SUNDAY THEATRES ARE DEFEATED BY UNANIMOUS VOTE

COUNCIL DENIES PETITION FOR OPENING OF MOTION PICTURE SHOWS ON LORD'S DAY.

Dr. J. F. Shepherd and Rev. C. L.
Bent Present a Remonstrance

Nine Hundred Want Shows Open
While Hundred Hinder Sign Protest Against Their Running—Other Business Done.

By unanimous vote the city council last night denied the petition for Sunday motion pictures. Council member was absent. The friends of the Sunday movies had filed their petition, containing 900 names, early in the evening and were not represented. The opponents of the Sunday shows were represented by Dr. J. F. Shepherd and Rev. C. L. Bent, and filed a remonstrance containing 1400 names, with the statement that several volunteer circulators of petitions had not reported and that they considered evening and were not represented. Dr. J. F. Shepherd and Rev. C. L. Bent, who would have, will told, 2000 names. City Attorney Horvick ruled that no favorable action could be taken legally with the petition. He had examined the signatures to the petition for motion pictures to determine whether a sufficient number thereon were legal voters prior to the motion by Councilman Smith to lay on the table pending such verification did not receive a second. Councilman Pankratz moved that the petition for the Sunday pictures be denied. It was seconded by Councilman Parrott and carried unanimously. In presenting the case of the remonstrants Dr. Shepherd said that he disliked to oppose the wishes of anyone, but that he and a number of others felt it to be their duty to oppose this. He understood that only one theatre was behind the movement for Sunday theatres. They had sent out paid circulators and had begun their campaign quietly. The remonstrants had no paid circulators and had acted when they learned of the move for the Sunday theatres. While on their campaign for signatures, they had heard it and by some that if any steps should be taken, they should be in the direction of the opposition of certain plays rather than in the direction of greater freedom of operation. He would ask that a "public hearing" be given, and hoped that in canvassing the names to the petition endeavor to ascertain whether they were all legal voters and to determine the character of the shows of those whose names were signed on the opposing papers. He said that they would ask leave to file the petitions still out and hoped that the petitions would be kept on file with the city in the event that future moves should be made.

A remonstrance was presented by Rev. Bent. After the ministers had retired, Dr. Shepherd returned to say that should the council care to act before the remonstrances, still were filed, they would have no objection.

After Dr. Shepherd and again left the room the council discussed the matter finally. The city attorney ruled that the petitions on both sides could have no legal effect in the future should another petition for Sunday theatres be presented to a future council, but that they were part of

ABSTRACT COMPANY TO ERECT BUILDING

Construction to Begin Soon As Possible—Capital Stock Increased To $25,000.

The stockholders of the Twin Falls Title and Abstract Company, limited, at a meeting held on Monday afternoon, have decided to erect a building for their own use, and have also increased the capital employed in the business to $25,000. The concern was incorporated in 1907 and this increase in capital has become necessary owing to the growth of the company and the general growth of the community. Papers in this increase were filed in the county recorder's office on Monday.

It was also decided to obtain quarters to accommodate its increased business, and a building site has been purchased at the corner of Second and Shoshone street east, where a strictly modern office building, to meet its new requirements, will be immediately commenced. The building has been prepared by Architect Morse and are very appropriate. The building will be of white terra cotta, with a modern design. Work will be started on construction as soon as contract can be let. The building will have large vault and other accessories for the convenient handling of the company's growing abstract, loan and insurance business.

GERMANY SAYS SHE WARNED BY WIRELESS.

(United Press)
WELLS, Dec. 19.—The German reply to the note of the United States with reference to the sinking of the American steamer Columbian, is said to contain the statement that the German submarine which sank the vessel previously warned her by means of wireless of the contemplated act. It is asserted that the Columbian was violating neutrality laws. The note raises the question of international law as the question of the legality of a warning given by wireless has never been even discussed by diplomats.

KING HILL PROJECT
MAY GET AID FROM U. S.

(United Press)
WASHINGTON, Dec. 19.—Estimates on the cost of completion of the King Hill project in Idaho and the Malheur-Owyhee project in Oregon will be submitted to Congress by the reclamation service at an early date, according to an announcement made at the department this afternoon. Work on both projects has been suspended for many years.

A. P. CARNAHAN WRITES TO COM-
MERICAL CLUB ABOUT GET-TING INTO THIS COUNTY.

Says That Segregation Is Too
Far From Silver City

Secretary McMillan Thinks It Inadvisable to Take Steps To Bring
Such Annexation of King Hill District.

The Twin Falls Commercial club Saturday received a communication from A. P. Carnahan of Owyhee County asking whether a proposition by the people of King Hill district to become annexed to Twin Falls county would meet with favor here. Secretary McMillan of the club said yesterday that in his opinion the club would not take any stand in favor of such proposition, as its desire for the annexation of certain townships in Owyhee county resulted only from the fact that such annexation was necessary in order to complete a much needed road to Jarbidge.

The letter, addressed to "The Commercial Club, Twin Falls, Idaho," is as follows:

Dear Sirs: Understanding that a move is on to annex a part of Owyhee county to Twin Falls county, I wish to find out if Twin Falls county would care to take in King Hill location south of the Snake river.

We are too far from Silver City and have poor roads, so that we can never do business with a county seat. Elmore county would like to have us but I fully believe that most of the settlers would rather be in Twin Falls county, as our interests are nearer alike. There are 12,000 acres of valuable land here and the people feel that the federal government will be favorable to taking the ditch over and completing it.

The winter range for the stockmen from the Three Creek country and also for the sheepmen of the county is away from here to Three Creek and if they are taking that country in a slice south of the Snake river would include the farming section.

