Secretary Lansing Expresses Confidence That Japan and Mexico Would Not Be Party to Plot and Japanese Government Gives Official Assurance Through Its Embassy—Swiss Minister Said to be in German Propaganda—President Stands Firm in Demand for Power to Protect American Rights

(United Press)—WASHINGTON, March 1—The attempt of Germany to bring Mexico and Japan with the United States into a coalition against the United States today intimated that the letter of Foreign Secretary Zimmerman never reached Mexico and consequently never reached Japan, as its terms showed that it was to go to Japan by way of Mexico.

Secretary Lansing today said today that his department does not believe that Japan had any knowledge of the matter or that she would consider such a proposition. He expressed the belief that Mexico would not sign the proposition. The Japanese embassy today issued a formal statement declaring that "Under no circumstances would Japan entertain such invitation as Germany attempted and in behalf of his government pledged the continued friendship of the country for the United States."

ONE MILLION FOR STATE HIGHWAYS

Bill Providing for Bond Issue in This Amount Reported Favorably. How It Will Be Used—Important Information.

(Editorial Correspondence)

BOISE—No picture of any kind were attached to the good roads bill in the committee of the whole Thursday afternoon, and the committee recommended the bill which provides for a million dollar bond issue, back to the house in its original form. Republican Floor Leader Johnston favored an amendment to the bill which would set aside one hundred thousand dollars for state aid to counties in the creation of bridges, the state to contribute not less than one-third of the cost of such bridges as might be approved by a board consisting of the governor, state engineer and state highway commission where such bridges cost at least twenty thousand dollars.

The author of this amendment had in mind particularly the making available of this part of the million dollars for bridges that were not on the roads designated as state highways, and claimed it was the only means by which counties could share in the benefits of the million dollar expenditure of the big bond issue, although such counties would have to contribute their full part of the taxes to meet the bond issue.

Although the amendment was unanimously indorsed by the house appropriations committee, it proved very unpopular, and remarks were made on the floor of the house indicating that such an amendment clearly resembled the "park barrel" plan, so popular with legislators, but so unpopular with the general public.

Kiger of Kootenai said he would vote against the bill if any such riders were attached. A resolution was still further in telling the author of the amendment to "forget it."

Barker insisted on a roll call on the question of reporting the bill favorably, upon which fifty-three voted in the affirmative and four in the negative, eight excused and not voting. The four representatives voting against the committee's report were Barker, Kiger, Egan and Cannon and Cowles.

The bond issue, if it passes both houses, and is signed by the governor, as it is said it will be, comes to within eighteen thousand dollars of exhausting the bonding power of the state. The bonding power of the state was exhausted by the constitutional amendment adopted by the people several years ago. Idaho has only a small bonded indebtedness, but it cannot be increased for any purpose without another constitutional amendment, except in case of war or other public calamity. A resolution was introduced in the legislature to submit to the people at the next general election a question of raising the present limit. It is pointed out that while the state of Oregon and Washington have just authorized good roads bond issues of six million dollars each, Idaho is limited to a scant one million. The highway commission's plans for the next biennium called for a bond issue of $1,500,000 but this had to be reduced to bring the sum asked for within the constitutional limit.

In case of the loss of a public building by fire, if the insurance were not adequate to erect a new structure, or the White House, or the state capitol, public necessity might result in calling the legislature into extra session, no appropriation could be made by bond issue. The only recourse would be a direct appropriation and a special tax levy to raise the needed funds.

Despite this objection, Republicans and Democrats alike declared that Idaho could take a chance on any of these contingencies and could put at least this million dollars into road work, in order that full benefit might be had of the funds to be obtained by cooperating with the federal government. The bond issue will not be sufficient, however, to enable the state to meet the cost of all of the work on state highways that will be proposed by states willing to meet their two-thirds of the cost.

The bill draws federal lines as to the divisions of the state highway system, upon which the million dollars is to be expended in Idaho and Iowa. (The federal funds available during the next biennial being set out opposite such sum.)

