INDUSTRIAL PUSH BEGAN YESTERDAY IN BRITISH ISLES

APPEAL MADE FOR VOLUNTEERS TO CULTIVATE THE FARMS AND FIELDS ABLE-BODIED MEN HAVE ALL BEEN DRAFTED

Peterborough, England—Will Be Left Without Newspaper—The Boys "Back Up" For Charlie Chaplin War Pictures and Cowboy Stunts.

Great Britain's army will require large drafts of men during the coming summer to replace those killed, injured and wounded in the coming "big push" on the western front.

Not only must they be filled, but the serious direction is planning to extend national service in many directions. Lloyd George has said, and all England knows, that the service with right food economy and reciprocal methods on the high seas, is a vital factor in the war against the submarine blockade.

The labor of the country must be organized, Chamberlain said, in making his new appeal for help in the war against the submarine blockade.

DOVER, England—Barbours in the city parks will become pluggers and steamroller chauffeurs will drive motor plows. In Dover's national service effort to produce food.

PETERBOROUGH, England—Local Journalism will develop upon one day reporter, a septagenarian painter, and an office boy if the army will let him fight to call up exempted newspaper man.

LONDON—The movie censors went right to headquarters for guidance when they summoned all classes of movie fans to testify as to their own films. Schoolboys, pluggers, and Charlie Chaplin and cowboy staff.

CHICAGO, Ill., May 1.—With some of the best known athletes in the country booked to take a leading part and headline vaudeville entertainers from all of the leading cities, the annual Chicago athletic and theatrical carnival given for the charity fund of Chicago Lodge No. 4, B. F. O. B. promises to draw a record crowd.

PEACE PROPOSAL DUE IN REICHSTAG THURSDAY

BETHMANN-HOLLWEG WILL EXTEND OFFER TO WAGBING NATIONALS SAYS TAGELIANT.

SINCERITY QUESTIONED AMONG DIPLOMATS

Strike in Munition Factories Reported in Germany—Urbast Mencez Pronounced Most Serious Problem of Allies.

BETHMANN-HOLLWEG WILL OFFER PEACE THURSDAY (United Press) THE HAGUE, May 1.—Imperial Chancellor Bethmann-Hollweg will announce to the Reichstag Thursday that he has announced in the Berliner Tagblatt today. The nature of the offer has not been made public, but it is thought that it will contain some small concessions and a number of important concessions.

THE HAGUE, May 1.—For over a month rumors of another peace offer have been circulating through Europe. The conference between the Austrian emperor and the Kaiser was dominated by the fact that Austria was demanding a new peace proposal. It has been recently reported that the economic situation in Germany is so serious that the government is planning to make an offer of peace to gain public support.

WASHINGTON, May 1.—The state department withheld comment today regarding Chancellor Bethmann-Hollweg's peace offer. Some here think that the offer is merely making a political strategic move, whether it is issuing a propaganda intended to influence Germany and knows what the Kaiser is doing.

Reports from the western front indicate that the forces are deadlocked and beyond a successful British air raid nothing of special importance was reported from the front. The most serious question before the war commissioners' conference today, overshadowing the question of sending soldiers to France, was the German "attitude is very serious," said Lord Buteaux Perce, the British war expert today, "and the standardization of shipbuilding in the United States and Japan with the operation of all shipyards to their fullest capacity is absolutely essential to the successful prosecution of the war."

EXCURSIONISTS OF OMAHA WERE PLEASED

Letter Received from Secretary Shows That They Appreciated the Visit Here. The Omaha Stock Yards bunch had the time of their lives in this city last week, according to a letter received yesterday by Stuart Taylor, secretary of the Twin Falls Commercial club. The secretary of the Omaha association very evidently regretted that he was not able to extend to all of you our heartfelt thanks. The under-mentioned was very sorry not to have been able to make up this trip. Hope to see you again on some future occasion.

PLOT UNCOVERED BY THE POLICE

GERMAN PLANNED TO DYNAMITE IMPORTANT OFFICE AND SPREAD FALSE REPORTS. WAS OFFICER IN THE GERMAN SUBMARINE SERVICE.

Reports Were to Be That President Wilson Was Assassinated and That United States Had Made War on United States.

NEW YORK, May 1.—Details of a wild plot to dynamite an important Wall Street office, presumably that of Morgan, to be followed by the tapping of telegraph wires and spreading of a false report that President Wilson had been assassinated and that the submarine had made a successful raid, were to run in the streets today following the cross-examination of Wolf Hirsch, who was formerly an officer in the German submarine service. Hirsch, who was arrested with another German, are charged with possessing bombs. The police declare that Hirsch said he hoped to cause a stock panic and profit thereby.

