TORRENS LAND SYSTEM PROMISED

Democrats Pledged to Adopt it in Idaho

METHOD OF OPERATION EXPLAINED BY AN ATTORNEY

Is In Use in Colorado But Ordinarily Applies Only to Lands With Cloudy Titles.

There is considerable misunderstanding in regard to the operation of the Torrens system of land titles, which does not ordinarily apply to any lands, except those having old knotty titles to clear up," said Attorney John B. Wilson, when interviewed on the subject by a TIMES reporter. "This instance, when I was in Colorado, was a continuation of the work on lands, the titles for which were being called up. At one time a great deal of dry farming land had been taken on by settlers, mortgaged to local companies and abandoned. The mortgages foreclosed, but went broke trying to pay the taxes, and let the lands go. Later when those were sold for taxes, the tax certificates were bought in by people who got tax titles and later had their titles quieted by the courts. Such titles were not accepted by local companies until put through the process of law provided by the Torrens system. The application of the system to a particular piece of land necessitates going into court, just as quieting title does.

Some people have the idea that this system remains the destruction of the abstracting business, but you can see that as it applies only to land where there is a question, it will not affect most land titles in any way. Then, at the time that application is made to the court to apply the system to a particular piece of land, an abstract must be filed with the petition, so that the abstractor gets a job in that case, but only on one particular piece of land is brought under the system by court decree, no further abstracts are needed since the matter has been decided by the court. The clerk of the county or county auditor.

Mr. Wilson called attention to the fact that the Colorado Torrens act has been enacted by the legislature as illustrating the operation of a system to the adoption which the Torrens system of land titles would apply to have the title registered. Tax titles can only be registered after they have been adjudicated in a court of competent jurisdiction. Any number of pieces of contiguous land, owned by the same person and under the same title, can be registered, but if so, can only be separated later for the purpose of sale by obtaining a new and separate certificate for the same. The time of filing of the registration must be made in the court of the county and district in which the land is situated.

The clerk at the time the application is made, an abstract of title such as is now commonly used, prepared and certified by the county clerk and recorder of the county, or a person, firm or corporation regularly engaged in the business of abstracting, and who are in existence and doing business at the time of filing of the application under this act.

After a scrutiny of the abstract by a special examiner provided in the act, and not actually needed, and persons having any lien of any kind are named and also all other persons or parties unknown, claiming any right, title, estate, lien or other interest in or upon the real estate described in the application herein. If the court grants the application, those claiming title and not actually needed, and persons having any lien of any kind are named and also all other persons or parties unknown, claiming any right, title, estate, lien or other interest in or upon the real estate described in the application herein.

The obtaining of a decree of registration and recording of a certificate of title shall be deemed an agreement running with the land and binding upon the applicant and the successor in title to the land and shall ever remain registered land and subject to the provisions of this act and of all acts amendatory thereof. All dealings with the land or interests therein after the same has been brought under this act, and all liens, encumbrances and charges upon the same shall be made only subject to this act. No title to registered land in derogation of that of the registered owner shall ever be acquired by prescription or adverse possession.

An owner of registered land conveying the same, or any portion thereof, in fee, shall cause a deed of conveyance, which the grantor shall file with the registrar of titles in the county where the land lies. The owner duplicates certificate shall be furnished to the registrar.

WATER WASTED IS ASSERTION

Commercial Club Directors Say "Cement the Canal"

SAYS 700-ACRE FEET OF WATER IS BEING LOST ANNUALLY

Proposition to Irrigate Hansen Butte And To Generate Power Are Now Endorsed.

Declaring that enough water is now being wasted each month through the canal, suggesting that the water may later prove injurious to some of the lands in the tract, the directors of the Twin Falls Commercial Club Tuesday sent a letter to the Twin Falls Canal company asking that the National Reform Association be asked that the water saved be used to develop power, to increase the amount of water available for irrigation of lands now in the Twin Falls tract, and for the irrigation of 20,000 acres more, said to be available at Hansen Butte. The letter follows:

To the Board of Directors of the Twin Falls Canal Company: Gentlemen:

The matter of reclaiming the lands in the vicinity of the Hansen Butte from their present failure as a dry farm proposition is of such vital interest to the community as a whole, that we cannot refrain from calling your attention to what we consider to be your duty in this matter.

