

FIVE KILLED IN TRAIN DISASTER

Snowslide Sweeps Train 300 Feet Into Ravine

allroads Have Been Tied Up For Several Days. Officials Hope Lines
Can Be Re-opened Today.

Leavenworth, Wash., Swept to a life death in an avalanche of snow with the fate of five passengers when the Spokane Owl train number 25 of the Great Northern railroad were hurled from the mountain side into a ravine from here early Saturday morning. The known dead were: W. F. Taylor, a doctor from Cheyenne, Wyo.; Hermann, Sheridan, Wyoming; S. Hattermann and his baby, Wenatchee. The bodies have not yet been identified. The avalanche was a roaring "blast" with a rushing roar. The slide tore the mountains suddenly, ripped loose, tons of snow and earth shot down, cut the mountain in two, and the next moment the shrieks of men and women from the windows of the train, some of them just falling from the east end of the mountain slide.

It was several hours before rescuing parties could reach the coaches in the gulch. A sleeping car was bowled off the track by the slide but the passengers held, and it was saved from going over the brink.

Within a short time after the accident the operator at Alpine, two miles away, flashed word that a second tremendous slide was under way. At this point all wires were lost.

Rescue trains were hurried from Leavenworth, Cashmere, and Wenatchee. The searching parties were more than an hour in locating the day coach. It was buried literally under tons of snow, rock and earth.

The weather in the mountains continued cold Monday, and was favorable for lifting of the railroad blockades. The snow has melted in places and been used by the Northern Pacific trains between Ellensburg and Seattle since last Saturday, went back to Hinton and Spokane, and north to Wenatchee. The Northern, whose track was covered in many places on both sides of the mountains, probably will not be able to follow the rails Tuesday. In private advices are that several days must pass before the snow, rock and ice can be removed. The slides are being attacked from both sides of the mountains. Although the financial loss is not great, the cost of the repairs will be heavy. Several trains of passenger coaches were lost in a train wreck last Saturday, the obstructions on the east side are said to be the more formidable. There are also the snowfalls in the valley.

ENROLLMENT IN SCHOOLS OF TWIN FALLS SHOWN

Superintendent Hal G. Blue Makes Public Figures Relative to the Attendance.

With the opening of the second semester, Monday morning, January 17, 42 beginners enrolled in the first grade; 27 in the second and 15 in the third. This is very much larger than was expected. Fortunately, an extra room in the frame annex at the Bickel school had been fitted up for school purposes and in the large enrollment was cured for. In order to accommodate the fifteen beginners in the Lincoln school, it was necessary to transfer fifteen children to the high school building. These transfers were made possible by transferring 15 children in the high school building to the Bickel school. It is regretted that it is necessary to transfer children from one part of the city to another, but because of the need of an additional room, it is necessary to do it. The following shows the distribution of pupils in the elementary grades at the close of school, Tuesday:

Lincoln Building—Miss Dygert, 25 1B and 19 1A; Miss Taylor, 25 1A and 17 2B; Miss Stewart, 35 2A; Miss Smith, 44 2A; Miss Taylor, 44 2A; Miss Dillier, 15 4B and 23 3A; Miss Hamilton, 33 4A; Miss Leonard, 19 4A and 23 4B; Miss Hamilton, 21 5B and 13 5A; Miss Hamilton, 42 5A; Miss Conter, 20 6B and 16 6A; Miss Welch, 34 6A; Departmental Grades—7B, 4B; 7A, 4B, 8B, 4B; 3A, 3A; 3A, 3A; Miss Corbett, Miss Powers, Miss Harney, Miss Peterson and Miss Fraser are teaching in the departmental grades.

The most difficult situation in the Lincoln school is that of Miss Dygert's room with 44 children of which 25 are in the 11th grade, that is, the beginning grade. Only three rooms below the departmental grades, those of Miss Stewart, Miss Welch and Miss Hamilton have less than 40 pupils enrolled. Miss Conter has 46 enrolled with two grade divisions, Miss Leonard 44 with two grade divisions, and Miss Dillier 41 with two grade divisions. Miss Marth, Miss Parla, Miss Hamilton and Miss Hamilton have high enrollment, but the situation is simplified to some extent because only one grade division is found in each room.