BOLD BURGLARS ROB SEVERAL CITY PLACES

Residence, Floral Headquarters, Coal Office and Feed Mill Are Visited—Officers Active.

Burglars' activities in this city during the past couple of days have aroused the interest of the people and the officers are making strenuous efforts to run in the miscreants. Between Saturday night and Monday morning the headquarters of the Anglo-Hay Grain and Feed Co. was unlooted and the office of the coal office and feed mill were robbed. A cash drawer of the register, Mr. Pink said that he supposed it was some German spy who had the documents showing the location of stored food in order to blow it up.

All cables are affected except the only telegraph lines that are consigned to those along the Mexican border. The regulations govern both the regular and navy departments.

The president also announced receipt of numerous voluntary applications for membership. The reason for this vitality is not hard to find. The organization is really trying to do something utilitarian—and it is accomplishing the aim.

The latter stated that such shortage had been reported, especially on the Salmon tract, explained a tentative scheme of the market. It found necessary; and, as part thereof, read a memorandum of an agreement whereby the signers would each pledge a certain amount of money which, as might have to worthy and needy farmers upon crop mortgage. WASHINGTON, May 1.—That war with other nations than Germany threatens the United States was indicated by Senator Chamberlain today when he introduced the army bill. The amendment was defeated. It is thought that war with the other central powers is anticipated.

SCHOOL PUPILS ASKED TO HELP IN PRODUCTION

GOVERNOR ALEXANDER CALLS ON ALL ATTENDING PUBLIC SCHOOLS TO ENLIST FOR CAUSE.

SYSTEMATIC ORGANIZATION HAS BEEN MAPPED OUT

Regular Enlistments Under Proper Officers Feature—Parents and Guardians Are Asked to Co-operate in the Campaign.

Asking the co-operation of all parents attending the government's increased production, Governor Moses Alexander this week announced the steps that have been taken to enlist the pupils of Idaho schools in a productive campaign. The proclamation follows:

The great world crisis makes it imperative that the government of the United States defend the cause of freedom among men, protect our inalienable rights, our country, our homes and our lives. Many of our noble fathers and sons have enlisted to bear arms in the service of humanity, others are rapidly responding to our country's call. The enemy of mankind is moving upon us, not so much in the form of war-horses, of iron-disciplined and well-trained troops, but in shape of ghastly want and hunger.

Our soldiers and the nations with which we are allied in this great cause must be fed. He who can aid in feeding his fellow being is rendering the nation as great service as he that is driven to the necessity of shedding blood. It is as much a patriotic service to your country to enlist in the cause of increased production to sustain life, as it is to enlist in our own flag in the army and navy. To the end that Idaho may perform its full share in the great war, by enlisting our pupils in a systematic organization of production, such enlistment is hereby requested as follows: That the state department of education and the state department of farm markets cooperate in the following form of organization and method of enlistment:

Chief recruiting general, state director farm markets, Harvey Allen, Boise, Idaho. Assistant recruiting general, director extension division, University of Idaho, O. E. Centers, Boise, Idaho. Chief county recruiting officers: county superintendents of schools of the several counties of Idaho; First sergeants, teachers of all schools and all schools who may have pupils of volunteer age or at the close of school; and in the absence of others, clerk of the board of trustees.

That the county superintendent of schools cooperate with city superintendent of schools in the selection of school teachers and setting up of the school on the eleventh day of May to be known as preparation day in every school. Preparation day shall be called in every school in the county on the eleventh day of May to be known as preparation day in every school. That the county superintendent of schools cooperate with city superintendent of schools in the selection of school teachers and setting up of the school on the eleventh day of May to be known as preparation day in every school.

That thereafter an efficient campaign for fittingly be carried on at every school to our standard pupils of designated age be enlisted in service at home or elsewhere in the army, in the line of the direction of this organization. Almost Every American Family Can Own a Maxwell Car

Because it costs only $6 to $8 a month to run a Maxwell—much less than the average American family spends on luxuries

The average American family spends a great deal more than $6 or $8 a month on amusements and luxuries, most of which mean nothing—wouldn't be missed. If you owned a Maxwell, you'd want to be out in it as much as possible. It automatically would cut out more than enough of the cost of other pastimes to cover the cost of running your Maxwell. And besides, you'd be living better, healthier, happier, in the great out of doors, and you'd take your place in the world as the owner of a motor car.

