

Both parties kept up the battle until the end is this county. Governor Alexander closed the campaign by appearing Saturday night by an address at the Laying out to the largest crowd that met during the campaign. A parade with automobiles and footmen preceded the meeting and plenty of red fire was used. The governor made the best speech which has been made since the war.

Monday night, notwithstanding the bad weather, a good sized crowd met at the Laying to hear Congressmen Addison T. Smith and M. J. Sweeney close the campaign for the Republican cause.

Governor Alexander spoke at 8 o'clock Saturday afternoon, while C. M. Boyd addressed the voters there Monday night for the Republicans.

List—Name Cow Ahead Now As One Year Ago.

That the average production of butter fat has increased in the county among the cows tested in the Bull Pioneer Cow Testing association and that the average production per head is also greater is shown by the October report just filed by G. T. Koster, official tester. The report, with the exception of that dealing with cows on honor roll producing less than fifty pounds butter fat, is as follows:

There were, during October, the first month of our second year, 362 cows on test with an average production of 33.2 pounds butter fat.

tion of 25.77 pounds butterfat. Eleven herds averaging over thirty pounds butterfat and fifty-two cows on the honor roll, seventeen of which produce over fifty pounds butterfat.

There are approximately 500 cows in the association this year in twenty-nine herds; the herd of S. H. Kaylor of Twin Falls, being an official test for the year, this requires two days testing each month.

Our report for October, 1915, shows 400 cows on test averaging 27.51 pounds butter fat, forty-five cows on the honor roll, and five herds averaging over thirty pounds butterfat.

It is interesting to note that the same cow that stood at the head of the association for butterfat production in October, 1915, is again at the head of the list for the past month, her production a year ago was 55.2 pounds butterfat as against 73.1 pounds for the past month; a five-year-old cow is considered at her best. She being a six-year-old, this increase must be due to better feed and care, just an example of what better feed can do.

The high herd for butterfat production was that of H. H. Slyer; thirteen purebreds with an average of 46.1 pounds. The next highest herd and honors for production in October, 1915, eleven cows averaging 40.3 pounds butterfat.

The greatest increase in production over October, 1915, was made by the herd of H. H. Payne, their average for October, 1915, being 39.1 pounds as against 33.2 pounds for the past month. This October it was 33.2 pounds butterfat for the herd of H. H. Payne, an increase of 10.9 pounds over the average for October, 1915. The herd making the second best improvement was that of T. G. Wilson, with an increase of 5.7 pounds butterfat per cow.

It is interesting to note that the ten high cows in the honor roll are from herds where a daily record is kept.

Pres. Gus Kunze has placed a splendid purchase at the head of his herd, the improvement in a few years' time through the offerings will be worth many times the price of the animal.

Five more cows were tested during the month.

A. S. Stauffer conducted an A. R. test on a three-year-old Holstein during the month, she making a very good record. The test was under the supervision of H. H. Slyer, official tester, who has been appointed official tester by Prof. Ellington, of the dairy department of the state agricultural college.

Fred Reed sold ten cows and four heifers to Gooding parties at a very good price. Mr. Reed when questioned regarding cow testing and butterfat, replied: "The records sold the cows."

The Boise Valley association report for the month ending October 17th, shows 417 cows on test, making an average of 32.66 pounds butterfat. Eight herds averaging over thirty pounds butterfat and thirty cows producing over fifty pounds butterfat.

Following will be found a list of the fifty-two highest cows, their owners, breed, production, etc.

WHAT KIND OF AN OLD MAN

will you be? Just multiply your little money habits—and other habits—by days, and days, and days, and you have the answer. In other words the habits that rule you now, enlarged, emphasized, firmly fixed will determine the kind of an old man you'll be.

The savings habit, dominating your life through the years will temper, improve and stabilize the product.

ting away was any evidence of the fun when they got out there, then they must have had a merry time. The Misses May, Fern and Lorenzo Munyon entertained a household of their friends at their home. The usual good time followed. Master Judson Tim had a party for the boys and girls of his age, at which there was considerable noise, which betokened a joyous time. Miss Mildred Parsons entertained a number of young people at her home.

Buhl News

(From Buhl Herald)
M. P. Dau leased his farm the latter part of last week to J. J. Black, and Mr. Dau will have a public sale in about two weeks to sell his registered Holstein cows and go out of the dairy business. However, Mr. Dau reserved his house and the small acreage containing the orchard, lots and surrounding buildings. Mr. Black will live in the house on the forty acres, the road from the city reservoir. There are 120 acres in the Dau place.
A new furnace is being installed in the basement of the Buhl Department store this week, and the pipes will be

SHORTAGE OF CARS IS SEVERELY FELT

Idaho Shippers Complain to UMILES Commission—Demand Greater This Year Than Heretofore.