I talked the matter over with Mr. Dunn and Mr. Walters, cattlemen, last summer but have not talked much here. But if Twin Falls county is favorable we will get busy down here.

Very respectfully,
A. P. CARNAHAN.

MUSTERING OUT PROCESS

BOISE—Plumbers, carpenters and laborers have been put to work at the Boise barracks by Major Amos C. Martin, U. S. A., getting them in shape for the return of the Second Idaho Infantry.

Major Martin now plans to put all of the furnishings in the buildings at the post, and with that thought in mind he has ordered tents from Fort Lawton, Wash., to be used as dining rooms and kitchens. The tents will be placed in front of the buildings in which the different units of the regiment are housed.

Heating stoves have been ordered from Fort Lawton. Large coal burners will be placed in the big rooms of the old stone quarters and small oil stoves in the smaller buildings.

Canal Meeting Is Arousing Interest

Problems to Be Solved By Annual Gathering Cause Discussion—Important Matters Pending.

The action of the directors of the Twin Falls Canal company at their meeting Thursday in deciding to ascertain the facts with reference to the canal supply in order that the stockholders might have the facts with reference to the Hansen butt proposition, has aroused interest in the canal.

A legislative committee was appointed last year to draft proposed legislation for the canal project and the stockholders are now meeting to discuss the problem.

The old question of whether the canal should be built or not will be before the board of directors before the meeting, it is said, together with plans for separating the canal from the Hansen butt project.

The resolution adopted in regard to the Hansen butt matter by the board of directors last year was:

"Resolved: That the board of directors take immediate steps to secure data as to the probable cost of developing power and the drop on the line and installing a pumping station to furnish water to lands known as the Hansen butt, and further to have the Hansen butt project beneficial, to secure the necessary water. The net proceeds arising from the sale of such water rights is said to be used in improving the canal of the corporation."

Provided: That the furnishing of the water to the above mentioned lands shall be in any way together with the rights of interests of any stockholders of the Twin Falls Canal Company, and that a competent engineer be employed to prepare estimates of cost of said construction, and that the proposition shall be submitted to the stockholders of the company at the meeting of January 1, 1917.

CONGRESS WORRIES ABOUT

(United Press)
WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 19.—That the government should immediately plan of means to replace the $327,000,000 revenue which will cease with the death of the liquor traffic in this country, was the warning conveyed to the house this afternoon by Representative Philip C. Barlow.

GERMANY MUST FIRST MAKE

War Must Go on Until There is Restoration, Reparation and Future Guarantee—Russia Also Declines to Negotiate.

(United Press)
WASHINGTON, Dec. 19.—Those well informed in German circles said this afternoon that Imperial Chancellor Bismarck may answer request of Premier Lloyd-George that the terms on which Germany will make peace, be made known to Great Britain, provided that the latter agrees to keep the conditions secret.

President Wilson and the cabinet this afternoon met to consider the press reports of Lloyd-George's speech. Officials here feel that the British Prime minister "passes the buck" to Germany. They said that the speech left an opening wedge and that they believed further discussion would probably follow. The keenest interest is manifested in administration circles in the forthcoming allied note to Germany.

LONDON, Dec. 19.—Prime Minister Lloyd-George this afternoon announced that the government is planning an imperial conference of all the British dominions on the war.

LONDON, Dec. 19.—In an address pronounced the most important public utterance since the beginning of the war, David Lloyd-George, prime minister of England today told the house of commons that the allies would refuse to enter into peace negotiations until they had knowledge of the proposals of Germany. He announced that a formal note responding to the overtures of Imperial Chancellor Bismarck would be ready for transmission to Berlin through the American embassy. He declared that neither the chancellor nor the German people could afford to hope for an honorable and lasting settlement. In a spirit of bitter irony the premier said: "I have feared for a single hour that I might be asked to phrase to accept the only terms which would make peace possible." He quoted a statement of Lord Curzon, British ambassador in Berlin, as saying: "The allies will only accept terms involving complete restoration and reparation with reorganization of the future. The allied powers insist that the war can only end with a guarantee against future disturbances of Europe by Prussian militarism. It is cruel and swashbuckling through the streets of Europe is not to be punished as an offense against the law of nations. Holwood's post of self defense divides only the German nation."

The scenes in the house of commons were the most tense and heated since war was declared. The floor and galleries were packed with dignitaries. The prime minister and his predecessors, Asquith, Lloyd George, and Bismarck, were present. The speaker intended to recognize the provisional Greek government of Venizelos. Another farm changed owners since our last letter, the Howard Conover place selling to the Jones brothers at $200 per acre.

Charles Overfield and family accompanied by Mr. Overfield mother, and brother Harry, moved to their north side home near Eden this week.

Percy Waleham is a business visitor to a distant city this week.

Joe Wilson was in Twin Falls last week. He reports his mother's condition much improved and says she will soon be able to get about again, with the aid of a wheel chair.

Mr. Wilson was struck with a paralytic stroke a month ago.

Guy Ball's cousin took his departure from McMillan last Friday after several days visit with his relatives at this place.

P. T. Brown and wife autoed up to the sale held at Hansen this week.

Mr. Crum was one of the party last fall who went down to the Utah Basin country and, as a result of that trip is now settling out, preparing to go down into that country with the intention of making his future home.

Will Gibson of Hansen was a McMillan last week. Mr. Gibson's wife, well known here, is now visiting with her parents who live near Prairie City, Oregon, where she will spend the holidays.

Mr. McMillan misses the whistle from the factory which blew just long enough for them to get used to it. A break caused the whistle to shut down, which, if mended, would necessitate the shutting down of the entire factory.

As a result of the visit of Fred G. Taylor, secretary-treasurer of the factory company, a special train has been put on to accommodate the employees of the sugar factory, hence the extra cars on the switch every morning and evening. The change from auto trucks was deemed advisable on account of bad weather and muddy roads.

