AUSTRIAN MONARCH CALLED BY DEATH

Longest Authentic Active Reign Ended Yesterday

CROWNED HEAD WHO SAW MANY SHADOWS RESTS AT LAST.

Death of His Nephew and Morganatic Wife Final Straw That Broke the Peace of Europe.

LONDON—Emperor Francis Joseph of Austria died Tuesday night at 9 o'clock at Schonbrunn castle, according to a Ruter dispatch from Vienna by way of Amsterdam.

Like the death of Pope Pius X, the end of the venerable Emperor Francis Joseph is charged largely against the great war. The one man was a help-spectator, shocked at the horror of such a sudden and widespread death of arms; the other the man whose action in avenging the assassination of his heir-engaged the nations in combat.

With Francis Joseph's death in the midst of this great conflict there is a venerable climax to a long list of tragedies in the Hapsburg family—last unparalleled in any other reigning house in Europe—including the assassination or violent death of seven near relatives.

Archduke Carl, the new emperor, is only 29 years of age. His wife, the new Empress of Austria, was the Princess Zita of Parma.

The fortitude with which the emperor bore each blow and in later years his death himself was the wonder of his people. Fears that the shock of the assassination of his heir, the Archduke Francis Ferdinand, and his consort who on a state visit to Bosnia on June 28, 1914, would kill the emperor were answered in characteristics of his character.

The consort, Countess Sophia of Chotek, who was killed with Prince Francis Ferdinand, was his morganatic wife. That is, she was not the wife of a wife except that neither she nor her children would receive the rank of the husband and father. Since the Austrian laws in morganatic marriages of the emperor forbade the marriage of the imperial or royal blood outside of imperial marriages, the emperor was obliged in case of love, by the prince of the blood-marrying under one of his inferior titles. Hence the children of the murdered prince could not have inherited the throne of Austria or Hungary.

Francis Joseph, then nearing his eighty-fourth birthday, was a man of a cheerful and cheerful disposition, which each spring had worn heavily upon him, mustered strength to return to Vienna immediately and to take firm grip on the confused state of affairs.

With the royal funeral rites observed and the new heir, the young Archduke Carl Francis Joseph recognized, the venerable emperor and his advisers turned to Serbia with demands which started Europe. The ultimatum of July 23, 1914, denouncing the anti-Austrian propaganda and demanding prompt punishment of the assassins of Archduke Francis Ferdinand, according to items as possibly dictated by Francis Joseph himself, practically dated the war now ravaging Europe.

The emperor had many sorrows. In 1852 he narrowly escaped assassination. In 1867 his brother, the ill-fated Emperor Maximilian of Mexico, was executed. A niece was burned to death in Vienna, and later a sister suffered the same fate in Paris, a cousin drowned herself and his son, the first crown prince, the duke who was killed under mysterious circumstances. The second crown prince, a nephew of the emperor died the country under an assassin's bullet. The emperor's beloved wife was assassinated by an anarchist and many minor calamities befell him. Through his whole long life, Francis Joseph remained the idol of the army and the people, and it was long predicted that at his death the Austro-Hungarian monarchy would fall to pieces.

As the emperor grew older and sadder he worked harder and permitted himself fewer recreations. A week of shooting each year, and a few bottles of priceless Gastein to warm his chill in blood, a daily hour of gossip with Katherine Schrat, who held his affection—that was all. He compelled rigidity with the required etiquette of the court, but personally his tastes were simple. He ate a breakfast of freshly-baked rolls and coffee every morning at 5 o'clock, smoked a three-cent cigar, strolled in the morning air until 8 and then got down to his serious business of the day. He seldom slept more than five hours, and not that much when he traveled or a press of business waited on him.

DOMESTIC SCIENCE DAY ENJOYED BY CLUB LADIES

Miss Nesbitt Gives Interesting Talk—Miss Hunsinger Prepares Tasty Recipes for 20th Century Club.

Tuesday afternoon, domestic science day at the Twentieth century club, under the direction of Mrs. E. H. Gates, Mrs. Schroeder, and Mrs. Edwards, was very well attended.

Miss Nesbitt, who conducts the classes in dietetics at the city hospital, gave a very interesting talk on "Dietetics in health and disease." The afternoon was then given over to Miss Hunsinger, domestic science teacher at the high school, who demonstrated a Thanksgiving dinner. Many practical suggestions were given while the tempting dishes were being prepared. A very delicious salad was prepared and served and samples passed of several others. She was ably assisted by Miss Pauline Ripley and Miss Clara McCallister.