PACATELLO.—Many complaints are being made to the public utilities commission by Idaho shippers of the general car shortage. President A. Hammett of the commission has announced that from the facts brought out at the recent hearing of the officials of the Union Pacific system, including President Robert S. Lovett, the commission is convinced that there is such a general car shortage all over the United States that it is simply impossible for the Oregon Short Line railway to supply a sufficient number of cars to meet the requirements in Idaho.

Farmers in all parts of the state are clamoring for cars to move the hay, grain, and potato crops, while in northern Idaho lumber shippers are being seriously curtailed because of lack of cars. The situation in this state is somewhat relieved by the failure of the fruit crop, but with steadily increasing prices on other products, the need for cars is greater than has ever been before known.

MANY FINE HOMES GO UP IN BUHL

West End Town Has Grown Greatly Within the Past Few Months.

Buhl is going through one of the most rapid periods of building in the history of the city, and it is said that more farm homes of the modern type are being built there at any other period in the country's development, says the Buhl Herald. The prove-up shack is being replaced by up-to-the-minute modern rural residences. Many citizens who expressed it, "they are all good ones, but Carl Miller will have when completed, the best, modern, and most expensive home in this part of the tract, either city or country."

Thirty modern residences are either just ready to be moved into, or are now being built, in this city. Four of them were begun this week, and practically all of the thirty were rented before the ground was broke into the ground for building. They have either been leased, or the builder intends to move into the new home completed. Many citizens who came to Buhl were forced to build in order to bring their families after them. Some of them are still trying to find a place to live, and the rest of their families can not come because no house can be found.

We published an article in the editorial column of the Herald of the issue of August 24, in which we said that fully forty more modern homes could be rented in this city, were they to be had. Twenty-five of these homes have been started since then, and there is still a big demand for houses. The names of those who are either just completing a new home or who are building one in the city are: Glenn Fritcher, Albert Amos, Ira Patton, A. D. Wilson, J. Z. Aracant, two houses, E. R. Shorman, J. W. Scrivenor, all on 12th street; Len Wiegman, G. Thompson, Peter Ruyts on 13th street; Dr. McCluskey, Alisa Chamberlin, Robert Ruyts on 8th street; Dr. McCluskey, Chas. Reynolds, Willard Sisson, Rev. Crawford, Wm. Ringert, on Broadway; E. C. Swanner, N. Layne, J. G. Smith, on 8th street. The following are building new homes in the McCullum addition: A. J. Milnor, Neal Peterson, and Frank Wise.

The following new farm homes which are being built come to the attention of the Herald reporter: E. L. Metz, J. D. Murphy, Carl Miller, O. F. Thompson, L. A. Warner, James Wiegman, and E. J. Spilke. Gustav Kunze is building a new horse barn, as is Otto Yule, Len Combs, and O. M. Everson. Sites are being built by Jacob Schaefer, E. J. Green, N. J. Chelene, and Chas. Arthur. Jacob Schaefer is building four mammoth silos.

The guests were in Yuma Yama costumes and those present were the Mesdames Durla Cox, Ruby Hart, Beatrice Cox, Chas. V. Velma Handerson, Lucille Kelly and Dabney Grabel and Messrs. Reynolds, Cox, Willet, Hanne, Oscar Allen, Joe Hutton, Laurie Hall and Emory H. Hottel.

One of the pleasant dinner parties of last week was that given by Mrs. Mull for Miss Dabney Grabel and Miss Shroot. The table was centered with a bowl of fruit, and the place cards were in hallowe'en designs and colors. A delicious four-course dinner was served. The remainder of the evening was spent at "500" at which Mrs. Clouche won the prize for high score. Mrs. Dabney Grabel capturing consolation prize. The guests were the Mesdames Bryant, Gobell, Powers, Haggart, Shroot, Pearson, Funk, Hobbs, Dunger, and Misses Clouche and Reese Williams.

The Kappa Delta Sigma sorority girls celebrated their annual hallowe'en affair this year with a dinner at the Hogerson cafe Monday evening at 6:30 o'clock. The table was beautifully and artistically arranged, the centerpiece being a wicker basket of fruit and nuts, tied with a bow of yellow and black tulle. The nut baskets, which were mother goose hats, supported the dainty party. A delicious four-course dinner was served, the same colors being used throughout. Covers were laid for Mrs. Paul B. Taber, Mrs. Earl B. Hoss, and the Mesdames Hart, Amos, Roberts, Putnam, Evans, Truesdale and Conway.

