NO TIME FOR SITTING BY BY George A. De

A house was burning. All of the neighbors, except one, were trying to save the building. He sat on the fence. Someone suggested that he should help. "They don't need me," he replied. "The others are so blamed energetic and efficient that probably the fire will be put out without me turning a hand..."

AMERICANS DIED BRAVELY WHEN ANTILLES WENT DOWN

Gunners Waited Until Last Minute at Post-Storm on When Ship Was Sunk—Naval Officers Scout Serious Consequences of Attempts to Shell Cities From Submarines.

(I. N. S. Leonard Wiley)
A PORT IN FRANCE, Oct. 22.—Bravery and discipline on the part of the soldiers and sailors in the United States transport Antilles marked the first moments of the ship after she had been torpedoed at sea, last Wednesday by a German submarine.

Survivors from the last transport, who were lunched here by patrol ships, today told graphic stories of the attack.

The Antilles was struck just at dawn as she was wallowing through heavy seas on her voyage westward. The U-boat was not seen and the first the men on the transport knew of the accident was a terrific explosion towards the fore end of the ship which tore a great hole in the bow and sent a spray of water and wreckage spurting a hundred feet in the air.

As the men went to their places all remained perfectly cool but the ship settled so swiftly that some of them gathered in the stern had to leap into the water to save themselves from being sucked down by the sinking vessel.

The gunners calmly took their places at the guns peering intently in every direction from the deck of the rolling ship in hope of getting a shot at the submarine. All these gallant gunners perished.

Weather and water were bitter cold and some of the half clad men who had leaped from the stern and grasped pieces of wreckage upon becoming so chilled they could hold on no longer and were drowned. Others were picked up more dead than alive after floating for hours in the water.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—German naval activities which resulted in annihilation of several merchant vessels by British destroyers by German high speed commerce raiders and in the sinking of the transport Antilles during the last few days, directed renewed attention here in Washington today to widely spread rumors that the German naval aviation submarine and cruiser raiders in the near future on this side of the Atlantic.

Certain coast line steamship officials have been nervous over this possibility while some of the big coast cities are displaying trifling apprehension that they might be in danger if German submarines and cruiser raiders should manage to put to sea.

Navy officials today declined to discuss possibilities at this point. They insisted, however, that every possible precaution has been taken to cope with them if they arise. When the precautions are in not for civilians to know.

Officials were more concerned over the attacks by a German raiding squadron on a convoy merchant fleet off the coast of the Antilles. The latter was attacked in the early morning when the weather is very heavy and when a sharp lookout must have great difficulty in spotting "bromontic verapace" only a few inches above the surface of the water. But the merchant fleet was attacked far from German territorial waters and officials admit that it demonstrates once again the fact that the battle cruiser squadron of the Germans and their new high speed commerce raiders can act into the Atlantic at any time if the Germans were willing to make a counter demonstration by their battle fleet to cover up the dash.

Such a contingency may be ever present, naval officials said today and the fleet must be always prepared to meet it. Admiral Mayo's plan of course provides for such action.

TURKEY WANTS TO QUIT THE TEUTON CAUSE

FEARS SHE IS GETTING THE DOUBLE INSTEAD OF THE IRON CROSS

Hints Dropped of Desire to "Drop It"

Bulgaria Also Suspicious of the Good Faith of Kaiser Announces That Bulgarians and Americans Will Not Fight.

John Edwin Nevin.
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—The Turkish as well as Bulgaria has thrown out hints of willingness to accept separate peace "on favorable terms" with the entente was admitted in diplomatic circles today. Both nations now are suspicious that Germany and Austria Hungary hope to utilize them as pawns in a peace game that can be initiated. The result in both are believed here earnestly to be endeavoring to find a way to benefit themselves even though in doing so they abandon the war. Realization of these facts were the reasons for the recent visit of the Kaiser to the sultan and Bulgarian King.