The power that can be easily developed at the head of the Low Line, now going to waste, water that, if it is damaging property and losing water, is more than sufficient to power the water required for irrigation of a large acreage, that would in the very near future become as valuable as any lands under the present system.

It is a known fact that there is a constant loss of about 700 second feet of water by seepage from the canal which is being largely saved by cementing the canal for a distance of less than ten miles. This saved water is being lost to the community and the lands that can be reached by this system and leave an increased supply for the older lands. What damage this loss of water is doing in seepage, no man can tell.

This 700 feet represents 700 eighty acre feet of water, and if this water is lost, it is a loss of 56,000 acre feet of water at the present value of the old water rights, based on the original selling price of $25.00 per acre and accrued interest, this water would be worth about $50,000, they would give you a construction fund of $2,800,000, and these rights would be considered as a bargain at the price for they would be on a par with the older rights as a proven, abundant source of water, while the earlier purchasers were taking many chances. The unused power would bring in a revenue of no small amount and would be another community asset.

We realize that there are many doubts to be worked out of which we know, however, we must heartily endorse any action that you may take looking toward this end, but we beseech you to get busy, for the time is passing. Money is being obtained for this kind of construction and there is a demand for every acre of these water rights, owing to the increased value of the lands under the old system.

We sincerely believe that the construction of this plant will directly benefit the community by the reduction of maintenance charges and increased water supply and will benefit the entire county by the additional water rights it will produce. Hoping that you will accept these suggestions in the spirit in which they are written, we remain, Yours truly,

ENGLAND DECLINES TO GRANT CONDUCT

Will Not Allow Austrian Ambassador to Come

ISSUE MAY INVOLVE OTHER FOREIGN REPRESENTATIVES

London Post Says England Protects America From Aggression of Germany.

LONDON—The foreign office has sent Ambassador Daga a note definitely refusing to grant safe conduct to Count Ador Tarnowski von Tarnow, the new Austro-Hungarian ambassador to the United States. The ally asserts that the ambassadors of the central powers are unduly active in other than diplomatic matters. The same question has been involved in the granting of safe conduct to the Turkish ambassador recently appointed. Reports received from the United States that an organized effort is being made there with peace the objective has brought out several editorials in opposition to such a move.

"If the allies are even reduced to an armistice by the American intrigues," says the Morning Post, "they would regard the United States a traitor or to the cause of world freedom. Therefore, we suggest to our American cousins that, as they have decided to take no part in the war except to make money out of it, it would be wisdom for them to leave us to fight out what is, after all, their battle."

The Morning Post argues that the Germans are willing for peace immediately and would give the contents of anything they desire, but only on one condition—namely, that Germany be allowed a free hand in Central and South America.

"The newspaper adds, 'that the condition has been put forward, of course, discreetly and unofficially, by the German government and an agreement with Germany by a belligerent ally. But why should it be rejected? We are selling out South American securities and if the Americans really want peace and do not object to having Germany for a neighbor, why should England intervene?'

"Any time in the last ten years we could have had an agreement with Germany by allowing her a free hand across the Atlantic. Great Britain stands between Germany and America, and the counterforce of a fortress and it is the Americans induce us to peace before their job is finished what they will have accomplished."

"The Americans, who, if we may say so with politeness, are rather stupid, are now making a mistake. They are to be pitied, for they are fighting for not merely the domination of Europe but the domination of the world. If they are defeated what is there to stand against Germany?"

WANT LOVELANCE BOYS AT ST. ANTHONY SCHOOL

"I am waiting in considerable suspense to hear final disposition of the Lovelance case. I may say that I took it for granted that they would go to St. Anthony and on the strength of that have gone carefully into the treatment of the boys with Superintendent Humphrey," says Dr. E. O. Sloan in a letter received Wednesday by Probation Officer V. H. Ormsby. Mr. Ormsby says that he has received a communication on the matter from Superintendent Humphrey assuring him that they will take care of the boys should they arrive at the home. Mr. Ormsby says that he is anxious to have the boys sent, but up to the present County Attorney J. E. Davies has declined to make out the necessary papers.

CHIHUAHUA FALLS TO GENERAL VILLA

Bandit Captures City From General Trevino

END OF FIVE DAYS BATTLE GIVEN BANDIT VICTORY.