A number of the club ladies who had particularly good recipes for certain dishes brought samples. These were displayed on a table by themselves, and the recipes given.

An Edison, kindly loaned by the Maltese Pharmacy, furnished the music.

A table was correctly set for the suggested menu. Thanks are due Mr. W. R. Friese, Messrs. Dawson and Belleville, and the Closs Book store for the beautiful silver, china and decorations. Thanks are also due the power company for the two electric grills used in the demonstration.

Mrs. H. C. Alexander promises a very interesting afternoon on Tuesday the 28th. This is Friendship day. Every effort is being made to make the program, which promises to be rather quaint, a good one, and it is hoped that the club members will be present in large numbers.

BICKEL SCHOOL EMPTIED QUICKLY IN FIRE DRILL

All Pupils Out of Building in Two and One-Half Minutes—Little Longer By Fire Escape.

In case of fire at the Bickel school parents of children who attend can be assured that the building could be emptied long before a fire could cut off all avenues of escape.

In order to determine just how long it would take to empty the Bickel school of all students, a false fire alarm was sounded Tuesday afternoon by order of J. E. Moorehouse and V. H. Decker, directors of the school, and the building was emptied in two and one-half minutes. In case the stairways were blocked in such a way as to cut off escape, the fire escapes could be used and the building emptied in two and one-half minutes. In the fire drill at the Lincoln school it took two minutes to empty the building.

ANNEXATION PLAN APPROVED BY BOARD

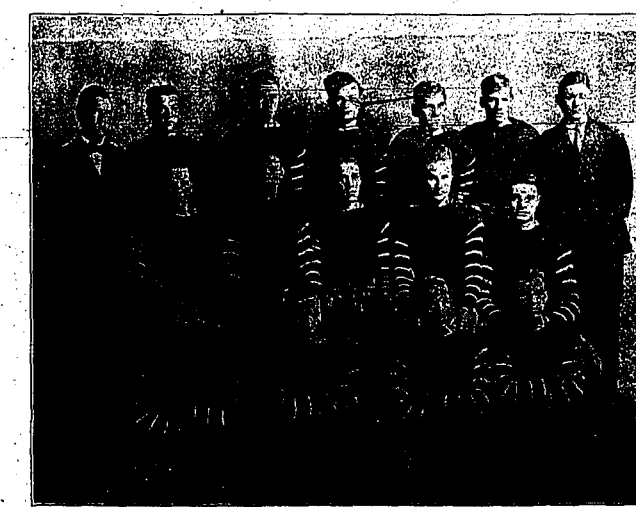

Commissioners Instruct County Auditor to Take up Question With Owyhee Board.

The plan to annex sixteen townships in Owyhee county for the purpose of enabling Twin Falls county to complete the bond from Rogerson to the Nevada line on the way to Jarbidge met with the approval of the county commissioners when present Tuesday afternoon at the meeting of the Twin Falls Commercial club and the board agreed to instruct County Auditor E. J. Fennell to take up the question with the board to ascertain when it would be satisfactory for them to meet the Twin Falls commissioners to discuss the matter.

ELECTION GREAT BENEFIT TO WEST

I. B. Perrine Returning From East Says That Job Will Lead to Investigation.

That the east is just recovering from the surprise of the election is the statement of I. B. Perrine, who returned from New York City. He says that the election was a great benefit to the west, and that the result will be of great benefit to the west. He says that the election was a great benefit to the west, and that the result will be of great benefit to the west. TWIN FALLS HIGH SCHOOL FOOTBALL TEAM

FOOTBALL SEASON MOST SUCCESSFUL

Twin Falls Boys Win Six of the Seven Games Played

Scholarship During Series in Matter of Pride.

Only Three Graduates—Good Team Is Expected For Next Year—Nafziger And Sweeney Coach Well.

A resume of the football season just completed, in which the Twin Falls high school team emerged champion of the conference, shows a successful season from both an athletic and a scholastic standpoint. The high school students should feel proud of the record of their team in playing such a strenuous schedule with grades in scholarship which are higher than the average for men participating in this line of sport. It speaks well for the personnel of the team and the substantial foundation unbuilding athletic in the local high school.