Mr. Stanley, father of the Stanley brothers and an old timer of near McMillan is back from the Idaho family over. Mr. Stanley owns a saw mill in that country, and says it pays better than any kind of farming here.

The mill has been shut down for some time on account of early winter there. Carpenters, Charley and Harley Shroll were out buying cattle last week, securing a nice little herd of dairy stuff.

Several of our farmers were plowing last week—not so bad for Twin Falls after all.

D. F. Clark, a director of the Twin Falls school, attended a meeting at that place Monday evening.

Will Eldridge and wife of Twin Falls were McMillans last week.

Merchants in every line of trade have been busy the past week dressing up their establishments to appeal to the Christmas shopper; to warm him of the nearness of the giving season, and to aid the underling in the choice of his Yuletide remembrances.

Attractive interior decorations greet the prospective patron, window displays which appeal to old and young alike have been installed and the spirit of the times and general liveliness noticed on all sides is an evidence that the forthcoming Christmas day will be a busy one for Twin Falls merchants.

"STUBBORNNESS" PLAY GIVEN BY H. S. G. C.

Pleanty of Fun Injected—Christmas Program to be Given on December Twenty-first.

The usual program of the high school German club was given December 7, and opened with two numbers by the male quartet which includes Otto Hopfer, Melvin Strong, Gilbert Younger and Robert Edwards. Instead of the regular songs and readings, a variation in the form of a play was presented. This play was entitled "Stubbornness," and the plot was based upon the sentence, "Thank God, the table is set." This was uttered by the butler who insisted that the maid say the same thing. She refused and the bride and the bride's mother took the same stand and flatly refused to use the exclamation, while their respective husbands obstinately insisted that the trouble-some remark should be uttered. A family quarrel was followed by a happy and satisfactory ending.

The cast follows: Elizabeth, the maid Marguerite Freis; Heinrich, the butler, Vilik Luck; Emma, the bride, Utta Reed; Alfred, the man of the house, Vernon March; Ausdorf, the bride's mother, William Enchling; Katrina, the bride's mother, Lorraine Putzner.

The Christmas program will be given December 21. Several musical numbers will be given, including selections by the male quartet, and also readings and dialogues. Perhaps the most enjoyable part of the evening will be the distribution of the presents from the Christmas tree. The names of the members of the club have been exchanged, and presents not exceeding the cost of five cents will be hung on the tree. A good time is assured and visitors are welcome.

EMPLOYMENT BUREAU FOR U. S. PROPOSED

Secretary Wilson Would Extend Service of Department Devoted to Connecting Men and Jobs.

WASHINGTON—Expansion of the government's public employment service by creation of a separate bureau of employment within the department of labor, is the chief recommendation of Secretary Wilson's annual report, made public Thursday. The work, it is declared, has outgrown the facilities of the bureau of immigration, from where it has been directed. Beginning in a small way in 1907, it now covers the country through the post-office and other departments.

The assistance of the postoffice department, Secretary Wilson says, has been particularly helpful. Some 60,000 postoffices are distributing blanks which the seeker of a job may fill out and send through the mails free of postage. When applications of employers and employees in the same neighborhood enter the same post office, the postmaster brings them together, without forwarding the application.

The department's attitude towards strikebreaking is set forth in connection with its public employment policy in these words:

"The department of labor should not make itself a medium for conveying information of demands for work elsewhere where labor disputes are the cause of the demand. That there already a sufficient supply of labor there as true it is unemployed on account of a dispute over terms as it were unemployed from the lack of employment opportunities from other causes."

Expansion of the service is urged to provide for the employment of the aged. Modern industrialism, it is declared, condemns to the scrap heap too many able-bodied and active men whose only defect is their having passed an arbitrary age limit.

THE KILLARNEY GIRLS AND RITA RICH.

The Killarney girls appear in Irish costumes and, with an appropriate setting, present a program of instrumental music and singing, with emphasis on the latter. They are Irish songs that range from simple folk-tunes to the most elaborate and stirring, and are rendered by a company of ten artists.

THE KILLARNEY GIRLS AND RITA RICH.

The company, as before, is headed by Miss Rita Rich, one of the best known lady singers and entertainers. She has so many accomplishments that it is difficult to tell of them in detail. It is, however, as a reader, entertainer and impersonator that she has gained her chief distinction.

Miss Rich is ably assisted by Miss Laura Sornio, who has a splendid mezzo soprano voice, great dramatic ability and has gained much praise for herself and distinction for the company by her interpretation of humorous and dramatic readings and stories.

Miss Margarette Andrews, contralto soloist, possesses a wonderful voice and has produced much favorable comment on account of its unusual quality, its dramatic brilliancy and its sympathetic appeal.

The reports from the committees and the press during all of their four seasons of booking have been warm and enthusiastic in their praise.

Some very successful programs were given in the high school by the club last year. An improvement, in the way of having longer programs moves of a variety is expected. Thomas Irwin was elected president.

The election of the remaining officers was postponed until a future meeting. The first of the regular meetings was not decided upon.

Where There's Music in The Home It Is "Home Sweet Home"

MAKE A HOME OF YOUR HOUSE

Some of the finest houses in this broad land are as cold and cheerless as the great outdoors. Some of the humblest cottages shelter the cheerful homes in Christendom—the home influence and well acquainted, "comfy" feeling greeting you even before you enter.

Make a Home of Your House:

Provide it with that irresistible drawing magnet, Music, whose wonderful world-embracing language all know and appreciate, and round whose common meeting place family and friends are welded into one congenial whole.

All forms of good music are beautiful, but the best vehicle for a composition is not some means whereby the music is rendered "precisely the same way a dozen times or so, until pleasure quickly changes to monotony."