The total enrollment in the building is 671.
Bickel School—Miss Parla, 10 1B; Miss Struble, 43 1A; Miss Jackson, 24 1A and 16 2B; Miss Hobbs, 35 2A; Miss Noble, 21 2A; and 12 2B; Miss Kall, 9 3B and 22 3A; Miss Frank, 19 3A and 17 3B; Miss Whidden, 15 4B and 23 4A; Miss Snyder, 42 4A; Miss Gruber, 35 5B; Miss Draper, 41 5A; Miss Agar, 35 6A and 25 6B; Miss Metz, 40 6A; Departmental Grades—7B, 4B; 7A, 4B, 8B, 4B; 3A, 3A; 3A, 3A; Miss Corbett, Miss Powers, Miss Harney, Miss Peterson and Miss Fraser are teaching in the departmental grades, including the seventh and eighth grades.

It will be noted that the enrollment in the Bickel school does not run as high as that in the Lincoln school. The rooms in the Bickel are not as large as those in the Lincoln and, therefore, cannot accommodate as many pupils. In the Lincoln annex at the Bickel 123 children are enrolled. The average is 41 to each room. In the remainder of the rooms in the departmental grades, those of Miss Snyder, Miss Draper and Miss Metz have an enrollment of 40 or more. The situation is somewhat simplified in that each building has only one grade division. The remainder of the rooms range from 33 to 25. Three of them enroll 28. The rooms of Miss Conter, Miss Agar have different types of organization. Each room has one small grade division and one large grade division. Such a type of organization prevails often times in the distribution of the enrollment of a building in the most advantageous way. It is a situation that is difficult to obviate. The departmental grades show a total enrollment of 169. It was impossible to seat this enrollment in the auditorium and, therefore, necessary the giving over of an extra grade room to the departmental work.

The total enrollment in the Bickel school is 662.
High School Grades—Miss Peterson, 43 1A; Miss Warren, 40 2A. The total enrollment in the grades in the high school building is 82.

The total enrollment in the elementary grades in the entire system is 1415.
Forty-nine boys and girls were graduated from the eighth grade of the Lincoln and Bickel schools. Forty-two of these pupils have registered for work in the high school.

The present enrollment in the high school for the second semester totals 215. This means the number of students that have actually registered for courses and are now in attendance.

Living well, boys, dying rich. Life is as hard as we make it. The average man of today gets more out of the years of life than Medusa did out of 502.

Will there be enough water in the reservoir for a season's irrigation from the snow that will melt above the reservoir at the present time? Is a question asked by everyone who is interested in the Salmon river.

It looks mighty slim at the present time.

"It's grow!" is the motto of southern Idaho, a motto good enough for the railway men. Let grow—bigger in purpose, braver, bolder, kinder—let's grow all through 1916.

A. S. Hansen, of Buhl, was calling on his friends in Berger, Saturday and Sunday.

W. J. Truchoud, one of the enterprising farmers on the north end of the Salmon river tract, was looking after business matters at the county metropolis Saturday.

The railroad men of the Rogerson branch have abandoned hauling water to Berger and Hagarstad since the cold weather set in, and as a consequence some of our citizens are getting rather low.

Quite a number of our settlers are making preparations to move to some other tract or back to their home state. A big percentage of settlers in this vicinity have already moved back to their former home in other states, owing to conditions existing on this tract.

What is our honorable and worthy board of land commissioners doing about it? Can the state of Idaho afford to lose these settlers?

What is the business men and the commercial club of Twin Falls doing for the settlers of the Salmon river tract in regard to the existing troubles on the Salmon? It seems the settlers who have come here with the intention of making homes on this tract and help build up the country and the state of Idaho, have to fight the unscrupulous and unjust concentration and hoarding of water who are trying to crush out the life of the settlers.

The Twin Falls Commercial club and the business men of this vicinity have already moved back to their former home in other states, owing to conditions existing on this tract.