Of the seven games comprising the season's schedule, six were victories for Twin Falls. Buhl won her second game against the local boys, 7 to 0. Only three times was the Twin Falls goal line crossed by her opponents, once by Buhl and twice by Rupert. Both games with the latter school being won by large scores. The comparative strength of the local team may be noted from a comparison of total points made during the seven games. Twin Falls succeeded in running up 128 points against a total for her opponents of 18. The scores for the seven games are:

Twin Falls 20, Shoshone 6; Twin Falls 28, Rupert 6; Twin Falls 21, Buhl 0; Twin Falls 33, Shoshone 0; Twin Falls 33, Rupert 6; Twin Falls 3, Buhl 0; Twin Falls 14, Buhl 0.

Only three of the boys graduate this year. Holdersman, Newkirk and Irwin. Those who will probably try for their places are Lough, Patton, Scott, DeWitt, Glasnow and Day. Prospects for next year are very promising since practically the same team will represent the school. With a season of practice together they ought to be a winning team next year. There is sufficient amount of material in the school to make a good second team.

The coaching of Mr. Nafziger and Mayor Sweeney, combined with the husky squad of fellows who have trained and practiced faithfully for the game.

Three follows in the coaches' own words, a synopsis of the boys' abilities. Arthur coast, captain, "Scotty", center, outplayed all the opposing centers and formed a strong pivot for our line at driving the ball far into the opponents territory on the kickoff.

Michael Thometz, "Mike", right guard, played a very accurate game at guard, dependable in practice and game alike. We are glad he is a Junior.

Clarence DeWitt, "Ty", right tackle, worked the tackle around play to perfection. He is a fast and aggressive player. We remember, as probably do some of his opponents, the fine tackles he made during the season.

Thomas Irwin, "Tommy", right end, fast on his feet, a heavy, aggressive player, good at picking holes in the line on his end and had a narrow escape at Shoshone.

Walter Day, "Curley", left guard, could convince that football is a serious proposition. As time progressed he took the game more seriously and in the last Buhl game cleaned his opponent in good style.

Noel Bailey, "Bailie", left tackle, a very solid, dependable tackle. Very strong on defense and made good gains on his tackle around play. Has helped Philip Fitz, "Piz", left end, the man who made during the season.

CORNERSTONE OF CHURCH LAID SUNDAY

Program at Close of Regular Services to Which Other Ministers Will Be Invited.

The cornerstone of the new Methodist church will be formally laid Sunday at the close of the regular services at 10 o'clock. The church has invited the following ministers to the city to be present and participate. It is not known definitely whether any minister from abroad will be present.

SOCIALISTS POLL SIX HUNDRED VOTES

Bridge Bonds Had Narrow Escape at Hands of People

HANLEY ELECTORS GET ONLY A SMALL VOTE ON NOV. 7th

State Vote of Prohibition Party Not Shown—Alexander Was Endorsed For Governor By Party.

The Socialists polled in the neighborhood of 600 votes according to the official count of the board of county commissioners which was completed Tuesday evening. The vote for presidential electors ranged from 527 to 528. Sam G. Gilliland got 625 votes for congress, running nineteen ahead of Albert Clark, the other congressional candidate. Walter Willard, the candidate for lieutenant governor got 639 votes, receiving the highest number cast for any candidate on the state ticket. M. D. Woods of Buhl got 724 votes for sheriff, the highest by nearly 300 of any candidate on the entire ticket.

A surprise was awarded by the count of the Hansen bridge vote as it showed that the bonds had only ninety-seven votes to the good. The vote stood 465 for the bonds and 219 against them. As they required a two-thirds vote, a change of forty-nine votes would have beaten them. The active campaign was all on one side, as nobody fought the bonds openly, and the large negative vote is attributed to the general opposition on the part of many to any form of bond issue. In addition to this, the bonds were not especially popular in the Buhl independent road district, which will have to help pay for the improvement, without getting a chance to profit by any general bond issue. It is conceded by all that Fred Nibart, the state legislator, worked for the bonds throughout the campaign and that his support helped keep down the majority against the bonds to the west end.

The National Prohibition party electors polled from fifty to fifty-three votes. This party had no state ticket. The candidates in the Prohibition party having endorsed the candidacy of Governor Moses Alexander.

There was no material difference between the unofficial and the official counts for national, state and county candidates of the Democratic and Republican parties.