In this connection it is reported in confidential advice reaching here that the Kaiser's visit did more harm than good especially by his attempt to cultivate the intimacy of the sultan. Both allied and neutral diplomats have received advices saying that in certain German states and in Scandinavia impression is growing that the Kaiser only consented to visiting Constantinople after it had been impressed upon him that the loyalty of the Turks to the Pan-German cause was distinctly under suspicion. His acceptance of Turkish hospitality in view of the Turkish attitude against Bulgarians has embittered many of his own people. It is stated in the confidential information here.

The Bulgarian situation likewise is filled with possibilities. For the first time since the United States entered the war the Bulgarian minister here, Stephen Panaroff, has broken silence. He has expressed the belief that there is not the slightest chance that the Americans and Bulgarians will meet in battle. At the same time he made public what diplomats here today declared was a most significant statement. He stated that Bulgarian nationalist party in which it said:

"We do not wish America to take our side but we desire that America should create in the Balkans a situation which will be in harmony with the principle of national unification, international justice and true democracy. "Conciling us this does on the very heels of "unipolar" Bulgarian declaration that they do not intend to would Bulgaria consider any end of the war that did not give her all occupied territory the change is considered most significant here. It marks the beginning of the end of the Balkan campaign.

City Spray May be Used in 1918

Professor Burrill Talks To Council About Mitter-Other Business Was Transacted.

At the request of the city council, Professor A. C. Burrill made a talk before the body Tuesday on a municipal water meter for the city.

The talk was made a favorable impression but the matter was laid over for future action.

Representatives of Keller Brothers and Sweet, Causey, Foster & company, submitted a proposition to give water works, city hall and paving bond electrical meter stations for three tenths of one per cent in case they failed to get bonds and charge nothing if awarded bonds.

It was learned in transferring the city water accounts from the old books to the new, that the municipality will be entitled to considerable increase in revenue by reason of the fact that there have been a number who have paid less water rent than provided. For instance, the ordinance provides, many do not know, that for each additional toilet in a residence the sum of twenty-five cents shall be charged. Some have installed such without realizing what the ordinance provides, so the revenue will increase shortly.

T. M. Nave, who understands plumbing, wanted to be put in the plumbing in his own residence, subject to inspection but the council found that an ordinance stood in a residence. To the extent of which, Nos. E, 2, 3, 4, 5, and 6, near the Hicket school, could go unpaired, though in the district, with consent of residents and contractor came up, and was decided in the negative.

An ordinance permitting autos to run and stand with front to curbing in payment district No. 2 was laid over, as it takes in part of town, which it was deemed necessary to run the cars parallel with the street. The boundaries of the district will probably be changed.

The matter of ordinance codification was discussed and it was to take the matter up as soon as City Attorney Davlos had gone over them and eliminated the superfluous.

French People Identify American Troops By Their "Bull" Durham Tags!

BASE OF AMERICAN TROOPS IN FRANCE, June 28.—[Delayed.]—The first contingent of the American expeditionary forces has disembarked in France.

Symbol of Identification.
One common symbol of service in both our army and navy has been accepted as distinctive by the French peasants. It is a little black and white paper tag that hangs by a piece of yellow string from the left-hand breast pocket of the service shirt or the navy jacket. This identifies the bearer as possessor of a sack of a well known tobacco brand and has been interpreted as uniform equipment.

This photograph of Private T. H. Grant of First Illinois Infantry shows how the Army carries the "Makings"—the familiar tag hanging from breast pocket.

BURLESON'S RULES FOR NEWSPAPERS

Postmaster General Burleson has laid down the law as to what newspapers may not do. They need not fear suppression, he says, unless they transgress the bounds of legitimate criticism of the president, the administration, the army, the navy or the conduct of the war. Mr. Burleson will decide the question of transgression.

"We shall take great care not to let criticism which is personally or politically offensive to the administration affect our action," he said. "But if newspapers go so far as to impugn the motives of the government and thus encourage insubordination, they will be dealt with severely."

"For instance, papers may not say that the government is controlled by Wall street or munition manufacturers, or any other special interests. Publications of any news calculated to stir the people to violate law would be considered enough for drastic action."

"We will not tolerate campaigns against conscription, enlistments, sale of securities or revenue collections. "We will not permit the publication or circulation of anything hampering the war's prosecution or attacking improperly our allies."