Refugees Crowd Into Juarez—Outlaw Stops Looting—Nothing Known of Americans in Fallen City.

JAUREZ, Mex.—Ancient Juarez was in the backwash of battle Thursday. Thursday night the campfires of another remnant of the army burn on the plains to the south. Grim cannon are parked in the customhouse yard with hundreds of "skunk-beet" hanging from the murals of the guns which recently hurried death from their mouths.

In box cars and camp followers of the Carranza soldiers cooked their meager meals over charcoal braziers, while unreflected children—many borne on the backs of their mothers—looked on from the lee of the cold as they hovered in the lee of the big guns.

Since early morning this old border town has been the scene of military activities. Soon after 7 Thursday the first troop train brought the fagged survivors of the defeat force which had fought at Chihuahua against General Villa and had escaped to the north. Accompanying this train was a small section consisting of three second class coaches and one "white cross" hospital car.

It is believed by the refugees and cleared troops that General Trevino's forces for Tabolapa south of the city and from there moved to Aldama, about 20 miles from Chihuahua City. Particular commissions have been appointed as to Hacienda Dolores, west of the city.

One Mexican civilian refugee declared that he had seen Trevino's camp. Villa in the city Monday morning before the train left. He said Villa was walking without the aid of his crutches as if to inspire his men with his fortitude. His moustache was shaved off and he looked much thinner than of old.

To obtain medicines for his wound Villa is said to have broken into two drug stores in the city after he had been shot. The business section, thinking this action meant the beginning of looting, Villa bandits broke into stores and private homes, the refugees and the camp looting, is said to have shot two of his followers and succeeded in stopping the pillaging.

Nothing was known of the Americans by these refugees. George Brittingham, an American, was seen at the station in Chihuahua City, on the morning of Sunday, but he did not get away on the last train. All of the refugees agree that there had been no killing of foreigners up to the time they left, although there were rumors that several Chinese had been killed.

Tribute Paid to Men and Women Who Redeemed Vast Tracts of Arid Lands From Desert.

WASHINGTON, D. C. Practically all agricultural products can be grown more successfully on irrigated lands than on those which are not irrigated. More than that, the average production per acre on irrigated lands of almost every agricultural product exceeds that of non-irrigated lands by from 10 to 50 per cent, according to the nature of the product. This is reported by the committee on statistics and standards of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States. According to the committee, of which A. W. Douglas of St. Louis is the chairman, irrigation is in fact the most intensive and highest known form of modern scientific agriculture. The crops are practically assured save in such contingencies as the damage that comes to fruit from the frosts and freezing. There are no devastating droughts nor disastrous rainfalls to contend with as in humid lands. It is even asserted there are fewer insect plagues in a whole because, it is said, the surrounding desert offers no harbor of refuge nor breeding place for such pests.

An idea of the growth of the area under irrigation is revealed by the national chamber committee in the following figures:

Number of acres irrigated in the arid region, 1889, 54,136; 1899, 107,489; 1909, 158,713.

Acres irrigated in the arid regions, 1889, 3,031,281 acres; 1899, 7,518,627 acres; 1909, 12,728,486 acres.

The total value of crops raised on irrigated land was $181,617,436 in 1909. At present the area under irrigation is estimated at fifteen million acres, with the possibility in time of increasing this to fifty million acres.

"Given sufficient water in the production of the usual staple products, there is practically no gambling with fate to the whims of weather," the National Chamber committee declares. "The farmer is no longer up against the forces of a nature who is cruel as often as she is kind for the fate of his venture lies almost entirely in his own hands. If he pays for water that cost of him is provided by the clouds, he is more than compensated by increased production per acre, the almost entire absence of chance of loss by nature's capricious happenings, and the certainty of results. Meanwhile, the cost of maintenance is comparatively small.

"This real problem is to find an adequate market for his products, for there is usually a long, long way from the great centers of demand and consumption, and the sparsely settled surrounding country rarely gives him sufficient outlet. He has likewise to overcome the handicaps of costly transportation, and the mishaps and delays of long transit. In general, he has done so by means of necessity, and in most human fashion by applying the principle of co-operation to all his endeavors. More than that, he has made his markets and held them by judicious and unceasing advertising, and by establishing in the very beginning a reputation for the quality of his products.