MEXICANS MAKE LITTLE TROUBLE

Captain Biggs Says Carranza Troops Work For U. S.—Situation Is Mercurial.

Carranza seems to fear that if he should send his troops against Villa, they would either desert, or would turn to their commander and rebel against the government; are theories held by many along the Mexican frontier, according to Captain C. V. Biggs of Company K, who was at his home in Buhl on furlough for the past week. He says that the educated Mexicans, who are now in exile here to get back in control eventually and say that they will do better than when they ran the government under President Diaz. Captain Biggs says that there is little trouble along the border near Nogales at present and that the Carranza and Huerta forces are working for the United States government. F. W. COMBS BREAKS THE RECORD AS A BREAKER

F. W. Combs is some breaker, according to the story told by Chief of Police J. E. Blymiller of Buhl, who brought Combs up today to lodge him in jail while making out a complaint charging jail breaking. Combs arrived in Buhl yesterday morning carrying a large box in his person. Previously he had been in Buhl where it is alleged that he broke the peace and quiet of the inhabitants of the Buhl hotel and also a promise to pay for his board and room. Relinquishing yesterday, he succeeded in knocking a large hole in the peace and quiet of the city, and also broke the faces of a couple of Jews who conducted a restaurant. Combs' lawyer took him into custody, during which process Combs attempted to break his physiognomy and temper of mind. The officer went out to the jail where he was taken, returning just in time to be informed that Combs had broken jail. The prisoner had gotten hold of some instruments with which he was able to escape but he was again taken into custody.

FILER GIRL LEAVES HOME BUT LATER GOES BACK

After a search of several days, relatives of Mildred Wilcox of Filer, who left her home last week, were found in this city Friday. Miss Wilcox, who is seventeen years of age, was found in the company with her parents and came to Twin Falls, where she secured work with a family. Her father, who is a well-known figure in the community, was found in the company with her parents and came to Twin Falls, where she secured work with a family. ADAMSON LAW DECLARED INVALID

United States District Court Rules Adversely

CASE DECIDED SUMMARILY, VIRTUALLY BY AGREEMENT.

Both Parties Desire to Have Matter Determined by the Supreme Court at Once.

KANSAS CITY—The Adamson eight-hour law was held unconstitutional Wednesday by Judge William C. Hook, in the United States district court. The court made it plain that its decision was not based on a mere consideration of the merits of the case, but on expediency desired by all parties at a final decision by the supreme court of the United States. The court's decision was based on the fact that the Adamson law was a violation of the constitution.

The legal moves in the process of combating the problem direct to the highest court of the land were somewhat involved from the lay point of view, but the lawyers concerned rushed to the case with a speed which witnessed in courts of law. Just what action, Attorney General Gregory would take remained a closed-guarded secret until Tuesday when Francis Hagerman, retained as special counsel to represent the federal government in the Adamson law cases, suddenly set the ball rolling by filing Judge Hook to instruct the receiver for the Missouri, Oklahoma & Gulf railroad, complainant in an Adamson law injunction suit, to join the government as defendant in proceedings which would consign the case on its merits to the supreme court.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Burkhalter of Hazelton were here Thursday and spent several days visiting friends and relatives in this community.

Several people from Kimberly went to Twin Falls last Friday to witness the football game between Twin Falls and Buhl.

The domestic science girls are doing fine work along the line of cooking.

Barry Draper has charge of it next week.

Mrs. Emma B. Pratt, formerly a resident of Kimberly, has recently moved to Jerome. She has several sons and daughters who are also going within a short time.

C. Owens has moved from his farm two and one-half miles east of Kimberly and is now building a home on the drive east of town.

Mrs. W. L. Weeks and two children from Buhl are spending a few days with Albert Daily and family.

The Kimberly high school building is progressing rapidly and will be ready for occupancy in a short time.

McMillan News

Times' Special Correspondence.

Our farmers are quite badly aroused over the erroneous reports of the beet crops which were published in a recent weekly paper. According to this crop record headed with an announcement to the effect that the records given below were accurate, with facts and figures carefully and correctly compiled. One of our prosperous farmers, in reported to have had a yield of 23 tons per acre. He only had 13, which were hauled and delivered to the factory with $5,554.50 amount received. Now this sounds good, but the real facts do not. Mr. Herron still has about one-half of his beet crop in the ground, yet which are frozen solid, with small chances for saving them, which falls to tally up with the "accurate and correct crop report." Mr. Herron, the man referred to, is only one of the best raisers who was given the consideration of so glowing and satisfying a best report. Others, among them are Nick Trapper, Charles D. Hunt, Johnson Bros., and some more of them, wonder where the editor of this weekly paper got his information.

