CAPITOL CULLINGS LATEST NEWS FROM THE LEGISLATURE

WHAT THE LEGISLATURE IS DOING AND WHAT IT PROPOSES TO DO.

Details of Organization - One Official From This Co.

Representative Barker 'Takes the Count' Middle Pay Bill Passed - Moody Scores His Critics - Zuck is Sited for State Land - Spokane County Divisionists Active.

(Editorial Correspondence.) BOISE, Jan. 11.—Bull county is making its debut in the legislature for a number of years. Prodrick, the veteran west and legislator, father of the Bull county idea, is here on the strength of his reputation as a member of the legislature...

It is safe to say that no member of the Twin Falls county delegation will be an honored member in the legislature. There is considerable speculation as to who will introduce the bill...

Speaking of the subject next to his name, in an informal publication in the Capital News, Mr. Nihart said: "Ninety per cent of the voters in the territory seeking to become a new county voted in favor of the creation."

So far as is yet apparently there is but one county division delegation in the territory. The bill for the creation of Bulling county is the only one to be a harmonious agreement with the county into three counties, due to physical barriers separating...

BUFFALO BILL FINDS THE "HAPPY HUNTING GROUNDS"

The Caribou Rang Down Upon the Longest and Most Dangerous Career of the Veteran Scout and Showman.

With the news by wire, of the death in Denver, at noon yesterday, of William F. Cody, better known to old and young—especially to the boys of Buffalo—than to the rest of the world, there has been a general outburst of one of the most stirring and romantic careers developed in this new and wonderful country. Born near Wyoming, he was a regular, but not a soldier in the Civil War, and a member of the Grand Army of the Republic in connection with which he spent the latter part of his life.

EXPANDED IGNITION RESULTS IN BLAZE

It was the result of an explosion which broke out in the welding shop of the Idaho State Power Co. at the corner of Second and Main streets, at 1:30 o'clock today morning. The fire company was called and the fire was put out by the fire department.

MISS LUE KIRKMAN—HEAD OF THE READY TO WEAR DEPARTMENT

Says: "I am going to make a grand clearance of ladies' ready to wear. I have marked every thing at prices which are bound to move them quickly. I am going to make room for my Spring line and I positively will not carry over any goods to another season. If everybody on the tract knew about the bargains in this department there would surely be some crowd on our opening day."

What the Big Chief Has Said

E. C. BEACH BEFORE LEAVING FOR NEW YORK ON HIS USUAL BUYING TRIP, MADE THE FOLLOWING REMARKS TO THE MANAGEMENT AND DEPARTMENT HEADS: "NEVER MIND ABOUT THE ORIGINAL PRICES, OR WHAT THE MERCHANT-DISE COST. THERE'S A TIME FOR ALL THINGS AND RIGHT NOW IS THE TIME TO CUT PRICES ON ALL WINTER GOODS, AND WHEN I SAY CUT PRICES, I MEAN LAY THE AXE TO THEM—GO TO THE ROOT AND GIVE THE PEOPLE VALUES THAT WILL MAKE THEM TALK ABOUT THE I. D. STORE. GENUINE BARGAINS WILL WIN YOU MANY NEW FRIENDS AND IS THE SUREST AND BEST WAY TO ADVERTISE. DON'T WORRY ABOUT PROFITS OR THE STORE'S RUNNING EXPENSE DURING THIS CLEARANCE SALE. BE LIBERAL AND REALIZE THAT WE MUST EXPECT TO SACRIFICE HEAVILY ON WINTER GOODS."

MR. ROSS BONHAM—THE BASEMENT MANAGER

Says: "I am all ready for the big 'clearance sale' and I too have many bargains which will prove money savers to the shoppers. Many people are getting the 'Economy Basement Habit'. My dandy new line of underwear, galvanized ware, granite ware, china ware, and lots of good things now being unpacked, will sure delight everybody."

WM. McILWAIN—HEAD OF THE SHOE DEPARTMENT

Says: "This great sale means a money saver to those who visit the shoe department. The entire stock has been picked from and you will find many bargains in better grade shoes for the whole family. In many cases where there are broken in sizes, there will be reduced to less than wholesale cost. Surely you won't make any great effort. It will pay you to be here and see for yourselves the astonishing bargains offered."

WM. ROBERT MCBRIDE—HEAD OF THE GROCERY DEPARTMENT

Says: "It is pretty hard to cut prices in my department for I have all kinds of grief in getting certain lines of goods. I did buy large quantities when prices were low so I know what prices are absolutely right and when quality is considered my values are better and I know that those who trade in my department, can't do better elsewhere. I am offering during this sale a special price on extra grade of maple syrup at following prices: 40 quart, 90c half gallon and $1.75 for one gallon."