E. and W. Idaho.

Highway road	$100,000
N. and S. road
Utah-Montana	$35,000
From Mackay thru Custer and Lemhi Co. to Montpelier	$120,000
N. and S. Weiser to Lewiston	$375,000
E. and W. in North Idaho, Kootenai and Shoshone	$75,000
State Highway, Donner and Boundary County	$65,000
District and district	$30,000
Reimbursement of Counties	$90,000
	$1,000,000

The last item is to reimburse counties that advanced during the construction of constructing portions of the state highway, due to the state's inability to meet its share of the cost during the last biennium. Where such counties wanted to proceed with the work and advance the state's one-third of the cost, the highway commission agreed to reimburse the counties for funds thus expended in behalf of the state if the legislature would make the appropriation.

Producing this ninety thousand dollars from the combined total of state and federal funds available for road work in Idaho during the next two years it leaves a grand total of $1,380,000.

In addition to these projects to be covered by the bond issue, there is a bill in the house which has received the unanimous indorsement of the appropriations committee and to which it is said the governor is favorable, which appropriates by direct tax levy the sum of forty thousand dollars to meet similar sums to be provided by Idaho county and the government, for the construction of the Idaho portion of the no-carrier highway along the Clearwater river, from Missoula, Montana, to Lewiston, Idaho.

A tax of one-tenth of one mill in to be levied each year to defray the interest and principal payments of the proposed bond issue.

SUFFRAGE CONVENTION AT CAPITAL MARCH 1

"Warlike" Program to be Policed—Leaders Say President Wilson is Greatest Obstacle to Them.

(United Press)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—Prior to the White House meeting of the Congressional Union and The National Woman's Party will hold convention at the national headquarters of the party here, beginning this afternoon.

Two important subjects are to be considered: the suffrage amendment, and the possibility of framing a war time policy for suffragists and the proposal that has been made to combine the suffrage and anti-trust members of the country into one big political organization by a merger of the Union and the Woman's Party.

President Wilson, leading suffragists declared today, is the only obstacle now to the passage of the Federal Suffrage Amendment. That is why they are picketing the White House. That is why they will encircle it with a "Suffrage Rainbow" March 4th. This is why ten thousand voting women began arriving here from all over the country today for the big March 4th demonstration.

The suffragists are concentrating on Wilson; and they think they can feel him slipping. "President Wilson," said Miss Alice Paul, chairman of the executive committee of the Congressional Union, today, "is now the one great obstacle in our way. We are going to center our greatest efforts in gaining his support. We believe he is more and more inclining to the Federal Suffrage Amendment."

WORDS OF WISE MEN

The more powerful an obstacle the more glory we have in overcoming it. Those who are 'quite' satisfied sit still and do nothing; those who are not quite satisfied are the sole benefactors of the world. In all things preserve integrity; and the consciousness of these own uprightness will alleviate the toll of business and soften the harshness of ill-success and disappointments.

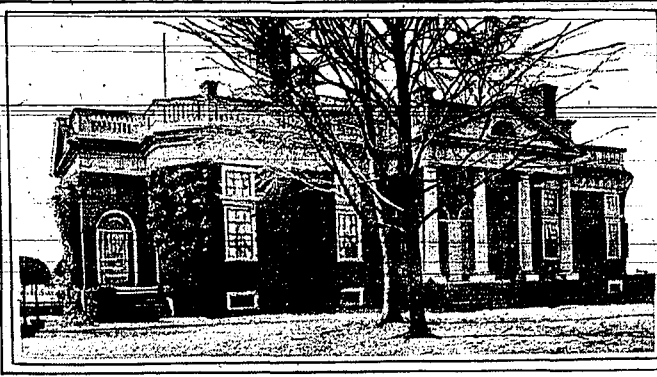

A man who lives right, and is right, has more power in his silence than another by his works. Happiness and misfortune stand in a continual balance. Every misfortune is, as it were, the obstructor of a stream, which, after overcoming this obstacle, bursts through with greater force. Life is made up not of great sacrifices or duties, but of little things, in which smiles and kindnesses and small obligations are abundant. It is not that we and preserve the heart and secure comfort.