F. T. Brown and wife autored to Filer Monday on business.

Charles Overfield's mother, who spent the last year back in her old home state, Pennsylvania visiting her son and friends there, arrived last week and is visiting with her son and family here.

Percy Walshaw and wife were Twin Falls business people last week.

Amos Martin is serving time on the jury in Twin Falls this week.

Mr. Summers, a big sheep man of the Kimberly country, has moved a large number of sheep to this vicinity to browse on the best tops left in the fields.

The water which has been shut out of the lateral is running for the purposes, much to the joy of the farmers and stockmen.

The best wagons are passing daily through, in the day, the many disadvantages of the past ten days. It is said that a good third of the beet crop is still in the ground, with but little prospect for a finishing up of the crop.

Percy Walshaw and wife autored over to Nevada, last week.

Mr. Journey of Twin Falls was a McMillanite last week on business. He started to Missouri last Wednesday to be home all winter, where his invalid wife is now living.

A new enterprise is said to be a thing of the near future here, if I. Watson's plans prove successful. Mr. Watson has been experimenting with asyrup, made from the juice of the beet. He is highly pleased with the experiment and says he will start up a "syrup factory some day."

Will Gibson was a McMillanite last Saturday.

Several farms have changed owners since our last letter. The first farm, formerly owned by A. C. Rutherford, and now known as the Champlain place, brought a consideration of $25 per acre, the name of the purchaser not being learned. The second place, once owned by Ray Valentine was sold to one of the Jones boys at a price of $215 per acre.

A report comes of a farmer near here having forty acres of potatoes just ready to get the dirt dug, when our cold snow struck us. They once soared up to $2.95 per hundred here.

Ivan Brice, wife and son Vaughn, were guests to dinner at the P. T. Brown home last Saturday evening.

D. P. Clark was a Twin Falls business visitor last week.

Horses Die of Fright—A very unusual occurrence took place in Arco Friday, this result of which was the death of two horses from fright. A threshing machine engine had been steamed up near the Molen hardware and shortly afterwards came down the alley near the city hall, and turned north past the Advertising office. Two horses hitched to separate rigs, one belonging to W. F. Webber and the other to John Theissen, were hitched to the posts near the Davis store and as the engine turned towards them they both dropped. Eye witnesses claim that there was a possibility of Mr. Theissen's horse having a broken neck, but the Webber horse is said to have offered no resistance whatever death probably being due to heart failure.—Arco Advertiser.

The General comes to the Pacific Coast

To take care of his large and growing business on the Pacific Coast, the General has built a big roofing mill at Richmond, California. This mill, when completed, will be equipped to manufacture the full line of roofings and building papers—from the raw material to the finished product.

Like all of the General's big mills, this new mill will have the full advantage of enormous resources to buy materials and manufacture the best products on an efficient and economical basis.

With this roofing factory at Richmond, California, already in operation and with warehouses at Seattle, Spokane, Portland, and Los Angeles, and offices and sales organizations at San Francisco, Los Angeles and Seattle, the General is now equipped to promptly serve the Pacific Coast. This new factory is manufacturing all products made by the General, including

Certain-teed Roofing

This is the best quality of asphalt roofing made. It is thoroughly saturated with the General's own blend of soft asphalt, and coated with a hard blend, which prevents the inner saturation from drying out. CERTAIN-TEED is guaranteed for 5, 10 or 15 years, according to ply, but experience proves that it lasts longer.

CERTAIN-TEED is made in rolls, also in slate-surfaced shingles. It is the most economical, satisfactory roofing for most every kind of building, with flat or pitched roofs.

Sold by responsible dealers all over the world, at reasonable prices. Investigate CERTAIN-TEED before you decide on any type of roof.

SOCIETY NOTES

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Hart was the scene of the most charming affair of the season when their daughter, Miss Phyllis, became the bride of Mr. David Girdner.

The house was crowded with guests and the bride and groom were effectively enhanced with pink tulle.