"It is small wonder, therefore, that the fruit associations of the far west ship their products not only all over the country, but in many instances all over the world. Both state laws and cooperative requirements prescribe and regulate every intelligent detail of proper cultivation, of grading, of packing, and of marketing. This is why the apples of the irrigated lands of the west and northwest sell in the eastern cities, when in some sections the home grown fruit of equal quality rots on the trees, because of lack of intelligent cooperation among the growers in all the details of production and distribution.

Throughout all time, the inhabitants of the desert have been men of force and originally both in thought and endeavor. Their civilizations have ever been marked alike by material and mental accomplishments. It was no more a disadvantage that the true of the Arabs who overran Spain as of the Babylonians, who blazed the way of civilization for their freedom of thought, and initiative in action were bred in them by the vastness and solitude of their environment.

"So in our times, we are building in our arid regions an empire of irrigation that embodies the spirit of progressive democracy. It is no mere accident that irrigated regions have set the pace in all manner of intelligent agricultural production and distribution. Nor is it by blind chance that in the main the states of irrigation are among the lowest in illiteracy, and the source and mainstay today of most of the reforms in our social, economic and political life. For irrigation is that wonderful thing, the creation of life from death, and making good the waste places of the earth."

Cattle and Hogs Get Another Boost
While Sheep Prices Remain Strong Clearances Made Early.

There was a good run of cattle here this week and a very good trade. Receipts totaled over 100 head, bringing the month's total to 8400 head, an increase of 2500 head over a year ago, says the Live Stock Reporter Monday. The demand was very good and prices were 15¢ to 25¢ higher on most all sales, except a week ago. At the close of last week prices were firm and buyers were anxious to get prime beef. The good to choice cattle today are in the best demand and the medium and common stuff is not finding as good a sale, but butchers were out for offerings in good numbers and a clearance on a steady to 25¢ higher basis ruled in this class. Clearance on all offerings was made early, the quality of the run being very good. Feeders met a good outlet and in sympathy with beef cattle cleared about the same advance.

Packer buyers have purchased chiefly the best few sections and continued today, especially the good steers being in heavy demand. Quality of the stock offerings today was very good, although there were a few very good top steers sold today. The prices on the good grades ruled a good 15¢ to 25¢ higher. Steers that sold a week ago at $6.50 to $7.00 today sold at $7.10 to $7.50. There was a large supply of this kind of beef here and all sold early in the trade. Good and medium grades continued to find a steady sale, while ordinary Valley and Jersey stuff ranged from $5.00 to $6.00. Other for all classes was good.

Today's general hog market ruled much better, there being a very good outside demand and prices were a good 10¢ to 15¢ higher than last week's closing trade. Packers' top was $9.25 for long head of prime heavy packing, and the bulk of good hogs brought $9.75 to $9.75. Butcher's top was $9.75. The market was fair supply and sold at steady prices. The bulk brought $8.25 with sales ranging up to $8.75. Quality of the run was good.

Pork is practically no change in the sheep division today. There was but a light supply offered which were eagerly taken by local packers. No extra choice, but has been offered the last few days to test the strength of the market. Valley lambs again brought $9.00 today for a bunch of ordinary sort of the mountain lamb at $8.00. Valley wethers brought $7.75 and ewes at $5.25 and $5.75.

Sheep prices are: Prime light $7.00 to $7.25; prime heavy, $7.00 to $7.50; good, $6.50 to $7.00; fair to good, $6.25 to $6.50; medium, $5.75 to $6.00; common, $5.50 to $5.75. Cow prices are: Choice, $5.75 to $6.00; medium to good, $5.50 to $5.75; ordinary

CHURCH MEETING IN ST. LOUIS

Gathering of Thirty Protestant Bodies December 6

WILLIAM JENNINGS BRYAN TO BE AMONG SPEAKERS.

Delegation From Labor Unions of Japan Will Be in Attendance At Gathering.

ST. LOUIS—The third quadrennial meeting of the federal council of the churches of Christ in America will be held in St. Louis, December 6 to 11 in the Second Baptist church.

The Federal Council is a representative body, its constituent bodies being thirty of the leading Protestant denominations with an aggregate membership of eighteen million. The total population represented by this membership is perhaps thirty-five millions.