TAKES LAND FROM RESERVED CLASS

WASHINGTON—Secretary Lane announces that during the month of December, 1915, eight orders of designation were approved, increasing the area of land classified as non-irrigable under the 320-acre homestead law by approximately 3,000,000 acres, making a total of nearly 20,000,000 acres thus designated. The states affected are Colorado, Idaho, Kansas, Montana, South Dakota, Washington and Wyoming.

In Idaho two designations were made classifying more than 47,500 acres as non-irrigable. Approximately 25,000 acres were designated under sections 1 to 5 and the remainder under section 6 of the enlarged homestead act. (Section 1 to 5 are the sections which require residence on the land, and section 6 is the nonresidence section.) The designations made under section 6 are located in 10 counties of the state, but in view of the limitation placed on the area that is to be designated under this provision no land in the sections which require residence on the land, and section 6 is the nonresidence section.)

DOG DOES NOT RECOGNIZE ACTOR IN ONE PART OF DUAL ROLE
In the William Fox production of "The Wonderful Adventure," which will be shown at the 1st Wednesday and Thursday evenings and in which William Farnum is starred, the actor plays a role which is in reality two parts, as it deals with a dual personality. The drama which is from the pen of the noted author, Captain Wilbur Lawton is mainly based upon the life of a "bad" character of John Stanley, the young engineer, and De-marcus, the drug fiend who resembles him so closely that it is next to impossible to tell them apart.

The action of the play requires that John Stanley be possessed of a faithful little dog, his companion who only friend. When Stanley meets De-marcus, the dog with canine intuition, perceives the subtle talent of evil that hangs about De-marcus. De-marcus was tried, but they were all equally friendly with Mr. Farnum, both in the character of Stanley and of De-marcus. It has, however, "Beverly" a magnificent collie from the famous kennels of J. P. Morgan was tried. The dog showed absolute intelligence. De-marcus was Stanley, was in the scene, Rover could not be demonstrated enough in his affection. When, however, the actor passed in the role of De-marcus, Rover's disposition changed entirely. He seemed to sense what was required of him. He snarled and bit the dog on his neck rose angrily. It was actually dangerous for Mr. Farnum to approach him; yet, when the actor was over and Mr. Farnum came from his character, the four-footed actor was as friendly as ever. It was one of the most remarkable examples of canine intelligence on record. After you earn his master, James M. Allen, of The McAlpin, New York City, a good living and the cost of his services has risen from five to ten dollars a day.

The Great American Smoke—"Bull" Durham

Fall in line with hundreds of thousands of red-blooded smokers of the good old U.S.A. Smoke the cigarette tobacco that's been an American institution for three generations—"Bull" Durham. The rich, relishy, star-spangled taste of "Bull" puts the national spirit of get-up-and-bustle into your hand-rolled cigarette. "Bull" is the freshest, snappiest, liveliest of smokes.

GENUINE. "Bull" DURHAM SMOKING TOBACCO

"Roll your own" with "Bull" Durham and you'll find far greater satisfaction in your cigarette than you ever did before. Made of the richest, mildest leaf grown. "Bull" has a delightful mellow-sweet flavor found in no other tobacco. And its aromatic fragrance is supremely unique. Men who never smoked cigarettes before are now "rolling their own" with "Bull" Durham.

THEATRICAL NEWS

SCENE FROM "THE WOMAN, THE LION AND THE MAN" TWO REEL CENTAUR FEATURE - MUTUAL PROGRAM

Presenting the Boston Animals in a two-reel animal drama. A feature you want to see, and four other big numbers this week Tuesday and Wednesday, at the Orpheum theatre.

Mr. Theodore Lorch, who, with a special select company, will appear at the Laverne, Monday, January 31st, in "HELP WANTED," a comedy of originality.