NO WHEAT FROM AUSTRALIA

Mr. Hoover told the delegation that went to Washington to represent the grain growers of the northwest that the food administration feared competition from wheat of Australia, Argentina and India, much of which, he said, could be laid down at San Francisco for 80 cents and $1 a bushel.

The delegation must have found it difficult to repress a broad smile at that.

Australian granaries are bulging with wheat and the western market is so great and shipping so scarce and high that Great Britain, much as she wants to trade with her own commonwealth, much as she wants that grain, has been unable to transport it across the wide seas.

It is 12,000 miles from Australia to England—24,000 miles for the return voyage—it is only 3,000 miles across the Atlantic—6,000 miles for the round voyage—three means—that four times as many ships would be needed to carry grain from Australia as from the United States.

Dollar wheat this year from Australia is a dream, and the farmers of the Pacific northwest will smile at Mr. Hoover's professed concern lest they suffer from that kind of competition. They would like to buy Australian grain at that figure and turn it into pork, poultry and dairy products.

It is hard to believe that Hoover was correctly quoted in this matter. It would seem as if wheat could be laid down for a dollar a bushel in San Francisco or Seattle that it would pay England to ship it to this country, pay the transportation across the continent, reload at New York and take it to Europe. If not, why not? If any large quantity of wheat can be handled at that figure, surely this plan would pay. That it has not been tried indicates that the quantity of dollar wheat that can be laid down in this country from the antipodes would not feed very many.

Speaking of wheat prices, a Kansas newspaper remarked last week that something over twenty years ago Jerry Simpson made what was then considered an extravagant speech in which he said that farmers should receive at least a dollar a bushel for wheat. The newspaper remarked that if Jerry were still on earth and tried to convince Kansas farmers that they ought to accept a dollar a bushel they would be mobbed if they were not too busy to attend to him.

Rupert Buried by T. F. Avalanche

One Hundred and Eighteen to Nothing Was Score—Goaling Next With Strong Team

The Twin Falls eleven won its third gridiron game of the season Friday, overwhining the district high school eleven by the score of 118 to 0. The Twin Falls team outwheeled, outplayed, and outclassed in all respects their opponents in spite of the irregular practice of the past week. The blue and white eleven showed some impressive moves in the final game, the line becoming somewhat off balance and defense and the backfield running better interference. Norman Barker, of Phil, officiated as referee.

Part of the high school band played for the Rupert game. The band is a most valuable aid in district high school games. With good team material, good band, and with the support and encouragement of the students and the public, the team goes to the goal toward the goal of a successful season. The presence of the business men at the Rupert game Friday was noticed and much appreciated by the eleven.

The same next Friday with Gooding is regarded by coaches and team as one of the hardest. The north side team has last year's veterans and has had regular practice for weeks. They play a 0-0 game early in the season with who and since then have defeated several teams. They played Idaho Tech at Pocatello, on Tech's field, a stubbornly contested game 12 to 6 in favor of Tech. Idaho Tech school is considered a school of the college grade. The Twin eleven will be up against a real team and is making ready for the fray.

LIQUOR IMPORTATION

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—(Special Wire) The Treasury department in a ruling late today interpreted the new law which permits importations of liquor to permit importations of liquor. The food bill prohibits their importation. When Assistant Secretary Rowe said the Treasury would hold the decision he hurriedly called a conference of the treasury officials and they are now discussing the matter. Assistant Secretary Rowe said the ruling would be temporarily withdrawn. It will probably go to Secretary McAdoo and the Attorney General before it is put into effect.

"FATTY" ARBUCKLE--AL ST. JOHN--AND A VAMPIRE IN THRILLING ADVENTURE

TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY--WALLACE REID IN "THE HOSTAGE" (First Night's Review)

"Fatty" Arbuckle was "vamped" at the Idaho theater Monday evening, to the vast delight of an immense audience. Whether "Oh! Doctor!"--the name his latest two-part comedy bears--is better or worse than some of his others, is beside the question. "Fatty" always seems to make a hit--he is always funny, even when there is nothing to laugh over. But in "Oh! Doctor!" there is plenty of fun, especially when the "vampire" and the crook (Al St. John) attempt to frisk the Arbuckle family. "Fatty" arrives at a Ford in scene number one with his family, and things keep moving until his wife leads him away by the ear in the last scene.