The best instrument for musical expression is the king of all, THE PIANO; for with it, the music lover always has ahead the hope of a better and more perfect rendition with the PIANO, the musician, never quite reaches his limit of improvement. The true artist never plays twice exactly alike, because he delights in the thrill of each time making it better.

A PIANO means MUSIC, real MUSIC, artistic MUSIC, with unlimited opportunity for personal expression, to the ear, to the feeling, to the to the car, to the feelings, to the household, and to the home. And harmony in the home makes REAL HOME for your abiding place.

bers chosen from the local high school were Theodore Holderman, from the senior class, and Arthur Scott, from the junior class. Owing to the fact that a certain grade standard must be upheld by representatives of the school, Mr. Holderman claimed ineligibility, resigning in favor of Lionel Olson.

O. M. Elliott, our former superintendent, spoke to the student body in assembly, last Wednesday on the subject of the school and the sportsman. He was married at the time that he was here but has since separated from his wife, who is said to live in the east. Miss Rose also came from Seattle.

STORY OF A WAR BRIDE GIVES VIRGINIA PEARSON GREAT EMOTIONAL ROLE

The humor and pathos of Scotch life on the plains has its part in the unfolding of the story of "The War Bride's Secret," the new William Fox picture in which Virginia Pearson is

The story of the film tells how Jean Macdonald (Miss Pearson), a dairymaid on the extensive farm of Robin Gray (Walter Law), is loved by Gray and by Colin Douglas (Glen White). Jean's father (Henry Hallam) encourages the love of Gray, and tries to force his daughter to marry him.

At the outbreak of war, Colin enlists. Before he leaves, he marries Jean secretly. Later the girl learns that Colin has been killed. She realizes that she must have a father for the child for whom she has already begun to make clothes, so she marries Robin Gray.

When the child is born, the wealthy farmer thinks it is his own. He does not realize the truth until the end, when Colin Douglas returns to the village. He had been merely wounded in the war, and as soon as he can get away, he returns to Jean.

Gray discovers the truth of Jean's relationship with Colin, and he leaves her with her real husband.

"I've made provisions that the farm goes to the bairn," he says. "God bless ye all."

DESTROYING ITS OWN ARGUMENT.

It seems to be a necessary feature of free trade preachers to dispute the fact that as the result of the wonderful progress in the mechanical arts, alone made possible by the policy of Protection, the industrial producers of the United States have overtaken and are keeping pace with the rest of the world in the matter of quality and value. Woodrow Wilson is convinced that "the competition of keen wits" and not a protective tariff, is what American manufacturers stand most in need of. Secretary Redfield insists that the great American lack is that of "efficiency" in mechanical methods and processes. These are stock arguments of free traders. Of course there is no truth of sense in them.

Exactly the contrary is true. In many lines American production leads the world. In no country in the world does the consumer get better value for his money. In no country will the pay of wage earners buy more of the comforts of life. In no country are the wage-earner and his family so well fed, so well clothed, so well housed.—From the American Economist.

The organ of the American Protective Tariff League proves too much, in its main argument in the above article should be accepted as true. If it is a fact that in no country does the consumer get better value for his money it is, of course, necessarily true that in no country is the price of commodities lower than here, hence there is no danger of a flood of foreign products from markets where prices are high, to markets where prices are low. The Economist always argues as if importers were idiots. Now, if it is true that our prices are as low or lower than prices abroad while our wages are higher, then it must be due to our higher efficiency, which means higher production. Any sane man can figure out that this more efficient production, due to the greater intelligence of our workmen, and not a protective tariff, is the cause of higher wages in this country.

Neither President Wilson nor Secretary Redfield has assumed that American labor is less productive or American management less efficient than the labor and management of foreigners. What the secretary has complained of is that they are not as efficient as they might be, and what President Wilson has complained of is that they did not fully realize and trust their own powers. There is no contradiction between the attitude of the two men on this question, and notwithstanding the American attitude to the contrary, they are largely right. However, American manufacturers are not as efficient as the Economist would have us believe, for if they were a protective tariff would be unnecessary. Its own argument cuts the ground from under its feet.

Incidentally, the application of the term "free trader" to President Wilson and the Democratic party is a piece of deliberate misrepresentation. Neither are for free trade. Both favor a tariff for revenue and a tariff for revenue always carries with it a measure of official protection. How this shall be distributed is the problem which the Democratic party has been trying to solve and as a whole has solved satisfactorily. With the data which will be furnished by the tariff commission it will be in still better condition to deal intelligently with the question.

WARNS AGAINST FIRES CAUSED BY DECORATING

National Fire Protection Association Says Danger From This Source Is Grave.

"Before attempting any heavy or incendious decoration which may cause fire, examine your insurance contract and see if the policy contains any thing like this: 'This entire policy, unless otherwise provided by agreement endorsed hereon or added thereto, shall be void.' If the policy contains such a clause, it is better to be safe than sorry. It is the advice given by the National Fire Protection Association in regard to guarding against fires caused by holiday decorations.

Among other things, the association says: 'Holiday fires in churches, bazars and stores well filled with people are usually holocausts. Light, inflammable decorations make fires easy to start and easy to spread. A match, a gas flame or an electrical defect may do it.

Watch carefully. Do not permit them to light cigars inside buildings. Do not make the slightest change in electric wiring without consulting electrical inspectors.

Do not decorate your Christmas tree with paper, cotton or any other inflammable material. Use metallic tinsel and other non-inflammable decorations only, and set the tree securely so that the children in reaching for things cannot tip it over.

Do not use cotton to represent the snow. If you must have snow use powdered mica or asbestos fibre. Do not permit the children to light or relight the candles while parents are not present. They frequently set fire to their clothing instead. Electrical illuminations are safer.