STOCK COMPANY PROMISES
RELEVEE ENTERTAINMENTS
Much interest is shown in the coming of Theodore Lorch and his metropolitan company for their special engagement of six nights which opens at the Laverne next Monday evening. Jack Tall's clever comedy, "Help Wanted," has for the past few years enjoyed the reputation of being one of the most popular and capable leading men on the American stage. He has for many years been a big asset to the leading stock houses throughout the country besides having been starred in special productions of "The Lost Trail," "The Sign of the Cross," "A Soldier of the Empire," "Dr. Jekyll & Mr. Hyde," and others. In the latter play Mr. Lorch has the distinction of having secured none since the death of the late Richard Mansfield. One performance will be given of this play during his Twin Falls engagement. Special arrangements are being made with the management for the consideration of literary classes and societies at this performance.

An announcement of interest will appear in the next issue of the local papers which everyone is urged to watch for.

ROLLER SKATING ACT

HEADS LAYING BILL
Two dandy vaudeville acts top off an excellent picture program at the Laverne, Monday evening, with the Silver and Gray, whom the program announces as "entertainers who entertain," got through their quarter of an hour without springing any ancient jokes. The gentleman of the team has a good voice and received considerable applause Monday evening with his songs. The young lady appears in several dainty frocks and has no difficulty in winning the audience. It has been a long time since Twin Falls has been treated to a roller skating act, and Wagner and Bruhn has brought a first-class one. Fancy dancing on roller skates is their strong-point and will appeal to all theatre-goers looking for something different. Both the gentleman and the lady are experts on skates and include in their exhibition some very difficult steps.

"The Tollers of the Sea," a three-reel feature film, is a story of fishing folk, well played and all in all, an interesting picture. Here and there people have their usual reel of fun and no doubt enjoyed the excitement they created in a girls' seminary. The program closes with the Radio News.

The entire program is changed for Thursday evening's performance. The latter part of the week, Dignity and Norton, novelty instrumentalists, will be seen, and the "Dignity" wire artists. "Neal of the Navy," the last of the series, has several comedy pictures will complete the bill.

POPULAR SOPRANO EXPRESSES APPRECIATION OF TWIN FALLS

"I appreciate the taste displayed by the people of this city in the matter of the selections which they desire to have sung to them as they love real melodies, and are less attracted by the modern 'songs' many of which have little music or any," said Miss Estelle McNeil, the popular lyric soprano cabaret singer at the Rogers cafe, to a Times reporter, after her performance last night. "I really make little difference to me what I do sing, so long as I please my audience, but I rather prefer the old songs myself, and the people here like them. The people of Twin Falls have been very kind to me and I appreciate it and want to stay as long as I can in this city. We have not made up our program for next week yet, but will put on a number from the repertory 'Samson and Delilah' Wednesday evening. This is a rather difficult piece."

Miss McNeil takes her work with becoming seriousness without appearing weighed down with responsibility and claims the honor no less by her high-toned manner than by her pure songs. Her Scotch songs have brought back the "Honnie Highland Heather" in many in her audience, and her Irish melodies sent them back to "Shannon Grand and pastoral Binn."

FORD PEACE TRIBUNAL SELECTS STOCKHOLM

THE HAGUE—Stockholm has been chosen as the seat of the permanent peace tribunal established by the Ford peace party. The selection was made this afternoon just before American delegates left for Rotterdam to take passage for America. The choice of the Swedish capital, however, is subject to Henry Ford's approval. The delegates agreed that since Ford was footing the bills, he should be allowed to say where the peace tribunal should sit.

When the first sessions of the permanent tribunal will be held will not be determined until the Ford delegates learn whether Ford, William J. Bryan and Miss Jane Addams will serve on the permanent board.

The Scandinavian delegates, who were refused permission to return to their homes in Germany, have made arrangements to make the journey by boat.

his work. While in the act of delivering the vase, he stumbled and fell, breaking the delicate vase into a thousand pieces. Mr. Booth declared that he would make good the loss and expressed deep regret for the incident when Mr. McMillan arose to say that the value of the article was slight compared to the kind words which had been spoken. Several tried to point him down, a hostile contingent led by Mr. Booth produced a handsome ebony cane with gold top on which the name of Mr. McMillan was engraved. It then dawned on the company that the value of the broken vase was perhaps not so great as at first assumed.