The St. Louis meeting is expected to be the largest and most important yet held. The official members or delegates will be approximately four hundred and fifty in number. They are appointed from the constituent denominational members. Those who are immediately interested in promoting this meeting, assert that it will be the most important and the most representative religious assemblage which has been held in America.

Preceding the regular sessions there will be conferences of the commissions and committees subsidiary to the council.

There will also be held conferences of theological seminaries, of the religious press and of federated movements.

The conference of the commission on relations with Japan promises to be of special interest at this time in view of the visit to America of delegates from the labor unions of Japan to the American Federation of Labor at its annual meeting at Baltimore. This is the second visit of the labor organizations of Japan to this country in an official capacity. The first visit was made to the labor organizations in California in 1912. Both of these visits are the result of the visit to Japan in the early part of 1913 by Professor Shailer Mathews, president of the federal council, and Dr. Sidney Gulick, one of the secretaries of the federal council. They visited Japan as official representatives of the council. It is probable that the American Federation of Labor will shortly send an official delegation to Japan to confer with labor organizations in that country.

The present friendly status of the organized labor forces of Japan and America marks a great advance upon the strained situation of three years ago, when the feeling of the laboring classes of the two countries was quite hostile. Organized labor in Japan and America has perhaps accomplished more in friendly conference toward perpetrating cordial relations between the United States and Japan than has been accomplished through the channels of diplomacy.

At noon evangelistic meetings to be held in a St. Louis theatre, William Jennings Bryan will speak upon "Great Gospel Themes." Shop and factory meetings will be held daily in various parts of the city under the direction of Charles Steidle, one of the secretaries of the federal council.

Street Car Kills Cattle—Eleven head of cattle were killed outright and eight more were so seriously injured that they were killed later, when they were being taken to the slaughterhouse, when an Interurban car crashed into a herd being driven across the tracks near the city limits east of the sugar factory property about 7:30 Saturday night. Passengers were considerably shaken up but fortunately the car stayed on the rails and no serious consequences were averted. Nampa Herald.

Shoots Self by Accident—While out hunting deer Wednesday afternoon, Bill Bosely of Elginmore accidentally shot himself, which resulted in his death a short time after. Dr. E. S. Steidle was called to the bedside of the man but he was beyond assistance. It seemed while crawling through a fence the hunter pulled the business end of the gun toward him, the trigger caught on the wire, discharging the gun. The bullet ploughed its way through his hand and entered the center of the chest.—Spirit Lake Herald.

Killed While Hunting—Young Alpha Barretto, 15-year-old who lives in the east section of the city, was shot and instantly killed while out hunting just a mile or two from his home Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. With a companion of the same age he had gone looking for rabbits up the Blackfoot river. It seemed that the other boy, Arthur Gagnon, had taken one shot at a rabbit when he stumbled, and in falling accidentally discharged his 10-gauge shot-gun. The charge literally tore the top of the head from Alpha Barretto, who fell in instantaneous death.—Blackfoot Republican.

Bond Vote Lost—The proposition to bond Owyhee county for $60,000 for the purpose of building four bridges across the Snake river, a matter of much importance to the development and also the convenience of both Owyhee and Canyon counties, was defeated by 58 votes.—Nampa Leader-Herald.

Caught in Cave—Caught in a cave in a gravel bank where he was getting a load of sand for building purposes last Monday evening, a ranchman named Phillips residing just south of Nampa had a narrow escape.

Killed When Logs Stave Way—Sunday morning about 8 o'clock Joseph Brown was instantly killed while unloading logs at the Humbird log dock. The crew in charge of unloading consisted of Byron Courser, foreman, Ed Erickson, Wilfred Olson and Joseph Brown. The fastenings had been removed from one end and part of the logs had rolled off, but before applying the chocks as is customary for logging these that are left rotten. Olson and Erickson had gotten down in the morning for logs which was lying crosswise of the sideway. The remaining logs on the car began rolling as they sometimes do of their own account. Olson and Erickson were in position so they could get away but Brown was caught and the logs passed over him, knocking him from the sidewalk.—Sandpoint News.

(Times Special Correspondent)
Several Hansen people left Saturday morning for visits with relatives. Mrs. Bruce Rose and son started for California. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis go to St. Louis and Sturgeon McCoy and son will visit in Ohio.