Do not leave matches within reach of children at holiday time. Candles are meant to be lighted, and if the children can get matches they will experiment with them. They imitate their elders.

Do not allow trees to remain inside building after the holidays. The tree left leaning readily when needed have become dry. A large number of fires usually occur in January from this cause.

EVIDENCE OF FOUL PLAY ON

POCATELLO—County officers returned from Swan Lake Saturday evening with the body of an unknown man who was found in the burning station at Swan Lake yesterday. The body is in a mutilated condition and blood stains give evidence of foul play.

Another man, who was seen in company with the dead man before the station caught on fire is being held on suspicion.

MISS PAULINE FREDERICK

AT IDAHO THEATRE.

How do they work the double exposure on the screen? That is a question which has puzzled many a movie fan. But whether you know how it is done or not, you will at least see that it is well done in "Ashes of Embers" in which the celebrated Pauline Frederick is starred by the Famous Players Film company on the Paramount program. The beautiful emotional actress does some of the most remarkable acting of her career. In this dramatic production which was staged under the direction of Joseph Kaufman, Miss Frederick plays the dual roles of twin sisters, the one a drudge and the other a butterfly who later develops into a conscienceless woman. This attraction shows at the Idaho theatre Wednesday and Thursday.

VIRGINIA PEARSON IN

"WAR BRIDES SECRET" AT INS

Virginia Pearson is the beautiful star of the new photoplay which William Fox presents, "The War Bride's Secret," and which will run at the Idaho Wednesday and Thursday.

Supporting Miss Pearson is an excellent cast of Fox Players. Ward Law and Glen White have leading roles, and Miss Pearson herself has the only girl's part in the film. "The photoplay was made under the direction of Kenneth Buel. This is the story:

Jean MacDougal is a Scotch peasant girl, whom two men love. She marries one secretly, just as he is about to leave for the front. Then, when she hears that he has been killed, her father's insistence compels her to marry the other, Robin Gray. Robin thinks that the child, who is born later, is his own.

The first husband, who had been only wounded, returns to the village, and goes to the girl's home. Robin, returning, realizes the truth. He decides to leave the house, and allows the girl to go back to her rightful husband.

SHEEPMEN WORK FOR GRAZING HIGHWAYS.

Washington—Two "visiting gentlemen" from Idaho dined upon Washington the past week. They are Governor Frank R. Steiner and Frank Hagenbach, of Spencer.

Their visit was in connection with the proposed 640-acre-grazing-trail bill. The visitors are here to urge that grazing "highways" from the ranches to the grazing lands in the mountains be established and kept open against fire. The fear voiced by the two sheepmen is that the quality of the lands lying between the ranches in the valleys and the grazing ground on the table lands might be absorbed by entrymen and access to the grazing lands be thus cut off. The outlook for the passage of the 640-acre grazing farm bill is good.

JUNE CAPRICE

TO PUBLISH "HOSTER."

Plans and arrangements are well under way for the publication of "The Second Idaho Duty Roster," the history of the Second Idaho infantry to be written by Sergeant Harold James of Company B. In addition to its qualities as complete regimental history, the book will contain an authentic biography of every officer and man in the regiment, pictures of all, and of the various companies and squads, camp scenes and "snaps" taken of the boys in action, while on the march, in fact, an elaborate pictorial record or story of the camp life of the Idaho soldiers on the border.

The "Hoster" will also have a detailed account of the activities of the regiment as a whole and of the individual officers and men from the time of mobilization at Boise up to their release from service—Nampa Herald.

Standpatters Blamed for Hughes' Defeat

"The attitude of the standpatt element of the Republican party is responsible for the defeat of Hughes in California," says a writer in the "Progressive" of Campbell, Santa Clara, Cal., who is here looking over the country with a view of locating "The Progressives" throughout the state.

He says that the standpatt element has Governor Johnson introduce Hughes at San Francisco and have a leader of the old crowd introduce him at Los Angeles. "If they had done this," he says, "Hughes would not have it that way. They assumed the attitude that the Progressive element had no rights and were entitled to no consideration. I am a Progressive, but felt that I could not tolerate the position which the 'Old Guard' took. California is prosperous. Land went up $100 an acre in Santa Clara county during the past year and now sells at from $1000 to $1500 an acre. An organization of fruit and apricot growers helped conditions a great deal there. I like this country."

NEXT CONFERENCE

Delegates From Twin Falls Capture the State Meeting of Older Boys At Pocatello.

The Older Boys' conference, held at Pocatello, Idaho, December 15, 16 and 17, was attended by eight Twin Falls representatives, who were successful in their attempt to bring the next conference to Twin Falls.

Three local organizations were represented at the convention; the delegates from the Baraca class, being Carlyle Pickett, Harry Stearns, Fred Kelly and Lawrence Carlson; from the smaller troop of Boy Scouts, Gilbert Elude and John Hughes were delegated, and Lionel Dean and Arthur Scott, delegated from the high school. The boys left Friday and returned Monday, and stated that they enjoyed every minute of their trip. They were especially pleased with the hospitable treatment they received at the hands of the Pocatello boys. Upon arriving at that town they were met at the station by several of the officers in charge, and were conveyed to their rooms. A unique plan of housing the delegates from the various towns, had been previously adopted. The residents of Pocatello, hospitably threw open their doors to all delegates, and bade them come and go at will.

Friday evening a banquet was given at the Y. M. C. A. after which toasts were given by several men and boys, P. W. Dickinson acting as toastmaster. The toasts were followed by an address by Mr. T. J. Ryan, president of the Idaho Technical institute, the subject of his address was the "Golden Thread," by which he meant love of the mother in the family.