That's what the brains behind the Maxwell have done—given the world a car every man can own. An achievement! Isn't it? The Proof of These Statements There's no theory about these cost-of-operation figures. They're based on what thousands of Maxwell owners are actually doing—running their cars on an absolute outlay of only $6 to $8 a month. These enthusiastic Maxwell owners tell us, too, that they get upwards of 30 miles out of a gallon of gasoline—way better than that. The Maxwell holds the world's record for a non-motor-stop run. A Maxwell stock car made 22,022 miles in 48 days and nights—went 22 miles on every gallon of gasoline used on that long jaunt. We could tell of many other supreme tests of Maxwell power, endurance and economy. Magnificent deeds, never equaled by any other automobile. But we'll cite just one more: A woman drove this Maxwell 9,700 miles. Mrs. Miriam Seeley, Professor at the Oregon Agricultural College, made a 9,700-mile tour across the Continent and back in a Maxwell. Her total expense account was 1 1/2 cents a mile, including gasoline, oil and repairs.

And remember, for touring was made on all sorts of roads—good and bad—across the desert and over the mountains. That's the Maxwell! Isn't that the car for the man who knows the worth of a dollar? The World's Greatest Motor Car Value The Maxwell touring car, equipped with all accessories, costs you today only $865 f. o. b. Detroit. Yet every bit of metal in it is the finest obtainable for the purpose, used, and is rigidly subjected to the most advanced scientific tests. Material cost has risen tremendously. How, then, can the best be used in a car priced so low? The answer is— the purchasing power of an institution as vast as the Maxwell Motor Company. —the most efficient machinery, —the brainiest and most skillful mechanics, vigilant and scrupulous technical and executive supervision, —and the development of one model, of time-tried and proved design, to near perfection as brains and skill can make it. The Maxwell engine is a marvel of power and punch—simple, steady, durable and flexible. Maxwell parts are all of known efficiency—not an experimental item in the whole car.

Maxwell—A Car to be Proud of With refinement of finish, with grace and dignity of form and line, your Maxwell will show up splendidly alongside any car. It is roomy and comfortable too. Let the Car Speak for Itself Come to our sales rooms and look the Maxwell over, —inspect the car thoroughly, inside and out, —ask us as many questions as you care to, —you needn't take anything on faith; for every statement made here can be verified. The Maxwell will make good, and we know it.

The Bank Where You Feel at Home in behalf of the suffering Jews of the war zone.

Anyone who is not asked may call on E. L. MacVicar and give him a check for such amount as he may think proper.

S. Straus and Max Pink of this city will each add ten per cent to the total amount previously subscribed.

The following letter, indicating the need of the funds which are now being collected:

Dear Mr. Straus:

I wish to sound for you the most terrible cry, the most urgent call for aid that Jewish ears have heard in three thousand years!

I wish to have you hear the final call before death of a whole Jewish people, about to die!

I cannot possibly paint for you this terrible picture. And yet, in this letter I must ask your help and try to get you to see the tragedy of death in which unknown thousands of your brethren are dying.

Today in Poland, in Galicia, in Lithuania, in Russia, in Palestine and in Turkey, whole families are driven back and forth and back again by invading armies, are homeless, are dying from hunger and exposure. Old men are dying, mothers are wandering homeless with babies in their arms, thousands, yes thousands of little suffering children, whose feet and arms and little faces are swollen, no, not from disease, but, Oh, God, from awful hunger! Their parents—how many only three meals, three little meals, such as your children eat, would reduce the swelling and take away this awful, lumpy suffering, and help these mothers and fathers stand and watch the tragedy, looking to God and America alone—looking help to you!

In the blackest tragedy of our race, I ask your aid. You may have already given. We all have given. We must give again.

We have not yet sent enough to keep them all alive. Even doling out but barely steeped in warm water to our brethren, we have actually given enough for all. And daily, from the long lines, hundreds are actually turned away to starve with their families through another day, because there is no more, because, even of this poor food, you and I do not send enough.

And I do not promise that we may even save these people—if the war is to last. But we can at least prove ourselves Jews, prove ourselves their brothers and postpone the end. We need not yet let them die.

I say we. But the duty is ours individually. We cannot send enough. And for every Jew who does not meet this call, meet it quickly and generously, someone of our brethren dies! No one can give you, share. But the duty is individually yours.

Will you not join me in this effort to save the lives of the Jews now in such imminent danger?

Yours truly,
HENRY MORGENTHAU,
Chairman campaign committee.
We earnestly second Mr. Morgenthau's appeal:
Jacob H. Schiff
Nathan Straus

NEW MEN LOOM IN THE MAJOR LEAGUES

Youngsters Coupling to the Front—Old-Timers Retiring to the Rear—Five Clubs Have Now Shortstops.