SENATE SUSTAINS

WILSON PEACE NOTE

Senator Lewis Retorts Assertions of Secretary Lansing That We Are On Verge of War.

WASHINGTON—Approval of President Wilson's request for a statement of peace terms from the European belligerents was voted by the senate Friday night at the conclusion of three days of stirring debate.

Without referring directly to the submarine controversy the senator said the United States could not tolerate a climate during the day with a humanitarian resolution by Senator Lewis, chief spokesman for the Democratic Republicans.

The chief objection urged against the original resolution offered by Senator Hitchcock was that it would increase the chances of war.

Reasons Why Complete Stocks

When we say "complete stocks" that's just what we mean. There's no half-way point about it with us. Complete in assortment of kinds.

It will pay you to spend your money with the folks who are fixed to furnish the kind of lumber best suited for the use to which you want to put it.

Complete in assortment of commercial sizes.

Why buy something you don't want? Get your lumber where you can find just what you need.

ECONOMY COMES IN CUTTING OUT WASTE

GEM STATE LUMBER CO.

H. L. Austin, Manager Twin Falls, Idaho

for Lodge and others in this contention.

The resolution adopted was proposed by Senator Jones, Republican of Washington, and was accepted by Senator Hitchcock as a substitute for it.

The senate approves and strongly indorses the request by the president in the diplomatic notes of December 18, 1916.

The compromise ended the debate when it prepared certain the action would be deferred until Saturday and soon after Senator Dorr had begun a vigorous speech against the original resolution.

Senator Lewis then agreed with the sentiment expressed from any quarter of the secretary of state or anyone else.

Do you feel the people of this nation are in such a position that they can afford to allow any commander of ships, any captain of army, any officer of diplomacy to visit upon this country an injury to a citizen or to property and escape on an excuse of misapprehension of orders or zeal of an officer?

If these conditions be repeated again, I will not again accept that form of apology and will resort to punishment to the full extent of my power.

I say continuance of the war means war with the United States and the comprehension of the United States and faith in the sagacious foresight of the officials of the administration in this country.

ADAMSON LAW NOW BEFORE SUPREME COURT

Outcome of Railroad Crisis Depends On Decision Handed Down by the Tribunal.

(United Press) WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—Whether the people of the United States again will witness a national railroad strike depends on the supreme court's decision as to the law's constitutionality, argument of which is being made here at the tribunal here.

The governmental and industrial crisis of which this law is the outgrowth is looked upon by leaders as a dangerous divide between the powers of labor and those of capital.

The measure was rushed through congress last summer by President Wilson to ward off a strike by 400,000 railroad workers that would have tied up transportation in this country.

The top of the calendar of the United States supreme court yesterday was taken up by the case of William Adams, a lawyer for the government.

Argument of the Adams case was begun after the court handed down its opinion for the day Monday in its decision day in the court. There was little room for spectators for the day.

In the first fight before the court, railroad executives had the advantage of a favorable decision in the court below, when Judge Hook, of Kansas City, declared the law, after a brief hearing, unconstitutional. That however, was only preliminary. The su-premi court will decide for all time whether congress had the power to legislate wages, providing that eight hours shall constitute a day's work for railroad men and for water carriers that they shall be paid overtime premiums.

Artesian City

(Times' Special Correspondence) A large mountain lion was killed last Friday afternoon in dry creek valley by Harold, Haines and Chas. Matthews.

While out hunting coyotes Mr. Haines and Matthews saw a coyote as they thought upon a rock not far from them, but in a position so that its head was away from them. Taking aim they both fired at once and the animal fell off the rock dead.

Only one bullet hit the animal going through its head, but it is uncertain to whom the honor belongs. The men were very much surprised at the fact that they had killed and said afterwards, if they had known what they were shooting at they might have missed the animal.

The female mountain lion, measuring six feet six inches from tip to tip, it had been in the same place for three or four days before it was taken in the snow. It had killed and dragged a deer beneath the rocks it was seen lying on and the deer was near by.

The stockmen in this community are very glad to get rid of such animals. The dance was well attended in the hall by people from Jerome, Hazelton and Churchill.

There will be a dance this Friday evening, January 12. Everyone invited. Good music from Jerome.