A vocal selection, "The All That I Ask," rendered by Miss Marie Roberts, was followed by the soft strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march. The bride with her maid of honor, Miss Margaret Putnam, followed by the bride's maid, Miss Vera Amos, descended the stairway at the foot of which they met the guests, accompanied by the best man, Mr. Lester Egler and the groom's man, Mr. Eugene Hart, brother of the bride. Passing down the aisle formed of strands of families and white ribbon, they halted before the altar formed of a canopy of delicate pink tulle intermingled with greens. The Rev. Anderson of the Baptist church performed the double ring ceremony and united the two in marriage. The bride was lovely in her exquisite gown of silver tulle and fitted with an over tunic of georgette crepe and a court train of white satin. Her veil of white tulle wreathed with orange blossoms, hung gracefully to the bottom of her gown. To complete the bride's apparel was the shower, bouquet and the roses and ferns tied with white tulle.

The maid of honor and bride's maid wore dainty frocks of shell pink tulle with long drags of pink tulle and silver lace. They wore silver slippers and short pink tulle veils with bands of silver beads across the forehead. They carried beautiful pink chrysanthemums.

The bride's mother wore an afternoon gown of grey charmeuse, complemented with georgette crepe and silk lace.

Miss Marie Roberts wore a dainty frock of pink tulle trimmed with silver lace.

Mrs. Walker of Boise, sister of the groom was dressed in a pretty gown of rose crepe de chene.

Following the ceremony, the guests' heartfelt congratulations were given the young couple and a delicious four course luncheon was served in the dining room around which were seated the many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Girdner. The table was a pleasing sight with its basket of pink roses tied with a tulle bow, and pink shaded candles.

The Coburn orchestra furnished music during the afternoon. About sixty-five guests were present and many beautiful and useful presents were given the popular young couple.

Mr. and Mrs. Girdner left on the evening train for Salt Lake, where they will spend their honeymoon.

On the occasion of the twenty-fifth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Youngs, a number of friends and relatives, members of the Presbyterian church choir, and their wives, were invited to their home on Fifth avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Youngs and Ruth were out for dinner and the guests arrived during their absence. Hearty with them a lovely silver sandwich tray, beautiful refreshments, a large bouquet of beautiful chrysanthemums, which was the device used in decorating the home of Mrs. Youngs in Illinois on her marriage day, twenty-five years ago. The evening was devoted to music. The guests then took their leave, expressing the hope that they would all have the opportunity of remaining to celebrate the golden wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Youngs.

The November meeting of the Wayside club was at the home of Mrs. H. J. Youngs. The subject for the month, "Which is the most effective in shaping morals, the home or the school?" was discussed. After a short business meeting and a review of current events, a dainty luncheon was enjoyed. The next meeting will be December 14 at the home of Mrs. A. A. Rutherford.

The Monday Afternoon Bridge club met with Mrs. Moore. Mrs. Ernest White, Mrs. Sheehan and Mrs. Bobbie acted as substitutes. A dainty four course luncheon was served at the close of the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Davis entertained a few friends at dinner Thursday evening on the occasion of their tenth wedding anniversary.

First Christian.

"Evangelical Day" on Lord's day at the First Christian church where the minister, Walter E. Harman, will deliver a sermon on "Prepare to Meet Thy God" at the morning service and in the evening the sermon theme will be "Journeying with Paul" sermon No. 6.

Last Lord's day was "Whole Family Day" and there were by actual count 33 whole families in attendance besides several scores of others who considered parts of families. Some families in attendance numbered as high as seven people. All seats were occupied and many additional chairs were carried in from the basement.

It was one of the church's greatest days in many ways. We outstripped Boise in the contest last Sunday out we are still about 50 people ahead of us. We must all be present next Sunday in order to regain our deserved lead over our friend, the enemy. Let all folks who belong to us be faithful to an individual. Two additions last Sunday, a man and his wife. One mother was baptized in the evening.

Regular morning services and sermon every Sunday promptly at 11 o'clock. Visitation every Sunday 4 p. m. Mid-week and study service every Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Beginning next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock services and sermon preparatory to the Holy Trinity or the birth of our Lord, commonly called Christmas.

Next Sunday morning: St. Luke's Gospel 1:8th and 11th. While he expected the priest's office—there appeared unto him an angel of the Lord. THEME: Why should I attend the Holy Temple of the Lord?

(1) God approves it: God practiced and used it: the Scriptures teach it: history has sanctified it.