(United Press)

NEW YORK, May 1—There are few clubs right now in the two major leagues who are not fighting some youngster, his first year out, in some position as a regular. The old-timers, seemingly, are taking the count collectively. There are no less than five clubs who have had new shortstops performing regularly, and there is a horde of new regulars in the other positions.

Two Reds have thrown new ones, all regulars. Cuto, an outfielder, and Shean and Kopf are debuts in the charmed circle of major leaguehood and they're getting away with it. Shean is a veteran as a ball player, but he has taken a veteran's place now in the majors. Kopf has seen major league duty, but never as a regular until his home shop for the Reds.

Cuto is a youthful Cuban who knows how to hang the ball and play the outfield.

History is the new White Sox shortstop. Fabrice has taken over the same burden for the Dodgers, Chuck Ward in the same fix with the Pirates, and Workman is a sensation in the shortstop for the Cubs. The Phillies and Braves have placed newcomers on the bench to wait developments. Both are shortstops. McLaughlin is a young man named further at Chicago and reports give him plenty of praise. And even with this array of minor

IN THE GEM STATE

The annual convention of the Idaho State Sunday School association will be held at Parma on May 7, 8 and 9.

The Idaho public utility commission is preparing to file a vigorous protest against the proposed blanket advance in freight rates.

Dr. George Collister has grubbed out most of the well-known Colliery-fruit orchards, and is preparing to replace them with corn and grain fields.

Idaho banks were prompt to subscribe for war loan certificates, the banks in every section of the state asking for liberal subscriptions.

The Oregon short-line is now being guarded from the Wyoming state line to the Oregon state line, and from the Utah state line to the Montana state line by Idaho troops.

The sheriff of Blaine county and the sheriff of Owyhee county will be asked by the governor to place guards over the state's property on the King Hill irrigation project.

In the city election at St. Anthony, Francis M. Snel, president of the First National bank, defeated James Smith, who was nominated for mayor by a majority of 227 votes.

It will be possible to irrigate 285,000 acres of land on the two government irrigation projects in Idaho this year; last year the total irrigated, and cultivated, was only 185,000 acres.

The state banks of Idaho are in a better condition at this season of the year than ever before, according to reports filed with the state bank commissioner following his call to the banks last week.

The early closing of the schools of the state, to permit the children to assist in planting and harvesting crops, is recommended by the governor in a letter written to Dr. E. O. Blossom, state commissioner of education.

The police department of Boise has discovered a new line of intoxicants. Two alleged culprits were arrested last week.

Bohls of East Idaho bitter and from the other two bottles of hot tonic. The citizens' league, pledged to secure a pure water system for Twin Falls, at approximately one-half the cost of the plan drawn by L. C. Koletz, was elected by an overwhelming majority over an active though scattered opposition.

In order to afford more ready relief to farmers of Idaho who need funds for the purchase of seeds and machinery for the planting of spring crops, the state land board has decided to deposit additional funds in various state banks.

Miss Z. Fay Fowler, state superintendent of boys' clubs, and W. T. Cull, superintendent of girls' clubs, are now at work in Blaine county, organizing the boys and girls in clubs for the purpose of carrying on gardening work this summer.

Merchants of Star are running an automobile service to and from the Boise river bridge to meet customers from the south during the time the bridge is out of commission because of the recent collapse of one of the trestle spans.

Adolph Sued, 38 years old, well-to-do rancher and stockman of Lewis, died of a heart ailment at St. Anthony, committed suicide at his home April 24. He went to the stable immediately after breakfast and sent a bullet from a 32-caliber rifle through his head, dying within an hour.

Plans and specifications for a number of seminaries that can be built in rural districts at a cost ranging from $800 to $2000, are contained in the April number of the Idaho Bulletin of Education, a pamphlet issued quarterly under the direction of the state board of education.

In one of the most hotly contested village elections ever held in Soda Springs the citizens' progressive ticket was elected, with H. D. Whitman, T. H. Horsley, Paul E. P. Lau and C. A. Laithan as members of the town board. Tipton received the largest number of votes on the ticket.

A hundred and fifty people of Ten Mile assembled one night last week in honor of Lenox of the engineering corps, and Francis Fountain of the service department of the militia.

Field glasses and flowers were given to each of the honored guests. The high school students of Tipton, believing that the children of America should take a larger part in the relief of the Belgian children, have called off all social activities for the remainder of the year in order that the amount of money for such activities could go to the Belgian Children's Relief fund.

Declaration that the Germans are invincible and inevitable. This feat and terror may fill some minds a while longer, but it is reasonably well explained in the minds of more analytical observers of the course of this war.

One of the worst things that can happen is the tearing cost of a great nation or a cause. The habit is upon us and every one will try to mark up what he has to sell, laying all the blame on the war.