THE GOVERNOR, LEGISLATURE AND CAREY ACT PROBLEMS

It is significant that the general subject of Carey act projects occupies a greater portion of Governor Alexander's message to the fourteenth session of the legislature than does any other topic discussed in this extraordinary address.

Of no less significance was the reception this portion of the Governor's address received at the hands of the senators and representatives assembled in joint session Tuesday afternoon.

The period of compromising seems to have passed, and the hour for action in my opinion is here.

The companies entered these projects," continued the Governor, "For the reclamation of the lands with a view to making money out of the undertaking."

"Any company that is not able to perform these functions should have no further rights or should have a receiver appointed and the privilege granted to it revoked.

Of particular interest to the people on the Salmon River tract is the recommendation that "every Carey act project should be organized by law into an irrigation district."

This weakness in the settlers' position, we have pointed out time and time again, first at the time of the hearings before the Irrigation Commission, and recently in urging the formation of an irrigation district on the Salmon tract, steps to accomplish which are now under way.

Another brief, but emphatic, paragraph voices a proposition which we have insisted upon, without avail, for the past four years. It is with gratification that we announce to our readers now, or rather allow the governor to announce in his own words, that

"The attorney general ought also to be required by law to bring all suits that may be required in behalf of the settlers to determine their interests under any contract made by the state and the state should pay the court costs of all such litigation."

And it is particularly pleasing to THE TIMES that one associated with the willful and the pleasure of intruding in the legislative bill-harpy the endorsement of the governor with the attorney general, authorizing an appropriation for the employment of a Carey act attorney, to be under the jurisdiction of the state land board, whose duty it shall be to devote his undivided attention to the solution of the problems arising from these projects, and to advise the land board on all matters coming before it which pertain to Carey act matters.

The governor's report at length into all phases of the subject, outlining a number of recommendations which he suggests be enacted into the statutes to prevent a repetition of any of the Carey act disasters of the past.

In concluding his remarks on this subject, he expressed a conviction that will be approved by all who are familiar with these problems:

"No patent should be asked for from the government for any of the lands under the Carey act until the lands have actually been reclaimed and water actually furnished for their irrigation for more than one season in sufficient quantities to insure the raising of crops."

The governor, the attorney general, every other member of the state board of land commissioners, and practically every member of the fourteenth session of the legislature are more than lukewarm on the subject of Carey act administration.

It looks as though something is about to happen.

BASEBALL SEASON TO REMAIN LONG

Study of Conditions Makes Big League Decide That Schedules Should Not Be Cut. (United Press) NEW YORK, Jan. 11.-There is one mighty good reason why arguments in favor of shortening baseball seasons or starting their later, now or got serious consideration at meetings of the older major leagues. Governor John Tenor is the reason and this explanation always put a curious on talk of the sort. Tenor figured it out last summer when the Boston Braves were having such a hard time with at-home dates. Some time they struck the outfield in the spring a year ago the Braves had good weather at home and in fact for the first month of the season. Then would come bad spells. Some times they struck the outfield half of the circuit and some times they didn't. He found, he declared, that more games had been lost in the past than in the early spring. With this to work on, it was easy to discover that starting the season later or cutting it short would actually save a baseball on the club instead of giving them a better which at the good weather stretches. John Hayden, secretary of the league, added a little information when he said that for several years November weather has been better for baseball than many summer months. It is not always the case that spring weather is most favorable. Some years show bad days early and pouring ones June and recent years have had just the reverse. Statistics of this kind effectually stopped talk of rearranging the schedule.

UNIFORM COYOTE BOUNTY PROPOSED

National Woolgrowers Association in Session in Salt Lake City After Prairie Wolf. (United Press) SALT LAKE CITY, Jan. 11.-Plans for a uniform bounty on coyotes seriously hampering sheep raising in the western range states will be made at the three-day convention of the National Woolgrowers association which opened in this city today. A special committee will report a measure which it framed for the legislatures of the eleven western states of Utah, Idaho, Montana, Colorado, Wyoming, Arizona, New Mexico, Nevada, Oregon and Washington. A bounty of $250 a head will be proposed. An estimated investment of $100,000,000 was represented by the 1,000 members from thirteen western states. Frank J. Hagabarth, in his annual report predicted continued high prices for wool, declaring that adverse legislation, the reduction in the ranges, was foreign stock and high milk conditions generally have resulted in a large reduction in the size of flocks.

BOY FROM DAYTON BAGS THREE ZEPS

Johns French A Major Corps a Year Ago-Writes Mother of First Flight in The Air.