"Our Cities" consisted of a pantomime, illustrating the past and the future. The first scene showed the relative size of the principal cities according to the census of 1910. Bolhe, represented by a big boy, was in the lead and Twin Falls, represented by a small boy, followed in the procession. Then came the prophecy act, in which according to the 1920 census, Bolhe was repeated as a giant and Bolhe as a pigmy.

"Our Protectors" consisted of a meeting of the city council. Mayor Swedlow, elected the chairman of a foot ball player led, his enormous nose mask being especially conspicuous. He carried a big foot ball. Next came the councilman, Bolhe, carrying a head. "Councilman Parrott" wore a great pair of glasses. "Councilman Brocken" was counting fake money. "Councilman Smith" was wrestling with a bolt and monkey wrench. The city dais were followed by a masked group with a dark lantern, who looked under the tables and chairs and divided into the pockets of the guests. They caught nothing but a whisper "hush" and drift out mysteriously. Miller Evans then sang a ditty to the air of "Tipperary," telling about the arrival of Deputy Sheriff Thompson's "bloody" dogs, which proved to be very ordinary animals; and in view of the fraying up worked off on Thompson, some time ago, proved a decided hit. As an encore he described to the 5000 population in every remark the report of the detective agency, the report being laid on the shelf by acclamation.

Other stunts were pulled off from time to time. The arrangement and decorations of the city were unexceptionable and the comedy selections by Thorp and Lauterbach, were greatly appreciated and in keeping with the rest of the high class entertainment.

It is customary in describing a naval battle to give credit to the captain of the ship, overlooking the engine room, whose duty it would be to prove a failure. In this case the engineer was Mrs. Arroll, who con-

The character of the breakfast can be gathered from the following menu when it is understood that it was prepared in a manner that would do credit to a metropolitan cafe:

SHORT WORK MADE OF BANDITS BY CARRANZA OFFICERS

EL PASO, Texas—Colonel Miguel Baeza, Valles, bandit chief captured at Patomac, south of Columbus, N. M., was executed at 5 o'clock this morning by a firing squad at Juarez. Two bandits were shot at close quarters, but he was not responsible for the robbery by Villa and pleaded to see General Gaviota, Carranza's lieutenant.

Lieutenant Colonel Enrique Cisneros who was captured last week with Baeza, Valles, is being marched overland with a following caught with him, and according to Mexican officials, also will be placed promptly before a firing squad.

Baeza arrived here last night on the train which brought the body declared to be that of Jose Rodriguez, the bandit chief executed near Matamoros last Thursday. The two bodies later were taken to the Mexican customs house here to be viewed by Americans, who have expressed doubt as to their identity. Baeza, Valles who was known as Villa's most cautious executioner, at Juarez was taken from a box car in which he arrived a few minutes before 5 o'clock. He was marched through the dimly lighted platform of the railway station where many families spend their nights. The officer commanding the firing squad said he had orders to kill and he and a soldier stepped up close to Baeza, Valles and fired point blank into the prisoner's heart.

BREAD ALLOWANCE CUT IN THE GERMAN CAPITAL

BERLIN—The municipality of Berlin has taken the lead in the reduction of bread allowances which were ordered recently by the central authorities in order only to accumulate a reserve of 20 grammes per week. This reduction is from 1950 to 1900 grammes, which is equivalent to slightly more than four pounds. Supplemental bread is not to be imported but with incomes up to 2500 marks annually will call for only 350 grammes per week instead of 600 grammes.

Batter foodstuffs are the subject of governmental action. At an official announcement today (issued a warning that municipalities and communities will not be allowed to import bread purchased abroad. A number of cities desiring to satisfy complaints of citizens, sent agents abroad to buy better, thus establishing undoubted competition with the imperial butter bureau, and encouraging foreigners to demand higher prices.

THREE OF A KIND

Any kind of a horse will be well shod if we do the shoeing—dry horse, carriage horse or the trotter—because we have the skill, the experience and knowledge of horses and their hoofs. We are on special watch for instances of interfering, overreaching, lameness and gait. With all that we doubt if we charge any more than some careless, even injurious, work.