The interest of mankind is peculiarly attracted by examples of slight goodness in high places; for that goodness to the worth of goodness is more striking which is borne by those to whom all the means and pleasure and indulgence lie open. The courage to try to do a thing before you know how, the patience to keep on trying after you have found out that you did not know how, and the perseverance to renew the trial until you know how, are the three conditions of the acquisition of physical skill, mental power, moral virtue or personal excellence.

Special program given at Parish Hall, Idaho, Henry Men. Assn. In Eliminating Food. Basket lunches were brought by the women and hot coffee was prepared and served. The people drew their chairs up and put on their most approved picnic attire while eating. The first stunt that was pulled off was "The Pipe Dream," the County Women's club, in which a middle aged man smoked a pipe and as the smoke arose the damsel on whom he had bestowed his affections a moment later, when the picture had been shown, she brought up to date, with the effects of the glowing coil of pipe, visions of the laughing child of time, visions of the growing old man, visions of the old man on the farm, visions of the farm town, Bob Logan furnished some excellent Victrola music. Mrs. Foss and E. E. Heston put on a stunt for the evening. The women were much-appealed. This was followed by a recitation by Mrs. Parsons and a reading entitled "In the White House" by Mrs. Schargar, both of which elicited applause. Mrs. White then spoke on community interest. She advocated the establishment of a public market. The Mothers' club then challenged the Country Women's club to a truck-moot and all sorts of records and things were broken. Everybody had a fine time.

The success of the federation during the past year has been marked. In the rest room alone there were 236 registrations and 6000 visitors, between number of visitors and of registrations being accounted for. The need that only one registration is facted in the year. An exchange department was maintained at which $600 worth of produce was sold.

A break with Austria, similar to that with Germany, now seems inevitable.

The time-honored "Germans" in forming Mexican recalcitrance, long suspected, is now fully uncovered and in plain view.

And then comes Bryan to add his voice to the noise of the unparliamentary conduct of the president's desired warrant for action. Well, what could you expect? Windy Willie means well—perhaps; but he can pretty nearly always manage to lay himself across the barrel!

The bill providing for transfer of Carey act water rights, by sale or lease, is published elsewhere here with its purpose approved itself to common sense; but when the applicant for transfer must go to the naming committee or corporation, then if denied, to the litigation engineer (an official created by the act) and then, if there are still objections, to the District Court, the opportunity for litigation looms large.

Like the present, members of the great of the United States should be splitting hairs over the verbiage of resolution authorizing the president to use any and all the resources of our government in the defense of our country's honor and of the life and property of our people. To do this is to hope or presume that some political advantage will be had from the

...the institution perniciously at Pocatello, as everyone knows, is a very creditable railroad center, but no one ever heard of its being a seed producing center before. Its attempt to grab a seed show felt miserably by the way side.

Not discouraged by this failure, the Idaho Falls delegation started out of the seed show, with very much the same result.

The Twin Falls delegation told the members of the legislature, very simply, that the Magic City was one of the greatest seed producing centers of the universe, and that the seed show would just naturally have to be held there despite the efforts of its well-intentioned but not-deserving detractors. For that reason it was suggested that the permanent location be left blank for the time being.

My wonder how a seed show—if the appropriation survives the trip to the executive office—would fit into the general scheme of our county fair?

—A WAR OF INDUSTRIES—
The fact one French nation will seek to enforce, without recourse to war, the rights of American citizens and American commerce to free passage on the high seas, hardly allays our apprehensions.

It reminds us of the small boy at the circus who after deliberately sizing up the zebra, announced there was no such animal.

The president has asked Congress for authority to grant the land and naval forces of the United States to enforce compliance with or to prevent the violation of the obligations of the United States under the law of nations and other obligations.