(United Press) OTTAWA, Jan. 11.-Just a year ago Murray Galbraith, twenty an Ottawa Valley boy attending an Andrews college, packed his grips for Dayton, Ohio, to learn to fly. He made his course in record time and left for Ottawa in excitement in the British naval air service. Today Galbraith has three German Zeps to his credit, and is the owner of French Croix de Guerre pinned to his breast by the president after he had sent a "Tat Pookker" flaming to the ground, forty miles inside the front line. The boy has received special mention for conspicuous gallantry in imperial dispatches. In a cherry boyish letter he tells of the first exploit. He wrote: "Yesterday two Germans were reported not far from here and I was sent up after them an hour and a half I was flying at 15,500 feet and saw a German machine 500 feet below. I turned and ran away so he would chase me. "Then I looked round behind me and thirty-six shots into his machine before he had time to get away. I was flying at 15,500 feet and then caught fire and fell into the sea 10,000 feet below. "So I have had my first flight in the air and got my first medal. I was excited, mother, and when I was coming back to the 'drome' I did all kinds of stunts and all my spare ammunition went out when I was up high. "He has been in active service exactly six months.

DUKE MAN ASK FOR MORE LIGHT
Wants to Know Which Commercial Club Room The Beet Growers Will Meet Next Saturday.
When W. F. Alworth at the Capitol company meeting Tuesday announced a meeting of the beet growers of the commercial club Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock for the purpose of discussing the subject of the proposed movement of the Twin Falls club, which was introduced by Mr. Alworth, and an assistant, each at five dollars per day.
The meeting of beet growers promises to be interesting as there are many subjects that have been informally canvassed by the growers in the past, on which united action may be planned.
combination of forces in each instance resulted in his defeat. Ostrom and Wahl were both endorsed by the Beet Growers Association.
The senate selected E. C. Corwin of Cambridge, a senator in the last legislature and a member of the Idaho irrigation committee, as the assistant secretary. Richard Burke of Moscow was elected secretary in the department of the Idaho irrigation committee.
Wahl was elected speaker for the year 1917.
The governor will again before the legislature, later in the session, and ask that arrangements be made for codifying the laws of the state.
The laws were codified last in 1907, and six sessions of the legislature have taken place since, making it almost impossible for a layman to determine what the law of Idaho is today.
Q. G. Zuck of Kimberly, a prominent Twin Falls county Democrat, is to be named state land appraiser for 1917.
BOISE, Jan. 11.—Congress is asked in a memorial introduced in the House of Representatives today to submit the question of national prohibition to a vote of the states for a constitutional amendment.
The appropriation was made through the House as Bill No. 1, under which the hope is expressed that the next few years may be passed without a dissenting vote.
The senate acted promptly when the bill was introduced by Senator Barker, representative from the Falls county who failed to put in an appearance until after the chief justice had spoken in the opinion of Barker and his bride are busy enjoying their honeymoon, and it was suggested that his tardiness be overlooked.
The program decreed upon at the Democratic caucus was carried out to the letter. The Republican wing took up the Democratic wing at two o'clock Tuesday. It was signed by the governor at once.
The bill for the soldiers back pay to the regular appropriation bill for the states were the first official business undertaken by the state legislature.
Both the senate and the house were completely organized.

after the three districts. There are, nevertheless, a number of division measures introduced, and nearly anything may be looked for.
An appropriation of $50,000.00, or twice as much as was voted at the thirteenth session, and appropriations for stamps and session laws for the next year are the only bills having expenditures acted upon Wednesday.
A bill to give the fifth judicial district an additional judge, an additional measure proposed for removal by the governor of sheriffs and prosecuting attorneys for delinquency of the courts enforcing anti-jury laws, and a bill relating to summary in justice courts, were the three measures to be introduced during the day.
The appropriation for legislative expense was passed after suspension of the rules.
In the senate congress was memorialized to appropriate $50,000.00 for the Fort Hall Indian reservation.
A bill was also introduced in the senate similar to the one presented in the house, providing an additional judge for the fifth district.
Moody, Republican State Senator.
The excitement for the day was furnished by Majority Leader Moody, who obtained the use of the personal privilege, and replied to the Statesman's intimation that there was a "joker" in his bill providing for the removal of the money to Idaho.
"Let me say that I have a desire to enter to the charge of the early morning preparator in relation to the 'roll call' bill," began Moody.
The morning Statesman, with its usual ability to discover a man's weakness, discovered the Statesman's intimation that there was a "joker" in his bill.
Moody then explained that when the bill was introduced to the house, it was required to undergo physical examinations were required which disqualified some of the members of the house.