War Plot Holds Interest

Wallace Reid is a most likable hero and in "The Hostage" handles his part well. The plot deals with a war between some small countries. Wallace Reid, as the hostage in the play, is given a week in which to escape. His father advises him that he is about to commence an attack in violation of his word. When it comes time to escape, he has fallen in love with an enemy daughter and an interesting situation results. The supporting cast was excellent and the play is elaborately staged, with many tense moments.

The Vaudeville

The vaudeville includes two acts, one of which, singing and comedy act, is especially commendable. The act consists of songs and comedy, the girl of the team assisting the vocal end, and rendering her songs in a manner that was very acceptable. In the comedy act the other member of the team proved to be an entertainer of the first class. They are well worth seeing. The act is tastefully costumed. The entire program will be repeated today and Wednesday.

"Fatty" Arbuckle a Patriot

Hiscock "Fatty" Arbuckle is a patriot. There has never been any doubt about this, of course, but it has been forcibly brought home by "Fatty's" heavy comedian in his recent trip to a ship-stick comedy in order to accord with Mr. Herbert Hoover's campaign for the conservation of the nation's edibles.

No one knows better than Mr. Arbuckle what a good play, water melons, figs and vegetables and the like, mean to a ship-stick comedy. No one but a comedian could possibly

NEW LEADING WOMAN IN LATEST WALLACE REID PICTURE

Wallace Reid, the ever popular Lasky-Paramount star, may be seen tonight and Wednesday in his latest "Paramount picture," "The Hostage," a story which is especially for him by Beulah Marie Dix.

Wallace Reid, or "Wally," as he is better known by his thousands of admirers, has won, for himself an overhauling place in the hearts of the photo-dramatic patrons. A big, powerful, handsome, clean-cut young man with years of dramatic experience, without exaggerations or poses. He is given to the world the best example of straight forward young American manhood.

This production serves to introduce to Paramount patrons a new leading woman, Gertrude Abell. Miss Abell has for some time been a member of the Paramount organization and her splendid work in supporting roles has been well known. "American" led her to be chosen to play leading woman for Mr. Reid in "The Hostage."

It can be said that the picture is a masterpiece of the dramatic art. The people demand action and action they shall get--but I hope the results will not prove fatal. It will be a picture that will be remembered. It will be a picture that will be remembered.

IDAHO THEATRE

TWO BIG ACTS AT ORPHEUM TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY

A man and woman, present an act which they bill as "A Gypsy Camp", introducing singing and instrumental music in a new and original way. Opening the act with a number depicting a blind organ grinder and female helper who sings, they go into their own gypsy representing the city of Naples in the distance with the Bay and Mount Vesuvius prominently displayed. It is a most effective background for the gypsy camp, where a his clay pipes are blown. Given things with songs and ballads of Italy, sung in their mother tongue and also in English.

It is an act that you can't help but like. The Roulettes do an eccentric rolling globe act. They do all of their own thing in the globe, the main member of this act appearing as a clown-comedian and furnishes all the comedy of the act which keeps his audience in good humor with his funny remarks and antics.

The female member of the team is a beautiful and shapely personage and a clever one. She has many different tricks. The finish is a patriotic nature, introducing the flags of the allied nations. These two exceptional acts appear at the Orpheum Tuesday and Wednesday.

SAYS GERMAN APTITUDE STORIES ARE CORRECT

(I. N. S. Leased Wire)
LAWRENCE, Mass., Oct. 22--Invalid home with weak lungs and heart as the result of a poison gas attack by the Germans, Sergeant Harold Montross arrived here today, one of the 14 survivors of the original France Pat regiment.

"I was in the trenches two years and four months, going over the top in the battle of Verdun Hill, Courcellette and the second battle of Ypres," he said. "I was wounded in the last battle, but I managed to escape from the field for 48 hours, with dead corpses lying all around me."

