THE "UNEMPLOYED" CONFERENCE.

As befitted the first national conference on such a tremendous problem, it was a time of learning and beginning, not of proposed panaceas or short-cuts, as the resolutions of the conference at Cooper Union showed.

The first of these resolutions was as follows:

Resolved: That this conference urge the establishment in the federal department of labor of a bureau of distribution, with power to establish employment exchanges throughout the country to supplement the work now being done by state and municipal bureaus; to act as a clearing-house of information and further the distribution of labor throughout the country; when such distribution will not make for the deterioration of the present standards of wages, conditions, and hours of employment of American workers, or the impairment of their efforts to improve them.

The resolutions also urged that be established free, non-political state employment agencies in the several states, forming a network of central bureaus and branch offices, and cooperating with municipal and federal bureaus; that every head be required to register every application for work as well as every position secured; that frequent reports be issued for the information of those seeking employment, and that the bureaus be kept neutral in trade disputes. The resolutions called upon municipalities to direct their attention to the local problem of unemployment and deal with it in a businesslike way through a central labor bureau; recommended that private employment agencies be put under inspection and control of the federal government, or state authority, as each case might indicate, and that an investigation be undertaken. This final recommendation we quote in full:

We recommend that the American Association of Labor Legislators, in affiliation with the American Section of the International Association on Unemployment, prosecute a thorough investigation of the following aspects of the problem of unemployment, an at the same time initiate and promote public action:

(1) The labor market, exchanges, statistics, facilities for special classes, advertising, emergency measures, relief agencies.

(2) Regularization of industry—an ideal industry, decentralizing of industry, adjustment of large contracts to run longer periods, casual labor, civil service methods.

(3) Vocational guidance.

(4) Legislation on employment agencies, unemployment insurance, etc.

Meanwhile, in the winter streets, unemployed shovels snow and the unemployable march in aimless companies because America was twenty years behind Germany in those days—and only now beginning to realize it.—The Outlook.

NEW POISON LAW

Vitro and Other Poisons Must Bear Label When Sold.

Conferences were held on Monday, March 10, between Comptroller Wallace, who is drug inspector for Idaho, and President C. O. Ballou, of the Idaho State Board of Health, and Dr. W. G. Galbreath, and Attorney W. O. O'ponheim, representing the druggists of Idaho. The meeting was called to consider several features of the new poison law.

Vitro Must Bear Label

The question of the sale of blue-vitro, which is a fungicide used in the cereal sections, and which is used extensively as a gormicide in cleaning wheat before sowing, was discussed, and it was agreed that this could be sold providing it is labeled "Pesticide" and gives the names of two really obtained antidotes in case of danger. This product is destructive to adult human life in quantities of 60 grains or less, and therefore the dealers by the wholesale druggists.

Use Formaldehyde With Care

Another matter affecting the merchants in outlying districts is the handling of formaldehyde and methyl alcohol, methyl and seed poisons. This has generally been sold in bulk, but under the construction placed upon the new poison law at the conference its sale will not be permitted by merchants unless under contract with a registered pharmacist, either in or out of the state, said label to contain the names of two readily obtainable antidotes in case of accident.

What action was taken with wood alcohol, pure denatured alcohol, heretofore sold extensively for the lighting of gasoline lights, and other purposes.

Park Green as Poison

Park green, arsenate of lead, nicotine and other similar insecticides are included in the list of the new poisons and dangerous substances, will be expected to comply fully with the other restrictions placed thereon, otherwise prosecutions will be instituted because of the deadly character of some of these drugs. There will be no sale of these poisons until the enactment of the new law.

LANDS FOR RENT

On account of conditions that have arisen, the Idaho Gold, Real Estate & Operating Company will this year lease on share, or for definite rental, or both, a part of its lands east of Jerome.

Those interested should inquire at the company's office northeast of Jerome.

These lands are all in a high state of cultivation and now in condition to produce large crops and make money. Adv. Mar 24-31 Apr 2

To Hit Trail of Lawless Band Leading to Rendezvous in Idaho.

It has been determined to hit the trail of the numerous horse thieves operating in the north part of the state within the past month. It is a sort of spring fever that takes possession of the "vocetons" every year to acquire good horse flesh. This year this form of outlawry has been manifested over a wide area, from Coeur d'Alene to Lincoln, Blaine, Power, Camas, Bingham, etc. As soon as the snow was off their operations began. The only loss suffered in this country was the theft of a saddle horse belonging to the highway district, an alibi, of course.

At the Poverty City conference it was pretty definitely agreed that the headquarters of the thieves was cut in the lava and that a posse will go after them.—Shoshone Journal.

No more bees. All gone but E. G. Hager, 2½ miles southwest of Kline, barely—Adv. Mar 20-24 pt

If you have a farm, business or residence property or vacant lot for sale, give us a listing.

Our listings will not be large at first and if the place is priced worth the money you will have an advantage over a larger number.