(11) It is the CHURCH as a moral and ecclesiastical organization? National standards have been highest when the church has been spiritually strongest; the verdict of Europe today, her peoples forgot to worship the majesty of God. The church gave the Holy Scriptures, upon which civilization and all fraternal orders are founded; 31 per cent of our people attend the church. 80 per cent of all money given for philanthropic purposes are given by this small 31 per cent. Church membership 80 per cent women; 20 per cent men; ethnic, 95 per cent men; 5 per cent women. Divorces: one out of every eight marriages, or 12 1/2 per cent; among the members of the Holy temple of God less than one in two thousands.

3. Thus the personal blessings; a gladsome heart: "I was glad when they said unto me, we will go into the house of the Lord." The great joy of spiritual visions: "As he executed the priest's office—behold an angel of the Lord stood before him."

ALEXANDER REBUKES ELEVENTH HOUR CRITIC

Governor Declares He is Prohibition-ist From Principle and Not From Expedience.

Governor M. Alexander takes exception to the circulars gotten out on election day and passed around the streets of Idaho for the purpose of defeating his re-election on the ground that the Governor is a prohibitionist from a political standpoint, and not from principle, says the Tuli Herald. Just what effect the circular had in this party of the county will never be known, though the Herald pointed out in last week's issue, that the action was a gross injustice to the governor since it came out on the day of election, and furthermore it did the organization no good, unless, of course the circulars were distributed.

The substance of the accusation was that Governor Alexander is dry for political reasons, and not from principle, and it furthermore stated that "while Alexander as mayor of Boise was running a wide open city, Davis was helping out the saloons out of business." The object, of course, was to get votes for Davis, the Republican candidate for Governor.

As a matter of fact Alexander was mayor of Boise fourteen years ago, and at that time there were no statutes in the Idaho laws permitting a mayor to close the saloons. Prohibition in Idaho was hardly thought of at that time either.

The letter from Governor Alexander to A. V. Mounce, acting president of the Tuli Wilson club follows:

State of Idaho, Governor's office, at Boise.

Mr. A. V. Mounce, Tuli, Idaho.

Many thanks for your letter of the 19th and also for the circular which I had never seen before which is based upon the grossest conception of wrong that ever was perpetrated against a man as far as I know of it. It is to be regretted that a cause like temperance would be dragged down into the mire upon truth and prejudice as this man did in order to gain political prestige and power. It has certainly done prohibition no good but I have nothing to say excepting that I am a prohibitionist from principle and not from expediency, for of all the people of this state, I am the only one who has never been in a saloon, and I have never seen in my life and I trust that no one else has, a man who has been half owner and assisted in the publication of the Tuli Herald for the past seven years and came here three months after the paper was established. For five years he was associated with C. V. Biggs, and the past year with the present editor. He also edited the Herald one year, having leased from Mr. Biggs.

Mr. Squires is undecided as to where he will go, but he intends to study the latest ideas in journalism and job printing before returning to resume active work on the Herald.

RESTORATION MADE ON MINIDOKA PROJECT

New Settlers on Lands Who Enter Before December 25, Will Not be Recognized by Department.

The following order restoring certain lands on the Minidoka survey and Minidoka project and defining the terms on which entry may be made, were made public this week through the land office at Halley:

Washington, October 1, 1916.

Register and Receiver, Halley, Idaho.

Sir:—You are hereby advised and instructed to appropriate notice that on October 24, 1916, the assistant secretary of the interior vacated former departmental orders of November 19, 1902, and March 12, 1908, in so far as they affect the withdrawals under the first and second forms under the act of June 17, 1902 (32 Stat. 388), for use in connection with the Minidoka survey and Minidoka project, Idaho, of the hereinafter described lands, and by his authority said lands and tracts as have not been formerly restored, reserved, or appropriated, or covered by existing entry, will be subject to settlement under the public land laws of the United States and after December 23, 1916, at 9 a. m., and will be subject to entry, filing, or selection of and after January 22, 1917, at 9 a. m., at the United States land office at Halley, Idaho.

Warning is hereby expressly given that all persons who upon any of the lands to be restored hereunder and perform any act of settlement thereon prior to 9 o'clock A. M. standard time, November 23, 1916, or who are on or are occupying any part of said lands at such hour, except those having valid subsisting settlement rights initiated prior to withdrawal from settlement and since maintained, will be considered and dealt with as trespassers and will gain no right whatever under such unlawful settlement or occupancy; provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall prevent persons from going upon and over the lands to examine them with a view to thereafter going upon and making settlement thereon when the land shall become subject thereto, in accordance with this notice.