"The stories of German atrocities are actually true," he says. "I have seen French children with their arms and feet cut off by the barbarous Huns--some of my own Canadian comrades were even crucified after their capture."

Hungry Austrians Uprising in Cities

Men, Women and Children Killed in Riots--Many German Deserters in Switzerland.

(I. N. S. Leased Wire)
WASHINGTON, Oct. 22--Uprisings because of shortage of food have taken place among the Italian population of many Austrian cities.

Official dispatches from Rome tell of rioting in Budapest, Vienna and Prague. In the latter city, 100 children were killed in the fighting.

Recruits of the 1917 class fired on women and children at an unnamed city. The dispatches contain quotations from an article published in the Italian newspaper Dagblid, which contains certain reports of uprisings among the crew of German submarines at the U boat base at Ostend. One submarine commander was thrown into the sea because the thirty of the nurses were arrested.

"The Bund," an Austrian newspaper says 12,000 German deserters have fled to Switzerland.

Brutality, to which the prisoners of war have been subjected by the Austrian military caste, now is being vented on Austrians by the military authorities cannot long be delayed.

Documents smuggled to Italy by a Swiss patriot and published in the newspaper Patria of Fribourg tell of atrocities to which Italian prisoners are being subjected. At the concentration camp at Kladno, an Austrian colonel of artillery named Sartori encountered an Italian prisoner named "Antonio" without reason the Austrians ordered the Italian and killed the prisoner instantly.

Another prisoner, urged by hunger, stole a turnip from a field. He was detected and the play is elaborately staged, with many tense moments.

After their capture Italian prisoners were now taken to concentration camps in Central Austria and then sent back to the front to work in the Austro-Slovene mountains. As well as the Italian deserters, Victor Emmanuel's men in their charges against the Austrian work.

Husting's Death Shocks President

Chief Executive Sends Condolence to Parents of the Dead Wisconsin Senator.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22--"I grieve with you all my heart," said President Wilson in a telegram to the parents of Senator Paul O. Hustung, who died yesterday of a heart ailment. The senator had served in the senate for 12 years and had been a member of the senate for 12 years.

Senator La Follette this afternoon issued this statement:

"The state of Wisconsin and the country will be greatly shocked to learn of the tragic death of Senator Hustung."

In a brief service in the senate he not only paid his brotherly sympathy but he had improved his colleagues and the country with his industry, his courage and devotion to his convictions at any cost for sacrifice to himself.

"He was better known in Wisconsin, where for years he was the leader of his party in the senate, than in any other part of the country. He was a constructive legislator elected him to the United States senate."

"He was a serious student of public and private life and a most efficient servant. My sense of personal loss is deep and abiding."

Twin Falls Gets Praise From Brady

Junior Senator Says It Gave Four Times as Much to Red Cross as Washington.

That Twin Falls county gave four times as much per capita in the Red Cross drive as the City of Washington and that this fact was freely discussed in the capital city was among the things that United States Senator James H. Brady told the banquet at Pocatello-Friday night, when they met at the Yellowstone hotel to honor the Red Cross representative from Southern and Southeastern Idaho who met there during the afternoon. Senator Brady spoke warmly of the work of Idaho in general and of Twin Falls in particular.

Mrs. E. J. Ostrander, first vice president, and Mrs. E. L. Macviver, secretary, attended the meeting.

During the afternoon a considerable delegation of Red Cross representatives from various chapters of this section met at the rooms of the Commercial club for the purpose of going over organization plans as outlined by F. P. Folsie, director of civilian relief, and C. D. Stinson, manager of the northwestern division of Red Cross work.

The speakers were introduced by Dr. John Hallowell Dickinson, who met them at the recent Portland conference, and the two speakers proved most interesting and entertaining talkers and they gave a great insight to the work of civilian relief and the best methods to be followed out by local organizations.

The session was held here for the benefit of a dinner for the needy chapters of the Red Cross and the joint conference saved considerable time and the workers were well advised as to the work to be done.

Dr. Minnie Howard, president of the Pocatello chapter of the organization presided for the Red Cross.

Meats Stinson of Pocatello promised to visit Twin Falls in the near future.