Clyde Hughes suffered a painful and serious accident Friday. He was on horseback and while galloping up the street, started a team hitched across from Eastbrook's store. The team started to run and Clyde in attempting to stop them fell and the wagon ran over his foot, breaking several bones. He was taken at once to the Twin Falls hospital where he is receiving medical treatment.

Elaborate plans are being made for the banquet to be given by the boys' association on Saturday evening in the church basement. Besides good things to eat, good speaking and music are promised.

A box supper is to be held at the school house Wednesday night. Plans are already under way for Christmas celebrations. On Friday evening, December 15, a program of vocal and instrumental numbers and readings will be given at the church under the direction of Mrs. E. F. Hinton. An admission fee will be charged, the proceeds to be used in buying the Christmas treat. On the following Friday evening the Sunday school will give their annual Christmas entertainment.

The many friends of Mrs. A. E. Potygrove will be pleased to know that she is recovering so rapidly as could be expected from her recent operation. Mrs. Sturgeon McCoy is spending a few days with friends in Twin Falls.

TWIN FALLS AGAIN LEADS IN INDUSTRIAL ACTIVITY

Pacific Coast Manufacturer Makes Leader of Payment by Amalgamated Sugar Company.

Twin Falls again goes to the head of the list of evidences of industrial activity compiled by the Pacific Coast Manufacturer and sent out weekly from Portland, Ore. This time the payment made to farmers by the Amalgamated Sugar company. The list for the week follows:

Twin Falls—Amalgamated Sugar company pays local beet growers $140,000 for deliveries to October 1. Cost of weeding and caring for beets had been previously deducted so the amount is clear money.

Payette—Approximately $225,000 has been paid out to farmers of this district for poultry and eggs during the year 1916, by two Payette poultry concerns.

Nampa—Castle creek mines sent in 4 gold-silver bricks.

Mullan paying is now $115,000 a month.

Boise—Governor Alexander and a large per cent of the newly elected legislators strongly favor the construction of the north and south highway. There can be little question about the early completion of this project which is to make Idaho one state.

Wilder—Rochester mine has 700 sacks banana ore ready for the smelter.

Shoshone—Bulme county will build six per cent highways over Galena summit.

Parnia—Bridge completed on road to Wilder—crew go to build bridge across Clearwater above Lewiston.

Siltco—Central Idaho prosperous, twenty-four horse teams hauling parcel post to interior points.

Nampa—Cold storage plant will double size of ice house here.

Boise—Capital News says citizens should refrain from throwing obstacles either in the pathway of prospecting mining or of those who are already operating and whose success is essential not only for what it will bring to the state in itself, but because of the manner in which it will encourage others.

Boise—Seattle dealers pay $97,000 for 1300 head of Boise valley beef cattle.

Wardner—Stewart Mining company seeking lease to mine under streets of this town.

Caldwell—$300,000 corporation to operate Denning mines near Silver City.

Nampa—Estimated that $50,000 worth of fowls will be shipped from here for Thanksgiving.

Idaho Falls—Utah-Idaho Sugar company to install Steffens process for extracting sugar from molasses in factory here.

Lewiston bank deposits show increase of $100,000 since September reports.

Driggs—Thomas brothers to build a grain elevator here.

Hagerman working hard to get the cheese factory.

Salmon—Three cars of Lemhi county wool go to Cleveland mills.

Salt Lake—Government will construct sixteen miles of telephone line from Moyle to Leonia.

COULDN'T SHOW HIM.

"Jilly" Sunday, the celebrated evangelist, has at last met his match, and all his friends have been laughing over a little adventure he had with a small boy.

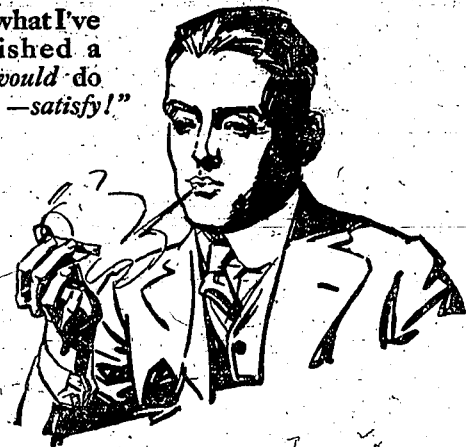

"Jilly" Sunday was out walking when he stopped a young gentleman and inquired the way to the post office.