Gooding to Have Elevator—Henceforth Gooding is to have a grain elevator. The first one will be built by the Gooding Elevator company to complete the operation of its elevator company this year and hereafter handle all grain in bulk to a destination of importance, especially to the farmers. When this company started its big structure eight years ago, it was the purpose to operate a flour mill and elevator, but it developed that these plans were impractical and up to this time grain has been handled in sacks. Now, however, the prospect is that grain production and the great extension of territory covered under the same management will make it imperative to have a large elevator. Gooding is the location.

ing out the provisions of this act, the board of county commissioners of a county in which is located any part of an irrigation system constructed pursuant to this act shall appoint as and for an irrigation engineer a competent person who is versed in matters pertaining to the construction, operation and maintenance of canals and ditches for such use, who shall hold his office for a term of two years, whose duties shall be to receive the transfer and shall give bond in the amount of five thousand dollars for the faithful performance of such duties.

Sec. 4. Before the transfer of water right shall take effect under this act, a person interested therein must apply to the secretary of the corporation operating such Carey act irrigation system, for consent to the making of such transfer, and if such consent is given a resolution showing the same and the extent or portion of the right to be transferred, as well as a copy of said board, and a copy thereof, with proper reference to the date of its passage, shall be incorporated in the instrument evidencing such transfer, and upon the recording of such instrument as provided in Section 3 of this act, such transfer shall be complete.

Section 5. BUILT BY JOHN W. BATE IN THE MODEL EFFICIENCY PLANT Mitchell SIXES

John W. Bate's New Extras 100% Over-Strength 24% Extra-Luxury 8 New-Style Bodies 31 Extra Features

The Mitchell claims to offer 20 per cent extra value, all paid for by factory savings. This is due to a model efficiency plant, now covering 45 acres. It was built and equipped by John W. Bate, the famous efficiency engineer. It is operated daily under his direction.

But for three years Mr. Bate has worked to double this standard. To give every part 100 per cent over-strength. And now, for the first time, we announce this doubled standard.

Noted for any American car. Mr. Bate got that standard in Europe.

THIS YEAR'S EXTRAS No other plant in the world building high-grade cars can match the Mitchell values.

Now a lifetime car. The Mitchell now is built for a lifetime car. Repairs and upkeep are reduced to a minimum. Important parts are all over-size. Over 440 parts are built of toughened steel.

NOW 31 EXTRA FEATURES This year's Mitchell includes 31 extra features. That is, features which other cars omit. No car, we believe, includes more than four of them.

Our finish coats are now fixed by heat in enormous ovens holding many complete bodies. So we get a deep, enduring lustre—a finish that will keep its newness.

That same standard is now applied to every Mitchell part. Each is built twice as strong as need be for any expected requirement. Never before has such a standard been attained.

ONE FULL VALUE The Mitchell is built for those wise men who demand full value in a car. Out every effort for years, under John W. Bate, has been made to give it to you.

NO DOUBLE STRENGTH Mitchell standards for every part used to be 50 per cent over-strength. That was considered extreme. It gave the Mitchell wonderful endurance.

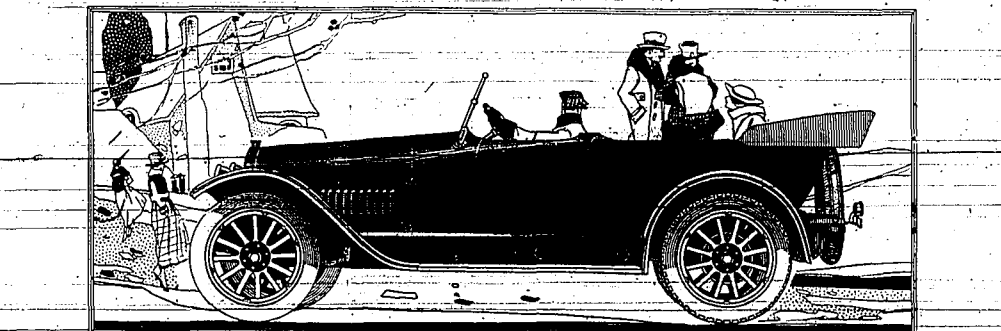

Two sizes. MITCHELL—a roomy, 7-passenger Six, with 127-inch wheelbase. A high-speed, economical 48 horsepower motor. Disappearing extra seat and 31 extra features included.