It says the New York World: Occasionally it is possible for our two esteemed ex-presidents to agree about something, and both of them happen to be in the fullest accord in holding that President Wilson's address to congress is a great state paper.

CONSERVE HEALTH FOR THE BREWER'S BLEND

SECRETARY OF STATE BOARD OF HEALTH GIVES OUT INTERVIEW

HOLDS THAT IT IS DUTY TO CONSERVE HEALTH. Says That Cause of Disease and Weakness Comes From Lack of Precaution by the People in Regard to Proper Living.

BOISE - That an essentially feature of an intelligent conservation campaign should be the conservation of health is the statement of Dr. E. T. Brewer, secretary of the state board of health in an interview given to the public this evening.

During this period of active endeavor along the lines of preparedness for war, the health of the nation, much has been said nationally as well as locally of the conservation and production of foodstuffs of all kinds.

It is in all this laudable activity now being urged and encouraged, that the most essential factor to be considered, namely, the health of the men who are to go forth and face the enemy, and who must be in the best of health to attain the highest degree of efficiency.

Fortunately the men in the fighting units are certain to be favored by the maintenance of the best medical supervision and the supervision of the highly trained medical division of our army and navy.

Now, it must be obvious to the most casual observer that these factors of efficiency because of physical lack is not to be taken at all as a sign of national degeneracy.

Unquestionable the man in the ranks or on the firing line will be vastly more efficient, if his mind is at ease regarding those near and dear to him in home, but in the mental state of a fighter in the ranks who knows that an epidemic of typhoid has developed in his home community.

These are some of the many reasons why the public should co-operate intelligently with the public health authorities in the reduction of contagious diseases at a minimum or even in eradicating them entirely.

Right living is not arduous - it does not entail any hardship nor require the giving up of any of the normal pleasures of life. It means only the exercise of a reasonable amount of care to observe the fundamental laws of hygiene, both personal and general.

ROTARIANS VISIT TWIN FALLS SUNDAY

Returning On Trip From Boise - Visited the Beauty Spots and Expressed Admiration.

Thirty-five Salt Lake City Rotarians "swinging around the circle" on their way home from Boise where they installed a Rotary club, dropped into Twin Falls Sunday on the noon train and spent the afternoon taking in the sights of the city and surrounding country as the guests of the Twin Falls Commercial club and business men of the city.

A number of automobiles met the crowd, after luncheon at the Hotel Sagapon, and drove with them, by way of the Great Shoshone falls to the northside, returning by way of Blue Lakes. On their return the Rotarians were entertained at the club rooms until the train went east.

The following Salt Lake City business men were in the party: R. Allen Aronson & Co., Charles Francis Adams, vice president and treasurer Gardner & Adams Co., retail clothing.

John M. Thayer, mining; John C. Jones, branch manager of Westinghouse Electric & Manufacturing company; Bert M. Chamberlain, cashier Walker Bros., bankers.

KILBANE MAY WEAR TWO FISTIC CROWNS. Featherweight to Box The Lightweight Tonight - Leonard After Freddie Welch's Scalp.

NEW YORK, May 1 - Johnny Kilbane, featherweight champion, will get his chance tonight to annex another championship when he meets Freddie Welch in a scheduled ten round bout. The men are to weigh in at 135 pounds at 2 o'clock.

Kilbane has been trying for more than a year to get a match with Welch. It is confident he can defeat the Britisher. Billy Miske will meet Levinsky here.

tonight, in the fourth match the pair has staged. Henry Leonard's clean-cut victory over Ritchie Mitchell, alleged to have been the best fought in the west, entitles the New York scrapper to a real bout with Freddie Welch - not a ten round frost with the champion, such as has been cooked up and scheduled out to the fans several times, but a real twenty-round unit, in which the best man will win.

It's about time Welch was coming through and landing his title. It's about time he discontinued his parrot of the American dollar and give some one an opportunity to prove conclusively that he's better than the Englishman, and it's Leonard's turn.

In all the years that have passed since Welch's victorious sledge in London over Willie Ritchie, Welch has engaged in just one twenty-round encounter and he was careful to pick out Charlie White of Chicago as his opponent. Now they are about ready to send Welch out against White for another marathon engagement.

Welch is a wildkidd in a round engagement. He can move so fast and block so cleverly there isn't a chance of any lightweight getting close enough to slip over a finishing punch. He can move at top speed for the distance. Hence, there's no danger to his crown. In a longer bout he might tire a little. Certainly he could not swing "under" and the referee's decision if the referee knew what he was doing. It would be worth while to see some one make Welch fight.