In honor of Mrs. Oakley of Burley, was the delightful party given Saturday afternoon by Mrs. Ernest White. The guests were entertained at six tables at cards. Mrs. Greenhouse received the prize of a lovely Japanese vase for high score. The guest of honor was also presented with a vase. To close an enjoyable afternoon, dainty refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Bulles and Miss Pauline Evans. The Mesdames Oakley, Shroot, Hill, Reed, Bulles, Burton, W. T. Wood, Senior, Evans, Greenhouse, Samuel Hart, T. Costello, J. Costello, Morse, Ormsby, Pike, C. Hart, Erickson, Kelly, Hesse, Hollingsworth, Kelly, Ketchum, B. Sweetley, Reese and Miss Pauline Evans.

On last Saturday evening, Miss Fannie Hart was the motif for another delightful affair, this being a kitchen shower given by Miss Marie Roberts and Miss Pauline Evans, at the home of the former. The house was particularly attractive with its red shaded lights and hearts. Miss Hart was presented with a basket containing many useful gifts. At the close of a delightful evening delicious refreshments were served, buffet style. Coffee was poured by Mrs. Samuel Hart from a little dainty pitcher, beautifully arranged with the usual color scheme, and covered with a dainty crocheted table cover. Those present were the Mesdames Costello, Hart, Goss, Roberts, Hoss, Taber, Shenberger, Wagner, Seligman and the Mesdames Hart, Teasdale, Margot and Mildred Conway, Kelly, Amos, Cashin, Evans and Roberts.

The business girls in impenetrable furs, paper slats Monday afternoon, a box social held at the Jones ranch. The social was in the nature of a benefit for the Goat Springs school and $25.50 was taken in. All reported an enjoyable time and Miss Blodwen Rees expressed the appreciation of herself and pupils for the hearty manner in which the people had responded.

Mrs. A. W. Husted was hostess to the pretty arranged bridge party last Monday afternoon. The prevailing colors in the house decorations were the usual devices used during hallowe'en time. Luncheon was served at the daintily arranged tables, after which bridge was played until the close of the afternoon. Mrs. Husted winning first prize and Mrs. Cies second prize. The guests were the Mesdames Stafford, Kelly, Erickson, Reese, Hesse, Morse, Wm. Shroot, Reed, Evans, Ormsby, Pike, H. W. Clift, Ben-ley, White, Cio, Bulles, Greenhouse, Aroux, Laird, and M. Roberts.

ROBINSONS

Folks Alive! This is not a shoe store but a dry goods store selling shoes. When I told you about shoes in the papers a couple of weeks ago, I did not expect that you would respond so quickly and to the extent you have to my invitation to come in when wanting shoes. But me! Oh my! How you have come in and bought, and bought just as if you had been buying shoes of me all along.

While it is true that the shoes we have are good ones and the prices are right (probably quite a bit lower than you will find the same quality elsewhere) still I did not expect that you would buy as freely as you have, but I am glad and am sure that you will be satisfied with your purchases.

We have but a limited space for our shoe stock and but little room for showing them and trying them on, and sometimes we are unable to take care of all those who wish to look at one time, so I would be glad if you good mothers who live in town could come in with the children either in the forenoon or early in the afternoon when we can give you more time and serve you to so much better advantage than later in the day.

FELT SLIPPERS
I have a splendid line of those convenient and comfortable articles of foot wear. Small ones for the "tots" others for the larger boys and girls and women, also the kind for son, father and grand father.

In one of my recent advertisements I mentioned that one would think that I was a manufacturer of felt slippers and was selling them at wholesale prices. It does seem surprising that my prices should be so much more reasonable than others.

RUBBERS
I have a full line of staple rubber shoes, articles, overshoes and rubber boots, no "seconds" or poor quality, but the good dependable kind for men, women and children all at my usual 'right' prices.

Edward Robinson

P. S. Do not forget that you can mail orders to me and be sure of having your orders given my careful personal attention.