Twin Falls boys were unanimous in the decision that Mr. Ryan's address was the best of the conference. A business session was held Saturday morning, Carlyle Pickett, of the local Baraca class, presiding. The vote as to next year's place of meeting was taken, the result being: Twin Falls, forty-seven; American Falls, twenty-seven and Gooding, five. Harry Stearns probably drew the vote by presenting an invitation from the Baraca class to hold their conference here and the assembly acted upon his suggestion. American Falls presented invitations extended from fourteen different organizations of that town.

Officers were then elected, Eugene

TWO MILLION ACRES
FOR IDAHO ROADS

Senator Brady Introduces Bill to Grant Land For Permanent Highway Construction.

WASHINGTON—In order that the state of Idaho may speed up the work of road construction, and have at its disposal some $2,500,000, over and above what it can raise locally, Senator Brady has introduced and will pass a bill granting his state 2,500,000 acres of land, which the state in turn may sell for not less than $1.25 per acre, in such manner as the legislature may prescribe. One such bill was favorably reported to the senate last session, and others are pending, but the Brady bill is the only one affecting Idaho. It provides:

"That there is hereby granted to the state of Idaho two million acres of unappropriated, non-surveyed lands within said state to aid in the construction and maintenance of public roads in the state of Idaho.

"That such lands shall be selected under the joint authority of the governor of said state and the secretary of the interior, and may be designated and selected from any lands that belong to the United States government within such state, whether such lands be within or without forest reserves.

"The secretary of the interior is hereby authorized and directed to issue patent to said state as soon as the designation thereof has been certified to his office by the governor of said state, and such designation shall be made by legal subdivisions of surveyed lands and by metes and bounds of unsurveyed lands.

"That the said land shall be sold by the proper authority of said state at not less than $1.25 per acre and under such rules and regulations for the disposal thereof as may hereafter be provided by the legislature of the state."

TAKEN FROM EXCHANGES

A recent publication of the Dominion department of immigration shows that only 144,780 immigrants arrived in Canada during the fiscal year ended March 31, 1918. From Great Britain there were 42,276, as compared with 42,222 in the previous year, and from the United States 50,702, as compared with 107,539 in 1917-18. The problem of immigration after the war is already being discussed in Canada and Great Britain, and plans are under consideration for the settlement of returned soldiers on the vacant lands of the Dominion of Canada as well as of other overseas countries of the British empire.

Got Something?

You Want to Sell?

Most people have a piece of furniture, a farm implement, or something else which they have discarded and which they no longer want.

These things are put in the attic, or stored away in the barn, or left lying about, getting of less and less value each year.

WHY NOT SELL THEM?

Somebody wants those very things which have become of no use to you. Why not try to find that somebody by putting a want advertisement in THIS NEWSPAPER?

I have a good forty on the north side that is for a cheap and on good terms. C. A. Robinson, Rooms 1 and 2, Bank & Trust Building. Adv.

Here is one of the monster weapons used with terrific effect by the French army in the onslaught which resulted in the capture of Douaumont, in the Verdun Region. It was with hundreds of these powerful 370-centimeter, now called the "petes of the boulevards," that the French artillery swept the German trenches. This huge gun was photographed in action near Fleury on the Meuse.

SAFETY DEMANDS FEDERAL CONTROL OF THE RAILROADS

Only Way to Meet Emergencies of Nation, Says A. P. Thom.

STATES' RIGHTS PRESERVED

Principles Which Railways Hold Should Govern Regulatory System in Interstate of Public and the Roads—Compulsory System of Federal Incorporation Favored.

Washington, Dec. 4.—That the interests of national defense require that control of railway lines should rest with the federal government and not with the states was the main advanced by Alfred P. Thom, counsel to the Railway Executives' Advisory Committee, in concluding his preliminary statement of the case for the railways before the Newlands Joint Committee on Interstate Commerce.

"We must be efficient as a nation if we are to deal successfully with our national emergencies," said Mr. Thom, "and we must appreciate that efficient transportation is an essential condition of national efficiency. If we are to halt and weaken our transportation systems by state lines, by the permanent imposition of burdens by unwise regulation, we will make national efficiency impossible."

States' Rights Would Not Suffer.
Mr. Thom cited many instances in which shippers in one state were injuriously affected by selfish regulations imposed on the railroads by neighboring states. He pointed out that federal regulation would be no invasion of the rights of the states, but would be the means of preserving the rights which they acquired when they entered the Union, one of which was the right to the free movement of their products across state boundaries.

What the Railroads Advocate.
The principles which the railroads believe should be incorporated in any just system of regulation were summarized by Mr. Thom as follows:

1. The entire power and duty of regulation should be in the hands of the national government, except as to matters so essentially local and incidental that they cannot be used to interfere with the efficiency of the service or the just rights of the carriers.

2. As one of the means of accomplishing this, a system of compulsory federal incorporation should be adopted, into which should be brought all railroad corporations engaged in interstate or foreign commerce.

3. The Interstate Commerce Commission under existing laws has too much to do and is charged with conflicting functions, including the investigation, prosecution and decision of cases. The latter duties should be placed in the hands of a new body which might be called the Federal Railroad Commission. Regional Commissions should be established in different parts of the country to assist the Interstate Commerce Commission by handling local cases.

4. The power of the Commission should be extended to enable it to prescribe minimum rates and not merely maximum rates as at present. This would increase their power to prevent unjust discriminations.

Justice to Public and Roads.

5. It should be made the duty of the Interstate Commerce Commission, in the exercise of its powers to fix reasonable rates, to so adjust these rates that they shall be just at once to the public and to the carriers. To this end the Commission, in determining rates, should consider the necessity of maintaining efficient transportation and extensions of facilities, the relation of expenses to rates and the rights of shippers, stockholders and creditors of the roads.