PLANT ON RIGHT OF WAY IF NECESSARY. In a circular issued last week, H. V. Pitt, general manager of the Oregon Short line railroad urges the usual arguments for increased production ending with the following suggestion: "I would offer the following suggestions as indicating practical ways in which you may assist in this matter: first, by planting a garden on your own ground; if you have any other wide or railroad right-of-way where suitable or on vacant lots you might lease for the purpose; second, by urging your neighbors to plant gardens; and third, by taking up with your commercial clubs or other organizations and urging upon them the desirability of organizing within the limits of their community a concrete plan for carrying on this work. If the railroad company can be of assistance in providing help or giving advice, it will be pleased to do so to the fullest possible extent through its various repre-

THE KID HAS GONE TO THE COLORS

The kid has gone to the Colors
And we don't know what to say;
The kid we have loved and cuddled
Stepped out for the flag today.
We thought him a child, a baby,
With never a care at all;
But his country called him man size,
And the kid has heard the call.

He paused to watch the recruiting
Where, fired by the fife and drum,
To bow his head to Old Glory
And thought that it whispered:
"Come!
The kid not being a slacker,
Stood forth with patriot joy
To add his name to the roster—
And God, were proud of the boy!"

The kid has gone to the Colors;
It seems but a little while
Since he drolled a schoolboy army
In a truly marvellous style.
But now he's a man, a soldier,
And we lead him a listening ear.
For his heart is a heart all loyal,
Unscourged by the curse of fear.

His dad, when he told him, shuddered,
His mother—God bless her!—cried;
Yet she went with a mother pride,
But he whips old shoulders straightened.

Was granddad—for memory run—
To years when he, too, a youngster,
Was changed by the flag to a man!

ROBIN HOOD COMPANY STAGES "THE SERENADE"
"The Serenade" is the new musical opera, book by Harry B. Smith and music by Victor Herbert, will be presented at the Lavering theatre May 1. The production is under the general direction of Messrs. Walker and Stevens, who promise an elaborate production and point with pride to the fact that the company is the same one with several auditions which last year sang "Robin Hood" on tour. So successful were they with the production of the de Koven opera that it is still retained in the repertoire to be given on special occasion, but "The Serenade" will be the chief offering, and the one to be seen here. Last year the critics declared with unanimity that the company gathered together by this young firm of producers was one of the best from vocal standard ever assembled, and those who have heard them before will have not the slightest doubt that "The Serenade" will be most excellently rendered. The production is practically unchanged from last year and includes among its members, James Stevens, Ivy Scott, Cora Tracy, Herbert Young, William W. Brantley, Brainard, David Anderson, Edward Andrews and Tillie Sallinger. There will be a large chorus and an augmented orchestra.

The Star-Spangled Banner

(By Francis Scott Key)
September 14, 1814
H! say, can you see by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hail'd at the twilight's last gleaming,
Whose broad stripes and bright stars through the perilous fight
O'er the ramparts we watch'd, were so gallantly streaming?
And the rockets' red glare, and the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there!
Oh! say, does the star-spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

On the shore dimly seen through the mist of the deep,
Where the foe's haughty host in dread silence reposes,
What is that which the breeze doth terrifying sweep
As it fitsly flutters, half conceal'd, half disclosing?
Now it catches the gleam of the morning's first beam,
In full glory reflected, now shines in the stream:
'Tis the star-spangled banner! Oh! long may it wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave!

And where is that band who so valiantly swore,
'Mid the havoc of war and the battle's confusion,
A home and a country they'd leave us no more?
Their blood has wash'd out their four footstep's pollution;
No refuge could save the hireling and slave,
From the terror of flight, or the gloom of the grave.
And the star-spangled banner in triumph shall wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave.

Oh! thus be it ever, when freeman shall stand,
Between their loved home and war's desolation;
Blest with vict'ry and peace, may the Heaven-recover'd land
Praise the power that made and preserved us a nation,
Then conquer we must, when our cause is just,
—And this our martial song, in triumph shall wave,
And the star-spangled banner in triumph shall wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave.

America

(Samuel Francis Smith)
My country, 'tis of thee,
Sweet land of liberty,
Land where my fathers died,
Land of the Pilgrim's pride,
From every mountain side,
Let freedom ring.
My native country, thee,
Land of the noble free,
Thy name I love:
I love thy rocks and rills,
Thy woods and templed hills;
My heart with rapture thrills,
Like that above.