It gives you 100 per cent over-strength. It gives you extravagant luxury. It includes 31 extra features that you want. It gives you real reserve power. It gives you comfort beyond any rival car.

We add 50 per cent to the cost of our leather, and 50 per cent to the cost of our cushion springs to give you better upholstery.

Price $1460 f. o. b. Racine. MITCHELL JUNIOR—a five-passenger Six on similar lines, with 120-inch wheelbase, a 40-horsepower motor, a 4-inch smaller bore than larger Mitchell. Price $1150, f. o. b. Racine.

When you buy a high-grade car for long-time service, this is the car you are bound to choose. Let the nearest Mitchell dealer take you for a ride. If you don't know him ask us for his name.

more projects opened up right away. Several of the real estate agents have just waked up to the fact that they have lost a great opportunity to get in on a good thing since Hattledog and Bolloy and maybe others, have made their appearance on the scene. However, the one consolation they yet have is that after this has been tried and the scheme failed, then the real estate agents will come to the rescue and skim the cream.

EVANGELISTIC LECTURES AT THE ISSIS THEATRE Lecturer gives views on Great War According to His Interpretation of the Bible.

we consider that there are about 40,000,000 men now either under arms, in reserve or who have already fallen in battle, the thought is appalling. This was alone is not the only problem that is attracting the attention of statesmen and others. We have in our own country the great labor problem to deal with and are already having broad strikes and demonstrations that are caused by the skyward flight of prices on the necessities of life.

between this present war and the battle of Armageddon, and yet I cannot assure you that such peace will come. When we look at the present situation and see that it is becoming more and more complicated all the time and more nations are continually being drawn into the fray, we can plainly see that this present war can and may go right on to a great culmination in the battle of Armageddon.

last days, "Whom they shall say peace and safety then sudden destruction cometh upon them and they shall not escape. But ye brethren are not in darkness that that day should overtake you as a thief." So if we study God's word we can know the outcome of these things.

MORE IRRIGATION COMPANIES TO JUMP INTO THE FIELD. M. B. Bolloy and Tom Rutledge, both of Murtzshau have decided that it is no longer in irrigation suits from a pumping system they are now planning an irrigation district to water their own lands, as well as any others that might sign up with them. The reason for their action in this matter seems that they have lost confidence in the ability of the Miller Canal company to build a system in fact they claim the reason this is done is because the Miller Canal company refuses to show them that they had some $100,000 to $200,000 cash available at this time to begin the work. It would be very interesting to watch the development, because if there is so many opportunities for different companies to get in on one project no doubt there will

The Isis theatre was crowded to the doors last night and many people went away on account of a lack of seats. The subject discussed was "The cause and meaning of the world war—is it Armageddon?" "We are living in the most uncertain times this world has ever known. We cannot tell a day ahead what startling news we shall see in the daily papers" were the opening words used by Evangelist Taylor E. Daniels. He said further, "It is not necessary for me to tell you that this is the greatest war in the history of this world. When we must go to the word of God to know what is still in the future and that we find a sure guide to the future. This present war is not the battle of Armageddon, declared the speaker. It is however a forerunner and may run on into that great day of all battles when every nation under heaven will have a part to act. It is possible that there will be a little time of peace in Revelation, the fourteenth chapter and the last two verses, we find that the prophet saw the spirits of devils at work in the world to bring about wars, plagues and famines, etc. It is plain to the student of present day events that we have a spirit in the world at the present time which from the results being brought about we must conclude is none other than the spirit of the evil one.

Public Forum AS TO BIBLICAL DANCING Mr. Editor: "I Conclude" makes me to say that the Bible knows nothing of woman dancing, which is far from the truth. I have seen that women did not dance alone but strongly affirmed that "Men danced alone," in answer to the statement that for them do not dance with a reprobat. The citations by "I Conclude" emphasize my contention "promiscuous." In all these quotations