6. The Interstate Commerce Commission should be invested with the power to fix the rates for carrying mails.

7. The federal government should have exclusive power to supervise the issue of stocks and bonds by railroad carriers engaged in interstate and foreign commerce.

8. The law should recognize the essential difference between those which restrain trade in the case of ordinary mercantile concerns and those which restrain trade in the case of common carriers. The question of competition is not the only fair criterion.

9. The law should expressly provide for the meeting and agreement of traffic or other officers of railroads in respect of rates or practices. This should, however, be safeguarded by requiring the agreements to be filed with the Interstate Commerce Commission and to be subject to be disapproved by it.

"My legal proposition," Mr. Thom said, "is that the Constitution as it now is gives full authority to Congress to regulate the instrumentalities of interstate commerce in all their parts. If the power of regulation is to reach the public requirements, it must be co-extensive with the instrumentalities of commerce."

Mr. Thom explained that the roads are not asking either of the Committee or of Congress any increase in revenue, but that they are merely asking the perfection of a system which will be responsible to any need that may arise.

HUGH DODD ROASTS CAREY ACT METHODS OF THE GEM STATE

REFUSES TO LETTER THREATEN-ING TO CANCEL HIS LAND ENTRY.

Says He Has No Water to Com- ply With Demand

Notified by the state board of land commissioners that he should show cause within sixty days why the board should not cancel his entry to his claim on the Oakley tract for failure to cultivate and make proof on it, Hugh Dodd, came back sarcastically in a reply Monday, in which he suggested that the board sell all the arable land of the state under the Carey act and water the same from Goose creek or the Salmon river.

In his letter Mr. Dodd says: "I have just got your letter in which you say that unless I make final proof on entry 219 on the Oakley project you will cancel it and forfeit the twenty-five cents per acre."

"Now knowing the condition of the project I absolutely refuse to throw any money away making proof until you show me when I am going to get water to reclaim that land according to the Carey act law."

"You know there is no water, so why do you ask me to spend more money and at the same time divide the little water up there, and not only damage myself but injure other settlers already on their land. I entered that land expecting to make an irrigated farm out of it. I am going to put it up to you to show where I am to get the water."

"I have lived six years on the Salmon project and know what it is to dry farm. If it will do the state any good to take that means to get money, they can have it. You see we are getting rich farming down here on the Salmon, but isn't it about time you fellows were selling more Carey act land and taking in a little more money? You see you could water all the arable land in the state, just the same as the Oakley project is being watered and get all the water you need out of Goose creek, or you could transfer some from the Salmon; you know you did that once."

"Now is you wish I'll give my whole contract, or entry 219 to you fellows and you can send it to Pittsburgh for safe keeping. If the state and water company keep our money and don't furnish the water it will be the same as stealing it. You know better than to write me such a letter. Why do you try to add insult to injury? Please let me hear from you explaining your actions during the past four years."

Supreme Court Puts Quetion On Attorney's Claim For Fees and His Expenses.

The supreme court has just handed down a decision by which Attorney T. G. Coffin lost his case against the state, in which he expected to receive a total of $14,056.93 in fees and expenses alleged by him due him as a result of his activities in the O. V. Allen case.

It will be remembered that this case furnished food for a great deal of political talk during the recent campaign. By the decision of the supreme court it appears that Governor Alexander is watching the fulfillment of his prediction that Coffin would be in his coffin before that fee was allowed.

SECRETARY FALK RESIGNS FROM BOARD OF HEALTH

BOISE—Dr. Ralph Falk, secretary of the state board of health, resigned his position Friday, his resignation to become effective January 1. He took this action when the health board met Friday for its regular December meeting.

Dr. E. E. Lumbough, state bacteriologist, and Miss Jayne Skiffington, deputy registrar in the department of vital statistics, resigned with Dr. Falk. The board was in session but little more than an hour.

There was no friction in the board meeting. Routine matters were taken up and disposed of rapidly. No effort was made to discuss a legislative program, as the political complexion of the board will change with its personnel the first of the year. Nothing was mentioned made of a successor to Dr. Falk.

The new health board will convene January 5, when a secretary and other officers will be elected. Thomas General Peterson will be succeeded on the board after the first of the year by T. A. Walters, attorney general-elect, while Dr. Skiffington is expected to give way to a Democratic appointee yet to be named by the governor.

URGES CONCESSION TO PLACATE UNCLE SAM

London Daily Mail Advises Government to Facilitate Handling of U. S. Mail to Avoid Friction.

LONDON.—Commenting on the question put to the government in the house of commons Thursday by Arthur Lynch, Nationalist, concerning the policy of the government toward the United States, the Daily Mail says the question was well founded, and the new government cannot afford to let the matter too soon. The newspaper instances as a cause for irritation the snarl of United States mails and says:

"This cannot, of course, be abandoned, but it should be carried out with the utmost dispatch and strictly confined to naval and military ends. Again there are the dispatches of American correspondents to the United States. They ought to be dealt with most expeditiously and no matter should be evinced that is not dangerous for military reasons. In no circumstances should the late government's evil practice of censoring papers for political objects be tolerated."

"With fair dealing and business promptness on our part much of the irritation that in the past has been caused by the somewhat high-handed manner in which the late government proceeded may be removed. The suspicion, for which there is no real foundation, that our censorship is used for commercial purposes is responsible for much ill feeling in the United States which can be allayed with tact and care."

UNION WITH G. O. P. IMPOSSIBLE

IDAHO PROGRESSIVE CHAIRMAN SAYS ORGANIZATION CANNOT MERGE WITH REPS.