LET ON SALMON PROJECT

now, the trustee for the entrymen, de-selected by the Twin Falls-Salmon River Land & Water company. Mr. MacWatters acted as chairman of the meeting, and Harvey W. Hurlbough, attorney, were present. At the time the slate representative of the King in Senate was down from Boise. The object of the meeting was explained by Mr. MacWatters, and was as published in The Herald in last week's issue. After many hours of discussion, a resolution was adopted, which read as follows: Whereas, the directors of this company have not been annually elected as provided by the articles of incorporation and the by-laws, but the same changes have come about by resignation, the vacancies being filled by the board of directors, and as it is desired to have the terms of the directors expire as originally contemplated, therefore, be it resolved, and resolved that the following named persons are the directors of this corporation with term expiring as follows, to-wit: Term expiring 1914, W. S. Kuhn, J. H. Purdy, James Hurlbough, 1915, S. H. Moore, Harvey W. Hurlbough, D. C. MacWatters, P. D. Wagner, and E. C. Kiersted. Judge Hays explained that these directors would resign and be replaced in the event of the bondholders coming into possession of the property to this effect appears elsewhere ject. A set of by-laws were adopted by the canal company under which the company controlled, either directly or through the control of the construction company or their assigns, or under the control of the settlers. The by-laws are the work of Judge Hays, and are as follows:

"The directors of the settlers' association were present at the meeting, and owing to the brief time available after the routine business had been transacted, voted to leave up to the manager for which they had been voting, the delivery of water during the coming season under an entirely different plan than has been in use in the past. At a meeting of the directors late Monday afternoon a resolution was adopted that the management company must be prepared to deliver water to the settlers at such times as they require it. Between the dates of April 1st and November 1st of each year, the attorney for the association has been authorized to demand and is directed to put the requirements of the board into effect if it is possible to do so. The board feels the necessity of obtaining water for the settlers at such times as the settlers need it, and not at such times as an arbitrary system of delivery permits them to obtain it.

At a special meeting of the directors of the Salmon-River Canal company the assessment for the year 1914 was fixed at 50¢ per acre. An account of how this assessment is figured has been furnished to Arthur in this issue. Many settlers have been of the opinion that the canal company could not make an assessment of over 35¢ per acre, they having submitted this item from the wording of the original contract between the canal and the construction company, which is as follows: "Said Salmon River Canal Company, Limited, *** agrees that no charge be made for the delivery of water from this date (June 1, 1908) until after the first day of June, 1911, and that thereafter the charge for maintenance shall not exceed the period prescribed in the state contract, the sum of 35¢ for each and every acre." The "Joker" in the original contract, however, reads as follows: "During the period prescribed in the state contract, the state contract containing the provision that in case the maintenance raised by the assessment of one acre each of land

M. Bowen, the settlers' attorney. Mr. Bowen will probably make a report upon it later.

Experiments have been made whereby preference is to be given to the settlers in employing men to do repair work on the system and northern districts of doing such work and to have their wages apportioned on the basis of the amount of water applied and/or the yield produced in order to determine the most economical usage or stages of growth at which the different crops should best be irrigated.

Duty of water experiments will not be conducted on this station as this problem has been worked out for the state of Idaho, according to information gathered from the state engineer.

Repairs will be operated in all sections of the tract, so that work can probably be arranged close to the homes of the settlers desiring such work—Hollister Herald.

WORK AT STATION

Don H. Bark Her to Plant Work at Experiment Farm.

Don H. Bark left Friday evening for Twin Falls to make arrangements for the construction of an irrigation experiment station which was located at that place last fall. The station has been exceedingly fortunate. Mr. Bark believes, in securing Earl Beck who has been allied with him in the development of water experiments for the past four years. Mr. Beck is a graduate from one of the agricultural courses at the state university, and is not new to Idaho, for he's one time operated a farm for himself on the Snake River, and is now engaged in executive training and broad, varied experience. It is believed that no better man than Beck could have been picked as superintendent, Mr. Bark

This station is nominally a government station, operated by the irrigation investigation branch of the United States department of agriculture, but it is well supported financially by local organizations, without whose support sufficient funds could not be obtained to complete the organization of the station. The Twin Falls Canal company, the county commissioners of Twin Falls county and the Commercial club of the city of Twin Falls have contributed liberally toward the establishment and maintenance of the station.

The site secured for the station is situated on the Twin Falls-Kimberly road, which is one of the main thoroughfares of the country, and is opposite the entrance of the Twin Falls golf course. The location is one of the best obtainable on the project as it is conveniently located that it is easily accessible. It is hoped that many hundreds of farmers and visitors will avail themselves of the opportunity offered of observation at the experimental station.

This station is bound to produce results that will be eminently beneficial to the irrigation of the state of Idaho, and the irrigation investigation general, Mr. Bark believes, for it is planned to devote the experiment station exclusively to the proving of one of the most vital but troublesome factors that confronts all irrigators, namely, the large amount of rainfall that the stable crops of Idaho should be irrigated in order to secure the largest quantity of the best possible quality of crop. The station has already been divided into 200 small fields of one-tenth acre each. Wheat, oats, barley, clover, alfalfa, potatoes and peas will be experimented with. There will be a great variety of crops.