The home of Mrs. J. L. Cookley was the scene of one of the most charming and unique parties of all the Twin Falls festivities. The occasion was a hallowe'en shower given by Mrs. Cookley and Mrs. E. H. Gates for Miss Fannie Hart whose wedding occurred November 22. The house was a veritable fair land, which had been turned over to the elves and goblins of hallowe'en. On entering the door one first beheld this "Rocky Road to matrimony," which was marked along the way with sign posts till the goal was reached. Autumn leaves, cat-tails and sheaves of wheat lined the walls. The ceilings were elaborately hung with festoons of black and yellow garland. Black cats, jack-o'-lanterns and witches peeped from every conceivable hiding place. The gifts were disguised as rocks which lined the road and were carried by the bride-elect to the goal where they were opened and shown to the admiring guests. Just as the last parcel was opened the celebrated "Witch of Endor" was shown to a cozy seat by the fire place where she read the palms and told the fortunes of the guests. Delightful refreshments were served—two courses. The guests were the Mesdames Hoss, Taber, Seligman, Wagner, Costello, Hollingsworth, Elmer Olson, Putnam, Hart, Patrick, Wm. Macaulay, Cookley, Gates, the Mesdames Margaret and Mildred Conway, Roberts, Teasdale, Amos, Cashin, Evans and Putnam.

Buhl Highway District ELECTS COMMISSIONERS

Childs, Wade and Molander Selected After a Hard Fight—Two of These Were Old Members.

George Childs, George Wade and Ernest Molander of Deep Creek, were elected commissioners of the Buhl highway road district at the election last Saturday, says the Buhl Herald. The voting precincts were at the Cascade school house and at the old school house in Buhl. George Wade led the ticket in each of the precincts, getting a total of 450 votes. George Childs was second high man with a total of 422, as against 390 for Molander, third highest man. Both Childs and Wade are old members on the board, and their re-election by such a large majority is an expression of appreciation for the services to the district.

Enthusiasm ran high in this city Saturday, as well as in the Cascade precinct, where George Wade received seventy-four out of a total of thirty ballots cast. Four sets of hand bills were hurriedly gotten out in Buhl and handed around to the voters with the intention of promoting certain candidates. One set of dogers bore the names of Wade, Molander and Scully, and then a second was issued with the names of McNutt, Scully and Glenn. This was then followed with dogers bearing the names of Wade, Childs and Molander. The last set of dogers urged the re-election of the entire board. Toward the close of the day the Forbes supporters voted but the one name on the ticket.

Kimberly News

(From the Kimberly Call)

Mr. and Mrs. Stull Swearingen left Tuesday morning for Nebraska, where they expect to make their home.

Tuesday of this week, Miss Deartha Noel visited the Kimberly school. The Kimberly High school was dismissed Thursday noon for speaking, which was given by Mr. Davis, who is running for governor.

A birthday surprise party was given in honor of Alene Bailey, October 28th. About sixteen were present and a very enjoyable evening was spent in playing games and at twelve o'clock a dainty lunch was served, consisting of cake and cocoa, popcorn and candy.

Mildred Gill has been absent from school for the last week on account of sickness.

The Kimberly school is enjoying a new edition which was purchased for the benefit of the school.

Thrashing seems to be rather slow now as we are having such heavy dews that it is most impossible to start thrashing before noon.

The Martin family from California are visiting at the Wilson home. They came overland several weeks ago.

The new home of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. McEwen is nearing completion, and the family will soon be moving in.

School Notes

A meeting of the senior class was held Tuesday morning for the purpose of appointing a committee to send flowers to Miss Hervey, the senior class advisor, who is ill. The committee consisted of three girls, Rachel Gulgley, Marie Roberts and Frances Edwards.

A football game has been arranged for the second team with the Huhl second team, at Huhl, November 12. Those are eligible who have not played on the first team this season, and are passing in three subjects and made three credits in the first term.

Mr. Mitchell is meeting the boys in the high school debate teams every night this week. The final debate is to be held Monday, November 6.

The first division play, "A Case of Suspicion," was given in the auditorium Wednesday morning, by Mr. Hoover's division. It was a most gripping, the scene is laid in a young ladies' seminary. Certain girls of this institution plan to have a spread in their rooms, and they invite young men to attend the party. A sharp-eyed professor gets wind of the occurrence, and makes investigations. He sees the young men being drawn through the girls' window in a clothes basket, and posing as one of the boys is drawn half way up before his identity is discovered. He is then made to promise that he will reveal nothing he has seen or heard. He is then forced to attend the party and the curtain drops just as he begins to see the humor of the situation. The following was the cast: Dorothy, Rosewood Bunnell; Marjory, Fannie Warden; Helen, Marjorie Black; Jones, Phillip Buck; Kathleen, Katharine Gaskill; Tom, Otto Hopper; Jack, Lionel Dean; Dick, Ray Armistead; Fred, Edgerton, Orin Hill; Miss Jenkins, Esther Anderson.