Let music swell the breeze,
And ring from all the trees,
Sweet freedom's song;
Let mortal tongues awake;
Let all that breathe articulate,
And rocks their silence break,
—The sound prolong.
Our fathers' God, to Thee,
Author of liberty,
To thee we sing;
Long may our land be bright
With freedom's holy light;
Protect us by Thy might,
Great God, our King.

Miss Shea is a student in Berkeley University, and will resume her studies in the fall. Monday Miss Shea walked out to Blue Lakes and has visited the Great Shoshone Falls, both of which she pronounces among the greatest wonders she has seen. Her voice has attracted the favorable comment of musical critics in this city, as well as from the less exacting, but none the less ap-

CROP CAMPAIGN IS BEGUN BY BOARD

Systematic Effort to Induce People to Give Involuntary Contribution to the Land for Food Production.

BOISE - The state land department opened a vigorous campaign this week to intensify crop production and stock raising on state agricultural and stock lands in every county in Idaho.

The campaign is in line with the pre-prepared program that is stirring the nation and the object is to bring about a marked increase of products and propaganda in line with the program.

Special display poster notices have been issued and will be placed all over the state by the agents of the department, deputy of the state fish and game department, representatives of the agricultural extension department, state farm market bureau, county assessors and agents of the railroads, and the banks.

In regard to available state lands for sale or lease may become more generally known many of such county agents will have the maps prepared. They show in yellow the vacant state lands available, where they are located. Each county assessor will have the maps together with proper form applications to be used by those desiring to secure the land for planting or grazing purposes this year.

The people in the various counties are better qualified to determine the state lands they can use in doing their bit towards increasing the crop production. When they ascertain the lands that are vacant they can immediately make application. This is the first time the land department has had the state lands in the various counties separately outlined so that everyone can find out just what lands can be secured.

Arrangements will be made with the motion picture houses over the state to throw on the canvas a duplication of the following poster that has been issued by the department calling attention to the necessity of making use of the state lands.

Feed the Hungry. Your country needs more food. Cultivate the vacant land in your vicinity. Where is it? Ask the assessor he has a map that has the state lands. Price for agriculture? Twenty-five cents per acre. Need an application? Ask the assessor. For details ask state land department, Boise, Idaho. You must do your bit and it's up to you. JAPANESE CRUISED TO BRING GUINNESS'S BODY (United Press) TOKYAMA, April 30 - The Japanese cruiser Arima is over to sail for San Francisco today, bearing the body of George W. Guthrie, who died recently while at his post as United States Ambassador at Tokyo. Mr. Guthrie plans to sail May 8 aboard the steamer Columbia.

Y. M. C. A. WILL BEGIN CAMPAIGN OF IDAHO SUNDAY

MOVEMENT - FOR MOBILIZATION FOR WAR RECEIVED IN LETTERS

WILL CARRY ON WORK IN CAMP THIS SUMMER

Many Authorities Both American and Foreign Quoted to Show That Society Has Reached Good Ground Here and Abroad.

Beginning next Sunday, the Y. M. C. A. of the state of Idaho will begin a campaign which will last until May 15. The immediate purpose of the move is to arouse interest and prepare for the mobilization of forces during the war.

The literature received bearing on the subject has been of an extensive nature. The Y. M. C. A. movement is making extensive preparations for carrying on its work among the million or more young men who are gathered in army mobilization camps within the next year.

This move has the endorsement of Governor M. Alexander. We want to keep people informed of this work through the columns of the newspaper through the state and would greatly appreciate your cooperation to the extent of publishing such articles as we will supply.

Out where the boys are fighting close to a hundred battle fronts, the Y. M. C. A. has been doing a work as notable in the world as that Lord James Bryce, former British ambassador to America, recently said in part:

"It has been and is today one of the most active and pervasive agencies to help young men form high ideals, as well as for directing them into the paths in which they can best serve their fellows in a true Christian spirit."

The opening of a Y. M. C. A. "hut" in a German prison camp made such an impression on Ambassador Gerdard who participated in the ceremonies that he wrote to the secretary of state, "No camp of inhumanity, value, hope, the American Red Cross will extend the work to the prison camps throughout the world."

The records of the war disclose that no front has been too remote but that some means of conveying equipment for association work would be found. No route has been too rough and no danger too great.

billies and dangero, could, and did, retire for prayer.

Not content with getting association "huts" to all the prison camps of more than 10,000 and to the men back of the barbed wire entanglements, the Y. M. C. A. has been reported in Canada, a work which received the highest approval of military officers.

A physical director in a Canadian city saw a number of recruits turned down for lack of chest expansion and power endurance. It was his opportunity. He took them in hand.

When Uncle Sam's national guardsmen were sent down to the Mexican border, association secretaries with equipment were on the ground almost as soon as they started. The Y. M. C. A. has also sought the camps eager to exploit the soldiers for their own purposes.