The boy immediately directed him there, and Mr. Sunday said:

"You seen a bright little fellow. Do you know who I am?"

"You the way to Heaven."

"That's just what I've always wished a cigarette would do—satisfy!"

The feature of Chesterfields is that they begin where other cigarettes leave off.

In other words, besides pleasing the taste, Chesterfields go further—they satisfy! Just like a long drink of cold water satisfies when you're thirsty.

And yet, Chesterfields are MILD!

It's Chesterfields or nothing if you want this new cigarette delight, because no cigarette maker can copy the Chesterfield blend—an entirely new combination of tobaccos and the biggest discovery in cigarette blending in 20 years.

Overland Automobiles

Which Do You Prefer?

Pullman or Freight?

No one would think of riding in a freight car if he could enjoy the comfort of a big, comfortable easy riding Pullman parlor car.

So with automobiles. Most of the popular priced cars ride like freight cars. This is due to the old fashioned type of spring.

Many manufacturers still continue to use them. The Overland does not. The 75 B Overland has the latest type of cantilever shock absorbing springs. As a result it is one of the easiest riding cars in the world. One demonstration will prove this. $635 f. o. b. Toledo.

HAD NO MORE COMING

During a dinner party, the question arose as to when a man should be privileged to kiss a young woman.

"That you think," said one of the guests, "that when a young man buys grand opera tickets for a girl, spends $5 for a supper after the performance, and then takes her home in a taxicab, he should kiss her goodnight?"

"I certainly do not!" was the quick response of another of the guests, a confirmed bachelor.

"You don't?" exclaimed the other in surprise. "Why not?"

"Because," answered the bachelor, "it seems to me that he has done enough for her."

section order. It is hoped to be able to make a satisfactory showing that interior points are entitled to a cheaper freight rate than terminal points.

President Rammett said before leaving for Salt Lake that the entire Idaho case for both the northern and southwestern part of the state, will be presented at Salt Lake, so that the commission will not have to be represented at the Spokane hearing.

Shippers in Idaho, who have given the long and short haul case study are greatly interested in the announcement of Senator Poinsett that he will carry the long and short haul fight into congress at the coming session and will further a bill to relieve freight rates to the interior. A tentative draft of the proposed feature follows:

"That it shall be unlawful for any common carrier subject to the provisions of this act to charge or receive for a shorter than for a longer distance any greater compensation in the aggregate for the transportation of passengers, or of like kind of property,
for a shorter than for a longer distance
over the same line or routes in the same direction, the shorter being included within the longer distance, and shall charge any greater compensation as a through rate than the aggregate of the intermediate rates subject to the provisions of this act; but this shall not be construed as authorizing any common carrier within the terms of this act to charge or receive as great compensation for a shorter as for a longer distance.

"Whenever a carrier by railroad shall, in competition with a water route or routes, reduce the rates on the carrier of any species of freight to or from competitive points it shall not be permitted to increase such rates unless after hearing by the interstate commerce commission."

In a recent interview Senator Poin-sett said:
"It is contrary to every economic law for the railroads to continue the ancient policy of transporting goods the longest possible way to the consumer, as is the case when they carry them to the end of the line and then ship them back to the interior. The law of economics require that goods shall be delivered by the shortest and most direct route and that is the system which must ultimately prevail."

"In this matter not only should there be united action and co-operation of what are called the Rocky mountain states and cities, but the entire interior country, including the plains states of the middle west, which suffer like discrimination in varying degrees involving the same identical principle, should be communicated, and so that their influence can be concentrated in support of a particular measure such as that which is proposed here."

"When only a part of the land described in the certificate is transferred or some estate interest in the land is to remain in the transferor a new certificate shall be issued to him for the part estate or interest remaining in his hands."

"This act shall be construed liberally, so far as may be necessary for the purpose of carrying out its general intention, which is that any owner may register his title and bring his land under the provisions of this act, but no one is required to do so."

It will be seen from the above statements and quotations that after land is once registered, no further abstract of title can be necessary, since every transaction is first and last paper and file shows exactly the condition of title.