Persons having prior settlement rights, as above defined, will be allowed to make entry in conformity with existing law and regulations. Outstanding settlers are also warned to ascertain the status of the land and get all information available by inquiry at the local land office before making settlement thereon.

SQUIRES INTEREST IN BUHL

HERALD LEASED BY BARRY.

W. L. Squires left for Salt Lake Tuesday evening, having leased his half interest in the paper and plant to H. W. Barry, says the Tuli Herald. He has been half owner and assisted in the publication of the Tuli Herald for the past seven years and came here three months after the paper was established. For five years he was associated with C. V. Biggs, and the past year with the present editor. He also edited the Herald one year, having leased from Mr. Biggs.

Mr. Squires is undecided as to where he will go, but he intends to study the latest ideas in journalism and job printing before returning to resume active work on the Herald.

A big new discovery in cigarette blending

The big thing about Chesterfields is their unique blend. The Chesterfield blend is an entirely new combination of tobaccos. This blend is the most important new development in cigarette making in 20 years.

As a result, Chesterfields produce a totally new kind of cigarette enjoyment—they satisfy! Just like a "bite" before bedtime satisfies when you're hungry.

But with all that, Chesterfields are MILD, too!

This new enjoyment (satisfy, yet mild) comes ONLY in Chesterfields because no cigarette maker can copy the Chesterfield blend.

who says this, but does a great deal of work at intercepting and getting away with forward passes of opponents.

as witness the Rupert game at Robert. Good in breaking up interference. Oscar Neumann, "Oskie," quarterback, filled a very difficult position in good style. He ran the team in a spiffy way, made good gains around the ends, passed well and made some splendid punts. Two Holderman, "Ted," right half, fortunate for us that Ted could fill this position for us this year. Fast, made good gains around end, and broke up many forward passes on defense. Wilber Heller, "Happy," full back, proved there is always a hole in a stone wall if you can make it. Gifted with a happy faculty of "josh." Happy was the life of the squad on its trips. Robert McCracken, "Bobbie," left half, speedy and strong, played a splendid, consistent game all season. Very strong on defense because of his tackling ability. Received some good forward passes. Bob's place will be hard to fill next year.

Ralph Hines, "sub-center," and good work in the knees he was given an opportunity to play. Getting in line for a regular position. Lowell Patten, "sch-fallback," a young player of much promise, his hard and low. Did good work in the Shoshone game at Shoshone. Burton VanDusen, sub-guard, will develop into a good player. Pinned well in the Rupert and Shoshone games.

MAN LOSES FINGER WHEN HORSE IS FRIGHTENED
The rope with which S. H. Bolton of the Kimberly road was leading a horse last week in some manner became tangled in his hand, and when the horse took fright suddenly and jerked back, one of Mr. Bolton's fingers was torn off and another finger was badly lacerated. Medical aid was summoned at once and the injured hand treated, and though the injury was painful, there is no danger of complications setting in.

HURT IN RUNAWAY.
The two and a half year old son of Bert Williams, who lives seven and a half miles east of town was run over by a runaway team last evening and badly hurt. For several hours it was believed that the boy would die, but it is now thought that his recovery is insured.

AUSTRIAN MONARCH
CALLED BY DEATH

If he felt fatigued in the middle of the day, he lay down for half an hour and the promise held good for life. word to the new prime minister was: "For work you will find me always ready, for any cause, at any time," and the promise held good for life. The aged monarch, although he had suffered serious inroads upon his health for many years past, was very strong to keep a firm grip on affairs of state almost to the last. There were repeated reports of a serious illness from a bronchial affection, and frequently rumors of his death, which were proven unfounded, when official announcements were made from Vienna. Some of the reports asserted that his mind had become affected through worry over the great war, but the truth of these rumors was not admitted.

In November, 1916, on the occasion of a visit of Emperor William of Germany to Vienna.

The difference in the appearance of cattle that have wintered and summered it without shelter and those that have had the protection of a cattle shed, is very apparent.

More and more the Idaho stock-raisers are appreciating this, and are building cattle sheds, thus bettering the condition of their stock and saving losses.

Cattle sheds made with our 1x12 common lumber are good enough—you need no more expensive material.