NEW YORK.—That there is little chance of a reunion of the Progressive and Republican parties, but that a union of all the Progressive elements into one organization is in a viable, is the opinion expressed by Colonel James M. Ingersoll of Idaho in a letter to the Evening Mail of this city. The Mail has been gathering opinions from leading Progressives of the country in regard to what the attitude of the members of the Progressive party will be with reference to the future.

Mr. Ingersoll says: "The results of the campaigns of 1912 and 1916 seem to have demonstrated that the Republican party is already too well organized. That it is all organization, no heart or common cause. That the so-called leaders have generated into party bosses is proven by the fact that the 'Old Guard' proceeded to re-nominate President Taft in 1912 with the votes of the delegation from the south, who were never known or expected to send a single Republican elector to the electoral college."

They did this when they knew that a majority of the delegates from the Republican congressional district from which the Republican electoral votes must come, if their candidate were elected, would be solid against Taft. The result was eight electoral votes for their candidate. They refused to profit by this dearly bought lesson, and with half-hearted determination came down to Chicago in 1916 determined to nominate their candidate, when they knew that the Progressive Republican delegates who represent the voters who sent 81 presidential electors to the electoral college in 1912, would stand against Taft, were as strenuously opposed to Mr. Hughes, as other words, they said to the Progressives: "You who had 81 electoral votes in 1912 to your credit must aid us who had only the old organization of the Republican party."

You ask: "How can the leadership of the Republican party be established so that it will be responsible to the voters of the party?"

Easily, if all Progressives of all parties unite under one banner. While the reactionary element in the Republican party may struggle with their reactionary brothers in the Democratic and other parties, and be compelled to rally under one banner. The great issues—national prohibition and national suffrage for women, and other beneficial reforms will be important factors in every national campaign until they are settled right.

The voters in the west are not voting the old party tickets because their grandfathers did, as they realize that the parties change leadership, and that many of the old national issues are things of the past. And if their grandfathers were living today, they would refuse to be bound by old party lines for obvious reasons. In Lincoln's time, the Republican party advocated a government by the majority of the people. The reactionary leaders of the Republican party today believe in a government by a representative class; in other words—a minority class—a ruling class.

The doctrine advocated by the Taft faction and the "Old Guard" faction of the Republican party of today is exactly the reverse of Lincoln's doctrine. The doctrine of the "Old Guard" in the Republican party of today is the reverse of the doctrine advocated by the Progressives. These two divisions of the Republican party are as wide apart as the poles, and there is no common ground. While a certain faction of the Progressive leaders may be willing to meet a certain faction of the "Old Guard" and agree upon a plan to work together for campaign purposes only, the rank and file among the voters of the two factions, whose hearts are in the cause, will not follow the above leadership.

The reactionary element in the Republican party should immediately join the Democratic party, as they can be happy over after while they listen to the alien song of the big monopolies and combines and the inevitable progress as voiced by their subsidized press.

The Progressives of all parties should organize under an entirely different banner.

Very truly yours,
JAMES M. INGERSOLL,
Progressive Party National Committeeman for Idaho.

IDAHO BANKS

SHOW GROWTH

DEPOSITS IN STATE INSTITUTIONS
NEARLY FIFTEEN MILLION MORE THAN LAST YEAR.

BOISE.—The greatest increase in deposits in state banks in the history of the state, is shown on the reports from the recent call issued by the State Bank Commissioner, G. R. Hill, the last one of which was received Saturday, of $14,659,325. This increase was made in 12 months. It gives some idea of the prosperity that seems to be statewide with the close of the old year.

Today it is estimated there are $50,000,000 on deposits in the state and national banks of Idaho.

This remarkable growth is taken to indicate by financial men that Idaho is financially better off now than it ever was before. The fact that high prices were received for all products, that this was a record year for minerals, for wool, for lumber, offers part of the explanation as to why Idaho should have such a comfortable cash balance in its banks.

The last call of the state banking department shows the following liabilities and resources totaled from the reports of all banks in the state:

Liabilities—Total deposits, $13,832,039.39; capital stock, $3,224,630; surplus, $965,142.69; undivided profits, $498,456.81; bills payable, $160,876; other liabilities, $45,235.82. Other liabilities—Total assets, $15,693.13. Total, $24,244,787.04.

Resources—Cash, $1,938,828.94; due from banks, $1,306,334.33; checks and drafts, $213,322.68; cash items, $138,300.30; loans and discounts, $2,284,128.71; overdrafts, $45,235; stocks, bonds and warrants, $1,620,650.02; real estate, $45,235.82; claims and judgments, $81,334.95; banking and house furniture, $1,270,935.54; other real estate, $441,915.25; other resources, $58,000.77. Expense in excess, $5,728. Total, $24,244,787.04.

Since the call of November 10, 1915, up to and including the call of Nov. 17, 1916, the reserve had increased 10.35 to 35 percent in the state banks.

Mayor Sweetley asked the council for authority to refuse to allow all cases to undesirable characters. This is the case with card tables at present and he wanted it extended. The council then ordered the city attorney to draft the required ordinance. The mayor then inquired whether the city attorney had done anything toward carrying out the ordinance. The city attorney replied that he had not had time, and would not, the council appointed Mayor Sweetley and City Attorney H. J. Provo to a committee of two to ascertain what could be done toward securing the services of an attorney to do the work. The city attorney stated that such codification was not part of his duties, and said that it would require steady work for at least a month.

The mayor announced a special meeting of the council, for Saturday evening, December 16, to order that the salaries of the city employees might be allowed and paid so that they could meet tax obligations early in January.

The council then ordered the city attorney to draft so that it might go into effect on the first of the year. The city attorney said that he had tentatively drafted a bill of ordinance which he had been instructed to draft, but would have to verify the notes and bounds with the city engineer before presenting it. A petition signed by E. H. Gates, a number of residents on Tenth avenue, was presented.