When the first discussion of the entrance of the United States into the war was made, the Y. M. C. A. sent out a call for special service to all Y. M. C. A. associations, saying that every new enlistment meant more work for the organization.

The Y. M. C. A. movement is making extensive preparations for carrying on its work among the million or more young men who are gathered in army mobilization camps within the next year.

This move has the endorsement of Governor M. Alexander. We want to keep people informed of this work through the columns of the newspaper through the state and would greatly appreciate your cooperation to the extent of publishing such articles as we will supply.

HERDER FALLS OFF EDGE OF RIM-ROCK

Thought He Saw Camp Light and Started For It - Was Only Slightly Injured by Accident.

While walking toward a light he thought to be his camp, a shepherd employed by D. F. Sweet, of Twin Falls, stepped off into the Balmor-ri-canyon from the rim rock west of Catterford last Friday evening at 9 o'clock, and he lay unconscious on a large sage brush, 5 feet below, until the next morning, when the Herd-ard-herder with his companion, who is a Spaniard, had rounded up the sheep, but had lost the way back to camp.

Seeing a light on the opposite side of the canyon, the men started toward it, and believed it to be a light from the camp. However, one of the men walking ahead of the other, stepped over the rimrock. The other herder found his way back to camp and a searching party composed of E. B. Rich and the Spaniard, spent most of the night trying to find the missing man. But the canyon wall is so steep that the men could not climb into the canyon in the dark.

They resumed their search at daylight, and found the herder had tumbled upon a large sage brush, but fell below, where he lay unconscious until nearly morning. He was uninjured, other than a few scratches and bruises, and had regained consciousness and breath a few.

SECOND CLUB LUNCH ENJOYS AN EYE OPENED

but that "the hay proposition is a bad one."

One of the most interesting features was the report of Mr. C. D. Thomas, chairman of the committee on town lots for cultivation—the same having been provided at the court house meeting. The subcommittee consisting of himself, Prob. J. M. Taylor and Miss Taylor, stenographer. It obtained names of over three hundred resident lot-owners and sent each a letter asking for "light" use of two hundred replies—only two declined, and many added "gladly!" One hundred twenty-five of these have been left to most of the afternoon, and more soldiers have enlisted from Fliter than from Boise! "He who gives most, loves most," he requested the aid of the club in the matter of sending line whether to take and use the vacant lots of outside owners not heard from, subject to sale, of course, and also noted the need of sending more soldiers otherwise, in some cases. He thought it sure that two hundred town lots would be farmed—no small addition to the needs of the hour.

At the conclusion of Mr. Thomas' remarks, which were heartily applauded—Mr. Finch turned the meeting over to the chairman of the club, who introduced Mr. F. J. Smith, of DeCATUR, Ill., a local property owner. Mr. Smith in conclusion offered the practical suggestion that traveling men be invited to club membership at a nominal fee.

After the election of Mr. L. R. Rieck-leridge as president officer for the coming year, the meeting closed. The suggestion that the sitting room be kept within the hour, adjournment was had—everyone feeling that it was good to have been there.

CHILL SAID TO HAVE MADE GERMAN PACT

(United Press)

BUENOS AIRES, May 1.—That Chill and Germany negotiated a secret treaty when Prince Henry of Prussia visited the first named country in 1913, is the charge made today in an article published by Jose Molina, considered the foremost authority on South American relations. He asserts that he has written the pact den-ounced Chill from expressing sympathy with the United States, and that according to the terms of the agreement, Germany promised to remove Chill from the eastern coast of South America.

Tried to Cross the Snake Above Falls - Didn't Succeed - The Rest of the Story Easy to Guess.

"Summers" in the Snake lies all that is left of the equine remains of a spirited steed that longed for the Kimberly meadows and that rallied nostalgia to cause his erring footsteps to draw him into the swirling river above the Great Shoshone Falls Sunday. The cover carried "rush" to the district, participated in chivalry by state officials whom he guided to the scene of his final, but nothing more was uncovered.

"COMMUNITY BUILDING"

In addition to having made the most notable record ever accomplished by any comparatively young Life Company (and the figures are available) it is widely known throughout the northwest that the Montana Life Insurance Company, of Helena, Montana, has become a part of the solid growth and fertile soil of that great commonwealth. The Montana Life now the southern Idaho proposes to do its full part in point of keeping Idaho money in Idaho—Twin Falls, Kimberly and Buhl communities respectively. Likewise, in having selected S. Henry Bolton, John Beck and Al Ring to represent this company in their respective communities the Montana Life Company have made no mistake.
